LEASE

THIS LEASE (the "Lease") dated as of the 11th day of November, 2015, by and between The Outlet Collection of Winnipeg Inc. and Seasons Retail Corp., having a designated office at 95 Wellington Street West, Suite 300, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M5J 2R2 (collectively, "Landlord") and Hudson's Bay Company, having its principal office at 401 Bay Street, Suite 500, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M5H 2Y4 ("Tenant"). The obligations and liabilities of each party comprising the Landlord hereunder are joint and several.

W I T N E S S E T H:

1. Landlord is the registered owner of certain lands, together with the improvements located or to be constructed thereon, in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, which lands are more particularly described in Exhibit A (hereinafter the "Lands") and the Lands and all improvements located or which are contemplated to be constructed thereon are situated as shown in broken red outline on Exhibit B.

2. Ivanhoe Cambridge II Inc., Harvard Developments Inc., and Forster Investments Inc. are the beneficial owners of the Lands, and Ivanhoe Cambridge Inc. is the duly authorized agent for and on behalf of Landlord and said beneficial owners and has the authority to enter into this Lease on their behalf.

3. The Lands and all improvements located or to be located thereon will be operated by Landlord as a shopping centre under the name "Outlet Collection at Winnipeg" (the "Shopping Centre"), which Shopping Centre, when completed, will be not less than 385,000 square feet of rentable area.

4. Landlord and the Shopping Centre have the benefit of certain rights, easements and rights of way to use and enjoy certain lands, services and facilities in the nature of Common Area which adjoin the Shopping Centre (such lands, services and facilities as more particularly described in Exhibit A-1 and shown for illustrative purposes in BLUE on the site plan attached to Exhibit A-2, collectively, the "ROA Lands") pursuant and subject to a Reciprocal Operating Agreement dated October 15, 2014 between Landlord and Seasons Retail Corp., notice of which is registered on title to the Lands and the ROA Lands (the "ROA" and the aforesaid rights, easements and rights of way over the ROA Lands as set out in the ROA, being the "ROA Rights").

5. The parties desire that certain premises in the Shopping Centre be leased by Landlord to Tenant as hereinafter more particularly provided.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein set forth and of good, lawful and valuable considerations moving to and received by each of the parties to be bound hereby, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties do hereby agree as follows:

GRANT OF DEMISED PREMISES

Landlord does hereby demise and lease to Tenant and Tenant does hereby lease and take from Landlord, upon the terms, covenants and agreements and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth, all those certain premises hereinafter mentioned and described and referred to herein as the "Demised Premises", to wit:

(i) that certain space known as Unit A shown outlined in RED on Exhibit B, which space contains approximately 32,191 square feet of rentable area;

(ii) the entrances to and exits from such space to and from the Common Area (as defined below), as such entrances and exits are shown on Exhibit B; and

(iii) all leasehold improvements now or hereafter located therein and thereon, including, without limitation, the Improvements (as such term is defined in Section 30.4 of this Lease) that are acquired with or funded by the Tenant Improvement Allowance (as defined in Section 30.3).

The Landlord hereby grants to the Tenant, for the duration of the Term, an exclusive licence to use the loading dock, unloading and compactor areas which serve such space as shown shaded in GREEN on Exhibit B (the "Licensed Area"). For certainty, the Tenant's obligations as to maintenance, repair and replacement of the Demised Premises as set out in this Lease shall equally apply in respect of the Licensed Area.

The Demised Premises are leased to Tenant together with all rights, privileges, benefits, rights of way and easements now or hereafter appurtenant or belonging thereto, whether arising under this Lease or any private or public grant or authority, including, without limitation, the direct right of ingress to and egress from the Demised Premises through the entrances and exits shown on Exhibit B.

Landlord does further hereby grant to Tenant and its employees, agents, customers, licensees and invitees a non-exclusive right and privilege to use, in common with others, those parts of the Shopping Centre (herein referred to as "Common Area") which constitute all areas, services and facilities not installed or intended for the exclusive use or benefit of any individual tenant, including without limitation, (i) all non-leasable service and administrative areas (including, without limitation, administrative offices, janitorial rooms and storage rooms not reserved to any tenant exclusively), (ii) all parking areas, parking decks, roadways, sidewalks, landscaped areas, and all roofs, floor slabs, exterior walls and exterior and interior structural portions of any open or enclosed malls or other common means of access to leasable premises (excluding any structural mezzanines within any leasable premises), public lavatories, common loading areas and truck courts, driveways, music and public address systems, electrical, plumbing and drainage, fire protection, fire detection, heating, ventilation and/or air-conditioning systems or equipment servicing the Shopping Centre and/or more than one tenant, (iii) mall decorative installations, (iv) customer and service stairways, (v) mall directories and directional signs and information booths, (vi) elevators, escalators and all other areas, services and facilities which Landlord provides or designates from time to time to be part of the Common Area, and (vii) the areas comprising roadways, sidewalks, parking areas and ingress and egress, which are the subject of the ROA Rights, on and subject to the terms of the ROA. Such use to be for the intended uses and purposes of the Common Area and the improvements therein and thereon, including, without limitation, ingress and egress and parking and passage and such other things as are authorized, permitted or required under the terms of this Lease. For the sake of greater certainty, the parties hereto hereby acknowledge and agree that the sprinkler room that provides sprinkler service throughout the Demised Premises forms part of the Common Area of the Shopping Centre and is the sole responsibility of Landlord to maintain as more particularly provided in Section 12.1 hereof.

The dimensions, shape and location of the Demised Premises as described herein are approximate and it is agreed and understood by Tenant that, upon the completion of construction of the Demised Premises, Landlord, at its sole cost, shall have the actual number of square feet of rentable area within the Demised Premises measured and certified by an architect licensed to do business in the Province of Manitoba. No later than thirty (30) days following the Landlord Delivery Date (as that term is hereinafter defined) Landlord shall provide the Tenant with written notice of the number of square feet of rentable area for the Demised Premises and providing a copy of the said architect's certification thereof and supporting plans and calculations (the "Measurement Notice"), and the number of square feet of rentable area for the Demised Premises stated above in this Article 1 shall be adjusted as may be required (subject to Tenant's right of confirmation, below). Such measurement shall be made utilizing standard BOMA computation methods for retail premises and a copy of Landlord's architect's plans and calculations for such measurement shall be included with the Measurement Notice.

Tenant may, at its option, at its sole cost and expense and within thirty (30) days after the later of (i) the date Tenant receives the Measurement Notice and (ii) the date that Landlord delivers actual and exclusive possession of the Demised Premises to Tenant as described in Article 2 below, cause the Demised Premises to be measured by an architect retained by Tenant for such purpose. Tenant shall submit its architect's measurement to Landlord. In the event of a discrepancy which cannot be resolved by agreement of the parties, Landlord may cause its architect to re-measure the Demised Premises for purposes of verifying the measurement by Tenant's architect. If, after Landlord has had the opportunity to re-measure the Demised Premises, the parties are unable to reach agreement as to the number of square feet of rentable area within the Demised Premises, Landlord's and Tenant's architect shall appoint an independent third-party architect to measure the Demised Premises. The measurement by such third-party architect shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant, and shall replace the number of square feet of rentable area for the Demised Premises for all purposes of this Lease. The fees for such third-party architect shall be shared equally by the parties. The fees of each party's architect shall be paid by the respective parties.

DELIVERY

Section 2.1 Delivery

Landlord shall satisfy the Opening Conditions (as defined in Section 8.1 below) and deliver actual and exclusive possession of the Demised Premises (in the condition described herein) to Tenant on December 16, 2016 (subject to the provisions of this Section 2.1). Landlord shall deliver actual and exclusive possession of the Demised Premises to Tenant (i) free and clear of all tenancies, occupancies, restrictions, liens, encumbrances, reservations or other defects of title or claims of other parties except for the title exceptions listed in Exhibit C (the "Permitted Exceptions"), which Permitted Exceptions Landlord represents, warrants, and covenants do not and shall not involve or result in any interference with or impairment of Tenant's use, occupancy, and enjoyment of the Demised Premises or with Tenant's other rights hereunder, (ii) in a broom clean condition with all furniture, trade fixtures, merchandise and other items of personal property removed and (iii) with Landlord having completed, which Landlord hereby agrees to do, Landlord's Work (as defined below). In addition to the foregoing, on or before the date that Landlord shall deliver actual and exclusive possession of the Demises Premises to Tenant, Landlord shall also provide to Tenant the following (collectively, the "Additional Requirements"):

(i) a Phase I Environmental or other applicable report(s) in respect of the Lands upon which the Demised Premises and the remainder of the Shopping Centre are located that confirms there is no contamination and/or hazardous materials in excess of concentrations which are permissible under applicable Requirements (as hereinafter defined);

(ii) an updated title report;

(iii) all inspection and consultant reports on the Demised Premises and the remainder of the Shopping Centre, if any, in Landlord's possession or otherwise under Landlord's control;

(iv) all existing survey(s) with respect to the Lands which are now in the possession or control of Landlord;

(v) non-disturbance agreement(s) as described in Section 16.2 of this Lease for any existing Mortgage(s) on title to the Shopping Centre, provided, however, such non-disturbance agreement(s) shall be delivered to Tenant no later than the date set forth in Section 16.2 hereof;

(vi) any and all approvals from third parties or confirmation from Landlord that it has obtained same, including, without limitation, any and all governmental approvals for the construction and operation of the Demised Premises and the remainder of the Shopping Centre, including, without limitation, any approvals necessary for signage (excluding in each case such permits and approvals in respect of or related to the Tenant's Work); and

(vii) payment of the first instalment of the Tenant Improvement Allowance as described in Section 30.3 of this Lease.

Landlord further warrants and represents to Tenant that, as of the date of execution hereof, there are no Mortgages registered on title to the Shopping Centre except for those set out in the Permitted Exceptions.

The last date upon which Landlord (a) satisfies the Opening Conditions, (b) satisfies the Additional Requirements and (c) delivers actual and exclusive possession of the Demised Premises to Tenant in the condition set forth herein and the same are accepted by Tenant shall be the "Landlord Delivery Date". Tenant's acceptance of the Demised Premises shall be without waiver of the aforesaid requirements. In the event that the Landlord Delivery Date has not occurred by the date set forth above for any reason other than a delay occasioned by Force Majeure (as that term is hereinafter defined), Tenant shall receive, without waiver of its other rights and remedies against Landlord as a result of such delay, a rent credit in the amount of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) for each day of delay ("Delivery Credit"). In the event that the Landlord Delivery Date does not occur by December 16, 2016 (the "Scheduled Delivery Date") due to a delay occasioned by Force Majeure, the date upon which the aforementioned rent credit shall commence to be payable to Tenant hereunder shall be extended beyond the Scheduled Delivery Date by the same number of days that Landlord's failure to deliver actual and exclusive possession of the Demised Premises to Tenant in accordance with the foregoing conditions can be attributed exclusively to the intervention of such occasion of Force Majeure (and to no other cause). As noted in Article 21 of this Lease, Landlord shall notify Tenant of the occurrence or potential occurrence of any occasion of Force Majeure that might delay the Landlord Delivery Date beyond the Scheduled Delivery Date immediately upon Landlord becoming aware thereof, and Landlord shall thereupon and thereafter keep Tenant fully advised of the anticipated duration and consequences of such Force Majeure.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that Landlord, acting reasonably and in good faith, determines that the Landlord Delivery Date cannot coincide with the Scheduled Delivery Date, and Landlord provides Tenant, on or before May 31, 2016, with notice of such anticipated delay and the date upon which the Landlord expects the conditions required to determine the Landlord Delivery Date can be duly satisfied, which date shall be no later than April 30, 2017 (the "Second Scheduled Delivery Date"), then, the Scheduled Delivery Date shall be delayed to the said Second Scheduled Delivery Date and the aforementioned Delivery Credit shall only apply in the event that the Landlord Delivery Date does not occur by the Second Scheduled Delivery Date (save and except if due to a delay occasioned by Force Majeure in which event the Second Scheduled Delivery Date shall be extended accordingly), and all other applicable dates in this Lease shall also be adjusted and extended accordingly.

In the event that the Landlord Delivery Date does not occur by April 30, 2017 (the "Sunset Delivery Date"), Tenant shall have the right, without waiver of its other rights and remedies against Landlord, to terminate this Lease by notice of termination given to Landlord by May 16, 2017 (failing which this termination right shall be of no further force or effect). If this Lease shall be terminated pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2.1, neither party shall have any further obligation to the other, except that Landlord shall pay to Tenant within ten (10) days of such termination as liquidated damages an amount equal to the Delivery Credit accrued through such termination date. The parties acknowledge and agree that the damages sustained by Tenant would be difficult or impossible to determine and Landlord and Tenant have agreed upon such liquidated amount as payment for such damages and not as a penalty.

Section 2.2 Entry Prior to Delivery

Tenant shall have the right at any time after September 16, 2016 to enter upon the Demised Premises for the purpose of having an inspection of the Demised Premises performed by Tenant's engineers.

Section 2.3 [Intentionally Deleted]

Section 2.4 Physical Condition

Landlord represents, warrants and covenants to Tenant that, to Landlord's best knowledge as of the date hereof, (i) no material, substance, chemical or waste which possesses or may possess hazardous or toxic characteristics has been generated, used, stored, leaked, discharged, released or is present in, on, under, above or from the Lands in excess of concentrations which are permissible under applicable Requirements (as hereinafter defined); and (ii) all materials, data and information relating to or affecting the Demised Premises which Landlord has provided or shall provide to Tenant are true, accurate and complete copies of the originals. Landlord shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tenant from and against all claims, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), losses, damages, injuries and liabilities arising from any breach of these representations and warranties.

TERM; RENT COMMENCEMENT DATE; EXTENSIONS

Section 3.1 Initial Term

The initial term of this Lease ("Initial Term") shall commence on the date of execution of this Lease by both parties hereto and shall expire at 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, of the last day of the month in which the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Rent Commencement Date (as defined below) occurs, except where the Rent Commencement Date occurs on the first (1st) day of a month, in which event the Initial Term shall end on the last day of the month preceding the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Rent Commencement Date.

Section 3.2 Rent Commencement Date

Rent (as defined below) shall commence on the earlier of the following (in either event, the "Rent Commencement Date"):

(i) that date which is one hundred thirty-nine days (139) days after the Landlord Delivery Date (the "Outside Date") except that:

(a) if the Outside Date occurs on or between November 1 of any calendar year and February 28 of the following calendar year, then the Outside Date shall be extended to March 1;

(b) if the Outside Date occurs on or between the date that Easter occurs in any calendar year and the date that is thirty (30) days prior to Easter in such calendar year, then Outside Date shall be extended to two (2) weeks after Easter of such calendar year; and

(ii) the date on which Tenant opens the Demised Premises to the public for business.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in no event shall the Rent Commencement Date occur prior to the date on which Landlord satisfies the Opening Conditions all as set forth in this Lease. In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, if Tenant cannot obtain a temporary certificate of occupancy (or its applicable equivalent in the jurisdiction in which the Demised Premises are located) because of any required Landlord's Work or work under Landlord's control, including, without limitation, work anywhere else in the Shopping Centre which Landlord has the right to cause to be corrected under existing leases, reciprocal easement agreements or other agreements (other than Tenant's Work), Landlord shall perform or cause such work to be performed and both the Outside Date and the Rent Commencement Date shall be postponed on a day-for-day basis.

After the Rent Commencement Date shall have been determined, Tenant and Landlord shall execute and deliver duplicate originals of an agreement, substantially in the form of Exhibit G attached hereto and made a part hereof, setting forth the rentable area of the Demised Premises, the Rent Commencement Date, the date of expiration of the Initial Term and the commencement and expiration dates of any extended periods; provided, however, that the failure of either party to execute and deliver such agreement shall not affect the occurrence of the Rent Commencement Date or the date of expiration of the Initial Term.

Section 3.3 Extensions of Term

Tenant shall have the right and option to extend the Term of this Lease for five (5) consecutive extended terms of five (5) years each unless and until this Lease shall be sooner terminated pursuant to the terms of this Lease, provided that, in each instance, Tenant (or its then current successor or assign under this Lease) is occupying and carrying on business in and from the Demised Premises at the time Tenant exercises such right and option to extend. Each extended term shall commence immediately upon the expiration of the prior term and shall end at 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the commencement of such extended term (which date shall be the last day of the applicable month).

Tenant may exercise its option for an extended term by giving notice to Landlord of Tenant's intention to extend at least three hundred sixty-five (365) days prior to the expiration of the then existing term.

In order to prevent the inadvertent failure of Tenant to exercise any of the options set forth above within the time limits prescribed, this Lease shall not expire unless and until Landlord notifies Tenant (the "Landlord Renewal Notice") that Tenant has not exercised its option to extend and that Tenant's option to extend shall expire thirty (30) days after Tenant's receipt of such notice unless Tenant gives notice to Landlord that Tenant elects to extend prior to the expiration of such thirty (30) day period. In the event Tenant does not elect to exercise its option to extend prior to the expiration of said thirty (30) day period, Tenant's option to extend shall expire. If Landlord fails to so notify Tenant prior to the expiration of the Term of this Lease and Tenant shall remain in possession of the Demised Premises after the expiration of the Term of this Lease, such holding over shall not be deemed to extend the Term of this Lease or renew this Lease, but the tenancy thereafter shall continue upon the covenants and conditions herein set forth at the monthly rental in effect during the last month of the Term of this Lease until terminated by Tenant by notice to Landlord designating the date of termination, which notice shall be given ninety (90) or more days prior to the date designated by Tenant for termination, or such earlier date as the Lease is terminated by reason of Tenant not exercising its option to extend within ninety (90) days after Tenant's receipt of the Landlord Renewal Notice. If Landlord finally gives Tenant the Landlord Renewal Notice following the expiration of the Term of this Lease and Tenant exercises its option to extend, then the effective date of such exercise shall be retroactive to the expiration of the Initial Term, the first extended term, the second extended term, the third extended term or the fourth extended term, as the case may be.

During the extended terms all of the terms and conditions of this Lease shall remain in full force and effect except as the expiration date and the Rent shall change by the exercise of any option.

The word "Term", as used in this Lease, shall mean, unless the context shall denote otherwise, the Initial Term and any and all extended terms of this Lease.

Section 3.4 Option to Extend to January 31

If the Term of this Lease expires on a date other than January 31 of a calendar year, and if Tenant either has no further options to extend the Term or Tenant has elected not to extend the Term, then Tenant shall have the right to extend the final Lease Year of the Term until the following January 31st. Tenant may exercise its option to extend such final Lease Year until January 31st by giving notice to Landlord of Tenant's intention to extend at least one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to expiration of the Term of this Lease.

Section 3.5 Termination by Reason of Gross Sales

Anything in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, and provided Tenant is not otherwise in default beyond any applicable cure period, Tenant shall have the option ("Tenant's Termination Right") to terminate this Lease upon sixty (60) days' written notice to Landlord (as hereinafter more particularly provided) setting forth the effective date of termination , which date shall be set no later than ninety (90) days following the date the notice is delivered to Landlord hereunder ("Termination Notice"), if at the end of the third (3rd) Percentage Rent Lease Year (as defined in Section 4.1) and/or at the end of the seventh (7th) Percentage Rent Lease Year, Gross Sales (as hereinafter defined) for such Percentage Rent Lease Year equal less than One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) per square foot of the rentable area of the Demised Premises, as certified by an officer of Tenant (the "Sales Threshold"). In the event that Tenant fails to exercise the Tenant's Termination Right pursuant to this Section 3.5 within sixty (60) days after the end of such third or seventh Percentage Rent Lease Year, the Tenant's Termination Right for the applicable Percentage Rent Lease Year shall be deemed waived and of no further force or effect. In the event that Tenant elects to terminate the Lease pursuant to this Section 3.5 then the following shall apply:

(a) Tenant shall provide Landlord with a certification from an officer of Tenant that Gross Sales for the third (3rd) or seventh (7th) Percentage Rent Lease Year, as the case may be, did not exceed the Sales Threshold;

(b) this Lease shall terminate upon expiration of the period stipulated in the Termination Notice, (the "Termination Date") and Tenant shall deliver vacant possession of the Demised Premises to Landlord by the Termination Date in accordance with all applicable provisions in this Lease and without compensation of any kind from Landlord;

(c) Tenant shall be responsible for the payment of all Rent and charges owing under the terms of this Lease up to and including the Termination Date; and

(d) neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other after the Termination Date, except for Tenant's obligations under Subsection (b) above, and except for any default under this Lease by either party occurring on or before the Termination Date.

Section 4.1 Rent

Subject to the terms and provisions hereof and in consideration of Landlord's representations, warranties and covenants herein, Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord, from and after the Rent Commencement Date, as rent (the "Rent") for the Demised Premises, at the place and in the manner set forth herein for notices, an amount equal to 3.5% of Gross Sales (as hereinafter defined) made from the Demised Premises during each Percentage Rent Lease Year (as hereinafter defined).

Rent shall be payable monthly in arrears within twenty (20) days following the end of each calendar month commencing with the month after the month in which Tenant opens the Demised Premises to the public for business. Along with the monthly payment of Rent, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement, which need not be certified, of the Gross Sales derived from the Demised Premises for the prior month, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied. Within sixty (60) says after the end of each Percentage Rent Lease Year, other than the first Percentage Rent Lease Year, and within sixty (60) days after the end of the calculating period with respect to the first full Percentage Rent Lease Year, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement certified by an officer of Tenant showing the Gross Sales derived from the Demised Premises during such Percentage Rent Lease Year and the amounts, if any, of Rent required to be paid by Tenant or credited to Tenant for any overpayment or underpayment of Rent for the Percentage Rent Lease Year, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied..

For purposes of calculating Rent under this Lease, the term "Percentage Rent Lease Year" as used in this Lease refers to the period from February 1 to the following January 31 of each year during the term of this Lease, provided that, if the Rent Commencement Date does not occur on February 1, then the first Percentage Rent Lease Year shall be for a period of less than twelve (12) consecutive months, commencing on the Rent Commencement Date and expiring on the following January 31, and further provided that any period of less than twelve (12) full calendar months occurring from and after February 1 at the expiry or earlier termination of the term shall be deemed to be a Percentage Rent Lease Year. The computation of Rent shall be made separately with regard to each Percentage Rent Lease Year or partial Percentage Rent Lease Year, as the case may be, it being understood and agreed that Gross Sales per any Percentage Rent Lease Year and Rent due thereon shall have no bearing on Gross Sales of any other Percentage Rent Lease Year.

Full true and accurate records from which Gross Sales in any Percentage Rent Lease Year may be readily and correctly determined will be kept by Tenant, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the requirement to retain all sources of primary sales records (that is, cash register tapes, pre-numbered sales tickets, daily sales reports, etc.) and otherwise in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles until at least the fifth (5th) anniversary of the end of such Percentage Rent Lease Year. Landlord or any Person designated by Landlord will have access to such records at any and all times during business hours for the purpose of examining and reviewing all the accounting records and procedures adopted by Tenant for the purpose of recording and control of all transactions affecting the determination of Gross Sales. For the sake of greater clarification, the parties hereto acknowledge that, in the event Landlord determines that Tenant has failed to report Gross Sales in accordance with its obligations contained herein, such failure shall constitute a default under this Lease and Landlord shall have the right to exercise its remedies in the event of Tenant default under Section 19.1 of this Lease. Landlord will not disclose any confidential information so obtained except to the extent that disclosure is reasonable in the conduct of Landlord's business which includes, without limitation, the sale or financing of all or any part of the Shopping Centre.

Landlord shall be entitled to characterize the Rent, and to allocate the payment thereof to costs, expenses, taxes etc. incurred by or for which Landlord is responsible, in each case as Landlord may determine in its sole discretion.

Section 4.2 Gross Sales

The term "Gross Sales" as used in this Lease means the actual sale price of all goods, wares and merchandise sold in, upon or from any part of the Demised Premises, including actual receipts from services rendered by Tenant as well as the total actual sales and services rendered by any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Demised Premises, including, without limitation, such sales, income, receipts, revenues and services which Tenant, any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Demised Premises (collectively, "Other Occupants") in the normal and customary course of business would credit or attribute to its business upon the Demised Premises or any part or parts thereof, provided, however, that the term "Gross Sales" shall not be deemed to mean and there shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" amounts representing: (i) amounts credited by Tenant or Other Occupants for returned or defective merchandise; (ii) amount of discount on sales to bona fide employees of Tenant and bona fide employees of any affiliates of Tenant; (iii) allowances granted to customers for damaged or defective merchandise; (iv) trade and other discounts; (v) GST (as hereinafter defined) and all other sales, excise and similar taxes levied upon sales made at the Demised Premises; (vi) workroom charges for alterations, repairs or installation of merchandise sold, or similar services rendered in connection with merchandise sold; (vii) charges for services rendered primarily to accommodate customers or employees; (viii) charges for making deliveries, shipments or transfers of merchandise in the regular course of business; (ix) carrying charges on time sales; (x) fees and charges paid by Tenant or Other Occupants to issuers of third party credit cards; (xi) charges for inter-store transfers of merchandise; (xii) sales of merchandise in bulk to non-retail customers; and (xiii) the proceeds of sales of trade fixtures, operating equipment or other property used by Tenant or Other Occupants in the operation of its business and not acquired by it for the purpose of sale.

Sales shall be deemed to have been made when merchandise has been shipped or delivered, and services shall be deemed to have been rendered when completed, or when such sales or services, as the case may be, have been charged against the purchaser or customer on the books of Tenant or Other Occupants, whichever of such events shall be the first to occur. Transactions shall be included whether for cash or on credit and whether the amount thereof is collected or uncollected. The phrase "sold in, upon or from any part of the Demised Premises" as used herein to modify "Gross Sales" shall include such sales as shall be in good faith credited by Tenant or Other Occupant in the regular course of its business to personnel employed at the time of sale in, at or in connection with the retail store to be operated by Tenant or Other Occupant in the Demised Premises but shall in no event include any sales that are transacted by Tenant or any Other Occupant in the Demised Premises as part of an independent electronic business conducted by Tenant or any Other Occupant in the Demised Premises by way of any internet or other electronic communications that are not being sold in the regular course of business in the Demised Premises, even if the merchandise sold pursuant to such transactions is delivered to customers at or from the Demised Premises. Subject to the foregoing, the said phrase shall include transactions conducted by mail or telephone, and other orders received at the Demised Premises, even though filled elsewhere, provided the particular items ordered are ones which are at the time being sold in the regular course of business in the Demised Premises. Said phrase shall not include, in any event, sales transacted by mail or telephone or other orders received at a place other than the Demised Premises even though the same may be filled from stocks at the Demised Premises, unless recorded on the books of the Demised Premises as a sale for the Demises Premises. Tenant makes no representation or warranty as to the Gross Sales, if any, which it expects to derive from the Demised Premises.

TAXES

Section 5.1 Landlord's Obligation re Real Estate Taxes

Landlord shall pay before the date due any and all real estate taxes and assessments (general and special, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen, and including, without limitation, applicable local improvement taxes) (collectively "Real Estate Taxes") levied, assessed or otherwise imposed upon the Demised Premises and/or the remainder of the Shopping Centre throughout the Term. Tenant shall have no obligation to contribute to the payment of Real Estate Taxes as such Real Estate Taxes are intentionally included in the Rent provided for herein.

Section 5.2 Other Taxes

(a) For the sake of greater certainty, the parties hereto hereby acknowledge and agree that nothing contained in this Lease shall require Tenant to pay any franchise, corporate, estate inheritance, succession, capital or transfer levy or tax of Landlord, or any taxes on Landlord's income, profits or revenue.

(b) Tenant shall be responsible for paying such business taxes (if any) as may be imposed at any time during the term by municipal or other government authorities having jurisdiction exclusively in respect of the business and activities carried on by Tenant and its assignees, subtenants and concessionaires in or from the Demised Premises,

UTILITIES

Landlord shall cause to be provided and sub-metered all utility services necessary for the conduct of the Tenant's business in the Demised Premises. Tenant shall pay for its consumption of all utilities to Landlord based on a bona fide estimated charge for all utilities established by Landlord for each lease year, which estimated charge shall be payable in equal monthly installments simultaneously with the Tenant's payments of Rent. The Landlord shall deliver to the Tenant within a reasonable period of time after the end of each lease year a written statement setting out the amounts estimated in advance and if such amount actually paid by the Tenant to the Landlord during such lease year differs from the actual charges based on the actual consumption of utilities by the Tenant determined on the basis of the sub-meter readings, the Tenant shall pay such difference or the Landlord shall credit the Tenant's account (as the case may be), without interest within 30 days after the date of delivery of such statement. If any utility services are provided by Landlord the charges payable therefor by Tenant shall not exceed Landlord's cost therefor. Landlord shall submit to Tenant copies of all utility bills documenting the utility charges purchased from Landlord together with the statement showing in detail the method of calculating that portion of the utility charges billed to Tenant.

Any charges for utilities consumed in the Demised Premises applicable to any period prior to the date actual and exclusive possession of the Demised Premises is delivered to Tenant shall be paid by Landlord and subsequent to that date and until termination of this Lease shall be paid by Tenant.

If Landlord shall be notified by any party that utility services will be interrupted, Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant of such fact so that Tenant may (but need not) provide alternate utility services.

ARTICLE 7
MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR

Section 7.1 Tenant's Obligation

Subject to Landlord's obligations set forth in Articles 2 and 29 and Section 7.2, Tenant shall, at its own cost and expense (except as otherwise provided herein), keep the interior of the Demised Premises and all heating, ventilation and air conditioning equipment exclusively serving the Demised Premises (the "HVAC") in good order, and condition and repair, ordinary wear and tear excepted, and make all necessary non-structural interior repairs to the Demised Premises and all plate glass and glass entrance doors serving the Demised Premises, but in no event shall Tenant be required by this Section 7.1 to make any repairs or replacements that are necessary as a result of damage or destruction by structural fault or failure of the building of which the Demised Premises are a part or by Landlord's negligence or default, which repairs or replacements shall be the responsibility of Landlord to perform, at its cost.

In the event one or more of the HVAC units serving the Demised Premises requires replacement (or any major component of such unit(s) requires replacement), Tenant shall promptly contract for said replacement at Landlord's cost and expense. If Landlord does not promptly pay for such replacement and Tenant pays for same, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the cost and expenses thereof (including without limitation the cost of the labour) within thirty (30) days of written demand therefor, provided however, that Tenant shall then be responsible for paying the HVAC Rent Adjustment as provided herein once Landlord has reimbursed Tenant. Provided Landlord has paid for same (or reimbursed Tenant for same as provided herein), Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for each HVAC unit (or major component) replaced in the amount of a "HVAC Rent Adjustment" (as hereinafter defined).

Commencing on the tenth day of the month immediately following the later of (i) the month in which the HVAC unit (or major component) is replaced and (ii) the month in which Landlord pays for (or reimburses Tenant for, as the case may be) the costs thereof, Tenant shall pay to Landlord (at the same time and place as Rent is payable) an "HVAC Rent Adjustment" which shall be an amount equal to the actual, out-of-pocket, third party costs (provided such costs shall not exceed the prevailing market rate for same) incurred by Landlord in connection with replacement of the HVAC unit (or major component), amortized on a straight line basis over ten (10) years. Such sum shall be payable for the remainder of the Term of the Lease (including extensions or renewals) until the first to occur of (i) the termination date of the Lease, or (ii) the last day of the one hundred ninetieth (119th) month immediately following the first payment of the HVAC Rent Adjustment. As an example of the foregoing, assume that the total replacement costs for one (1) HVAC unit equals $7,500.00. $7,500.00 shall be amortized on a straight line basis over ten (10) years. Therefore, the HVAC Rent Adjustment shall equal $62.50 per month and if the Lease terminates earlier than the end of such one hundred ninetieth (119th) month, Tenant shall not be liable to Landlord for any remaining amounts (and the HVAC Rent Adjustment due for any partial month at the end of the Term shall be prorated).

Section 7.2 Landlord's Obligation

Landlord shall, at its own cost and expense, keep in good order, condition and repair, and make all necessary replacements to (i) the exterior and structure of the Demised Premises and all foundations, exterior walls, downspouts, gutters, roof, canopies, utility services extending to the building service connections of the Demised Premises, (ii) all plumbing, sewage facilities, electrical equipment and sprinkler equipment and facilities located within or serving the Demised Premises and (iii) all other portions, improvements and elements of the Demised Premises which Tenant is not required to maintain pursuant to Section 7.1, but in no event shall Landlord be required by this Section 7.2 to make any repairs or replacements which are necessary as a result of Tenant's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

USE

Section 8.1 Tenant's Opening Covenant

Subject to the following conditions (the "Opening Conditions"):

(i) Landlord's completion of all the Landlord's Work and all on-site and off-site improvements in a timely fashion in order to deliver to Tenant actual and exclusive possession of the Demised Premises as described in Article 2, and

(ii) Landlord not being in default of any of the terms and/or provisions of this Lease.

Tenant will build out the Demised Premises from the delivery condition described in Exhibit F herein and open the Demised Premises for business with the public not later than the Outside Date (subject to Force Majeure) for at least one (1) day staffed, stocked and fixtured as an off-price retail store for the use described in Article 8.2 below consistent with its other off-price retail stores in Canada operating under the trade name "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th", "Off 5th-Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the off-price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada that were previously operated as a Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth. Thereafter, Tenant shall have no obligation to operate the Demised Premises.

Tenant further covenants that, upon opening the Demised Premises for business with the public, the interior décor and fixturing of the Demised Premises will be generally consistent with the décor and fixturing of the off-price retail store operating under the trade name "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth" located in Costa Mesa-South Coast Plaza, California.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it will not open, and is prohibited from opening, all or any part of the Demised Premises to the public prior to the Grand Opening Date (as hereinafter defined) without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent may be arbitrarily withheld. "Grand Opening Date" means the date designated by Landlord for the common or general opening to the public for business of the Shopping Centre in which the Demised Premises are located. The Grand Opening Date is May 3, 2017 unless Landlord advises otherwise in accordance with this provision. Landlord reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to extend the Grand Opening Date up to a date that is no later than October 31, 2017 provided that Landlord delivers notice thereof to Tenant no later than October 15, 2016 (it being acknowledged that the Grand Opening Date shall also be subject to extension due to an event of Force Majeure). For certainly, in the event the Grand Opening Date is extended, the Outside Date shall be extended accordingly on a day for day basis.

Section 8.2 Tenant's Use Generally

Tenant shall have the right to use and occupy, if at all, the Demised Premises or any portion or portions thereof, for the operation of an off-price retail store selling better quality apparel, accessories, shoes, handbags, jewellery and other better quality merchandise as is typically sold from time to time in Tenant's similar off-price retail stores in Canada operating under the name Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th", "Off 5th-Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" (or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the other similar off-price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada) and in other similar off-price retail stores selling better quality merchandise currently operating in North America, such as, by way of example only and without limitation, those off-price retail stores operating under the names "Nordstrom Rack", "Holt

Renfrew's HR2", and "Nieman Marcus Last Call".

Landlord hereby warrants and represents to Tenant that, as of the date signing hereof, Landlord has granted the restrictive covenants and/or exclusive rights of use set out in Exhibit C-1 hereto to or in favour certain other tenants of the Shopping Centre or in favor of other third parties as referenced in said Exhibit C-1 (the "Restricted Uses"). For greater certainty, Tenant hereby acknowledges and agrees that, if and for so long as each of the Restricted Uses granted by Landlord to the respective persons (including their respective successors and assigns) remains unamended and in full legal force and effect, Tenant shall not use the Demised Premises or permit the Demised Premises to be used for the operation of any business or the sale of any merchandise or services that would cause Landlord to be in default of any such Restricted Uses.

No provision of this Lease imposes (i) any obligation on Tenant to operate a business in or make any sales from the Demised Premises (except to the limited extent as may be provided in Section 8.1) or (ii) any radius or other operating restrictions on Tenant; and no operation, business, sale or other activity of Tenant outside of the Shopping Centre shall entitle Landlord to any rent or other compensation. Subject to the provisions in this Lease (including but not limited to the provisions governing Tenant's use of the Demised Premises in the preceding paragraph), the hours of business, the number and types of departments to be operated, the particular contents, wares and merchandise to be offered for sale in, and the services to be rendered, the methods and extent of merchandising and storage thereof and the manner of operating the Demised Premises, if at all, in every respect whatsoever shall be within the sole and absolute discretion of Tenant, but must be consistent with Tenant's general practice in its other similar off-price retail stores in Canada. Subject to the provisions of Article 10 of this Lease, Tenant may operate, or cause to be operated, the department or departments within the Demised Premises, in whole or in part, by licensees, sub-tenants and/or concessionaires, provided that the Demised Premises continue to be carried on, and retain the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated, and not a multiple tenant, off-price retail store. Tenant will carry on its business on the Demised Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not do or omit to do anything or permit or suffer anything to be done upon the Demised Premises that will result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease. Tenant further covenants that, if and for so long as the Shopping Centre is being managed and operated by Landlord as a first-class shopping centre in accordance with the highest standards of the shopping centre industry, Tenant shall carry on its business in and from the Demised Premises as an off-price retail store or other permitted use hereunder in a first class manner in keeping with the said standards of the shopping centre industry.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the opening paragraph of this Section 8.2, Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Demised Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any call centre operation (iii) a store conducted principally for the sale of war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (iv) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Demised Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire; (v) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (vi) an auction sale; and (vii) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre.

Section 8.3 Landlord's Right of Recapture

If at any time during the Term less than the whole or substantially the whole of the Demised Premises is occupied and open to the public for business for a period exceeding two (2) months for any reason other than Force Majeure (as that term is hereinafter defined), damage or destruction, permitted alterations, repair or rebuilding, and/or a permitted assignment or sublet to a third party, Landlord shall thereafter have the right to terminate this Lease while such cessation of operation continues by giving Tenant no less than thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof, provided that Tenant may nullify such notice of termination and this Lease shall not be terminated if Tenant re-opens the whole or substantially the whole of the Demised Premises to the public for business prior to the termination date specified in Landlord's notice and thereafter continues to keep the whole or substantially the whole of the Demised Premises open for business for at least twelve (12) consecutive months (failing which Landlord's termination of the Lease shall be effective immediately upon Tenant ceasing to operate during the aforementioned 12-month period). In the event that Tenant nullifies Landlord's notice of termination as aforesaid, the provisions of this Section 8.3 shall continue to apply throughout the balance of the Term.

ALTERATIONS; SIGNS

Section 9.1 Alterations

Tenant shall have the right at any time and from time to time, at its own cost and expense, to make such repairs, decorations, alterations, changes, substitutions, replacements, additions and/or improvements in and to the non-structural components and/or interior of the Demised Premises as Tenant, acting in its sole discretion, may deem necessary or desirable, without requiring the prior consent of Landlord thereto.

Tenant shall have the further right at any time and from time to time, at its own cost and expense, to make repairs, decorations, alterations, changes, substitutions, replacements, additions and/or improvements in and to the structural components and/or exterior façade of the Demised Premises, provided that:

(a) Any such repairs, decorations, alterations, changes, substitutions, replacements, additions and/or improvements in and to the structural components and/or exterior of the Demised Premises (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Tenant's Structural or Exterior Work") shall be subject to Landlord's prior approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(b) Any Tenant's Structural or Exterior Work so approved by Landlord shall be carried out by Landlord in a diligent, good and workmanlike manner in accordance with such plans, specifications or designs therefor as have been prepared by Tenant and approved by Landlord, in accordance with all governmental laws, rules, regulations and code requirements applicable thereto, and in accordance with a work schedule that has approved in advance by Tenant (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(c) Landlord shall provide Tenant with estimates of the total cost to perform any Tenant's Structural or Exterior Work hereunder from at least two (2) independent contractors (collectively, the "Submitting Contractors") for Tenant's review and approval, and Tenant, acting in its sole discretion, shall determine which of the said Submitting Contractors shall be engaged by Landlord to carry out the Tenant's Structural or Exterior Work by providing written notice thereof to Landlord within fifteen (15) days following its receipt of the said cost estimates. Should Tenant elect not to proceed with any Tenant's Structural or Exterior Work following its review of the said cost estimates therefor, it shall promptly provide written notice of its decision to Landlord.

(d) Following Landlord's completion of any Tenant's Structural or Exterior Work as aforesaid, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the costs incurred by Landlord in carrying out such Tenant's Structural or Exterior Work within thirty (30) days following Tenant's receipt of Landlord's invoice therefor, which invoice shall be accompanied by receipted proof of payment and/or such other evidence in support thereof as Tenant may reasonably request.

Tenant shall save Landlord harmless from and indemnify Landlord against all liens, claims and damages which may be asserted against Landlord or the Demised Premises or both by reason of any work which Tenant elects to do as authorized in this Article 9. Tenant agrees that any work performed by it pursuant to this Section shall be performed in a good and workmanlike manner and in accordance with all governmental laws, rules, regulations and code requirements applicable thereto. Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant in obtaining all permits, licenses and approvals for such work and shall join Tenant in the execution of any application for any such permit, license or approval.

Until the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, title to any improvement constructed or installed by Tenant in or upon the Demised Premises or any other capital improvement made to the Demised Premises by Tenant or any fixture provided by Tenant shall remain solely in Tenant, and Tenant alone shall be entitled to deduct all depreciation and take all investment tax credits and other tax benefits on Tenant's income tax return for any such items.

Section 9.2 Tenant's Signs

(a) Tenant shall have the unrestricted right to install and maintain within the Demised Premises at any time and from time to time whatever interior signage it desires or requires in order to meet the needs of the business conducted therein and therefrom.

(b) Tenant shall have the right to install, replace or remove the following signage upon the exterior facades of the Demised Premises, at locations chosen by Tenant, including, without limitation, over the entrance(s) to the Demised Premises:

(i) Tenant shall have the right to install one (1) of its standard exterior signs upon each one of the three (3) exterior facades of the Demised Premises currently facing onto the exterior parking areas of the Shopping Centre;

(ii) Tenant shall have the right to install one (1) of its standard interior mall signs upon the exterior facades of the Demised Premises facing into the interior pedestrian mall of the Shopping Centre; and

(iii) Tenant shall have the further right to install two (2) of its standard blade signs upon the exterior facades of the Demised Premises facing into the interior pedestrian mall of the Shopping Centre;

(which signage is collectively referred to herein as the "Tenant's Exterior Signage"), provided further that Tenant shall obtain any mandatory governmental approvals for the Tenant's Exterior Signage and all of the said Tenant's Exterior Signage shall comply with the reasonable requirements of such sign policy (if any) governing the standard design criteria of all exterior signs erected at the Shopping Centre that is implemented and enforced by Landlord against all tenants of the Shopping Centre, which sign policy shall represent good shopping centre practice for a first-class shopping centre and shall maintain the dignity and appearance of the whole of the Shopping Centre. Landlord hereby further grants to Tenant an easement for the purpose of installing (at Tenant's election), maintaining, operating, repairing, replacing and removing all of the aforesaid Tenant's Exterior Signage, the lighting for which shall be controlled by Tenant directly from an electrical panel board operated by Tenant within the Demised Premises. Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant in obtaining all permits, licenses and approvals of or for all of the Tenant's Exterior

Signage and shall join Tenant in the execution of any application for any such permits, licenses or approvals.

(c) The parties hereto hereby acknowledge and agree that the number, design, dimensions and locations of the Tenant's Exterior Signage that shall be installed on the exterior facades of the Demised Premises on the day that Tenant first opens the Demised Premises to the public for business are more particularly shown on the drawings attached hereto as Exhibit H,

(d) The parties hereto hereby acknowledge and agree that Tenant shall not be required to pay any rent or other charge of any kind whatsoever to Landlord for or in connection with the Tenant's Exterior Signage or any other signage installed at any time or from time to time in or upon the Demised Premises.

(e) In addition to the foregoing, subject to Tenant obtaining any necessary governmental approvals, Landlord, at its sole cost, will obtain (i) the necessary approval from the owners(s) of the ROA Lands to allow Tenant to have its standard identification signage installed on the exterior directional signage shown on Exhibit H, and (ii) cause such directional identification signage to be installed and maintained in such location for the entire Term.

Section 9.3 Pylon Signs and Directional Signage

(a) Tenant shall have the right to have a sign panel on any existing or future pylon signs ("Pylons") installed and/or located on the Shopping Centre (or installed and/or located on other property for the purpose of advertising the Shopping Centre) that identify any one or more of the occupants of the Shopping Centre, subject to any pre-existing and conflicting rights to sole representation on any such Pylons as Landlord may have granted to other occupants of the Shopping Centre prior to October 15, 2015. Tenant's sign panel(s) on any such Pylons shall be supplied, installed, operated and maintained by Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense and the design of the sign panels identifying Tenant on any such Pylons shall be subject to Tenant's prior approval. Subject to the said sign panels of Tenant complying with all governmental laws, rules, regulations and code requirements applicable thereto, and further subject to any pre-existing and conflicting rights to representation on any such Pylons as Landlord may have granted to other occupants of the Shopping Centre prior to October 15, 2015, Tenant's sign panels shall be placed in a prominent location on each such Pylon and shall be at least the size of the largest sign panel thereon. Tenant shall also have the right, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, to have its business name or other signage identifying the business operated in and from the Demised Premises ("Tenant's Identification Signage") included on any existing or future directional, way-finding and/or monument sign and/or other Shopping Centre identification signs that identify retail occupants of the Shopping Centre (wherever located in both the interior and exterior Common Area on the lands of the Shopping Centre) as follows: (i) for exterior signs, approximately as shown on the conceptual images of the directional, way-finding and monument signs and other Shopping Centre identification signs attached hereto as Exhibit I, and (ii) for interior signs (and unless otherwise agreed by Landlord and Tenant), to be consistent with the signage agreed to by the parties for Crossiron Mills. The said Tenant's Identification Signage shall be supplied, installed, operated and maintained by Landlord at Landlord's sole cost and expense, and, subject to the Tenant's Identification Signage complying with all governmental laws, rules, regulations and code requirements applicable thereto, and further subject to any pre-existing and conflicting rights to representation on any such directional, way-finding and/or monument sign and/or other Shopping Centre identification signs as Landlord may have granted to other occupants of the Shopping Centre prior to October 15, 2015, Tenant's Identification Signage shall be placed in a prominent location and shall be at least the size of the largest identification signage situated thereon. Landlord shall, at its sole cost and expense, maintain, operate, repair, replace and reconstruct the Pylons, directional, way-finding, monument and other identification signs.

(b) The parties hereto hereby acknowledge and agree that Tenant shall not be required to pay any rent or other charge of any kind whatsoever to Landlord for or in connection with any signage identifying Tenant that is installed at any time or from time to time upon any of the aforesaid Pylons, directional, way-finding, monument and/or other identification signs.

ASSIGNMENT

Section 10.1 Right to Assign or Sublease and Leasehold Mortgage

Save and except as otherwise herein expressly provided, Tenant will not assign this Lease or sublet the whole or any portion of the Demised Premises without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably conditioned or withheld or unduly delayed.

Notwithstanding the aforesaid, Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but on prior written notice to Landlord:

(a) assign this Lease or sublet the whole or any part of the Demised Premises to, and may in any event permit the Demised Premises to be used and occupied in whole or in part by, any affiliated corporation of Tenant (as such term "affiliated corporation" is defined by the Canada Business Corporations Act)

(b) assign this Lease to any corporation with which Tenant merges or consolidates; and

(c) assign this Lease to any corporation to which Tenant transfers no less than ten (10) of its other similar off-price retail stores in Canada, has a net worth equal to or greater than One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00) and is a first class reputable retail operator of a business selling better quality merchandise;

(which corporate entities are herein referred to as "Permitted Transferees"),

Notwithstanding anything that may be contained in this Lease to the contrary, Tenant shall also have the right, acting in its sole and absolute discretion and without the consent of Landlord, to grant licenses or subleases of departments or concessions for the sale of merchandise and services in or from the portions of the Demised Premises covered by such departments or licenses consistent with Tenant's general practice in its other similar off-price retail stores in Canada, provided that:

(a) the Demised Premises continue to be carried on, and retain the appearance to the public of being carried on as an integrated, and not a multiple tenant, off-price retail store; and

(b) not more than twenty percent (20%) of the rentable area of the Demised Premises in aggregate is so sublet or has rights granted as aforesaid.

The parties hereto further acknowledge and agree as follows:

1. No assignment of this Lease or subletting of all or any portion of the Demised Premises shall be deemed to relieve Tenant from its obligations pursuant to this Lease.

2. Any Permitted Transferee and any other assignee of the Lease and/or subtenant, licensee or concessionaire occupying the Demised Premises shall use the Demised Premises only for carrying on such business as is permitted to be carried on in accordance with the provisions of this Lease (including but not limited to the provisions contained in Article 8 of this Lease).

3. Any party to whom Tenant assigns the Lease or subleases the Demised Premises in whole or in part or grants licenses, concessions, or rights to occupy the Demised Premises in whole or in part shall be a bona fide retail operator.

4. For any sublease, license or concession of the whole or substantially the whole of the Demised Premises to any Permitted Transferee by Tenant, where the gross amount of the rent, fees or monies received by Tenant from the Permitted Transferee pursuant to the governing sublease, license or concession agreement exceeds the gross amount of the Rent received by Landlord from Tenant under the Lease throughout the term of such sublease, license or concession agreement, Tenant shall then pay to Landlord as additional rent hereunder the said amount by which the gross amount of the rent, fees or monies received by Tenant from the Permitted Transferee under the sublease, license or concession agreement exceeds the gross amount of the Rent received by Landlord from Tenant under the Lease throughout the term of such sublease, license or concession. The aforesaid additional rent, fees or monies so payable by Tenant hereunder (the "Excess Rent") shall be paid to Landlord on a monthly basis at the same time that Tenant's monthly payment of Rent is delivered to Landlord. Along with the monthly payment of Rent, Tenant shall provide Landlord with a statement, certified by an officer of Tenant and prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied, showing the gross amount of the rent, fees or monies received by Tenant from the Permitted Transferee during the reporting period in question and confirming the calculation of the amount of the Excess Rent payable to Landlord in respect of such reporting period.

As used in this Lease, "Mortgage" means any mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument securing a loan and "Mortgagee" means a mortgagee under a mortgage or a trustee or beneficiary or both under a deed of trust or a lender under any other instrument securing a loan. Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent, to encumber the whole or any part of its leasehold estate in the Demised Premises by Mortgage, but the rights of any Mortgagee shall be subject and subordinate at all times to the provisions of this Lease and the right of Landlord to exercise all or any of Landlord's rights and remedies provided in this Lease or by law (except as limited by the specific provisions of this Lease), and shall in no way alter, affect or diminish the reversionary interest of Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Tenant executes a Mortgage of its leasehold interest hereunder to secure any obligation, the Mortgagee from time to time may designate, by written instrument delivered to Landlord, a place where notices may be sent to such Mortgagee. In the event the Mortgagee furnishes Landlord with the information set forth in the preceding sentence, Landlord agrees that if, after receipt of such notice and while such Mortgage is in effect, Landlord gives any notice to Tenant, Landlord shall mail a copy of such notice to such Mortgagee to the place last designated in the written instrument delivered to Landlord as aforesaid, and such Mortgagee shall have and is hereby expressly given the right to do or perform any covenant or obligation of Tenant and shall have the right to cure any breach. In such event, Landlord will take no action against Tenant by reason of such breach by Tenant if the Mortgagee shall, within thirty (30) days after service on the Mortgagee of written notice from Landlord of Landlord's intention to take such action, either cure such breach if the same can be cured by the payment of money, or, if such is not the case, undertake in writing to perform all covenants of this Lease capable of performance by such Mortgagee. In the event of such undertaking to cure, such breach shall be deemed cured if such Mortgagee shall proceed in a timely and diligent manner to succeed to the interest of Tenant hereunder by foreclosure, whether by judicial sale, by power of sale contained in any security instrument, or by deed given in lieu of foreclosure. The obligation of any such Mortgagee for the performance of the terms of this Lease shall terminate upon the date of transfer or assignment of the right, title and interest of such Mortgagee in the leasehold estate to any other person or entity.

INSURANCE AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 11.1 Landlord Insurance

Throughout the Term of this Lease Landlord, at no cost to Tenant, will carry the following insurance:

(1) a policy of "all risk" insurance on the Demised Premises (save and excepting those leasehold improvements located within and forming part of the Demised Premises that Tenant covenants to insure under subparagraph (3) of Section 11.2 hereof) and on all other buildings, structures and improvements of any kind and description in and forming part of the Shopping Centre, in each case for no less than the full replacement cost thereof and with such reasonable deductibles as are normally effected by owners in insuring similar first-class shopping centres.

(2) commercial general liability insurance (including coverage for legal liability) on a per occurrence basis covering Claims (as that term is hereinafter defined), other than standard exclusions, for bodily injury or personal injury to or death of persons and property damage arising out of Landlord's use, operation and/or maintenance of the Shopping Centre, which insurance shall have per occurrence limits of not less than Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000.00) and an annual aggregate limit of no less than Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000.00) .

(3) Any other insurance Landlord will deem appropriate and that a prudent owner of similar property would carry.

All of the foregoing insurance that Landlord covenants to carry throughout the Term of this Lease shall be carried with financially responsible insurance companies rated at least A- -X in the then most current edition of Bests' Rating Guide and shall be federally licensed to carry on the business of insurance in all provinces of Canada.

The "all risk" insurance coverage that Landlord covenants to provide under subparagraph (1) of this Section 11.1 shall:

(i) insure against loss or damage from causes that are from time to time included as covered risks under standard insurance industry practices within the classification of difference in conditions coverage and all risk coverage, and specifically against the following perils: fire, windstorm, hail, cyclone, hurricane, tornado, riots, riot attending a strike, civil commotion, malicious mischief, vandalism, aircraft, vehicle, smoke damage and sprinkler leakage, flood, earthquake and, if coverage is available, nuclear or other explosion with no co-insurance penalties; and

(ii) shall provide no co-insurance penalties.

In addition to the foregoing, Landlord hereby covenants and warrants that all proceeds collected under the "all risk" insurance coverage that Landlord covenants to provide under subparagraph (1) of this Section 11.1 shall be payable to Landlord, Tenant and the Landlord's Mortgagee, if any, as their respective interests may appear, and that all such proceeds payable in the event of loss, damage or destruction to the insured property that are received by Landlord or Landlord's Mortgagee (as the case may be) shall be made available for the reconstruction or repair of any building or buildings and other improvements damaged or destroyed, provided further that, if any of such proceeds are to be payable to any such Mortgagee, Landlord covenants with Tenant to require such Mortgagee to agree in writing (or to be bound by the terms of its Mortgage) to make all such proceeds available for such reconstruction or repair regardless of the existence of any default under the Mortgage granted to such Mortgagee..

The commercial general liability insurance coverage that Landlord covenants to provide under subparagraph (2) of this Section 11.1 shall name Tenant as an additional insured.

Landlord shall provide Tenant with no less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice of any cancellation or non-renewal of the insurance policies Landlord is required to carry under Section 11.1 hereof.

Landlord shall, on reasonable request, promptly furnish Tenant with a certificate of insurance evidencing Landlord's compliance with the foregoing insurance coverage requirements of this Section.

Section 11.2 Tenant Insurance

Throughout the Term of this Lease Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, will carry the following insurance:

(1) a policy of "all risk" insurance on the leasehold improvements located within and forming part of the Demised Premises from time to time and Tenant's tenant fixtures, furniture, inventory, stock-in-trade (including merchandise) and other contents situated in and upon the Demised Premises, which policy shall insure against loss or damage from causes that are from time to time included as covered risks under standard insurance industry practices within the classification of difference in conditions coverage and all risks coverage, and specifically against the following perils: fire, windstorm, hail, cyclone, hurricane, tornado, riots, riot attending a strike, civil commotion, malicious mischief, vandalism, aircraft, vehicle, smoke damage and sprinkler leakage, flood, earthquake and, if coverage is available, nuclear or other explosion, to 100% of the full replacement cost thereof, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall be entitled in the alternative to self-insure against loss or damage to the said leasehold improvements, trade fixtures, furniture, inventory, stock-in-trade (including merchandise) and other contents of the Demised Premises, and provided further that, if Tenant does maintain the aforementioned policy of "all risks" insurance against loss or damage to the aforesaid leasehold improvements, trade fixtures, furniture, inventory, stock-in-trade (including merchandise) and other contents of the Demised Premises, the loss payable shall be paid only to Tenant without any trust provisions;

(2) business interruption insurance in such amount as will reimburse Tenant for direct or indirect loss of gross earnings attributable to damage to the whole or any portion of the Demised Premises or attributable to prevention of access to the Demised Premises or the Shopping Centre for a period of no less than twelve (12) months;

(3) commercial general liability insurance (including coverage for legal liability) on a per occurrence basis covering Claims (as that term is hereinafter defined), other than standard exclusions, for bodily injury or personal injury to or death of persons and property damage arising out of Tenant's use, operation and/or maintenance of the Demised Premises, which insurance shall have per occurrence limits of not less than Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000.00) and an annual aggregate limit of no less than Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000.00) .

All of the foregoing insurance that Tenant covenants to carry throughout the Term of this Lease shall be carried with financially responsible insurance companies rated at least A- -X in the then most current edition of Bests' Rating Guide and shall be federally licensed to carry on the business of insurance in all provinces of Canada.

The commercial general liability insurance coverage that Tenant covenants to provide under subparagraph (3) of this Section 11.2 shall name Landlord as an additional insured.

Tenant shall provide Landlord with no less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice of any cancellation or non-renewal of the insurance policies Tenant is required to carry under Section 11.2 hereof.

Tenant shall, on reasonable request, promptly furnish Landlord with a certificate of insurance evidencing Tenant's compliance with the foregoing insurance coverage requirements of this Section.

Section 11.3 Indemnification

Except to the extent that Tenant has been specifically released pursuant to the provisions of Section 11.5 hereof, Tenant shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold harmless Landlord against all claims, costs, expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) losses, damages, injuries and liabilities (in this Article 11 collectively called "Claims") arising from the death of or any accident, occurrence, injury, loss or damage whatsoever caused to any third party natural person or to the property of any third party person or entity arising out of Tenant's operation and/or of Tenant's use and/or maintenance of the Demised Premises from and after the date Tenant accepts actual and exclusive possession of the Demised Premises (except to the extent such Claims arise from any gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, servants or agents).

Except to the extent that Landlord has been specifically released pursuant to the provisions of subclause 11.5 hereof, then, notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, including, without limitation, the immediately preceding paragraph, Landlord shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold Tenant harmless from all Claims arising from the death of or any accident, occurrence, injury, loss or damage whatsoever caused to any person or to the property of any person or entity arising out of Landlord's use, operation and/or maintenance of the Shopping Centre or the carrying out (or failure to carry out) its obligations under this Lease, including, without limitation, any such Claims arising out of Landlord's performance of Landlord's Work hereunder (except to the extent such Claims arise from any gross negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its employees, servants or agents).

The indemnitee hereunder shall give the indemnitor timely notice of any suit or proceeding arising from any of the items for which it is entitled to indemnification as hereinabove provided and the indemnitor shall have the right to defend the indemnitee in said suit or proceeding with counsel acceptable to the indemnitee. Failure to give such notice shall not, however, in any manner negate or invalidate the obligation to provide such indemnification except to the extent the indemnitor is prejudiced by such failure.

Section 11.4 Self-Insurance; Blanket Policies

Tenant may satisfy its obligations under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of Section 11.2, in whole or in part, by means of self-insurance or by a so-called blanket policy.

Section 11.5 Waiver of Rights of Recovery

Landlord agrees that Landlord's policy or policies of insurance shall contain a waiver of subrogation clause as to Tenant, and, anything in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, Landlord hereby waives all rights of recovery and causes of action, and releases Tenant from any and all liability for all losses and damages occasioned to the Demised Premises and/or any other property within or upon or constituting a part of the Shopping Centre, which losses and damages are of the type covered under the policies required to be carried by Landlord under Section 11.1, whether such claim or demand may arise because of the negligence or fault of Tenant and its agents, contractors, servants, employees, licensees, customers, business invitees or otherwise; provided, however, to the extent any such losses or damages are caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its agents, contractors, servants, employees, licensees, customers, business invitees and all or any portion of such loss is "deductible" or part of a "self-insured retention", then Tenant shall pay to Landlord the amount of such loss (not to exceed $25,000 per event, and hereinafter referred to in this paragraph as the "deductible loss"). Except with respect to any deductible loss, as aforesaid, Landlord agrees to look to Landlord's insurance coverage only in the event of such loss.

Tenant agrees that Tenant's policy or policies of insurance shall contain a waiver of subrogation clause as to Landlord, and, anything in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, Tenant waives all rights of recovery and causes of action, and releases Landlord from any and all liability for all losses and damages occasioned to the Demised Premises and/or any other property within or upon or constituting a part of the Shopping Centre, which losses and damages are of the type covered under the policies required to be carried by Tenant under Section 11.2, whether such claim or demand may arise because of the negligence or fault of Landlord and its agents, contractors, servants, employees, licensees or otherwise; provided, however, to the extent any such loss or damage to or destruction of such property of Tenant are caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its agents, contractors, servants, employees, licensees and all or any portion of such loss is "deductible" or part of a "self-insured retention", then Landlord shall pay to Tenant the amount of such loss (not to exceed $25,000 per event, and hereinafter referred to in this paragraph as the "deductible loss"). Except with respect to any deductible loss, as aforesaid, Tenant agrees to look to Tenant's insurance coverage only in the event of such loss.

COMMON AREA MAINTENANCE AND CHARGES

Section 12.1 Common Area Maintenance

At all times from the Grand Opening Date and thereafter during the Term of this Lease, Landlord shall, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, operate, manage, clean, heat, air-condition, light, maintain, repair, provide snow and ice removal, replace and provide security (collectively "Common Area Maintenance") for the Common Area and all improvements thereon and thereto (including, without limitation, all interior and exterior pedestrian malls, sidewalks, curbs and disks, parking areas, parking decks, access roads and ramps, landscaping, lighting standards, traffic and directional signs, traffic striping and markings, Shopping Centre monument, wayfinding and pylon signs, storm drainage facilities, sanitary sewer systems, natural gas systems, water systems, sprinkler and other fire protection installations, methane recovery/remediation systems, electrical lines and power cables and all other similar amenities and like improvements constructed or installed for the non-exclusive use, convenience or benefit of tenants in the Shopping Centre or their customers, visitors and invitees) in good order, condition and repair, in a first-class, clean manner and condition and in accordance with this Lease.

Section 12.2 General Common Area Operation and Maintenance Standards

Without limiting the generality of anything set forth in this Article 12, Landlord, in the performance of Common Area Maintenance, shall perform, without limitation, the following services in accordance with the standards of a first-class shopping centre as of the Grand Opening Date:

(1) Inspect, maintain, repair and replace the surface of the parking areas, curbs, and sidewalks, keeping them level and smooth and keeping the parking area surfaced with durable black-top or cement and concrete (or such other materials as may be commonly used in lieu thereof from time to time by other shopping centres operating in accordance with the standards of a first-class shopping centre) and the curbs and sidewalks repaired or replaced with cement and concrete (or such other materials as may be commonly used in lieu thereof from time to time by other shopping centres operating in accordance with the standards of a first-class shopping centre);

(2) Maintain the Common Area free of any obstructions; promptly remove all papers, debris, filth, refuse, and surface waters, snow and ice from the Shopping Centre; wash and thoroughly sweep paved areas as required, at intervals before the Demised Premises are open for business;

(3) Maintain in an attractive condition, in keeping with the operating standards of a first-class shopping centre, all parking area entrance, exit and directional signs, markers, and all amenities, decorative elements and benches of the Common Area and promptly replace or repair the same upon the occurrence of any defects or irregularities thereto;

(4) Clean parking area lighting fixtures, replace lighting fixtures when no longer functioning and relamp as needed;

(5) Repaint hard-surfaced markings and striping as the same become unsightly or indistinct;

(6) Maintain, repair and replace landscaping, including the removal of dead plants, weeds and foreign matter, pruning, fertilizing and such replanting and replacement as the occasion may require;

(7) Clean, relamp and repair signs of the Shopping Centre (as contrasted from those of tenants);

(8) Empty all trash and rubbish containers located in the Common Area, wash the same at intervals sufficient to maintain the same in a clean and sanitary condition, and otherwise keep and maintain the same in good working order and condition;

(9) Clean, maintain and repair and replace all storm drainage and sanitary sewer lines, as required to keep the systems in a free-flowing condition at all times, and all other utility facilities serving the Shopping Centre, to the extent the same is not done by public utilities;

(10) Provide traffic control and security and security patrol;

(11) Furnish necessary pest abatement controls;

(12) Repair or replace, in accordance with all applicable laws, regulations, or ordinances, all surface utility facilities servicing the Shopping Centre (including, without limitation, hose bibbs, stand pipes, sprinklers, and domestic water lines) upon the occurrence of any defect or malfunctioning; and

(13) Sweep and wash at regular intervals all stairs, if any, sufficient to maintain the same in a clean condition and promptly repair the same upon the occurrence of any irregularities or worn portions thereof.

