1. The Applicant, Cyxtera Technologies, Inc. - (a) recognizing and giving effect in Canada to the following third day orders (collectively, the "Third Day Orders") of the US Bankruptcy Court pursuant to Part IV of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the "CCAA"), each as defined in the Affidavit of Eric Koza #3 sworn July, 27 2023 ("Koza Affidavit #3"):

The grounds for this application are:

2. CTI is a US corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of Delaware with its main office in Coral Gables, Florida and its registered office in Wilmington, Delaware. CTI is the ultimate parent corporation of a group of companies operating under the tradename “Cyxtera” that are incorporated in the US, Canada, United Kingdom, Germany, Australia, Japan, the Netherlands, Hong Kong, Singapore and the Cayman Islands and certain of which are debtors in the Chapter 11 Proceedings (CTI, together with the Debtors and their affiliates being collectively referred to as “Cyxtera” or the “Cyxtera Group”).

3. Cyxtera LLC is a US limited liability corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of Delaware with its registered office in Wilmington Delaware, whose sole activity is to hold all of the shares in the capital of Communications ULC.

4. Communications ULC is an Alberta unlimited liability corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of Alberta. Communications ULC’s registered office is in Calgary, Alberta and it is extra-provincially registered and carries on business in British Columbia, Ontario and Québec, where its data centers are located.

5. TRS ULC is an Alberta unlimited liability corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of Alberta and with its registered office in Calgary, Alberta. Although TRS ULC does not have operations, it is extra-provincially registered in British Columbia, Ontario and Québec. Communications ULC is the sole shareholder of TRS ULC.

6. Cyxtera is a leading global data center provider of: (i) retail colocation—the practice of renting space and power to customers to deploy their technology infrastructure including servers, storage, and security devices in an extremely resilient and highly connected environment; (ii) interconnection services—the practice of connecting information technology equipment to a customer’s network service providers; and (iii) digital exchange services—the practice of offering customers additional resources including the ability to rent Cyxtera-owned servers or the ability to access partner-delivered products and software to help customers holistically manage their hybrid technology systems. Cyxtera offers this advanced suite of services to more than 2,000 customers worldwide. Founded in 2017 and headquartered in Coral Gables, Florida, Cyxtera employs a global workforce of over 600 employees worldwide and operates more than sixty data centers in over thirty markets around the world, including the US, Canada, London, Amsterdam, Singapore, Tokyo, and Germany.

7. On June 4, 2023 (the “Petition Date”), sixteen (16) Cyxtera entities, including CTI, the Debtors and other affiliates (collectively the “Chapter 11 Debtors”), filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the US Bankruptcy Code in the US Bankruptcy Court, commencing the Chapter 11 Cases, whereupon an automatic stay of proceedings against the Chapter 11 Debtors came into effect under the Bankruptcy Code. The Chapter 11 Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors-in-possession within the Chapter 11 Cases.

8. Contemporaneously with filing the petitions commencing the Chapter 11 Cases, the Chapter 11 Debtors filed first day motions therein (“First Day Motions”), which were heard on June 6, 2023 (the “First Day Hearing”), where they sought and obtained certain procedural and substantive orders from the US Bankruptcy Court (collectively the “First Day Orders”). Some of the First Day Orders could be obtained in final form at or shortly after the First Day Hearing (“First Day Final Orders”), while others could only be obtained as interim orders (the “First Day Interim Orders”). The First Day Interim Orders could become final orders on or before subsequent scheduled hearings before the US Bankruptcy Court, including through the Chapter 11 Debtors filing certificates of no objection prior to the hearings.

9. At the First Day Hearing on June 6, 2023, the US Bankruptcy Court granted the First Day Interim Orders, which included an interim cash management order, interim DIP financing order and interim share transfer order.

10. Pursuant to an originating application to this Honourable Court by the Foreign Representative on behalf of the Debtors under Part IV of the CCAA (the proceedings commenced thereby being the “Recognition Proceedings”), this Honourable Court on June 7, 2023 granted, inter alia, a Supplemental Order – Foreign Main Proceeding, recognizing the aforementioned interim cash management order, interim DIP financing order and interim share transfer order, among other First Day Interim Orders, and granting a super-priority charge over the assets of the Debtors in Canada in favour of the debtor-in-possession lenders to the Chapter 11 Debtors.

11. On or before July 12, 2023, the US Bankruptcy Court granted certain second day orders, including a bidding procedures order, a second interim cash management order and certain final orders which were previously First Day Interim Orders (“Second Day Orders”) following the Chapter 11 Debtors filing of certificates of no objection for these orders.

12. On July 12, 2023, this Honourable Court granted a recognition order recognizing the Second Day Orders.

Recognition of the Third Day Orders is Appropriate

13. On or around July 19, 2023, the US Bankruptcy Court granted the Third Day Orders on certificates of no objection filed by the Chapter 11 Debtors.

14. Section 49 of the CCAA grants this Honourable Court broad discretion to make any order that it considers appropriate in the Recognition Proceedings if it is satisfied that the order is necessary for the protection of a debtor company’s property or the interests of its creditors.

15. The recognition of the Third Day Orders in Canada is necessary for the protection of the Debtors' property and the interests of the Debtors' creditors, and furthers the policies contemplated by section 44 of the CCAA, namely:

- a) cooperation between this Honourable Court and the US Bankruptcy Court,
- b) the fair and efficient administration of the Chapter 11 Cases and these Recognition Proceedings to protect the interests of creditors, other interested persons and the Debtors,
- c) protecting and maximizing the value of the Debtors' properties, and
- d) to enhance the prospects of rescuing the financially troubled business of the Chapter 11 Debtors.

16. Accordingly, CTI requests that the Third Day Orders be recognized and given effect in Canada by this Honourable Court pursuant to section 49 of the CCAA.

Professional Fees and Disbursements

17. The account of Gowling WLG as Canadian counsel for the Foreign Representative and Debtors, as attached to the Koza Affidavit #3, reflects the work performed by Gowling, and the account is accurate, fair and reasonable.

18. The accounts of the Information Officer and McMillan reflect the work performed by them respectively, and their accounts are accurate, fair and reasonable.
