

CHRIS ARNETT

MANAGING DIRECTOR

DALLAS

quick facts

- 16+ years of restructuring experience
- Expert in bankruptcy planning and implementation, business plan assessment, strategic analysis, fair market valuations, and liquidation analysis

Christopher Arnett is a Managing Director with Alvarez & Marsal Restructuring & Turnaround in Dallas.

Mr. Arnett's primary areas of concentration are bankruptcy planning and implementation, business plan assessment, strategic analysis, fair market valuations, liquidation analysis, capital structure analysis, asset dispositions, plan formulation and negotiation of financial restructurings. He has worked with clients across various industries, including energy, building products, media, manufacturing, telecommunications, transportation and finance.

With more than 16 years of restructuring experience, Mr. Arnett's notable assignments include several lender-side engagements with Bank of America, Goldman Sachs, Credit Suisse, JP Morgan and Highland Capital Management, among others. His debtor clients have included: Trussway, a building products component manufacturer; Kurdziel Industries, a maker of industrial counterweights; Vitro America, a maker and distributor of flat glass products; and Coach America, a charter bus company.

Prior to joining A&M, he spent more than four years with Barrier Advisors in Dallas, where he most recently served as a Director focusing on creditor and debtor restructuring roles. He has also served in leadership positions at KPMG/Mesirow and Arthur Andersen.

Mr. Arnett earned a bachelor's degree from Colorado State University, an MBA (concentration in finance) from the University of Kansas School of Business, and a J.D. from the University of Kansas School of Law. A licensed attorney, he is a member of the Texas Bar Association, the Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Advisors and the Turnaround Management Association. He is also a Certified Insolvency and Restructuring Advisor (CIRA).