Section 12.3 [Intentionally Deleted]

Section 12.4 Tenant's Contribution Toward Common Area Maintenance Cost

A. Tenant's Share. Tenant shall have no obligation to contribute to the cost of the Common Area Maintenance as such costs are intentionally included in the Rent provided for herein.

B. Common Area Lighting. Without limiting the generality of anything set forth in this Article 12, during any period when the Demised Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, Landlord shall keep all Common Area on the Shopping Centre lighted and opened to the public. Landlord agrees that it shall keep all Common Area on the Shopping Centre lighted for security purposes seven (7) days each week during the hours of darkness such lighting is necessary for such purpose. Landlord shall pay for all costs of electricity for lighting the Common Area (i) during any period when the Demised Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, but not later than 11:00 p.m., CDT, (ii) during any other period, in addition to the period described in the immediately preceding clause (i), when both the Demised Premises and at least fifty percent (50%) of the remainder of the floor area in the Shopping Centre are open for business and (iii) during the times and to the extent such lighting is required under the second sentence of this Subsection B. of Section 12.4.

The cost of electricity for lighting the Common Area at times or to the extent such cost is not considered part of Landlord's costs in accordance with the preceding paragraph shall be paid as follows:

(i) If the Demised Premises are open for business, then Tenant shall pay its proportionate share (based on the square footage of the Demised Premises compared to the square footage of the premises of all occupants that are open for business) of the cost of electricity to light the Common Area,

(ii) If the Demised Premises are not open for business, Landlord shall pay the cost of electricity to light the Common Area.

ARTICLE 13
COVENANTS, REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Section 13.1 General Landlord Covenants

Landlord covenants and agrees that following the Grand Opening Date it shall operate or cause to be operated the Shopping Centre in the following manner:

(1) To continuously manage and operate the Shopping Centre as a complex of retail stores and commercial and service enterprises;

(2) To maintain a first class quality of management and operation;

(3) To use its best efforts to have all the rentable floor area of the Shopping Centre occupied in its entirety;

(4) To use its best efforts to have all rentable floor area of the Shopping Centre utilized to the maximum extent possible and to consider the objective of maintaining a balanced and diversified grouping of retail stores, merchandise and services;

(5) In accordance with the Rules and Regulations attached hereto as Exhibit D (provided, and the parties hereto expressly acknowledge and agree, that the said Rules and Regulations shall apply to Tenant's use and occupancy of the Demised Premises only to the extent that they are consistent and do not conflict with the provisions of this Lease, and, in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Lease and the provisions of any of the Rules and Regulations governing the operation and occupation of the Shopping Centre at any time, the provisions of this Lease shall prevail in all respects);

(6) To maintain and not change, modify or alter the exterior or design of the other improvements in the Shopping Centre that would in any way:

(i) obstruct the visibility of the Demised Premises or the visibility of the remainder of the Shopping Centre from the Demised Premises; or

(ii) interfere with pedestrian and/or vehicular access to and from the Demised Premises; or

(iii) materially reduce pedestrian traffic flow to or near the Demised Premises.

Landlord further covenants and agrees that it shall at no time during the Term transfer ownership of any portion of the lands in and upon which the Shopping Centre is located (either as such lands exist as of the date of signing hereof or as may be expanded from time to time hereafter) to any third party unless the party acquiring ownership of such portion of the Shopping Centre lands (the "Sale Parcel") enters into an appropriate agreement with Landlord whereby, inter alia, (a) the buildings and improvements located in and upon the Sale Parcel and the balance of the Shopping Centre lands owned by Landlord will appear to the public to be operated as an integrated first class shopping centre and (b) the lands and improvements of the Sale Parcel shall be subject to easements granted in favour of the balance of the Shopping Centre lands then owned by Landlord for pedestrian and vehicular access across the Sale Parcel lands and the use of parking facilities located thereon for the benefit of the tenants and occupants of the balance of the Shopping Centre lands owned by Landlord. The parties acknowledge that the covenant of Landlord set forth in the immediately preceding sentence is specific to the present Lease.

Landlord covenants that during the Term of the Lease and at its sole cost (i) it will observe and perform all obligations, covenants and responsibilities that Landlord is required to observe and perform pursuant to the terms and conditions of the ROA and shall not take any action or refrain from taking any action within Landlord's control which may cause the ROA to be terminated or which would otherwise result in Landlord being in default thereunder, nor shall it amend the ROA in a manner that would reduce Tenant's rights and/or increase its obligations under this Lease in any material and adverse way, (ii) it will enforce against the other parties to the ROA, for the benefit of the Tenant, its successors, assigns, customers and invitees, the obligations of such other party under the terms of the ROA that affect the use and occupation of the Demised Premises under this Lease or, which are necessary to the performance or observance of Landlord's covenants under this Lease, and (iii) it will not terminate, or agree to any termination of the ROA in a manner that would reduce Tenant's rights and/or increase its obligations under this Lease in any material and adverse way without first obtaining the Tenant's written consent thereto, in its sole discretion.

Section 13.2 Representations and Warranties of Landlord

Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant as of the date hereof, that:

A. Landlord has validly executed this Lease and the same constitutes its authority to enter into this Lease and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

B. The making of this Lease and the provisions of this Lease:

(i) do not, and will not violate or breach any term or provision of any agreements, covenants or restrictions whether written or oral, between Landlord and any third party,

(ii) do not, and will not conflict with any applicable municipal, provincial or federal law, judgment, order, regulation, rule or ordinance,

(iii) do not, and will not conflict with any applicable public or private restrictions applicable to the Shopping Centre,

(iv) do not require any consent or approval of any public or private authority which has not been obtained (other than, for certainty, permits and approvals for the undertaking of the Landlord's Work, the Tenant's Work and the installation of all signage);

(v) are not threatened with invalidity of unenforceability by any action, proceeding or investigation pending, or to Landlord's knowledge, threatened, or by or against (x) Landlord without regard to capacity, (y) any person with whom Landlord may be jointly or severally liable or (z) the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof.

C. Landlord has not received notice of any condemnation or expropriation proceedings or negotiations for the purchase of any of the Shopping Centre in lieu of condemnation and has no knowledge that any expropriation proceedings or negotiations have been commenced or threatened in connection with the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof.

D. No litigation or other actions or proceedings are pending or, to the knowledge of Landlord, threatened, relating to the Shopping Centre, or any part thereof, which may have a material adverse effect thereon or which challenge or threaten Landlord's capacity or ability to validly perform its obligations in this Lease.

E. There are no agreements to which Landlord is a party or of which Landlord has knowledge which materially affects the Shopping Centre other than this Lease and the Permitted Exceptions.

F. There is no fact known to Landlord pertaining to the physical condition of the Shopping Centre and no environmental factors known to Landlord affecting the Shopping Centre (i) which Landlord has not disclosed to Tenant in writing prior to the date of this Lease, and (ii) which, as determined by Tenant, acting reasonably, materially adversely affects or will materially adversely affect the Shopping Centre or the contemplated use or enjoyment or the value thereof.

G. To the best of Landlord's knowledge, this Lease does not (i) contain an untrue statement of a material fact or (ii) omit a material fact necessary to make the statements contained therein or herein not substantially misleading. There is no fact which Landlord, to the best of its knowledge, has not disclosed to Tenant in writing which materially adversely affects the Shopping Centre or Tenant's anticipated use thereof.

H. Landlord has not (i) made a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, (ii) filed any voluntary petition in bankruptcy or suffered the filing of an involuntary petition by Landlord's creditors, (iii) suffered the appointment of a receiver to take all, or substantially all, of Landlord's assets, (iv) suffered the attachment or other judicial seizure of all, or substantially all of Landlord's assets, (v) admitted in writing its inability to pay its debts as they come due, or (vi) made an offer of settlement, extension or composition to its creditors generally.

I. [Intentionally Deleted].

J. The Shopping Centre is validly zoned and will be validly zoned on the date the Demised Premises are open or required to open so as to permit the operation thereon of an enclosed shopping centre and a retail store in the Demised Premises and that the Shopping Centre shall be constructed and may be developed, used and operated as a shopping centre in the manner contemplated by this Lease without violation of any applicable laws, regulations, or ordinances; that no portion of the Shopping Centre is located in a flood plain nor contains designated wetlands; and that all on-site and off-site improvements can be installed and used as contemplated.

K. The current zoning for the Shopping Centre and any existing Record of Site Condition and/or Certificate of Property Use for the Shopping Centre that has been accepted and filed with the Manitoba Ministry of the Environment that are currently in force with respect to the Shopping Centre (if any) provide for and permit the construction, occupation and use of the Demised Premises as described in this Lease.

L. The development, use and operation of the Shopping Centre in the manner contemplated by this Lease is not now prohibited by any existing municipal, provincial or federal environmental protection act or regulations and that all required studies, reports, permits (except construction permits for Tenant's work in the Demised Premises) and approvals relating thereto have been or shall be obtained by Landlord so as to permit the Demised Premises to open and operate.

M. Other than in respect of the Restricted Uses, Landlord is not currently party to and shall not enter into any lease or other occupancy agreement with any other tenant or occupant of the Shopping Centre whereby that party is given exclusive rights of use or any other privileges that would prevent Tenant from using the Demised Premises for the typical operation of a Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth store.

N. Tenant has good and marketable leasehold title and Landlord has good and marketable fee-simple title in and to the Demised Premises, free and clear of all claims of other parties, mortgages, liens, encumbrances, restrictions, violations, reservations and defect except for the Permitted Exceptions.

O. The Landlord has appointed Ivanhoe Cambridge Inc. to act as its exclusive agent and manager for the management, operation, maintenance and leasing of the Shopping Centre.

P. The ROA is in full force and effect and is and will be a binding and unconditional obligation of all owners of the ROA Lands. The ROA is registered against the ROA Lands and the Lands in priority to all Mortgages and other financial encumbrances existing as of the date hereof. Landlord shall protect, indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, expense and attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by Tenant by reason of any breach by Landlord of the representations and warranties set forth above.

Section 13.3 Representations and Warranties of Tenant

Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that:

A. Tenant has the full power and authority to enter into this Lease and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

B. The making of this Lease and the provisions of this Lease do not and will not violate any agreements, covenants or restrictions, whether written or oral, between Tenant and any third party.

C. As of the date of signing hereof, Tenant has not (i) made a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, (ii) filed any voluntary petition in bankruptcy or suffered the filing of an involuntary petition by Tenant's creditors, (iii) suffered the appointment of a receiver to take all, or substantially all, of Tenant's assets, (iv) suffered the attachment or other judicial seizure of all, or substantially all of Tenant's assets, (v) admitted in writing its inability to pay its debts as they come due, or (vi) made an offer of settlement, extension or composition to its creditors generally.

Tenant shall protect, indemnify, defend and hold Landlord harmless from and against any loss, cost, damage, expense and attorney fees incurred by Landlord by reason of any breach by Tenant of the representations and warranties set forth above.

Section 13.4 Asbestos and Other Hazardous Materials

A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease, Landlord represents and warrants that the Demised Premises will be, as of the date Tenant takes possession of the Demised Premises, free of all Hazardous Materials (as defined below) that are in excess of concentrations permitted under applicable Requirements (as hereinafter defined). Landlord shall provide to Tenant, on or before delivering the Demised Premises to Tenant as described in this Lease, evidence reasonably acceptable to Tenant that the Demised Premises do not contain asbestos or any other Hazardous Materials in excess of concentrations permitted under applicable Requirements and that the methane gas levels within the Demised Premises (if any) are within acceptable range. Notwithstanding any provision of this Lease to the contrary, Tenant shall have no obligation to make any repairs, alterations or improvements to the Demised Premises or incur any costs or expenses whatsoever as a result of Hazardous Materials in the Demised Premises, other than those Hazardous Materials brought or permitted to be brought onto the Demised Premises by Tenant, any subtenant, concessionaire, or licensee of Tenant or any of their respective officers, employees, agents, customers, invitees or contractors (collectively, under this Section, "Tenant"). Landlord shall be solely responsible for any changes to the Demised Premises relating to Hazardous Materials, including the removal thereof if required by any Requirement (as defined below), or as required by any present or future laws, ordinances or regulations of any governmental authority, insurance carrier or any similar body, other than those Hazardous Materials brought or permitted to be brought onto the Demised Premises by Tenant.

B. Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from and against all liabilities, costs, damages and expenses which Tenant may incur (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements), other than consequential damages, as the result of the presence of Hazardous Materials at the Demised Premises or at the Shopping Centre, other than those Hazardous Materials brought or permitted to be brought onto the Demised Premises by Tenant.

C. If, and to the extent, Tenant is unable to operate its business in and from the Demised Premises as a result of Landlord's removal or abatement of Hazardous Materials as provided herein (and except where the Hazardous Materials were introduced by Tenant), all Rent shall abate from the date of Tenant's closure until the date that Tenant is able to open and operate its business in and from the Demised Premises for a period in excess of sixty (60) days. In the event only a portion of the Demised Premises is rendered unusable, there shall be a proportional abatement based upon the rentable area thereof that is rendered unusable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in the event that Tenant is unable to operate its business in and from the Demised Premises as a result of Hazardous Materials and/or the removal or abatement thereof as provided herein (except where the Hazardous Materials were introduced by Tenant), then Tenant, in addition to all of the rights and remedies hereunder, shall have the right to terminate this Lease upon thirty (30) days advanced notice given to Landlord.

D. As used herein, the term "Hazardous Materials" shall mean each and every element, compound, material, mixture, substance, waste, hazardous substance, hazardous waste, hazardous material, toxic substance, pollutant or contaminant either as those terms are defined under any law or regulation enacted or promulgated by any government having jurisdiction or the presence of which may cause harm to any person(s) and/or liability at common law, including, without limitation, methane gas, polychlorinated biphenols, ureaformaldehyde, chlorofluorocarbons asbestos and/or asbestos-containing products, whether or not currently friable.

E. As used herein, the term "Requirement" shall mean all applicable laws, statutes, ordinances (including, but not limited to, building codes and zoning regulations and ordinances), orders, rules, regulations and requirements of all federal, provincial and municipal governments, and the appropriate agencies, officers, departments, boards and commissions thereof, whether now or hereafter in force.

SHOPPING CENTRE LAYOUT AND APPEARANCE

Section 14.1 Location of Buildings and Other Improvements

Landlord shall not erect, construct or expand, or permit the erection, construction or expansion of, any building or buildings or other structures or improvements, other than Common Area improvements, within those portions of the Shopping Centre shown outlined in BLUE on Exhibit B (the "No-Build Area") without the prior written consent of Tenant, which consent may be granted, denied and/or withheld in Tenant's sole and absolute discretion. Landlord represents and warrants that the Common Area improvements shown on Exhibit B are proposed to be located as shown on Exhibit B and Tenant duly acknowledges its acceptance of the same. Landlord covenants and agrees that no changes or alterations shall be made in any portion of the Common Area of the Shopping Centre (or in the location and design of the improvements thereon and thereto) from that shown on Exhibit B that would materially affect Tenant's parking, ingress, egress, access or visibility to Tenant's Demised Premises.

Section 14.2 [Intentionally Deleted]

Section 14.3 [Intentionally Deleted]
Section 14.4 [Intentionally Deleted]

Section 14.5 Limitation on Detrimental Characteristics

No use or operation shall be made, conducted or permitted in any part of the Shopping Centre which use or operation is clearly objectionable to the development or operation of the Shopping Centre. Included among the uses or operations which are prohibited because of their obvious detrimental effect upon the general appearance of the Shopping Centre and conflict with the reasonable standards of appearance, maintenance and housekeeping required by this Lease, are uses or operations which produce or are accompanied by the following characteristics, which list is not intended to be all inclusive:

(1) Any noise, litter, odor or other activity which may constitute a public or private nuisance;

(2) Any unusual firing, explosion or other damaging or dangerous hazards;

(3) Any assembly, manufacturer, distillation, refining, smelting, industrial, agriculture, drilling or mining operation;

(4) Any trailer court, mobile home park, lot for sale of new or used motor vehicles, labour camp, junk yard, stock yard or animal raising (other than pet shops and veterinarians);

(5) Any dumping, disposal, incineration or reduction of garbage or refuse other than handling or reducing such waste if produced on the Demised Premises from authorized uses and if handled in a reasonably clean and sanitary manner.

Section 14.6 Non-Interference with Circulation

(a) So as not to interfere with efficient automobile and pedestrian traffic flow between the Demised Premises and all other areas in the Shopping Centre and the ROA Lands, there shall be no selling activities conducted within the areas of the Shopping Centre shown outlined in YELLOW on Exhibit B without the prior written consent of Tenant, which consent may be granted, denied and/or withheld in Tenant's sole and absolute discretion. For the sake of greater clarification, the parties hereto hereby acknowledge and agree that the foregoing restriction shall not apply to any marketing and promotional events that do not include any kind of selling activities and are conducted solely for the benefit of the Shopping Centre in collaboration with various businesses operating in the City of Winnipeg and/or for the promotion of tourism.

(b) Landlord agrees to maintain an adequate and sufficient area adjacent to and adjoining Tenant's service entrance(s) and loading docks for unobstructed standing, loading, unloading and otherwise servicing the Demised Premises.

Section 14.7 Fences; Obstructions

No fence, structure or other obstruction of any kind (except as may be specifically permitted herein or as may be indicated on Exhibit B or except for decorative features and customer conveniences) shall be placed, kept, permitted or maintained upon the Common Area in the Shopping Centre, except such of the foregoing as are reasonably necessary or proper for the construction, repair or rebuilding authorized hereunder. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord covenants that Tenant at all times shall have unobstructed and adequate means of ingress and egress between each of the entrances to the Demised Premises and the adjacent public streets and highways. Landlord further agrees not to change or alter the access points to the Shopping Centre contained within the areas outlined in ORANGE on Exhibit B hereto without Tenant's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned, provided that Tenant's consent shall not be required in the event any relocation, variations or changes are required by any governmental authorities, or where they do not inhibit or prevent passage, ingress and ingress for pedestrians or vehicles.

Section 14.8 Sign Policy

Landlord covenants and agrees that if it at any time and/or from time to time establishes a sign policy governing the standard design criteria of all exterior signs erected at the Shopping Centre, such sign policy shall represent good shopping centre practice for a first-class shopping centre and shall maintain the dignity and appearance of the whole of the Shopping Centre and shall be implemented and enforced by Landlord against all tenants of the Shopping Centre.

Section 14.9 Maintenance of Buildings

Without limiting or adding to Landlord's obligations as to the Demised Premises, which obligations are set forth elsewhere in this Lease, Landlord agrees that it shall, throughout the Term of this Lease, maintain or cause to be maintained, at no expense to Tenant, the buildings in the Shopping Centre, other than the non-structural interior of the Demised Premises, in good order, condition and repair, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

PARKING REQUIREMENTS

Section 15.1 Parking Area

Landlord covenants and agrees that it shall at all times maintain a parking ratio for the entire Shopping Centre that is the greater of that required under applicable law and 4.2 car spaces per 1,000 square feet of rentable area of the Shopping Centre thereon. Landlord further covenants that it shall not materially change or alter the layout, design and/or configuration of the parking areas located within the No-Build Area of the Shopping Centre, or permit such changes or alterations to be made from that shown on Exhibit B without obtaining Tenant's prior written consent thereto, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned.

Section 15.2 Charges for Parking; Employee Parking Areas

(a) Landlord shall not make or collect, nor permit to be made or collected, any charge of any type for the right to park vehicles in the parking areas of the Shopping Centre.

(b) Landlord hereby warrants and represents to Tenant that, as of the date of signing hereof, no portion of the parking facilities of the Shopping Centre has been designated for use by employees of the tenants or occupants of the Shopping Centre. The parties hereto further acknowledge and agree that, if at any time during the Term Landlord intends to designate a portion of the parking facilities for use by employees of the tenants or occupants of the Shopping Centre, it shall designate a sufficient portion of the parking areas of the Shopping Centre for such purpose in one or more locations outside of the No-Build Area that are reasonably acceptable to Tenant, in which event Tenant shall use its reasonable and diligent efforts to require its employees to park their vehicles in the area(s) so established by Landlord for employee parking and Landlord shall use its reasonable and diligent efforts to require the employees of other tenant or occupants of the Shopping Centre to park their vehicles in such area(s).

Section 15.3 Use of Parking Areas

Landlord shall take whatever steps may be appropriate and reasonable to prevent persons other than Landlord, the tenants and other occupants of the Shopping Centre and their respective employees, agents, customers, licensees and invitees from using the parking areas of the Shopping Centre for the parking of motor vehicles (such as, by way of example only and without limitation, commuters in the area using the said parking areas while travelling on the public transit system).

QUIET ENJOYMENT

Section 16.1 Quiet Enjoyment

Landlord covenants, warrants and represents that it has full right and power to execute and perform this Lease and to grant the estate demised herein, and covenants that Tenant, provided that

Tenant is not in default hereunder, shall peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Demised Premises and all rights, easements, appurtenances and privileges belonging or in anywise appertaining thereto, during the full Term of this Lease including any extension thereof.

Landlord further covenants, warrants and represents that: (i) it owns a fee simple interest in and to the Demised Premises and the remainder of the Shopping Centre; (ii) that the Demised Premises and the remainder of the Shopping Centre are free of all liens, encumbrances, restrictions and violations except as specifically listed on Exhibit C; (iii) that there are no claims of other parties, encumbrances, Mortgages or other liens, restrictions, reservations or defects in Landlord's title which could interfere with or impair or result in any interference with or impairment of Tenant's use, occupancy and enjoyment of the Demised Premises or with Tenant's other rights hereunder, all in accordance with the terms of this Lease; and (iv) that it shall indemnify and hold harmless Tenant from and against any loss and expense, including, without limitation, attorney's fees and consequential damages, incurred on account of any breach of its warranties.

Landlord covenants and agrees that it shall promptly and duly perform all of its obligations under any Mortgages, leases, liens, agreements and other instruments, whether of record or not, which have, in whole or in part, priority over this Lease. Landlord further covenants and warrants that such prior instruments shall not interfere with Tenant's full enjoyment of this Lease or the Demised Premises or the easements and appurtenances thereto, nor impose on Tenant any greater or other obligations than are set forth in this Lease. The provisions of this paragraph shall not in any way limit Landlord's warranties of title and quiet enjoyment nor enlarge the title exceptions listed in Exhibit C.

Section 16.2 Non-Disturbance Agreement by Mortgagee(s)

In the event there is a Mortgage registered on title to the Shopping Centre prior to notice of the Lease being registered on title, Landlord shall obtain and deliver to Tenant a non-disturbance agreement executed by the Mortgagee or Mortgagees under any such Mortgage, which agreement shall be in form and substance acceptable to counsel for Tenant and shall provide in substance that, notwithstanding any default or foreclosure under the Mortgage in question, so long as no event of default under this Lease shall have occurred on the part of Tenant after the expiration of all applicable grace periods with respect to defaults as herein provided, the Mortgagee and its successors and assigns shall not abrogate or diminish or otherwise adversely affect any rights of Tenant under this Lease (including the ROA Rights) and this Lease shall remain in effect as a direct lease between Tenant and the Mortgagee and its successors or assigns, and said Mortgagee shall be bound by the obligations of Landlord under this Lease provided that Tenant agrees to attorn to said Mortgagee as Landlord under this Lease.

Upon Landlord's request, Tenant agrees to execute an agreement subordinating this Lease to the lien of any Mortgage hereafter placed by Landlord upon Landlord's interest in the Demised Premises. The form and substance of such subordination agreement to be executed by Tenant shall be as approved by Tenant in its reasonable discretion, and shall include a provision stating that in the event of any foreclosure of or transfer (including a deed in lieu of foreclosure) under any Mortgage to which this Lease has been subordinated pursuant to this Section, Tenant shall not be disturbed in its possession of the Demised Premises so long as it is not in default under this Lease beyond any applicable cure periods and it shall attorn to the purchaser or Mortgagee as Landlord under this Lease.

Landlord shall, within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's request, deliver to Tenant a recognition and non-disturbance agreement reasonably acceptable to Tenant, Landlord and any subtenant, executed and acknowledged by Landlord, Tenant and subtenant, for the benefit of any subtenant of all or any portion of the Demised Premises, subject to the following requirements: (1) the subtenant leases at least 10,000 square feet of floor area; (2) the rights of the subtenant under the sublease shall not be greater than the rights of Tenant under this Lease; and (3) Landlord receives a copy of the sublease.

In the event that Landlord fails to deliver any of said executed non-disturbance agreement(s) to Tenant then, notwithstanding any tender of delivery or acceptance of possession of the Demised Premises, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by notice of termination given to Landlord and Tenant shall have no liability to Landlord on account of such termination.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Lease to the contrary or inconsistent herewith and notwithstanding the fulfillment of any or all other conditions to this Lease, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay Rent or any other sums under this Lease and Tenant shall not in any manner or for any purpose be bound by this Lease unless and until Landlord shall have delivered to Tenant said executed non-disturbance agreement(s) as provided in this Article 16.

DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

Section 17.1 Demised Premises

A. If the Demised Premises are damaged or destroyed so that (i) in Tenant's reasonable opinion the same are not suitable for the purpose of Tenant's business, (ii) in the reasonable opinion of Tenant's architect, they cannot be repaired with reasonable diligence within one hundred and eighty (180) days of the date of such damage or destruction, or (iii) there remains only two (2) years or less on the Term of this Lease as the same may have been extended by Tenant, then Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease upon thirty (30) days' notice to Landlord. In the event of such termination, Rent and all other charges payable by Tenant shall be payable only to the date of the damage or destruction and any Rent or other charges paid in advance, if any, by Tenant shall be refunded by Landlord to Tenant to the extent that the same are for a period after the damage or destruction.

B. If the Demised Premises are damaged or destroyed and Tenant does not exercise its right to terminate as provided in Subsection A. of this Section 17.1, then Landlord shall rebuild and restore the Demised Premises with all reasonable diligence to the condition it existed prior to such damage or destruction, including without limitation, restoring and replacing the Improvements (as such term is defined in Section 30.4 below) that were acquired with or funded by the Tenant Improvement Allowance (as defined in Section 30.3 below) and during the period from the date of such damage or destruction until completion of rebuilding and restoration, the charges payable by Tenant shall abate as follows:

(1) If the Demised Premises are used during such period, Rent and all other charges payable hereunder by Tenant shall abate in the proportion that the damaged or destroyed portion bears to the whole and Rent and all other charges shall be paid on the basis of the number of square feet of rentable area in the Demised Premises which are actually used; or

(2) If the Demised Premises are not used during such period for the purpose of retail sales, then there shall be a complete abatement of Rent and all other charges from the date of damage until thirty (30) days after completion of rebuilding and restoration.

C. If any damage to or condition of the Demised Premises, which by this Lease is Landlord's responsibility, shall in Tenant's reasonable judgment be considered of such a nature as to require emergency action, Tenant may undertake, at Landlord's expense, temporary emergency measures and Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the costs and expenses associated with such measures taken by Tenant upon its receipt of Tenant's written demand therefor (which written demand shall be accompanied by copies of receipted invoices or other reasonable evidence of the costs and expenses so claimed by Tenant). If the amount so due to Tenant is not paid within thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the said demand therefor, Tenant shall have the right to deduct said amount, including interest, from Rent and all other charges thereafter payable by Tenant to Landlord under the Lease. Tenant shall use reasonable commercial efforts to promptly notify Landlord (by telephone or otherwise) of any such emergency and shall allow Landlord reasonable opportunity to undertake such necessary emergency measures prior to Tenant undertaking same.

Section 17.2 Common Area

If any portion of the Common Area of the Shopping Centre is rendered or found to be unfit for the use for which it was intended and if the Demised Premises are thereby rendered not reasonably usable for retail sales, then during the period that the Demised Premises are not reasonably usable for retail sales Rent and all other charges payable hereunder by Tenant shall be entirely abated. In the event that thirty percent (30%) or more of the Common Area of the entire Shopping Centre or ten percent (10%) or more of the portion thereof within three hundred (300) feet of the Demised Premises is rendered unfit for its intended use for any reason for a period of ninety (90) days or more, then Tenant shall have the option to terminate this Lease by notice to Landlord at any time after such ninety (90) day period has terminated and while such portion of the Common Area remains unfit for its intended use. If any portion of the Common Area of the Shopping Centre is damaged or destroyed Landlord shall promptly repair and restore the same at its sole cost and expense or cause the same to be repaired at no expense to Tenant.

Section 17.3 Other Area in the Shopping Centre

In the event that more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the rentable area in the Shopping Centre other than the Demised Premises is damaged or destroyed, then Tenant shall have the option to terminate this Lease by notice to Landlord at any time within one hundred and twenty (120) days after such damage or destruction. If Tenant does not exercise its right to terminate this Lease as aforesaid and either (i) more than two (2) years remain on the Term of this Lease as the same may have been extended by Tenant or (ii) there remains less than two (2) years on the Term as may be extended but their remains at least one (1) unexercised option to extend the Term and Tenant agrees to exercise such option, then Landlord shall rebuild or restore the damaged or destroyed rentable area with all reasonable diligence.

Section 17.4 Performance of Repair or Restoration

All work required of Landlord under the provisions of this Article shall be prosecuted by Landlord with all due diligence and shall be completed in a good and workmanlike manner, using first quality workmanship and materials.

CONDEMNATION

Section 18.1 Definition of Condemnation

The term "Condemnation" or "Condemned" means the taking or expropriation of any portion of the Shopping Centre pursuant to an exercise of the power of eminent domain or any conveyance in lieu of expropriation under threat thereof by a government authority having the power of expropriation or the requisitioning and possession of any portion of the Shopping Centre by any governmental authority for any purpose arising out of a temporary emergency or other temporary circumstances.

Section 18.2 Tenant's Right to Terminate

In the event of the occurrence of any of the following events, Tenant shall have the right and option to terminate this Lease:

(a) if the whole of the Demised Premises shall be Condemned;

(b) if any part of the Demised Premises shall be Condemned;

(c) if ten percent (10%) or more of the rentable area of the other buildings in the Shopping Centre shall be Condemned;

(d) if twenty percent (20%) or more of the number of parking spaces in the Shopping Centre shall be Condemned and Landlord shall not have, within sixty (90) days of the date upon which such Condemnation takes effect, replaced the same on the Shopping Centre or on land adjacent to the Shopping Centre in a location reasonably satisfactory to Tenant;

(e) if any of Tenant's means of vehicular ingress and egress between any entrance to the Shopping Centre and public roads are Condemned or impaired and Landlord shall not have, within sixty (60) days of the date upon which such Condemnation or impairment takes effect, replaced such ingress and egress by similar ones reasonably satisfactory to Tenant.

Tenant may exercise its option to terminate this Lease, as a result of the foregoing events, by giving Landlord no less than ninety (90) days prior written notice (given no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of the Condemnation). The termination shall be effective upon the earlier of (a) the last day of the calendar month next following the expiration of the ninety (90) day notice period or (b) the date when title becomes vested in the party exercising the right of Condemnation or (c) the earlier date of termination as specified by Tenant in its notice. Rent and all other charges to be paid by Tenant shall be pro-rated and paid to the date of termination and all amounts paid in advance, if any, shall be immediately refunded by Landlord to Tenant.

Section 18.3 Effect of Condemnation Where Tenant Does Not Have the Right to Terminate or Where Tenant Does Not Elect to Exercise Its Right to Terminate

In the event that this Lease is not terminated as the result of a Condemnation of the Demised Premises and/or any other rentable premises in the Shopping Centre pursuant to the provisions of the foregoing Section 18.2, Landlord shall, within one hundred eighty (180) days after the occurrence of any Condemnation, at Landlord's expense, repair, restore and rebuild the Demised Premises (or the other premises) to a condition, as nearly as practicable, to that which existed prior to the Condemnation, so as to effect thereby an architectural and operating unit similar to that which existed before the taking. During the period of repair and restoration, if Tenant is unable to operate its business on the Demised Premises, Rent and all other charges payable hereunder shall be entirely abated. If, during the period of restoration Tenant operates its business or a portion thereof in the Demised Premises, Rent and all other charges payable hereunder by Tenant shall abate in the proportion that the unused portion of the Demised Premises bears to the former whole thereof and Rent and all other charges shall be paid on the basis of the number of square feet of floor area in the Demised Premises which Tenant uses for the operation of its business during the period of restoration. After the completion of repair and restoration, Rent and all other charges payable hereunder by Tenant shall abate in the proportion that the portion taken bears to the remaining Demised Premises and thereafter Rent and all other charges shall be paid on the basis of the number of square feet of floor area remaining in the Demised Premises.

If this Lease is not so terminated and a portion of the parking area shall have been Condemned, then Landlord, at its expense, shall restore the parking, within the boundaries of the Shopping Centre, in order to maintain the parking ratio required pursuant to Section 15.1.

Section 18.4 Condemnation Award

Both Landlord and Tenant agree to cooperate with each other in respect of any Condemnation of all or any part of the Demised Premises or any other part of the Shopping Centre so that each may receive the maximum award to which each is respectively entitled by law, provided that either party shall have the right to appeal any order or decision under which such award is issued. Without limiting the foregoing rights of Tenant, Tenant shall have the right to prove and obtain a portion of any Condemnation award that is allocable to the loss, or diminution in value, of Tenant's leasehold interest and leasehold improvements and for loss or damage to Tenant's trade fixtures and other personal property, and for damages or interruption of Tenant's business and for relocation and moving expenses.

Section 18.5 No Transfers; Notice

Landlord covenants and agrees to make no transfer, conveyance or assignment under threat of Condemnation without the prior written consent of Tenant, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Landlord further covenants and agrees that, upon the filing or notice of any Condemnation proceedings, it shall promptly notify Tenant and give Tenant full opportunity to participate in any such proceedings to the extent Tenant deems such participation advisable.

DEFAULTS

Section 19.1 Tenant Defaults

In any of the following events (which events are referred to herein as a "default"):

(A) Tenant shall fail to pay Rent to Landlord when due and such failure continues for fifteen (15) days after Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord of such failure; or

(B) Tenant shall fail to take all reasonable steps to perform any other term, covenant, or condition on its part to be performed hereunder, other than the payment of Rent, within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice from Landlord so to do (or, if such default cannot be cured within said thirty (30) day period, then within such additional period of time as may be reasonably required to cure such default provided Tenant is diligently pursuing to completion the curing of such default);

then Landlord may by giving ten (10) days prior notice to Tenant at any time thereafter during the continuance of such default either (a) terminate this Lease or (b) re-enter the Demised Premises by summary proceedings, expelling Tenant and removing all property therefrom and re-let the Demised Premises at the best possible rent obtainable, making reasonable efforts therefor, and receive the rent therefrom; but Tenant shall remain liable for the equivalent of the amount of all rent reserved herein less the avails of re-letting, if any, after deducting therefrom the reasonable cost of obtaining possession of the Demised Premises and of any repairs and alterations necessary to prepare them for re-letting. Any and all monthly deficiencies so payable by Tenant shall be paid monthly on the date herein provided for the payment of rent. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, upon the happening of any alleged default on the part of Tenant (other than a default in the payment of Rent), if, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the aforementioned thirty (30) day notice thereof from Landlord, Tenant shall, in good faith, either (i) commence and thereafter diligently prosecute in a court of competent jurisdiction a proceeding to determine whether or not such alleged default or defaults have occurred or (ii) institute arbitration proceedings for the determination of whether or not such alleged default or defaults shall have occurred, then Landlord may not terminate this Lease or re-enter as provided above unless the final judgment in such court proceedings or the award in such arbitration proceedings, as the case may be, shall be adverse to Tenant and Tenant, in such case, shall have a further grace period of twenty (20) days from the date of the final judgment in such court proceedings or of the award in such arbitration proceedings within which to cure such defaults or, if any such default or defaults cannot reasonably be cured within such twenty (20) days, within which to commence and thereafter diligently prosecute to completion the work of curing such default or defaults.

Provided further, if Tenant fails to make any payment to Landlord required under this Lease when due hereunder, the full amount of the said payment owing by Tenant to Landlord shall bear interest at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum over the then existing prime rate of interest charged from time to time by the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce at its main Toronto branch to its most creditworthy customers (but in no event exceeding the maximum rate per annum permitted by law) from the time payment was due hereunder until paid.

Section 19.2 Landlord's Defaults

A. If Landlord shall fail to perform or to make any of the obligations, agreements, payments or covenants to be performed or made by Landlord pursuant to this Lease, and said default is not cured within the "Curing Period" as defined and limited in Subsection B of this Section, then, in addition to the right to collect damages therefor and all other rights and remedies available to Tenant under the circumstances, Tenant shall have the following rights and remedies:

(1) the right to enjoin said violation in a court of competent jurisdiction. Said right shall also exist with respect to any threatened violation.

(2) The right, but not the obligation (said right not imposing any duties on Tenant with respect to its exercise), to perform any such obligation, agreement, payment or covenant, including any payment to a third party required hereunder, and Tenant by reason of so doing shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or damage thereby sustained by Landlord or anyone claiming under or through Landlord except for losses due to Tenant's gross negligence.

(3) The right to terminate the Lease.

If Landlord fails to make any payment to Tenant required under this Lease when due hereunder, the full amount of the said payment owing by Landlord to Tenant shall bear interest at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum over the then existing prime rate of interest charged from time to time by the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce at its main Toronto branch to its most creditworthy customers (but in no event exceeding the maximum rate per annum permitted by law) from the time of expenditure or damage until paid. If the amount so due to Tenant is not paid within thirty (30) days after said statement is submitted, Tenant shall have the right to deduct said amount, including interest, from Rent and all other charges thereafter payable by Tenant to Landlord.

B. The "Curing Period" for any default under this Lease by Landlord shall be thirty (30) days commencing with the receipt by Landlord of notice from Tenant of said default; provided, however, that if the default relates to a matter which, in Tenant's reasonable judgment, is of an emergency nature, the Curing Period shall be forty-eight (48) hours or such lesser period as is reasonable under the circumstances. If said default is of such a character as reasonably to require more than thirty (30) days to cure, said Curing Period shall be extended to such period as may be reasonably required for such cure if Landlord has commenced curing said default within said thirty (30) day period and is diligently pursuing said cure to completion.

C. Landlord hereby grants to Tenant non-exclusive easements in, over, under and through any and all parts of the Shopping Centre (excluding the right to enter any store occupied by tenants or occupants) for all purposes reasonably necessary to enable Tenant, acting in accordance with the provisions of Subsection A of this Section 19.2, directly or through employees, agents or contractors, to perform any of the terms, provisions, agreements, obligations, covenants or conditions of this Lease which Landlord shall have failed to perform.

ARTICLE 20
[INTENTIONALLY DELETED]

EXCUSES FOR NON-PERFORMANCE

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, each party shall be excused from performing any obligation under this Lease, and any delay in the performance of any obligation under this Lease shall be excused, if and so long as the performance of the obligation is prevented, delayed or otherwise hindered by acts of God, fire, earthquake, floods, explosion, actions of the elements, war, riots, mob violence, inability to procure or a general shortage of labour, equipment, facilities, materials or supplies in the open market, failure of transportation, strikes, lockouts, actions of labour unions, condemnation, court orders, laws or orders of governmental or military authorities or any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, not within the control of such Party (other than lack of or inability to procure monies to fulfill its commitments and obligations under this Lease) ("Force Majeure"). Each party shall promptly notify the other of the occurrence of any Force Majeure that might prevent or delay the doing or performance of acts or things required to be done or performed by it upon becoming aware of such Force Majeure, and shall also advise the other of the anticipated duration and consequences of such Force Majeure..

REMOVAL OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

At any time during the Term of this Lease Tenant may remove any or all trade fixtures, furniture, furnishings, signs, equipment, carpeting, cash registers, inventory and any and all items of personal property placed in, on or about the Demised Premises by Tenant or by Tenant's subtenants, licensees or concessionaires. Tenant agrees to repair any damage to the Demised Premises occasioned by the removal of any such item, but such obligation shall not extend to painting or redecorating the Demised Premises. Title to all of such trade fixtures, furniture, furnishings, signs, equipment, machinery, carpeting, cash registers, inventory and any and all items of personal property shall remain in Tenant and Tenant alone shall be entitled to claim depreciation therefor. Landlord hereby waives, releases and relinquishes any and all rights of distraint, levy, attachment or recourse to the trade fixtures, furnishings, signs, equipment, machinery, carpeting, cash registers, inventory and personal property in the Demised Premises. Although the foregoing waiver, release and relinquishment shall be self-operative without the necessity for any further instrument or document, Landlord hereby agrees to furnish Tenant or any vendor or other supplier under any conditional sale, chattel mortgage or other security arrangement, or any consignor and holder of reserved title or any holder of a security interest, upon request from time to time, waivers of Landlord's right to distraint, levy, attachment or recourse with respect thereto and exempting the same from distraint, levy, attachment or recourse.

SURRENDER; HOLDING OVER

Upon the expiration or earlier termination of the term of this Lease, Tenant covenants that it shall peaceably and quietly leave and surrender the Demised Premises together with all alterations, additions and improvements then a part of such Demised Premises in good order and condition, reasonable wear and tear, physical depreciation, obsolescence, and any restoration, repairs and replacements required to be made by Landlord excepted, and loss or damage by fire, the elements and casualty excepted.

Should Tenant hold over in possession after the expiration of the term, such holding over shall not be deemed to extend the term or renew this Lease, but the tenancy thereafter shall continue upon the covenants and conditions herein set forth at the monthly rate of rental in effect during the last month of the term, until terminated by either party by notice designating the date of termination given to the other party sixty (60) or more days before such date.

BROKERS' FEES

Tenant and Landlord each represent and warrant to the other that it has had no dealings, negotiations, or consultations with any broker, representative, salesperson, employee, agent or other intermediary in connection with this Lease and/or any other any other transaction between Tenant and Landlord respecting the Demised Premises. Tenant shall defend, protect, indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against all liabilities, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of or related to any claim (whether meritorious or not) of any broker, representative, salesperson, employee, agent, finder or other intermediary claiming to have dealt on Tenant's behalf for any and all commission and/or fees arising out of or related to the transaction described in this Lease and/or any other transaction between Landlord and Tenant respecting the Demised Premises. Landlord shall defend, protect, indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from and against all liabilities, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from any claim (whether meritorious or not) of any broker, representative, salesperson, employee, agent, finder or other intermediary, claiming to have dealt on Landlord's behalf for any and all commissions and/or fees arising out of or related to the transaction described in this Lease and/or any other transaction between Landlord and Tenant respecting the Demised Premises.

REGISTRATION

Tenant may register a notice of this Lease on title to those lands in and upon which the Shopping Centre is located, the form and content of which will be subject to Landlord's prior approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. All costs related to such registration shall be the responsibility of Tenant. The notice of Lease so registered on title will not disclose any information concerning the rent or rental rates to be paid hereunder or any other financial provisions of this Lease. Upon the expiry or early termination of this Lease, Tenant will, at its sole expense, cause the notice of Lease to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from title to the Shopping Centre and to provide proof of such action to Landlord, within thirty (30) days following the date of such expiry or early termination.

NOTICES

Except as expressly provided otherwise in this Lease, any notice, demand, request, consent, approval or other communication which either party hereto is required or desires to give or make or communicate to the other hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given or made or communicated either by personal delivery, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or by a nationally-recognized overnight delivery service that provides a receipt to indicate delivery, and addressed in the case of Landlord to:

c/o Ivanhoe Cambridge Inc.
95 Wellington Street West, Suite 300
Toronto, Ontario

Attention: Senior Vice President Real Estate

with a copy thereof to:

Hudson's Bay Company
15 West 38th Street, 11th Floor
New York, New York 10018
Attention: President-Real Estate

subject to the right of either party to designate different addresses by giving notice as above provided. Any notice, demand, request, consent, approval, or other communication so sent shall be deemed to have been given, made or communicated, as the case may be, (i) on the date the same was deposited in the Canadian mail as registered or certified mail, with postage fully prepaid, regardless of the time of actual delivery, (ii) if by personal delivery, on the date thereof or (iii) one (1) business day after the same was deposited with such nationally-recognized overnight delivery service for overnight delivery. In no event shall either party be required to give notice to more than three addresses or persons, nor shall Tenant be required to cut multiple checks for the payment of Rent.

No successor to Landlord's interest in the Demised Premises shall be entitled to receive Rent nor any other amounts due hereunder until thirty (30) days after Tenant's receipt of proper notice of such change, together with a copy of the executed document or documents evidencing such change from the grantor, assignor or party entitled to receive Rent and other amounts immediately preceding such change. Until such receipt, Tenant shall continue to pay the Rent and any and all other amounts due to Landlord hereunder to the party to which, and in the manner in which, the last preceding instalment of Rent and/or any other amounts due hereunder was paid or pending receipt of such property notification and documentation, accrue and withhold payment of any and all such amounts.

ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATES

Each of Landlord and Tenant covenant that within twenty (20) days after a written request of the other, it shall issue to the other party's prospective lender or prospective purchaser of its interest in the Shopping Centre (or as to Tenant, its interest in the Lease and/or the Demised Premises), specified by such requesting party, an estoppel certificate stating to the best of its knowledge: (i) whether any notice of default has been sent for a default under the Lease not yet cured; (ii) whether the Lease has been modified or amended in any way (and if it has, then listing the names and dates of the applicable modification and/or amendment documents); and (iii) that the Lease as of that date is in full force and effect. Such statements shall not subject the party furnishing it to any liability, notwithstanding the negligent or otherwise inadvertent failure of such party to disclose correct and/or relevant information. However, the party furnishing the certificate shall not be permitted to assert or enforce any claim against the person or entity to whom it is delivered (or against such person's or entity's property) which is inconsistent with the statements contained in the certificate, except to the extent that the person or entity against whom the claim would otherwise be asserted or enforced had actual knowledge of facts to the contrary. Either party hereto who is requested to give an estoppel certificate under this Article 27 (the "Requested Party") may require, as a condition to fulfilling its obligation to provide such estoppel certificate, that the other party hereto requesting such estoppel certificate give a similar estoppel certificate to the Requested Party.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 28.1 Captions

The captions of the Articles and Sections of this Lease are for convenience only and shall not be considered or referred to in resolving questions of interpretation or construction.

Section 28.2 Remedies Cumulative

The various rights, options, elections, powers and remedies contained in this Lease, including the rights herein granted to terminate this Lease, shall be construed as cumulative and no one of them shall be exclusive of any of the others, or of any other legal or equitable remedy which either party might otherwise have in the event of breach or default in the terms hereof, and the exercise of one right or remedy by such party shall not impair its right to any other right or remedy until all obligations imposed upon the other party have been fully performed; provided, however, that legal or equitable remedies not specifically provided for in this Lease shall not be exercisable concurrently with, the rights, options, elections, powers and remedies contained in Sections 19.1 and 19.2 to the extent of and for the periods set forth in said Sections 19.1 and 19.2. It is intended that each of the agreements and covenants of Landlord and Tenant set forth herein be deemed both a covenant and a condition.

Section 28.3 Governing Law

This Lease shall be governed and interpreted by and in accordance with the laws of the Province of Manitoba and the laws of Canada applicable thereto.

Section 28.4 Successors and Assigns

Each and all of the provisions of this Lease shall be binding upon and enure of the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, permitted successors-in-interest, permitted successors and permitted assigns, subject at all times, nevertheless, to all agreements, covenants and conditions contained elsewhere in this Lease.

Section 28.5 No Partnership

Nothing contained in this Lease shall be deemed or construed by the parties hereto or by any third party to create the relationship of principal and agent or of partnership or of joint venture or of any association between Landlord and Tenant, and neither the method of computation or rent nor any other provision contained in this Lease nor any acts of the parties hereto shall be deemed to create any relationship between Landlord and Tenant other than the relationship of landlord and tenant.

Section 28.6 No Waiver

No waiver of any default hereunder shall be implied from any omission by either party to take any action on account of such default if such default persists or is repeated, and no express waiver shall affect any default other than the default specified in the express waiver, and then only for the time and to the extent therein stated. No delay or omission by either party hereto to exercise any right or power accruing upon any non-compliance or default by the other party with respect to any of the terms hereof, or otherwise accruing hereunder shall impair any such right or power or be construed to be a waiver thereof. One or more waivers of any breach of any covenant, term or condition of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same covenant, term or condition. The consent or approval by a party to or of any act by the other party requiring the former party's consent or approval shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary such former party's consent or approval to or of any subsequent similar acts by the other party.

Section 28.7 Entire Agreement; Amendment

As of the execution hereof, this Lease contains all covenants and agreements between Landlord and Tenant exclusively relating in any manner to the rental, use and occupancy of the Demised Premises and the other matters set forth in this Lease. No prior agreement or understanding pertaining to the same shall be valid or of any force or effect, and the covenants and agreements of this Lease cannot be altered, changed, modified or added to, except in writing signed by Landlord and Tenant.

Section 28.8 Severability

If any provision of this Lease or the application thereof to any one or to any circumstance shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the validity and enforceability of this Lease or the application of such provision to persons, entities or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby, and all remaining terms, conditions and provisions of this Lease (except those which are conditioned upon or made subject to such invalid or unenforceable provision) shall be valid and shall be enforceable to the extent permitted by law, unless enforcement or performance of this Lease, without the invalid and/or unenforceable term, conditions or provisions, would be unreasonable or inequitable to Landlord or Tenant under all the circumstances or would frustrate the purposes of this Lease. An invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed modified so as to constitute a provision conforming as nearly as possible to said invalid or unenforceable provision while still maintaining valid and enforceable the remaining terms, conditions and provisions of this Lease and the intent of the parties.

Section 28.9 Assumption Agreement

Landlord agrees to deliver to Tenant an agreement signed by any party or parties who may purchase or succeed to all or any part of Landlord's interest in the Demised Premises and/or the remainder of the Shopping Centre, which agreement shall formally recognize the obligations of such party or parties as purchasers from and successors to Landlord and the assumption by such party or parties as purchasers of and successors to all of Landlord's obligations, responsibilities and duties hereunder. Such agreement shall be in a form reasonably satisfactory to the counsel of Tenant and shall be delivered to Tenant before any such sale or transfer by Landlord can become final. No assignment or other transfer by Landlord shall relieve Landlord of its obligations, covenants, representations or warranties under this Lease.

Section 28.10 Construction

Landlord and Tenant have participated equally in the preparation of this Lease. This Lease was subject to revision and modification by both parties and has been accepted and approved as its final form by counsel for both parties. Accordingly, any uncertainty or ambiguity existing in this Lease shall not be interpreted against any one party hereto as a result of the manner of the preparation of this Lease.

Section 28.11 References to Landlord and Tenant

Wherever in this Lease reference is made to Landlord or Tenant, it shall be held to include and apply to one or more persons or entities which may be such Landlord or Tenant and use of singular or plural verbs and pronouns shall be appropriately adapted.

Section 28.12 Time of the Essence

Time is of the essence with respect to all matters provided in this Lease.

Section 28.13 Locative Adverbs

The locative adverbs "herein", "hereunder", "hereto", "hereby", "hereinafter", and like words wherever the same appear herein, mean and refer to this Lease in its entirety and not to any specific Article, Section or Subsection hereof.

Section 28.14 Exhibits

All exhibits referred to in this Lease and attached hereto are and shall be incorporated in this Lease and made a part hereof.

Section 28.15 Counterparts

This Lease may be signed in counterparts, each of which, when delivered by both parties, shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which shall be taken to be one and the same instrument, with the same effect as if both parties hereto had signed the same signature page. Any signature page of this Lease may be detached from any counterpart of this Lease without impairing the legal effect of any signatures thereon and may be attached to another counterpart of this Lease identical in form hereto but having attached to it one or more additional signature pages. Any counterpart to which is attached the signatures of both parties shall constitute an original of this Lease.

Section 28.16 Image Transmission

The transmission of an image of any signed original document will have the same binding effect as an original bearing an original signature. No party may raise the use of a facsimile machine or other image transmission device or method or the fact that any signature was transmitted as an image as a defense to the enforcement of such document. At the request of either party, the parties will confirm signatures by signing and delivering an original document.

Section 28.17 Calculation of Ends of Periods

Whenever in this Lease it is provided that an action may or must be taken or that an event is to occur within a specified number of days, if the last day of the specified number of days falls on a Saturday or Sunday or a public holiday, such last day shall, instead of such Saturday, Sunday or public holiday, be deemed to be the following business day after such Saturday, Sunday or public holiday.

Section 28.18 The Term "And/Or"

The term "and/or" as used in this Lease means one or the other or both, or any one or ones of all, of the items, entities or persons in connection with which the words are used.

Section 28.19 References to Articles and Sections

All references herein to a given Article or Section refer to the Article or Section of this Lease, unless otherwise stated.

Section 28.21 Leasehold Policy

Landlord shall pay all premiums and other charges of a title company (selected by Tenant) (the "Title Company") to issue to Tenant an ALTA, Form B, extended coverage leasehold policy of title insurance in the amount of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00), insuring the leasehold in the Demised Premises and insuring Tenant's easement rights, including without limitation for parking, vehicular and pedestrian ingress and egress and use of the Common Area for their intended purposes, as set forth in this Lease, all to be good in Tenant on the date hereof without any exceptions except the Permitted Exceptions (the "Leasehold Policy"). The Leasehold Policy shall be in such form and contain such endorsements as may be deemed necessary by Tenant in its sole and absolute discretion. Landlord shall satisfy such reasonable requirements of the Title Company for issuance of the Leasehold Policy as are set forth in the commitment therefore and provide to Title Company any items reasonably requested to facilitate removal of certain exceptions, including, without limitation, affidavits and surveys. If the Title Company charges any fees for the commitment, the search of the records and/or for obtaining copies of all of the exceptions to title, then Landlord shall also pay such charges to the Title Company upon demand therefor.

Section 28.23 Roof Equipment

Tenant shall have the right, without charge but subject to Landlord's prior approval (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), to install, maintain, repair, operate, use, replace and remove, at Tenant's expense, a wireless communications antenna, and/or other telecom equipment including, without limitation, satellite dishes, satellite poles or other communications facilities (collectively, the "Roof Equipment") on the roof of the Demised Premises, including the right to connect the Roof Equipment to the interior of the Demised Premises. Tenant shall have access to the roof upon reasonable notice to Landlord for the purpose of installing, operating, servicing, maintaining, repairing, replacing or removing the Roof Equipment, but subject to Landlord's reasonable policies regarding insurance coverage for contractors. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall remove the Roof Equipment from the roof and repair any damage to the roof caused by the Roof Equipment. Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against any damage arising out of the erection, maintenance, existence and/or removal of the Roof Equipment. Tenant shall similarly have access to the roof upon reasonable notice to Landlord for the purpose of inspecting, maintaining, repairing and replacing the HVAC units and related equipment located thereon.

Section 28.25 Confidentiality

The parties agree that the terms and conditions of this Lease shall remain confidential and that neither party may disclose any of the terms of this Lease to any person that is not a party to this Lease without the prior written consent of the other party, except that each party shall be permitted to disclose this Lease and/or the provisions hereof (a) to its attorneys, consultants, accountants, directors or employees; (b) any lender, purchaser, or prospective partner of Landlord or Tenant; (c) any prospective assignee of this Lease; (d) any prospective subtenant all or any portion of the Demised Premises; (e) as may be reasonably necessary to enforce the provisions of this Lease; and (f) as may otherwise be required by law or court order.

Landlord shall not issue any press statements regarding Tenant's entering into this Lease or any other agreement to lease space in the Shopping Centre without having obtained Tenant's prior written approval thereof.

Section 28.27 GST

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease, Tenant shall pay to the appropriate party designated by law all harmonized sales taxes, goods and service taxes, sales taxes, value-added taxes or multi-stage taxes, howsoever characterized at law, and imposed on Tenant in respect of any rent or other charges payable to Landlord hereunder in the manner and at the times permitted or specified by the appropriate taxing legislation (hereinafter collectively and individually called the "GST"). In the event that Tenant is required by law to pay the GST to Landlord (acting as agent for the taxing authority) the GST shall not be considered as rent, despite any other provision of this Lease, but Landlord shall have the same remedies for and rights of recovery with respect to the amount of GST as it has for non-payment of rent under the Lease or at law.

ARTICLE 29
LANDLORD'S WORK

Section 29.1 Landlord's Work; Drawings and Specifications

Landlord shall construct the Demised Premises in a good quality to the level of completion and in accordance with the specifications attached hereto as Exhibit F on or prior to the date Landlord is, pursuant to Section 2.1, required to deliver to Tenant actual and exclusive possession of the Demised Premises.

The work described in the first sentence of this Section 29.1 is referred to herein as "Landlord's Work." All of Landlord's Work shall be performed in accordance with drawings and specifications prepared by Landlord and approved by Tenant. Tenant shall review and either approve or disapprove in Tenant's reasonable judgment all drawings and specifications which are prepared by Landlord within twenty (20) days of Tenant's receipt of such drawings and specifications. If the drawings and specifications prepared by Landlord are approved by Tenant, Tenant shall initial one set and return them to Landlord; if disapproved by Tenant, Tenant shall give to Landlord a written explanation of the reasons for the disapproval and Landlord shall, within ten (10) days, submit revised working drawings and specifications for Tenant's review and approval or disapproval. Tenant shall further review and Landlord shall further revise all such working drawings and specifications as provided in this Article 29 until approved.

Section 29.2 Completion of Landlord's Work

On or before the date Landlord is, pursuant to Section 2.1, required to deliver to Tenant actual and exclusive possession of Demised Premises, Landlord shall complete Landlord's Work to Tenant's satisfaction in accordance with Exhibit F and the drawings and specifications approved by Tenant. Landlord shall, at its sole expense, obtain and furnish all labour, materials, licenses, permits, plans, drawings, specifications, studies, tests, surveys, and any and all other things required to be furnished by Landlord or necessary to the completion of Landlord's Work. All of Landlord's Work shall be performed in accordance with all applicable governmental and insurance requirements. Landlord shall consult with Tenant from time to time concerning the scheduling and progress of Landlord's Work so as to keep Tenant informed of the progress and the estimated completion date for each portion of Landlord's Work. Tenant or its representative shall have the right at all reasonable times with prior written notice to enter upon the Demised Premises for the purpose of inspecting Landlord's Work to verify that it conforms with Exhibit F and the drawings and specifications approved by Tenant.

Section 29.3 Landlord's Warranties

Landlord warrants that all of the Landlord's Work shall be completed in a good and workmanlike manner, using first quality workmanship and materials, all of which are hereby guaranteed against all defects for a period of two (2) years from and after the completion date and such further period as materials and equipment shall be subject to manufacturer's warranty. All manufacturers' warranties applicable to any portion of the Demised Premises which Tenant is required to maintain shall be assigned to Tenant. Landlord has secured from the governmental agencies having jurisdiction thereof, in final form, all approvals required in respect of the Demised Premises and/or the Shopping Centre as to all work and improvements which Landlord and Tenant are obligated or permitted to complete or cause to be completed pursuant to this Lease so as to permit both Landlord and Tenant to submit its plans for construction and obtain building and other permits in respect thereof and to open and use the Demised Premises for retail sales and, if there are any conditions on Landlord with respect to such approvals which require performance after securing such approvals, then Landlord shall promptly fulfill such conditions.

Section 29.4 Common Area Improvements

Landlord shall, at its sole cost and expense, provide all on and off-site common area improvements required for the entire Shopping Centre, including those common area improvements and parking fields serving the Demised Premises. Landlord's work shall include, without limitation, all excavation, fill, compaction, utility relocation, and other preparation for the Shopping Centre site, including all road improvements adjacent to the Shopping Centre and leading thereto and required traffic signalization, all parking lot improvements, parking decks, sidewalks, walkways, curbs, gutters, streets, roadways, berms, retaining walls, landscaped areas, storm water disposal systems, sanitary sewer systems and all utilities (permanent and temporary) including the utilities serving the Demised Premises stubbed to a mutually acceptable location within the Demised Premises, street lighting, parking deck lighting, construction roads and staging areas and all other on and off-site common improvements reasonably necessary for the construction, operation and use of the Shopping Centre, and all tests, studies and certificates required in connection with any such work.

Landlord's work and improvements shall comply with all applicable codes, laws, ordinances, permits and regulations of all public authorities having jurisdiction and Landlord shall be responsible for procuring at Landlord's expense (except as specifically provided in the next sentence), all governmental, quasi-governmental and private permits, approvals, entitlements, variances, etc. necessary or appropriate so as to permit construction and subsequent operation of the Demised Premises and the remainder of the Shopping Centre. Tenant shall not be obligated to pay or incur any cost or expense in connection with said procurement and compliance, including, without limitation, costs or expenses associated with environmental controls or permits, development fees, utility connection charges, tap-in fees and hook-up fees for the utilities serving the Demised Premises, except that Tenant shall bear building permit costs imposed in connection with Tenant's improvements to the extent that such costs do not constitute or are not otherwise a substitute for development fees and the like.

ARTICLE 30
TENANT'S WORK AND TENANT IMPROVEMENT ALLOWANCE

Section 30.1 Tenant's Work

Landlord acknowledges that Tenant, at its own cost and expense, may design, construct and install within the Demised Premises such improvements, equipment, fixtures, point of sale system, furniture, signs and other personal property as Tenant may determine (hereinafter called "Tenant's Work"), subject to the terms of this Lease.

Section 30.2 Easements for Construction and Repairs

Landlord hereby grants to Tenant, for use by Tenant and its servants, agents, employees and independent contractors working on or in connection with the construction, renovation and/or modification of the Demised Premises, and/or the installation, maintenance, repair and/or replacement of trade fixtures or building equipment (including, without limitation, the HVAC equipment), all necessary or appropriate rights of reasonable access, ingress and egress to and from the front, back, sides and roof of the Demised Premises during the course of Tenant's Work and any subsequent construction, renovation and/or modifications of the Demised Premises and/or trade fixtures or building equipment (including without limitation, the HVAC equipment). Landlord shall cooperate reasonably with Tenant in all ways so that Tenant's Work may proceed as expeditiously as reasonably possible.

Section 30.3 Tenant Improvement Allowance

Landlord agrees to pay to Tenant as an inducement to enter into this Lease a tenant inducement and improvement allowance in the amount of (a) $80,000.00, plus (b) Eighty-Five Dollars ($85.00) per square foot of rentable area of the Demised Premises, plus applicable GST (collectively, the "Tenant Improvement Allowance"), subject to any holdback requirements applicable to such payment under the then current legislation in the Province of Manitoba. Such Tenant Improvement Allowance shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant in instalments as follows: (i) fifty percent (50%) shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant no later than the date Landlord delivers possession of the Demised Premises to Tenant, (ii) forty percent (40%) shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant upon the earlier to occur of the Rent Commencement Date and the date Tenant opens for business, and (iii) the balance shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant upon Tenant providing Landlord with a statutory declaration signed by an officer of Tenant confirming that the Tenant's Work has been substantially completed and a subsearch of title to the Shopping Centre lands confirming that no construction liens have been filed on title in connection with the Tenant's Work. Should Landlord fail to pay any amount of the Tenant Improvement Allowance and/or the GST applicable thereto when due to Tenant hereunder for any reason, then, in addition to whatever remedies are otherwise available to Tenant under this Lease or at law:

(a) interest shall accrue thereon (including interest on any unpaid GST to the extent and from the date that Tenant is required to pay GST to the applicable governmental authority) in favour of Tenant commencing as of the date on which payment was due to the date on which payment is made to Tenant at a rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month, which interest shall be calculated and compounded at the end of each calendar month and shall be charged in lieu of the interest that would otherwise accrue on such unpaid sum(s) under the provisions of Section 19.2 of this Lease; and

(b) if any such payment falls due to Tenant prior to the then scheduled Rent Commencement Date, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained or suggested, the date upon which the Rent Commencement Date is scheduled to occur shall be postponed on a day-for-day basis for the same number of days as occur between the date on which such payment was due to Tenant to the date on which such payment is made in full to Tenant.

