The Alvarez & Marsal (A&M) Alumni Network hosted an enjoyable sushi-making class in Munich, Germany on Thursday, May 25, 2023, creating an opportunity for former colleagues and A&M employees to reunite and reconnect. The event provided an opportunity to reminisce about fond memories, honor individual achievements and enjoy the enduring camaraderie that characterizes our alumni community.

During the sushi-making class, participants immersed themselves in the art of crafting delectable sushi rolls, fostering an ambiance of shared delight and conviviality. The rhythmic sounds of culinary preparation and the enticing aroma of freshly prepared dishes contributed to an evening filled with collaborative spirit and mutual passion. The occasion highlighted the unwavering support and solidarity within our closely-knit network, emphasizing the value of genuine connections and lasting relationships among our alumni members.
