ZURICH

quick facts

- 15+ years of experience with financial advisory and dispute resolution
- Expert in damage assessments and accounting evidence
- Works in arbitration, litigation, and regulatory proceedings

Julia Heidelberg is a Senior Director with Alvarez & Marsal Disputes and Investigations in Zurich. She brings over 15 years of experience in financial advisory and forensic accounting.

Ms. Heidelberg's primary areas of concentration are valuations arising from post-M&A and shareholder disputes, expert determinations, and damages arising from commercial disputes. She has worked with clients in various industries, including manufacturing, hotels and leisure, financial services, pharma, and private equity.

Notably, Ms. Heidelberg provided expert evidence in a U.K. High Court litigation related to the valuation of companies in the context of a restructuring. She prepared, authored, and co-authored quantum expert opinions on behalf of claimants and defendants/respondents for the purposes of arbitration, litigation, and out-of-court settlement.

Ms. Heidelberg has also been involved with regulatory investigations involving Swiss and foreign oversight bodies, including the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, U.S. Department of Justice, Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, and the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority. She has assisted investors, boards, and C-suite clients in conducting special audits and investigations into financial statement manipulation, misuse of corporate assets, fraud, regulatory non-compliance, and related topics across Europe, the U.S., Asia, and Australia.

Prior to joining A&M, Ms. Heidelberg spent more than six years in Deloitte's Financial Advisory and Audit teams in Zurich, most recently serving as a Director. Previously, she worked with EY in Zurich and London.

Ms. Heidelberg earned a bachelor's degree in finance (honors). She is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW), the European Association of Certified Valuers and Analysts (EACVA), and the Swiss Arbitration Association (ASA). A German national and Swiss resident, Ms. Heidelberg is fluent in German and English.