Section 30.4 Use of Tenant Improvement Allowance

Landlord and Tenant acknowledge that the Tenant Improvement Allowance is provided to Tenant for the purpose of constructing or improving all alterations, additions, permanently-installed fixtures, HVAC equipment and other permanently-installed items in or about the Demised Premises (collectively, "Improvements"), and for the purpose of purchasing and installing Tenant's trade fixtures, furniture, point of sale system and other personal property to be used in connection with Tenant's trade or business at the Demised Premises.

ARTICLE 31
[Intentionally Deleted]

LIENS

Each of Landlord and Tenant shall so conduct any construction or other work done by it so as to minimize the possibility of any claim for lien being registered against any part of the Shopping Centre lands and if any such claim for lien shall be registered shall forthwith take all reasonable steps to have the same vacated by the court having jurisdiction or discharged, but nevertheless may defer payment of any contested claim for lien if and so long as the same is being diligently contested, and provided that non-payment thereof does not render any part of the Shopping Centre lands liable to forfeiture or sale. In the conduct of any construction or other work each of Landlord and Tenant shall comply with all the provisions of applicable statutes available to it for the protection of the Shopping Centre lands from claims for lien. In the event that either Landlord or Tenant shall make default in the payment of moneys justly due in connection with any such construction or other work and a claim for lien shall be filed or registered and not promptly secured, vacated or discharged, the other party may, on not less than thirty (30) days prior notice to the defaulting party, obtain a court order vacating the registration of the claim for lien and in conjunction therewith may make payment into court or post security to the extent required to obtain such order, and all expenses incurred by it shall be promptly repaid to it by the party in default.

	• A payday advance services; • An off-track betting establishment (providing that government sponsored lottery tickets shall not be prohibited); • An adult bookstore or facility selling or displaying pornographic books, literature, or videotapes, provided however that the foregoing shall not prohibit the operation of a bookstore whose business is not primarily that of selling or renting adult or pornographic books, literature or videotapes (materials shall be considered «adult» or «pornographic» for such purpose if the same are not available for sale or rental to children under 18 years old because they explicitly deal with or depict human sexuality); • Massage parlour (unless in conjunction with a fitness facility or physiotherapy business); • Other than on the Future Development Lands, any residential use, including but not limited to living quarters, sleeping apartment or lodging rooms, except where part of an hotel; • An auditorium, banquet hall, meeting hall, or ballroom unless part of and contained within a hotel; • A grade school or other similar place of public assembly or attendance catering primarily to students and trainees rather than customers; • An employment agency, service or commission; • A skating or roller rink; • Flee market; or • A public storage facility where the premises have no substantial retail sale or service purpose, and within which the primary purpose or use of such premises is the rental of a variety of sized and subdivided spaces, which may be individually locked by the renter, and which are available for rent on a short or longer term basis by many members of the public and for the sake of clarity, does NOT include warehouse or storage space within premises as ancillary to a bona fide retail or service business carried on from the premises whether such space is accessible by the public or not.
4228676	Restrictive covenant in favour of Cabela's Retail Canada Inc. No part of the Lands shall be used or permitted to be used for the sale, display, leasing or operation of the Core Products, and it is further agreed that: ○ A) «Core Products» are taxidermy, marine products, boats, personal water craft and other water craft, trailers, live bait, fishing products and services, camping products and services, hunting products and services, off-road and all-terrain vehicles, firearms, ammunition, and archery products and components including related uses such as an archery range; and, ○ B) Without limiting the generality of the above, said usage restrictions will specifically disallow any store operated by: Bass Pro, Blain's Farm & Fleet, Scheels, REI, Gander Mountain, Academy Sports & Outdoors, Land's End, LL Bean, West Marine, Sierra Trading Post, Mac's Sporting Goods, Orvis, Columbia Outlet, Woolrich Outlet, Mossy Oak Outlet, Sportsman Guide, Boater's World, Mills Fleet Farm, Oshman's, Frontiersman, Fishing Hole, LeBaron, Sportsman's Warehouse, Sail/Baron and Wholesale Sports. • Notwithstanding the above:

	○ A) Onwer shall not be restricted from allowing or permitting either of SportChek or Dick's Sporting Goods (or such other names (if any) as they or their successors carry on business) to operate their respective business in or from the Lands, provided that Dick's Sporting Goods shall only be permitted on that portion of the Lands which lies north of Sterling Lyon Parkway. ○ B) Any retail occupant may use up to the lesser of: ○ (i) ten percent (10%) of its sales floor area; or ○ (ii) then thousand (10,000) square feet of its sales floor area, for either or both the sale and/or display of the aggregate of any such Core Products. • The Owner shall be entitled to have this Restrictive Covenant discharged from one lot of the Lands to be identified by Owner for use by a non-competing retailer occupying a building of more than 60,000 square feet (the «Additional Anchor» provided that, either: • (i) the Owner has made reasonable requests in writing to the Additional Anchor to allow this Restrictive Covenant to remain on such lot and not be discharged; or • (ii) the Additional Anchor is Target Department Stores (in which event Cabela's agrees to provide to the Owner a partial discharge of this Restrictive Covenant in trust at the time Target Department Stores purchases or closes its purchase or lease of the lot, on the condition that the partial discharge shall only be registered upon Target Department Stores opining for business from such location). • If the Additional Anchor requires registration of a restrictive covenant against the Dominant Tenement protecting the exclusive use as a department store, then Cabela's shall grant such registration but will then not be required to discharge its registration against the Additional Anchor's lot. • Prior to any assignment, sale or transfer of any portion of the Lands, or any interest in it, in whole or part, the Owner shall use reasonable commercial efforts to cause the assignee, purchaser, or transferee to enter into an assumption agreement with Cabela's agreeing to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement, duly executed by the assignee, purchaser or transferee, and so on from time to time in respect of any subsequent dispositions during the term of this Agreement.
4448583	Restrictive covenant in favour of Tuxedo Yards Development Corp. and Montez Core Income Fund Limited Partnership (as owners of Lots 1, 2 and 5 to 13 Plan 52165 WLTO in OTM Lots 5 to 11) that no part of the Lands shall be used or permitted to be used for purposes of a store operated by or as a «Leon's» or «The Brick». Provided that the Owner therein sells Lot 5 Plan 52165 WLTO in OTM Lots 5 to 11 Parish of St. Charles to Lowe's Companies, Canada ULC or an entity related thereto on or before January 14, 2016, the Covenantors and Nominee agree that no portion of the Lands may be used for a retail home improvement centre, a warehouse home improvement centre, a retail warehouse home improvement centre, lumber yard, building materials supply centre, home improvement service centre, and/or any store whose primary business is the sale of large appliances, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, including, Home Depot, Home Depot Expo, Villagers Hardware, 84 Lumber, Wickes, Hughes Lumber, McCoys, Menard's, Sears Hardware, Sears Appliance and Hardware, Sears Appliance Centre, Sears Home (or any combination of such Sears concepts), Great Indoors, Pacific Sales, hhgreg, Conn's, Sutherlands, Scotty's, Orchard Supply, The Brick, Leon's, Pro Hardware, Pro Home Centre, Rona Home Centre, Rona Home and Garden, Rona Lansing, Rona Cashway, The Building Box, Home Hardware, Lee Valley, Canadian Tire or Totem Building Supplies. The foregoing shall not apply or extend to: • Target Corporation, as a department store; • Simons La Maison Inc., as a department store; • J.C. Penney Corporation Inc., as a department store; • London Drugs Ltd., as a general merchandiser; • Kohl's Corp., as a department store; • Loblaw Companies Ltd., as a supermarket, grocery store and general merchandiser; and/or • Wal-Mart Stores Inc. or Wal-Mart Canada Corp., as a general merchandiser.

4448583	Restrictive covenant in favour of Tuxedo Yards Development Corp. and Montez Core Income Fund Limited Partnership that no portion of the Lands shall be used for the purpose or the sale of gasoline or other motor fuels and lubricants for direct dispensal in motor vehicles, except for that portion of the Lands occupied by a Major Anchor (as defined below) which user may operate or cause to be operated a retail fuel sales facility ancillary to the user's primary use which primary use shall not be retail fuel sales. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the Major Anchor operate the ancillary retail fuel facility under the brands Esso, Imperial, Petro Canada, Sunoco, Chevron, Co-op, Mohawk, Husky, Domo or any brand where the primary business associated with the brand is gasoline retailing but same is not meant to restrict any such Major Anchor from having the retail fuel sales facility operate under its own brand. «Major Anchor» shall mean any occupant, tenant or owner of premises with a building footprint exceeding fifty thousand (50,000) square feet within the Lands.
	All restrictions and prohibited uses as set out in the ROA, inclusive of Section 6.2 and Schedule F.

Exhibit D - Rules and Regulations

Tenant will not be required to comply with any rule or regulation unless the rule or regulation applies to all tenants in the Shopping Centre.

1. Security Landlord may from time to time adopt appropriate systems and procedures for the security or safety of the Shopping Centre, any persons occupying, using or entering the same, or any equipment, finishings or contents thereof, and Tenant will comply with Landlord's reasonable requirements relative thereto.

2. Return of Keys At the end of the Term, Tenant will promptly return to Landlord all keys for the Shopping Centre and Premises which are in possession of Tenant.

3. Repair, Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements Tenant will carry out Tenant's repair, maintenance, alterations and improvements in the Premises only during times agreed to in advance by Landlord and in a manner which will not interfere with the rights of other tenants in the Shopping Centre.

4. Water Fixtures Tenant will not use water fixtures for any purpose for which they are not intended, nor will water be wasted by tampering with such fixtures. Any cost or damage resulting from such misuse by Tenant will be paid for by Tenant.

5. Personal Use of Premises The Premises will not be used or permitted to be used for residential, lodging or sleeping purposes or for the storage of personal effects or property not required for business purposes.

6. Heavy Articles and Overloading Services Tenant will not place in or move about the Premises, without Landlord's prior written consent, any safe or other heavy article which in Landlord's reasonable opinion may damage the Shopping Centre, and Landlord may designate the location of any heavy articles in the Premises. Tenant will not overload any utility or service in or serving the Premises or any part of the Shopping Centre.

7. Animals, Bicycles, Shopping Carts Tenant will not bring any animals or birds into the Shopping Centre, and will not permit bicycles or other vehicles inside or on the sidewalks outside the Shopping Centre except in areas designated from time to time by Landlord for such purposes. Tenant shall not permit shopping carts in the Common Areas and Facilities and shall be fully responsible for their removal and indemnify Landlord from any claim, loss, expense, damages or injuries caused by the shopping carts.

8. Deliveries Tenant will ensure that deliveries or shipments of supplies, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, wares and merchandise to or from the Premises are made only through such delivery facilities, entrances, elevators and corridors and at such times as may from time to time be designated by Landlord, and will promptly pay or cause to be paid to Landlord the cost of repairing any damage in the Shopping Centre caused by any person making such deliveries or shipments.

9. Solicitations Landlord reserves the right to restrict or prohibit canvassing, soliciting or peddling in the Shopping Centre.

10. Food, Beverages and Entertainment Only persons approved from time to time by Landlord may prepare, solicit orders for, sell, serve or distribute foods or beverages in the Shopping Centre, or use the elevators, corridors or Common Areas and Facilities for any such purposes. Except with Landlord's prior written consent and in accordance with arrangements approved in writing by Landlord, Tenant will not permit on the Premises the use of equipment for dispensing food or beverages or for the preparation, solicitation of orders for, sale, serving or distribution of food or beverages or for the selling or providing of any form of entertainment, including vending machines or other machines operated by coins or other devices.

11. Refuse Tenant will separate and place all refuse in proper receptacles provided by Tenant at its expense in the Premises or in receptacles in recycling stations (if any) provided for the Shopping Centre, and will keep sidewalks and driveways outside the Shopping Centre, and lobbies, corridors, stairwells, ducts and shafts of the Shopping Centre, free of all refuse.

12. Obstructions Tenant will not obstruct or place anything in or on the sidewalks or driveways outside the Shopping Centre or in the lobbies, corridors, stairwells or other Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre, or use such locations for any purpose except access to and exit from the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent. Landlord may remove at Tenant's expense any such obstruction or thing (unauthorized by Landlord) without notice or obligation to Tenant.

13. Dangerous, Immoral or Hazardous Activities Tenant will not make any use of the Premises which involves the danger of injury to any person, nor will same be used for any immoral purpose or to commit any act of waste or damage to any part of the Premises or to use any part of the Premises so as to constitute a hazard.

14. Proper Conduct Tenant will not conduct itself in any manner which is inconsistent with the character of the Shopping Centre as being of first quality or which will impair the comfort and convenience of other tenants in the Shopping Centre. Such prohibited conduct will include the playing of loud music and the placing of merchandise racks in the Common Areas and Facilities.

15. Parking Landlord, from time to time, may prohibit Tenant, Tenant's employees and Tenant's suppliers and others making deliveries to or receiving shipments from the Premises from parking anywhere within the Shopping Centre. If Landlord designates Tenant parking areas in the Shopping Centre, Tenant will park its vehicles and will cause its employees to park their vehicles only in such designated parking areas. Tenant will furnish Landlord, upon request, with the current licence numbers of all vehicles owned or used by Tenant or its employees and Tenant thereafter will notify Landlord of any changes in such numbers within five (5) days after the occurrence thereof. In the event of failure of Tenant or its employees to park their vehicles in such designated parking areas, Tenant will forthwith on demand pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the sum of $20.00 per day per each car so parked. Landlord reserves the right to impose reasonable charges upon any person (including the general public) for the use of any parking facilities which may from time to time form a part of the Shopping Centre.

Outlet Collection, Outlet Collection at Winnipeg
Exhibit F
October 16, 2015

LL Initials/Date: 19OCT2015
Tenant Initials/Date:

Landlord, at landlord's sole cost and expense, shall deliver the shell building to the tenant as per Landlord's shell drawings and material/equipment specification book incorporating the Tenant's requirements and in accordance with the Landlord's Design Criteria as set forth below:

I. Administrative Requirements

1. With regard to all Landlord work and Tenant work related to the building Core and Shell, Landlord is pursuing certification under the LEED Canada Core and Shell rating system for this Shopping Centre and intends to achieve a minimum level of LEED Certification. To achieve this, certain minimum design and construction standards and practices must be achieved with regard to Tenant's work. Landlord reserves the right to review and approve Tenant drawings to ensure compliance to the LEED requirements, provided that such comments are reasonable and do not increase the cost of tenant's construction.
2. Landlord to provide Saks Fifth Avenue/Off Fifth with documents, and electronically in PDF and Autocad format for all of the Landlord's work relative to the Tenant's space for review and approval. Documents and Drawings to be provided based on the following submissions:
    A. Tenant Outline Drawings, including any base building elements that affect Tenant premises
    B. Shell Construction Documents (C/Ds)
    C. Site Plan Drawings

    Tenant to review design development drawings and note fixed facility locations (i.e. toilet rooms, break-room, janitors closet, entrances, etc.) and roof top HVAC locations and return to the within 30 days of receipt of Landlord's drawings.

    Landlord shall submit the comprehensive set of Construction Documents Tenant Outline Drawings for Tenant review and approval as follows:
    - 33 weeks prior to Landlord's Expected Possession Date (EPD): Tenant shall receive a full set of Landlord Shell Construction Documents (C/Ds)
    - 2weeks later: Landlord shall receive initial review/comments back from Tenant.
    - 2 weeks later: Tenant shall receive revised C/Ds, based on its review comments.
    - 3 weeks later: Landlord shall receive second round of review/comments back from Tenant (as needed).
    - 2 weeks later: Tenant shall receive Final C/Ds from Landlord.
    - 2weeks later: Landlord shall receive final Tenant comments.
    - weeks prior to Landlord's EPD: Landlord shall receive "Final Approved by Tenant" C/Ds.

3. Landlord or its agent(s) shall submit a color rendering of elevation(s, to Tenant for review and approval at time of Design Development submission. Landlord shall not submit exterior elevations and material selections to the authority(s) having jurisdiction without Tenant approval. Tenant has already approved subject to revisions to signage to Tenant's current standards based on elevations provided by Tenant. Any changes to reflect Tenant elevations will be subject to approval of Landlord and authority(s) having jurisdiction.

4. Fully-developed construction documents of Tenant Outline Drawings shall be submitted to the Tenant and Tenants Architect both in hard copy and electronically in .pdf and ACAD file format. The *full submittal set shall include all applicable Architectural, Mechanical, Electrical, and Plumbing information and locations.
5. Landlord shall insure that Tenant's prototypical plans and Exhibit 'C' are forwarded to the shell Architect for incorporation into the development of Tenant's shell drawings, subject to review and approval of authorities having jurisdiction.
6. Landlord shall not proceed on a "design-build" basis without written request and subsequent approval from the Saks Off Fifth Director of Construction.
7. Landlord shall provide Tenant with a written project development schedule, including timing, upon lease execution and a construction schedule at the start of project construction. Landlord shall inform the Tenant immediately of any changes that will have a positive or negative impact to delivery on the expected possession date.
8. Landlord shall provide construction progress photographs to Tenant's Director of Construction, on a timely basis (not less than once a month), of the job site from the start of site work until delivery of the premises. Photographs shall be representative of the most recent work completed.
9. Tenant to provide Landlord with detailed "punchlist" within one week after the "Expected Possession Date" (as defined by the lease). Landlord shall complete punchlist immediately, but not later than 30 days after the "Expected Possession Date". Unfinished punchlist items remaining after 30 days shall, at Tenant's option, be completed by Tenant and paid back by Landlord.
10. Within thirty (30) days of the "Expected Possession Date", Landlord shall supply Tenant with Area certification by licensed Architect.
11. All signage to be per the lease. Included shall be dimensioned elevations and site plan indicating location of signage and adjacent roads. Landlord shall allow Tenant's use of temporary banners (which must not jeopardize building envelope construction) and site identification signage, in accordance with governing municipal codes.

Julie,

I thought I replied to this last night but it doesn't seem to be in my outbox.

On pricing, we can move Guildford to $50mm but Oshawa needs to stay at $30mm.

In terms of cross defaults on all leases, that made sense in the context of security for a loan but doesn't make sense for where you are buying leaseholds and settling litigation. For the Off Fifth payments (and incremental lease payments), maybe there is a construct of some security (i.e., if we default on payment of incremental rent, maybe you get to take a property back for free).

Otherwise, I think we are close.

Need to get done by November 14 so let me know how we can move this forward...

Cheers,

Ian

Ian, the revised term sheet coming tonight will include the following, hope you will strongly consider, time is starting to be tight if we need approval by end of week (approval doc has to fit a certain template and sent 48h in advance).

1. Event of default: cross default on all IC/HBC leases + all remaining Restrictive Development covenants will become null and void on all remaining leases + reduce term to 10 years. Standard cure period.
2. Oshawa : 20M
3. Guildford : 40M
4. Still need to find out how to protect from an insolvency perspective for the next 5 years until you can show stabilized financials, any ideas?

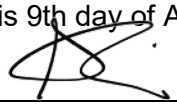
Ian,

Please find attached our latest draft of the Term Sheet. Some revised/additional concept for your consideration:



- Parking: Landlord's obligation to respect parking area from November 1 to December 31.
- Capital injection: a demonstration before the option's election to successfully secure CAD $600M
- Condition precedent: amendment of the leases prior to the option's election to protect from Insolvency situation

Our team will make ourselves available tomorrow from 13:30-15:00 if we wish to conclude on all remaining points over an All-hand call, with or without lawyers (to both our preference)

Let us know if you wish so.

Julie

2. Grant of the Options.

(a) The Grantor hereby grants to the Optionee, its successors and permitted assigns, the Options. Any one or all of the Options may be exercised by the Optionee at any time and from time to time during the period (the "Option Period") commencing on the date of this Agreement and expiring on:

(i) with respect to all Options other than the Saks Option, December 31, 2024; and

(ii) with respect to the Saks Option, March 31, 2024;

by providing the Grantor with a written notice of exercise (a "Notice of Exercise") (A) specifying which of the Options is being exercised by the Optionee, (B) specifying the date (the "Effective Date") on which the New Lease Documents relating to the Option being exercised shall become effective (which date shall be no later than the tenth (10^{th}) day following the Exercise Date), (C) accompanied by the New Lease Documents relating to the Option being exercised, duly executed by the relevant landlord, and (D) accompanied by a letter from Optionee's Counsels confirming that they hold "in trust" the Option Payment relating to the Option being exercised and that they will release such funds to the Grantor within one (1) Business Day of the receipt, from the Optionee, of a copy of the New Lease Documents relating to the Option being exercised, duly executed by all parties thereto, and instructions to release the funds to the Grantor, provided such executed documents and instructions are received by Optionee's Counsels no later than two (2) Business Days before the Effective Date.

(b) Upon receipt by the Grantor of a Notice of Exercise, the Grantor shall be obligated, and shall cause the relevant tenant entity relating to the Option being exercised, to enter into the New Lease Documents. Should the Grantor fail to deliver the New Lease Documents relating to the Option being exercised duly executed by the tenant thereto in accordance with the terms of paragraph (a) above, the Optionee shall be under no obligation to make, or to instruct Optionee's Counsels to release, the Option Payment. The New Lease Documents relating to the Option being exercised shall only become effective upon receipt by the Grantor of the Option Payment in accordance with, and within the time periods provided hereinabove. For greater certainty, upon receipt by the Grantor of the Option Payment, the New Lease Documents relating to the Option being exercised shall automatically be in full force and effect, without any further actions or formalities by the parties.

(c) The parties acknowledge and agree that (i) each Option is separate and independent from the each of the other Options, (ii) notwithstanding the exercise of one or more Options, each of the other Options remain outstanding during the Option Period, (iii) more than one Option may be exercised at the same time, (iv) each Option shall be exercised through a distinct Notice of Exercise, and (v) the failure to comply with the exercise formalities contained in this Agreement in relation to one Option has no effect on the valid exercise of another Option, whether such Options are exercised simultaneously or at different times.

3. Mapleview Option.

(a) The Grantor hereby grants to the Optionee, its successors and permitted assigns, the irrevocable and exclusive right and option (the "Mapleview Option"), to effect the cancellation of the Mapleview Lease and the simultaneous entering into a new lease agreement (the "New Mapleview Lease") on the following terms and conditions:

(i) the term shall be five (5) years, commencing on the Effective Date;

(ii) the basic rent shall be equal to:

(A) if the Exercise Date is no later than March 20, 2024, the basic rent payable under the Mapleview Lease increased by an amount of CAD $3,000,000 per annum, payable monthly in equal instalments, on the first day of each month; and

(B) if the Exercise Date is on March 21, 2024, or any date thereafter, the basic rent payable under the Mapleview Lease, payable monthly in equal instalments, on the first day of each month;

(iii) the landlord shall have an irrevocable and exclusive option and right, at its entire discretion, upon a 12-month prior written notice from the landlord to the Tenant, to renew the New Mapleview Lease for a further period of five (5) years (the "Mapleview Renewal Term") at same terms and conditions, save and except for the rent which shall be equal to the rent which would have been payable under the Mapleview Lease had it not been cancelled, with common facilities operating costs indexed annually by CPI during the Mapleview Renewal Term of the New Mapleview Lease;

(iv) during the term of the New Mapleview Lease, the landlord will maintain:

(A) at all times during the period from November 1 to December 31 in each lease year, a minimum of 563 parking stalls (the "Mapleview Minimum Ratio") in the area highlighted in yellow in Schedule "C" attached hereto (the "Mapleview Parking Area");

(B) at all times during the period from January 1 to October 31 in each lease year, a minimum of 90% of the Mapleview Minimum Ratio, provided the landlord provides sufficient replacement parking stalls to meet the Mapleview Minimum Ratio within a 200-foot radius of the Mapleview Parking Area;

it being understood that landlord's only obligation with respect to the Mapleview Parking Area will be to maintain the aforementioned

Mapleview Minimum Ratio as aforementioned, and tenant shall have no other rights in relation to the Mapleview Parking Area;

(v) if:

(A) the tenant is liable to pay incremental basic rent pursuant to Section 3(a)(ii)(A) above, starting at the end of the first year of the term of the New Mapleview Lease, the landlord shall have an option, upon a twelve (12) month prior written notice to the tenant, to terminate the New Mapleview Lease;

(B) the tenant is not liable to pay incremental basic rent pursuant to Section 3(a)(ii)(B) above, starting at the end of the first year of the term of the New Mapleview Lease, each of the landlord and the tenant, acting alone, shall have an option, upon a twelve (12) month prior written notice to the other party, to terminate the New Mapleview Lease;

(vi) the New Mapleview Lease shall not contain any Restrictive Covenants in favour of the tenant;

(vii) at expiry of the term of the New Mapleview Lease, the premises shall be surrendered to the landlord on an "as-is, where-is" basis, subject however to the terms and conditions of the New Mapleview Lease with respect to the surrender of the premises; and (viii) the New Mapleview Lease shall otherwise be in the form and substance of the Template Lease Agreement.

(b) In consideration for the cancellation of the Mapleview Lease and the simultaneous entering into the New Mapleview Lease, the Optionee agrees to pay to the Grantor, subject to the terms and conditions contained in Section 2, the sum of CAD $30,000,000, plus applicable taxes (the "Mapleview Option Payment"). The Grantor and the Optionee specifically acknowledge and agree that the Mapleview Option Payment represents good, valuable and sufficient consideration for the cancellation of the Mapleview Lease and the entering into the New Mapleview Lease.

4. Southgate Option.

(a) The Grantor hereby grants to the Optionee, its successors and permitted assigns, the irrevocable and exclusive right and option (the "Southgate Option"), to effect the cancellation of the Southgate Lease and the simultaneous entering into a new lease agreement (the "New Southgate Lease") on the following terms and conditions:

(i) the term shall be five (5) years, commencing on the Effective Date;

(ii) the basic rent shall be equal to:

(A) if the Exercise Date is no later than March 20, 2024, basic rent payable under the Southgate Lease increased by an amount of CAD $4,000,000 per annum, payable monthly in equal instalments, on the first day of each month; and

(B) if the Exercise Date is on March 21, 2024, or any date thereafter, rent payable under the Southgate Lease, payable monthly in equal instalments, on the first day of each month;

(iii) the landlord shall have an irrevocable and exclusive option and right, at its entire discretion, upon a 12-month prior written notice from the landlord to the Tenant, to renew the New Southgate Lease for a further period of five (5) years (the "Southgate Renewal Term") at the same terms and conditions, save and except for the rent which shall be equal to the rent which would have been payable under the Southgate Lease had it not been cancelled, with common facilities operating costs indexed annually by CPI during the Southgate Renewal Term of the New Southgate Lease;

(iv) during the term of the New Southgate Lease, the landlord will maintain:

(A) at all times during the period from November 1 to December 31 in each lease year, a minimum of 446 parking stalls (the "Southgate Minimum Ratio") in the area highlighted in yellow in Schedule "D" attached hereto (the "Southgate Parking Area");

(B) at all times during the period from January 1 to October 31 in each lease year, a minimum of 90% of the Southgate Minimum Ratio, provided the landlord provides sufficient replacement parking stalls to meet the Southgate Minimum Ratio within a 200-foot radius of the Southgate Parking Area;

it being understood that landlord's only obligation with respect to the Southgate Parking Area will be to maintain the aforementioned Southgate Minimum Ratio as aforementioned, and tenant shall have no other rights in relation to the Southgate Parking Area;

(v) if:

(A) the tenant is liable to pay incremental basic rent pursuant to Section 4(a)(ii)(A) above, starting at the end of the first year of the term of the New Southgate Lease, the landlord shall have an option, upon a twelve (12) month prior written notice to the tenant, to terminate the New Southgate Lease;

(B) the tenant is not liable to pay incremental basic rent pursuant to Section 4(a)(ii)(B) above, starting at the end of the first year of the term of the New Southgate Lease, each of the landlord and the tenant, acting alone, shall have an option, upon a twelve (12) month prior written notice to the tenant, to terminate the New Southgate Lease;

(vi) the New Southgate Lease shall not contain any Restrictive Covenants in favour of the tenant;

(vii) at expiry of the term of the New Southgate Lease, the premises shall be surrendered to the landlord on an "as-is, where-is" basis, subject however to the terms and conditions of the New Southgate Lease with respect to the surrender of the premises; and (viii) the New Southgate Lease shall otherwise be in the form and substance of the Template Lease Agreement.

(b) In consideration for the cancellation of the Southgate Lease and the simultaneous entering into the New Southgate Lease, the Optionee agrees to pay to the Grantor, subject to the terms and conditions contained in Section 2, the sum of CAD $40,000,000, plus applicable taxes (the "Southgate Option Payment"). The Grantor and the Optionee specifically acknowledge and agree that the Southgate Option Payment represents good, valuable and sufficient consideration for the cancellation of the Southgate Lease and the entering into the New Southgate Lease.

5. Guildford Option.

(a) The Grantor hereby grants to the Optionee, its successors and permitted assigns, the irrevocable and exclusive right and option (the "Guildford Option"), to effect the cancellation of the Southgate Lease and the simultaneous entering into a new lease agreement (the "New Guildford Lease") on the following terms and conditions:

(i) the term shall be five (5) years, commencing on the Effective Date;

(ii) the basic rent shall be equal to:

(A) if the Exercise Date is no later than March 20, 2024, basic rent payable under the Guildford Lease increased by an amount of CAD $4,500,000 per annum, payable monthly in equal instalments, on the first day of each month; and

7. Saks Option.

(a) The Grantor hereby grants to the Optionee, its successors and permitted assigns, the irrevocable and exclusive right and option (the "Saks Option"), to effect amendments to the Saks Leases (the "Saks Lease Amendments"), as follows:

(i) the gross rent payable under those of the Saks Leases designated by the Optionee in its sole discretion (the "Designated Saks Leases") shall be increased by an aggregate amount of CAD $3,000,000 per annum, such aggregate rent increase to be allocated amongst the Designated Saks Leases at the sole discretion of the Optionee. Furthermore, the Optionee shall have the right, any time and from time to time, at its entire discretion, to reallocate the above-referenced rent increase amongst any one the Saks Leases and, in this regard, the tenant will have the obligation to enter into and execute all documents reasonably necessary to implement such reallocation of rent increase; and

(ii) the then current term of each of the Saks Leases shall be amended to expire on the tenth (10^{th}) anniversary of the date the Saks Option Payment is paid by the Optionee to the Grantor, subject to the tenant's rights to renew any of the Saks Leases in accordance with the terms and conditions of the existing renewal options contained in the Saks Leases, provided that the total term of each of the Saks Lease, as amended by the Saks Lease Amendments, shall not exceed the total remaining term (including all applicable options to renew), determined as at the Effective Date, under any of the Saks Leases prior to the Saks Lease Amendments.

(b) In consideration for the amendments to the Saks Leases, the Optionee agrees to pay to the Grantor, subject to the terms and conditions contained in Section 2, the sum of CAD $30,000,000, plus applicable taxes (the "Saks Option Payment"). The Grantor and the Optionee specifically acknowledge and agree that the Saks Option Payment represents good, valuable and sufficient consideration for the amendment of the Saks Leases.

8. Mandatory Exercise of Option.

Provided Grantor or any relevant tenant entity is not in default of any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under (i) the New Metropolis Lease, (ii) the New Anjou Lease, or (iii) any one of the Other IC HBC Portfolio Leases, on or prior to February 3, 2024 (the "Deadline"), the Optionee shall have the obligation to exercise at least one of the Mapleview Option, the Southgate Option, the Guildford Option, the Oshawa Option or the Saks Option, as selected by the Optionee in its sole discretion.

9. Substitution of Option.

(a) In the event the Optionee has exercised the Saks Option on or before the Deadline (and the Optionee did not exercise any other Options during the Option Period), the Optionee shall have one-time irrevocable and exclusive option and right (the "Substitution Option"), to be exercised by delivering a notice of substitution (the "Notice of Substitution") prior to the expiry of the Option Period, to partially rescind the exercise of the Saks Option and the Saks Lease Amendments, provided it concurrently exercises any one of the other Options. The Notice of Substitution shall (A) specify which of the Options is being exercised by the Optionee, (B) specifying the date (the "Substitution Date") on which (x) the Designated Saks Leases shall be further amended to cancel the obligation to pay the increased rent mentioned in Section 7(a)(i), and (y) the new lease documents relating to the further amendments to the Designated Saks Leases (the "Further Saks Lease Amendments") and the New Lease Documents relating to the Option being exercised shall become effective (which date shall be no later than the tenth (10^{th}) day following the Exercise Date), (C) accompanied by the New Lease Documents (including the Further Saks Lease Amendments), duly executed by the relevant landlord, and (D) accompanied by a letter from Optionee's Counsels confirming that they hold "in trust" an amount (the "Substitution Option Payment") representing the positive difference, if any, between (x) the Option Payment relating to the Option being exercised and (y) the Saks Option Payment, and that they will release such funds to the Grantor within one (1) Business Day of the receipt, from the Optionee, of a copy of the New Lease Documents, duly executed by all parties thereto, and instructions to release the funds to the Grantor, provided such executed documents and instructions are received by Optionee's Counsels no later than two (2) Business Days before the Substitution Date. In the event of a negative difference between the Option Payment relating to the Option being exercised and the Saks Option Payment, the Substitution Option Payment shall be equal to zero (for example, in the event the Option being exercised pursuant to this Section 9 is the Oshawa Option).

(b) Upon receipt by the Grantor of a Notice of Substitution, the Grantor shall be obligated, and shall cause the relevant tenant entity relating to Saks Designated Leases and to the Option being exercised, to enter into the New Lease Documents. Should the Grantor fail to deliver such documents duly executed by the relevant tenant thereto in accordance with the terms of this Section 9, the Optionee shall be under no obligation to make, or to instruct Optionee's Counsels to release, the Substitution Option Payment. The New Lease Documents shall only become effective upon receipt by the Grantor of the Substitution Option Payment in accordance with, and within the time periods provided hereinabove. For greater certainty, upon receipt by the Grantor of the Substitution Option Payment, the New Lease Documents shall automatically be in full force and effect, without any further actions or formalities by the parties.

(c) For purposes of greater clarity, in the event the Option being exercised pursuant to this Section 9 is the Oshawa Option, the Grantor shall not be liable to reimburse to the Optionee an amount of CAD $5,000,000.

10. Condition Precedent in favour of Optionee.

(a) As a condition precedent to the obligations of the Optionee to exercise an Option pursuant to Section 8, on or before the Deadline, the Grantor and the Optionee agree to terminate and to replace all Other IC HBC Portfolio Leases by new lease agreements, which will reflect the following terms (the "Updated HBC Leases"):

(i) there will be no Restrictive Covenants contained in the Updated HBC Leases;

(ii) the term of each Updated HBC Lease will be for a period of 10 years commencing on the Deadline;

(iii) the landlord shall have an irrevocable and exclusive option and right, at its entire discretion, upon a 12-month prior written notice from the landlord to the tenant, to renew any one of the Updated HBC Leases for a further period of five (5) years at same terms and conditions.

In connection with the above, the parties hereby covenant and agree to work together, diligently and in good faith and to use best commercial efforts, from the date of execution of this Agreement, to progress the necessary documentation to finalize agreed form Updated HBC Leases documentation as soon as possible to enable a fulfilment of the above condition precedent.

(b) For a period expiring on the earlier of five (5) years from execution of this Agreement and the date upon which the Grantor's obligation to pay incremental rent pursuant to the New Leases ceases, and so long as the Grantor (X) is not in default of any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under the New Metrotown Lease, the New Anjou Lease, any one of the New Leases or any one of the Other IC HBC Portfolio Leases (including for certainty any one the Saks Leases or the Amended Saks Leases), and (Y) (a) is not insolvent, (b) has not committed an act of bankruptcy, and (c) has not become bankrupt (each of the events described in (X) and (Y) above, an "Event"), the Optionee covenants and agrees that, notwithstanding the cancellation of the Other IC HBC Portfolio Leases and the entering into the Updated HBC Leases, it will not take any action that would have been prohibited under any Restrictive Covenants contained in the Other IC HBC Portfolio Leases.

At the expiry of the aforementioned five (5) year period, if no Event has occurred, the Updated HBC Leases shall be automatically resolved, cancelled and rescinded, and the Other IC HBC Portfolio Leases (with the exception of any of the Other IC HBC Portfolio Leases which will have been cancelled and replaced by a New Lease) will resume and be reinstated.

(c) For the purposes hereof, "Other IC HBC Portfolio Leases" shall be defined as all leases in effect between Grantor and Optionee as of the date of this Agreement, but excluding specifically the New Metrotown Lease, the New Anjou Lease and, to the extent applicable, any one of the New Leases.

11. Cross-Default.

(a) So long as the tenant under the relevant lease has the obligation to pay Incremental Rent pursuant to the New Metrotown Lease or the New Anjou Lease, a default of the relevant tenant entity of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under (i) the New Metrotown Lease or (ii) the New Anjou Lease, shall be deemed to be a default under any one of the New Metrotown Lease, the New Anjou Lease and, as applicable, any one of the New Leases or of the Amended Saks Leases; and

(b) So long as the tenant under the relevant lease has the obligation to pay Incremental Rent pursuant to any one of the New Leases, a default of the relevant tenant entity of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under any one of the New Mapleview Lease, the New Southgate Lease, the New Guildford Lease, the New Oshawa Lease or any of the Amended Saks Leases, shall be deemed to be a default under any one of the aforementioned leases.

12. Special Notices.

The Grantor will provide the Optionee with:

(a) a 30-day prior written notice of Grantor's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States;

(b) notwithstanding subparagraph (a) hereof, to the extent Grantor should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, Grantor shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action;

(c) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Grantor pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States; and

(d) five (5) Business Day prior written notice of the Grantor's signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s).

13. Reporting.

For the period commencing on the date of this Agreement and expiring on the earlier of (i) the fifth (5^{th}) anniversary of this Agreement, or (ii) the date on which the Incremental Rent payable by the tenant to the landlord under any of the New Metrotown Lease, the New Anjou Lease, any one of the New Leases or any one of the Amended Saks Leases is, in the aggregate, CAD $3,000,000 or less per annum, Grantor covenants and agree to provide Optionee with the following reports:

(a) on an annual basis, no later than 120 days from the end of each year, audited financial statements of the HBC LP as at the end of such entity's fiscal year, including an audited consolidated balance sheet and the related consolidated statements of income or operations, shareholders' equity, cash flows statement and retained earnings for such fiscal year, all in reasonable detail and prepared in accordance with GAAP or IFRS, each such consolidated financial statement to be audited and accompanied by the report of a auditors' firm of nationally recognized standing reasonably acceptable to the Optionee, which report shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards; and

(b) on a quarterly basis, no later than 45 days from the end of each quarter, unaudited balance sheet and statement of income of the Grantor.

14. Transfers.

This Agreement may in no event be transferred or assigned by any party to the Agreement without the other party's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be transferred by the Optionee to a Controlled Affiliate of the Optionee, provided the Grantor receives written notice of such transfer and the Optionee shall not be released of its obligations under this Agreement.

15. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Grantor hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Optionee that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Grantor of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Grantor; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Grantor.

(b) The Optionee hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Grantor that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Optionee of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Optionee; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Optionee.

16. Confidentiality.

The parties agree that this Agreement are subject to the terms of the Mutual Nondisclosure Agreement dated October 17, 2023, entered into between the Optionee and the Grantor, which terms, for greater certainty, are confirmed and reaffirmed by the parties hereto and thereto.

17. Notice.

1.18.2 Intentionally deleted. .

1.18.3 "Area" means the area expressed in square feet of all floors of the Premises measured from the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows or those separating the Premises from any Common Areas and Facilities, and the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises. The Area includes all interior space whether or not occupied by projections, structures or columns, openings, shafts, structural or non-structural. If a store front, show window or other part of the Premises is recessed from or protrudes beyond the lease line shown on Exhibit A (whether such recess or protrusion is located at or above ground level), the area of such recess or protrusion will be included in the Area. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Area of the Premises is [●] square feet.

1.18.4 "Architect" means the architect, engineer, land surveyor, designer or technician that Landlord names, as the case may be.

1.18.5 "Article" means an article of this Lease.

1.18.6 "Authority" or "Authorities" means the federal, provincial, and municipal governments, the courts, administrative and quasi-judicial boards and tribunals and any other organizations or entities with the lawful authority to regulate, or having a power or right conferred at law or by or under a statute over Landlord, Tenant, the Premises or the Shopping Centre, including the business carried on therein.

1.18.8 "Commencement Date" means the first day of the Term (effective as of 12:00am).

1.18.9 "Common Areas and Facilities" means all areas, services and facilities not installed or intended for the exclusive use or benefit of any individual tenant, including without limitation, all non-leasable areas, service and administrative areas (including, without limitation, administrative offices, janitorial rooms and storage rooms not reserved to any tenant exclusively), all parking areas, parking decks, roofs, roadways, sidewalks, landscaped areas, floor slabs, exterior walls and exterior and interior structural portions of any open or enclosed malls or other common means of access to leasable premises (excluding any structural mezzanines within any leasable premises), public lavatories, truck courts, common loading areas, driveways, music and public address systems, electrical, plumbing and drainage, fire protection, fire detection, heating, ventilation and/or air-conditioning systems or equipment servicing the Shopping Centre and/or more than one tenant, mall decorative or promotional installations, customer and service stairways, mall directories and directional signs, information booths, elevators, escalators and all other areas, services and facilities which Landlord provides or designates from time to time to be part of Common Areas and Facilities.

1.18.10 "Consumer Price Index" or "C.P.I." means the Consumer Price Index for all items in the City of [●] as issued by Statistics Canada or its successor, provided that if such Consumer Price Index is not available from Statistics Canada or its successor, Landlord may utilize for the purposes of this Lease any reasonable measure of changes in consumer price levels.

1.18.11 "Delivery Facilities" means those portions of the Common Areas and Facilities which are, from time to time, designated by Landlord as facilities to be used in common by Landlord, tenants of the Shopping Centre, and others, for purposes of loading, unloading, delivery, dispatch and holding of merchandise, goods and materials entering or leaving the Shopping Centre, and those portions of the Shopping Centre giving vehicular access to the said facilities.

1.18.12 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.13 "Environmental Law" means the statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority or of the common law which affect the Premises or Tenant's business, and which impose any obligations relating to the protection, conservation or restoration of the natural environment.

1.18.14 "Fiscal Year" means a twelve (12) month period (all or part of which falls within the Term) from time to time determined by Landlord with the concurrence of the appropriate taxation authorities, at the end of which Landlord's books are balanced for auditing and/or taxation purposes.

1.18.15 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.17 "Force Majeure" means, if during the Term either party to this Lease will be unable to perform any of the terms, obligations, or conditions contained in this Lease due to strikes, walkouts (except for strikes or walkouts directly involving employees of Tenant), civil commotion, warlike operations, governmental regulations or controls, acts of God, pandemics, inability to procure materials or services, otherwise beyond the reasonable control of such party. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, nothing in this Force Majeure provision will relieve Tenant from payment of Rent as required in this Lease and insolvency or lack of funds will not relieve any party to this Lease from fulfillment of any obligation arising from any part of this Lease.

1.18.18 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.19 "Goods and Services Tax" or "GST" means all goods and services tax, value-added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST, QST or any other similar tax) howsoever characterized, which any taxing Authority imposes on Landlord and/or requires Landlord to collect on behalf of said taxing Authority, on any amount received or receivable by Landlord from Tenant under the terms of this Lease.

1.18.20 "Gross Leasable Area" means the total of all floor areas (measured in the manner stipulated in the definition of "Area") of all premises in the Shopping Centre intended for leasing from time to time, whether said premises directly access an enclosed mall or court or not, but excluding basement areas, mezzanines, storage areas, elevator and escalator shafts, areas of the Common Areas and Facilities leased or occupied on a temporary basis, areas not used for retail purposes such as, by way of example only, areas leased or occupied for non-retail purposes or promotional purposes and areas occupied by the Shopping Centre manager and any support staff.

1.18.21 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.22 "Hazardous Substance" means, whether or not controlled or regulated by Environmental Law, any solid, liquid, gas, odour, heat, sound, vibration or combination of them resulting directly or indirectly from human activities that may, if released into the environment, have an adverse effect on the natural environment or on people, property or the normal conduct of business, including without limitation, harmful moulds or other harmful airborne substances, flammables, explosives, radioactive materials, urea formaldehyde foam, asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), pollutants, contaminants, hazardous wastes, toxic substances or related materials, petroleum or petroleum products and substances declared to be hazardous or toxic under any law, by-law, regulation or ordinance now or hereafter enacted.

1.18.23 "HVAC Cost" means all the costs, charges and expenses in any Fiscal Year for the operation, repair, replacement and maintenance of the systems for heating, ventilating, and air conditioning the Shopping Centre and/or premises including the Premises as established by Landlord, from time to time, on a fair and equitable basis which reflects load and hours of operation provided, however, where Tenant pays an HVAC Charge for the Premises, or where Tenant maintains, repairs and replaces HVAC for the Premises at its cost, HVAC costs shall exclude the Premises.

1.18.24 "Interest Rate" means the Prime Rate in force when an amount becomes due, plus three (3) percentage points.

1.18.25 "Land" means all of the lands described in Exhibit B.

1.18.26 "Landlord" means the party first herein above described and includes its successors and assigns, and in articles that contain a release or other exculpatory provisions or an indemnity in favour of Landlord, including the officers, directors, employees and agents and contractors of Landlord, as well as any Person under Landlord's exclusive control.

1.18.27 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.28 "Lease" means this Lease, and the Exhibits annexed to this Lease described in Article 1.18.54 and every properly executed instrument which by its term amends, modifies or supplements this Lease.

1.18.29 "Lease Year" means a period of twelve (12) calendar months except the first Lease Year of the Term which will begin on the Commencement Date and end on the last day of the calendar month in which the first (1st) anniversary of the day immediately preceding the Commencement Date occurs and succeeding Lease Years will comprise successive periods of twelve (12) calendar months (and the last Lease Year in the Term may contain less than twelve (12) calendar months), but if Landlord deems it expedient, it may by written notice to Tenant specify an annual date upon which any Lease Year will terminate, in which event the appropriate adjustments will be made between the parties.

1.18.30 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.31 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.32 "Management Company" means a company or other entity, if any, retained by Landlord from time to time to operate or manage the Shopping Centre.

1.18.33 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.34 "Minimum Rent" means the amount payable by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to Article 1.09 in respect of each year of the Term under Article 4.01.

1.18.35 "Mortgagee" shall have the meaning given to the term in Article 17.03.

1.18.36 "Operating Agreement(s)" means any agreement or agreements between Landlord and the owner(s) of lands neighbouring or contiguous to the Land, pursuant to which the developments and improvements on the Land and the developments and improvements on such neighbouring or contiguous lands are operated on a coordinated basis (if any).

1.18.37 "Operating Costs" means:

(a) all costs, expenses and charges which are attributable to the insuring, operation, repair, replacement, administration and maintenance of the Shopping Centre or incurred to reduce

Operating Costs, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any tax, rate, charge, levy, duty, fee, tariff or assessment however imposed, assessed or charged in relation to the consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature for the Shopping Centre and/or the Premises or from any part of the foregoing, or levied or charged in lieu thereof, the costs to Landlord of purchasing in compliance with all applicable laws of any Authority tradable units of greenhouse producing gases including without limitation carbon dioxide, HVAC Cost, plus energy costs in relation thereto, depreciation or amortization allocable to the Fiscal Year on equipment and fixtures, energy conservation and security costs, cleaning, snow removal, landscaping, garbage collection and disposal, recycling, painting, decorations, parking lot repairs, maintenance, replacements and stripping, roof repairs, maintenance and replacements, utilities including water, gas, and electricity, security and security equipment and technology, energy efficiency, energy sub-metering and recycling technology and equipment, rental of equipment and hiring of services, remuneration of all or any on-site Shopping Centre staff and supervisory personnel, including but not limited to managers, supervisors and support staff, including wages, bonuses and benefits, employment related costs, including the foregoing costs of off-site personnel involved in the administration and management of Taxes and insurance for the Shopping Centre, general overhead expenses including office supplies and equipment, postage and courier costs, the fair market rentable value and any business taxes associated with any office space in the Shopping Centre used by Landlord or Management Company to operate and administer the Shopping Centre, interest calculated at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum in excess of the Prime Rate upon the undepreciated or unamortized portion of the cost and expense of items being depreciated or amortized from time to time and capital replacement of the systems for heating, ventilating and air conditioning the Shopping Centre, and repairs and replacement of the roofs and parking facilities of the Shopping Centre;

(b) all expenses after the date any space in the Shopping Centre was first occupied by any tenant and properly allocable to the Fiscal Year for any capital improvement or structural repair to the Shopping Centre, or required by any change in the laws, rules, regulations, or orders of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority having jurisdiction, or incurred to reduce Operating Costs, which expenses will be amortized in accordance with reputable shopping centre management and operation practices, and interest calculated at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum in excess of the Prime Rate upon the unamortized portion of the total costs of the foregoing;

(c) all costs, charges and expenses which are directly attributable to the operation, management, repair, replacement and maintenance of the Shopping Centre or incurred to reduce Operating Costs but which are not attributable solely to the operation, management, repair, replacement and maintenance of any leasable area of the Shopping Centre; and

(d) an administration fee equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total of the items set out in Article 1.18.37 (a), (b) and (c) above.

1.18.37.1 "Original Lease" means that certain lease dated [●] (as amended, supplemented from time to time, collectively, the "Original Lease"), entered into by Landlord and the Tenant (as successors to the original parties thereto) for the Premises which Original Lease has been surrendered immediately prior to the Commencement Date.

1.18.38 "Owners" means the owner or owners or co-owners from time to time (other than Landlord) of the freehold or leasehold title of the Shopping Centre.

1.18.39 "Person" where the context allows, includes any physical person, corporation, partnership or association, or any groups or combinations of same.

1.18.40 "Premises" means the premises described in Article 1.02, the approximate location of which is shown on Exhibit A. If the Premises are entirely self-enclosed, the boundaries shall extend to the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows, or those separating the Premises from Common Areas and Facilities, the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises, and from the top surface of the structural sub-floor to the underside of the roof or any structural floor slab situated immediately above the ceiling of the Premises. Premises shall exclude any Common Areas and Facilities located within them, and if the Premises are open to the ceiling of the Shopping Centre, the boundaries of the Premises will extend from the top surface of the structural sub-floor to the top of its permanent structures. The "Premises" include the structure slab for the lowest floor level and all fixed improvements located below the slab or on the roof which are for the exclusive use of the Tenant and which are comprised of any mechanical, electrical, plumbing and other services and any insulation, and all elevators and escalators therein (including connecting the Premises to the parking garage), and all elevator shafts, cabs and lobbies.

1.18.41 "Prime Rate" means the annual rate of interest announced from time to time by Royal Bank of Canada at its main branch in Toronto, Ontario, as a reference rate then in effect for determining interest rates on Canadian dollar commercial loans in Canada.

1.18.42 "Promotion Fund" means the fund for promotion of the Shopping Centre, if any, described in Article 4.12.

1.18.43 "Proportionate Share" means, a fraction, the numerator of which is the Area, and the denominator of which is the Gross Leasable Area. For certainty, the Tenant's Proportionate Share for the purposes of this Lease shall be determined in a manner consistent with the Tenant's Proportionate Share figure used by the parties under the Original Lease as at the Termination Date.

1.18.44 "Released Persons" means collectively and individually, Landlord, Owners, Mortgagee and any Management Company and partners of the Owners or Landlord. In articles that contain a release or other exculpatory provision or an indemnity in favour of any Released Persons, "Released Persons" includes the officers, directors, employees and agents of the Released Persons, and Landlord acting as agent for, or as trustee for, the benefit of the Released Persons so that each such release, indemnity and/or other exculpatory provision is fully enforceable by the Released Persons.

1.18.45 "Rent" means the Minimum Rent and the Additional Rent.

1.18.46 "Shopping Centre" means the Site and all buildings and Common Areas and Facilities on the Site as each of the foregoing exists from time to time, as may be varied from time to time by adding or subtracting or altering or reconfiguring or by such other means as Landlord considers necessary or advisable.

1.18.47 "Site" means the Land indicated on Exhibit B as may be varied from time to time by adding or subtracting land or by such other means as Landlord considers necessary or advisable (and even if parts of the Site may be separated from other parts of same by lanes, streets, highways or any other means of passage in or to which others may have rights).

1.18.48 "Taxes" means the aggregate of all taxes, rates, charges (including local improvement charges), levies, assessments, licence fees, excise and other charges, or any other taxes, rates or charges levied, charged or assessed in lieu thereof, imposed by any competent authority upon or in respect of the Shopping Centre, upon or in respect of all adjoining or neighbouring lands from time to time owned or made available to Landlord and used in connection with the Shopping Centre, or upon or in respect of both, and upon or in respect of all developments and improvements on the Shopping Centre and on such adjoining or neighbouring lands (including, without limitation, parking lot/transit support taxes, rates charges, levies and assessments), such taxes, rates, charges, levies and assessments being established by such competent authority based upon the Shopping Centre, in its various stages of development, assessed as a completed, fully occupied Shopping Centre. Subject to the foregoing, in determining Taxes, any corporate income, profits, excess profits, and business tax imposed upon the income of Landlord, and any other impost of a personal nature charged or levied against Landlord will be excluded, except to the extent that it is levied in lieu of Taxes. Landlord's reasonable expenditures for consultation, negotiation and contestation, to the extent that they are incurred in an attempt to minimize or reduce Taxes, shall be included in the definition of Taxes.

1.18.49 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.50 "Tenant" means the Person executing this Lease as Tenant. Where the context permits, Tenant will also include all servants, employees, agents and contractors of Tenant, as well as any Person under Tenant's exclusive control.

1.18.51 "Tenant Security" means any deed creating a charge or having the effect of encumbering, in any manner whatsoever, the rights that Tenant and/or any other Person (other than Landlord) have in any property (excluding this Lease and the Premises), whether movable or immovable, located in or forming part of the Premises, to secure in whole or in part any loan, indebtedness, authorized credit or any other obligation.

1.18.52 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.53 "Term" means the period of time set out in Article 1.05 and shall include all renewals and extensions thereof.

1.18.54 Exhibits

"Exhibit A" means the plan(s) attached hereto as Exhibit A.

"Exhibit B" means the legal description(s) attached hereto as Exhibit B.

"Exhibit C" INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

"Exhibit D" means the Rules and Regulations attached hereto as Exhibit D.

"Exhibit E" INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

"Exhibit F" means the sample Estoppel Certificate attached hereto as Exhibit F.

ARTICLE 2.00 GRANT OF LEASE

2.01 Grant Landlord hereby demises and leases the Premises to Tenant, and Tenant hereby leases and accepts the Premises from Landlord, to have and to hold during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.02 Quiet Enjoyment So long as Tenant performs its obligations under this Lease, Landlord will warrant and defend Tenant in the quiet enjoyment and possession of the Premises during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.03 Covenants of Landlord and Tenant Landlord covenants to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Landlord under this Lease. Tenant covenants to pay the Rent when due under this Lease, and to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Tenant under this Lease.

ARTICLE 3.00 TERM, POSSESSION AND TERMINATION OF ORIGINAL LEASE

3.01 Intentionally deleted.

3.02 Intentionally deleted.

3.03 Acceptance of Premises and Tenant Acknowledgements The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that: (a) it originally occupied the Premises pursuant to the Original Lease, and as of the date hereof, it continues to be in possession of the Premises (which possession by the Tenant was in place prior to the date hereof pursuant to the Original Lease); (b) it has accepted the Premises in an entirely "as is where is" condition basis without any representation, warranty or obligation on the part of the Landlord to perform any work or construct any leasehold or other improvements in the Premises or the Shopping Centre in connection with the Tenant's intended use thereof; (c) the continued possession of all or any portion of the Premises by the Tenant is conclusive evidence as against the Tenant that the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition as of the date hereof, (d) it is solely responsible (at its sole cost and expense and without any reimbursement from or contribution by the Landlord) for all improvements, fixtures, chattels or other personal property currently existing or which in the future may exist or may be required in, on or around the Premises and needed, required or used by the Tenant for the operation of its business from the Premises, and (e) it does not have any right of first refusal, right of first opportunity, option to purchase or any other right to acquire any interest or real property right in all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

3.04 Limitation on Length of Term This Lease is entered into subject to the express condition that it is to be effective to create any interest in land only if the provisions of any statute are complied with relating to the severance of land or interests in land by conveyance or otherwise (as it may from time to time be amended). Landlord and Tenant agree, as a separate and distinct agreement, that if pursuant to any statute consent is requisite to the validity of this Lease, either party may apply for such consent and until unconditional consent has been obtained, the Term of this Lease or any renewal thereof will not extend beyond the period permitted without consent pursuant to any such statute, with no further right on the part of Tenant to extend the term, notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease.

3.05 Termination of Previous Lease Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that the Original Lease is terminated effective on 11:59pm on the date immediately preceding the Commencement Date (the "Termination Date"). The respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant with respect to the Premises and the Original Lease will be preserved and will survive the Termination Date, as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Termination Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to the Original Lease on or after the Termination Date. Any breach of the Original Lease which has not been cured will, after the Termination Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Original Lease. Tenant represents, warrants and covenants with Landlord that Tenant has the absolute right, full power and authority to agree to the termination of the Original Lease as provided herein. Tenant will, at its sole expense, cause all documents registered on title relating to the Original Lease (inclusive, for certainty, of any notices of leases; restrictive covenants, caveats, cautions, etc.) to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from title to the Site and the Shopping Centre and provide proof of such action to Landlord, within 15 days of the Termination Date, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge thereof immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering such documents or instruments will be paid by Tenant.

For certainty, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it remains responsible for the re-payment of all deferred rental amounts owing and outstanding as of the Termination Date under the Original Lease and the corresponding deferral agreement entered into by the parties in [●] (such deferred rent amount being $[●] per square foot of the Area of the Premises per annum).

ARTICLE 4.00 RENT

4.01 Minimum Rent Tenant will pay to Landlord a Minimum Rent for the Premises described in Article 1.09 of this Lease, payable in advance in equal and consecutive monthly instalments and without notice on the Commencement Date and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter during the Term.

4.02 Intentionally deleted.

4.03 Intentionally deleted.

4.04 Intentionally deleted.

4.06 Net Lease It is the stated purpose and intent of Landlord and Tenant that, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Lease will be fully net to Landlord. Tenant will pay to Landlord, at the times and in the manner provided in Articles 4.07 and 4.09, its Proportionate Share of Operating Costs and Taxes.

4.07 Calculation and Payment of Operating Costs

(a) Tenant will pay the amounts stipulated in Article 1.11 to Landlord in monthly instalments one-twelfth of such estimate simultaneously with Tenant's payments of Minimum Rent during such Fiscal Year.

(b) If the Term commences after the beginning of or terminates before the end of a Fiscal Year, the amount of Operating Costs payable by Tenant for such Fiscal Year will be adjusted proportionately.

4.08 Intentionally deleted.

4.09 Taxes Payable by Tenant The Tenant shall be responsible for the payment of all Taxes imposed from time to time during the Term in respect of the Premises and the lands immediately thereunder, including in each case all the improvements constructed thereon and all the fixtures and equipment constructed and used by Tenant and its assignees, sublicensees and concessionaires; for certainty, Tenant shall pay the Tenant's Taxes contribution to the Landlord as Additional Rent hereunder in an amount equal to the actual Taxes levied specifically against the Premises by the taxing authority, provided that if the Premises is not taxed on a separate basis, then in an amount determined by the Landlord, acting reasonably and equitably, on the basis of the notes and working papers of the British Columbia Assessment Authority (or its successor) made readily available to the Landlord, and provided further that if such notes and working papers are not readily available to the Landlord or they do not contain sufficient information to determine the Taxes applicable specifically to the Premises, then Tenant shall pay its Proportionate Share of all Taxes payable in respect of the Shopping Centre. The parties acknowledge and agree that for the 2023 Fiscal Year, the notes and working papers of the British Columbia Assessment Authority are readily available to the Landlord and contain sufficient information to determine the Taxes applicable specifically to the Premises. For the 2023 Fiscal Year, an initial amount of Taxes allocable to the Premises is estimated to be $[●] per square foot of the Area per annum.

Within 180 days of the end of the Fiscal Year for which the estimated payments apply, Landlord shall furnish Tenant with a statement showing the actual amount of Tenant's required contribution pursuant to this Article 4.09 for such period. If the estimated amount paid by Tenant is less than the amount indicated on the statement, Tenant shall pay the difference to Landlord within 30 days following the date Landlord sends its invoice to Tenant. If the amount paid provisionally by Tenant is greater than the amount indicated on the statement, Landlord will credit or refund the overpayment against any sums due or which may become due by Tenant under this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the fact that Landlord delays, omits or is in default of providing Tenant with a statement showing the actual amount of Taxes to be paid by Tenant does not prejudice or affect in any manner whatsoever Landlord's right to provide same at any time or Tenant's obligation to pay.

Tenant shall reimburse Landlord that part of any increase in Taxes for the Shopping Centre, which is reasonably attributable to any change, addition or improvement or special equipment identified by a taxing Authority made on or in the Premises by Tenant. In such event, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the total amount of said Tax increase attributable to Tenant within 30 days of receipt of an invoice from Landlord, said amount to be deemed Additional Rent.

For greater certainty, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any and all goods and services tax, value added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST or any other similar tax) ("Value Added Taxes"), it being the intention of the parties that Landlord shall collect from Tenant all Value Added Taxes collectable by Landlord on the Rent and any other amounts payable by Tenant under this Lease. The amount of such Value Added Taxes so payable by Tenant shall be calculated by Landlord in accordance with the applicable legislation and shall be paid to Landlord at the same time as the amount to which such Value Added Taxes apply are payable to Landlord under the terms of this Lease. The amount payable by Tenant under this provision shall be deemed not to be additional rent, but Landlord shall have all of the same remedies for and rights of recovery of such amount as it has for recovery of Rent under this Lease

Landlord may, without being obliged to do so, contest any Taxes, assessment or any decision of any Authority, and to prosecute, suspend, appeal or settle any contestation as it deems appropriate. Nothing whatsoever related to any contestation or appeal will entitle Tenant to withhold or defer payment of any Taxes it is obliged to pay to Landlord. Tenant shall have no right to contest any Taxes to which it may be obliged to contribute.

4.10 Changes in Taxes If the system of real estate taxation is altered or varied from that in force on the Commencement Date and any new tax shall be levied or imposed on all or part of the Shopping Centre and/or the revenues therefrom and/or on Landlord in substitution for or in addition to previously existing Taxes by any taxing Authority, whether or not the taxing Authority has previously charged any Taxes, then any such new tax or levy shall be included in Taxes, or if by law, regulation or otherwise all or any part of any Taxes, is made payable by Landlord or if the mode of collecting such tax, assessment, local improvement, licence fee, excise or other charge is so altered so as to make Landlord liable in whole or in part therefor instead of Tenant or if all or any part of Tenant's Taxes under Article 8.01 is imposed, levied, assessed or charged upon or on account of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will pay to Landlord, from time to time, within 30 days after demand, the amount payable by Landlord, from time to time, as a result of such change as determined by Landlord in the same manner as the Proportionate Share of Taxes is payable under the terms of this Lease and Tenant will indemnify and save Landlord harmless from any cost or expense in respect thereof. For greater certainty, to the extent that the new tax or levy is fully recoverable by Tenant as an input tax credit or refund, such Tax shall be fully payable by Tenant notwithstanding the proportionate sharing of other Taxes hereunder. For greater certainty, to the extent a new tax or levy is fully recoverable by Tenant as an input tax credit or refund, such Tax shall be fully payable by Tenant notwithstanding the proportionate sharing of Taxes hereunder.

