

TAYLOR ATWOOD

MANAGING DIRECTOR

DALLAS

quick facts

- 16+ years of experience
- Expertise in operational and balance sheet restructurings
- Specializes in strategic alternative and contingency assessment

Taylor Atwood is a Managing Director with Alvarez & Marsal Restructuring & Turnaround in Dallas.

With more than 16 years of experience, Mr. Atwood focuses on the evaluation and implementation of operational and balance sheet restructurings, strategic alternative and contingency assessment, constituent negotiations, liquidity forecasting and analysis of complex debt and equity recapitalizations.

Mr. Atwood's notable restructuring advisory clients have included Juul Labs, Chesapeake Energy, Dean Foods, SandRidge Energy and Energy Future Holdings Corp., including Luminant and TXU Energy Subsidiaries, for which his team won the 2017 Turnaround Management Association's "Transaction of the Year: Mega Company" award.

Additionally, Mr. Atwood has served in various financial advisory roles to distressed companies in the aerospace, oil and gas exploration and production, oilfield equipment manufacturing, utilities, power and transportation industries, including Incora, NRG REMA, Enduro Resources, EXCO Resources, AFGlobal, Magnum Hunter Resources, Palm Harbor Homes and Coach America.

Prior to joining A&M, Mr. Atwood served as Analyst with Goldman, Sachs & Co. Specialty Lending Group, where he completed multi-tranche credit and non-control equity investments. Previously, he served as Analyst with the Wachovia Securities M&A Group in Charlotte, where he participated in all phases of merger, acquisition and divestiture assignments.

Mr. Atwood earned a bachelor's degree in financial management and investment from the Sam M. Walton College of Business at the University of Arkansas. He is a member of the Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Advisors, Turnaround Management Association and American Bankruptcy Institute.