Amod Khare is a Managing Director with Alvarez & Marsal Tax in Mumbai. His primary areas of focus are transfer pricing and international tax.

Mr. Khare brings over 30 years of experience in advising multinational clients on corporate tax, transfer pricing, and international tax matters. He has worked with clients across a range of industries, including technology, media, and entertainment, financial services, pharmaceuticals, and oil and gas.

Mr. Khare has advised clients on operating structures in India, global transfer pricing documentation in line with the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) principles, and transfer pricing documentation in India. He has also supported clients in resolving transfer pricing controversies, including appeals and advance pricing agreements. In addition, Mr. Khare has advised on cross-border restructuring transactions, analyzed the implications of various double tax avoidance agreements, and guided Indian startups in setting up and implementing global operating structures.

Prior to joining A&M, Mr. Khare spent nearly 20 years with Andersen and EY, and over eight years with BMR Advisors (a member firm of the Taxand network) advising clients on corporate tax, international tax, and transfer pricing. He has also contributed to leading Indian newspapers and publications, produced content for the OECD, and spoken at several industry conferences both in India and internationally.

Mr. Khare earned a bachelor's degree in commerce from the University of Mumbai and is a qualified Chartered Accountant with the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI).