4.11 Intentionally deleted.

4.12 Promotion Fund Landlord may establish and maintain a common Promotion Fund for the Shopping Centre or continue to maintain any Promotion Fund in existence as of the Commencement Date of this Lease. Landlord will use the Promotion Fund for the promotion or benefit of the Shopping Centre in such a manner and as Landlord may, from time to time, decide and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord may utilize the Promotion Fund for payment of a full-time or part-time marketing director, the employment of other promotional staff and customer service, the purchase of advertising space and time, materials or equipment for decorating and promotional events and activities similar to those undertaken by other shopping centres. Any surplus in the Promotion Fund at the end of a Fiscal Year of the Promotion Fund will be carried forward for like purposes in the next year, without any reduction in the amount payable by Tenant pursuant to this Article 4.12. Landlord may, at its sole discretion, establish a Promotion Fund advisory committee comprised of representatives of the tenants of the Shopping Centre chosen by Landlord to advise Landlord on the application of the Promotion Fund contributions.

If there is a Promotion Fund for the Shopping Centre, Tenant will pay to Landlord in equal monthly instalments, the amount stipulated in Articles 1.12, towards the Promotion Fund, and may include the development of a mall video network, offering a program of information, entertainment and advertisements, and for the promotion of the Shopping Centre.

Landlord will have the right at its discretion to change the Fiscal Year of the Promotion Fund as it may deem appropriate, from time to time. In the event of any such change, Tenant's required contributions to the Promotion Fund for any fiscal year thereof, which is either greater or lesser than twelve (12) calendar months, will be adjusted by Landlord in a reasonable manner.

4.13 Intentionally deleted.

4.14 Landlord's Promotions Landlord may promote and advertise the Shopping Centre in a manner and to the extent that would a diligent and prudent owner of a similar shopping centre, taking into account the nature, size, age, character and location of the Shopping Centre as well as the general image that Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre from time to time. Tenant agrees that Landlord will never be obliged to spend more than the total amount paid to the Promotion Fund described in Article 1.12 by the tenants of the Shopping Centre in any Fiscal Year in order to fulfill its obligations hereunder. Landlord shall alone administer the Promotion Fund.

Landlord's promotional activities may include, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the production and distribution of written advertising or promotional materials and/or audio and/or audio visual promotions by the various media (radio and television) and/or internet and/or seasonal decorations and/or all other forms of promotion or publicity in relation to the Shopping Centre alone or on a joint basis with one or more other shopping centres or properties of which Landlord is owner or manager. Tenant agrees to give its complete support and cooperation to all of Landlord's promotional activities. Without limitation, Tenant will honour any discount coupons, gift certificates, gift cards, electronic gift cards or other incentives given to customers as part of any promotional activity.

Landlord may designate an agent to promote and/or advertise on its behalf, to enter into any agreements with third parties for promotion and/or advertising purposes, and may use all or any part of the Promotion Fund contributions to pay or remunerate its agent.

4.15 Intentionally deleted.

4.16 Intentionally deleted.

4.17 Tenant's Support Tenant will support all promotional events, functions and activities sponsored or participated in by either the Promotion Fund, if any. In order to comply with this obligation, however, Tenant will not be required to make any additional financial contributions toward the promotion of the Shopping Centre other than those set out in Article 4.12.

4.18 Payment of Rent – General During the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay Minimum Rent and Additional Rent to Landlord in the manner provided in this Lease or if not so provided, as reasonably required by Landlord. All amounts payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease will be deemed to be Rent and will be payable and recoverable as Rent in the manner herein provided, and Landlord will have all rights and recourses against Tenant for default in any such payment as in the case of arrears of Rent. Rent will be paid to Landlord, without deduction or set-off, in legal tender of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located. If and to the extent Landlord so requires, Rent will be paid to Landlord, at Tenant's expense, by electronic funds transfer system or similar system whereby Tenant will authorize its bank, trust company, credit union or other financial institution to credit Landlord's bank account each month in an amount equal to the monthly Rent payable pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, otherwise, Rent will be paid to Landlord at the address of Landlord as set forth in the beginning of this Lease, or to such other Person or at such other address as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing.

Where Tenant makes payments of Rent by an electronic funds transfer system, Tenant shall notify Landlord by e-mail of the date of said electronic payment.

4.19 Rent – Adjustment for Partial Months If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the Commencement Date will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the Commencement Date to the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs (both the Commencement Date and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365. If the Term ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the first (1st) day of the last calendar month of the Term will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the first (1st) day of such last calendar month to the last day of the Term (both the first (1st) and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365.

4.20 Charge Adjustment. Wherever it is mentioned in this Lease that Landlord may increase any amount or charge, the following rules may apply if required by the Landlord: (a) each permitted increase of any such amount or charge shall come into force as of the date indicated in Landlord's notice and shall remain in effect until the subsequent increase comes into effect; (b) each permitted increase of any such amount or charge may, at Landlord's option, be charged retroactively; (c) each time any such amount or charge increases, the amount or charge shall be deemed to be replaced by the increased amount or increased charge; (d) any such amount or charge that may be payable during any Fiscal Year shall never be less than the amount or charge so payable during the immediately preceding Fiscal Year; (e)the fact that no annual increase was imposed for any preceding Fiscal Year or such other period, or the fact that an amount less than the full amount of any permitted increase was charged, shall not prevent Landlord, in any manner whatsoever, from imposing the full amount of any annual increase, or any part thereof, during any subsequent Fiscal Year; and (f) the annual increase that Landlord shall be permitted to charge shall be calculated by multiplying the amount or charge presently in force by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the C.P.I. for the month of September of the current Fiscal Year in question and the denominator of which shall be the C.P.I. for the month of September for the immediately preceding Fiscal Year.

ARTICLE 5.00 USE OF PREMISES

5.01 Use and Business Name The Premises will be used and occupied only for the purposes described in Article 1.07; nothing in this Article 5.01 shall create or be deemed to create an exclusivity in favour of Tenant.

The business of Tenant in the Premises will be carried on under the name and style described in Article 1.08 and under no other name and style unless approved by Landlord in writing.

5.02 Hours of Business During the Term of this Lease, Tenant will conduct its business in the Premises on such days and during such hours as is required, from time to time, by Landlord unless prevented from so doing by any Authority, however, nothing herein shall require the Premises or portions thereof to be open during hours other than those which have been generally established by the Tenant for the operation of its similar stores in the Greater Vancouver Area. Tenant shall abide by all rules and regulations now or subsequently in force to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms of this Lease and are applied to Tenant in a non-discriminatory manner.

In the event Tenant fails to conduct its business in accordance with this Article 5.02 then Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.02.

5.03 Continuous Operations Tenant acknowledges that it forms part of an over-all merchandising mix designed to enhance the character, quality, image and reputation of the Shopping Centre, and that its continuous operation of the Premises is essential to Landlord to maintain that character, quality, image, nature and reputation and to facilitate the leasing of vacant space and renewing leases of existing tenants. Tenant therefore, provided the Landlord is operating the Shopping Centre in accordance with this Lease in all material respects, covenants and agrees that throughout the Term it will continuously occupy and operate in the entire Premises, comply strictly with the provisions of Article 5.02 and not vacate or abandon the Premises at any time during the Term. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is executing this Lease in reliance thereupon and that the same is a material element inducing Landlord to execute this Lease. Tenant further agrees that if it vacates or abandons the Premises or it fails to so conduct its business therein, or uses or permits or suffers the use of the Premises for any purpose not specifically herein authorized and allowed, Tenant will be in breach of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and shall have caused Landlord a grave and serious prejudice, and then, without constituting a waiver of Tenant's obligations or limiting Landlord's remedies under this Lease and at law, all Rent reserved in this Lease will immediately become due and payable to Landlord unless guaranteed to the satisfaction of Landlord. Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.03.

5.04 Restrictions on Use & Occupancy

(a) Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not advertise, do, omit, permit or suffer to be done or exist upon the Premises anything which will be or result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

(b) Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any mail order or catalogue enterprise; (iii) any enterprise for the purpose of taking telephone orders; (iv)

a store conducted principally or in part for the sale of second hand goods or apparel, war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (v) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire, and only for a period of 30 days immediately following the reopening after such fire; (vi) a store conducted, promoted and/or represented in whole or substantially as a discount operation or in part as a discount operation so as to give the impression that it is being conducted principally as a discount operation; (vii) a pawn shop; (viii) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (ix) an auction sale; and (x) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre.

(c) Tenant shall not conduct on the Premises any "distress sale", "bankruptcy sale", "going out of business sale", "liquidation sale" or "fire sale" except as expressly provided above nor any other type of sale designed to convey to the public that business operations are to be discontinued or that the store shall close, Tenant shall only sell merchandise in the regular course of trade as a retailer operating the Premises for the purpose for which the Premises are leased. Notwithstanding the foregoing, within the last six (6) months of the Term, the Tenant shall have the right to conduct clearance and other sales promotions in the Premises and the Tenant shall be permitted to erect, install and maintain within the Premises during such period any clearance and/or store closing signage (or other signage of a similar nature), provided that (i) any such signage on the exterior of the Premises or which faces any Common Areas and Facilities, shall be subject to the Tenant obtaining all required municipal approvals as well as the Landlord's prior written approval for the nature, size, type and location thereof; and (ii) all clearance and other sales otherwise comply with the requirements of sub-paragraph (b) above and this Lease and are undertaken in a reputable and prudent manner that does not interfere with the typical use and operation of the Shopping Centre or the occupants thereof. Landlord's approval of such signage shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed provided it complies with this provision.

(d) Intentionally deleted.

(e) Tenant shall not use the Common Areas and Facilities for any reason whatsoever without the prior written approval of Landlord. Tenant will not place or keep any merchandise or other thing beyond the permanent floor mounted storefront or closure of the Premises or in the Common Areas and Facilities.

(f) Intentionally deleted.

5.05 Intentionally deleted.

5.06 Display Windows Tenant will keep display windows (if any) neatly dressed. Display windows and lighted signs (if any) will be kept illuminated by Tenant on all business days until at least one half hour after the Shopping Centre closes for business.

5.07 Compliance with Laws The Premises will be used and occupied in a safe, careful and proper manner so as not to contravene any present or future governmental or quasi-governmental laws in force or regulations or orders including, without limitation, all Environmental Law. If, due solely to Tenant's use of the Premises, improvements are necessary to comply with any of the foregoing or with the requirements of insurance carriers, Tenant shall execute same and will pay the entire cost thereof. Unless otherwise directed by Landlord, Tenant will obtain and comply with the terms of all licences, certificates of approval, permits and other approvals necessary or appropriate under applicable laws (inclusive of Environmental Law) for the safe and lawful conduct of its business at or from the Premises.

5.08 Nuisance Tenant will not cause or maintain any nuisance or hazard in or about the Premises and will keep the Premises free of debris, trash, rodents, vermin and anything of a dangerous, noxious or offensive nature or which could create a fire hazard (through undue load on electrical circuits or otherwise) or undue vibration, heat or any unusual or objectionable noises or odours or anything which may disturb the enjoyment of the Shopping Centre and all the Common Areas and Facilities thereof by customers and other tenants of the Shopping Centre, nor will Tenant allow any noise, sound or music in the Premises to be heard in the Common Areas and Facilities or neighbouring premises.

5.09 Advertising, Trade Names and Restricted Marks

(a) In its advertising, Tenant will use the name of the Shopping Centre, such trade names, symbols and slogans as may be designated by Landlord but Tenant will not indulge in any advertising or sales promotion which is undignified or not in conformity with the highest standards of practice among stores dealing in similar merchandise or might harm or tend to harm the business reputation of Landlord or reflect unfavourably on the Shopping Centre, or might confuse or mislead or tend to confuse or mislead the public. Tenant will not sell, advertise, conduct or solicit business anywhere within the Shopping Centre other than in the Premises.

(b) The name for the Shopping Centre which Landlord may from time to time adopt and every name or mark adopted by Landlord in connection with the Shopping Centre will be used by Tenant only in association with sales made at or from and the business carried on in the Premises during the Term and Tenant's use thereof will be subject to such regulations as Landlord may from time to time impose. Tenant will not acquire any rights in any such restricted name or mark, and upon the termination of this Lease all its interest herein will be deemed to have been surrendered to Landlord and Tenant will thereafter cease and abandon all use thereof. If Landlord so requests, Tenant will execute registered user applications or agreements or both to protect Landlord's trade mark rights.

5.10 Intentionally deleted.

5.11 Loading and Delivery The delivery and shipping of merchandise, supplies, fixtures, and other materials or goods of whatsoever nature to or from the Premises and all loading, unloading, and handling of it will be done only at the times, in the areas, by the means, and through the elevators, entrances, malls, and corridors as are designated by Landlord. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will not use or permit any elevators, entrances, malls, corridors or other parts of the Common Areas and Facilities to be used as temporary storage area or areas by Tenant, any of Tenant's employees or suppliers or others when making deliveries to or shipments from the Premises or any permitted storage area of Tenant.

Landlord accepts no liability and is hereby relieved and released by Tenant in respect of the operation of the delivery facilities, or the adequacy of them, or of the acts or omissions of any Person or Persons engaged in the operation of them, or in the acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch of any goods for or on behalf of Tenant, or for any claim of Tenant by reason of damage, loss, theft, or acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch, failure of any acceptance, holding, handling or dispatch, or any error, negligence or delay.

Landlord may, from time to time, make and amend regulations for the orderly and efficient operation of the delivery facilities, and may require the payment of reasonable and equitable charges for delivery services and removal provided by Landlord.

ARTICLE 6.00 SERVICES, MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS BY LANDLORD

6.01 Operation of Shopping Centre Landlord shall operate the Shopping Centre and maintain the Common Areas and Facilities as would a prudent and diligent owner of a similar shopping centre, having regard to the Shopping Centre's size, age, nature, location and region where the Shopping Centre is situated, as well as the type of clientele the Shopping Centre services and the general image Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre, all as determined by the Landlord in its sole discretion.

6.02 Services Landlord will provide in the Shopping Centre except where Tenant shall do so pursuant to this Lease:

(a) domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water and necessary supplies in common washrooms sufficient for the normal use thereof; and

(b) heat, ventilation, air conditioning, lighting, electric power, domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water, steam, natural gas and chilled water, in the Common Areas and Facilities (where appropriate).

6.03 Maintenance, Repair and Replacement Subject to the provisions of Article 7.01(b), Landlord will operate, maintain, repair and replace the systems, facilities and equipment necessary for the proper operation of the Shopping Centre and for provision of Landlord's services under Article 6.02 (except as such may be installed by or be the property of Tenant or others (excluding Landlord) or both and except for the heating, ventilating and air conditioning equipment, elevators, escalators and other systems, facilities, machinery and equipment installed within or for the Premises and will expeditiously maintain and repair the foundations, structure and roof of the Shopping Centre

(excluding the Premises), provided that:

(a) if all or part of such systems, facilities and equipment are destroyed, damaged or impaired, Landlord will have a reasonable time in which to complete the necessary repair or replacement, and during that time will be required only to maintain such services as are reasonably possible in the circumstances;

(b) Landlord may temporarily discontinue such services or any of them at such times as may be necessary due to causes (except lack of funds) beyond the reasonable control of Landlord;

(c) Landlord will use reasonable diligence in carrying out its obligations under this Article 6.03, but will not be liable under any circumstances for any consequential damage to any Person (including without limitation, Tenant) or any property for any failure to do so;

(d) no reduction or discontinuance of such services under clauses (a) or (b) of this Article 6.03 will constitute as an eviction of Tenant or (except as specifically provided in this Lease) release Tenant from any obligation of Tenant under this Lease; and

(e) nothing contained herein will derogate from the provisions of Articles 10.01, 16.01, 16.02, 16.03, or 16.04.

6.04 Alterations by Landlord Landlord may, at any time prior to or during the Term, subject to Article 6.06: (i) change the area, level, location, arrangement or use of any portion of the Shopping Centre; (ii) construct on the Site or on adjacent lands, other buildings, structures or improvements and make alterations, additions, subtractions or rearrangements; (iii) modify, alter, expand, reduce or eliminate any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities; (iv) close off all or any part of the Shopping Centre and/or temporarily suspend services for the purpose of maintenance, repair, alteration or construction; (v) place any installations within or on any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities including without limitation, kiosks, planters, benches, promotional displays or activities and any other installations; (vi) close all or part of the Shopping Centre to the public outside of regular business hours, Sundays and holidays included; (vii) restrict areas on the Site available for employee parking, and/or prohibit employees from parking anywhere on the Site; (viii) impose reasonable charges for parking, and impose restrictions on refunds or compensations by Tenant to Persons using the parking areas; (ix) modify tenant mix, both with respect to kinds of uses which may be made of premises, as well as to changes in the physical location of any one or more tenants; (x) do and perform such other acts in relation to the Shopping Centre for the more efficient and proper operation of the Shopping Centre as Landlord determines to be advisable; (xi) change the name of the Shopping Centre; (xii) do all work required to install new, and/or maintain, adapt, repair or replace existing utility lines, pipes, roof drainage pipes, conduits, wires, duct work, columns and other matters through any part of the Premises if necessary and do any other work in the Premises to preserve, support or reinforce any structural walls or foundations of the Premises or the Shopping Centre, and do such work as may be required for an expansion or an alteration of all or part of the Shopping Centre.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, it is understood and agreed that if the Shopping Centre, the Site and/or the Common Areas and Facilities are diminished or altered in any manner whatsoever as a result of the exercise by Landlord of its rights set out in this Article 6.04, Landlord is not subject to any liability nor is Tenant entitled to any compensation or diminution or abatement of Rent, nor is any alteration or diminution thereof deemed to constitute constructive or actual eviction, or a breach of any covenant for quiet enjoyment contained in this Lease. Landlord and Tenant further agree that the exercise by Landlord of its rights under this Article 6.04 will not relieve Tenant of Tenant's obligations under Article 5.03 of this Lease.

The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that the Landlord has not granted to the Tenant and neither the Tenant or the Premises has the benefit of any merchandising controls, exclusivity rights, use restrictions, no-build zones, minimum parking ratio requirements, , minimum stall number requirements or any other restrictions, restrictive covenants or approval rights applicable to the Site; the Shopping Centre or any part(s) thereof or any other lands abutting thereto or in the vicinity thereof ("Additional Lands") which the Landlord or any of its affiliates may have an interest in, including without limitation and for certainty anything that would otherwise restrict, limit, delay or otherwise interfere with the Landlord's (or its affiliate's) ability to lease, use, convey, alter, develop and/or redevelop all or any part of the Shopping Centre, the Site or any such Additional Lands. The Tenant hereby confirms that any of the forgoing that the Tenant was entitled to or that were granted in or in connection with the Original Lease, its occupancy of the Premises or otherwise have been expressly waived by the Tenant, have terminated and have ceased to have any force or effect. The Tenant covenants and agrees: (a) not to oppose (and hereby irrevocably waives all rights to oppose) the exercise of the Landlord's rights under this Section 6.04 or otherwise pursuant to this Lease in this regard, including, in respect of any rezoning matters, variance applications, restrictive covenants, site plans, subdivisions, easements, transfers, dedications, permits or approvals and other similar requirements in connection therewith (hereinafter "Rezoning Matters"); and (b) agrees to cooperate with Landlord (at no cost or expense to the Tenant) to the extent reasonably required, including, without limitation, granting any partial discharges of its notice of lease and executing any consents, documents and instruments reasonably requested by the Landlord in furtherance of any Rezoning Matters.

6.06 Access by Landlord Tenant will permit Landlord to enter the Premises outside of normal business hours, and during normal business hours where such will not unreasonably disturb or interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises and operation of its business, to examine, inspect and show the Premises to persons wishing to lease them, to provide services or make repairs, replacements, changes or alterations as set out in this Lease, and to take such steps as Landlord may deem necessary for the safety, improvement or preservation of the Premises or the Shopping Centre. Landlord will whenever possible, save in the event of emergency, consult with or give reasonable notice to Tenant prior to such entry, but no such entry will constitute an eviction or entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

6.07 Energy, Conservation and Security Policies Landlord will be deemed to have observed and performed the terms and conditions to be performed by Landlord under this Lease, including those relating to the provision of utilities and services, if in so doing it acts in accordance with a directive, policy or request of a governmental or quasi-governmental authority serving the public interest in the fields of energy, conservation or security.

6.08 Sustainable Operation of Shopping Centre Tenant acknowledges Landlord's intention, to operate its Shopping Centre in a manner so as to provide for:

(a) reduced energy and water consumption;

(b) the use of renewable energy and recycled water;

(c) the facilitation of alternate transportation for customers of the Shopping Centre;

(d) the use of non-toxic, low-impact cleaning and pest control and other products in the operation and maintenance of the Shopping Centre;

(e) a healthy indoor environment;

(f) installation and use of sustainable materials, furniture, equipment and improvements within the Shopping Centre; and

(g) the recycling and diversion of operational waste from landfill generated from the activities of tenants, licensees, and customers of the Shopping Centre, and Landlord intends to operate, manage and maintain the Shopping Centre so as to obtain and/or maintain any green building certifications, accreditations or ratings.

ARTICLE 7.00 DEMISED UTILITIES, SERVICES, MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS BY TENANT

7.01 Demised Utilities

(a) Subject to Article 7.01(b), during the Term, Tenant will provide in the Premises at its own expense heat, ventilation, air-conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam and other utilities and services. Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall promptly pay (but in any event no later than the due date) the cost of water consumption, electricity, gas, steam, telephone, and other utilities used or consumed in or from the Premises directly to the supplier of such services where separately metered or as Landlord may direct.

(b) If heat, ventilation, air conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam or any other utility or service is provided by Landlord, but is not metered or is supplied to the Premises through meters common to a group of tenants in the Shopping Centre, Landlord will pay the cost thereof and apportion such cost as may reasonably be determined by Landlord among the tenants utilizing the utility or service or supplied through such common meters, (provided that if Landlord will from time to time reasonably determine that the use of any such utility or service in the Premises is disproportionate to the use of other tenants, Landlord may adjust Tenant's share of the cost thereof from a date reasonably determined by Landlord to take equitable account of the disproportionate use) and Tenant will reimburse Landlord the amount of its share of such cost.

(c) Intentionally deleted.

(d) If a separate or a check meter exists, Tenant shall then pay for its consumption to Landlord as measured by the Premises check meter and in accordance with the rates of Landlord's supplier.

(e) If at any time, any utility serving the Premises, whose consumption rate was measured by separate or check meter, ceases to be measured by separate or check meter for any reason whatsoever, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a charge calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) above.

(f) Notwithstanding Article 7.00 of this Lease, at Landlord's option, Landlord may, at any time or times during the Term, purchase in bulk from the utility supplier the aggregate electrical energy requirements of the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof, in which event Landlord may arrange for the supply of electricity to the Premises for the general electrical purposes of Tenant. In such case, Tenant will pay to Landlord on a monthly basis, in advance, with annual adjustment at the end of each Fiscal Year, a charge for supplying electricity to the Premises as determined by Landlord on the basis of Tenant's consumption.

(g) Where the Premises are metered directly by a utility company or supplier for electricity, gas, water, or steam consumption, Tenant will provide Landlord, at Tenant's cost, with all consumption data for the Premises, in the manner, at such frequency and in the format as required by Landlord so as to comply with its obligations relating to governmental or quasi-governmental authority reporting regulations, to meet green building certifications or standards including, without limitation, LEED, BOMA BEST or ENERGY STAR or to improve the environmental performance of the Shopping Centre.

7.02 Demised Heating, Ventilation, and Air-Conditioning (HVAC) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will be responsible for maintaining, repairing and replacing of the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning equipment (the "Tenant HVAC System") installed for the Premises where such equipment is not part of a shared or central system.

7.03 Condition of Premises During the Term, Tenant will keep the Premises in a clean and tidy condition, and will provide at its own expense therein janitor services in accordance with this Lease and the rules and regulations of Landlord from time to time, removal of debris and garbage, and cleaning of all windows, doors, walls, ceiling, tiles, floors, grease traps and grease guard systems in the Premises and on the roof of the Shopping Centre where applicable and the exterior of the Premises, subject to Article 7.04(f).

Subject to the foregoing and except to the extent that Landlord is specifically responsible therefor under this Lease, Tenant will maintain the Premises and all improvements therein in good order and condition, subject to reasonable wear and tear, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) intentionally deleted;

(b) making repairs and replacements as needed to glass, plate glass, store windows and storefronts, signs, mouldings, doors, hardware, partitions, walls, fixtures, lighting, finishes, plumbing, wiring, ductwork and piping (including that portion which is contiguous to the Premises), ceilings, floors and thresholds in the Premises;

(c) maintaining, repairing and replacing as needed all elevators, escalators, mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems, facilities and equipment in the Premises;

(d) making other repairs and replacements in the Premises as needed, except repairs and replacements to the Premises for which Landlord is specifically responsible under this Lease; and

(e) keeping the Premises in such condition as to comply with the requirements of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority and insurers having jurisdiction and the rules and regulations of Landlord.

7.04 Alterations by Tenant Tenant may from time to time at its own expense make changes, additions and improvements in the Premises to better adapt the same to its business, provided that any such change, addition or improvement will:

(a) comply with the requirements of Landlord's insurer and any Authority having jurisdiction;

(b) be made only with the prior written consent of Landlord;

(c) equal the then current standard for the Shopping Centre;

(d) be carried out only by persons selected by Tenant and approved in writing by Landlord, who will, if required by Landlord, deliver to Landlord before commencement of the work, performance and payment bonds as well as proof of worker's compensation and public liability and property damage insurance coverage as reasonably required by Landlord with Landlord, Owners and Management Company as additional insured parties in amounts, with companies and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, which will remain in effect during the entire period in which the work will be carried out;

(e) Tenant shall obtain all necessary construction and other permits before starting any work in the Premises;

(f) Tenant shall not make any repairs, openings, or additions to any part of the exterior of the Premises, or to the Common Areas and Facilities nor place anything of whatsoever nature in or upon any part of the Common Areas and Facilities, including without limitation the roof and without having obtained the prior written consent of Landlord. In addition it is expressly forbidden for Tenant, its employees, agents, representatives or any Person for whom Tenant is in law responsible to go upon the roof of the Shopping Centre for any reason whatsoever without Landlord's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the prior granting of such consent, Tenant shall be fully responsible for all ensuing costs and damages whether to remove materials or to effect repairs needed as a result of such acts;

(g) Tenant shall not make any change, alteration, addition, repair or improvement in or to the Premises which in any manner affects the structure, the roof, the perimeter walls, the bearing floors, structural slab or slab on grade, the storefront, the sprinkler system (whether it services the Premises exclusively or not), or any heating, ventilation or air-conditioning system or equipment or the electrical and plumbing services or systems (whether these serve the Premises exclusively or not), without in each case obtaining Landlord's prior written approval thereto. Tenant will accompany each request for Landlord's written approval by detailed plans and specifications for the intended work, and will ensure that the work is done according to the relevant provisions of this Lease.

Any increase in Taxes or insurance premiums for the Shopping Centre, or any part thereof, attributable to such change, addition or improvement will be borne by Tenant and Tenant will pay Landlord for the cost of such increase upon receipt of Landlord's invoices therefor.

7.05 Trade Fixtures and Personal Property Tenant may install in the Premises its usual trade fixtures and personal property in a proper manner, provided that no such installation will interfere with or damage the mechanical, plumbing, sprinkler or electrical systems or all or any part of the structure of the Shopping Centre. If Tenant is not then in default under this Lease, trade fixtures and personal property installed in but not affixed to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant may be removed from the Premises:

(a) from time to time in the ordinary course of Tenant's business or in the course of permitted reconstruction, renovation or alteration of the Premises by Tenant; and provided that Tenant in all cases promptly repairs at its own expense any damage to the Premises resulting from such installation and removal. In no case will trade fixtures or personal property include the ceiling or ceiling panels, electric light fixtures, doors, floor coverings, storefront, plumbing fixtures and fittings or any affixed cabinets, shelves, hardware or decorative items in or upon the Premises which upon installation become the property of Landlord, provided, however, that if any of the foregoing shall contain any Hazardous Substance such installation shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant will remove such items at its expense.

7.06 Liens Tenant will pay before delinquency all costs for work done or caused to be done by Tenant in the Premises which could result in any lien or encumbrance on Landlord's interest or Tenant's interest or both in the Site or the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, will keep the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre and every part thereof free and clear of any lien or encumbrance in respect of such work and will indemnify and hold harmless Landlord against any claim, loss, cost, demand and legal or other expense, whether in respect of any lien or otherwise, arising out of the supply of material, services or labour for such work. Tenant will immediately notify Landlord of any such lien, claim of lien or other action of which it has or reasonably should have knowledge and which affects the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, and will cause the same to be removed within fifteen (15) days of written notice from Landlord (or such additional time as Landlord may consent to in writing), failing which Landlord may take action as Landlord deems necessary to remove the same and the entire cost thereof will be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, including all legal fees, costs and disbursements on a substantial indemnity basis.

7.08 Signs Tenant shall not erect or place any sign, decal, decoration, lettering, design or advertisement of any nature whatsoever ("Sign") on the exterior walls of the Premises or on the walls of the mall or elsewhere in the Shopping Centre or in the display windows without first obtaining Landlord's written consent as to the specifications, design, location and method of installation. All Signs shall conform to all applicable rules and regulations and shall be of high quality. Furthermore, all Signs shall be suitably illuminated where applicable in the same manner as other signs in the Shopping Centre. Tenant shall not install or affix any Sign in the Premises or in the Shopping Centre which is visible from the exterior of the Shopping Centre. All Signs on Tenant's storefront which Landlord allows Tenant to install must be so installed prior to the opening by Tenant of its Premises to the public.

No Sign(s) advertising an auction sale, going out of business sale, closing out sale, bankruptcy sale or any other similar sale other than one in the normal course of Tenant's business, or any Sign indicating that Tenant is moving to another location, shall be permitted in the Shopping Centre.

For certainty, the Landlord confirms that the Tenant's exterior Signs that exist as of the Commencement Date are compliant with this Section.

ARTICLE 8.00 TENANT'S TAXES

8.01 Business Taxes and Other Taxes Payable by Tenant Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to the Authorities responsible for collection all business and water taxes, charges or rates, garbage removal taxes, charges, rates, taxes, levies, fees, duties, tariffs or assessments for consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature however imposed or assessed and/or for recycling and/or similar taxes, charges or rates imposed on or applicable to Tenant in connection with the activities, goods (including without limiting the generality thereof, Tenant's movables, equipment and tools) or services of which Tenant benefits, or for Tenant's use or occupation of the Premises, or for the nature of the enterprise that Tenant operates in the Premises, or any other matter determined by said authorities (hereinafter "Tenant's Taxes"). It is understood that Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to Landlord any Tenant's Taxes where Landlord shall be invoiced therefor or shall become liable for any such Tenant's Taxes pursuant to any new, amended or modified law, regulation, policy and/or practice of any competent Authority. Tenant shall also be liable for the payment of any Tenant's Taxes, Taxes and any other amount payable by Landlord, and any increases in one or all of the foregoing (even where such Tenant's Taxes, Taxes or other amount or increases thereof are substantially greater than the amount payable therefor by Tenant in previous years) as a direct or indirect result of the abolition, modification and/or replacement of any Tenant's Taxes by any competent Authority or due to any modification of any policy or practice thereof. Tenant will indemnify Landlord from and against all losses, costs of expenses occasioned by or arising from the foregoing.

ARTICLE 9.00 INSURANCE

9.01 Landlord's Insurance During the Term, Landlord will maintain the Landlord's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

9.02 Tenant's Insurance During the Term and any period Tenant is in possession of the Premises, the Tenant will maintain the Tenant's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date in accordance with the insurance certificate most recently provided to the Landlord by the Tenant, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

Tenant agrees to deliver to Landlord, proof of above required insurance in force at such date, such proof to be in the form of certificates of insurance acceptable to Landlord. If the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained on the part of Tenant will immediately endanger or could reasonably lead to or result in future endangerment of the Premises or any other of the buildings or property in or on the Shopping Centre or result in the voiding, cancellation or threatened cancellation of any insurance policy affecting such buildings or property or part thereof Landlord may, either, at Landlord's sole discretion, terminate this Lease effective upon written notice to Tenant, or without terminating this Lease and after giving such notice, if any, as is reasonable in the circumstances, enter upon the Premises and take such action, including removing Tenant and any persons or property from the Shopping Centre, as is reasonable to remove or abate the cause of the danger or voiding or cancellation of the policy, and Landlord will not be liable for any damages of any kind howsoever caused arising out of such termination or such action, the whole without prejudice to Landlord's other rights and recourses.

ARTICLE 10.00 INJURY TO PERSON OR PROPERTY

10.01 Mutual Indemnity. Except to the extent released in Sections 10.02 and 10.03 below, each of the Landlord and the Tenant will defend, protect, indemnify and save harmless the other of and from all fines, suits, claims, demands and actions of any kind or nature to which the party being indemnified shall or may become liable or suffer by reason of any breach, violation or nonperformance by the party so indemnifying of any covenant, term or provision of this Lease or by reason of any damage, injury or death occasioned to or suffered by any person or persons including the Landlord or the Tenant, as the case may be, or any property, by reason of any wrongful act, neglect or default on the part of the party so indemnifying or any of its agents, employees, officers or contractors.

10.02 Release of Landlord. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Tenant, none of the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre or other persons for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage so required to be insured by the Tenant to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Tenant fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Tenant had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Tenant shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, the manager retained by the Landlord from time to time to operate the Shopping Centre and those for whom the Landlord is responsible in law. With respect to the Tenant's fixtures, furniture, inventory and stock-in-trade including merchandise or other contents of the Premises, the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre and others for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage.

10.03 Release of Tenant. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Landlord, none of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees or other persons for whom the Tenant is responsible at law shall be liable in respect of any loss, injury or damage required to be so insured to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Landlord fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Landlord had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Landlord shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees and those for whom the Tenant is responsible in law.

ARTICLE 11.00 TRANSFERS

11.01 Transfers Except to an Eligible Corporation (which for the purpose of this Article 11.00 is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual) which controls or is controlled by or under common control with Tenant, where to control means to own beneficially either directly or indirectly more than 50% of the voting shares of a corporation or other legal entity) and subject to provisions of Article 11.03, Tenant will not, and will not permit a subtenant to, assign this Lease in whole or in part or sublet all or part of the Premises, or transfer this Lease in any other manner and will not permit the occupation or use of all or part of the Premises by others (any of which events are hereinafter referred to as a "Transfer"), without the prior written consent of Landlord in each case, which consent, despite any statutory provision to the contrary, may be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Tenant may enter into a Transfer with an Eligible Corporation, with the prior written consent of Landlord which consent may not be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld. Tenant will not, and will not permit subtenant or any other Person or entity to mortgage or encumber this Lease or all or part of the Premises. Under no circumstances will Tenant be entitled to effect a Transfer to any one prior to the Commencement Date, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease or at law. The consent by Landlord to a Transfer will not constitute a waiver of its consent to a subsequent Transfer. This prohibition against transferring includes a Transfer by operation of law. If a Transfer occurs without the consent of Landlord when required, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee, subtenant, mortgagee, encumbrancer, user or occupant as the case may be (hereinafter the "Transferee"), and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such Transfer, occupancy or collection will be deemed a waiver of the covenant not to Transfer without Landlord's consent, nor an acceptance by Landlord of the Transfer or the Transferee notwithstanding any rule of law to the contrary. Despite a Transfer, Tenant remains fully liable under this Lease. A permitted Transfer of all or part of this Lease or the Premises will be documented by Landlord or its solicitors, and the amounts stipulated in Article 11.02(g)(iv) shall be paid by Tenant and deemed to be Rent. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord may immediately terminate this Lease if Tenant effects a Transfer without Landlord's prior written consent thereto, whether or not Tenant gives prior written notice thereof.

11.02 Conditions Any Transfer referred to in Article 11.01 or elsewhere in this Lease will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) that Tenant causes any Transferee to promptly execute an agreement in writing with Landlord agreeing to be bound by the terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease as if such Transferee had originally executed this Lease as Tenant (provided that such agreement will not in any way affect the rights of Landlord under this Lease); and

(b) all requests for Landlord's consent to effect a Transfer shall be in writing and be accompanied by each of the following: (i) the name, address and telephone number of each proposed Transferee and if it is a corporation, the names of the directors and the majority shareholders (or in the case of a change of control, those Persons who would subsequently acquire effective control); (ii) details of the proposed Transferee's prior business experience (including experience in the enterprise for which the Premises are to be operated pursuant to this Lease); (iii) bank and other credit references, required by Landlord to assess the business or financial strength and standing of the proposed assignee, subtenant or occupant; (iv) a non-reimbursable fee (paid by certified cheque or draft of a Canadian chartered bank) for all charges associated with Landlord's administration and documentation of the Transfer; (v) if the proposed Transferee is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual), its constating documents (including any articles of incorporation, amendment or amalgamation, any declarations of trust or partnership agreements and the like); (vi) details of the transaction of Transfer between Tenant and the proposed Transferee and all relevant documents with respect thereto; (vii) a signed copy of Landlord's standard form of letter of consent authorizing Landlord to make inquiries regarding the personal affairs of the proposed Transferee or any principal thereof, and (viii) all other information or documentation which Landlord may reasonably require.

11.03 Corporate Ownership If after the date of execution of this Lease, securities not listed for sale on a recognized securities exchange in Canada either of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant are transferred by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law or other disposition, or issued by subscription or allotment or cancelled or redeemed, so as to result in a change in the effective voting or other control of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant by the Person or Persons holding control on the date of execution of this Lease or on the date when Tenant becomes a corporation, if later, or if other steps are taken to accomplish a change of the effective control of Tenant, Tenant will promptly notify Landlord in writing of the change which will be considered to be a Transfer of this Lease to which Articles 11.01 and 11.02 apply; and whether or not Tenant notifies Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease within 60 days after Landlord learns of the change unless Landlord previously had consented to the change in writing. Tenant will make available to Landlord or its lawful representatives all corporate books and records of Tenant and of any Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant for inspection at all reasonable times, to ascertain to the extent possible whether there has been a change of control.

11.04 Insolvency of Transferee In the event Transferee becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy and this Lease is disclaimed or terminated, or Transferee disclaims this Lease pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation, or the terms of any insolvency-related Court order, then at Landlord's option to be exercised on written notice to the original Tenant named in this Lease or any Transferee (except the bankrupt or insolvent Transferee), such party will be deemed to have entered into a lease with Landlord for the remainder of the initial Term, on the terms and conditions of this Lease prevailing immediately prior to the date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation (including without limitation, future Rent escalations (if any)) effective upon the effective date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation.

11.05 Permitted Transfers. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but on prior written notice to Landlord:

(a) assign this Lease to, and may in any event permit the Premises to be used and occupied in whole or in part by, any affiliated corporation of Tenant (as such term "affiliated corporation" is defined by· the Canada Business Corporations Act); or

(b)assign this Lease to any corporation with which Tenant merges or consolidates that is an affiliated corporation of Tenant; or

(c) grant concessions or licenses to use and occupy any part or parts of the Premises provided that: (i) the Premises continues to be carried on, and retains the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated single department store operated in accordance with the requirements of this Lease, (ii) at least 80% (by number) of the concessions or licenses granted shall be to licensees or concessionaires which operate in a majority of the Tenant's other stores in the greater [●] area; and (ii) any such concessionaire, licensee or other occupant within the Premises is subject to the day-to-day operational control of the Tenant in matters related to general standards of the business carried on so as to enable the Tenant to ensure that such standards shall conform to the general standards of business of the Tenant itself.

ARTICLE 12.00 SURRENDER

12.01 Possession Upon the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease and in addition to the provisions of Article 12.02, Tenant will immediately quit and peaceably surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord:

(i) in a vacant, clean and broom-swept condition with all of Tenant's signage, inventory, trade fixtures, racking and personal property removed; and

but otherwise in an "as is, where is" condition and without any obligation to: (A) return the Premises or any component thereof to an improved or better state of condition or operation than existing as of the Commencement Date; or (B) to remove any leasehold improvements in the Premises installed pursuant to Article 7.04 hereof. For greater clarity, it is the intention of the parties that Tenant shall have no obligation to make cosmetic or "wear and tear" type repairs to the Premises upon surrender (such as repainting or repairing holes in walls, floors or ceilings caused by the typical installation and removal of racking, trade fixtures etc.).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Landlord's intention is to demolish and/or redevelop the Premises following the expiry of the Term and not to re-tenant same, the Landlord shall advise the Tenant thereof in which event sub-paragraph (ii) above shall not apply.

Upon surrender, all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises will cease. If Tenant has filed a caveat, caution or other document or instrument giving notice of this Lease against title to the Land, it will cause the same to be discharged no later than 15 days following the expiry or termination date, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a surrender of this Lease or a discharge of caveat, caution or other document or instrument will be paid by Tenant.

12.02 Trade Fixtures, Personal Property and Improvements

(a) Subject to Article 7.05, all alterations, additions and improvements made or to be made upon or to the Premises (save any movable trade fixtures used in Tenant's enterprise) which in any manner are attached in, to or under the floors, walls or ceilings, including, without limitation, walk-in vaults, large water features such as pools, water basins and fountains and landscaping features, any component of any heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, sprinkler, plumbing or electrical equipment or systems, presently or in the future installed within or servicing the Premises, all lighting installations and fixtures including, without limitation, all spot lights and tracks and all floor finishes of whatever nature placed upon the floor of the Premises, all storefronts, doors and/or partitions, shall become Landlord's property at the time they are installed, and will be surrendered to Landlord at the expiry of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease without any compensation or indemnity payable to Tenant whatsoever.

(b) If Tenant leaves any property on the Premises following the expiry of the Term or earlier termination thereof which it is entitled to remove, then unless Landlord expressly notifies Tenant to remove such property, the ownership of such property will, at Landlord's option, be deemed to have been abandoned to Landlord, free and clear of all Tenant Security, notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary and whether or not Landlord chooses to become the owner of such items, they may be used, removed or disposed of by or on behalf of Landlord, as Landlord determines, without compensation payable to Tenant and without incurring any liability to Tenant.

12.03 Merger The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant or the cancellation of this Lease by mutual agreement of Tenant and Landlord will not work a merger, and will, at Landlord's option, either terminate all or any subleases and subtenancies or operate as an assignment to Landlord of all or any subleases and subtenancies. Landlord's option hereunder will be exercised by notice to Tenant and all sublessees or subtenants in the Premises or any part thereof known to Landlord. If Landlord does not give notice within a reasonable period of time after such cancellation of this Lease, then all such subleases will be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such cancellation.

12.04 Payments After Termination No payment of money by Tenant to Landlord after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease or after the giving of any notice by Landlord to Tenant, will reinstate, continue or extend the Term or make ineffective any notice given to Tenant prior to the payment of such money. After the service of notice or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment granting Landlord possession of the Premises, Landlord may receive and collect any sums of Rent due under this Lease, and the payment thereof will not make ineffective any notice, or in any manner affect any pending suit or any judgment theretofore obtained.

ARTICLE 13.00 HOLDING OVER

13.01 Month-to-Month Tenancy If with Landlord's written consent, Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises on a month-to month tenancy only, at a monthly rental equal to the Rent payable by Tenant during the last month immediately preceding the expiration of the Term or such other rental as is stated in such written consent, and such month-to-month tenancy may be terminated by Landlord or Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by delivery of at least one (1) month's advance written notice of termination to the other.

13.02 Tenancy at Sufferance If without Landlord's written consent Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises upon a tenancy at sufferance only, at a monthly rental equal to two (2) times the Rent payable during the last month preceding the expiration or termination. Such tenancy at sufferance may be immediately terminated by Landlord at any time by notice of termination to Tenant, and by Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by at least 30 days' advance written notice of termination to Landlord.

13.03 General Any month-to-month tenancy or tenancy at sufferance hereunder will be subject to all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease except any right of renewal or extension and nothing contained in Article 13.00 will be construed to limit or impair any of Landlord's rights of re-entry or eviction or constitute a waiver thereof.

ARTICLE 14.00 RULES AND REGULATIONS

14.01 Purpose The Rules and Regulations in Exhibit D (the "Rules and Regulations") have been adopted by Landlord for the safety, benefit and convenience of all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre.

14.02 Observance Tenant will at all times comply with, and will cause its employees, servants, agents, licencees and invitees to comply with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect.

14.03 Modification Landlord may from time to time, for the purposes set out in Article 14.01, amend, delete from, or add to the Rules and Regulations, provided that any such modification:

(a) will not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any other provision of this Lease;

(b) will be reasonable and have general application to tenants in the Shopping Centre; and

(c) will be effective only upon delivery of a copy thereof to Tenant at the Premises.

14.04 Non-Compliance Landlord will use reasonable efforts to secure compliance by all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect, but will not be responsible to Tenant for failure of any person to comply with such Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 15.00 EXPROPRIATION

15.01 Expropriation Both Landlord and Tenant agree to cooperate with each other in respect of any expropriation of all or any part of the Premises or any other part of the Shopping Centre, so that each may receive from the Authority the maximum award to which each is respectively entitled by law. If any portion of the Shopping Centre other than the Premises is expropriated, then the proceeds accruing therefrom shall belong solely to Landlord, and Tenant shall abandon to Landlord any rights which Tenant may have by operation of law to such proceeds or award. Tenant will execute such documents as required to give effect to the foregoing.

If at any time during the Term, any material part of the Shopping Centre is expropriated or if access to the Premises is materially affected by such expropriation, then Landlord may terminate this Lease on written notice to Tenant, which termination will take effect on the earlier of the date of the expropriation or the taking of prior possession.

Whether the Lease is terminated or not, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord as a result of or arising from the expropriation of all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

If Landlord exercises its right of termination hereunder, this Lease will terminate on the date stated in the notice, provided, however, that no termination pursuant to notice hereunder may occur later than 60 days after the date (hereinafter "Date of Such Taking") on which the Authority takes possession of that part of the Shopping Centre so taken.

15.02 Surrender On any such date of termination under Article 15.01, Tenant will immediately surrender to Landlord the Premises and all interests therein under this Lease. Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and remove Tenant therefrom, and the Rent will abate on the date of termination, except that if the Date of Such Taking differs from the date of termination, Rent will abate on the former date.

15.03 Partial Taking of Premises If any portion of the Premises (but less than the whole thereof) is so taken, and no rights of termination herein conferred are timely exercised, the Term of this Lease will expire with respect to the portion so taken on the Date of Such Taking. In such event the Rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion so taken will abate on such date, and the Rent thereafter payable with respect to the remainder not so taken will be adjusted pro rata by Landlord in order to account for the resulting reduction of the Area of the Premises. After such adjustment, and on notice from Landlord stating the Rent then owing, Tenant will immediately pay Landlord such Rent.

ARTICLE 16.00 DAMAGE BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

16.01 Limited Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, can be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), Landlord will immediately at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, chattels or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired immediately by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.02 Major Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, cannot be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), then Landlord, or in the event that there is less than two (2) years remaining in the Term, Tenant, may elect to terminate this Lease as of the date of such casualty by written notice delivered to the other not more than 20 days after receipt of the Architect's opinion, failing which Landlord will forthwith at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, chattels or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on the behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired forthwith by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.03 Abatement If Landlord is required to repair damage to all or part of the Premises under Article 16.01 or 16.02, provided such damage is caused by a peril Landlord is required to insure against pursuant to Article 9.01, the Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease will be proportionately reduced to the extent that the Premises are thereby rendered untenantable by Tenant in its business, from the date of such casualty until five (5) days after completion by Landlord of the repairs to the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) or until Tenant again uses the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) in its business, whichever first occurs.

16.04 Major Damage or Destruction of Shopping Centre Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Lease and specifically, but without limitation, Article 16.01, if the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed (whether the Premises are affected or not), and (i) in the Architect's opinion, the damaged or destroyed portions cannot reasonably be repaired, restored or rebuilt within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the damage or destruction (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium); or (ii) the cost as estimated by the Architect, of repairing, restoring or rebuilding the damaged or destroyed portions would exceed the proceeds of insurance available to Landlord for such purpose; or (iii) the damage or destruction was caused by a peril for which Landlord was not insured and for which Landlord was not obliged to insure against; or (iv)intentionally deleted; ; or (v) less than two (2) years remains during the Term; or (vi) a Mortgagee will not consent to the use of insurance proceeds for repair or reconstruction; then in any of the above cases, Landlord may, at its option (to be exercised by written notice to Tenant within 30 days following any such occurrence) elect to terminate this Lease.

If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease, then the following provisions will apply:

(a) If the Premises become totally unfit for the use for which they were leased, the termination will take effect from the date of the damage or destruction and the Rent will cease to be payable and will be adjusted as of that date.

(b) If the Premises are partially damaged and Tenant has occupied any part of the Premises or any part of the Premises have been reasonably capable of being occupied from the date of the damage or destruction, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in the first paragraph of this Article 16.04 and the Rent will cease to be paid by Tenant as of the date of termination, however, Minimum Rent and Additional Rent will abate from the date of the damage and destruction until the date of termination to the extent the Premises cannot reasonably be used for their intended purposes.

(c) If the Premises were not damaged, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in Article 16.00 and the Rent will cease to be paid from such date of termination.

If the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed and Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, subject to the following, Landlord shall commence and proceed diligently to reconstruct or repair those portions of the Shopping Centre which have been so damaged or destroyed to the extent only of Landlord's responsibilities pursuant to the terms of the various leases for premises in the Shopping Centre and exclusive of any tenants' responsibilities. Furthermore, if the Premises are being repaired or reconstructed, the provisions of Article 16.01 will apply.

If Landlord does any reconstruction or repairing of the Shopping Centre, Landlord may do any one or more of the following: (i) use plans, specifications and working drawings which differ from those applicable to the Shopping Centre existing prior to the damage or destruction provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; (ii) change the configuration, design and/or size of the Shopping Centre or any of its component parts including, without limitation, the location and size of any mall, court, entrance, parking facility or any of other Common Areas and Facilities provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; and (iii) redesign the tenant mix, both with respect to the kinds of uses which will be included in the tenant mix, as well as the physical location of the types of uses being operated prior to the damage or destruction. Tenant agrees that none of the foregoing shall constitute a default of Landlord's obligation to provide peaceable enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall it constitute a change of form or destination of the Shopping Centre, nor shall the validity or enforceability of this Lease be affected in any manner by any of the foregoing.

ARTICLE 17.00 TRANSFERS AND MORTGAGES BY LANDLORD

17.01 Sales, Conveyance and Assignment Nothing in this Lease (which term for purpose of this Article 17.00 includes any extension, renewal or replacement of this Lease) will restrict the right of Landlord to sell, convey, assign or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Shopping Centre, subject only to the rights of Tenant under this Lease.

17.02 Effect of Sale, Conveyance or Assignment A sale, conveyance or assignment of the Shopping Centre will operate to release Landlord from liability from and after the date thereof upon all the covenants, terms and conditions of this Lease, express or implied, except as such may relate to the period prior to such effective date, and Tenant will thereafter look solely to Landlord's successor in interest in and to this Lease. This Lease will not be affected by any such sale conveyance or assignment, and Tenant will attorn to Landlord's successor in interest thereunder.

17.03 Definition of Mortgage, Mortgagee and Mortgagee's Interest Each and every charge, mortgage, debenture or trust deed, now or hereafter registered against all or any part of the Shopping Centre is hereafter called a "Mortgage" which term includes all amounts advanced or to be advanced thereunder and all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. "Mortgagee" means a chargee or mortgagee named in a Mortgage, or the holder of a debenture or the trustee under a trust deed constituting a Mortgage, as the case may be; and "Mortgagee's Interest" means the estate or interest of the Mortgagee secured by a Mortgage.

17.04 Subordination of Mortgage to Lease If this Lease or the estate or interest of Tenant thereunder (the "Tenant's Leasehold Interest") is subordinate to a Mortgage or Mortgagee's Interest now or at any time hereafter, then on written request of the Mortgagee or of Landlord on Mortgagee's behalf, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, the Mortgage and the Mortgagee's Interest will be postponed and made subordinate to this Lease and the Tenant's Leasehold Interest as if such Mortgage had been executed, delivered, registered and fully advanced after the execution, delivery and registration of this Lease, by means of an instrument of postponement and subordination, which will be entered into between Tenant and the Mortgagee, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that it complies with the terms and conditions of the Lease. Such instrument will be in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, consistent with this Article 17.04 and Article 17.07 and will be effective between the Mortgagee and Tenant when executed by them, without necessity for registration against title to the Shopping Centre; but if desired by the Mortgagee or Tenant, either of them may register such agreement or notice thereof and for that purpose the Mortgagee and Tenant will enter into any further document required to effect registration.

17.05 Attornment If this Lease and Tenant's Leasehold Interest now or at any time hereafter is subordinate to a Mortgage and Mortgagee's Interest and the Mortgagee does not require a postponement and subordination instrument under Article 17.04, Tenant will on request of such Mortgagee or of Landlord on behalf of the Mortgagee, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, enter into an attornment agreement with such Mortgagee in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, whereby Tenant will agree that if default occurs under the Mortgage, and:

(a) the Mortgagee takes possession of the Premises, by obtaining and enforcing a court order to that effect or otherwise;

(b) the Mortgagee forecloses or otherwise acquires the interest of Landlord in the Premises, but does not foreclose the Tenant's Leasehold Interest; or

(c) the Mortgagee sells, conveys or assigns the Premises to another party (hereinafter a "Purchaser") pursuant to a power of sale or court order for sale which does not purport to sell the Premises free of the Tenant's Leasehold Interest,

Tenant will, on written demand of the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, attorn to and become the tenant of that person from and including the date the demand is received, for the balance of the term of this Lease (and with rights of renewal if any as provided in this Lease), at the rents and otherwise on the terms of this Lease, subject as hereinafter provided in Article 17.06, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that Tenant complies with, all the terms and conditions of the Lease.

17.06 Intentionally deleted.

17.07 Effect of Subordination or Attornment No subordination effected under Article 17.04 and no attornment effected under Article 17.05 will render the Mortgagee or Purchaser, as the case may be:

(a) liable for any act or omission of Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(b) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(c) bound by any prepayment by Tenant of more than one month's instalment of Rent, or by any previous modification of this Lease, unless such prepayment or modification has been approved in writing by the Mortgagee or Purchaser or any predecessor in interest except Landlord.

Upon attornment occurring under Article 17.05, the relationship of landlord and tenant thereby created between the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, as Landlord, and Tenant as tenant, will supercede this Lease, but if the Mortgage is subsequently redeemed or put in good standing or the Mortgagee goes out of possession, the Mortgagee will be relieved of its obligations to Tenant as if a sale, conveyance or assignment had occurred to which Article 17.02 applied.

Any attornment by Tenant to a Mortgagee or Purchaser will be without prejudice to the right (when applicable) of any other mortgagee or purchaser that has priority to the Mortgagee or Purchaser to demand that Tenant attorn to the other mortgagee or purchaser pursuant to the rights if any, of the other mortgagee or purchaser in that regard under Article 17.00. In case of such demand being lawfully made, and Tenant attorning to such other mortgagee or purchaser the attornment previously made to the Mortgagee or Purchaser will cease to be effective.

17.08 Tenant's Obligations May Be Assigned Tenant acknowledges that its covenants and obligations under Article 17.00 are intended in whole or in part to operate for the benefit of any and all Mortgagees and Purchasers and that in obtaining such covenants and obligations Landlord is acting not only for itself, but also as trustee or agent for all such persons. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord may assign the benefit of such covenants and obligations to any and all Mortgagees or Purchasers who request same, as security or otherwise, and Tenant agrees that any such Mortgagee or Purchaser will be entitled on receiving such assignment and giving due notice thereof to Tenant, to enforce such covenant or obligation against Tenant to the same extent as if it were a party to this Lease directly entitled to the benefit of such covenants and obligations.

17.09 Execution of Instruments Except as otherwise provided in Article 17.00, the subordination and attornment provisions herein will be self-operating and no further instrument will be required. Nevertheless Tenant, on request by and without cost to Landlord, any Mortgagee, Purchaser or successor in interest, will execute and deliver any and all instruments further evidencing such subordination and/or attornment when applicable.

17.12 Notice of Lease Tenant may register at its sole cost and expense (including, without limitation, payment of all registration fees, land transfer and similar taxes or charges, costs of plan preparation and registration and all legal fees and disbursements related to such registration) a notice, caveat or short form of this Lease (the "Registration Document") to give notice of Tenant's interest created by this Lease, provided and subject to the following:

(a) the Registration Document will be prepared by Tenant at its sole cost in a form acceptable to Landlord, and same will be approved in writing by Landlord prior to its registration;

(b) the Registration Document will only disclose the names of the parties to this Lease, the Premises, and the Commencement Date and the expiry date of the Term, and any right of renewal. The Registration Document will not disclose any information concerning the rent or rental rates to be paid, nor any other financial provisions of this Lease;

(c) the Registration Document will only indicate and be registered against title to that portion or those parcels of the Site or Shopping Centre as Landlord may designate in its sole discretion. Further, in the event any portion of the Land ceases to form part of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will, forthwith upon request from Landlord, cause its registration to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from the title to such portion all at its own expense;

(d) in the event that, in order to effect registration, the Registration Document must be executed by any party other than Landlord and Tenant, Landlord will request such consent or execution of that party, but the sole cost of obtaining same will be borne by Tenant and Landlord will not be liable to Tenant in the event that such consent or execution is not obtained;

(e) Tenant will provide Landlord with a copy of the Registration Document and registration particulars thereof, once registration has been effected; and

(f) Upon the expiry or early termination of this Lease, Tenant will, at its sole expense, cause the Registration Document to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from title to the Site and Shopping Centre and to provide proof of such action to Landlord, within 15 days of such expiry or early termination, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a surrender of this Lease or a discharge of caveat, caution or other document or instrument will be paid by Tenant.

17.14 Easements and Rights-of-Way Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord has granted or otherwise created and may in the future grant or otherwise create licence(s), easement(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s) over, through, upon or otherwise affecting portions of the Common Areas and Facilities. Tenant hereby consents to the granting or other creation of such licence(s), easement(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s).

17.15 Severance of Land In addition to and upon the same basis, mutatis mutandis, as set out in Article 6.04, Landlord will have the right from time to time to subdivide and to transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any portion or portions of the Land. Any such subdivision may be accomplished by any means Landlord may consider desirable and the description of the Land will be changed accordingly.

ARTICLE 18.00 NOTICES, ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, AUTHORITIES FOR ACTION

18.01 Notices Any notice from one party to the other under this Lease will be in writing and will be deemed duly given, if delivered personally, by an authorized representative of Tenant or Landlord or by courier, or bailiff to the party being given such notice or to a responsible employee of the party being given such notice, or if mailed in Canada by registered or certified mail addressed to Tenant at the address described in Article 1.01, or to Landlord at the address described in Article 1.01 of this Lease. Any notice will be deemed to have been given at the time of personal delivery, or if mailed, on the third (3rd) postal delivery date after the date of mailing thereof or the date of refusal thereof. Either party will have the right to designate by notice, in the manner above set forth, a different address to which notices are to be given. If it is reasonably anticipated that, due to mail service being disrupted, such notice, if mailed, will not be received by the third (3rd) postal delivery day following mailing, then such notice must be personally delivered as provided in this Article 18.01 or, in lieu of mailing, sent by the most reasonably expeditious means of delivery available to the address for mailing and will be deemed duly given upon such delivery. Notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary, notices shall not be sufficiently given if delivered or transmitted by facsimile or other electronic means.

18.02 Acknowledgments Within ten (10) days after written request therefor by Landlord, Tenant shall deliver an Estoppel Certificate addressed to any Person (other than the Landlord) designated by Landlord, in the form annexed as Exhibit F or such other substantially similar form which Landlord may submit to Tenant.

18.03 Authorities for Action Landlord may act in any matter provided for herein by its property manager, Management Company or any other person who will from time to time be designated by Landlord by notice to Tenant. Tenant will designate in writing one or more persons to act on its behalf in any matter provided for herein and may from time to time change, by notice to Landlord, such designation. In the absence of any such designation, the person or persons executing this Lease for Tenant will be deemed to be authorized to act on behalf of Tenant in any matter provided for in this Lease.

ARTICLE 19.00 DEFAULT

19.01 Interest and Costs Tenant will pay to Landlord the Interest Rate upon all Rent required to be paid under this Lease from the due date for payment thereof until the same is fully paid and satisfied. Tenant will indemnify Landlord against all costs and charges (including legal fees) reasonably incurred in enforcing payment thereof, and in obtaining possession of the Premises after default of Tenant or upon expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, or in enforcing any covenant, proviso or agreement of Tenant contained in this Lease.

19.02 Right of Landlord to Perform Covenants All covenants and agreements to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be performed by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and without abatement of Rent. If Tenant fails to perform any act on its part to be performed under this Lease, and such failure continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord, Landlord may (but will not be obligated so to do) perform such act without waiving or releasing Tenant from any of its obligations relative thereto. All sums paid or costs incurred by Landlord in so performing such acts under this Article 19.02, together with interest thereon at the rate set out in Article 19.01 from the date each such payment was made or each such cost was incurred by Landlord, plus 20% of such costs for Landlord's administration and overhead, will be payable by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

19.03 Events of Default If and whenever:

(a) part or all of the Rent hereby reserved is not paid when due, whether lawfully demanded or not, and such default continues after five (5) Business Days' =notice by Landlord; or

(b) Tenant fails to observe, perform and keep each and every of the covenants, agreements, provisions, stipulations and conditions herein contained to be observed, performed and kept by Tenant (other than payment of Rent) and persists in such failure after thirty (30) days notice by Landlord specifying with reasonable particularity the nature of such failure and requiring that Tenant remedy, correct, desist or comply (or if any such breach would reasonably require more than thirty (30) days to rectify, unless Tenant commences rectification within the thirty (30) day notice period and thereafter promptly, effectively and continuously proceeds with the rectification of the breach to completion of rectification); or

(c) any goods, chattels or equipment of Tenant is taken or exigible in execution or in attachment or if a writ of execution is issued against Tenant; or

(d) Tenant becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy or becomes bankrupt or takes the benefit of any statute that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or becomes involved in voluntary or involuntary winding-up or dissolution or liquidation proceedings or if a receiver will be appointed for the business, property, affairs or revenues of Tenant; Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall provide Landlord with: (i) 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (i) hereof, to the extent Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action, (iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (iv) 5 business day prior written notice of the Tenant signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s); or

(e) any person other than Tenant or a Transferee permitted under this Lease has or exercises the right to manage or control the Premises, any part thereof or any business carried on in the Premises, other than subject to the actual, direct and full supervision and control of Tenant; or

(f) Tenant makes a bulk sale of its goods or moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its goods, chattels or equipment out of the Premises (other than in the normal course of its business) or Tenant ceases to conduct business from the Premises or the Premises are not open for business to the public on any three (3) consecutive days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises or on more than five (5) days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises in any twelve (12) month period; or

(g) a Transfer is effected or any Tenant Security is granted in any manner other than as permitted by this Lease; or

(h) a default (which is not remedied within the cure period provided for in such new lease) occurs of the tenant of the terms of any new lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), that is entered into or dated on or after the Commencement Date but before March 31, 2024, in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties, so long as the tenant has the obligation under such new leases to pay the "increased rent" therein (being the increased rental payments under such new lease in excess of that which would have been payable under the current existing lease at such property as of the Commencement Date hereof):

(i) Galeries D'Anjou;

(ii) Mapleview;

(iii) Southgate;

(iv) Guilford; or

then and in any of such cases, at the option of Landlord, the full amount of the current month's and the next ensuing three (3) months instalments of Rent will immediately become due and payable together with all tenant allowance monies paid to Tenant or the value of other inducements given to Tenant (such as, but not limited to, rent-free periods) in accordance with the provisions of this Lease or any other agreement between Landlord and Tenant relating to the Premises (such allowances and inducements hereinafter referred to as "Tenant Inducements") and Landlord may immediately take legal proceedings for the same, together with any arrears then unpaid; and Landlord may without notice or any form of legal process forthwith re-enter upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and expel all Persons from the Premises and remove and sell or dispose of Tenant's goods, chattels and trade fixtures therefrom as Landlord sees fit, or store property such at the cost of Tenant, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding all without liability and loss or damage and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover arrears of Rent or damages for any antecedent default by Tenant of its obligations or agreements under this Lease or of any term or condition of this Lease, and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover from Tenant damages for loss of Rent suffered by reason of this Lease having been prematurely terminated. Any such sale may be effected in the discretion of Landlord by public auction or otherwise, and either in bulk or by individual item, or partly by one means and partly by another, all as Landlord in its entire discretion may decide. If any of Tenant's property is disposed of as provided in this Article 19.03, ten (10) days prior notice to Tenant of disposition will be deemed to be commercially reasonable.

