SENIOR HIRE BRINGS DECADES OF PRIVATE CAPITAL EXPERTISE TO A&M, BUILDING ON THE FIRM'S LONG TRACK RECORD IN THE MIDLANDS.

Birmingham, 27th March, 2025 – Alvarez & Marsal Tax (A&M Tax), an affiliate of global professional services firm Alvarez & Marsal (A&M), announces the appointment of Nathan Bunting as a Managing Director in its UK Private Capital team. With this senior hire A&M's Tax practice is expanding its offering to the Midlands, building on the firm's leadership in the region since 2018 and aligning with its recently established Corporate Finance team.

Mr. Bunting specialises in supporting privately owned companies, particularly private equity-owned portfolio companies and their management teams, along with owner-managed businesses. Working closely with Managing Director and UK Private Capital team lead Victoria Price, he advises clients across multiple sectors, including retail, consumer and leisure, manufacturing, life sciences, education, construction, technology, and transport and logistics.

Commenting on his decision to join A&M, Mr Bunting said, "A&M is known world-wide for its results-driven mindset, commitment to value creation and integrated platform. The firm's approach aligns with my focus of serving as an advisor clients can count on to help solve for their tax challenges. The firm's heritage of operational excellence combined with its freedom from audit conflicts, makes the Private Capital team uniquely poised to help clients in the region navigate complexities, mitigate risks and maximise opportunities."

Mr Bunting brings nearly two decades of experience in UK domestic and international tax. He joins A&M having spent five years at PwC, where he most recently led the tax private team in the East Midlands. Before that he spent over a decade with KPMG, where he led the Milton Keynes and Watford tax teams and advised companies of all ownership types across a range of sectors.

Marvin Rust, Managing Director of A&M Tax UK and Head of A&M Tax EMEA, commented: "The Midlands is home to a thriving entrepreneurial community. Having supported clients on turnaround and restructuring projects from A&M's Birmingham base for seven years, along with our 2024 establishment of a dedicated corporate finance team in the region, Nathan's joining provides the crowning touch for kicking off the build of our Midlands tax practice."

Ernesto "Ernie" Perez, Managing Director and Global Practice Leader of A&M Tax, added: "A&M Tax continues to build a premier advisory team worldwide. While we are focused on global expansion in key markets, Nathan's appointment represents our ongoing commitment to increase presence and capabilities with investments in our established, mature markets as well. Nathan strengthens our Private Capital team as we bring innovative, tailored solutions to market. We are delighted to have him onboard."