19.04 Waiver of Exemption and Redemption Notwithstanding anything contained in any statute now or hereafter in force limiting or abrogating the right of distress, none of Tenant's goods, chattels or trade fixtures on the Premises at any time during the continuance of the Term will be exempt from levy by distress for Rent in arrears and upon any claim being made for such exemption by Tenant or on distress being made by Landlord this agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel against Tenant in any action brought to test the right to the levying upon any such goods as are named as exempted in any such statute, Tenant hereby waiving all and every benefit that could or might have accrued to Tenant under and by virtue of any such statute but for this Lease. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being evicted or dispossessed for any cause, or in the event of Landlord obtaining possession of the Premises, by reason of the violation by Tenant of any terms and conditions of this Lease or otherwise.

19.05 Surrender If and whenever Landlord is entitled to or does re-enter, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving notice thereof, and in such event Tenant will forthwith vacate and surrender the Premises.

19.06 Payments If Landlord re-enters or if this Lease is terminated, Tenant will pay to Landlord on demand:

(a) Rent up to the time of re-entry or termination, whichever will be the later, plus three (3) months' accelerated rent as herein provided; and

(b) all expenses incurred by Landlord in performing any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, re-entering or terminating and re-letting, collecting sums due or payable by Tenant, realizing upon assets seized (including brokerage, legal fees and disbursements), and the expense of keeping the Premises in good order, repairing the same and preparing them for re-letting; and

(c) as damages(subject to the Landlord's obligation to mitigate at law) for the loss of income of Landlord expected to be derived from the Premises, the amounts (if any) by which the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease exceeds the payments (if any) received by Landlord from other tenants in the Premises, payable on the first (1st) day of each month during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term had it not been terminated, or if elected by Landlord by notice to Tenant at or after re-entry or termination, a lump sum amount equal to the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease from the date of such election during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term, had it not been terminated, reduced by the rental value of the Premises for the same period, established by reference to the terms and conditions upon which Landlord re-lets them if such re-letting is accomplished within a reasonable period after termination, and otherwise established by reference to all market and other relevant circumstances; Rent and rental value being reduced to present worth at an assumed interest rate of ten percent (10%) on the basis of Landlord's estimates and assumptions of fact which will govern unless shown to be erroneous; and

(d) all Tenant Inducements given by Landlord to Tenant in respect of the Premises.

19.07 Remedies Cumulative No reference to nor exercise of any specific right or remedy by Landlord will prejudice or preclude Landlord from exercising or invoking any other remedy in respect thereof, whether allowed at law or expressly provided for in this Lease. No such remedy will be exclusive or dependent upon any other such remedy, but Landlord may from time to time exercise any one or more of such remedies independently or in combination.

19.08 Waiver In the event Tenant is in default in performing any of its obligations (including without limitation, the payment of any Rent), and Landlord shall have instituted proceedings to cancel, terminate or to confirm its cancellation or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall not have any right to prevent such cancellation or termination by remedying its default or defaults subsequent to the institution of such legal proceedings.

19.10 Additional Recourses If Tenant is in default to fulfill any of its obligations under this Lease and in particular its obligations pursuant to Articles 5.03, 5.10 and 18.02 of this Lease, then in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights or recourses of Landlord hereunder, Landlord may, at its option, obtain injunctive relief to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do, Tenant hereby expressly acknowledging and agreeing that this Article 19.10 constitutes a waiver against any defense to Landlord's application for injunctive relief made to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do.

19.11 Non-Waiver No condoning, excusing or over-looking by either party of any default by the other at any time in respect of any of its obligations shall operate as a waiver of Landlord's or Tenant's rights hereunder in respect of any such default or any subsequent default or so as to defeat or affect in any way the rights of Landlord or Tenant in respect of any such default or subsequent default. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by anything done or omitted to be done by Landlord or Tenant save only where such waiver is expressed in writing.

Without limiting the general application hereof, the acceptance of any sums of money, statements of account or reports that Tenant or Landlord must pay or provide pursuant to this Lease, shall not constitute a renunciation of the rights of Landlord or Tenant in virtue of theses presents.

19.12 Shopping Centre Assets Only the Shopping Centre assets and any property exclusively related thereto shall serve to satisfy the obligations of Landlord under this Lease or in virtue of any responsibility of Landlord resulting from its fault. Tenant recognizes and declares, without reserve, that any recourse by Tenant against Landlord based on, or in virtue of, this Lease or resulting from any fault of Landlord, shall be restricted and can only be executed against the Shopping Centre, to the exclusion of all other property belonging to Landlord.

19.13 Real Estate Investment Trust In the event that a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") should be at any time bound by the covenants of Landlord hereunder or incur any liability as Landlord hereunder, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease or at law, such covenants and liability hereunder and under all other agreements entered into pursuant hereto, if any, shall not be personally binding upon and resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse of satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the trustees of the REIT, unitholders of the REIT, annuitants under a plan of which the REIT or any unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the REIT or directors or officers of any of its nominees, although this provision shall not constitute a bar to any action against the REIT for specific performance of this Lease or performance of any obligation of the REIT arising from or in connection with its obligations, if any, under this Lease or other agreements entered into pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 20.00 Intentionally deleted.

ARTICLE 21.00 MISCELLANEOUS

21.01 Relationship of Parties Nothing contained in this Lease will create any relationship between parties to this Lease other than that of landlord and tenant, and it is acknowledged and agreed that Landlord does not in any way or for any purpose become a partner of Tenant in the conduct of its business, or a joint venturer or a member of a joint or common enterprise with Tenant.

21.02 Consent Not Unreasonably Withheld Except as otherwise specifically provided, whenever consent or approval of Landlord or Tenant is required under the terms of this Lease, such consent or approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant's sole remedy if Landlord unreasonably withholds or delays consent or approval will be an action for specific performance, and Landlord will not be liable for damages. If either party withholds any consent or approval, such party will on written request deliver to the other party a written statement giving the reasons therefor.

21.03 Applicable Law and Interpretation This Lease will be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located, and its provisions will be interpreted as a whole according to their common meaning and not strictly for or against Landlord or Tenant. The words "Landlord" and "Tenant" will include the plural as well as the singular. If this Lease is executed by more than one party as Tenant, Tenant's obligations under this Lease will be joint and several obligations of such executing parties. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions. The captions of the Articles are included for convenience only, and will have no effect upon the interpretation of this Lease.

Certain text in this Lease has been bolded and underlined and certain text has been deleted by way of a line through applicable text. Such bolding and underlining and lines through the applicable text have been used to identify changes to Landlord's standard form of lease for the Shopping Centre. All bolded and underlined text will be read as if not bolded and underlined and all text deleted by way of a line will be deemed not to exist.

21.04 Entire Agreement This Lease contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Lease and except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Lease, this Lease supersedes and revokes all previous negotiations, arrangements, letters of intent, offers to lease, lease proposals, brochures, agreements, representations, promises, warranties, understandings, and information conveyed, whether oral or in writing, between the parties hereto or their respective representatives or any other person purporting to represent Landlord or Tenant. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it has not relied upon any statement, representation, agreement or warranty except such as are expressly set out in this Lease.

21.05 Amendment or Modification Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, no amendment, modification, or supplement to this Lease will be valid or binding unless set out in writing and executed by the parties hereto in the same manner as the execution of this Lease.

21.06 Construed Covenants and Severability All of the provisions of this Lease are to be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words importing such covenants and agreements were used in each separate Article hereof. If any term, proviso, covenant or condition of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is to any extent held or rendered invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal it or its application will be considered separate and severable from this Lease to such extent and the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term, proviso, covenant or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is held invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal will not be affected thereby and will continue to be applicable and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

21.07 No Implied Surrender or Waiver No provisions of this Lease will be deemed to have been waived by Landlord unless such waiver is in writing signed by Landlord. Landlord's waiver of a breach of any term or condition of this Lease will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a breach, from having all the force and effect of any original breach. Landlord's receipt of Rent with knowledge of a breach by Tenant of any term or condition of this Lease will not be deemed a waiver of such breach. Landlord's failure to enforce against Tenant or any other tenant in the Shopping Centre any of the Rules and Regulations made under Article 14.00 will not be deemed a waiver of such Rules and Regulations. No act or thing done by Landlord, its agents or employees during the Term will be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept a surrender of the Premises will be valid, unless in writing signed by Landlord. The delivery of keys to any of Landlord's agents or employees will not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises. No payment by Tenant, or receipt by Landlord, of a lesser amount than the Rent due under this Lease will be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated Rent, nor will any endorsement or statement on any cheque or any letter accompanying any cheque, or payment as Rent, be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such cheque or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Rent or pursue any other remedy available to Landlord.

21.08 Additional Costs Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Rent, upon written request therefore, any and all costs, including without limitation, costs of additional security, cleaning and legal costs, incurred by Landlord as a result of picketing, demonstration or other activity within the Shopping Centre which is initiated by members of any organization, including, without limitation, a trade union, and which is directed at Tenant, its contractors, subcontractors, suppliers or employees or at Tenant's operations in the Shopping Centre.

21.09 Successors Bound Except as otherwise specifically provided, the covenants terms and conditions contained in this Lease will apply to and bind the heirs, successors, executors, administrators and permitted assigns of the parties hereto.

21.10 Brokerage Commission Any brokerage commissions with respect to the present transaction shall be borne exclusively by Tenant and Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any and all claims for payment of commission with respect thereto, unless Landlord has given a specific written mandate to any broker or agent for the present transaction.

21.11 Confidentiality Tenant agrees to keep the terms and conditions of this Lease confidential. Any information pertaining to this Lease cannot be communicated or revealed to a third party without the written consent of Landlord whose refusal will be deemed reasonable if the information that would be communicated or revealed is of a financial nature. Tenant's failure to respect this Article 21.11 is acknowledged by Tenant to constitute a major prejudice to Landlord and also a default according to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

21.12 No Offer by Landlord Landlord will not be deemed to have made an offer to Tenant by preparing this Lease. No agreement respecting the Premises will arise or exist between the parties hereto except through the due execution of this Lease by both Tenant and Landlord. Upon execution and delivery by Tenant to Landlord, this Lease will be irrevocable by Tenant and open for acceptance by Landlord until 5:00 P.M. on the 60th day thereafter, and if not accepted by Landlord by then, may be withdrawn by Tenant by notice to Landlord at any time prior to its later acceptance by Landlord.

21.13 Time of Essence Time shall be of the essence of this Lease in respect to all of the agreements and obligations of Tenant and/or Landlord contained herein.

21.14 Force Majeure If any party hereto is bona fide delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any term, obligation or act required hereunder by reason of Force Majeure, then performance of such term, obligation or act is excused for the period during which the cause of the Force Majeure persists. Once the cause of this Force Majeure has ceased, the party so delayed shall perform such terms, obligations or acts within the time period stipulated in the Lease, without regard for such period of time during which the cause of the Force Majeure persisted.

21.15 Non-Smoking Shopping Centre The Shopping Centre is a non-smoking facility. Tenant, its employees, invitees, customers, and anyone for whom Tenant is responsible at law are strictly prohibited from smoking in any interior or exterior areas of the Shopping Centre, except those exterior areas designated by Landlord as designated smoking areas (if any). Tenant agrees that it will comply with the foregoing restriction as well as any applicable legislation regulating smoking in shopping centres.

21.16 Counterpart Execution This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement, effective when all counterparts have been signed. The parties hereto agree that this Lease may be signed either by paper signature or by electronic signature and may be delivered electronically (in .pdf format) or otherwise, and the parties accept any such electronic signatures as original signatures of the parties.

ARTICLE 22.00 TENANT ALLOWANCE

In consideration for Tenant entering this Lease, provided Tenant has executed and returned this Lease in a form acceptable to Landlord, Landlord shall pay to Tenant a payment (the "Tenant Allowance") in an amount equal to CDN$[●] plus applicable GST upon mutual execution of this Lease and issuance by Tenant of an invoice to Landlord containing all prescribed information required by Landlord to validly support its claims for input tax credits.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have executed this indenture by their authorized officers in that behalf, or by Tenant's signature hereto if Tenant is not incorporated, as of the first date above written.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Security Landlord may from time to time adopt appropriate systems and procedures for the security or safety of the Shopping Centre, any persons occupying, using or entering the same, or any equipment, finishings or contents thereof, and Tenant will comply with Landlord's reasonable requirements relative thereto.

2. Return of Keys At the end of the Term, Tenant will promptly return to Landlord all keys for the Shopping Centre and Premises which are in possession of Tenant.

3. Repair, Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements Tenant will carry out Tenant's repair, maintenance, alterations and improvements in the Premises only during times agreed to in advance by Landlord and in a manner which will not interfere with the rights of other tenants in the Shopping Centre.

4. Water Fixtures Tenant will not use water fixtures for any purpose for which they are not intended, nor will water be wasted by tampering with such fixtures. Any cost or damage resulting from such misuse by Tenant will be paid for by Tenant.

5. Personal Use of Premises The Premises will not be used or permitted to be used for residential, lodging or sleeping purposes or for the storage of personal effects or property not required for business purposes.

6. Heavy Articles and Overloading Services Tenant will not place in or move about the Premises, without Landlord's prior written consent, any safe or other heavy article which in Landlord's reasonable opinion may damage the Shopping Centre, and Landlord may designate the location of any heavy articles in the Premises. Tenant will not overload any utility or service in or serving the Premises or any part of the Shopping Centre.

7. Animals, Bicycles, Shopping Carts Tenant will not bring any animals or birds into the Shopping Centre, and will not permit bicycles or other vehicles inside or on the sidewalks outside the Shopping Centre except in areas designated from time to time by Landlord for such purposes. Tenant shall not permit shopping carts in the Common Areas and Facilities and shall be fully responsible for their removal and indemnify Landlord from any claim, loss, expense, damages or injuries caused by the shopping carts.

8. Deliveries Tenant will ensure that deliveries or shipments of supplies, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, wares and merchandise to or from the Premises are made only through such delivery facilities, entrances, elevators and corridors and at such times as may from time to time be designated by Landlord, and will promptly pay or cause to be paid to Landlord the cost of repairing any damage in the Shopping Centre caused by any person making such deliveries or shipments.

9. Solicitations Landlord reserves the right to restrict or prohibit canvassing, soliciting or peddling in the Shopping Centre.

10. Food, Beverages and Entertainment Only persons approved from time to time by Landlord may prepare, solicit orders for, sell, serve or distribute foods or beverages in the Shopping Centre, or use the elevators, corridors or Common Areas and Facilities for any such purposes. Except with Landlord's prior written consent and in accordance with arrangements approved in writing by Landlord, Tenant will not permit on the Premises the use of equipment for dispensing food or beverages or for the preparation, solicitation of orders for, sale, serving or distribution of food or beverages or for the selling or providing of any form of entertainment, including vending machines or other machines operated by coins or other devices.

11. Refuse Tenant will separate and place all refuse in proper receptacles provided by Tenant at its expense in the Premises or in receptacles in recycling stations (if any) provided for the Shopping Centre, and will keep sidewalks and driveways outside the Shopping Centre, and lobbies, corridors, stairwells, ducts and shafts of the Shopping Centre, free of all refuse.

12. Obstructions Tenant will not obstruct or place anything in or on the sidewalks or driveways outside the Shopping Centre or in the lobbies, corridors, stairwells or other Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre, or use such locations for any purpose except access to and exit from the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent. Landlord may remove at Tenant's expense any such obstruction or thing (unauthorized by Landlord) without notice or obligation to Tenant.

13. Dangerous, Immoral or Hazardous Activities Tenant will not make any use of the Premises which involves the danger of injury to any person, nor will same be used for any immoral purpose or to commit any act of waste or damage to any part of the Premises or to use any part of the Premises so as to constitute a hazard.

14. Proper Conduct Tenant will not conduct itself in any manner which is inconsistent with the character of the Shopping Centre as being of first quality or which will impair the comfort and convenience of other tenants in the Shopping Centre. Such prohibited conduct will include the playing of loud music and the placing of merchandise racks in the Common Areas and Facilities.

15. Parking Landlord, from time to time, may prohibit Tenant, Tenant's employees and Tenant's suppliers and others making deliveries to or receiving shipments from the Premises from parking anywhere within the Shopping Centre. If Landlord designates Tenant parking areas in the Shopping Centre, Tenant will park its vehicles and will cause its employees to park their vehicles only in such designated parking areas. Tenant will furnish Landlord, upon request, with the current licence numbers of all vehicles owned or used by Tenant or its employees and Tenant thereafter will notify Landlord of any changes in such numbers within five (5) days after the occurrence thereof. In the event of failure of Tenant or its employees to park their vehicles in such designated parking areas, Tenant will forthwith on demand pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the sum of $20.00 per day per each car so parked. Landlord reserves the right to impose reasonable charges upon any person (including the general public) for the use of any parking facilities which may from time to time form a part of the Shopping Centre.

16. Sustainability Tenant shall implement energy-efficient practices within the Premises, including closing all window shades, turning off any unnecessary lights and equipment after the close of business day.

    Tenant will keep any exterior doors and windows to the Premises closed during the periods where there is a variation of three (3) degrees Celsius or more between indoor and outdoor temperatures.

    Tenant will turn off interior mall signage and display window lighting half-an-hour after closing until half-an-hour before opening time the next day (the "After-Hours Period"), or as Landlord deems appropriate.

    Tenant will limit After-Hours Period interior lighting to emergency lighting, when the Premises are not occupied.

    Where Tenant has the ability to control its HVAC for the Premises, Tenant will adjust the HVAC temperature settings so as to limit the Premises' energy consumption during the After-Hours Period by setting back the temperature of the Premises by six (6) degrees Celsius from the daytime temperature setting.

    Tenant will not use space heaters in or for the Premises, unless Tenant first obtains Landlord's written consent.

    If Landlord leak tests for Tenant's plumbing fixtures reveal water leaks or other defects, Landlord will notify Tenant of such defects and Tenant will take all necessary actions to diligently remedy said effects.

    In addition to the requirements set out under Article 20.05 of the Lease, Tenant will comply with Landlord's waste minimization and diversion rules and regulations, as established from time to time.

    Tenant will make available an appropriate staff representative to attend Landlord's information and training sessions relating to Landlord's initiatives for improving the Shopping Centre's operational sustainability.

FROM: IVANHOE CAMBRIDGE INC. ("Ivanhoe")

RE: Exercise of the Option pursuant to the Option Agreement dated November 14, 2023, made between HBC, as grantor, and Ivanhoe, as optionee (the "Option Agreement")

DATE: January 31, 2024

In accordance with Sections 2 and 7 of the Option Agreement, Ivanhoe hereby exercises the Saks Option. In this regard, please note the following:

(a) Pursuant to Paragraph 2(a) of the Option Agreement, Ivanhoe elects for the Effective Date of each of the Saks Lease Amendments to be February 2, 2024;

(b) Pursuant to Subparagraph 7(a)(i), Ivanhoe elects for the rent payable pursuant to the designated Saks Leases to be amended as follows:

a. The annual gross rent payable under the Saks Lease at Vaughan Mills shall be increased by $35,000.00;

b. The annual gross rent payable under the Saks Lease at The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg shall be increased by $35,000.00;

c. The annual gross rent payable under the Saks Lease at CrossIron Mills shall be increased by $976,666,66;

d. The annual gross rent payable under the Saks Lease at The outlet Collection at Niagara shall be increased by $976,666,66; and

e. The annual gross rent payable under the Saks Lease at Place Ste-Foy shall be increased by $976,666,66.

(c) Pursuant to Paragraph 2(a)(C) of the Option Agreement, a new lease agreement relating to each of the Saks stores located at Place Ste-Foy, CrossIron Mills, The Outlet Collection at Niagara, Vaughan Mills and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg, conforming to Section 7(a) and to paragraph (b) above (each a "New Saks Lease" and collectively, the "New Saks Leases"), duly executed by the landlord of each of these locations, has been delivered to HBC prior to the date hereof, which HBC acknowledges having received and confirms being satisfied with the form and substance therewith.

(d) Notwithstanding the terms of Paragraph 2(a)(D) of the Option Agreement, Ivanhoe and HBC agree that (i) upon confirmation by Optionee's Counsels of their receipt of the New Saks Leases, duly executed by HBC, and (ii) upon receipt by HBC from Ivanhoe of the Saks Option Payment, the Saks Option shall have been duly exercised and the New Saks Leases shall be in full force and effect as of the Effective Date in accordance with paragraph (a) above.

Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Option Agreement.

This Notice of Exercise may be signed in any number of counterparts and may be signed and validly delivered by electronic means. Each such counterpart is deemed to be an original and, taken together, constitutes a single agreement. The delivery by electronic means in PDF format (including any electronic signature complying with the Act to establish a legal framework for information technology (Québec), e.g., www.docusign.com) of this Notice of Exercise or any document delivered pursuant thereto with all signed signature pages (in counterparts or otherwise) is sufficient to bind the parties to the terms and conditions they set forth.

Kindly confirm your acceptance of the above by signing and returning an executed copy of the Notice of Exercise at your earliest convenience to Ivanhoe and to Optionee's Counsels, but in any event for receipt no later than 5:00 pm on February 1, 2024.

1.15 HVAC Costs/Charge for the Tenant: For the 2024 Fiscal Year, an initial amount estimated to be $2.62 per square foot of the Tenant Shop per annum. Said amount shall be payable and may be increased by the Landlord pursuant to Articles 4.19 and 7.02.

1.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.17 Intentionally deleted.

1.18 Definitions: In this Lease:

1.18.1 "Additional Rent" means all amounts (other than Minimum Rent) that Tenant is required to pay to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

1.18.2 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.3 "Area" means the area expressed in square feet of all floors of the Premises measured from the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows or those separating the Premises from any Common Areas and Facilities, and the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises. The Area includes all interior space whether or not occupied by projections, structures or columns, openings, shafts, structural or non-structural. If a store front, show window or other part of the Premises is recessed from or protrudes beyond the lease line shown on Exhibit A (whether such recess or protrusion is located at or above ground level), the area of such recess or protrusion will be included in the Area. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Area of the Premises as of the date hereof is the Area set out in Article 1.04 hereof.

1.18.4 "Architect" means the architect, engineer, land surveyor, designer or technician that Landlord names, as the case may be.

1.18.5 "Article" means an article of this Lease.

1.18.6 "Authority" or "Authorities" means the federal, provincial, and municipal governments, the courts, administrative and quasi-judicial boards and tribunals and any other organizations or entities with the lawful authority to regulate, or having a power or right conferred at law or by or under a statute over Landlord, Tenant, the Premises or the Shopping Centre, including the business carried on therein.

1.18.44 "Proportionate Share" means, a fraction, the numerator of which is the Area, and the denominator of which is the Gross Leasable Area. For certainty, the Tenant's Proportionate Share for the purposes of this Lease shall be determined in a manner consistent with the Tenant's Proportionate Share figure used by the parties under the Original Lease as at the Termination Date.

1.18.45 "Released Persons" means collectively and individually, Landlord, Owners, Mortgagee and any Management Company and partners of the Owners or Landlord. In articles that contain a release or other exculpatory provision or an indemnity in favour of any Released Persons, "Released Persons" includes the officers, directors, employees and agents of the Released Persons, and Landlord acting as agent for, or as trustee for, the benefit of the Released Persons so that each such release, indemnity and/or other exculpatory provision is fully enforceable by the Released Persons.

1.18.46 "Rent" means the Minimum Rent and the Additional Rent.

1.18.47 "Shopping Centre" means the Site and all buildings and Common Areas and Facilities on the Site as each of the foregoing exists from time to time, as may be varied from time to time by adding or subtracting or altering or reconfiguring or by such other means as Landlord considers necessary or advisable.

1.18.48 "Site" means the Land indicated on Exhibit B as may be varied from time to time by adding or subtracting land or by such other means as Landlord considers necessary or advisable (and even if parts of the Site may be separated from other parts of same by lanes, streets, highways or any other means of passage in or to which others may have rights).

1.18.49 "Taxes" means the aggregate of all taxes, rates, charges (including local improvement charges), levies, assessments, licence fees, excise and other charges, or any other taxes, rates or charges levied, charged or assessed in lieu thereof, imposed by any competent authority upon or in respect of the Shopping Centre, upon or in respect of all adjoining or neighbouring lands from time to time owned or made available to Landlord and used in connection with the Shopping Centre, or upon or in respect of both, and upon or in respect of all developments and improvements on the Shopping Centre and on such adjoining or neighbouring lands (including, without limitation, parking lot/transit support taxes, rates charges, levies and assessments), such taxes, rates, charges, levies and assessments being established by such competent authority based upon the Shopping Centre, in its various stages of development, assessed as a completed, fully occupied Shopping Centre. Subject to the foregoing, in determining Taxes, any corporate income, profits, excess profits, and business tax imposed upon the income of Landlord, and any other impost of a personal nature charged or levied against Landlord will be excluded, except to the extent that it is levied in lieu of Taxes. Landlord's reasonable expenditures for consultation, negotiation and contestation, to the extent that they are incurred in an attempt to minimize or reduce Taxes, shall be included in the definition of Taxes.

1.18.50 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.51 "Tenant" means the Person executing this Lease as Tenant. Where the context permits, Tenant will also include all servants, employees, agents and contractors of Tenant, as well as any Person under Tenant's exclusive control.

1.18.52 "Tenant Shop" means the area of 360 square feet located in the Premises that is currently known as the restaurant "Jimmy the Greek".

1.18.53 "Tenant Security" means any deed creating a charge or having the effect of encumbering, in any manner whatsoever, the rights that Tenant and/or any other Person (other than Landlord) have in any property (excluding this Lease and the Premises), whether movable or immovable, located in or forming part of the Premises, to secure in whole or in part any loan, indebtedness, authorized credit or any other obligation.

1.18.54 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.55 "Term" means the period of time set out in Article 1.05 and shall include all renewals and extensions thereof.

1.18.56 Exhibits

"Exhibit A" means the plan(s) attached hereto as Exhibit A.

"Exhibit B" means the legal description(s) attached hereto as Exhibit B.

"Exhibit C" INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

"Exhibit D" means the Rules and Regulations attached hereto as Exhibit D.

"Exhibit E" INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

"Exhibit F" means the sample Estoppel Certificate attached hereto as Exhibit F.

ARTICLE 2.00 GRANT OF LEASE

2.01 Grant Landlord hereby demises and leases the Premises to Tenant, and Tenant hereby leases and accepts the Premises from Landlord, to have and to hold during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.02 Quiet Enjoyment So long as Tenant performs its obligations under this Lease, Landlord will warrant and defend Tenant in the quiet enjoyment and possession of the Premises during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.03 Covenants of Landlord and Tenant Landlord covenants to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Landlord under this Lease. Tenant covenants to pay the Rent when due under this Lease, and to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Tenant under this Lease.

ARTICLE 3.00 TERM, POSSESSION AND TERMINATION OF ORIGINAL LEASE

3.01 Landlord's Option to Renew. Landlord has, exercisable at its sole and entire and unfettered discretion by giving at least 12 months' prior written notice to the Tenant, the right to renew this Lease for an additional period of five (5) years (the "Renewal Term") on the same terms and conditions as set out herein, save and except for the Minimum Rent, which shall be equal to the minimum/base rent that would have been payable under the Original Lease during this Renewal Term had the Original Lease not been terminated and continued during the period of this Renewal Term.

3.02 Intentionally deleted.

3.03 Acceptance of Premises and Tenant Acknowledgements The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that: (a) it originally occupied the Premises pursuant to the Original Lease, and as of the date hereof, it continues to be in possession of the Premises (which possession by the Tenant was in place prior to the date hereof pursuant to the Original Lease); (b) it has accepted the Premises in an entirely "as is where is" condition basis without any representation, warranty or obligation on the part of the Landlord to perform any work or construct any leasehold or other improvements in the Premises or the Shopping Centre in connection with the Tenant's intended use thereof; (c) the continued possession of all or any portion of the Premises by the Tenant is conclusive evidence as against the Tenant that the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition as of the date hereof, (d) it is solely responsible (at its sole cost and expense and without any reimbursement from or contribution by the Landlord) for all improvements, fixtures, chattels or other personal property currently existing or which in the future may exist or may be required in, on or around the Premises and needed, required or used by the Tenant for the operation of its business from the Premises, and (e) it does not have any right of first refusal, right of first opportunity, option to purchase or any other right to acquire any interest or real property right in all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

3.04 Limitation on Length of Term This Lease is entered into subject to the express condition that it is to be effective to create any interest in land only if the provisions of any statute are complied with relating to the severance of land or interests in land by conveyance or otherwise (as it may from time to time be amended). Landlord and Tenant agree, as a separate and distinct agreement, that if pursuant to any statute consent is requisite to the validity of this Lease, either party may apply for such consent and until unconditional consent has been obtained, the Term of this Lease or any renewal thereof will not extend beyond the period permitted without consent pursuant to any such statute, with no further right on the part of Tenant to extend the term, notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease.

3.05 Termination of Original Lease Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that the Original Lease is surrendered and terminated effective on 11:59pm on the date immediately preceding the Commencement Date (the "Termination Date"). The respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant with respect to the Premises and the Original Lease will be preserved and will survive the Termination Date, as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Termination Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to the Original Lease on or after the Termination Date. Any breach of the Original Lease which has not been cured will, after the Termination Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Original Lease. Tenant represents, warrants and covenants with Landlord that Tenant has the absolute right, full power and authority to agree to the termination of the Original Lease as provided herein.

3.05(A) Reinstatement of Original Lease.

Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that if at November 13, 2028 (the "Original Lease Reinstatement Date") no Event (as such term is hereinafter defined) has occurred or is continuing, and there is not then any default occurring of the Tenant's obligations under this Lease, failing which this provision shall not apply and be null and void (and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect without any obligation to enter into the Reinstated Original Lease), then the parties shall execute and deliver to one another the Reinstated Original Lease (as defined below) which shall provide and confirm that effective upon the Original Lease Reinstatement Date: (1) this Lease shall be resolved, cancelled, surrendered and rescinded; and (2) the termination of the Original Lease shall be deemed to have been revoked and, except as expressly modified pursuant to this provision, the Original Lease shall be reinstated in its entirety effective as of the Original Lease Reinstatement Date and shall again be in full force and effect as if the same had never been terminated. However, the respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant as to the Premises under this Lease will be preserved and will survive the termination of this Lease on the Original Lease Reinstatement Date as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to this Lease on or after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date (given the Reinstated Original Lease will thereafter govern this tenancy). Any breach of this Lease which has not been cured will, after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of this Lease.

"Event" means the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) Tenant (or any of its affiliates) defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under this Lease or any HBC IC Lease (as hereinafter defined); or

(2) Tenant (a) is insolvent, (b) has committed an act of bankruptcy, and/or (c) has become bankrupt.

"HBC IC Lease" means any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties:

(i) Galeries D'Anjou;

(ii) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(iii) Outlet Collection at Niagara on the Lake;

(iv) Southgate;

(v) Guildford;

(vi) Oshawa;

(vii) CrossIron Mills;

(viii) St. Foy;

(ix) Outlet collection Winnipeg; or

(x) Vaughan Mills.

"Reinstated Original Lease" means the Original Lease but reinstated and amended only to provide that the Term of the reinstated Original Lease shall commence on the Original Lease Reinstatement Date and end upon the expiry of the remaining unexpired Term of this Lease as at the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, Tenant, subject to the following sentence shall have the unexpired rights, if any, to renew or extend the said Term as set out in the Original Lease on the terms and conditions set out therein (inclusive of the calculation of minimum rent). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the expiry of the Term (taking into consideration all options to extend in favour of the Tenant) of the Reinstated Original Lease shall not exceed the date on which the Original Lease would have expired (taking into consideration all options to extend in favour of the Tenant thereunder). For greater certainty, and as an illustrative example only to further clarify the parties' intent, if the expiry of the term of the Original Lease was December 31, 2030, taking into consideration all options to extend in favour of the Tenant, and the Reinstated Original Lease was executed by the parties, the Term of the Reinstated Original Lease, taking into consideration all options to renew or extend in favour of the Tenant, shall not exceed December 31, 2030. Landlord shall prepare the form of Reinstated Original Lease and the parties shall forthwith thereafter execute and deliver same to the other, each at its sole expense. In addition, Tenant shall execute such other documents contemplated in Section 3.05 hereof for the discharge of any registered documents relating to this Lease for which Section 3.05 shall equally apply in this context, mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 4.00 RENT

4.01 Minimum Rent Tenant will pay to Landlord a Minimum Rent for the Premises described in Article 1.09 of this Lease, payable in advance in equal and consecutive monthly instalments and without notice on the Commencement Date and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter during the Term.

4.02 Intentionally deleted.

4.03 Intentionally deleted.

4.04 Intentionally deleted.

4.05 Net Lease It is the stated purpose and intent of Landlord and Tenant that, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Lease will be fully net to Landlord. Tenant will pay to Landlord, at the times and in the manner provided in Articles 4.07 and 4.09, its Proportionate Share of Operating Costs and Taxes.

4.06 Calculation and Payment of Operating Costs

(a) Tenant will pay the amounts stipulated in Article 1.11 to Landlord in monthly instalments one-twelfth of such estimate simultaneously with Tenant's payments of Minimum Rent during such Fiscal Year.

(b) If the Term commences after the beginning of or terminates before the end of a Fiscal Year, the amount of Operating Costs payable by Tenant for such Fiscal Year will be adjusted proportionately.

4.07 Intentionally deleted.

4.08 Taxes Payable by Tenant The Tenant shall be responsible for the payment of all Taxes imposed from time to time during the Term in respect of the Premises, including in each case the value of any Common Areas and Facilities which is included by the assessing authorities in the value of the Premises and the business operated therefrom and all the improvements constructed thereon and all the fixtures and equipment constructed and used by Tenant and its assignees, sublicensees and concessionaires. For certainty, Tenant shall pay the Tenant's Taxes contribution to the Landlord as Additional Rent hereunder in an amount equal to the actual Taxes levied specifically against the Premises by the taxing Authority, provided that if the Premises are not taxed on a separate basis, then in an amount determined by the Landlord, acting reasonably and equitably, on the basis of the notes and working papers of the assessment Authority (or its successor) made readily available to the Landlord, and provided further that if such notes and working papers are not readily available to the Landlord or they do not contain sufficient information to determine the Taxes applicable specifically to the Premises, then Tenant shall pay its Proportionate Share of all Taxes payable in respect of the Shopping Centre. The parties acknowledge and agree that as of the Commencement Date, the notes and working papers of the assessment authority are readily available to the Landlord and contain sufficient information to determine the Taxes applicable specifically to the Premises.

Tenant shall reimburse Landlord that part of any increase in Taxes for the Shopping Centre, which is reasonably attributable to any change, addition or improvement or special equipment identified by an assessment Authority made on or in the Premises by Tenant. In such event, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the total amount of said Tax increase attributable to Tenant within 30 days of receipt of an invoice from Landlord, said amount to be deemed Additional Rent.

For greater certainty, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any and all goods and services tax, value added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST or any other similar tax) ("Value Added Taxes"), it being the intention of the parties that Landlord shall collect from Tenant all Value Added Taxes collectable by Landlord on the Rent and any other amounts payable by Tenant under this Lease. The amount of such Value Added Taxes so payable by Tenant shall be calculated by Landlord in accordance with the applicable legislation and shall be paid to Landlord at the same time as the amount to which such Value Added Taxes apply are payable to Landlord under the terms of this Lease. The amount payable by Tenant under this provision shall be deemed not to be additional rent, but Landlord shall have all of the same remedies for and rights of recovery of such amount as it has for recovery of Rent under this Lease.

The Landlord may appeal any official assessment or the amount of any Taxes or business taxes (including other taxes capable of constituting a lien) relating to the Shopping Centre including the improvements (including fixtures and equipment) thereon, and the Tenant may appeal any official assessment or any Taxes or business taxes relating to the Premises including the improvements thereon or, where the Tenant's obligations are directly or indirectly affected thereby, relating to any other portion of the Shopping Centre including the Common Area and Facilities. Neither the Landlord nor the Tenant shall institute any appeal without notice to the other and, where their interests do not conflict and in particular where the appeal is being made in order to achieve a re-assessment which is consistent with the basis contemplated by this Lease, each shall extend its co-operation and assistance to the other in respect to such appeal.

4.09 Changes in Taxes If the system of real estate taxation is altered or varied from that in force on the Commencement Date and any new tax shall be levied or imposed on all or part of the Shopping Centre and/or the revenues therefrom and/or on Landlord in substitution for or in addition to previously existing Taxes by any taxing Authority, whether or not the taxing Authority has previously charged any Taxes, then any such new tax or levy shall be included in Taxes, or if by law, regulation or otherwise all or any part of any Taxes, is made payable by Landlord or if the mode of collecting such tax, assessment, local improvement, licence fee, excise or other charge is so altered so as to make Landlord liable in whole or in part therefor instead of Tenant or if all or any part of Tenant's Taxes under Article 8.01 is imposed, levied, assessed or charged upon or on account of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will pay to Landlord, from time to time, within 30 days after demand, the amount payable by Landlord, from time to time, as a result of such change as determined by Landlord in the same manner as the Proportionate Share of Taxes is payable under the terms of this Lease and Tenant will indemnify and save Landlord harmless from any cost or expense in respect thereof. For greater certainty, to the extent that the new tax or levy is fully recoverable by Tenant as an input tax credit or refund, such Tax shall be fully payable by Tenant notwithstanding the proportionate sharing of other Taxes hereunder.

4.10 Intentionally deleted.

4.11 ~~Promotion Fund~~ ~~Landlord may establish and maintain a common Promotion Fund for the Shopping Centre or continue to maintain any Promotion Fund in existence as of the Commencement Date of this Lease. Landlord will use the Promotion Fund for the promotion or benefit of the Shopping Centre in such a manner and as Landlord may, from time to time, decide and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord may utilize the Promotion Fund for payment of a full-time or part-time marketing director, the employment of other promotional staff and customer service, the purchase of advertising space and time, materials or equipment for decorating and promotional events and activities similar to those undertaken by other shopping centres. Any surplus in the Promotion Fund at the end of a Fiscal Year of the Promotion Fund will be carried forward for like purposes in the next year, without any reduction in the amount payable by Tenant pursuant to this Article 4.11. Landlord may, at its sole discretion, establish a Promotion Fund advisory committee comprised of representatives of the tenants of the Shopping Centre chosen by Landlord to advise Landlord on the application of the Promotion Fund contributions.~~

~~If there is a Promotion Fund for the Shopping Centre, Tenant will pay to Landlord in equal monthly instalments, the amount stipulated in Articles 1.12, towards the Promotion Fund, and may include the development of a mall video network, offering a program of information, entertainment and advertisements, and for the promotion of the Shopping Centre.~~

~~Landlord will have the right at its discretion to change the Fiscal Year of the Promotion Fund as it may deem appropriate, from time to time. In the event of any such change, Tenant's required contributions to the Promotion Fund for any fiscal year thereof, which is either greater or lesser than twelve (12) calendar months, will be adjusted by Landlord in a reasonable manner.~~

4.12 Intentionally deleted.

4.13 Landlord's Promotions Landlord may promote and advertise the Shopping Centre in a manner and to the extent that would a diligent and prudent owner of a similar shopping centre, taking into account the nature, size, age, character and location of the Shopping Centre as well as the general image that Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre from time to time. Tenant agrees that Landlord will never be obliged to spend more than the total amount paid to the Promotion Fund described in Article 1.12 by the tenants of the Shopping Centre in any Fiscal Year in order to fulfill its obligations hereunder. Landlord shall alone administer the Promotion Fund.

Landlord's promotional activities may include, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the production and distribution of written advertising or promotional materials and/or audio and/or audio visual promotions by the various media (radio and television) and/or internet and/or seasonal decorations and/or all other forms of promotion or publicity in relation to the Shopping Centre alone or on a joint basis with one or more other shopping centres or properties of which Landlord is owner or manager. Tenant agrees to give its complete support and cooperation to all of Landlord's promotional activities. Without limitation, Tenant will honour any discount coupons, gift certificates, gift cards, electronic gift cards or other incentives given to customers as part of any promotional activity.

Landlord may designate an agent to promote and/or advertise on its behalf, to enter into any agreements with third parties for promotion and/or advertising purposes, and may use all or any part of the Promotion Fund contributions to pay or remunerate its agent.

4.14 Intentionally deleted.

4.15 Intentionally deleted.

4.16 Tenant's Support t Tenant will support all promotional events, functions and activities sponsored or participated in by either the Promotion Fund, if any. In order to comply with this obligation, however, Tenant will not be required to make any additional financial contributions toward the promotion of the Shopping Centre other than those set out in Article 4.11.

4.17 Payment of Rent – General l During the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay Minimum Rent and Additional Rent to Landlord in the manner provided in this Lease or if not so provided, as reasonably required by Landlord. All amounts payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease will be deemed to be Rent and will be payable and recoverable as Rent in the manner herein provided, and Landlord will have all rights and recourses against Tenant for default in any such payment as in the case of arrears of Rent. Rent will be paid to Landlord, without deduction or set-off, in legal tender of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located. If and to the extent Landlord so requires, Rent will be paid to Landlord, at Tenant's expense, by electronic funds transfer system or similar system whereby Tenant will authorize its bank, trust company, credit union or other financial institution to credit Landlord's bank account each month in an amount equal to the monthly Rent payable pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, otherwise, Rent will be paid to Landlord at the address of Landlord as set forth in the beginning of this Lease, or to such other Person or at such other address as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing.

Where Tenant makes payments of Rent by an electronic funds transfer system, Tenant shall notify Landlord by e-mail of the date of said electronic payment.

4.18 Rent – Adjustment for Partial Months If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the Commencement Date will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the Commencement Date to the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs (both the Commencement Date and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365. If the Term ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the first (1st) day of the last calendar month of the Term will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the first (1st) day of such last calendar month to the last day of the Term (both the first (1st) and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365.

4.19 Charge Adjustment Wherever it is mentioned in this Lease that Landlord may increase any amount or charge, the following rules may apply if required by the Landlord: (a) each permitted increase of any such amount or charge shall come into force as of the date indicated in Landlord's notice and shall remain in effect until the subsequent increase comes into effect; (b) each permitted increase of any such amount or charge may, at Landlord's option, be charged retroactively; (c) each time any such amount or charge increases, the amount or charge shall be deemed to be replaced by the increased amount or increased charge; (d) ~~any such amount or charge that may be payable during any Fiscal Year shall never be less than the amount or charge so payable during the immediately preceding Fiscal Year~~; (e) the fact that no annual increase was imposed for any preceding Fiscal Year or such other period, or the fact that an amount less than the full amount of any permitted increase was charged, shall not prevent Landlord, in any manner whatsoever, from imposing the full amount of any annual increase, or any part thereof, during any subsequent Fiscal Year; and (f) the annual amount that Landlord shall be permitted to charge for Operating Costs shall be increased or decreased by a percentage equal to the lesser of: (i) the actual percentage increase or decrease in Operating Costs during the immediately preceding fiscal year, and (ii) the percentage increase or decrease in the C.P.I. during such immediately preceding fiscal year.

ARTICLE 5.00 USE OF PREMISES

5.01 Use and Business Name The Premises will be used and occupied only for the purposes described in Article 1.07; nothing in this Article 5.01 shall create or be deemed to create an exclusivity in favour of Tenant.

The business of Tenant in the Premises will be carried on under the name and style described in Article 1.08 and under no other name and style unless approved by Landlord in writing.

5.02 Hours of Business During the Term of this Lease, Tenant will conduct its business in the Premises on such days and during such hours as is required, from time to time, by Landlord unless prevented from so doing by any Authority, however, nothing herein shall require the Premises or portions thereof to be open during hours other than those which have been generally established by the Tenant for the operation of its similar stores in the greater Toronto area. Tenant shall abide by all rules and regulations now or subsequently in force to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms of this Lease and are applied to Tenant in a non-discriminatory manner.

In the event Tenant fails to conduct its business in accordance with this Article 5.02 then Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.02.

5.03 Continuous Operations Tenant acknowledges that it forms part of an over-all merchandising mix designed to enhance the character, quality, image and reputation of the Shopping Centre, and that its continuous operation of the Premises is essential to Landlord to maintain that character, quality, image, nature and reputation and to facilitate the leasing of vacant space and renewing leases of existing tenants. Tenant therefore, provided the Landlord is operating the Shopping Centre in accordance with this Lease in all material respects, covenants and agrees that throughout the Term it will continuously occupy and operate in the entire Premises, comply strictly with the provisions of Article 5.02 and not vacate or abandon the Premises at any time during the Term. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is executing this Lease in reliance thereupon and that the same is a material element inducing Landlord to execute this Lease. Tenant further agrees that if it vacates or abandons the Premises or it fails to so conduct its business therein, or uses or permits or suffers the use of the Premises for any purpose not specifically herein authorized and allowed, Tenant will be in breach of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and shall have caused Landlord a grave and serious prejudice, and then, without constituting a waiver of Tenant's obligations or limiting Landlord's remedies under this Lease and at law, all Rent reserved in this Lease will immediately become due and payable to Landlord unless guaranteed to the satisfaction of Landlord. Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.03.

5.04 Restrictions on Use & Occupancy

(a) Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not advertise, do, omit, permit or suffer to be done or exist upon the Premises anything which will be or result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

(b) Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any mail order or catalogue enterprise; (iii) any enterprise for the purpose of taking telephone orders; (iv) a store conducted principally or in part for the sale of second hand goods or apparel, war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (v) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire, and only for a period of 30 days immediately following the reopening after such fire; (vi) a store conducted, promoted and/or represented in whole or substantially as a discount operation or in part as a discount operation so as to give the impression that it is being conducted principally as a discount operation; (vii) a pawn shop; (viii) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (ix) an auction sale; and (x) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre.

(c) Tenant shall not conduct on the Premises any "distress sale", "bankruptcy sale", "going out of business sale", "liquidation sale" or "fire sale" except as expressly provided above nor any other type of sale designed to convey to the public that business operations are to be discontinued or that the store shall close, Tenant shall only sell merchandise in the regular course of trade as a retailer operating the Premises for the purpose for which the Premises are leased. Notwithstanding the foregoing, within the last six (6) months of the Term, the Tenant shall have the right to conduct clearance and other sales promotions in the Premises and the Tenant shall be permitted to erect, install and maintain within the Premises during such period any clearance and/or store closing signage (or other signage of a similar nature), provided that (i) any such signage on the exterior of the Premises or which faces any Common Areas and Facilities, shall be subject to the Tenant obtaining all required municipal approvals as well as the Landlord's prior written approval for the nature, size, type and location thereof; and (ii) all clearance and other sales otherwise comply with the requirements of sub-paragraph (b) above and this Lease and are undertaken in a reputable and prudent manner that does not interfere with the typical use and operation of the Shopping Centre or the occupants thereof. Landlord's approval of such signage shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed provided it complies with this provision.

(d) Intentionally deleted.

(e) Tenant shall not use the Common Areas and Facilities for any reason whatsoever without the prior written approval of Landlord. Tenant will not place or keep any merchandise or other thing beyond the permanent floor mounted storefront or closure of the Premises or in the Common Areas and Facilities.

(f) Intentionally deleted.

5.05 Intentionally deleted.

5.06 Display Windows Tenant will keep display windows (if any) neatly dressed. Display windows and lighted signs (if any) will be kept illuminated by Tenant on all business days until at least one half hour after the Shopping Centre closes for business.

5.07 Compliance with Laws The Premises will be used and occupied in a safe, careful and proper manner so as not to contravene any present or future governmental or quasi-governmental laws in force or regulations or orders including, without limitation, all Environmental Law. If, due solely to Tenant's use of the Premises, improvements are necessary to comply with any of the foregoing or with the requirements of insurance carriers, Tenant shall execute same and will pay the entire cost thereof. Unless otherwise directed by Landlord, Tenant will obtain and comply with the terms of all licences, certificates of approval, permits and other approvals necessary or appropriate under applicable laws (inclusive of Environmental Law) for the safe and lawful conduct of its business at or from the Premises.

5.08 Nuisance Tenant will not cause or maintain any nuisance or hazard in or about the Premises and will keep the Premises free of debris, trash, rodents, vermin and anything of a dangerous, noxious or offensive nature or which could create a fire hazard (through undue load on electrical circuits or otherwise) or undue vibration, heat or any unusual or objectionable noises or odours or anything which may disturb the enjoyment of the Shopping Centre and all the Common Areas and Facilities thereof by customers and other tenants of the Shopping Centre, nor will Tenant allow any noise, sound or music in the Premises to be heard in the Common Areas and Facilities or neighbouring premises.

5.09 Advertising, Trade Names and Restricted Marks

(a) In its advertising, Tenant will use the name of the Shopping Centre, such trade names, symbols and slogans as may be designated by Landlord but Tenant will not indulge in any advertising or sales promotion which is undignified or not in conformity with the highest standards of practice among stores dealing in similar merchandise or might harm or tend to harm the business reputation of Landlord or reflect unfavourably on the Shopping Centre, or might confuse or mislead or tend to confuse or mislead the public. Tenant will not sell, advertise, conduct or solicit business anywhere within the Shopping Centre other than in the Premises.

(b) The name for the Shopping Centre which Landlord may from time to time adopt and every name or mark adopted by Landlord in connection with the Shopping Centre will be used by Tenant only in association with sales made at or from and the business carried on in the Premises during the Term and Tenant's use thereof will be subject to such regulations as Landlord may from time to time impose. Tenant will not acquire any rights in any such restricted name or mark, and upon the termination of this Lease all its interest herein will be deemed to have been surrendered to Landlord and Tenant will thereafter cease and abandon all use thereof. If Landlord so requests, Tenant will execute registered user applications or agreements or both to protect Landlord's trade mark rights.

5.10 Intentionally deleted.

5.11 Loading and Delivery The delivery and shipping of merchandise, supplies, fixtures, and other materials or goods of whatsoever nature to or from the Premises and all loading, unloading, and handling of it will be done only at the times, in the areas, by the means, and through the elevators, entrances, malls, and corridors as are designated by Landlord. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will not use or permit any elevators, entrances, malls, corridors or other parts of the Common Areas and Facilities to be used as temporary storage area or areas by Tenant, any of Tenant's employees or suppliers or others when making deliveries to or shipments from the Premises or any permitted storage area of Tenant.

Landlord accepts no liability and is hereby relieved and released by Tenant in respect of the operation of the Delivery Facilities, or the adequacy of them, or of the acts or omissions of any Person or Persons engaged in the operation of them, or in the acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch of any goods for or on behalf of Tenant, or for any claim of Tenant by reason of damage, loss, theft, or acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch, failure of any acceptance, holding, handling or dispatch, or any error, negligence or delay.

Landlord may, from time to time, make and amend regulations for the orderly and efficient operation of the Delivery Facilities, and may require the payment of reasonable and equitable charges for delivery services and removal provided by Landlord.

For certainty, the premises include the loading dock and unloading areas, which exclusively serve the Premises.

ARTICLE 6.00 SERVICES, MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS BY LANDLORD

6.01 Operation of Shopping Centre Landlord shall operate the Shopping Centre and maintain the Common Areas and Facilities as would a prudent and diligent owner of a similar shopping centre, having regard to the Shopping Centre's size, age, nature, location and region where the Shopping Centre is situated, as well as the type of clientele the Shopping Centre services and the general image Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre, all as determined by the Landlord in its sole discretion.

6.02 Services Landlord will provide in the Shopping Centre except where Tenant shall do so pursuant to this Lease:

(a) domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water and necessary supplies in common washrooms sufficient for the normal use thereof; and

(b) heat, ventilation, air conditioning, lighting, electric power, domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water, steam, natural gas and chilled water, in the Common Areas and Facilities (where appropriate).

6.03 Maintenance, Repair and Replacement Subject to the provisions of Article 7.01(b), Landlord will operate, maintain, repair and replace the systems, facilities and equipment necessary for the proper operation of the Shopping Centre and for provision of Landlord's services under Article 6.02 except as such may be installed by or be the property of Tenant or others (excluding Landlord) or both and except for the heating, ventilating and air conditioning equipment, elevators, escalators and other systems, facilities, machinery and equipment installed within or for the Premises, and will expeditiously maintain and repair the foundations, structure and roof of the Shopping Centre (excluding the Premises), provided that:

(a) if all or part of such systems, facilities and equipment are destroyed, damaged or impaired, Landlord will have a reasonable time in which to complete the necessary repair or replacement, and during that time will be required only to maintain such services as are reasonably possible in the circumstances;

(b) Landlord may temporarily discontinue such services or any of them at such times as may be necessary due to causes (except lack of funds) beyond the reasonable control of Landlord;

(c) Landlord will use reasonable diligence in carrying out its obligations under this Article 6.03, but will not be liable under any circumstances for any consequential damage to any Person (including without limitation, Tenant) or any property for any failure to do so;

(d) no reduction or discontinuance of such services under clauses (a) or (b) of this Article 6.03 will constitute as an eviction of Tenant or (except as specifically provided in this Lease) release Tenant from any obligation of Tenant under this Lease; and

(e) nothing contained herein will derogate from the provisions of Articles 7.02. 7.03 10.01, 16.01, 16.02, 16.03, or 16.04 and in no event shall Landlord be required to make any repairs or replacements which are necessary as a result of Tenant's default, negligence or willful misconduct..

6.04 Alterations by Landlord Landlord may, at any time prior to or during the Term, subject to Article 6.06: (i) change the area, level, location, arrangement or use of any portion of the Shopping Centre; (ii) construct on the Site or on adjacent lands, other buildings, structures or improvements and make alterations, additions, subtractions or rearrangements; (iii) modify, alter, expand, reduce or eliminate any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities; (iv) close off all or any part of the Shopping Centre and/or temporarily suspend services for the purpose of maintenance, repair, alteration or construction; (v) place any installations within or on any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities including without limitation, kiosks, planters, benches, promotional displays or activities and any other installations; (vi) close all or part of the Shopping Centre to the public outside of regular business hours, Sundays and holidays included; (vii) restrict areas on the Site available for employee parking, and/or prohibit employees from parking anywhere on the Site; (viii) impose reasonable charges for parking, and impose restrictions on refunds or compensations by Tenant to Persons using the parking areas; (ix) modify tenant mix, both with respect to kinds of uses which may be made of premises, as well as to changes in the physical location of any one or more tenants; (x) do and perform such other acts in relation to the Shopping Centre for the more efficient and proper operation of the Shopping Centre as Landlord determines to be advisable; (xi) change the name of the Shopping Centre; (xii) do all work required to install new, and/or maintain, adapt, repair or replace existing utility lines, pipes, roof drainage pipes, conduits, wires, duct work, columns and other matters through any part of the Premises if necessary and do any other work in the Premises to preserve, support or reinforce any structural walls or foundations of the Premises or the Shopping Centre, and do such work as may be required for an expansion or an alteration of all or part of the Shopping Centre.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, it is understood and agreed that if the Shopping Centre, the Site and/or the Common Areas and Facilities are diminished or altered in any manner whatsoever as a result of the exercise by Landlord of its rights set out in this Article 6.04, Landlord is not subject to any liability nor is Tenant entitled to any compensation or diminution or abatement of Rent, nor is any alteration or diminution thereof deemed to constitute constructive or actual eviction, or a breach of any covenant for quiet enjoyment contained in this Lease. Landlord and Tenant further agree that the exercise by Landlord of its rights under this Article 6.04 will not relieve Tenant of Tenant's obligations under Article 5.03 of this Lease.

The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that the Landlord has not granted to the Tenant and neither the Tenant or the Premises has the benefit of any merchandising controls, exclusivity rights, use restrictions, no-build zones, minimum parking ratio requirements, or minimum stall number requirements, or any other restrictions, restrictive covenants or approval rights applicable to the Site; the Shopping Centre or any part(s) thereof or any other lands abutting thereto or in the vicinity thereof ("Additional Lands") which the Landlord or any of its affiliates may have an interest in, including without limitation and for certainty anything that would otherwise restrict, limit, delay or otherwise interfere with the Landlord's (or its affiliate's) ability to lease, use, convey, alter, develop and/or redevelop all or any part of the Shopping Centre, the Site or any such Additional Lands. The Tenant hereby confirms that any of the forgoing that the Tenant was entitled to or that were granted in or in connection with the Original Lease, its occupancy of the Premises or otherwise have been expressly waived by the Tenant, have terminated and have ceased to have any force or effect. The Tenant covenants and agrees: (a) not to oppose (and hereby irrevocably waives all rights to oppose) the exercise of the Landlord's rights under this Section 6.04 or otherwise pursuant to this Lease in this regard, including, in respect of any rezoning matters, variance applications, restrictive covenants, site plans, subdivisions, easements, transfers, dedications, permits or approvals and other similar requirements in connection therewith (hereinafter "Rezoning Matters"); and (b) agrees to cooperate with Landlord (at no cost or expense to the Tenant) to the extent reasonably required, including, without limitation, granting any partial discharges of its notice of lease and executing any consents, documents and instruments reasonably requested by the Landlord in furtherance of any Rezoning Matters.

6.05 Intentionally deleted.Access by Landlord Tenant will permit Landlord to enter the Premises outside of normal business hours, and during normal business hours where such will not unreasonably disturb or interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises and operation of its business, to examine, inspect and show the Premises to persons wishing to lease them, to provide services or make repairs, replacements, changes or alterations as set out in this Lease, and to take such steps as Landlord may deem necessary for the safety, improvement or preservation of the Premises or the Shopping Centre. Landlord will whenever possible, save in the event of emergency, consult with or give reasonable notice to Tenant prior to such entry, but no such entry will constitute an eviction or entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

6.07 Energy, Conservation and Security Policies Landlord will be deemed to have observed and performed the terms and conditions to be performed by Landlord under this Lease, including those relating to the provision of utilities and services, if in so doing it acts in accordance with a directive, policy or request of a governmental or quasi-governmental authority serving the public interest in the fields of energy, conservation or security.

6.08 Sustainable Operation of Shopping Centre Tenant acknowledges Landlord's intention, to operate its Shopping Centre in a manner so as to provide for:

(a) reduced energy and water consumption;

(b) the use of renewable energy and recycled water;

(c) the facilitation of alternate transportation for customers of the Shopping Centre;

(d) the use of non-toxic, low-impact cleaning and pest control and other products in the operation and maintenance of the Shopping Centre;

(e) a healthy indoor environment;

(f) installation and use of sustainable materials, furniture, equipment and improvements within the Shopping Centre; and

(g) the recycling and diversion of operational waste from landfill generated from the activities of tenants, licensees, and customers of the Shopping Centre, and Landlord intends to operate, manage and maintain the Shopping Centre so as to obtain and/or maintain any green building certifications, accreditations or ratings.

ARTICLE 7.00 DEMISED UTILITIES, SERVICES, MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS BY TENANT

7.01 Demised Utilities

(a) Subject to Article 7.01(b), during the Term, Tenant will provide in the Premises at its own expense heat, ventilation, air-conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam and other utilities and services. Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall promptly pay (but in any event no later than the due date) the cost of water consumption, electricity, gas, steam, telephone, and other utilities used or consumed in or from the Premises directly to the supplier of such services where separately metered or as Landlord may direct.

(b) If heat, ventilation, air conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam or any other utility or service is provided by Landlord, but is not metered or is supplied to the Premises through meters common to a group of tenants in the Shopping Centre, Landlord will pay the cost thereof and apportion such cost as may reasonably be determined by Landlord among the tenants utilizing the utility or service or supplied through such common meters, (provided that if Landlord will from time to time reasonably determine that the use of any such utility or service in the Premises is disproportionate to the use of other tenants, Landlord may adjust Tenant's share of the cost thereof from a date reasonably determined by Landlord to take equitable account of the disproportionate use) and Tenant will reimburse Landlord the amount of its share of such cost.

(c) Intentionally deleted.

(d) If a separate or a check meter exists, Tenant shall then pay for its consumption to Landlord as measured by the Premises check meter and in accordance with the rates of Landlord's supplier.

(e) If at any time, any utility serving the Premises, whose consumption rate was measured by separate or check meter, ceases to be measured by separate or check meter for any reason whatsoever, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a charge calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) above.

(f) Notwithstanding Article 7.00 of this Lease, at Landlord's option, Landlord may, at any time or times during the Term, purchase in bulk from the utility supplier the aggregate electrical energy requirements of the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof, in which event Landlord may arrange for the supply of electricity to the Premises for the general electrical purposes of Tenant. In such case, Tenant will pay to Landlord on a monthly basis, in advance, with annual adjustment at the end of each Fiscal Year, a charge for supplying electricity to the Premises as determined by Landlord on the basis of Tenant's consumption.

(g) Where the Premises are metered directly by a utility company or supplier for electricity, gas, water, or steam consumption, Tenant will provide Landlord, at Tenant's cost, with all consumption data for the Premises, in the manner, at such frequency and in the format as required by Landlord so as to comply with its obligations relating to governmental or quasi-governmental authority reporting regulations, to meet green building certifications or standards including, without limitation, LEED, BOMA BEST or ENERGY STAR or to improve the environmental performance of the Shopping Centre.

7.02 Demised Heating, Ventilation, and Air-Conditioning (HVAC) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense be responsible for maintaining, repairing and replacing of the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning equipment (the "Tenant HVAC System") installed for the Premises where such equipment is not part of a shared or central system.

7.03 Condition of Premises During the Term, Tenant will keep the Premises in a clean and tidy condition, and will provide at its own expense therein janitor services in accordance with this Lease and the rules and regulations of Landlord from time to time, removal of debris and garbage, and cleaning of all windows, doors, walls, ceiling, tiles, floors, grease traps and grease guard systems in the Premises and on the roof of the Shopping Centre where applicable and the exterior of the Premises, subject to Article 7.04(f).

Subject to the foregoing and except to the extent that Landlord is specifically responsible therefor under this Lease, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense maintain the Premises and all improvements therein in good order and condition, subject to reasonable wear and tear, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) intentionally deleted;

(b) making repairs and replacements as needed to glass, plate glass, store windows and storefronts, signs, mouldings, doors, hardware, partitions, walls, fixtures, lighting, finishes, plumbing, wiring, ductwork and piping (including that portion which is contiguous to the Premises), ceilings, floors and thresholds in the Premises;

(c) maintaining, repairing and replacing as needed all Tenant HVAC Systems, elevators, escalators, mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems, facilities and equipment in the Premises;

(d) making other repairs and replacements in the Premises as needed, except repairs and replacements to the Premises for which Landlord is specifically responsible under this Lease; and

(e) keeping the Premises in such condition as to comply with the requirements of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority and insurers having jurisdiction and the rules and regulations of Landlord.

Notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, the Tenant's repair obligations will include all those which are major as well as minor, or those which are customarily landlord's or tenant's, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Lease

7.04 Alterations by Tenant Tenant may from time to time at its own expense make changes, additions and improvements in the Premises to better adapt the same to its business, provided that any such change, addition or improvement will:

(a) comply with the requirements of Landlord's insurer and any Authority having jurisdiction;

(b) be made only with the prior written consent of Landlord;

(c) equal the then current standard for the Shopping Centre;

(d) be carried out only by persons selected by Tenant and approved in writing by Landlord, who will, if required by Landlord, deliver to Landlord before commencement of the work, performance and payment bonds as well as proof of worker's compensation and public liability and property damage insurance coverage as reasonably required by Landlord with Landlord, Owners and Management Company as additional insured parties in amounts, with companies and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, which will remain in effect during the entire period in which the work will be carried out;

(e) Tenant shall obtain all necessary construction and other permits before starting any work in the Premises;

(f) Tenant shall not make any repairs, openings, or additions to any part of the exterior of the Premises, or to the Common Areas and Facilities nor place anything of whatsoever nature in or upon any part of the Common Areas and Facilities, including without limitation the roof and without having obtained the prior written consent of Landlord. In addition it is expressly forbidden for Tenant, its employees, agents, representatives or any Person for whom Tenant is in law responsible to go upon the roof of the Shopping Centre for any reason whatsoever without Landlord's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the prior granting of such consent, Tenant shall be fully responsible for all ensuing costs and damages whether to remove materials or to effect repairs needed as a result of such acts;

(g) Tenant shall not make any change, alteration, addition, repair or improvement in or to the Premises which in any manner affects the structure, the roof, the perimeter walls, the bearing floors, structural slab or slab on grade, the storefront, the sprinkler system (whether it services the Premises exclusively or not), or any heating, ventilation or air-conditioning system or equipment or the electrical and plumbing services or systems (whether these serve the Premises exclusively or not), without in each case obtaining Landlord's prior written approval thereto. Tenant will accompany each request for Landlord's written approval by detailed plans and specifications for the intended work, and will ensure that the work is done according to the relevant provisions of this Lease.

Any increase in Taxes or insurance premiums for the Shopping Centre, or any part thereof, attributable to such change, addition or improvement will be borne by Tenant and Tenant will pay Landlord for the cost of such increase upon receipt of Landlord's invoices therefor.

7.05 Trade Fixtures and Personal Property Tenant may install in the Premises its usual trade fixtures and personal property in a proper manner, provided that no such installation will interfere with or damage the mechanical, plumbing, sprinkler or electrical systems or all or any part of the structure of the Shopping Centre. If Tenant is not then in default under this Lease, trade fixtures and personal property installed in but not affixed to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant may be removed from the Premises:

(a) from time to time in the ordinary course of Tenant's business or in the course of permitted reconstruction, renovation or alteration of the Premises by Tenant; and provided that Tenant in all cases promptly repairs at its own expense any damage to the Premises resulting from such installation and removal. In no case will trade fixtures or personal property include the ceiling or ceiling panels, electric light fixtures, doors, floor coverings, storefront, plumbing fixtures and fittings or any affixed cabinets, shelves, hardware or decorative items in or upon the Premises which upon installation become the property of Landlord, provided, however, that if any of the foregoing shall contain any Hazardous Substance such installation shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant will remove such items at its expense.

7.06 Liens Tenant will pay before delinquency all costs for work done or caused to be done by Tenant in the Premises which could result in any lien or encumbrance on Landlord's interest or Tenant's interest or both in the Site or the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, will keep the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre and every part thereof free and clear of any lien or encumbrance in respect of such work and will indemnify and hold harmless Landlord against any claim, loss, cost, demand and legal or other expense, whether in respect of any lien or otherwise, arising out of the supply of material, services or labour for such work. Tenant will immediately notify Landlord of any such lien, claim of lien or other action of which it has or reasonably should have knowledge and which affects the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, and will cause the same to be removed within fifteen (15) days of written notice from Landlord (or such additional time as Landlord may consent to in writing), failing which Landlord may take action as Landlord deems necessary to remove the same and the entire cost thereof will be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, including all legal fees, costs and disbursements on a substantial indemnity basis.

7.07 Intentionally deleted.

7.08 Signs Tenant shall not erect or place any sign, decal, decoration, lettering, design or advertisement of any nature whatsoever ("Sign") on the exterior walls of the Premises or on the walls of the mall or elsewhere in the Shopping Centre or in the display windows without first obtaining Landlord's written consent as to the specifications, design, location and method of installation. All Signs shall conform to all applicable rules and regulations and shall be of high quality. Furthermore, all Signs shall be suitably illuminated where applicable in the same manner as other signs in the Shopping Centre. Tenant shall not install or affix any Sign in the Premises or in the Shopping Centre which is visible from the exterior of the Shopping Centre. All Signs on Tenant's storefront which Landlord allows Tenant to install must be so installed prior to the opening by Tenant of its Premises to the public.

No Sign(s) advertising an auction sale, going out of business sale, closing out sale, bankruptcy sale or any other similar sale other than one in the normal course of Tenant's business, or any Sign indicating that Tenant is moving to another location, shall be permitted in the Shopping Centre.

For certainty, the Landlord confirms that the Tenant's exterior Signs that exist as of the Commencement Date are compliant with this Section.

ARTICLE 8.00 TENANT'S TAXES

8.01 Business Taxes and Other Taxes Payable by Tenant Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to the Authorities responsible for collection all business and water taxes, charges or rates, garbage removal taxes, charges, rates, taxes, levies, fees, duties, tariffs or assessments for consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature however imposed or assessed and/or for recycling and/or similar taxes, charges or rates imposed on or applicable to Tenant in connection with the activities, goods (including without limiting the generality thereof, Tenant's movables, equipment and tools) or services of which Tenant benefits, or for Tenant's use or occupation of the Premises, or for the nature of the enterprise that Tenant operates in the Premises, or any other matter determined by said authorities (hereinafter "Tenant's Taxes"). It is understood that Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to Landlord any Tenant's Taxes where Landlord shall be invoiced therefor or shall become liable for any such Tenant's Taxes pursuant to any new, amended or modified law, regulation, policy and/or practice of any competent Authority. Tenant shall also be liable for the payment of any Tenant's Taxes, Taxes and any other amount payable by Landlord, and any increases in one or all of the foregoing (even where such Tenant's Taxes, Taxes or other amount or increases thereof are substantially greater than the amount payable therefor by Tenant in previous years) as a direct or indirect result of the abolition, modification and/or replacement of any Tenant's Taxes by any competent Authority or due to any modification of any policy or practice thereof. Tenant will indemnify Landlord from and against all losses, costs of expenses occasioned by or arising from the foregoing.

ARTICLE 9.00 INSURANCE

9.01 Landlord's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease, Landlord will carry the insurance for which Landlord is obligated under the Original Lease and such insurance provisions are deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term, Landlord will maintain the Landlord's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

9.02 Tenant's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, will carry the insurance for which Tenant is obligated under the Original Lease and such provisions of the Original Lease are deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term and any period Tenant is in possession of the Premises, the Tenant will maintain the Tenant's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date in accordance with the insurance certificate most recently provided to the Landlord by the Tenant, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

Tenant agrees to deliver to Landlord, proof of above required insurance in force at such date, such proof to be in the form of certificates of insurance acceptable to Landlord. If the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained on the part of Tenant will immediately endanger or could reasonably lead to or result in future endangerment of the Premises or any other of the buildings or property in or on the Shopping Centre or result in the voiding, cancellation or threatened cancellation of any insurance policy affecting such buildings or property or part thereof Landlord may, either, at Landlord's sole discretion, terminate this Lease effective upon written notice to Tenant, or without terminating this Lease and after giving such notice, if any, as is reasonable in the circumstances, enter upon the Premises and take such action, including removing Tenant and any persons or property from the Shopping Centre, as is reasonable to remove or abate the cause of the danger or voiding or cancellation of the policy, and Landlord will not be liable for any damages of any kind howsoever caused arising out of such termination or such action, the whole without prejudice to Landlord's other rights and recourses.

ARTICLE 10.00 INJURY TO PERSON OR PROPERTY

10.01 Mutual Indemnity. Except to the extent released in Sections 10.02 and 10.03 below, each of the Landlord and the Tenant will defend, protect, indemnify and save harmless the other of and from all fines, suits, claims, demands and actions of any kind or nature to which the party being indemnified shall or may become liable or suffer by reason of any breach, violation or nonperformance by the party so indemnifying of any covenant, term or provision of this Lease or by reason of any damage, injury or death occasioned to or suffered by any person or persons including the Landlord or the Tenant, as the case may be, or any property, by reason of any wrongful act, neglect or default on the part of the party so indemnifying or any of its agents, employees, officers or contractors.

10.02 Release of Landlord. n respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Tenant, none of the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre or other persons for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage so required to be insured by the Tenant to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Tenant fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Tenant had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Tenant shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, the manager retained by the Landlord from time to time to operate the Shopping Centre and those for whom the Landlord is responsible in law. With respect to the Tenant's fixtures, furniture, inventory and stock-in-trade including merchandise or other contents of the Premises, the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre and others for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage.

10.03 Release of Tenant. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Landlord, none of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees or other persons for whom the Tenant is responsible at law shall be liable in respect of any loss, injury or damage required to be so insured to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Landlord fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Landlord had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Landlord shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees and those for whom the Tenant is responsible in law.

ARTICLE 11.00 TRANSFERS

11.01 Transfers Except to an Eligible Corporation (which for the purpose of this Article 11.00 is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual) which controls or is controlled by or under common control with Tenant, where to control means to own beneficially either directly or indirectly more than 50% of the voting shares of a corporation or other legal entity) and subject to provisions of Article 11.03, Tenant will not, and will not permit a subtenant to, assign this Lease in whole or in part or sublet all or part of the Premises, or transfer this Lease in any other manner and will not permit the occupation or use of all or part of the Premises by others (any of which events are hereinafter referred to as a "Transfer"), without the prior written consent of Landlord in each case, which consent, despite any statutory provision to the contrary, may be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Tenant may enter into a Transfer with an Eligible Corporation, with the prior written consent of Landlord which consent may not be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld. Tenant will not, and will not permit subtenant or any other Person or entity to mortgage or encumber all or any part pf the Tenant's rights resulting from this Lease or all or any part of the Premises. Under no circumstances will Tenant be entitled to effect a Transfer to any one prior to the Commencement Date, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease or at law. The consent by Landlord to a Transfer will not constitute a waiver of its consent to a subsequent Transfer. This prohibition against transferring includes a Transfer by operation of law. If a Transfer occurs without the consent of Landlord when required, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee, subtenant, mortgagee, encumbrancer, user or occupant as the case may be (hereinafter the "Transferee"), and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such Transfer, occupancy or collection will be deemed a waiver of the covenant not to Transfer without Landlord's consent, nor an acceptance by Landlord of the Transfer or the Transferee notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary. Despite a Transfer, Tenant remains fully liable under this Lease. A permitted Transfer of all or part of this Lease or the Premises will be documented by Landlord or its solicitors, and the amounts stipulated in Article 11.02(b)(iv) shall be paid by Tenant and deemed to be Rent. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord may immediately terminate this Lease if Tenant effects a Transfer without Landlord's prior written consent thereto, whether or not Tenant gives prior written notice thereof.

11.02 Conditions Any Transfer referred to in Article 11.01 or elsewhere in this Lease will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) that Tenant causes any Transferee to promptly execute an agreement in writing with Landlord agreeing to be bound by the terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease as if such Transferee had originally executed this Lease as Tenant (provided that such agreement will not in any way affect the rights of Landlord under this Lease); and

(b) all requests for Landlord's consent to effect a Transfer shall be in writing and be accompanied by each of the following: (i) the name, address and telephone number of each proposed Transferee and if it is a corporation, the names of the directors and the majority shareholders (or in the case of a change of control, those Persons who would subsequently acquire effective control); (ii) details of the proposed Transferee's prior business experience (including experience in the enterprise for which the Premises are to be operated pursuant to this Lease); (iii) bank and other credit references, required by Landlord to assess the business or financial strength and standing of the proposed assignee, subtenant or occupant; (iv) a non-reimbursable fee (paid by certified cheque or draft of a Canadian chartered bank) for all charges associated with Landlord's administration and documentation of the Transfer; (v) if the proposed Transferee is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual), its constating documents (including any articles of incorporation, amendment or amalgamation, any declarations of trust or partnership agreements and the like); (vi) details of the transaction of Transfer between Tenant and the proposed Transferee and all relevant documents with respect thereto; (vii) a signed copy of Landlord's standard form of letter of consent authorizing Landlord to make inquiries regarding the personal affairs of the proposed Transferee or any principal thereof, and (viii) all other information or documentation which Landlord may reasonably require.

11.03 Corporate Ownership If after the date of execution of this Lease, securities not listed for sale on a recognized securities exchange in Canada either of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant are transferred by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law or other disposition, or issued by subscription or allotment or cancelled or redeemed, so as to result in a change in the effective voting or other control of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant by the Person or Persons holding control on the date of execution of this Lease or on the date when Tenant becomes a corporation, if later, or if other steps are taken to accomplish a change of the effective control of Tenant, Tenant will promptly notify Landlord in writing of the change which will be considered to be a Transfer of this Lease to which Articles 11.01 and 11.02 apply; and whether or not Tenant notifies Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease within 60 days after Landlord learns of the change unless Landlord previously had consented to the change in writing. Tenant will make available to Landlord or its lawful representatives all corporate books and records of Tenant and of any Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant for inspection at all reasonable times, to ascertain to the extent possible whether there has been a change of control.

11.04 Insolvency of Transferee In the event Transferee becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy and this Lease is disclaimed or terminated, or Transferee disclaims this Lease pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation, or the terms of any insolvency-related Court order, then at Landlord's option to be exercised on written notice to the original Tenant named in this Lease or any Transferee (except the bankrupt or insolvent Transferee), such party will be deemed to have entered into a lease with Landlord for the remainder of the initial Term, on the terms and conditions of this Lease prevailing immediately prior to the date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation (including without limitation, future Rent escalations (if any)) effective upon the effective date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation.

11.05 Permitted Transfers. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but on prior written notice to Landlord:

(a) assign this Lease to, and may in any event permit the Premises to be used and occupied in whole or in part by, any affiliated corporation of Tenant (as such term "affiliated corporation" is defined by· the Canada Business Corporations Act); or

(b) assign this Lease to any corporation with which Tenant merges or consolidates that is an affiliated corporation of Tenant; or

(c) grant concessions or licenses to use and occupy any part or parts of the Premises provided that: (i) the Premises continues to be carried on, and retains the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated single department store operated in accordance with the requirements of this Lease, (ii) at least 80% (by number) of the concessions or licenses granted shall be to licensees or concessionaires which operate in a majority of the Tenant's other stores in the greater Toronto area; and (iii) any such concessionaire, licensee or other occupant within the Premises is subject to the day-to-day operational control of the Tenant in matters related to general standards of the business carried on so as to enable the Tenant to ensure that such standards shall conform to the general standards of business of the Tenant itself.

ARTICLE 12.00 SURRENDER

12.01 Possession Upon the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease and in addition to the provisions of Article 12.02, Tenant will immediately quit and peaceably surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord:

(i) in a vacant, clean and broom-swept condition with all of Tenant's signage, inventory, trade fixtures, racking and personal property removed; and

but otherwise in an "as is, where is" condition and without any obligation to: (A) return the Premises or any component thereof to an improved or better state of condition or operation than existing as of the Commencement Date; or (B) to remove any leasehold improvements in the Premises installed pursuant to Article 7.04 hereof. For greater clarity, it is the intention of the parties that Tenant shall have no obligation to make cosmetic or "wear and tear" type repairs to the Premises upon surrender (such as repainting or repairing holes in walls, floors or ceilings caused by the typical installation and removal of racking, trade fixtures etc.).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Landlord's intention is to demolish and/or redevelop the Premises following the expiry of the Term and not to re-tenant same, the Landlord shall advise the Tenant thereof in which event sub-paragraph (ii) above shall not apply.

Upon surrender, all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises will cease. If Tenant has registered a caveat, caution, memorandum notice or other instrument relating to this lease against title to the Land, it will cause the same to be released and discharged no later than 15 days following the expiry or termination date, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a release or discharge of a notice of this will be paid by Tenant.

12.02 Trade Fixtures, Personal Property and Improvements

(a) Subject to Article 7.05, all alterations, additions and improvements made or to be made upon or to the Premises (save any movable trade fixtures used in Tenant's enterprise) which in any manner are attached in, to or under the floors, walls or ceilings, including, without limitation, walk-in vaults, large water features such as pools, water basins and fountains and landscaping features, any component of any heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, sprinkler, plumbing or electrical equipment or systems, presently or in the future installed within or servicing the Premises, all lighting installations and fixtures including, without limitation, all spot lights and tracks and all floor finishes of whatever nature placed upon the floor of the Premises, all storefronts, doors and/or partitions, shall become Landlord's property at the time they are installed, and will be surrendered to Landlord at the expiry of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease without any compensation or indemnity payable to Tenant whatsoever.

(b) If Tenant leaves any property on the Premises following the expiry of the Term or earlier termination thereof which it is entitled to remove, then unless Landlord expressly notifies Tenant to remove such property, the ownership of such property will, at Landlord's option, be deemed to have been abandoned to Landlord, free and clear of all Tenant Security, notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary and whether or not Landlord chooses to become the owner of such items, they may be used, removed or disposed of by or on behalf of Landlord, as Landlord determines, without compensation payable to Tenant and without incurring any liability to Tenant.

12.03 Merger The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant or the cancellation of this Lease by mutual agreement of Tenant and Landlord will not work a merger, and will, at Landlord's option, either terminate all or any subleases and subtenancies or operate as an assignment to Landlord of all or any subleases and subtenancies. Landlord's option hereunder will be exercised by notice to Tenant and all sublessees or subtenants in the Premises or any part thereof known to Landlord. If Landlord does not give notice within a reasonable period of time after such cancellation of this Lease, then all such subleases will be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such cancellation.

12.04 Payments After Termination No payment of money by Tenant to Landlord after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease or after the giving of any notice by Landlord to Tenant, will reinstate, continue or extend the Term or make ineffective any notice given to Tenant prior to the payment of such money. After the service of notice or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment granting Landlord possession of the Premises, Landlord may receive and collect any sums of Rent due under this Lease, and the payment thereof will not make ineffective any notice, or in any manner affect any pending suit or any judgment theretofore obtained.

13.01 Month-to-Month Tenancy with Landlord Consent If with Landlord's written consent, Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises on a month-to month tenancy only, at a monthly rental equal to the Rent payable by Tenant during the last month immediately preceding the expiration of the Term or such other rental as is stated in such written consent, and such month-to-month tenancy may be terminated by Landlord or Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by delivery of at least one (1) month's advance written notice of termination to the other.

13.02 Tenancy at Sufferance If without Landlord's written consent Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises upon a tenancy at sufferance only, at a monthly rental equal to two (2) times the Rent payable during the last month preceding the expiration or termination. Such tenancy at sufferance may be immediately terminated by Landlord at any time by notice of termination to Tenant, and by Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by at least 30 days' advance written notice of termination to Landlord.

13.03 General Any month-to-month tenancy or tenancy at sufferance hereunder will be subject to all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease except any right of renewal or extension and nothing contained in Article 13.00 will be construed to limit or impair any of Landlord's rights of re-entry or eviction or constitute a waiver thereof.

ARTICLE 14.00 RULES AND REGULATIONS

14.01 Purpose The Rules and Regulations in Exhibit D (the "Rules and Regulations") have been adopted by Landlord for the safety, benefit and convenience of all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre.

14.02 Observance Tenant will at all times comply with, and will cause its employees, servants, agents, licencees and invitees to comply with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect.

14.03 Modification Landlord may from time to time, for the purposes set out in Article 14.01, amend, delete from, or add to the Rules and Regulations, provided that any such modification:

(a) will not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any other provision of this Lease;

(b) will be reasonable and have general application to tenants in the Shopping Centre; and

(c) will be effective only upon delivery of a copy thereof to Tenant at the Premises.

14.04 Non-Compliance Landlord will use reasonable efforts to secure compliance by all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect, but will not be responsible to Tenant for failure of any person to comply with such Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 15.00 EXPROPRIATION

15.01 Expropriation Both Landlord and Tenant agree to cooperate with each other in respect of any expropriation of all or any part of the Premises or any other part of the Shopping Centre, so that each may receive from the Authority the maximum award to which each is respectively entitled by law. If any portion of the Shopping Centre other than the Premises is expropriated, then the proceeds accruing therefrom shall belong solely to Landlord, and Tenant shall abandon to Landlord any rights which Tenant may have by operation of law to such proceeds or award. Tenant will execute such documents as required to give effect to the foregoing.

If at any time during the Term, any material part of the Shopping Centre is expropriated or if access to the Premises is materially affected by such expropriation, then Landlord may terminate this Lease on written notice to Tenant, which termination will take effect on the earlier of the date of the expropriation or the taking of prior possession.

Whether the Lease is terminated or not, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord as a result of or arising from the expropriation of all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

If Landlord exercises its right of termination hereunder, this Lease will terminate on the date stated in the notice, provided, however, that no termination pursuant to notice hereunder may occur later than 60 days after the date (hereinafter "Date of Such Taking") on which the Authority takes possession of that part of the Shopping Centre so taken.

15.02 Surrender On any such date of termination under Article 15.01, Tenant will immediately surrender to Landlord the Premises and all interests therein under this Lease. Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and remove Tenant therefrom, and the Rent will abate on the date of termination, except that if the Date of Such Taking differs from the date of termination, Rent will abate on the former date.

15.03 Partial Taking of Premises If any portion of the Premises (but less than the whole thereof) is so taken, and no rights of termination herein conferred are timely exercised, the Term of this Lease will expire with respect to the portion so taken on the Date of Such Taking. In such event the Rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion so taken will abate on such date, and the Rent thereafter payable with respect to the remainder not so taken will be adjusted pro rata by Landlord in order to account for the resulting reduction of the Area of the Premises. After such adjustment, and on notice from Landlord stating the Rent then owing, Tenant will immediately pay Landlord such Rent.

ARTICLE 16.00 DAMAGE BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

16.01 Limited Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, can be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), Landlord will immediately at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, chattels or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired immediately by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.02 Major Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, cannot be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), then Landlord, or in the event that there is less than two (2) years remaining in the Term, Tenant, may elect to terminate this Lease as of the date of such casualty by written notice delivered to the other not more than 20 days after receipt of the Architect's opinion, failing which Landlord will forthwith at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, chattels or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on the behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired forthwith by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.03 Abatement If Landlord is required to repair damage to all or part of the Premises under Article 16.01 or 16.02, provided such damage is caused by a peril Landlord is required to insure against pursuant to Article 9.01, the Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease will be proportionately reduced to the extent that the Premises are thereby rendered untenantable by Tenant in its business, from the date of such casualty until five (5) days after completion by Landlord of the repairs to the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) or until Tenant again uses the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) in its business, whichever first occurs.

16.04 Major Damage or Destruction of Shopping Centre Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Lease and specifically, but without limitation, Article 16.01, if the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed (whether the Premises are affected or not), and (i) in the Architect's opinion, the damaged or destroyed portions cannot reasonably be repaired, restored or rebuilt within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the damage or destruction (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium); or (ii) the cost as estimated by the Architect, of repairing, restoring or rebuilding the damaged or destroyed portions would exceed the proceeds of insurance available to Landlord for such purpose; or (iii)

the damage or destruction was caused by a peril for which Landlord was not insured and for which Landlord was not obliged to insure against; or (iv) intentionally deleted; ; or (v) less than two (2) years remains during the Term; or (vi) a Mortgagee will not consent to the use of insurance proceeds for repair or reconstruction; then in any of the above cases, Landlord may, at its option (to be exercised by written notice to Tenant within 30 days following any such occurrence) elect to terminate this Lease.

If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease, then the following provisions will apply:

(a) If the Premises become totally unfit for the use for which they were leased, the termination will take effect from the date of the damage or destruction and the Rent will cease to be payable and will be adjusted as of that date.

(b) If the Premises are partially damaged and Tenant has occupied any part of the Premises or any part of the Premises have been reasonably capable of being occupied from the date of the damage or destruction, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in the first paragraph of this Article 16.04 and the Rent will cease to be paid by Tenant as of the date of termination, however, Minimum Rent and Additional Rent will abate from the date of the damage and destruction until the date of termination to the extent the Premises cannot reasonably be used for their intended purposes.

(c) If the Premises were not damaged, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in Article 16.00 and the Rent will cease to be paid from such date of termination.

If the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed and Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, subject to the following, Landlord shall commence and proceed diligently to reconstruct or repair those portions of the Shopping Centre which have been so damaged or destroyed to the extent only of Landlord's responsibilities pursuant to the terms of the various leases for premises in the Shopping Centre and exclusive of any tenants' responsibilities. Furthermore, if the Premises are being repaired or reconstructed, the provisions of Article 16.01 will apply.

If Landlord does any reconstruction or repairing of the Shopping Centre, Landlord may do any one or more of the following: (i) use plans, specifications and working drawings which differ from those applicable to the Shopping Centre existing prior to the damage or destruction provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; (ii) change the configuration, design and/or size of the Shopping Centre or any of its component parts including, without limitation, the location and size of any mall, court, entrance, parking facility or any of other Common Areas and Facilities provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; and (iii) redesign the tenant mix, both with respect to the kinds of uses which will be included in the tenant mix, as well as the physical location of the types of uses being operated prior to the damage or destruction. Tenant agrees that none of the foregoing shall constitute a default of Landlord's obligation to provide peaceable enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall it constitute a change of form or destination of the Shopping Centre, nor shall the validity or enforceability of this Lease be affected in any manner by any of the foregoing.

ARTICLE 17.00 TRANSFERS AND MORTGAGES BY LANDLORD

17.01 Sales, Conveyance and Assignment Nothing in this Lease (which term for purpose of this Article 17.00 includes any extension, renewal or replacement of this Lease) will restrict the right of Landlord to sell, convey, assign, mortgage or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Shopping Centre, subject only to the rights of Tenant under this Lease.

17.02 Effect of Sale, Conveyance or Assignment A sale, conveyance or assignment of the Shopping Centre will operate to release Landlord from liability from and after the date thereof upon all the covenants, terms and conditions of this Lease, express or implied, except as such may relate to the period prior to such effective date, and Tenant will thereafter look solely to Landlord's successor in interest in and to this Lease. This Lease will not be affected by any such sale conveyance or assignment, and Tenant will attorn to Landlord's successor in interest thereunder.

17.03 Definition of Mortgage, Mortgagee and Mortgagee's Interest Each and every charge, mortgage, debenture or trust deed, now or hereafter registered against all or any part of the Shopping Centre is hereafter called a "Mortgage" which term includes all amounts advanced or to be advanced thereunder and all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. "Mortgagee" means a chargee or mortgagee named in a Mortgage, or the holder of a debenture or the trustee under a trust deed constituting a Mortgage, as the case may be; and "Mortgagee's Interest" means the estate or interest of the Mortgagee secured by a Mortgage.

17.04 Subordination of Mortgage to Lease If this Lease or the estate or interest of Tenant thereunder (the "Tenant's Leasehold Interest") is subordinate to a Mortgage or Mortgagee's Interest now or at any time hereafter, then on written request of the Mortgagee or of Landlord on Mortgagee's behalf, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, the Mortgage and the Mortgagee's Interest will be postponed and made subordinate to this Lease and the Tenant's Leasehold Interest as if such Mortgage had been executed, delivered, registered and fully advanced after the execution, delivery and registration of this Lease, by means of an instrument of postponement and subordination, which will be entered into between Tenant and the Mortgagee, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that it complies with the terms and conditions of the Lease. Such instrument will be in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, consistent with this Article 17.04 and Article 17.07 and will be effective between the Mortgagee and Tenant when executed by them, without necessity for registration against title to the Shopping Centre; but if desired by the Mortgagee or Tenant, either of them may register such agreement or notice thereof and for that purpose the Mortgagee and Tenant will enter into any further document required to effect registration.

17.05 Attornment If this Lease and Tenant's Leasehold Interest now or at any time hereafter is subordinate to a Mortgage and Mortgagee's Interest and the Mortgagee does not require a postponement and subordination instrument under Article 17.04, Tenant will on request of such Mortgagee or of Landlord on behalf of the Mortgagee, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, enter into an attornment agreement with such Mortgagee in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, whereby Tenant will agree that if default occurs under the Mortgage, and:

(a) the Mortgagee takes possession of the Premises, by obtaining and enforcing a court order to that effect or otherwise;

(b) the Mortgagee forecloses or otherwise acquires the interest of Landlord in the Premises, but does not foreclose the Tenant's Leasehold Interest; or

(c) the Mortgagee sells, conveys or assigns the Premises to another party (hereinafter a "Purchaser") pursuant to a power of sale or court order for sale which does not purport to sell the Premises free of the Tenant's Leasehold Interest,

Tenant will, on written demand of the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, attorn to and become the tenant of that person from and including the date the demand is received, for the balance of the term of this Lease (and with rights of renewal if any as provided in this Lease), at the rents and otherwise on the terms of this Lease, subject as hereinafter provided in Article 17.06, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that Tenant complies with, all the terms and conditions of the Lease.

17.06 Intentionally deleted.

17.07 Effect of Subordination or Attornment No subordination effected under Article 17.04 and no attornment effected under Article 17.05 will render the Mortgagee or Purchaser, as the case may be:

(a) liable for any act or omission of Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(b) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(c) bound by any prepayment by Tenant of more than one month's instalment of Rent, or by any previous modification of this Lease, unless such prepayment or modification has been approved in writing by the Mortgagee or Purchaser or any predecessor in interest except Landlord.

Upon attornment occurring under Article 17.05, the relationship of landlord and tenant thereby created between the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, as Landlord, and Tenant as tenant, will supersede this Lease, but if the Mortgage is subsequently redeemed or put in good standing or the Mortgagee goes out of possession, the Mortgagee will be relieved of its obligations to Tenant as if a sale, conveyance or assignment had occurred to which Article 17.02 applied.

Any attornment by Tenant to a Mortgagee or Purchaser will be without prejudice to the right (when applicable) of any other mortgagee or purchaser that has priority to the Mortgagee or Purchaser to demand that Tenant attorn to the other mortgagee or purchaser pursuant to the rights if any, of the other mortgagee or purchaser in that regard under Article 17.00. In case of such demand being lawfully made, and Tenant attorning to such other mortgagee or purchaser the attornment previously made to the Mortgagee or Purchaser will cease to be effective.

17.08 Tenant's Obligations May Be Assigned Tenant acknowledges that its covenants and obligations under Article 17.00 are intended in whole or in part to operate for the benefit of any and all Mortgagees and Purchasers and that in obtaining such covenants and obligations Landlord is acting not only for itself, but also as trustee or agent for all such persons. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord may assign the benefit of such covenants and obligations to any and all Mortgagees or Purchasers who request same, as security or otherwise, and Tenant agrees that any such Mortgagee or Purchaser will be entitled on receiving such assignment and giving due notice thereof to Tenant, to enforce such covenant or obligation against Tenant to the same extent as if it were a party to this Lease directly entitled to the benefit of such covenants and obligations.

17.09 Execution of Instruments Except as otherwise provided in Article 17.00, the subordination and attornment provisions herein will be self-operating and no further instrument will be required. Nevertheless Tenant, on request by and without cost to Landlord, any Mortgagee, Purchaser or successor in interest, will execute and deliver any and all instruments further evidencing such subordination and/or attornment when applicable.

17.11 Intentionally deleted.

17.12 Notice of Lease Tenant may register at its sole cost and expense (including, without limitation, payment of all registration fees, land transfer and similar taxes or charges, costs of plan preparation and registration and all legal fees and disbursements related to such registration) a notice, caveat or short form of this Lease (the "Registration Document") to give notice of Tenant's interest created by this Lease, provided and subject to the following:

(a) the Registration Document will be prepared by Tenant at its sole cost in a form acceptable to Landlord, and same will be approved in writing by Landlord prior to its registration;

(b) the Registration Document will only disclose the names of the parties to this Lease, the Premises, and the Commencement Date and the expiry date of the Term, and any right of renewal. The Registration Document will not disclose any information concerning the rent or rental rates to be paid, nor any other financial provisions of this Lease;

(c) the Registration Document will only indicate and be registered against title to that portion or those parcels of the Site or Shopping Centre as Landlord may designate in its sole discretion. Further, in the event any portion of the Land ceases to form part of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will, forthwith upon request from Landlord, cause its registration to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from the title to such portion all at its own expense;

(d) in the event that, in order to effect registration, the Registration Document must be executed by any party other than Landlord and Tenant, Landlord will request such consent or execution of that party, but the sole cost of obtaining same will be borne by Tenant and Landlord will not be liable to Tenant in the event that such consent or execution is not obtained;

(e) Tenant will provide Landlord with a copy of the Registration Document and registration particulars thereof, once registration has been effected; and

17.13 Easements and Rights-of-Way Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord has granted or otherwise created and may in the future grant or otherwise create licence(s), easement(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s) over, through, upon or otherwise affecting portions of the Common Areas and Facilities. Tenant hereby consents to the granting or other creation of such licence(s), easement(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s).

17.14 Severance of Land In addition to and upon the same basis, mutatis mutandis, as set out in Article 6.04, Landlord will have the right from time to time to subdivide and to transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any portion or portions of the Land. Any such subdivision may be accomplished by any means Landlord may consider desirable and the description of the Land will be changed accordingly.

ARTICLE 18.00 NOTICES, ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, AUTHORITIES FOR ACTION

18.01 Notices Any notice from one party to the other under this Lease will be in writing and will be deemed duly given, if delivered personally, by an authorized representative of Tenant or Landlord or by courier, or bailiff to the party being given such notice or to a responsible employee of the party being given such notice, or if mailed in Canada by registered or certified mail addressed to Tenant at the address described in Article 1.01, or to Landlord at the address described in Article 1.01 of this Lease. Any notice will be deemed to have been given at the time of personal delivery, or if mailed, on the third (3rd) postal delivery date after the date of mailing thereof or the date of refusal thereof. Either party will have the right to designate by notice, in the manner above set forth, a different address to which notices are to be given. If it is reasonably anticipated that, due to mail service being disrupted, such notice, if mailed, will not be received by the third (3rd) postal delivery day following mailing, then such notice must be personally delivered as provided in this Article 18.01 or, in lieu of mailing, sent by the most reasonably expeditious means of delivery available to the address for mailing and will be deemed duly given upon such delivery. Notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary, notices shall not be sufficiently given if delivered or transmitted by facsimile or other electronic means.

18.02 Acknowledgments Within ten (10) business days after written request therefor by Landlord, Tenant shall deliver an Estoppel Certificate addressed to any Person (other than the Landlord) designated by Landlord, in the form annexed as Exhibit F or such other substantially similar form which Landlord may submit to Tenant.

18.03 Authorities for Action Landlord may act in any matter provided for herein by its property manager, Management Company or any other person who will from time to time be designated by Landlord by notice to Tenant. Tenant will designate in writing one or more persons to act on its behalf in any matter provided for herein and may from time to time change, by notice to Landlord, such designation. In the absence of any such designation, the person or persons executing this Lease for Tenant will be deemed to be authorized to act on behalf of Tenant in any matter provided for in this Lease.

ARTICLE 19.00 DEFAULT

19.01 Interest and Costs Tenant will pay to Landlord the Interest Rate upon all Rent required to be paid under this Lease from the due date for payment thereof until the same is fully paid and satisfied. Tenant will indemnify Landlord against all costs and charges (including legal fees) reasonably incurred in enforcing payment thereof, and in obtaining possession of the Premises after default of Tenant or upon expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, or in enforcing any covenant, proviso or agreement of Tenant contained in this Lease.

19.02 Right of Landlord to Perform Covenants All covenants and agreements to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be performed by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and without abatement of Rent. If Tenant fails to perform any act on its part to be performed under this Lease, and such failure continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord, Landlord may (but will not be obligated so to do) perform such act without waiving or releasing Tenant from any of its obligations relative thereto. All sums paid or costs incurred by Landlord in so performing such acts under this Article 19.02, together with interest thereon at the rate set out in Article 19.01 from the date each such payment was made or each such cost was incurred by Landlord, plus 20% of such costs for Landlord's administration and overhead, will be payable by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

19.03 Events of Default If and whenever:

(a) part or all of the Rent hereby reserved is not paid when due, whether lawfully demanded or not, and such default continues fifteen (15) days after notice by Landlord; or

(b) Tenant fails to observe, perform and keep each and every of the covenants, agreements, provisions, stipulations and conditions herein contained to be observed, performed and kept by Tenant (other than payment of Rent) and persists in such failure after thirty (30) days notice by Landlord specifying with reasonable particularity the nature of such failure and requiring that Tenant remedy, correct, desist or comply (or if any such breach would reasonably require more than thirty (30) days to rectify, unless Tenant commences rectification within the thirty (30) day notice period and thereafter promptly, effectively and continuously proceeds with the rectification of the breach to completion of rectification); or

(c) any goods, chattels or equipment of Tenant is taken or exigible in execution or in attachment or if a writ of execution is issued against Tenant; or

(d) Tenant becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy or becomes bankrupt or takes the benefit of any statute that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or becomes involved in voluntary or involuntary winding-up or dissolution or liquidation proceedings or if a receiver will be appointed for the business, property, affairs or revenues of Tenant; Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall provide Landlord with: (i) 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (i) hereof, to the extent Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action, (iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (iv) 5 business day prior written notice of the Tenant signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s); or

(e) any person other than Tenant or a Transferee permitted under this Lease has or exercises the right to manage or control the Premises, any part thereof or any business carried on in the Premises, other than subject to the actual, direct and full supervision and control of Tenant; or

(f) Tenant makes a bulk sale of its goods or moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its goods, chattels or equipment out of the Premises (other than in the normal course of its business) or Tenant ceases to conduct business from the Premises or the Premises are not open for business to the public on any three (3) consecutive days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises or on more than five (5) days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises in any twelve (12) month period; or

then and in any of such cases, at the option of Landlord, the full amount of the current month's and the next ensuing three (3) months instalments of Rent will immediately become due and payable together with all tenant allowance monies paid to Tenant or the value of other inducements given to Tenant (such as, but not limited to, rent-free periods) in accordance with the provisions of this Lease or any other agreement between Landlord and Tenant relating to the Premises (such allowances and inducements hereinafter referred to as "Tenant Inducements") and Landlord may immediately take legal proceedings for the same, together with any arrears then unpaid; and Landlord may without notice or any form of legal process forthwith re-enter upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and expel all Persons from the Premises and remove and sell or dispose of Tenant's goods, personal property and trade fixtures therefrom as Landlord sees fit, or store property such at the cost of Tenant, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding all without liability and loss or damage and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover arrears of Rent or damages for any antecedent default by Tenant of its obligations or agreements under this Lease or of any term or condition of this Lease, and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover from Tenant damages for loss of Rent suffered by reason of this Lease having been prematurely terminated. Any such sale may be effected in the discretion of Landlord by public auction or otherwise, and either in bulk or by individual item, or partly by one means and partly by another, all as Landlord in its entire discretion may decide. If any of Tenant's property is disposed of as provided in this Article 19.03, ten (10) days prior notice to Tenant of disposition will be deemed to be commercially reasonable.

19.04 Waiver of Exemption and Redemption Notwithstanding anything contained in any statute now or hereafter in force limiting or abrogating the right of distress, none of Tenant's goods, chattels or trade fixtures on the Premises at any time during the continuance of the Term will be exempt from levy by distress for Rent in arrears and upon any claim being made for such exemption by Tenant or on distress being made by Landlord this agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel against Tenant in any action brought to test the right to the levying upon any such goods as are named as exempted in any such statute, Tenant hereby waiving all and every benefit that could or might have accrued to Tenant under and by virtue of any such statute but for this Lease. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being evicted or dispossessed for any cause, or in the event of Landlord obtaining possession of the Premises, by reason of the violation by Tenant of any terms and conditions of this Lease or otherwise.

19.05 Surrender If and whenever Landlord is entitled to or does re-enter, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving notice thereof, and in such event Tenant will forthwith vacate and surrender the Premises.

19.06 Payments If Landlord re-enters or if this Lease is terminated, Tenant will pay to Landlord on demand:

(a) Rent up to the time of re-entry or termination, whichever will be the later, plus three (3) months' accelerated rent as herein provided; and

(b) all expenses incurred by Landlord in performing any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, re-entering or terminating and re-letting, collecting sums due or payable by Tenant, realizing upon assets seized (including brokerage, legal fees and disbursements), and the expense of keeping the Premises in good order, repairing the same and preparing them for re-letting; and

(c) as damages(subject to the Landlord's obligation to mitigate at law) for the loss of income of Landlord expected to be derived from the Premises, the amounts (if any) by which the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease exceeds the payments (if any) received by Landlord from other tenants in the Premises, payable on the first (1st) day of each month during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term had it not been terminated, or if elected by Landlord by notice to Tenant at or after re-entry or termination, a lump sum amount equal to the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease from the date of such election during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term, had it not been terminated, reduced by the rental value of the Premises for the same period, established by reference to the terms and conditions upon which Landlord re-lets them if such re-letting is accomplished within a reasonable period after termination, and otherwise established by reference to all market and other relevant circumstances; Rent and rental value being reduced to present worth at an assumed interest rate of ten percent (10%) on the basis of Landlord's estimates and assumptions of fact which will govern unless shown to be erroneous; and

(d) all Tenant Inducements given by Landlord to Tenant in respect of the Premises.

19.07 Remedies Cumulative No reference to nor exercise of any specific right or remedy by Landlord will prejudice or preclude Landlord from exercising or invoking any other remedy in respect thereof, whether allowed at law or expressly provided for in this Lease. No such remedy will be exclusive or dependent upon any other such remedy, but Landlord may from time to time exercise any one or more of such remedies independently or in combination.

19.08 Waiver In the event Tenant is in default in performing any of its obligations (including without limitation, the payment of any Rent), and Landlord shall have instituted proceedings to cancel, terminate or to confirm its cancellation or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall not have any right to prevent such cancellation or termination by remedying its default or defaults subsequent to the institution of such legal proceedings.

19.09 Intentionally deleted.

19.10 Additional Recourses If Tenant is in default to fulfill any of its obligations under this Lease and in particular its obligations pursuant to Articles 5.03, 5.10 and 18.02 of this Lease, then in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights or recourses of Landlord hereunder, Landlord may, at its option, obtain injunctive relief to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do, Tenant hereby expressly acknowledging and agreeing that this Article 19.10 constitutes a waiver against any defense to Landlord's application for injunctive relief made to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do.

19.11 Non-Waiver No condoning, excusing or over-looking by either party of any default by the other at any time in respect of any of its obligations shall operate as a waiver of Landlord's or Tenant's rights hereunder in respect of any such default or any subsequent default or so as to defeat or affect in any way the rights of Landlord or Tenant in respect of any such default or subsequent default. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by anything done or omitted to be done by Landlord or Tenant save only where such waiver is expressed in writing.

Without limiting the general application hereof, the acceptance of any sums of money, statements of account or reports that Tenant or Landlord must pay or provide pursuant to this Lease, shall not constitute a renunciation of the rights of Landlord or Tenant in virtue of theses presents.

19.12 Shopping Centre Assets Only the Shopping Centre assets and any property exclusively related thereto shall serve to satisfy the obligations of Landlord under this Lease or in virtue of any responsibility of Landlord resulting from its fault. Tenant recognizes and declares, without reserve, that any recourse by Tenant against Landlord based on, or in virtue of, this Lease or resulting from any fault of Landlord, shall be restricted and can only be executed against the Shopping Centre, to the exclusion of all other property belonging to Landlord.

19.13 Real Estate Investment Trust In the event that a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") should be at any time bound by the covenants of Landlord hereunder or incur any liability as Landlord hereunder, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease or at law, such covenants and liability hereunder and under all other agreements entered into pursuant hereto, if any, shall not be personally binding upon and resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse of satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the trustees of the REIT, unitholders of the REIT, annuitants under a plan of which the REIT or any unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the REIT or directors or officers of any of its nominees, although this provision shall not constitute a bar to any action against the REIT for specific performance of this Lease or performance of any obligation of the REIT arising from or in connection with its obligations, if any, under this Lease or other agreements entered into pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 20.00 Intentionally deleted.

ARTICLE 21.00 MISCELLANEOUS

21.01 Relationship of Parties Nothing contained in this Lease will create any relationship between parties to this Lease other than that of landlord and tenant, and it is acknowledged and agreed that Landlord does not in any way or for any purpose become a partner of Tenant in the conduct of its business, or a joint venturer or a member of a joint or common enterprise with Tenant.

21.02 Consent Not Unreasonably Withheld Except as otherwise specifically provided, whenever consent or approval of Landlord or Tenant is required under the terms of this Lease, such consent or approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant's sole remedy if Landlord unreasonably withholds or delays consent or approval will be an action for specific performance, and Landlord will not be liable for damages. If either party withholds any consent or approval, such party will on written request deliver to the other party a written statement giving the reasons therefor.

21.03 Applicable Law and Interpretation This Lease will be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located, and its provisions will be interpreted as a whole according to their common meaning and not strictly for or against Landlord or Tenant. The words "Landlord" and "Tenant" will include the plural as well as the singular. If this Lease is executed by more than one party as Tenant, Tenant's obligations under this Lease will be joint and several obligations of such executing parties. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions. The captions of the Articles are included for convenience only, and will have no effect upon the interpretation of this Lease.

Certain text in this Lease has been bolded and underlined and certain text has been deleted by way of a line through applicable text. Such bolding and underlining and lines through the applicable text have been used to identify changes to Landlord's standard form of lease for the Shopping Centre. All bolded and underlined text will be read as if not bolded and underlined and all text deleted by way of a line will be deemed not to exist.

21.04 Entire Agreement This Lease (together with any other agreement entered into by the Landlord, the Tenant and/or its or their affiliates in connection with this Lease) contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Lease and except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Lease, this Lease supersedes and revokes all previous negotiations, arrangements, letters of intent, offers to lease, lease proposals, brochures, agreements, representations, promises, warranties, understandings, and information conveyed, whether oral or in writing, between the parties hereto or their respective representatives or any other person purporting to represent Landlord or Tenant. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it has not relied upon any statement, representation, agreement or warranty except such as are expressly set out in this Lease.

21.05 Amendment or Modification Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, no amendment, modification, or supplement to this Lease will be valid or binding unless set out in writing and executed by the parties hereto in the same manner as the execution of this Lease.

21.06 Construed Covenants and Severability All of the provisions of this Lease are to be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words importing such covenants and agreements were used in each separate Article hereof. If any term, proviso, covenant or condition of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is to any extent held or rendered invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal it or its application will be considered separate and severable from this Lease to such extent and the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term, proviso, covenant or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is held invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal will not be affected thereby and will continue to be applicable and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

21.07 No Implied Surrender or Waiver No provisions of this Lease will be deemed to have been waived by Landlord unless such waiver is in writing signed by Landlord. Landlord's waiver of a breach of any term or condition of this Lease will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a breach, from having all the force and effect of any original breach. Landlord's receipt of Rent with knowledge of a breach by Tenant of any term or condition of this Lease will not be deemed a waiver of such breach. Landlord's failure to enforce against Tenant or any other tenant in the Shopping Centre any of the Rules and Regulations made under Article 14.00 will not be deemed a waiver of such Rules and Regulations. No act or thing done by Landlord, its agents or employees during the Term will be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept a surrender of the Premises will be valid, unless in writing signed by

Landlord. The delivery of keys to any of Landlord's agents or employees will not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises. No payment by Tenant, or receipt by Landlord, of a lesser amount than the Rent due under this Lease will be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated Rent, nor will any endorsement or statement on any cheque or any letter accompanying any cheque, or payment as Rent, be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such cheque or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Rent or pursue any other remedy available to Landlord.

21.08 Additional Costs Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Rent, upon written request therefore, any and all costs, including without limitation, costs of additional security, cleaning and legal costs, incurred by Landlord as a result of picketing, demonstration or other activity within the Shopping Centre which is initiated by members of any organization, including, without limitation, a trade union, and which is directed at Tenant, its contractors, subcontractors, suppliers or employees or at Tenant's operations in the Shopping Centre.

21.09 Successors Bound Except as otherwise specifically provided, the covenants terms and conditions contained in this Lease will apply to and bind the heirs, successors, executors, administrators and permitted assigns of the parties hereto.

21.10 Brokerage Commission Any brokerage commissions with respect to the present transaction shall be borne exclusively by Tenant and Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any and all claims for payment of commission with respect thereto, unless Landlord has given a specific written mandate to any broker or agent for the present transaction.

21.11 Confidentiality Tenant agrees to keep the terms and conditions of this Lease confidential. Any information pertaining to this Lease cannot be communicated or revealed to a third party without the written consent of Landlord whose refusal will be deemed reasonable if the information that would be communicated or revealed is of a financial nature. Tenant's failure to respect this Article 21.11 is acknowledged by Tenant to constitute a major prejudice to Landlord and also a default according to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

21.12 No Offer by Landlord Landlord will not be deemed to have made an offer to Tenant by preparing this Lease. No agreement respecting the Premises will arise or exist between the parties hereto except through the due execution of this Lease by both Tenant and Landlord. Upon execution and delivery by Tenant to Landlord, this Lease will be irrevocable by Tenant and open for acceptance by Landlord until 5:00 P.M. on the 60th day thereafter, and if not accepted by Landlord by then, may be withdrawn by Tenant by notice to Landlord at any time prior to its later acceptance by Landlord.

21.13 Time of Essence Time shall be of the essence of this Lease in respect to all of the agreements and obligations of Tenant and/or Landlord contained herein.

21.14 Force Majeure If any party hereto is bona fide delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any term, obligation or act required hereunder by reason of Force Majeure, then performance of such term, obligation or act is excused for the period during which the cause of the Force Majeure persists. Once the cause of this Force Majeure has ceased, the party so delayed shall perform such terms, obligations or acts within the time period stipulated in the Lease, without regard for such period of time during which the cause of the Force Majeure persisted.

21.15 Non-Smoking Shopping Centre The Shopping Centre is a non-smoking facility. Tenant, its employees, invitees, customers, and anyone for whom Tenant is responsible at law are strictly prohibited from smoking in any interior or exterior areas of the Shopping Centre, except those exterior areas designated by Landlord as designated smoking areas (if any). Tenant agrees that it will comply with the foregoing restriction as well as any applicable legislation regulating smoking in shopping centres.

21.16 Counterpart Execution This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement, effective when all counterparts have been signed. The parties hereto agree that this Lease may be signed either by paper signature or by electronic signature and may be delivered electronically (in .pdf format) or otherwise, and the parties accept any such electronic signatures as original signatures of the parties.

EXHIBIT D
RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Security Landlord may from time to time adopt appropriate systems and procedures for the security or safety of the Shopping Centre, any persons occupying, using or entering the same, or any equipment, finishings or contents thereof, and Tenant will comply with Landlord's reasonable requirements relative thereto.

2. Return of Keys At the end of the Term, Tenant will promptly return to Landlord all keys for the Shopping Centre and Premises which are in possession of Tenant.

3. Repair, Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements Tenant will carry out Tenant's repair, maintenance, alterations and improvements in the Premises only during times agreed to in advance by Landlord and in a manner which will not interfere with the rights of other tenants in the Shopping Centre.

4. Water Fixtures Tenant will not use water fixtures for any purpose for which they are not intended, nor will water be wasted by tampering with such fixtures. Any cost or damage resulting from such misuse by Tenant will be paid for by Tenant.

5. Personal Use of Premises The Premises will not be used or permitted to be used for residential, lodging or sleeping purposes or for the storage of personal effects or property not required for business purposes.

6. Heavy Articles and Overloading Services Tenant will not place in or move about the Premises, without Landlord's prior written consent, any safe or other heavy article which in Landlord's reasonable opinion may damage the Shopping Centre, and Landlord may designate the location of any heavy articles in the Premises. Tenant will not overload any utility or service in or serving the Premises or any part of the Shopping Centre.

7. Animals, Bicycles, Shopping Carts Tenant will not bring any animals or birds into the Shopping Centre, and will not permit bicycles or other vehicles inside or on the sidewalks outside the Shopping Centre except in areas designated from time to time by Landlord for such purposes. Tenant shall not permit shopping carts in the Common Areas and Facilities and shall be fully responsible for their removal and indemnify Landlord from any claim, loss, expense, damages or injuries caused by the shopping carts.

8. Deliveries Tenant will ensure that deliveries or shipments of supplies, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, wares and merchandise to or from the Premises are made only through such Delivery Facilities, entrances, elevators and corridors and at such times as may from time to time be designated by Landlord, and will promptly pay or cause to be paid to Landlord the cost of repairing any damage in the Shopping Centre caused by any person making such deliveries or shipments.

9. Solicitations Landlord reserves the right to restrict or prohibit canvassing, soliciting or peddling in the Shopping Centre.

10. Food, Beverages and Entertainment Only persons approved from time to time by Landlord may prepare, solicit orders for, sell, serve or distribute foods or beverages in the Shopping Centre, or use the elevators, corridors or Common Areas and Facilities for any such purposes. Except with Landlord's prior written consent and in accordance with arrangements approved in writing by Landlord, Tenant will not permit on the Premises the use of equipment for dispensing food or beverages or for the preparation, solicitation of orders for, sale, serving or distribution of food or beverages or for the selling or providing of any form of entertainment, including vending machines or other machines operated by coins or other devices.

11. Refuse Tenant will separate and place all refuse in proper receptacles provided by Tenant at its expense in the Premises or in receptacles in recycling stations (if any) provided for the Shopping Centre, and will keep sidewalks and driveways outside the Shopping Centre, and lobbies, corridors, stairwells, ducts and shafts of the Shopping Centre, free of all refuse.

12. Obstructions Tenant will not obstruct or place anything in or on the sidewalks or driveways outside the Shopping Centre or in the lobbies, corridors, stairwells or other Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre, or use such locations for any purpose except access to and exit from the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent. Landlord may remove at Tenant's expense any such obstruction or thing (unauthorized by Landlord) without notice or obligation to Tenant.

13. Dangerous, Immoral or Hazardous Activities Tenant will not make any use of the Premises which involves the danger of injury to any person, nor will same be used for any immoral purpose or to commit any act of waste or damage to any part of the Premises or to use any part of the Premises so as to constitute a hazard.

14. Proper Conduct Tenant will not conduct itself in any manner which is inconsistent with the character of the Shopping Centre as being of first quality or which will impair the comfort and convenience of other tenants in the Shopping Centre. Such prohibited conduct will include the playing of loud music and the placing of merchandise racks in the Common Areas and Facilities.

15. Parking Landlord, from time to time, may prohibit Tenant, Tenant's employees and Tenant's suppliers and others making deliveries to or receiving shipments from the Premises from parking anywhere within the Shopping Centre. If Landlord designates Tenant parking areas in the Shopping Centre, Tenant will park its vehicles and will cause its employees to park their vehicles only in such designated parking areas. Tenant will furnish Landlord, upon request, with the current licence numbers of all vehicles owned or used by Tenant or its employees and Tenant thereafter will notify Landlord of any changes in such numbers within five (5) days after the occurrence thereof. In the event of failure of Tenant or its employees to park their vehicles in such designated parking areas, Tenant will forthwith on demand pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the sum of $20.00 per day per each car so parked. Landlord reserves the right to impose reasonable charges upon any person (including the general public) for the use of any parking facilities which may from time to time form a part of the Shopping Centre.

16. Sustainability Tenant shall implement energy-efficient practices within the Premises, including closing all window shades, turning off any unnecessary lights and equipment after the close of business day.

Tenant will keep any exterior doors and windows to the Premises closed during the periods where there is a variation of three (3) degrees Celsius or more between indoor and outdoor temperatures.

Tenant will turn off interior mall signage and display window lighting half-an-hour after closing until half-an-hour before opening time the next day (the "After-Hours Period"), or as Landlord deems appropriate.

Tenant will limit After-Hours Period interior lighting to emergency lighting, when the Premises are not occupied.

Where Tenant has the ability to control its HVAC for the Premises, Tenant will adjust the HVAC temperature settings so as to limit the Premises' energy consumption during the After-Hours Period by setting back the temperature of the Premises by six (6) degrees Celsius from the daytime temperature setting.

Tenant will not use space heaters in or for the Premises, unless Tenant first obtains Landlord's written consent.

If Landlord leak tests for Tenant's plumbing fixtures reveal water leaks or other defects, Landlord will notify Tenant of such defects and Tenant will take all necessary actions to diligently remedy said effects.

Tenant will comply with Landlord's waste minimization and diversion rules and regulations, as established from time to time.

Tenant will make available an appropriate staff representative to attend Landlord's information and training sessions relating to Landlord's initiatives for improving the Shopping Centre's operational sustainability.

1.03 Shopping Centre: Southgate Centre

1.04 Area: 236,551 square feet

1.05 Term: A period of ten (10) years, beginning on the 3rd day of February, 2024, and expiring on the 2nd day of February, 2034, unless (a) extended by the Landlord pursuant to Section 3.01 hereof; or (b) terminated earlier as provided in this Lease.

1.06 Intentionally deleted.

1.07 Permitted Use of Premises: The Premises shall be used for the purposes of a department store operated in a manner consistent with the standards of other department stores operated by the Tenant that are located in the province of Alberta and shall not be used for any other purpose whatsoever.

1.08 Tenant's Store Name: HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY, HUDSON'S BAY, THE BAY or any other trade name used by the Tenant in a majority of its department stores in the province of Alberta. Tenant shall not operate its business under any other name or trade name without having first obtained Landlord's prior written consent.

1.09 Minimum Rent: An annual amount equal to $1.23 per square foot of the Area per annum, payable pursuant to Article 4.00.

1.10 Intentionally deleted.

1.11 Proportionate Share of Operating Costs: Tenant's Proportionate Share of Operating Costs shall for the 2024 Fiscal Year of the Term be $7.52 per square foot of the Area per annum. Said amount shall be payable and increased annually pursuant to Article 4.19.

1.12 Promotion Charge: For each Fiscal Year of the Term, a charge of $NIL per square foot of the Area per annum.

1.13 Tenant's Share of Taxes: Tenant shall pay the Tenant's Share of Taxes contribution to the Landlord as Additional Rent hereunder in an amount equal to the actual Taxes levied specifically against the Premises by the taxing Authority, as further detailed herein.

1.14 Demised Utilities: Tenant shall pay utilities in accordance with the terms and conditions of Article 7.00.

1.15 HVAC Costs/Charge for the Tenant: Tenant shall pay, for the 2024 Fiscal Year, an initial amount estimated to be $1.63 per square foot of the Area per annum. Said amount shall be payable and may be adjusted by the Landlord pursuant to Articles 4.19 and 7.02.

1.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.17 Intentionally deleted.

1.18 Definitions: In this Lease:

1.18.1 "Additional Rent" means all amounts (other than Minimum Rent) that Tenant is required to pay to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

1.18.2 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.3 "Area" means the area expressed in square feet of all floors of the Premises measured from the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows or those separating the Premises from any Common Areas and Facilities, and the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises. The Area includes all interior space whether or not occupied by projections, structures or columns, openings, shafts, structural or non-structural. If a store front, show window or other part of the Premises is recessed from or protrudes beyond the lease line shown on Exhibit A (whether such recess or protrusion is located at or above ground level), the area of such recess or protrusion will be included in the Area. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Area of the Premises as of the date hereof is the Area set out in Article 1.04 hereof.

1.18.4 "Architect" means the architect, engineer, land surveyor, designer or technician that Landlord names, as the case may be.

1.18.5 "Article" means an article of this Lease.

1.18.6 "Authority" or "Authorities" means the federal, provincial, and municipal governments, the courts, administrative and quasi-judicial boards and tribunals and any other organizations or entities with the lawful authority to regulate, or having a power or right conferred at law or by or under a statute over Landlord, Tenant, the Premises or the Shopping Centre, including the business carried on therein.

1.18.7 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.8 "Commencement Date" means the first day of the Term (effective as of 12:00am).

1.18.9 "Common Areas and Facilities" means all areas, services and facilities not installed or intended for the exclusive use or benefit of any individual tenant, including without limitation, all non-leasable areas, service and administrative areas (including, without limitation, administrative offices, janitorial rooms and storage rooms not reserved to any tenant exclusively), all parking areas, parking decks, roofs, roadways, sidewalks, landscaped areas, floor slabs, exterior walls and exterior and interior structural portions of any open or enclosed malls or other common means of access to leasable premises (excluding any structural mezzanines within any leasable premises), public lavatories, truck courts, common loading areas, driveways, music and public address systems, electrical, plumbing and drainage, fire protection, fire detection, heating, ventilation and/or air-conditioning systems or equipment servicing the Shopping Centre and/or more than one tenant, mall decorative or promotional installations, customer and service stairways, mall directories and directional signs, information booths, elevators, escalators and all other areas, services and facilities which Landlord provides or designates from time to time to be part of Common Areas and Facilities.

1.18.10 "Consumer Price Index" or "C.P.I." means the Consumer Price Index for all items excluding food in the Province of Alberta as issued by Statistics Canada or its successor, provided that if such Consumer Price Index is not available from Statistics Canada or its successor, Landlord may utilize for the purposes of this Lease any reasonable measure of changes in consumer price levels.

1.18.11 "Delivery Facilities" means those portions of the Common Areas and Facilities which are, from time to time, designated by Landlord as facilities to be used in common by Landlord, tenants of the Shopping Centre, and others, for purposes of loading, unloading, delivery, dispatch and holding of merchandise, goods and materials entering or leaving the Shopping Centre, and those portions of the Shopping Centre giving vehicular access to the said facilities.

1.18.12 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.13 "Environmental Law" means the statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority or of the common law which affect the Premises or Tenant's business, and which impose any obligations relating to the protection, conservation or restoration of the natural environment or to any contaminant, pollutant, dangerous substance, potentially dangerous substance, noxious substance, toxic substance, hazardous waste, flammable, explosive or radioactive material or any other substances or materials that are declared or defined to be hazardous, toxic, contaminants or pollutants in or pursuant to any applicable federal, provincial or municipal statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority.

1.18.14 "Fiscal Year" means a twelve (12) month period (all or part of which falls within the Term) from time to time determined by Landlord with the concurrence of the appropriate taxation authorities, at the end of which Landlord's books are balanced for auditing and/or taxation purposes.

1.18.15 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.17 "Force Majeure" means, if during the Term either party to this Lease will be unable to perform any of the terms, obligations, or conditions contained in this Lease due to strikes, walkouts (except for strikes or walkouts directly involving employees of Tenant), civil commotion, warlike operations, governmental regulations or controls, acts of God, pandemics, inability to procure materials or services, otherwise beyond the reasonable control of such party. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, nothing in this Force Majeure provision will relieve Tenant from payment of Rent as required in this Lease and insolvency or lack of funds will not relieve any party to this Lease from fulfillment of any obligation arising from any part of this Lease.

1.18.18 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.19 "Goods and Services Tax" or "GST" means all goods and services tax, value-added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST, QST or any other similar tax) howsoever characterized, which any taxing Authority imposes on Landlord and/or requires Landlord to collect on behalf of said taxing Authority, on any amount received or receivable by Landlord from Tenant under the terms of this Lease.

1.18.20 "Gross Leasable Area" means the total of all floor areas (measured in the manner stipulated in the definition of "Area") of all premises in the Shopping Centre intended for leasing from time to time, whether said premises directly access an enclosed mall or court or not, but excluding basement areas, mezzanines, storage areas, elevator and escalator shafts, areas of the Common Areas and Facilities leased or occupied on a temporary basis, areas not used for retail purposes such as, by way of example only, areas leased or occupied for non-retail purposes or promotional purposes and areas occupied by the Shopping Centre manager and any support staff.

1.18.21 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.22 "Hazardous Substance" means, whether or not controlled or regulated by Environmental Law, any solid, liquid, gas, odour, heat, sound, vibration or combination of them resulting directly or indirectly from human activities that may, if released into the environment, have an adverse effect on the natural environment or on people, property or the normal conduct of business, including without limitation, harmful moulds or other harmful airborne substances, flammables, explosives, radioactive materials, urea formaldehyde foam, asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), pollutants, contaminants, hazardous wastes, toxic substances or related materials, petroleum or petroleum products and substances declared to be hazardous or toxic under any law, by-law, regulation or ordinance now or hereafter enacted.

1.18.23 "HVAC Cost" means all the costs, charges and expenses in any Fiscal Year for the operation, repair, replacement and maintenance of the systems for heating, ventilating, and air conditioning the Shopping Centre and/or premises including the Premises as established by Landlord, from time to time, on a fair and equitable basis which reflects load and hours of operation provided, however, where Tenant pays an HVAC Charge for the Premises, or where Tenant maintains, repairs and replaces HVAC for the Premises at its cost, HVAC costs shall exclude the Premises.

1.18.24 "Interest Rate" means the Prime Rate in force when an amount becomes due, plus three (3) percentage points.

1.18.25 "Land" means all of the lands described in Exhibit B.

1.18.26 "Landlord" means the party first herein above described and includes its successors and assigns, and in articles that contain a release or other exculpatory provisions or an indemnity in favour of Landlord, including the officers, directors, employees and agents and contractors of Landlord, as well as any Person under Landlord's exclusive control.

1.18.27 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.28 "Lease" means this Lease, and the Exhibits annexed to this Lease described in Article 1.18.55 and every properly executed instrument which by its term amends, modifies or supplements this Lease.

"Exhibit F" means the sample Estoppel Certificate attached hereto as Exhibit F.

ARTICLE 2.00 GRANT OF LEASE

2.01 Grant Landlord hereby demises and leases the Premises to Tenant, and Tenant hereby leases and accepts the Premises from Landlord, to have and to hold during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.02 Quiet Enjoyment So long as Tenant performs its obligations under this Lease, Landlord will warrant and defend Tenant in the quiet enjoyment and possession of the Premises during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.03 Covenants of Landlord and Tenant Landlord covenants to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Landlord under this Lease. Tenant covenants to pay the Rent when due under this Lease, and to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Tenant under this Lease.

ARTICLE 3.00 TERM, POSSESSION AND TERMINATION OF ORIGINAL LEASE

3.01 Landlord's Option to Renew. Landlord has, exercisable at its sole and entire and unfettered discretion by giving at least 12 months' prior written notice to the Tenant, the right to renew this Lease for an additional period of five (5) years (the "Renewal Term") on the same terms and conditions as set out herein, save and except for the Minimum Rent, which shall be equal to the minimum/base rent that would have been payable under the Original Lease during this Renewal Term had the Original Lease not been terminated and continued during the period of this Renewal Term.

3.02 Intentionally deleted.

3.03 Acceptance of Premises and Tenant Acknowledgements The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that: (a) it originally occupied the Premises pursuant to the Original Lease, and as of the date hereof, it continues to be in possession of the Premises (which possession by the Tenant was in place prior to the date hereof pursuant to the Original Lease); (b) it has accepted the Premises in an entirely "as is where is" condition basis without any representation, warranty or obligation on the part of the Landlord to perform any work or construct any leasehold or other improvements in the Premises or the Shopping Centre in connection with the Tenant's intended use thereof; (c) the continued possession of all or any portion of the Premises by the Tenant is conclusive evidence as against the Tenant that the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition as of the date hereof, (d) it is solely responsible (at its sole cost and expense and without any reimbursement from or contribution by the Landlord) for all improvements, fixtures, chattels or other personal property currently existing or which in the future may exist or may be required in, on or around the Premises and needed, required or used by the Tenant for the operation of its business from the Premises, and (e) it does not have any right of first refusal, right of first opportunity, option to purchase or any other right to acquire any interest or real property right in all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

3.04 Limitation on Length of Term This Lease is entered into subject to the express condition that it is to be effective to create any interest in land only if the provisions of any statute are complied with relating to the severance of land or interests in land by conveyance or otherwise (as it may from time to time be amended). Landlord and Tenant agree, as a separate and distinct agreement, that if pursuant to any statute consent is requisite to the validity of this Lease, either party may apply for such consent and until unconditional consent has been obtained, the Term of this Lease or any renewal thereof will not extend beyond the period permitted without consent pursuant to any such statute, with no further right on the part of Tenant to extend the term, notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease.

3.05 Termination of Original Lease Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that the Original Lease is surrendered and terminated effective on 11:59pm on the date immediately preceding the Commencement Date (the "Termination Date"). The respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant with respect to the Premises and the Original Lease will be preserved and will survive the Termination Date, as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Termination Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to the Original Lease on or after the Termination Date. Any breach of the Original Lease which has not been cured will, after the Termination Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Original Lease. Tenant represents, warrants and covenants with Landlord that Tenant has the absolute right, full power and authority to agree to the termination of the Original Lease as provided herein.

3.05(A) Reinstatement of Original Lease.

Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that if at November 13, 2028 (the "Original Lease Reinstatement Date") no Event (as such term is hereinafter defined) has occurred or is continuing, and there is not then any monetary default occurring of the Tenant's obligations under this Lease, failing which this provision shall not apply and be null and void (and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect without any obligation to enter into the Reinstated Original Lease), then the parties shall execute and deliver to one another the Reinstated Original Lease (as defined below) which shall provide and confirm that effective upon the Original Lease Reinstatement Date: (1) this Lease shall be resolved, cancelled, surrendered and rescinded; and (2) the termination of the Original Lease shall be deemed to have been revoked and, except as expressly modified pursuant to this provision, the Original Lease shall be reinstated in its entirety effective as of the Original Lease Reinstatement Date and shall again be in full force and effect as if the same had never been terminated. However, the respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant as to the Premises under this Lease will be preserved and will survive the termination of this Lease on the Original Lease Reinstatement Date as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to this Lease on or after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date (given the Reinstated Original Lease will thereafter govern this tenancy). Any breach of this Lease which has not been cured will, after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of this Lease.

"Event" means the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) Tenant (or any of its affiliates) defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under this Lease or any HBC IC Lease (as hereinafter defined); or

(2) Tenant (a) is insolvent, (b) has committed an act of bankruptcy, including but not limited to as defined at Section 42(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, and/or (c) has become bankrupt.

"HBC IC Lease" means any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties:

(i) Galeries D'Anjou;

(ii) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(iii) Outlet Collection at Niagara on the Lake;

(iv) Mapleview;

(v) Guildford;

(vi) Oshawa;

(vii) CrossIron Mills;

(viii) St. Foy;

(ix) Outlet collection Winnipeg; or

(x) Vaughan Mills.

"Reinstated Original Lease" means the Original Lease but reinstated and amended only to provide that the Term of the reinstated Original Lease shall commence on the Original Lease Reinstatement Date and end upon February 2, 2034, provided, Tenant shall continue to have the right to renew of four (4) options of ten (10) years each and one (1) option of two (2) years, it being understood that the Term of this Lease cannot go beyond February 2, 2076, all on the terms and conditions set out therein (inclusive of the calculation of minimum rent).

Landlord shall prepare the form of Reinstated Original Lease and the parties shall forthwith thereafter execute and deliver same to the other, each at its sole expense. In addition, Tenant shall execute such other documents contemplated in Section 3.05 hereof for the discharge of any registered documents relating to this Lease for which Section 3.05 shall equally apply in this context, mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 4.00 RENT

4.01 Minimum Rent Tenant will pay to Landlord a Minimum Rent for the Premises described in Article 1.09 of this Lease, payable in advance in equal and consecutive monthly instalments and without notice on the Commencement Date and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter during the Term.

4.02 Intentionally deleted.

4.03 Intentionally deleted.

4.04 Intentionally deleted.

4.05 Net Lease It is the stated purpose and intent of Landlord and Tenant that, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Lease will be fully net to Landlord. Tenant will pay to Landlord, at the times and in the manner provided in Articles 4.07 and 4.09, its Proportionate Share of Operating Costs and Taxes.

4.06 Calculation and Payment of Operating Costs

(a) Tenant will pay the amounts stipulated in Article 1.11 to Landlord in monthly instalments equal to one-twelfth of such annual rate simultaneously with Tenant's payments of Minimum Rent during such Fiscal Year.

(b) If the Term commences after the beginning of or terminates before the end of a Fiscal Year, the amount of Operating Costs payable by Tenant for such Fiscal Year will be adjusted proportionately.

4.07 Intentionally deleted.

4.08 Taxes Payable by Tenant The Tenant shall be responsible for the payment of all Taxes imposed from time to time during the Term in respect of the Premises, including in each case the value of any Common Areas and Facilities which is included by the assessing authorities in the value of the Premises and the business operated therefrom and all the improvements constructed thereon and all the fixtures and equipment constructed and used by Tenant and its assignees, sublicensees and concessionaires. For certainty, Tenant shall pay the Tenant's Share of Taxes contribution to the Landlord as Additional Rent hereunder in an amount equal to the actual Taxes levied specifically against the Premises by the taxing Authority, provided that if the Premises are not taxed on a separate basis, then in an amount determined by the Landlord, acting reasonably and equitably, on the basis of the notes and working papers of the assessment Authority (or its successor) made readily available to the Landlord, and provided further that if such notes and working papers are not readily available to the Landlord or they do not contain sufficient information to determine the Taxes applicable specifically to the Premises, then Tenant shall pay its Proportionate Share of all Taxes payable in respect of the Shopping Centre. The parties acknowledge and agree that as of the Commencement Date, the notes and working papers of the assessment authority are readily available to the Landlord and contain sufficient information to determine the Taxes applicable specifically to the Premises.

Tenant shall reimburse Landlord that part of any increase in Taxes for the Shopping Centre, which is reasonably attributable to any change, addition or improvement or special equipment identified by an assessment Authority made on or in the Premises by Tenant. In such event, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the total amount of said Tax increase attributable to Tenant within 30 days of receipt of an invoice from Landlord, said amount to be deemed Additional Rent.

For greater certainty, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any and all goods and services tax, value added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST or any other similar tax) ("Value Added Taxes"), it being the intention of the parties that Landlord shall collect from Tenant all Value Added Taxes collectable by Landlord on the Rent and any other amounts payable by Tenant under this Lease. The amount of such Value Added Taxes so payable by Tenant shall be calculated by Landlord in accordance with the applicable legislation and shall be paid to Landlord at the same time as the amount to which such Value Added Taxes apply are payable to Landlord under the terms of this Lease. The amount payable by Tenant under this provision shall be deemed not to be additional rent, but Landlord shall have all of the same remedies for and rights of recovery of such amount as it has for recovery of Rent under this Lease.

The Landlord may appeal any official assessment or the amount of any Taxes or business taxes (including other taxes capable of constituting a lien) relating to the Shopping Centre including the improvements (including fixtures and equipment) thereon, and the Tenant may appeal any official assessment or any Taxes or business taxes relating to the Premises including the improvements thereon or, where the Tenant's obligations are directly or indirectly affected thereby, relating to any other portion of the Shopping Centre including the Common Area and Facilities. Neither the Landlord nor the Tenant shall institute any appeal without notice to the other and, where their interests do not conflict and in particular where the appeal is being made in order to achieve a re-assessment which is consistent with the basis contemplated by this Lease, each shall extend its co-operation and assistance to the other in respect to such appeal.

4.09 Changes in Taxes If the system of real estate taxation is altered or varied from that in force on the Commencement Date and any new tax shall be levied or imposed on all or part of the Shopping Centre and/or the revenues therefrom and/or on Landlord in substitution for or in addition to previously existing Taxes by any taxing Authority, whether or not the taxing Authority has previously charged any Taxes, then any such new tax or levy shall be included in Taxes, or if by law, regulation or otherwise all or any part of any Taxes, is made payable by Landlord or if the mode of collecting such tax, assessment, local improvement, licence fee, excise or other charge is so altered so as to make Landlord liable in whole or in part therefor instead of Tenant or if all or any part of Tenant's Taxes under Article 8.01 is imposed, levied, assessed or charged upon or on account of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will pay to Landlord, from time to time, within 30 days after demand, the amount payable by Landlord, from time to time, as a result of such change as determined by Landlord in the same manner as the Proportionate Share of Taxes is payable under the terms of this Lease and Tenant will indemnify and save Landlord harmless from any cost or expense in respect thereof. For greater certainty, to the extent that the new tax or levy is fully recoverable by Tenant as an input tax credit or refund, such Tax shall be fully payable by Tenant notwithstanding the proportionate sharing of other Taxes hereunder.

4.10 Intentionally deleted.

4.11 Promotion Fund Landlord may establish and maintain a common Promotion Fund for the Shopping Centre or continue to maintain any Promotion Fund in existence as of the Commencement Date of this Lease. Landlord will use the Promotion Fund for the promotion or benefit of the Shopping Centre in such a manner and as Landlord may, from time to time, decide and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord may utilize the Promotion Fund for payment of a full-time or part-time marketing director, the employment of other promotional staff and customer service, the purchase of advertising space and time, materials or equipment for decorating and promotional events and activities similar to those undertaken by other shopping centres. Any surplus in the Promotion Fund at the end of a Fiscal Year of the Promotion Fund will be carried forward for like purposes in the next year, without any reduction in the amount payable by Tenant pursuant to this Article 4.11. Landlord may, at its sole discretion, establish a Promotion Fund advisory committee comprised of representatives of the tenants of the Shopping Centre chosen by Landlord to advise Landlord on the application of the Promotion Fund contributions.

If there is a Promotion Fund for the Shopping Centre, Tenant will pay to Landlord in equal monthly instalments, the amount stipulated in Articles 1.12, towards the Promotion Fund, and may include the development of a mall video network, offering a program of information, entertainment and advertisements, and for the promotion of the Shopping Centre.

Landlord will have the right at its discretion to change the Fiscal Year of the Promotion Fund as it may deem appropriate, from time to time.

4.12 Intentionally deleted.

4.13 Landlord's Promotions Landlord may promote and advertise the Shopping Centre in a manner and to the extent that would a diligent and prudent owner of a similar shopping centre, taking into account the nature, size, age, character and location of the Shopping Centre as well as the general image that Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre from time to time. Tenant agrees that Landlord will never be obliged to spend more than the total amount paid to the Promotion Fund described in Article 1.12 by the tenants of the Shopping Centre in any Fiscal Year in order to fulfill its obligations hereunder. Landlord shall alone administer the Promotion Fund.

Landlord's promotional activities may include, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the production and distribution of written advertising or promotional materials and/or audio and/or audio visual promotions by the various media (radio and television) and/or internet and/or seasonal decorations and/or all other forms of promotion or publicity in relation to the Shopping Centre alone or on a joint basis with one or more other shopping centres or properties of which Landlord is owner or manager. Tenant agrees to give its complete support and cooperation to all of Landlord's promotional activities. Without limitation, Tenant will honour any discount coupons, gift certificates, gift cards, electronic gift cards or other incentives given to customers as part of any promotional activity.

Landlord may designate an agent to promote and/or advertise on its behalf, to enter into any agreements with third parties for promotion and/or advertising purposes, and may use all or any part of the Promotion Fund contributions to pay or remunerate its agent.

4.14 Intentionally deleted.

4.15 Intentionally deleted.

4.16 Tenant's Support t Tenant will support all promotional events, functions and activities sponsored or participated in by either the Promotion Fund, if any. In order to comply with this obligation, however, Tenant will not be required to make any additional financial contributions toward the promotion of the Shopping Centre other than those set out in Article 4.11.

4.17 Payment of Rent – General l During the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay Minimum Rent and Additional Rent to Landlord in the manner provided in this Lease or if not so provided, as reasonably required by Landlord. All amounts payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease will be deemed to be Rent and will be payable and recoverable as Rent in the manner herein provided, and Landlord will have all rights and recourses against Tenant for default in any such payment as in the case of arrears of Rent. Rent will be paid to Landlord, without deduction or set-off, in legal tender of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located. If and to the extent Landlord so requires, Rent will be paid to Landlord, at Tenant's expense, by electronic funds transfer system or similar system whereby Tenant will authorize its bank, trust company, credit union or other financial institution to credit Landlord's bank account each month in an amount equal to the monthly Rent payable pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, otherwise, Rent will be paid to Landlord at the address of Landlord as set forth in the beginning of this Lease, or to such other Person or at such other address as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing.

Where Tenant makes payments of Rent by an electronic funds transfer system, Tenant shall notify Landlord by e-mail of the date of said electronic payment.

4.18 Rent – Adjustment for Partial Months If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the Commencement Date will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the Commencement Date to the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs (both the Commencement Date and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365. If the Term ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the first (1st) day of the last calendar month of the Term will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the first (1st) day of such last calendar month to the last day of the Term (both the first (1st) and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365.

4.19 Charge Adjustment Wherever it is mentioned in this Lease that Landlord may increase any amount or charge, the following rules may apply if required by the Landlord: (a) each permitted increase of any such amount or charge shall come into force as of the date indicated in Landlord's notice and shall remain in effect until the subsequent increase comes into effect; (b) each permitted increase of any such amount or charge may, at Landlord's option, be charged retroactively; (c) each time any such amount or charge increases, the amount or charge shall be deemed to be replaced by the increased amount or increased charge; (d) any such amount or charge that may be payable during any Fiscal Year shall never be less than the amount or charge so payable during the immediately preceding Fiscal Year; (e) the fact that no annual increase was imposed for any preceding Fiscal Year or such other period, or the fact that an amount less than the full amount of any permitted increase was charged, shall not prevent Landlord, in any manner whatsoever, from imposing the full amount of any annual increase, or any part thereof, during any subsequent Fiscal Year; and (f) the annual increase that Landlord shall be permitted to charge for Operating Costs shall be calculated by multiplying the amount or charge presently in force by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the C.P.I. for the month of May of the current Fiscal Year in question and the denominator of which shall be the C.P.I. for the month of May for the immediately preceding Fiscal Year. For clarity Operating Costs are adjusted annually at the beginning of June.

ARTICLE 5.00 USE OF PREMISES

5.01 Use and Business Name The Premises will be used and occupied only for the purposes described in Article 1.07; nothing in this Article 5.01 shall create or be deemed to create an exclusivity in favour of Tenant.

The business of Tenant in the Premises will be carried on under the name and style described in Article 1.08 and under no other name and style unless approved by Landlord in writing.

5.02 Hours of Business During the Term of this Lease, Tenant will conduct its business in the Premises on such days and during such hours as is required, from time to time, by Landlord unless prevented from so doing by any Authority, however, nothing herein shall require the Premises or portions thereof to be open during hours other than those which have been generally established by the Tenant for the operation of its similar stores in the province of Alberta. Tenant shall abide by all rules and regulations now or subsequently in force to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms of this Lease and are applied to Tenant in a non-discriminatory manner.

In the event Tenant fails to conduct its business in accordance with this Article 5.02 then Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.02.

5.03 Continuous Operations Tenant acknowledges that it forms part of an over-all merchandising mix designed to enhance the character, quality, image and reputation of the Shopping Centre, and that its continuous operation of the Premises is essential to Landlord to maintain that character, quality, image, nature and reputation and to facilitate the leasing of vacant space and renewing leases of existing tenants. Tenant therefore, provided the Landlord is operating the Shopping Centre in accordance with the Lease in all material respects, covenants and agrees that throughout the Term it will continuously occupy and operate in the entire Premises, comply strictly with the provisions of Article 5.02 and not vacate or abandon the Premises at any time during the Term. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is executing this Lease in reliance thereupon and that the same is a material element inducing Landlord to execute this Lease. Tenant further agrees that if it vacates or abandons the Premises or it fails to so conduct its business therein, or uses or permits or suffers the use of the Premises for any purpose not specifically herein authorized and allowed, Tenant will be in breach of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and shall have caused Landlord a grave and serious prejudice, and then, without constituting a waiver of Tenant's obligations or limiting Landlord's remedies under this Lease and at law, all Rent reserved in this Lease will immediately become due and payable to Landlord unless guaranteed to the satisfaction of Landlord. Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.03.

5.04 Restrictions on Use & Occupancy

(a) Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not advertise, do, omit, permit or suffer to be done or exist upon the Premises anything which will be or result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

(b) Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any mail order or catalogue enterprise; (iii) any enterprise for the purpose of taking telephone orders; (iv) a store conducted principally or in part for the sale of second hand goods or apparel, war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (v) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire, and only for a period of 30 days immediately following the reopening after such fire; (vi) a store conducted, promoted and/or represented in whole or substantially as a discount operation or in part as a discount operation so as to give the impression that it is being conducted principally as a discount operation; (vii) a pawn shop; (viii) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (ix) an auction sale; and (x) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre.

(c) Tenant shall not conduct on the Premises any "distress sale", "bankruptcy sale", "going out of business sale", "liquidation sale" or "fire sale" except as expressly provided above nor any other type of sale designed to convey to the public that business operations are to be discontinued or that the store shall close, Tenant shall only sell merchandise in the regular course of trade as a retailer operating the Premises for the purpose for which the Premises are leased.

(d) Intentionally deleted.

(e) Tenant shall not use the Common Areas and Facilities for any reason whatsoever without the prior written approval of Landlord. Tenant will not place or keep any merchandise or other thing beyond the permanent floor mounted storefront or closure of the Premises or in the Common Areas and Facilities.

(f) Intentionally deleted.

5.05 Intentionally deleted.

5.06 Display Windows Tenant will keep display windows (if any) neatly dressed. Display windows and lighted signs (if any) will be kept illuminated by Tenant on all business days until at least one half hour after the Shopping Centre closes for business.

5.07 Compliance with Laws The Premises will be used and occupied in a safe, careful and proper manner so as not to contravene any present or future governmental or quasi-governmental laws in force or regulations or orders including, without limitation, all Environmental Law. If, due solely to Tenant's use of the Premises, improvements are necessary to comply with any of the foregoing or with the requirements of insurance carriers, Tenant shall execute same and will pay the entire cost thereof. Unless otherwise directed by Landlord, Tenant will obtain and comply with the terms of all licences, certificates of approval, permits and other approvals necessary or appropriate under applicable laws (inclusive of Environmental Law) for the safe and lawful conduct of its business at or from the Premises.

5.08 Nuisance Tenant will not cause or maintain any nuisance or hazard in or about the Premises and will keep the Premises free of debris, trash, rodents, vermin and anything of a dangerous, noxious or offensive nature or which could create a fire hazard (through undue load on electrical circuits or otherwise) or undue vibration, heat or any unusual or objectionable noises or odours or anything which may disturb the enjoyment of the Shopping Centre and all the Common Areas and Facilities thereof by customers and other tenants of the Shopping Centre, nor will Tenant allow any noise, sound or music in the Premises to be heard in the Common Areas and Facilities or neighbouring premises.

5.09 Advertising, Trade Names and Restricted Marks

(a) In its advertising, Tenant will use the name of the Shopping Centre, such trade names, symbols and slogans as may be designated by Landlord but Tenant will not indulge in any advertising or sales promotion which is undignified or not in conformity with the highest standards of practice among stores dealing in similar merchandise or might harm or tend to harm the business reputation of Landlord or reflect unfavourably on the Shopping Centre, or might confuse or mislead or tend to confuse or mislead the public. Tenant will not sell, advertise, conduct or solicit business anywhere within the Shopping Centre other than in the Premises.

(b) The name for the Shopping Centre which Landlord may from time to time adopt and every name or mark adopted by Landlord in connection with the Shopping Centre will be used by Tenant only in association with sales made at or from and the business carried on in the Premises during the Term and Tenant's use thereof will be subject to such regulations as Landlord may from time to time impose. Tenant will not acquire any rights in any such restricted name or mark, and upon the termination of this Lease all its interest herein will be deemed to have been surrendered to Landlord and Tenant will thereafter cease and abandon all use thereof. If Landlord so requests, Tenant will execute registered user applications or agreements or both to protect Landlord's trade mark rights.

5.10 Intentionally deleted.

5.11 Loading and Delivery The delivery and shipping of merchandise, supplies, fixtures, and other materials or goods of whatsoever nature to or from the Premises and all loading, unloading, and handling of it will be done only at the times, in the areas, by the means, and through the elevators, entrances, malls, and corridors as are designated by Landlord. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will not use or permit any elevators, entrances, malls, corridors or other parts of the Common Areas and Facilities to be used as temporary storage area or areas by Tenant, any of Tenant's employees or suppliers or others when making deliveries to or shipments from the Premises or any permitted storage area of Tenant.

Landlord accepts no liability and is hereby relieved and released by Tenant in respect of the operation of the Delivery Facilities, or the adequacy of them, or of the acts or omissions of any Person or Persons engaged in the operation of them, or in the acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch of any goods for or on behalf of Tenant, or for any claim of Tenant by reason of damage, loss, theft, or acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch, failure of any acceptance, holding, handling or dispatch, or any error, negligence or delay.

Landlord may, from time to time, make and amend regulations for the orderly and efficient operation of the Delivery Facilities, and may require the payment of reasonable and equitable charges for delivery services and removal provided by Landlord.

ARTICLE 6.00 SERVICES, MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS BY LANDLORD

6.01 Operation of Shopping Centre Landlord shall operate the Shopping Centre and maintain the Common Areas and Facilities as would a prudent and diligent owner of a similar shopping centre, having regard to the Shopping Centre's size, age, nature, location and region where the Shopping Centre is situated, as well as the type of clientele the Shopping Centre services and the general image Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre, all as determined by the Landlord in its sole discretion.

6.02 Services Landlord will provide in the Shopping Centre except where Tenant shall do so pursuant to this Lease:

(a) domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water and necessary supplies in common washrooms sufficient for the normal use thereof; and

(b) heat, ventilation, air conditioning, lighting, electric power, domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water, steam, natural gas and chilled water, in the Common Areas and Facilities (where appropriate).

6.03 Maintenance, Repair and Replacement Subject to the provisions of Article 7.01(b), Landlord will operate, maintain, repair and replace the systems, facilities and equipment necessary for the proper operation of the Shopping Centre and for provision of Landlord's services under Article 6.02 except as such may be installed by or be the property of Tenant or others (excluding Landlord) or both and except for the heating, ventilating and air conditioning equipment, elevators, escalators and other systems, facilities, machinery and equipment installed within or for the Premises, and will expeditiously maintain and repair the foundations, structure and roof of the Shopping Centre (excluding the Premises), provided that:

(a) if all or part of such systems, facilities and equipment are destroyed, damaged or impaired, Landlord will have a reasonable time in which to complete the necessary repair or replacement, and during that time will be required only to maintain such services as are reasonably possible in the circumstances;

(b) Landlord may temporarily discontinue such services or any of them at such times as may be necessary due to causes (except lack of funds) beyond the reasonable control of Landlord;

(c) Landlord will use reasonable diligence in carrying out its obligations under this Article 6.03, but will not be liable under any circumstances for any consequential damage to any Person (including without limitation, Tenant) or any property for any failure to do so;

(d) no reduction or discontinuance of such services under clauses (a) or (b) of this Article 6.03 will constitute as an eviction of Tenant or (except as specifically provided in this Lease) release Tenant from any obligation of Tenant under this Lease; and

(e) nothing contained herein will derogate from the provisions of Articles 7.02. 7.03 10.01, 16.01, Erreur ! Source du renvoi introuvable., Erreur ! Source du renvoi introuvable., or Erreur ! Source du renvoi introuvable. and in no event shall Landlord be required to make any repairs or replacements which are necessary as a result of Tenant's default, negligence or willful misconduct..

6.04 Alterations by Landlord Landlord may, at any time prior to or during the Term, subject to Article 6.06: (i) change the area, level, location, arrangement or use of any portion of the Shopping Centre; (ii) construct on the Site or on adjacent lands, other buildings, structures or improvements and make alterations, additions, subtractions or rearrangements; (iii) modify, alter, expand, reduce or eliminate any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities; (iv) close off all or any part of the Shopping Centre and/or temporarily suspend services for the purpose of maintenance, repair, alteration or construction; (v) place any installations within or on any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities including without limitation, kiosks, planters, benches, promotional displays or activities and any other installations; (vi) close all or part of the Shopping Centre to the public outside of regular business hours, Sundays and holidays included; (vii) restrict areas on the Site available for employee parking, and/or prohibit employees from parking anywhere on the Site; (viii) impose reasonable charges for parking, and impose restrictions on refunds or compensations by Tenant to Persons using the parking areas; (ix) modify tenant mix, both with respect to kinds of uses which may be made of premises, as well as to changes in the physical location of any one or more tenants; (x) do and perform such other acts in relation to the Shopping Centre for the more efficient and proper operation of the Shopping Centre as Landlord determines to be advisable; (xi) change the name of the Shopping Centre; (xii) do all work required to install new, and/or maintain, adapt, repair or replace existing utility lines, pipes, roof drainage pipes, conduits, wires, duct work, columns and other matters through any part of the Premises if necessary and do any other work in the Premises to preserve, support or reinforce any structural walls or foundations of the Premises or the Shopping Centre, and do such work as may be required for an expansion or an alteration of all or part of the Shopping Centre.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, it is understood and agreed that if the Shopping Centre, the Site and/or the Common Areas and Facilities are diminished or altered in any manner whatsoever as a result of the exercise by Landlord of its rights set out in this Article 6.04, Landlord is not subject to any liability nor is Tenant entitled to any compensation or diminution or abatement of Rent, nor is any alteration or diminution thereof deemed to constitute constructive or actual eviction, or a breach of any covenant for quiet enjoyment contained in this Lease. Landlord and Tenant further agree that the exercise by Landlord of its rights under this Article 6.04 will not relieve Tenant of Tenant's obligations under Article 5.03 of this Lease.

The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that the Landlord has not granted to the Tenant and neither the Tenant or the Premises has the benefit of any merchandising controls, exclusivity rights, use restrictions, no-build zones, minimum parking ratio requirements, or minimum stall number requirements, or any other restrictions, restrictive covenants or approval rights applicable to the Site; the Shopping Centre or any part(s) thereof or any other lands abutting thereto or in the vicinity thereof ("Additional Lands") which the Landlord or any of its affiliates may have an interest in, including without limitation and for certainty anything that would otherwise restrict, limit, delay or otherwise interfere with the Landlord's (or its affiliate's) ability to lease, use, convey, alter, develop and/or redevelop all or any part of the Shopping Centre, the Site or any such Additional Lands. The Tenant hereby confirms that any of the forgoing that the Tenant was entitled to or that were granted in or in connection with the Original Lease, its occupancy of the Premises or otherwise have been expressly waived by the Tenant, have terminated and have ceased to have any force or effect. The Tenant covenants and agrees: (a) not to oppose (and hereby irrevocably waives all rights to oppose) the exercise of the Landlord's rights under this Section 6.04 or otherwise pursuant to this Lease in this regard, including, in respect of any rezoning matters, variance applications, restrictive covenants, site plans, subdivisions, easements, transfers, dedications, permits or approvals and other similar requirements in connection therewith (hereinafter "Rezoning Matters"); and (b) agrees to cooperate with Landlord (at no cost or expense to the Tenant) to the extent reasonably required, including, without limitation, granting any partial discharges of its caveat and executing any consents, documents and instruments reasonably requested by the Landlord in furtherance of any Rezoning Matters.

6.05 Intentionally deleted.Access by Landlord Tenant will permit Landlord to enter the Premises outside of normal business hours, and during normal business hours where such will not unreasonably disturb or interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises and operation of its business, to examine, inspect and show the Premises to persons wishing to lease them, to provide services or make repairs, replacements, changes or alterations as set out in this Lease, and to take such steps as Landlord may deem necessary for the safety, improvement or preservation of the Premises or the Shopping Centre. Landlord will whenever possible, save in the event of emergency, consult with or give reasonable notice to Tenant prior to such entry, but no such entry will constitute an eviction or entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

6.07 Energy, Conservation and Security Policies Landlord will be deemed to have observed and performed the terms and conditions to be performed by Landlord under this Lease, including those relating to the provision of utilities and services, if in so doing it acts in accordance with a directive, policy or request of a governmental or quasi-governmental authority serving the public interest in the fields of energy, conservation or security.

6.08 Sustainable Operation of Shopping Centre Tenant acknowledges Landlord's intention, to operate its Shopping Centre in a manner so as to provide for:

(a) reduced energy and water consumption;

(b) the use of renewable energy and recycled water;

(c) the facilitation of alternate transportation for customers of the Shopping Centre;

(d) the use of non-toxic, low-impact cleaning and pest control and other products in the operation and maintenance of the Shopping Centre;

(e) a healthy indoor environment;

(f) installation and use of sustainable materials, furniture, equipment and improvements within the Shopping Centre; and

(g) the recycling and diversion of operational waste from landfill generated from the activities of tenants, licensees, and customers of the Shopping Centre, and Landlord intends to operate, manage and maintain the Shopping Centre so as to obtain and/or maintain any green building certifications, accreditations or ratings.

ARTICLE 7.00 DEMISED UTILITIES, SERVICES, MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS BY TENANT

7.01 Demised Utilities

(a) Subject to Article 7.01(b), during the Term, Tenant will provide in the Premises at its own expense heat, ventilation, air-conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam and other utilities and services. Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall promptly pay (but in any event no later than the due date) the cost of water consumption, electricity, gas, steam, telephone, and other utilities used or consumed in or from the Premises directly to the supplier of such services where separately metered or as Landlord may direct.

(b) If heat, ventilation, air conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam or any other utility or service is provided by Landlord, but is not metered or is supplied to the Premises through meters common to a group of tenants in the Shopping Centre, Landlord will pay the cost thereof and apportion such cost as may reasonably be determined by Landlord among the tenants utilizing the utility or service or supplied through such common meters, (provided that if Landlord will from time to time reasonably determine that the use of any such utility or service in the Premises is disproportionate to the use of other tenants, Landlord may adjust Tenant's share of the cost thereof from a date reasonably determined by Landlord to take equitable account of the disproportionate use) and Tenant will reimburse Landlord the amount of its share of such cost.

(c) Intentionally deleted.

(d) If a separate or a check meter exists, Tenant shall then pay for its consumption to Landlord as measured by the Premises check meter and in accordance with the rates of Landlord's supplier.

(e) If at any time, any utility serving the Premises, whose consumption rate was measured by separate or check meter, ceases to be measured by separate or check meter for any reason whatsoever, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a charge calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) above.

(f) Notwithstanding Article 7.00 of this Lease, at Landlord's option, Landlord may, at any time or times during the Term, purchase in bulk from the utility supplier the aggregate electrical energy requirements of the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof, in which event Landlord may arrange for the supply of electricity to the Premises for the general electrical purposes of Tenant. In such case, Tenant will pay to Landlord on a monthly basis, in advance, with annual adjustment at the end of each Fiscal Year, a charge for supplying electricity to the Premises as determined by Landlord on the basis of Tenant's consumption.

(g) Where the Premises are metered directly by a utility company or supplier for electricity, gas, water, or steam consumption, Tenant will provide Landlord, at Tenant's cost, with all consumption data for the Premises, in the manner, at such frequency and in the format as required by Landlord so as to comply with its obligations relating to governmental or quasi-governmental authority reporting regulations, to meet green building certifications or standards including, without limitation, LEED, BOMA BEST or ENERGY STAR or to improve the environmental performance of the Shopping Centre.

7.02 Demised Heating, Ventilation, and Air-Conditioning (HVAC) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, including the Tenant's obligation to pay the HVAC Charge as set out in Articles 1.15 and 4.19, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense be responsible for maintaining, repairing and replacing of the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning equipment (the "Tenant HVAC System") installed for the Premises where such equipment is not part of a shared or central system.

7.03 Condition of Premises During the Term, Tenant will keep the Premises in a clean and tidy condition, and will provide at its own expense therein janitor services in accordance with this Lease and the rules and regulations of Landlord from time to time, removal of debris and garbage, and cleaning of all windows, doors, walls, ceiling, tiles, floors, grease traps and grease guard systems in the Premises and on the roof of the Shopping Centre where applicable and the exterior of the Premises, subject to Article 7.04(f).

Subject to the foregoing and except to the extent that Landlord is specifically responsible therefor under this Lease, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense maintain the Premises and all improvements therein in good order and condition, subject to reasonable wear and tear, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) intentionally deleted;

(b) making repairs and replacements as needed to glass, plate glass, store windows and storefronts, signs, mouldings, doors, hardware, partitions, walls, fixtures, lighting, finishes, plumbing, wiring, ductwork and piping (including that portion which is contiguous to the Premises), ceilings, floors and thresholds in the Premises;

(c) maintaining, repairing and replacing as needed all Tenant HVAC Systems, elevators, escalators, mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems, facilities and equipment in the Premises;

(d) making other repairs and replacements in the Premises as needed, except repairs and replacements to the Premises for which Landlord is specifically responsible under this Lease; and

(e) keeping the Premises in such condition as to comply with the requirements of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority and insurers having jurisdiction and the rules and regulations of Landlord.

Notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, the Tenant's repair obligations will include all those which are major as well as minor , or those which are customarily landlord's or tenant's, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Lease

7.04 Alterations by Tenant Tenant may from time to time at its own expense make changes, additions and improvements in the Premises to better adapt the same to its business, provided that any such change, addition or improvement will:

(a) comply with the requirements of Landlord's insurer and any Authority having jurisdiction;

(b) be made only with the prior written consent of Landlord;

(c) equal the then current standard for the Shopping Centre;

(d) be carried out only by persons selected by Tenant and approved in writing by Landlord, who will, if required by Landlord, deliver to Landlord before commencement of the work, performance and payment bonds as well as proof of worker's compensation and public liability and property damage insurance coverage as reasonably required by Landlord with Landlord, Owners and Management Company as additional insured parties in amounts, with companies and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, which will remain in effect during the entire period in which the work will be carried out;

(e) Tenant shall obtain all necessary construction and other permits before starting any work in the Premises;

(f) Tenant shall not make any repairs, openings, or additions to any part of the exterior of the Premises, or to the Common Areas and Facilities nor place anything of whatsoever nature in or upon any part of the Common Areas and Facilities, including without limitation the roof and without having obtained the prior written consent of Landlord. In addition it is expressly forbidden for Tenant, its employees, agents, representatives or any Person for whom Tenant is in law responsible to go upon the roof of the Shopping Centre for any reason whatsoever without Landlord's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the prior granting of such consent, Tenant shall be fully responsible for all ensuing costs and damages whether to remove materials or to effect repairs needed as a result of such acts;

(g) Tenant shall not make any change, alteration, addition, repair or improvement in or to the Premises which in any manner affects the structure, the roof, the perimeter walls, the bearing floors, structural slab or slab on grade, the storefront, the sprinkler system (whether it services the Premises exclusively or not), or any heating, ventilation or air-conditioning system or equipment or the electrical and plumbing services or systems (whether these serve the Premises exclusively or not), without in each case obtaining Landlord's prior written approval thereto. Tenant will accompany each request for Landlord's written approval by detailed plans and specifications for the intended work, and will ensure that the work is done according to the relevant provisions of this Lease.

Any increase in Taxes or insurance premiums for the Shopping Centre, or any part thereof, attributable to such change, addition or improvement will be borne by Tenant and Tenant will pay Landlord for the cost of such increase upon receipt of Landlord's invoices therefor.

7.05 Trade Fixtures and Personal Property Tenant may install in the Premises its usual trade fixtures and personal property in a proper manner, provided that no such installation will interfere with or damage the mechanical, plumbing, sprinkler or electrical systems or all or any part of the structure of the Shopping Centre. If Tenant is not then in default under this Lease, trade fixtures and personal property installed in but not affixed to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant may be removed from the Premises:

(a) from time to time in the ordinary course of Tenant's business or in the course of permitted reconstruction, renovation or alteration of the Premises by Tenant; and provided that Tenant in all cases promptly repairs at its own expense any damage to the Premises resulting from such installation and removal. In no case will trade fixtures or personal property include the ceiling or ceiling panels, electric light fixtures, doors, floor coverings, storefront, plumbing fixtures and fittings or any affixed cabinets, shelves, hardware or decorative items in or upon the Premises which upon installation become the property of Landlord, provided, however, that if any of the foregoing shall contain any Hazardous Substance such installation shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant will remove such items at its expense.

7.06 Liens Tenant will pay before delinquency all costs for work done or caused to be done by Tenant in the Premises which could result in any lien or encumbrance on Landlord's interest or Tenant's interest or both in the Site or the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, will keep the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre and every part thereof free and clear of any lien or encumbrance in respect of such work and will indemnify and hold harmless Landlord against any claim, loss, cost, demand and legal or other expense, whether in respect of any lien or otherwise, arising out of the supply of material, services or labour for such work. Tenant will immediately notify Landlord of any such lien, claim of lien or other action of which it has or reasonably should have knowledge and which affects the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, and will cause the same to be removed within fifteen (15) days of written notice from Landlord (or such additional time as Landlord may consent to in writing), failing which Landlord may take action as Landlord deems necessary to remove the same and the entire cost thereof will be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, including all legal fees, costs and disbursements on a substantial indemnity basis.

7.07 Intentionally deleted.

7.08 Signs Tenant shall not erect or place any sign, decal, decoration, lettering, design or advertisement of any nature whatsoever ("Sign") on the exterior walls of the Premises or on the walls of the mall or elsewhere in the Shopping Centre or in the display windows without first obtaining Landlord's written consent as to the specifications, design, location and method of installation. All Signs shall conform to all applicable rules and regulations and shall be of high quality. Furthermore, all Signs shall be suitably illuminated where applicable in the same manner as other signs in the Shopping Centre. Tenant shall not install or affix any Sign in the Premises or in the Shopping Centre which is visible from the exterior of the Shopping Centre. All Signs on Tenant's storefront which Landlord allows Tenant to install must be so installed prior to the opening by Tenant of its Premises to the public.

No Sign(s) advertising an auction sale, going out of business sale, closing out sale, bankruptcy sale or any other similar sale other than one in the normal course of Tenant's business, or any Sign indicating that Tenant is moving to another location, shall be permitted in the Shopping Centre.

For certainty, the Landlord confirms that the Tenant's exterior Signs that exist as of the Commencement Date are compliant with this Section.

ARTICLE 8.00 TENANT'S TAXES

8.01 Business Taxes and Other Taxes Payable by Tenant Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to the Authorities responsible for collection all business and water taxes, charges or rates, garbage removal taxes, charges, rates, taxes, levies, fees, duties, tariffs or assessments for consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature however imposed or assessed and/or for recycling and/or similar taxes, charges or rates imposed on or applicable to Tenant in connection with the activities, goods (including without limiting the generality thereof, Tenant's movables, equipment and tools) or services of which Tenant benefits, or for Tenant's use or occupation of the Premises, or for the nature of the enterprise that Tenant operates in the Premises, or any other matter determined by said authorities (hereinafter "Tenant's Taxes"). It is understood that Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to Landlord any Tenant's Taxes where Landlord shall be invoiced therefor or shall become liable for any such Tenant's Taxes pursuant to any new, amended or modified law, regulation, policy and/or practice of any competent Authority. Tenant shall also be liable for the payment of any Tenant's Taxes, Taxes and any other amount payable by Landlord, and any increases in one or all of the foregoing (even where such Tenant's Taxes, Taxes or other amount or increases thereof are substantially greater than the amount payable therefor by Tenant in previous years) as a direct or indirect result of the abolition, modification and/or replacement of any Tenant's Taxes by any competent Authority or due to any modification of any policy or practice thereof. Tenant will indemnify Landlord from and against all losses, costs of expenses occasioned by or arising from the foregoing.

ARTICLE 9.00 INSURANCE

9.01 Landlord's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease, Landlord will carry the insurance for which Landlord is obligated under the Original Lease and such insurance provisions are deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term, Landlord will maintain the Landlord's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

9.02 Tenant's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, will carry the insurance for which Tenant is obligated under the Original Lease and such provisions of the Original Lease are deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term and any period Tenant is in possession of the Premises, the Tenant will maintain the Tenant's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date in accordance with the insurance certificate most recently provided to the Landlord by the Tenant, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

Tenant agrees to deliver to Landlord, proof of above required insurance in force at such date, such proof to be in the form of certificates of insurance acceptable to Landlord. If the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained on the part of Tenant will immediately endanger or could reasonably lead to or result in future endangerment of the Premises or any other of the buildings or property in or on the Shopping Centre or result in the voiding, cancellation or threatened cancellation of any insurance policy affecting such buildings or property or part thereof Landlord may, either, at Landlord's sole discretion, terminate this Lease effective upon written notice to Tenant, or without terminating this Lease and after giving such notice, if any, as is reasonable in the circumstances, enter upon the Premises and take such action, including removing Tenant and any persons or property from the Shopping Centre, as is reasonable to remove or abate the cause of the danger or voiding or cancellation of the policy, and Landlord will not be liable for any damages of any kind howsoever caused arising out of such termination or such action, the whole without prejudice to Landlord's other rights and recourses.

ARTICLE 10.00 INJURY TO PERSON OR PROPERTY

10.01 Intentionally deleted.

10.02 Release of Landlord. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Tenant, none of the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre or other persons for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage so required to be insured by the Tenant to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Tenant fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Tenant had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Tenant shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, the manager retained by the Landlord from time to time to operate the Shopping Centre and those for whom the Landlord is responsible in law. With respect to the Tenant's fixtures, furniture, inventory and stock-in-trade including merchandise or other contents of the Premises, the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre and others for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage.

10.03 Release of Tenant. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Landlord, none of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees or other persons for whom the Tenant is responsible at law shall be liable in respect of any loss, injury or damage required to be so insured to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Landlord fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Landlord had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Landlord shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees and those for whom the Tenant is responsible in law.

ARTICLE 11.00 TRANSFERS

11.01 Transfers Except to an Eligible Corporation (which for the purpose of this Article 11.00 is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual) which controls or is controlled by or under common control with Tenant, where to control means to own beneficially either directly or indirectly more than 50% of the voting shares of a corporation or other legal entity) and subject to provisions of Article 11.03, Tenant will not, and will not permit a subtenant to, assign this Lease in whole or in part or sublet all or part of the Premises, or transfer this Lease in any other manner and will not permit the occupation or use of all or part of the Premises by others (any of which events are hereinafter referred to as a "Transfer"), without the prior written consent of Landlord in each case, which consent, despite any statutory provision to the contrary, may be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Tenant may enter into a Transfer with an Eligible Corporation, with the prior written consent of Landlord which consent may not be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld. Tenant will not, and will not permit subtenant or any other Person or entity to mortgage or encumber all or any part pf the Tenant's rights resulting from this Lease or all or any part of the Premises. Under no circumstances will Tenant be entitled to effect a Transfer to any one prior to the Commencement Date, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease or at law. The consent by Landlord to a Transfer will not constitute a waiver of its consent to a subsequent Transfer. This prohibition against transferring includes a Transfer by operation of law. If a Transfer occurs without the consent of Landlord when required, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee, subtenant, mortgagee, encumbrancer, user or occupant as the case may be (hereinafter the "Transferee"), and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such Transfer, occupancy or collection will be deemed a waiver of the covenant not to Transfer without Landlord's consent, nor an acceptance by Landlord of the Transfer or the Transferee notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary. Despite a Transfer, Tenant remains fully liable under this Lease. A permitted Transfer of all or part of this Lease or the Premises will be documented by Landlord or its solicitors, and the amounts stipulated in Article 11.02(b)(iv) shall be paid by Tenant and deemed to be Rent. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord may immediately terminate this Lease if Tenant effects a Transfer without Landlord's prior written consent thereto, whether or not Tenant gives prior written notice thereof.

11.02 Conditions Any Transfer referred to in Article 11.01 or elsewhere in this Lease will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) that Tenant causes any Transferee to promptly execute an agreement in writing with Landlord agreeing to be bound by the terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease as if such Transferee had originally executed this Lease as Tenant (provided that such agreement will not in any way affect the rights of Landlord under this Lease); and

(b) all requests for Landlord's consent to effect a Transfer shall be in writing and be accompanied by each of the following: (i) the name, address and telephone number of each proposed Transferee and if it is a corporation, the names of the directors and the majority shareholders (or in the case of a change of control, those Persons who would subsequently acquire effective control); (ii) details of the proposed Transferee's prior business experience (including experience in the enterprise for which the Premises are to be operated pursuant to this Lease); (iii) bank and other credit references, required by Landlord to assess the business or financial strength and standing of the proposed assignee, subtenant or occupant; (iv) a non-reimbursable fee (paid by certified cheque or draft of a Canadian chartered bank) for all charges associated with Landlord's administration and documentation of the Transfer; (v) if the proposed Transferee is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual), its constating documents (including any articles of incorporation, amendment or amalgamation, any declarations of trust or partnership agreements and the like); (vi) details of the transaction of Transfer between Tenant and the proposed Transferee and all relevant documents with respect thereto; (vii) a signed copy of Landlord's standard form of letter of consent authorizing Landlord to make inquiries regarding the personal affairs of the proposed Transferee or any principal thereof, and (viii) all other information or documentation which Landlord may reasonably require.

11.03 Corporate Ownership If after the date of execution of this Lease, securities not listed for sale on a recognized securities exchange in Canada either of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant are transferred by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law or other disposition, or issued by subscription or allotment or cancelled or redeemed, so as to result in a change in the effective voting or other control of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant by the Person or Persons holding control on the date of execution of this Lease or on the date when Tenant becomes a corporation, if later, or if other steps are taken to accomplish a change of the effective control of Tenant, Tenant will promptly notify Landlord in writing of the change which will be considered to be a Transfer of this Lease to which Articles 11.01 and 11.02 apply; and whether or not Tenant notifies Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease within 60 days after Landlord learns of the change unless Landlord previously had consented to the change in writing. Tenant will make available to Landlord or its lawful representatives all corporate books and records of Tenant and of any Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant for inspection at all reasonable times, to ascertain to the extent possible whether there has been a change of control.

11.04 Insolvency of Transferee In the event Transferee becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy and this Lease is disclaimed or terminated, or Transferee disclaims this Lease pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation, or the terms of any insolvency-related Court order, then at Landlord's option to be exercised on written notice to the original Tenant named in this Lease or any Transferee (except the bankrupt or insolvent Transferee), such party will be deemed to have entered into a lease with Landlord for the remainder of the initial Term, on the terms and conditions of this Lease prevailing immediately prior to the date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation (including without limitation, future Rent escalations (if any)) effective upon the effective date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation.

11.05 Permitted Transfers. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but on prior written notice to Landlord:

(a) assign this Lease to, and may in any event permit the Premises to be used and occupied in whole or in part by, any affiliated corporation of Tenant (as such term "affiliated corporation" is defined by· the Canada Business Corporations Act); or

(b) assign this Lease to any corporation with which Tenant merges or consolidates that is an affiliated corporation of Tenant; or

(c) grant concessions or licenses to use and occupy any part or parts of the Premises provided that: (i) the Premises continues to be carried on, and retains the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated single department store operated in accordance with the requirements of this Lease, (ii) at least 80% (by number) of the concessions or licenses granted shall be to licensees or concessionaires which operate in a majority of the Tenant's other stores in the province of Alberta; and (iii) any such concessionaire, licensee or other occupant within the Premises is subject to the day-to-day operational control of the Tenant in matters related to general standards of the business carried on so as to enable the Tenant to ensure that such standards shall conform to the general standards of business of the Tenant itself.

ARTICLE 12.00 SURRENDER

12.01 Possession Upon the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease and in addition to the provisions of Article 12.02, Tenant will immediately quit and peaceably surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord:

(i) in a vacant, clean and broom-swept condition with all of Tenant's signage, inventory, trade fixtures, racking and personal property removed; and

but otherwise in an "as is, where is" condition and without any obligation to: (A) return the Premises or any component thereof to an improved or better state of condition or operation than existing as of the Commencement Date; or (B) to remove any leasehold improvements in the Premises installed pursuant to Article 7.04 hereof. For greater clarity, it is the intention of the parties that Tenant shall have no obligation to make cosmetic or "wear and tear" type repairs to the Premises upon surrender (such as repainting or repairing holes in walls, floors or ceilings caused by the typical installation and removal of racking, trade fixtures etc.).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Landlord's intention is to demolish and/or redevelop the Premises following the expiry of the Term and not to re-tenant same, the Landlord shall advise the Tenant thereof in which event sub-paragraph (ii) above shall not apply.

Upon surrender, all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises will cease. If Tenant has registered a caveat, caution, memorandum notice or other instrument relating to this lease against title to the Land, it will cause the same to be released and discharged no later than 15 days following the expiry or termination date, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a release or discharge of a notice of this will be paid by Tenant.

12.02 Trade Fixtures, Personal Property and Improvements

(a) Subject to Article 7.05, all alterations, additions and improvements made or to be made upon or to the Premises (save any movable trade fixtures used in Tenant's enterprise) which in any manner are attached in, to or under the floors, walls or ceilings, including, without limitation, walk-in vaults, large water features such as pools, water basins and fountains and landscaping features, any component of any heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, sprinkler, plumbing or electrical equipment or systems, presently or in the future installed within or servicing the Premises, all lighting installations and fixtures including, without limitation, all spot lights and tracks and all floor finishes of whatever nature placed upon the floor of the Premises, all storefronts, doors and/or partitions, shall become Landlord's property at the time they are installed, and will be surrendered to Landlord at the expiry of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease without any compensation or indemnity payable to Tenant whatsoever.

(b) If Tenant leaves any property on the Premises following the expiry of the Term or earlier termination thereof which it is entitled to remove, then unless Landlord expressly notifies Tenant to remove such property, the ownership of such property will, at Landlord's option, be deemed to have been abandoned to Landlord, free and clear of all Tenant Security, notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary and whether or not Landlord chooses to become the owner of such items, they may be used, removed or disposed of by or on behalf of Landlord, as Landlord determines, without compensation payable to Tenant and without incurring any liability to Tenant.

12.03 Merger The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant or the cancellation of this Lease by mutual agreement of Tenant and Landlord will not work a merger, and will, at Landlord's option, either terminate all or any subleases and subtenancies or operate as an assignment to Landlord of all or any subleases and subtenancies. Landlord's option hereunder will be exercised by notice to Tenant and all sublessees or subtenants in the Premises or any part thereof known to Landlord. If Landlord does not give notice within a reasonable period of time after such cancellation of this Lease, then all such subleases will be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such cancellation.

12.04 Payments After Termination No payment of money by Tenant to Landlord after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease or after the giving of any notice by Landlord to Tenant, will reinstate, continue or extend the Term or make ineffective any notice given to Tenant prior to the payment of such money. After the service of notice or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment granting Landlord possession of the Premises, Landlord may receive and collect any sums of Rent due under this Lease, and the payment thereof will not make ineffective any notice, or in any manner affect any pending suit or any judgment theretofore obtained.

13.01 Month-to-Month Tenancy with Landlord Consent If with Landlord's written consent, Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this

Lease, notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises on a month-to month tenancy only, at a monthly rental equal to the Rent payable by Tenant during the last month immediately preceding the expiration of the Term or such other rental as is stated in such written consent, and such month-to-month tenancy may be terminated by Landlord or Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by delivery of at least one (1) month's advance written notice of termination to the other.

13.02 Tenancy at Sufferance If without Landlord's written consent Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises upon a tenancy at sufferance only, at a monthly rental equal to two (2) times the Rent payable during the last month preceding the expiration or termination. Such tenancy at sufferance may be immediately terminated by Landlord at any time by notice of termination to Tenant, and by Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by at least 30 days' advance written notice of termination to Landlord.

13.03 General Any month-to-month tenancy or tenancy at sufferance hereunder will be subject to all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease except any right of renewal or extension and nothing contained in Article 13.00 will be construed to limit or impair any of Landlord's rights of re-entry or eviction or constitute a waiver thereof.

ARTICLE 14.00 RULES AND REGULATIONS

14.01 Purpose The Rules and Regulations in Exhibit D (the "Rules and Regulations") have been adopted by Landlord for the safety, benefit and convenience of all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre.

14.02 Observance Tenant will at all times comply with, and will cause its employees, servants, agents, licencees and invitees to comply with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect.

14.03 Modification Landlord may from time to time, for the purposes set out in Article 14.01, amend, delete from, or add to the Rules and Regulations, provided that any such modification:

(a) will not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any other provision of this Lease;

(b) will be reasonable and have general application to tenants in the Shopping Centre; and

(c) will be effective only upon delivery of a copy thereof to Tenant at the Premises.

14.04 Non-Compliance Landlord will use reasonable efforts to secure compliance by all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect, but will not be responsible to Tenant for failure of any person to comply with such Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 15.00 EXPROPRIATION

15.01 Expropriation Both Landlord and Tenant agree to cooperate with each other in respect of any expropriation of all or any part of the Premises or any other part of the Shopping Centre, so that each may receive from the Authority the maximum award to which each is respectively entitled by law. If any portion of the Shopping Centre other than the Premises is expropriated, then the proceeds accruing therefrom shall belong solely to Landlord, and Tenant shall abandon to Landlord any rights which Tenant may have by operation of law to such proceeds or award. Tenant will execute such documents as required to give effect to the foregoing.

If at any time during the Term, any material part of the Shopping Centre is expropriated or if access to the Premises is materially affected by such expropriation, then Landlord may terminate this Lease on written notice to Tenant, which termination will take effect on the earlier of the date of the expropriation or the taking of prior possession.

Whether the Lease is terminated or not, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord as a result of or arising from the expropriation of all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

If Landlord exercises its right of termination hereunder, this Lease will terminate on the date stated in the notice, provided, however, that no termination pursuant to notice hereunder may occur later than 60 days after the date (hereinafter "Date of Such Taking") on which the Authority takes possession of that part of the Shopping Centre so taken.

15.02 Surrender On any such date of termination under Article 15.01, Tenant will immediately surrender to Landlord the Premises and all interests therein under this Lease. Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and remove Tenant therefrom, and the Rent will abate on the date of termination, except that if the Date of Such Taking differs from the date of termination, Rent will abate on the former date.

15.03 Partial Taking of Premises If any portion of the Premises (but less than the whole thereof) is so taken, and no rights of termination herein conferred are timely exercised, the Term of this Lease will expire with respect to the portion so taken on the Date of Such Taking. In such event the Rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion so taken will abate on such date, and the Rent thereafter payable with respect to the remainder not so taken will be adjusted pro rata by Landlord in order to account for the resulting reduction of the Area of the Premises. After such adjustment, and on notice from Landlord stating the Rent then owing, Tenant will immediately pay Landlord such Rent.

ARTICLE 16.00 DAMAGE BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

16.01 Damage or Destruction In the event of damage or destruction to or of the Premises by reason of fire or other risk against which the Landlord has insured, the Landlord shall subject as hereinafter provided immediately undertake the repair or reconstruction of the Premises and shall apply all proceeds of insurance to the cost of such repair or reconstruction;

(i)Provided that if any such event of damage or destruction shall occur during the last five (5) years of the Term or of the renewal term and of such damage being so substantial as to interfere to any material degree with the Tenant's use and enjoyment of the Premises, then the Landlord shall not be required to repair or reconstruct the Premises;

(ii) And further provided that in the event of any such damage or destruction occurring during the last two (2) years of the Term or the renewal term then the Tenant shall have the right forthwith to terminate this lease;

(iii) and further provided that in the event of any such damage or destruction occurring during the renewal term the Landlord shall have the right forthwith to terminate this lease.

In the event of any such damage or destruction to or of the Premises as contemplated in this Section occurring during the last years of the Term or the renewal term and of the Landlord electing to repair or reconstruct the Premises then the Rent payable by the Tenant for the remainder of the then current Term shall, subject to the provisions for abatement hereunder set forth, continue to be payable by the Tenant to the Landlord at the same rate and on the same terms as subsist immediately prior to the event of such damage or destruction, provided that if such damage or destruction be of such extent as to render the Premises unfit for the use and enjoyment of the Tenant or to the extent thereof as the case may be, the Rent payable hereunder during the period of repair or reconstruction shall abate or shall abate proportionately as the case may be.

The Tenant shall at all times during the term of this Lease keep in effect insurance on the buildings comprised in the Premises (excluding any fixtures, fittings, furnishings or equipment of the Lessee) to the full insurable replacement value thereof against loss or damage from fire, lightning, explosion, smoke, windstorm, hail, riot, malicious damage, sprinkler leakage (if applicable) and impact by aircraft or vehicles. All such insurance shall be carried in a reputable company or reputable companies which are of good financial standing.

The Tenant shall from time to time during the Term, pay to the Landlord on demand Tenant's share of insurance costs of Common and Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre.

ARTICLE 17.00 TRANSFERS AND MORTGAGES BY LANDLORD

17.01 Sales, Conveyance and Assignment Nothing in this Lease (which term for purpose of this Article 17.00 includes any extension, renewal or replacement of this Lease) will restrict the right of Landlord to sell, convey, assign, mortgage or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Shopping Centre, subject only to the rights of Tenant under this Lease.

17.02 Effect of Sale, Conveyance or Assignment A sale, conveyance or assignment of the Shopping Centre will operate to release Landlord from liability from and after the date thereof upon all the covenants, terms and conditions of this Lease, express or implied, except as such may relate to the period prior to such effective date, and Tenant will thereafter look solely to Landlord's successor in interest in and to this Lease. This Lease will not be affected by any such sale conveyance or assignment, and Tenant will attorn to Landlord's successor in interest thereunder.

17.03 Definition of Mortgage, Mortgagee and Mortgagee's Interest Each and every charge, mortgage, debenture or trust deed, now or hereafter registered against all or any part of the Shopping Centre is hereafter called a "Mortgage" which term includes all amounts advanced or to be advanced thereunder and all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. "Mortgagee" means a chargee or mortgagee named in a Mortgage, or the holder of a debenture or the trustee under a trust deed constituting a Mortgage, as the case may be; and "Mortgagee's Interest" means the estate or interest of the Mortgagee secured by a Mortgage.

17.04 Subordination of Mortgage to Lease If this Lease or the estate or interest of Tenant thereunder (the "Tenant's Leasehold Interest") is subordinate to a Mortgage or Mortgagee's Interest now or at any time hereafter, then on written request of the Mortgagee or of Landlord on Mortgagee's behalf, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, the Mortgage and the Mortgagee's Interest will be postponed and made subordinate to this Lease and the Tenant's Leasehold Interest as if such Mortgage had been executed, delivered, registered and fully advanced after the execution, delivery and registration of this Lease, by means of an instrument of postponement and subordination, which will be entered into between Tenant and the Mortgagee, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that it complies with the terms and conditions of the Lease. Such instrument will be in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, consistent with this Article 17.04 and Article 17.07 and will be effective between the Mortgagee and Tenant when executed by them, without necessity for registration against title to the Shopping Centre; but if desired by the Mortgagee or Tenant, either of them may register such agreement or notice thereof and for that purpose the Mortgagee and Tenant will enter into any further document required to effect registration.

17.05 Attornment If this Lease and Tenant's Leasehold Interest now or at any time hereafter is subordinate to a Mortgage and Mortgagee's Interest and the Mortgagee does not require a postponement and subordination instrument under Article 17.04, Tenant will on request of such Mortgagee or of Landlord on behalf of the Mortgagee, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, enter into an attornment agreement with such Mortgagee in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, whereby Tenant will agree that if default occurs under the Mortgage, and:

(a) the Mortgagee takes possession of the Premises, by obtaining and enforcing a court order to that effect or otherwise;

(b) the Mortgagee forecloses or otherwise acquires the interest of Landlord in the Premises, but does not foreclose the Tenant's Leasehold Interest; or

(c) the Mortgagee sells, conveys or assigns the Premises to another party (hereinafter a "Purchaser") pursuant to a power of sale or court order for sale which does not purport to sell the Premises free of the Tenant's Leasehold Interest,

Tenant will, on written demand of the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, attorn to and become the tenant of that person from and including the date the demand is received, for the balance of the term of this Lease (and with rights of renewal if any as provided in this Lease), at the rents and otherwise on the terms of this Lease, subject as hereinafter provided in Article 17.06, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that Tenant complies with, all the terms and conditions of the Lease.

17.06 Intentionally deleted.

17.07 Effect of Subordination or Attornment No subordination effected under Article 17.04 and no attornment effected under Article 17.05 will render the Mortgagee or Purchaser, as the case may be:

(a) liable for any act or omission of Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(b) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(c) bound by any prepayment by Tenant of more than one month's instalment of Rent, or by any previous modification of this Lease, unless such prepayment or modification has been approved in writing by the Mortgagee or Purchaser or any predecessor in interest except Landlord.

Upon attornment occurring under Article 17.05, the relationship of landlord and tenant thereby created between the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, as Landlord, and Tenant as tenant, will supersede this Lease, but if the Mortgage is subsequently redeemed or put in good standing or the Mortgagee goes out of possession, the Mortgagee will be relieved of its obligations to Tenant as if a sale, conveyance or assignment had occurred to which Article 17.02 applied.

Any attornment by Tenant to a Mortgagee or Purchaser will be without prejudice to the right (when applicable) of any other mortgagee or purchaser that has priority to the Mortgagee or Purchaser to demand that Tenant attorn to the other mortgagee or purchaser pursuant to the rights if any, of the other mortgagee or purchaser in that regard under Article 17.00. In case of such demand being lawfully made, and Tenant attorning to such other mortgagee or purchaser the attornment previously made to the Mortgagee or Purchaser will cease to be effective.

17.08 Tenant's Obligations May Be Assigned Tenant acknowledges that its covenants and obligations under Article 17.00 are intended in whole or in part to operate for the benefit of any and all Mortgagees and Purchasers and that in obtaining such covenants and obligations Landlord is acting not only for itself, but also as trustee or agent for all such persons. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord may assign the benefit of such covenants and obligations to any and all Mortgagees or Purchasers who request same, as security or otherwise, and Tenant agrees that any such Mortgagee or Purchaser will be entitled on receiving such assignment and giving due notice thereof to Tenant, to enforce such covenant or obligation against Tenant to the same extent as if it were a party to this Lease directly entitled to the benefit of such covenants and obligations.

17.09 Execution of Instruments Except as otherwise provided in Article 17.00, the subordination and attornment provisions herein will be self-operating and no further instrument will be required. Nevertheless Tenant, on request by and without cost to Landlord, any Mortgagee, Purchaser or successor in interest, will execute and deliver any and all instruments further evidencing such subordination and/or attornment when applicable.

17.10 Intentionally deleted.

17.11 Intentionally deleted.

17.12 Notice of Lease Tenant may register at its sole cost and expense (including, without limitation, payment of all registration fees, land transfer and similar taxes or charges, costs of plan preparation and registration and all legal fees and disbursements related to such registration) a caveat or short form in respect of this Lease (the "Registration Document") to give notice of Tenant's interest created by this Lease, provided and subject to the following:

(a) the Registration Document will be prepared by Tenant at its sole cost in a form acceptable to Landlord, and same will be approved in writing by Landlord prior to its registration;

(b) the Registration Document will only disclose the names of the parties to this Lease, the Premises, and the Commencement Date and the expiry date of the Term, and any right of renewal. The Registration Document will not disclose any information concerning the rent or rental rates to be paid, nor any other financial provisions of this Lease;

(c) the Registration Document will only indicate and be registered against title to that portion or those parcels of the Site or Shopping Centre as Landlord may designate in its sole discretion. Further, in the event any portion of the Land ceases to form part of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will, forthwith upon request from Landlord, cause its registration to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from the title to such portion all at its own expense;

(d) in the event that, in order to effect registration, the Registration Document must be executed by any party other than Landlord and Tenant, Landlord will request such consent or execution of that party, but the sole cost of obtaining same will be borne by Tenant and Landlord will not be liable to Tenant in the event that such consent or execution is not obtained;

(e) Tenant will provide Landlord with a copy of the Registration Document and registration particulars thereof, once registration has been effected; and

17.13 Easements and Rights-of-Way Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord has granted or otherwise created and may in the future grant or otherwise create licence(s), easement(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s) over, through, upon or otherwise affecting portions of the Common Areas and Facilities. Tenant hereby consents to the granting or other creation of such licence(s), easement(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s).

17.14 Severance of Land In addition to and upon the same basis, mutatis mutandis, as set out in Article 6.04, Landlord will have the right from time to time to subdivide and to transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any portion or portions of the Land. Any such subdivision may be accomplished by any means Landlord may consider desirable and the description of the Land will be changed accordingly.

ARTICLE 18.00 NOTICES, ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, AUTHORITIES FOR ACTION

18.01 Notices Any notice from one party to the other under this Lease will be in writing and will be deemed duly given, if delivered personally, by an authorized representative of Tenant or Landlord or by courier, or bailiff to the party being given such notice or to a responsible employee of the party being given such notice, or if mailed in Canada by registered or certified mail addressed to Tenant at the address described in Article 1.01, or to Landlord at the address described in Article 1.01 of this Lease. Any notice will be deemed to have been given at the time of personal delivery, or if mailed, on the third (3rd) postal delivery date after the date of mailing thereof or the date of refusal thereof. Either party will have the right to designate by notice, in the manner above set forth, a different address to which notices are to be given. If it is reasonably anticipated that, due to mail service being disrupted, such notice, if mailed, will not be received by the third (3rd) postal delivery day following mailing, then such notice must be personally delivered as provided in this Article 18.01 or, in lieu of mailing, sent by the most reasonably expeditious means of delivery available to the address for mailing and will be deemed duly given upon such delivery. Notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary, notices shall not be sufficiently given if delivered or transmitted by facsimile or other electronic means.

18.02 Acknowledgments Within ten (10) business days after written request therefor by Landlord, Tenant shall deliver an Estoppel Certificate addressed to any Person (other than the Landlord) designated by Landlord, in the form annexed as Exhibit F or such other substantially similar form which Landlord may submit to Tenant.

18.03 Authorities for Action Landlord may act in any matter provided for herein by its property manager, Management Company or any other person who will from time to time be designated by Landlord by notice to Tenant. Tenant will designate in writing one or more persons to act on its behalf in any matter provided for herein and may from time to time change, by notice to Landlord, such designation. In the absence of any such designation, the person or persons executing this Lease for Tenant will be deemed to be authorized to act on behalf of Tenant in any matter provided for in this Lease.

ARTICLE 19.00 DEFAULT

19.01 Interest and Costs Tenant will pay to Landlord the Interest Rate upon all Rent required to be paid under this Lease from the due date for payment thereof until the same is fully paid and satisfied. Tenant will indemnify Landlord against all costs and charges (including legal fees) reasonably incurred in enforcing payment thereof, and in obtaining possession of the Premises after default of Tenant or upon expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, or in enforcing any covenant, proviso or agreement of Tenant contained in this Lease.

19.02 Right of Landlord to Perform Covenants All covenants and agreements to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be performed by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and without abatement of Rent. If Tenant fails to perform any act on its part to be performed under this Lease, and such failure continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord, Landlord may (but will not be obligated so to do) perform such act without waiving or releasing Tenant from any of its obligations relative thereto. All sums paid or costs incurred by Landlord in so performing such acts under this Article 19.02, together with interest thereon at the rate set out in Article 19.01 from the date each such payment was made or each such cost was incurred by Landlord, plus 20% of such costs for Landlord's administration and overhead, will be payable by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

19.03 Events of Default If and whenever:

(a) part or all of the Rent hereby reserved is not paid when due, whether lawfully demanded or not, and such default continues fifteen (15) days after notice by Landlord; or

(b) Tenant fails to observe, perform and keep each and every of the covenants, agreements, provisions, stipulations and conditions herein contained to be observed, performed and kept by Tenant (other than payment of Rent) and persists in such failure after thirty (30) days notice by Landlord specifying with reasonable particularity the nature of such failure and

requiring that Tenant remedy, correct, desist or comply (or if any such breach would reasonably require more than thirty (30) days to rectify, unless Tenant commences rectification within the thirty (30) day notice period and thereafter promptly, effectively and continuously proceeds with the rectification of the breach to completion of rectification); or

(c) any goods, chattels or equipment of Tenant is taken or exigible in execution or in attachment or if a writ of execution is issued against Tenant; or

(d) Tenant becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy or becomes bankrupt or takes the benefit of any statute that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or becomes involved in voluntary or involuntary winding-up or dissolution or liquidation proceedings or if a receiver will be appointed for the business, property, affairs or revenues of Tenant; Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall provide Landlord with: (i) 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (i) hereof, to the extent Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action, (iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (iv) 5 business day prior written notice of the Tenant signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s); or

(e) any person other than Tenant or a Transferee permitted under this Lease has or exercises the right to manage or control the Premises, any part thereof or any business carried on in the Premises, other than subject to the actual, direct and full supervision and control of Tenant; or

(f) Tenant makes a bulk sale of its goods or moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its goods, chattels or equipment out of the Premises (other than in the normal course of its business) or Tenant ceases to conduct business from the Premises or the Premises are not open for business to the public on any three (3) consecutive days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises or on more than five (5) days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises in any twelve (12) month period; or

then and in any of such cases, at the option of Landlord, the full amount of the current month's and the next ensuing three (3) months instalments of Rent will immediately become due and payable together with all tenant allowance monies paid to Tenant or the value of other inducements given to Tenant (such as, but not limited to, rent-free periods) in accordance with the provisions of this Lease or any other agreement between Landlord and Tenant relating to the Premises (such allowances and inducements hereinafter referred to as "Tenant Inducements") and Landlord may immediately take legal proceedings for the same, together with any arrears then unpaid; and Landlord may without notice or any form of legal process forthwith re-enter upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and expel all Persons from the Premises and remove and sell or dispose of Tenant's goods, personal property and trade fixtures therefrom as Landlord sees fit, or store property such at the cost of Tenant, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding all without liability and loss or damage and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover arrears of Rent or damages for any antecedent default by Tenant of its obligations or agreements under this Lease or of any term or condition of this Lease, and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover from Tenant damages for loss of Rent suffered by reason of this Lease having been prematurely terminated. Any such sale may be effected in the discretion of Landlord by public auction or otherwise, and either in bulk or by individual item, or partly by one means and partly by another, all as Landlord in its entire discretion may decide. If any of Tenant's property is disposed of as provided in this Article 19.03, ten (10) days prior notice to Tenant of disposition will be deemed to be commercially reasonable.

19.04 Waiver of Exemption and Redemption Notwithstanding anything contained in any statute now or hereafter in force limiting or abrogating the right of distress, none of Tenant's goods, chattels or trade fixtures on the Premises at any time during the continuance of the Term will be exempt from levy by distress for Rent in arrears and upon any claim being made for such exemption by Tenant or on distress being made by Landlord this agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel against Tenant in any action brought to test the right to the levying upon any such goods as are named as exempted in any such statute, Tenant hereby waiving all and every benefit that could or might have accrued to Tenant under and by virtue of any such statute but for this Lease. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being evicted or dispossessed for any cause, or in the event of Landlord obtaining possession of the Premises, by reason of the violation by Tenant of any terms and conditions of this Lease or otherwise.

19.05 Surrender If and whenever Landlord is entitled to or does re-enter, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving notice thereof, and in such event Tenant will forthwith vacate and surrender the Premises.

19.06 Payments If Landlord re-enters or if this Lease is terminated, Tenant will pay to Landlord on demand:

(a) Rent up to the time of re-entry or termination, whichever will be the later, plus three (3) months' accelerated rent as herein provided; and

(b) all expenses incurred by Landlord in performing any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, re-entering or terminating and re-letting, collecting sums due or payable by Tenant, realizing upon assets seized (including brokerage, legal fees and disbursements), and the expense of keeping the Premises in good order, repairing the same and preparing them for re-letting; and

(c) as damages (subject to the Landlord's obligation to mitigate at law) for the loss of income of Landlord expected to be derived from the Premises, the amounts (if any) by which the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease exceeds the payments (if any) received by Landlord from other tenants in the Premises, payable on the first (1st) day of each month during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term had it not been terminated, or if elected by Landlord by notice to Tenant at or after re-entry or termination, a lump sum amount equal to the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease from the date of such election during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term, had it not been terminated, reduced by the rental value of the Premises for the same period, established by reference to the terms and conditions upon which Landlord re-lets them if such re-letting is accomplished within a reasonable period after termination, and otherwise established by reference to all market and other relevant circumstances; Rent and rental value being reduced to present worth at an assumed interest rate of ten percent (10%) on the basis of Landlord's estimates and assumptions of fact which will govern unless shown to be erroneous; and

(d) all Tenant Inducements given by Landlord to Tenant in respect of the Premises.

19.07 Remedies Cumulative No reference to nor exercise of any specific right or remedy by Landlord will prejudice or preclude Landlord from exercising or invoking any other remedy in respect thereof, whether allowed at law or expressly provided for in this Lease. No such remedy will be exclusive or dependent upon any other such remedy, but Landlord may from time to time exercise any one or more of such remedies independently or in combination.

19.08 Waiver In the event Tenant is in default in performing any of its obligations (including without limitation, the payment of any Rent), and Landlord shall have instituted proceedings to cancel, terminate or to confirm its cancellation or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall not have any right to prevent such cancellation or termination by remedying its default or defaults subsequent to the institution of such legal proceedings.

19.09 Intentionally deleted.

19.10 Additional Recourses If Tenant is in default to fulfill any of its obligations under this Lease and in particular its obligations pursuant to Articles 5.03, 5.10 and 18.02 of this Lease, then in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights or recourses of Landlord hereunder, Landlord may, at its option, obtain injunctive relief to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do, Tenant hereby expressly acknowledging and agreeing that this Article 19.10 constitutes a waiver against any defense to Landlord's application for injunctive relief made to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do.

19.11 Non-Waiver No condoning, excusing or over-looking by either party of any default by the other at any time in respect of any of its obligations shall operate as a waiver of Landlord's or Tenant's rights hereunder in respect of any such default or any subsequent default or so as to defeat or affect in any way the rights of Landlord or Tenant in respect of any such default or subsequent default. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by anything done or omitted to be done by Landlord or Tenant save only where such waiver is expressed in writing.

Without limiting the general application hereof, the acceptance of any sums of money, statements of account or reports that Tenant or Landlord must pay or provide pursuant to this Lease, shall not constitute a renunciation of the rights of Landlord or Tenant in virtue of theses presents.

19.12 Shopping Centre Assets Only the Shopping Centre assets and any property exclusively related thereto shall serve to satisfy the obligations of Landlord under this Lease or in virtue of any responsibility of Landlord resulting from its fault. Tenant recognizes and declares, without reserve, that any recourse by Tenant against Landlord based on, or in virtue of, this Lease or resulting from any fault of Landlord, shall be restricted and can only be executed against the Shopping Centre, to the exclusion of all other property belonging to Landlord.

19.13 Real Estate Investment Trust In the event that a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") should be at any time bound by the covenants of Landlord hereunder or incur any liability as Landlord hereunder, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease or at law, such covenants and liability hereunder and under all other agreements entered into pursuant hereto, if any, shall not be personally binding upon and resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse of satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the trustees of the REIT, unitholders of the REIT, annuitants under a plan of which the REIT or any unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the REIT or directors or officers of any of its nominees, although this provision shall not constitute a bar to any action against the REIT for specific performance of this Lease or performance of any obligation of the REIT arising from or in connection with its obligations, if any, under this Lease or other agreements entered into pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 20.00 Intentionally deleted.

ARTICLE 21.00 MISCELLANEOUS

21.01 Relationship of Parties Nothing contained in this Lease will create any relationship between parties to this Lease other than that of landlord and tenant, and it is acknowledged and agreed that Landlord does not in any way or for any purpose become a partner of Tenant in the conduct of its business, or a joint venturer or a member of a joint or common enterprise with Tenant.

21.02 Consent Not Unreasonably Withheld Except as otherwise specifically provided, whenever consent or approval of Landlord or Tenant is required under the terms of this Lease, such consent or approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant's sole remedy if Landlord unreasonably withholds or delays consent or approval will be an action for specific performance, and Landlord will not be liable for damages. If either party withholds any consent or approval, such party will on written request deliver to the other party a written statement giving the reasons therefor.

21.03 Applicable Law and Interpretation This Lease will be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located, and its provisions will be interpreted as a whole according to their common meaning and not strictly for or against Landlord or Tenant. The words "Landlord" and "Tenant" will include the plural as well as the singular. If this Lease is executed by more than one party as Tenant, Tenant's obligations under this Lease will be joint and several obligations of such executing parties. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions. The captions of the Articles are included for convenience only, and will have no effect upon the interpretation of this Lease.

Certain text in this Lease has been bolded and underlined and certain text has been deleted by way of a line through applicable text. Such bolding and underlining and lines through the applicable text have been used to identify changes to Landlord's standard form of lease for the Shopping Centre. All bolded and underlined text will be read as if not bolded and underlined and all text deleted by way of a line will be deemed not to exist.

21.04 Entire Agreement This Lease (together with any other agreement entered into by the Landlord, the Tenant and/or its or their affiliates in connection with this Lease) contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Lease and except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Lease, this Lease supersedes and revokes all previous negotiations, arrangements, letters of intent, offers to lease, lease proposals, brochures, agreements, representations, promises, warranties, understandings, and information conveyed, whether oral or in writing, between the parties hereto or their respective representatives or any other person purporting to represent Landlord or Tenant. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it has not relied upon any statement, representation, agreement or warranty except such as are expressly set out in this Lease.

21.05 Amendment or Modification Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, no amendment, modification, or supplement to this Lease will be valid or binding unless set out in writing and executed by the parties hereto in the same manner as the execution of this Lease.

21.06 Construed Covenants and Severability All of the provisions of this Lease are to be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words importing such covenants and agreements were used in each separate Article hereof. If any term, proviso, covenant or condition of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is to any extent held or rendered invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal it or its application will be considered separate and severable from this Lease to such extent and the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term, proviso, covenant or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is held invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal will not be affected thereby and will continue to be applicable and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

21.07 No Implied Surrender or Waiver No provisions of this Lease will be deemed to have been waived by Landlord unless such waiver is in writing signed by Landlord. Landlord's waiver of a breach of any term or condition of this Lease will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a breach, from having all the force and effect of any original breach. Landlord's receipt of Rent with knowledge of a breach by Tenant of any term or condition of this Lease will not be deemed a waiver of such breach. Landlord's failure to enforce against Tenant or any other tenant in the Shopping Centre any of the Rules and Regulations made under Article 14.00 will not be deemed a waiver of such Rules and Regulations. No act or thing done by Landlord, its agents or employees during the Term will be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept a surrender of the Premises will be valid, unless in writing signed by

Landlord. The delivery of keys to any of Landlord's agents or employees will not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises. No payment by Tenant, or receipt by Landlord, of a lesser amount than the Rent due under this Lease will be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated Rent, nor will any endorsement or statement on any cheque or any letter accompanying any cheque, or payment as Rent, be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such cheque or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Rent or pursue any other remedy available to Landlord.

21.08 Additional Costs Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Rent, upon written request therefore, any and all costs, including without limitation, costs of additional security, cleaning and legal costs, incurred by Landlord as a result of picketing, demonstration or other activity within the Shopping Centre which is initiated by members of any organization, including, without limitation, a trade union, and which is directed at Tenant, its contractors, subcontractors, suppliers or employees or at Tenant's operations in the Shopping Centre.

21.09 Successors Bound Except as otherwise specifically provided, the covenants terms and conditions contained in this Lease will apply to and bind the heirs, successors, executors, administrators and permitted assigns of the parties hereto.

21.10 Brokerage Commission Any brokerage commissions with respect to the present transaction shall be borne exclusively by Tenant and Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any and all claims for payment of commission with respect thereto, unless Landlord has given a specific written mandate to any broker or agent for the present transaction.

21.11 Confidentiality Tenant agrees to keep the terms and conditions of this Lease confidential. Any information pertaining to this Lease cannot be communicated or revealed to a third party without the written consent of Landlord whose refusal will be deemed reasonable if the information that would be communicated or revealed is of a financial nature. Tenant's failure to respect this Article 21.11 is acknowledged by Tenant to constitute a major prejudice to Landlord and also a default according to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

21.12 No Offer by Landlord Landlord will not be deemed to have made an offer to Tenant by preparing this Lease.

21.13 Time of Essence Time shall be of the essence of this Lease in respect to all of the agreements and obligations of Tenant and/or Landlord contained herein.

21.14 Force Majeure If any party hereto is bona fide delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any term, obligation or act required hereunder by reason of Force Majeure, then performance of such term, obligation or act is excused for the period during which the cause of the Force Majeure persists. Once the cause of this Force Majeure has ceased, the party so delayed shall perform such terms, obligations or acts within the time period stipulated in the Lease, without regard for such period of time during which the cause of the Force Majeure persisted.

21.15 Non-Smoking Shopping Centre The Shopping Centre is a non-smoking facility. Tenant, its employees, invitees, customers, and anyone for whom Tenant is responsible at law are strictly prohibited from smoking in any interior or exterior areas of the Shopping Centre, except those exterior areas designated by Landlord as designated smoking areas (if any). Tenant agrees that it will comply with the foregoing restriction as well as any applicable legislation regulating smoking in shopping centres.

21.16 Counterpart Execution This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement, effective when all counterparts have been signed. The parties hereto agree that this Lease may be signed either by paper signature or by electronic signature and may be delivered electronically (in .pdf format) or otherwise, and the parties accept any such electronic signatures as original signatures of the parties.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Security Landlord may from time to time adopt appropriate systems and procedures for the security or safety of the Shopping Centre, any persons occupying, using or entering the same, or any equipment, finishings or contents thereof, and Tenant will comply with Landlord's reasonable requirements relative thereto.

2. Return of Keys At the end of the Term, Tenant will promptly return to Landlord all keys for the Shopping Centre and Premises which are in possession of Tenant.

3. Repair, Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements Tenant will carry out Tenant's repair, maintenance, alterations and improvements in the Premises only during times agreed to in advance by Landlord and in a manner which will not interfere with the rights of other tenants in the Shopping Centre.

4. Water Fixtures Tenant will not use water fixtures for any purpose for which they are not intended, nor will water be wasted by tampering with such fixtures. Any cost or damage resulting from such misuse by Tenant will be paid for by Tenant.

5. Personal Use of Premises The Premises will not be used or permitted to be used for residential, lodging or sleeping purposes or for the storage of personal effects or property not required for business purposes.

6. Heavy Articles and Overloading Services Tenant will not place in or move about the Premises, without Landlord's prior written consent, any safe or other heavy article which in Landlord's reasonable opinion may damage the Shopping Centre, and Landlord may designate the location of any heavy articles in the Premises. Tenant will not overload any utility or service in or serving the Premises or any part of the Shopping Centre.

7. Animals, Bicycles, Shopping Carts Tenant will not bring any animals or birds into the Shopping Centre, and will not permit bicycles or other vehicles inside or on the sidewalks outside the Shopping Centre except in areas designated from time to time by Landlord for such purposes. Tenant shall not permit shopping carts in the Common Areas and Facilities and shall be fully responsible for their removal and indemnify Landlord from any claim, loss, expense, damages or injuries caused by the shopping carts.

8. Deliveries Tenant will ensure that deliveries or shipments of supplies, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, wares and merchandise to or from the Premises are made only through such Delivery Facilities, entrances, elevators and corridors and at such times as may from time to time be designated by Landlord, and will promptly pay or cause to be paid to Landlord the cost of repairing any damage in the Shopping Centre caused by any person making such deliveries or shipments.

9. Solicitations Landlord reserves the right to restrict or prohibit canvassing, soliciting or peddling in the Shopping Centre.

10. Food, Beverages and Entertainment Only persons approved from time to time by Landlord may prepare, solicit orders for, sell, serve or distribute foods or beverages in the Shopping Centre, or use the elevators, corridors or Common Areas and Facilities for any such purposes. Except with Landlord's prior written consent and in accordance with arrangements approved in writing by Landlord, Tenant will not permit on the Premises the use of equipment for dispensing food or beverages or for the preparation, solicitation of orders for, sale, serving or distribution of food or beverages or for the selling or providing of any form of entertainment, including vending machines or other machines operated by coins or other devices.

11. Refuse Tenant will separate and place all refuse in proper receptacles provided by Tenant at its expense in the Premises or in receptacles in recycling stations (if any) provided for the Shopping Centre, and will keep sidewalks and driveways outside the Shopping Centre, and lobbies, corridors, stairwells, ducts and shafts of the Shopping Centre, free of all refuse.

12. Obstructions Tenant will not obstruct or place anything in or on the sidewalks or driveways outside the Shopping Centre or in the lobbies, corridors, stairwells or other Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre, or use such locations for any purpose except access to and exit from the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent. Landlord may remove at Tenant's expense any such obstruction or thing (unauthorized by Landlord) without notice or obligation to Tenant.

13. Dangerous, Immoral or Hazardous Activities Tenant will not make any use of the Premises which involves the danger of injury to any person, nor will same be used for any immoral purpose or to commit any act of waste or damage to any part of the Premises or to use any part of the Premises so as to constitute a hazard.

14. Proper Conduct Tenant will not conduct itself in any manner which is inconsistent with the character of the Shopping Centre as being of first quality or which will impair the comfort and convenience of other tenants in the Shopping Centre. Such prohibited conduct will include the playing of loud music and the placing of merchandise racks in the Common Areas and Facilities.

15. Parking Landlord, from time to time, may prohibit Tenant, Tenant's employees and Tenant's suppliers and others making deliveries to or receiving shipments from the Premises from parking anywhere within the Shopping Centre. If Landlord designates Tenant parking areas in the Shopping Centre, Tenant will park its vehicles and will cause its employees to park their vehicles only in such designated parking areas. Tenant will furnish Landlord, upon request, with the current licence numbers of all vehicles owned or used by Tenant or its employees and Tenant thereafter will notify Landlord of any changes in such numbers within five (5) days after the occurrence thereof. In the event of failure of Tenant or its employees to park their vehicles in such designated parking areas, Tenant will forthwith on demand pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the sum of $20.00 per day per each car so parked. Landlord reserves the right to impose reasonable charges upon any person (including the general public) for the use of any parking facilities which may from time to time form a part of the Shopping Centre.

16. Sustainability Tenant shall implement energy-efficient practices within the Premises, including closing all window shades, turning off any unnecessary lights and equipment after the close of business day.

Tenant will keep any exterior doors and windows to the Premises closed during the periods where there is a variation of three (3) degrees Celsius or more between indoor and outdoor temperatures.

Tenant will turn off interior mall signage and display window lighting half-an-hour after closing until half-an-hour before opening time the next day (the "After-Hours Period"), or as Landlord deems appropriate.

Tenant will limit After-Hours Period interior lighting to emergency lighting, when the Premises are not occupied.

Where Tenant has the ability to control its HVAC for the Premises, Tenant will adjust the HVAC temperature settings so as to limit the Premises' energy consumption during the After-Hours Period by setting back the temperature of the Premises by six (6) degrees Celsius from the daytime temperature setting.

Tenant will not use space heaters in or for the Premises, unless Tenant first obtains Landlord's written consent.

If Landlord leak tests for Tenant's plumbing fixtures reveal water leaks or other defects, Landlord will notify Tenant of such defects and Tenant will take all necessary actions to diligently remedy said effects.

Tenant will comply with Landlord's waste minimization and diversion rules and regulations, as established from time to time.

Tenant will make available an appropriate staff representative to attend Landlord's information and training sessions relating to Landlord's initiatives for improving the Shopping Centre's operational sustainability.

Said amounts shall be increased annually per Article 7.01.

1.15 HVAC Costs/Charge for the Tenant: For the 2024 Fiscal Year, an initial amount estimated to be $NIL per square foot of the Area per annum.

1.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.17 Intentionally deleted.

1.18 Definitions: In this Lease:

1.18.1 "Additional Rent" means all amounts (other than Minimum Rent) that Tenant is required to pay to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

1.18.2 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.3 "Area" means the area expressed in square feet of all floors of the Premises measured from the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows or those separating the Premises from any Common Areas and Facilities, and the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises. The Area includes all interior space whether or not occupied by projections, structures or columns, openings, shafts, structural or non-structural. If a store front, show window or other part of the Premises is recessed from or protrudes beyond the lease line shown on Exhibit A (whether such recess or protrusion is located at or above ground level), the area of such recess or protrusion will be included in the Area. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Area of the Premises as of the date hereof is the Area set out in Article 1.04 hereof.

1.18.4 "Architect" means the architect, engineer, land surveyor, designer or technician that Landlord names, as the case may be.

1.18.5 "Article" means an article of this Lease.

1.18.6 "Authority" or "Authorities" means the federal, provincial, and municipal governments, the courts, administrative and quasi-judicial boards and tribunals and any other organizations or entities with the lawful authority to regulate, or having a power or right conferred at law or by or under a statute over Landlord, Tenant, the Premises or the Shopping Centre, including the business carried on therein.

1.18.7 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.8 "Commencement Date" means the first day of the Term (effective as of 12:00am).

1.18.9 "Common Areas and Facilities" means all areas, services and facilities not installed or intended for the exclusive use or benefit of any individual tenant, including without limitation, all non-leasable areas, service and administrative areas (including, without limitation, administrative offices, janitorial rooms and storage rooms not reserved to any tenant exclusively), all parking areas, parking decks, roofs, roadways, sidewalks, landscaped areas, floor slabs, exterior walls and exterior and interior structural portions of any open or enclosed malls or other common means of access to leasable premises (excluding any structural mezzanines within any leasable premises), public lavatories, truck courts, common loading areas, driveways, music and public address systems, electrical, plumbing and drainage, fire protection, fire detection, heating, ventilation and/or air-conditioning systems or equipment servicing the Shopping Centre and/or more than one tenant, mall decorative or promotional installations, customer and service stairways, mall directories and directional signs, information booths, elevators, escalators and all other areas, services and facilities which Landlord provides or designates from time to time to be part of Common Areas and Facilities.

1.18.10 "Consumer Price Index" or "C.P.I." means the Consumer Price Index for all items in the City of Vancouver as issued by Statistics Canada or its successor, provided that if such Consumer Price Index is not available from Statistics Canada or its successor, Landlord may utilize for the purposes of this Lease any reasonable measure of changes in consumer price levels.

1.18.11 "Delivery Facilities" means those portions of the Common Areas and Facilities which are, from time to time, designated by Landlord as facilities to be used in common by Landlord, tenants of the Shopping Centre, and others, for purposes of loading, unloading, delivery, dispatch and holding of merchandise, goods and materials entering or leaving the Shopping Centre, and those portions of the Shopping Centre giving vehicular access to the said facilities.

1.18.12 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.13 "Environmental Law" means the statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority or of the common law which affect the Premises or Tenant's business, and which impose any obligations relating to the protection, conservation or restoration of the natural environment or to any contaminant, pollutant, dangerous substance, potentially dangerous substance, noxious substance, toxic substance, hazardous waste, flammable, explosive or radioactive material or any other substances or materials that are declared or defined to be hazardous, toxic, contaminants or pollutants in or pursuant to any applicable federal, provincial or municipal statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority.

1.18.14 "Fiscal Year" means a twelve (12) month period (all or part of which falls within the Term) from time to time determined by Landlord with the concurrence of the appropriate taxation authorities, at the end of which Landlord's books are balanced for auditing and/or taxation purposes.

1.18.15 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.17 "Force Majeure" means, if during the Term either party to this Lease will be unable to perform any of the terms, obligations, or conditions contained in this Lease due to strikes, walkouts (except for strikes or walkouts directly involving employees of Tenant), civil commotion, warlike operations, governmental regulations or controls, acts of God, pandemics, inability to procure materials or services, otherwise beyond the reasonable control of such party. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, nothing in this Force Majeure provision will relieve Tenant from payment of Rent as required in this Lease and insolvency or lack of funds will not relieve any party to this Lease from fulfillment of any obligation arising from any part of this Lease.

1.18.18 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.19 "Goods and Services Tax" or "GST" means all goods and services tax, value-added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST, QST or any other similar tax) howsoever characterized, which any taxing Authority imposes on Landlord and/or requires Landlord to collect on behalf of said taxing Authority, on any amount received or receivable by Landlord from Tenant under the terms of this Lease.

1.18.20 "Gross Leasable Area" means the total of all floor areas (measured in the manner stipulated in the definition of "Area") of all premises in the Shopping Centre intended for leasing from time to time, whether said premises directly access an enclosed mall or court or not, but excluding basement areas, mezzanines, storage areas, elevator and escalator shafts, areas of the Common Areas and Facilities leased or occupied on a temporary basis, areas not used for retail purposes such as, by way of example only, areas leased or occupied for non-retail purposes or promotional purposes and areas occupied by the Shopping Centre manager and any support staff.

1.18.21 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.22 "Hazardous Substance" means, whether or not controlled or regulated by Environmental Law, any solid, liquid, gas, odour, heat, sound, vibration or combination of them resulting directly or indirectly from human activities that may, if released into the environment, have an adverse effect on the natural environment or on people, property or the normal conduct of business, including without limitation, harmful moulds or other harmful airborne substances, flammables, explosives, radioactive materials, urea formaldehyde foam, asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), pollutants, contaminants, hazardous wastes, toxic substances or related materials, petroleum or petroleum products and substances declared to be hazardous or toxic under any law, by-law, regulation or ordinance now or hereafter enacted.

1.18.23 "HVAC Cost" means all the costs, charges and expenses in any Fiscal Year for the operation, repair, replacement and maintenance of the systems for heating, ventilating, and air conditioning the Shopping Centre and/or premises including the Premises as established by Landlord, from time to time, on a fair and equitable basis which reflects load and hours of operation provided, however, where Tenant pays an HVAC Charge for the Premises, or where Tenant maintains, repairs and replaces HVAC for the Premises at its cost, HVAC costs shall exclude the Premises.

1.18.24 "Interest Rate" means the Prime Rate in force when an amount becomes due, plus three (3) percentage points.

1.18.25 "Land" means all of the lands described in Exhibit B.

1.18.26 "Landlord" means the party first herein above described and includes its successors and assigns, and in articles that contain a release or other exculpatory provisions or an indemnity in favour of Landlord, including the officers, directors, employees and agents and contractors of Landlord, as well as any Person under Landlord's exclusive control.

1.18.27 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.28 "Lease" means this Lease, and the Exhibits annexed to this Lease described in Article 1.18.55 and every properly executed instrument which by its term amends, modifies or supplements this Lease.

1.18.29 "Lease Year" means a period of twelve (12) calendar months except the first Lease Year of the Term which will begin on the Commencement Date and end on the last day of the calendar month in which the first (1st) anniversary of the day immediately preceding the Commencement Date occurs and succeeding Lease Years will comprise successive periods of twelve (12) calendar months (and the last Lease Year in the Term may contain less than twelve (12) calendar months), but if Landlord deems it expedient, it may by written notice to Tenant specify an annual date upon which any Lease Year will terminate, in which event the appropriate adjustments will be made between the parties.

1.18.30 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.31 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.32 "Management Company" means a company or other entity, if any, retained by Landlord from time to time to operate or manage the Shopping Centre.

1.18.33 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.34 "Minimum Rent" means the amount payable by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to Article 1.09 in respect of each year of the Term under Article 4.01.

1.18.35 "Mortgagee" shall have the meaning given to the term in Article 17.03.

1.18.36 "Operating Agreement(s)" means any agreement or agreements between Landlord and the owner(s) of lands neighbouring or contiguous to the Land, pursuant to which the developments and improvements on the Land and the developments and improvements on such neighbouring or contiguous lands are operated on a coordinated basis (if any).

1.18.37 "Operating Costs" means:

(a) all costs, expenses and charges which are attributable to the insuring, operation, repair, replacement, administration and maintenance of the Shopping Centre or incurred to reduce Operating Costs, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any tax, rate, charge, levy, duty, fee, tariff or assessment however imposed, assessed or charged in relation to the consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature for the Shopping Centre and/or the Premises or from any part of the foregoing, or levied or charged in lieu thereof, the costs to Landlord of purchasing in compliance with all applicable laws of any Authority tradable units of greenhouse producing gases including without limitation carbon dioxide, HVAC Cost, plus energy costs in relation thereto, depreciation or amortization allocable to the Fiscal Year on equipment and fixtures, energy conservation and security costs, cleaning, snow removal, landscaping, garbage collection and disposal, recycling, painting, decorations, parking lot repairs, maintenance, replacements and stripping, roof repairs, maintenance and replacements, utilities including water, gas, and electricity, security and security equipment and technology, energy efficiency, energy sub-metering and recycling technology and equipment, rental of equipment and hiring of services, remuneration of all or any on-site Shopping Centre staff and supervisory personnel, including but not limited to managers, supervisors and support staff, including wages, bonuses and benefits, employment related costs, including the foregoing costs of off-site personnel involved in the administration and management of Taxes and insurance for the Shopping Centre, general overhead expenses including office supplies and equipment, postage and courier costs, the fair market rentable value and any business taxes associated with any office space in the Shopping Centre used by Landlord or Management Company to operate and administer the Shopping Centre, interest calculated at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum in excess of the Prime Rate upon the undepreciated or unamortized portion of the cost and expense of items being depreciated or amortized from time to time and capital replacement of the systems for heating, ventilating and air conditioning the Shopping Centre, and repairs and replacement of the roofs and parking facilities of the Shopping Centre;

(b) all expenses after the date any space in the Shopping Centre was first occupied by any tenant and properly allocable to the Fiscal Year for any capital improvement or structural repair to the Shopping Centre, or required by any change in the laws, rules, regulations, or orders of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority having jurisdiction, or incurred to reduce Operating Costs, which expenses will be amortized in accordance with reputable shopping centre management and operation practices, and interest calculated at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum in excess of the Prime Rate upon the unamortized portion of the total costs of the foregoing;

(c) all costs, charges and expenses which are directly attributable to the operation, management, repair, replacement and maintenance of the Shopping Centre or incurred to reduce Operating Costs but which are not attributable solely to the operation, management, repair, replacement and maintenance of any leasable area of the Shopping Centre; and

(d) an administration fee equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total of the items set out in Article 1.001.18.37(a), (b) and (c) above.

1.18.38 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.38.1 "Original Lease" means that certain lease dated June 9, 1993 (as amended, supplemented, renewed and extended from time to time, including pursuant to the amending agreements dated August 15, 2001, May 20, 2004, June 10, 2004, September 24, 2004 and October 27, 2004 and the omnibus agreements dated November 17, 2015 and December 29, 2020, collectively, the "Original Lease"), entered into by Landlord and the Tenant (by them or which apply to them as successors to the original parties thereto) for the Premises which Original Lease has been surrendered immediately prior to the Commencement Date.

1.18.39 "Owners" means the owner or owners or co-owners from time to time (other than Landlord) of the freehold or leasehold title of the Shopping Centre.

1.18.40 "Person" where the context allows, includes any physical person, corporation, partnership or association, or any groups or combinations of same.

1.18.41 "Premises" means the premises described in Article 1.02, the approximate location of which is shown on Exhibit A. If the Premises are entirely self-enclosed, the boundaries shall extend to the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows, or those separating the Premises from Common Areas and Facilities, the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises, and from the top surface of the structural sub-floor to the underside of the roof or any structural floor slab situated immediately above the ceiling of the Premises. Premises shall exclude any Common Areas and Facilities located within them, and if the Premises are open to the ceiling of the Shopping Centre, the boundaries of the Premises will extend from the top surface of the structural sub-floor to the top of its permanent structures. The "Premises" include the structure slab for the lowest floor level and all fixed improvements located below the slab or on the roof which are for the exclusive use of the Tenant and which are comprised of any mechanical, electrical, plumbing and other services and any insulation, and all elevators and escalators therein (including connecting the Premises to the parking garage), and all elevator shafts, cabs and lobbies.

1.18.42 "Prime Rate" means the annual rate of interest announced from time to time by Royal Bank of Canada at its main branch in Toronto, Ontario, as a reference rate then in effect for determining interest rates on Canadian dollar commercial loans in Canada.

1.18.43 "Promotion Fund" means the fund for promotion of the Shopping Centre, if any, described in Article 4.11.

1.18.44 "Proportionate Share" means, a fraction, the numerator of which is the Area, and the denominator of which is the Gross Leasable Area. For certainty, the Tenant's Proportionate Share for the purposes of this Lease shall be determined in a manner consistent with the Tenant's Proportionate Share figure used by the parties under the Original Lease as at the Termination Date.

1.18.45 "Released Persons" means collectively and individually, Landlord, Owners, Mortgagee and any Management Company and partners of the Owners or Landlord. In articles that contain a release or other exculpatory provision or an indemnity in favour of any Released Persons, "Released Persons" includes the officers, directors, employees and agents of the Released Persons, and Landlord acting as agent for, or as trustee for, the benefit of the Released Persons so that each such release, indemnity and/or other exculpatory provision is fully enforceable by the Released Persons.

1.18.46 "Rent" means the Minimum Rent and the Additional Rent.

1.18.47 "Shopping Centre" means the Site and all buildings and Common Areas and Facilities on the Site as each of the foregoing exists from time to time, as may be varied from time to time by adding or subtracting or altering or reconfiguring or by such other means as Landlord considers necessary or advisable.

1.18.48 "Site" means the Land indicated on Exhibit B as may be varied from time to time by adding or subtracting land or by such other means as Landlord considers necessary or advisable (and even if parts of the Site may be separated from other parts of same by lanes, streets, highways or any other means of passage in or to which others may have rights).

1.18.49 "Taxes" means the aggregate of all taxes, rates, charges (including local improvement charges), levies, assessments, licence fees, excise and other charges, or any other taxes, rates or charges levied, charged or assessed in lieu thereof, imposed by any competent authority upon or in respect of the Shopping Centre, upon or in respect of all adjoining or neighbouring lands from time to time owned or made available to Landlord and used in connection with the Shopping Centre, or upon or in respect of both, and upon or in respect of all developments and improvements on the Shopping Centre and on such adjoining or neighbouring lands (including, without limitation, parking lot/transit support taxes, rates charges, levies and assessments), such taxes, rates, charges, levies and assessments being established by such competent authority based upon the Shopping Centre, in its various stages of development, assessed as a completed, fully occupied Shopping Centre. Subject to the foregoing, in determining Taxes, any corporate income, profits, excess profits, and business tax imposed upon the income of Landlord, and any other impost of a personal nature charged or levied against Landlord will be excluded, except to the extent that it is levied in lieu of Taxes. Landlord's reasonable expenditures for consultation, negotiation and contestation, to the extent that they are incurred in an attempt to minimize or reduce Taxes, shall be included in the definition of Taxes.

1.18.50 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.51 "Tenant" means the Person executing this Lease as Tenant. Where the context permits, Tenant will also include all servants, employees, agents and contractors of Tenant, as well as any Person under Tenant's exclusive control.

1.18.52 "Tenant Security" means any deed creating a charge or having the effect of encumbering, in any manner whatsoever, the rights that Tenant and/or any other Person (other than Landlord) have in any property (excluding this Lease and the Premises), whether movable or immovable, located in or forming part of the Premises, to secure in whole or in part any loan, indebtedness, authorized credit or any other obligation.

1.18.53 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.54 "Term" means the period of time set out in Article 1.05 and shall include all renewals and extensions thereof.

1.18.55 Exhibits

"Exhibit A" means the plan(s) attached hereto as Exhibit A.

"Exhibit B" means the legal description(s) attached hereto as Exhibit B.

"Exhibit C" INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

"Exhibit D" means the Rules and Regulations attached hereto as Exhibit D.

"Exhibit E" INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

"Exhibit F" means the sample Estoppel Certificate attached hereto as Exhibit F.

ARTICLE 2.00 GRANT OF LEASE

2.01 Grant Landlord hereby demises and leases the Premises to Tenant, and Tenant hereby leases and accepts the Premises from Landlord, to have and to hold during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.02 Quiet Enjoyment So long as Tenant performs its obligations under this Lease, Landlord will warrant and defend Tenant in the quiet enjoyment and possession of the Premises during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.03 Covenants of Landlord and Tenant Landlord covenants to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Landlord under this Lease. Tenant covenants to pay the Rent when due under this Lease, and to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Tenant under this Lease.

ARTICLE 3.00 TERM, POSSESSION AND TERMINATION OF ORIGINAL LEASE

3.01 Landlord's Option to Renew. Landlord has, exercisable at its sole and entire and unfettered discretion by giving at least 12 months' prior written notice to the Tenant, the right to renew this Lease for an additional period of five (5) years (the "Renewal Term") on the same terms and conditions as set out herein, save and except for the Minimum Rent, which shall be equal to the minimum/base rent that would have been payable under the Original Lease during this Renewal

Term had the Original Lease not been terminated and continued during the period of this Renewal Term.

3.02 Intentionally deleted.

3.03 Acceptance of Premises and Tenant Acknowledgements The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that: (a) it originally occupied the Premises pursuant to the Original Lease, and as of the date hereof, it continues to be in possession of the Premises (which possession by the Tenant was in place prior to the date hereof pursuant to the Original Lease); (b) it has accepted the Premises in an entirely "as is where is" condition basis without any representation, warranty or obligation on the part of the Landlord to perform any work or construct any leasehold or other improvements in the Premises or the Shopping Centre in connection with the Tenant's intended use thereof; (c) the continued possession of all or any portion of the Premises by the Tenant is conclusive evidence as against the Tenant that the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition as of the date hereof, (d) it is solely responsible (at its sole cost and expense and without any reimbursement from or contribution by the Landlord) for all improvements, fixtures, chattels or other personal property currently existing or which in the future may exist or may be required in, on or around the Premises and needed, required or used by the Tenant for the operation of its business from the Premises, and (e) it does not have any right of first refusal, right of first opportunity, option to purchase or any other right to acquire any interest or real property right in all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

3.04 Limitation on Length of Term This Lease is entered into subject to the express condition that it is to be effective to create any interest in land only if the provisions of any statute are complied with relating to the severance of land or interests in land by conveyance or otherwise (as it may from time to time be amended). Landlord and Tenant agree, as a separate and distinct agreement, that if pursuant to any statute consent is requisite to the validity of this Lease, either party may apply for such consent and until unconditional consent has been obtained, the Term of this Lease or any renewal thereof will not extend beyond the period permitted without consent pursuant to any such statute, with no further right on the part of Tenant to extend the term, notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease.

3.05 Termination of Original Lease Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that the Original Lease is surrendered and terminated effective on 11:59pm on the date immediately preceding the Commencement Date (the "Termination Date"). The respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant with respect to the Premises and the Original Lease will be preserved and will survive the Termination Date, as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Termination Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to the Original Lease on or after the Termination Date. Any breach of the Original Lease which has not been cured will, after the Termination Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Original Lease. Tenant represents, warrants and covenants with Landlord that Tenant has the absolute right, full power and authority to agree to the termination of the Original Lease as provided herein.

3.05(A) Reinstatement of Original Lease.

Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that if at November 13, 2028 (the "Original Lease Reinstatement Date") no Event (as such term is hereinafter defined) has occurred or is continuing, and there is not then any default occurring of the Tenant's obligations under this Lease, failing which this provision shall not apply and be null and void (and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect without any obligation to enter into the Reinstated Original Lease), then the parties shall execute and deliver to one another the Reinstated Original Lease (as defined below) which shall provide and confirm that effective upon the Original Lease Reinstatement Date: (1) this Lease shall be resolved, cancelled, surrendered and rescinded; and (2) the termination of the Original Lease shall be deemed to have been revoked and, except as expressly modified pursuant to this provision, the Original Lease shall be reinstated in its entirety effective as of the Original Lease Reinstatement Date and shall again be in full force and effect as if the same had never been terminated. However, the respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant as to the Premises under this Lease will be preserved and will survive the termination of this Lease on the Original Lease Reinstatement Date as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to this Lease on or after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date (given the Reinstated Original Lease will thereafter govern this tenancy). Any breach of this Lease which has not been cured will, after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of this Lease.

"Event" means the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) Tenant (or any of its affiliates) defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under this Lease or any HBC IC Lease (as hereinafter defined); or

(2) Tenant (a) is insolvent, (b) has committed an act of bankruptcy, and/or (c) has become bankrupt.

"HBC IC Lease" means any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties:

(i) Galeries D'Anjou;

(ii) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(iii) Outlet Collection at Niagara on the Lake;

(iv) Southgate;

(v) Mapleview;

(vi) Oshawa;

(vii) CrossIron Mills;

(viii) St. Foy;

(ix) Outlet collection Winnipeg; or

(x) Vaughan Mills.

"Reinstated Original Lease" means the Original Lease but reinstated and amended only to provide that the Term of the reinstated Original Lease shall commence on the Original Lease Reinstatement Date and end upon the expiry of the remaining unexpired Term of this Lease as at the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, Tenant, subject to the following sentence shall have the unexpired rights, if any, to renew or extend the said Term as set out in the Original Lease on the terms and conditions set out therein (inclusive of the calculation of minimum rent). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the expiry of the Term (taking into consideration all options to extend in favour of the Tenant) of the Reinstated Original Lease shall not exceed the date on which the Original Lease would have expired (taking into consideration all options to extend in favour of the Tenant thereunder). For greater certainty, and as an illustrative example only to further clarify the parties' intent, if the expiry of the term of the Original Lease was December 31, 2030, taking into consideration all options to extend in favour of the Tenant, and the Reinstated Original Lease was executed by the parties, the Term of the Reinstated Original Lease, taking into consideration all options to renew or extend in favour of the Tenant, shall not exceed December 31, 2030. Landlord shall prepare the form of Reinstated Original Lease and the parties shall forthwith thereafter execute and deliver same to the other, each at its sole expense. In addition, Tenant shall execute such other documents contemplated in Section 3.05 hereof for the discharge of any registered documents relating to this Lease for which Section 3.05 shall equally apply in this context, mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 4.00 RENT

4.01 Minimum Rent Tenant will pay to Landlord a Minimum Rent for the Premises described in Article 1.09 of this Lease, payable in advance in equal and consecutive monthly instalments and without notice on the Commencement Date and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter during the Term, subject to the adjustment of Minimum Rent provided in this Article 4.00.

Commencing at the commencement of the fourth year of the Term and at the commencement of every third year thereafter, the following calculation shall be made and, to the extent that the calculation results in a positive amount, such amount shall also be payable as Minimum Rent by the Tenant, per square foot of Area, for the year in which the calculation is to be made and for each of the subsequent two years:

$$\frac{$1.25 \times CPI_2 - CPI_1}{CPI_1}$$

Where CPI_1 is the C.P.I. as of June 9, 1993 and CPI_2 is the C.P.I. as of the date on which the adjustment is to be made. Such annual amount per square foot of the Area is hereby defined as the "Adjustment" for the purposes of Clause 6.00 of the Original Lease.

For the sake of clarity, the parties hereto hereby acknowledge and agree that the last such adjustment occurred on June 9, 2023. On or before thirty (30) days after each succeeding three-year anniversary date of June 9, 2023 throughout the Term, the Landlord shall advise the Tenant in writing of the actual adjustment to be made hereunder, using the formula hereinbefore set out.

In addition to the Minimum Rent, all sums of money required to be paid by the Tenant to the Landlord under this Lease and whether or not such sums of money are expressed or referred to as being rent, shall, when in default, be deemed to be additional rent and payable and recoverable as rent.

4.02 Intentionally deleted.

4.03 Intentionally deleted.

4.04 Intentionally deleted.

4.05 Net Lease It is the stated purpose and intent of Landlord and Tenant that, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Lease will be fully net to Landlord. Tenant will pay to Landlord, at the times and in the manner provided in Articles 4.07 and 4.09, its Proportionate Share of Taxes.

4.06 Intentionally deleted.

4.07 Intentionally deleted.

4.08 Taxes Payable by Tenant The Tenant shall be responsible for the payment of all Taxes imposed from time to time during the Term in respect of the Premises, including in each case the value of any Common Areas and Facilities which is included by the assessing authorities in the value of the Premises and the business operated therefrom and all the improvements constructed thereon and all the fixtures and equipment constructed and used by Tenant and its assignees, sublicensees and concessionaires. For certainty, Tenant shall pay the Tenant's Taxes contribution to the Landlord as Additional Rent hereunder in an amount equal to the actual Taxes levied specifically against the Premises by the taxing Authority, provided that if the Premises are not taxed on a separate basis, then in an amount determined by the Landlord, acting reasonably and equitably, on the basis of the notes and working papers of the assessment Authority (or its successor) made readily available to the Landlord, and provided further that if such notes and working papers are not readily available to the Landlord or they do not contain sufficient information to determine the Taxes applicable specifically to the Premises, then Tenant shall pay its Proportionate Share of all Taxes payable in respect of the Shopping Centre. The parties acknowledge and agree that as of the Commencement Date, the notes and working papers of the assessment authority are readily available to the Landlord and contain sufficient information to determine the Taxes applicable specifically to the Premises.

Tenant shall reimburse Landlord that part of any increase in Taxes for the Shopping Centre, which is reasonably attributable to any change, addition or improvement or special equipment identified by an assessment Authority made on or in the Premises by Tenant. In such event, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the total amount of said Tax increase attributable to Tenant within 30 days of receipt of an invoice from Landlord, said amount to be deemed Additional Rent.

For greater certainty, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any and all goods and services tax, value added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST or any other similar tax) ("Value Added Taxes"), it being the intention of the parties that Landlord shall collect from Tenant all Value Added Taxes collectable by Landlord on the Rent and any other amounts payable by Tenant under this Lease. The amount of such Value Added Taxes so payable by Tenant shall be calculated by Landlord in accordance with the applicable legislation and shall be paid to Landlord at the same time as the amount to which such Value Added Taxes apply are payable to Landlord under the terms of this Lease. The amount payable by Tenant under this provision shall be deemed not to be additional rent, but Landlord shall have all of the same remedies for and rights of recovery of such amount as it has for recovery of Rent under this Lease

The Landlord may appeal any official assessment or the amount of any Taxes or business taxes (including other taxes capable of constituting a lien) relating to the Shopping Centre including the improvements (including fixtures and equipment) thereon, and the Tenant may appeal any official assessment or any Taxes or business taxes relating to the Premises including the improvements thereon or, where the Tenant's obligations are directly or indirectly affected thereby, relating to any other portion of the Shopping Centre including the Common Area and Facilities. Neither the Landlord nor the Tenant shall institute any appeal without notice to the other and, where their interests do not conflict and in particular where the appeal is being made in order to achieve a re-assessment which is consistent with the basis contemplated by this Lease, each shall extend its co-operation and assistance to the other in respect to such appeal.

4.09 Changes in Taxes If the system of real estate taxation is altered or varied from that in force on the Commencement Date and any new tax shall be levied or imposed on all or part of the Shopping

Centre and/or the revenues therefrom and/or on Landlord in substitution for or in addition to previously existing Taxes by any taxing Authority, whether or not the taxing Authority has previously charged any Taxes, then any such new tax or levy shall be included in Taxes, or if by law, regulation or otherwise all or any part of any Taxes, is made payable by Landlord or if the mode of collecting such tax, assessment, local improvement, licence fee, excise or other charge is so altered so as to make Landlord liable in whole or in part therefor instead of Tenant or if all or any part of Tenant's Taxes under Article 8.01 is imposed, levied, assessed or charged upon or on account of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will pay to Landlord, from time to time, within 30 days after demand, the amount payable by Landlord, from time to time, as a result of such change as determined by Landlord in the same manner as the Proportionate Share of Taxes is payable under the terms of this Lease and Tenant will indemnify and save Landlord harmless from any cost or expense in respect thereof. For greater certainty, to the extent that the new tax or levy is fully recoverable by Tenant as an input tax credit or refund, such Tax shall be fully payable by Tenant notwithstanding the proportionate sharing of other Taxes hereunder.

4.10 Intentionally deleted.

4.11 ~~Promotion Fund~~ ~~Landlord may establish and maintain a common Promotion Fund for the Shopping Centre or continue to maintain any Promotion Fund in existence as of the Commencement Date of this Lease. Landlord will use the Promotion Fund for the promotion or benefit of the Shopping Centre in such a manner and as Landlord may, from time to time, decide and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord may utilize the Promotion Fund for payment of a full-time or part-time marketing director, the employment of other promotional staff and customer service, the purchase of advertising space and time, materials or equipment for decorating and promotional events and activities similar to those undertaken by other shopping centres. Any surplus in the Promotion Fund at the end of a Fiscal Year of the Promotion Fund will be carried forward for like purposes in the next year, without any reduction in the amount payable by Tenant pursuant to this Article 4.11. Landlord may, at its sole discretion, establish a Promotion Fund advisory committee comprised of representatives of the tenants of the Shopping Centre chosen by Landlord to advise Landlord on the application of the Promotion Fund contributions.~~

~~If there is a Promotion Fund for the Shopping Centre, Tenant will pay to Landlord in equal monthly instalments, the amount stipulated in Articles 1.12, towards the Promotion Fund, and may include the development of a mall video network, offering a program of information, entertainment and advertisements, and for the promotion of the Shopping Centre.~~

~~Landlord will have the right at its discretion to change the Fiscal Year of the Promotion Fund as it may deem appropriate, from time to time. In the event of any such change, Tenant's required contributions to the Promotion Fund for any fiscal year thereof, which is either greater or lesser than twelve (12) calendar months, will be adjusted by Landlord in a reasonable manner.~~

4.12 Intentionally deleted.

4.13 Landlord's Promotions Landlord may promote and advertise the Shopping Centre in a manner and to the extent that would a diligent and prudent owner of a similar shopping centre, taking into account the nature, size, age, character and location of the Shopping Centre as well as the general image that Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre from time to time. Tenant agrees that Landlord will never be obliged to spend more than the total amount paid to the Promotion Fund described in Article 1.12 by the tenants of the Shopping Centre in any Fiscal Year in order to fulfill its obligations hereunder. Landlord shall alone administer the Promotion Fund.

Landlord's promotional activities may include, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the production and distribution of written advertising or promotional materials and/or audio and/or audio visual promotions by the various media (radio and television) and/or internet and/or seasonal decorations and/or all other forms of promotion or publicity in relation to the Shopping Centre alone or on a joint basis with one or more other shopping centres or properties of which Landlord is owner or manager. Tenant agrees to give its complete support and cooperation to all of Landlord's promotional activities. Without limitation, Tenant will honour any discount coupons, gift certificates, gift cards, electronic gift cards or other incentives given to customers as part of any promotional activity.

Landlord may designate an agent to promote and/or advertise on its behalf, to enter into any agreements with third parties for promotion and/or advertising purposes, and may use all or any part of the Promotion Fund contributions to pay or remunerate its agent.

4.14 Intentionally deleted.

4.15 Intentionally deleted.

4.16 Tenant's Support t Tenant will support all promotional events, functions and activities sponsored or participated in by either the Promotion Fund, if any. In order to comply with this obligation, however, Tenant will not be required to make any additional financial contributions toward the promotion of the Shopping Centre other than those set out in Article 4.11.

4.17 Payment of Rent – General l During the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay Minimum Rent and Additional Rent to Landlord in the manner provided in this Lease or if not so provided, as reasonably required by Landlord. All amounts payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease will be deemed to be Rent and will be payable and recoverable as Rent in the manner herein provided, and Landlord will have all rights and recourses against Tenant for default in any such payment as in the case of arrears of Rent. Rent will be paid to Landlord, without deduction or set-off, in legal tender of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located. If and to the extent Landlord so requires, Rent will be paid to Landlord, at Tenant's expense, by electronic funds transfer system or similar system whereby Tenant will authorize its bank, trust company, credit union or other financial institution to credit Landlord's bank account each month in an amount equal to the monthly Rent payable pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, otherwise, Rent will be paid to Landlord at the address of Landlord as set forth in the beginning of this Lease, or to such other Person or at such other address as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing.

Where Tenant makes payments of Rent by an electronic funds transfer system, Tenant shall notify Landlord by e-mail of the date of said electronic payment.

4.18 Rent – Adjustment for Partial Months If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the Commencement Date will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the Commencement Date to the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs (both the Commencement Date and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365. If the Term ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the first (1st) day of the last calendar month of the Term will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the first (1st) day of such last calendar month to the last day of the Term (both the first (1st) and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365.

4.19 Charge Adjustment Wherever it is mentioned in this Lease that Landlord may increase any amount or charge, the following rules may apply if required by the Landlord: (a) each permitted increase of any such amount or charge shall come into force as of the date indicated in Landlord's notice and shall remain in effect until the subsequent increase comes into effect; (b) each permitted increase of any such amount or charge may, at Landlord's option, be charged retroactively; (c) each time any such amount or charge increases, the amount or charge shall be deemed to be replaced by the increased amount or increased charge; (d) any such amount or charge that may be payable during any Fiscal Year shall never be less than the amount or charge so payable during the immediately preceding Fiscal Year; (e) the fact that no annual increase was imposed for any preceding Fiscal Year or such other period, or the fact that an amount less than the full amount of any permitted increase was charged, shall not prevent Landlord, in any manner whatsoever, from imposing the full amount of any annual increase, or any part thereof, during any subsequent Fiscal Year; and (f) the annual increase that Landlord shall be permitted to charge shall be calculated by multiplying the amount or charge presently in force by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the C.P.I. for the month of June of the current Fiscal Year in question and the denominator of which shall be the C.P.I. for the month of June for the immediately preceding Fiscal Year.

ARTICLE 5.00 USE OF PREMISES

5.01 Use and Business Name The Premises will be used and occupied only for the purposes described in Article 1.07; nothing in this Article 5.01 shall create or be deemed to create an exclusivity in favour of Tenant.

The business of Tenant in the Premises will be carried on under the name and style described in Article 1.08 and under no other name and style unless approved by Landlord in writing.

5.02 Hours of Business During the Term of this Lease, Tenant will conduct its business in the Premises on such days and during such hours as is required, from time to time, by Landlord unless prevented from so doing by any Authority, however, nothing herein shall require the Premises or portions thereof to be open during hours other than those which have been generally established by the Tenant for the operation of its similar stores in the greater Vancouver area. Tenant shall abide by all rules and regulations now or subsequently in force to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms of this Lease and are applied to Tenant in a non-discriminatory manner.

In the event Tenant fails to conduct its business in accordance with this Article 5.02 then Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.02.

5.03 Continuous Operations Tenant acknowledges that it forms part of an over-all merchandising mix designed to enhance the character, quality, image and reputation of the Shopping Centre, and that its continuous operation of the Premises is essential to Landlord to maintain that character, quality, image, nature and reputation and to facilitate the leasing of vacant space and renewing leases of existing tenants. Tenant therefore, provided the Landlord is operating the Shopping Centre in accordance with this Lease in all material respects, covenants and agrees that throughout the Term it will continuously occupy and operate in the entire Premises, comply strictly with the provisions of Article 5.02 and not vacate or abandon the Premises at any time during the Term. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is executing this Lease in reliance thereupon and that the same is a material element inducing Landlord to execute this Lease. Tenant further agrees that if it vacates or abandons the Premises or it fails to so conduct its business therein, or uses or permits or suffers the use of the Premises for any purpose not specifically herein authorized and allowed, Tenant will be in breach of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and shall have caused Landlord a grave and serious prejudice, and then, without constituting a waiver of Tenant's obligations or limiting Landlord's remedies under this Lease and at law, all Rent reserved in this Lease will immediately become due and payable to Landlord unless guaranteed to the satisfaction of Landlord. Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.03.

5.04 Restrictions on Use & Occupancy

(a) Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not advertise, do, omit, permit or suffer to be done or exist upon the Premises anything which will be or result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

(b) Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any mail order or catalogue enterprise; (iii) any enterprise for the purpose of taking telephone orders; (iv) a store conducted principally or in part for the sale of second hand goods or apparel, war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (v) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire, and only for a period of 30 days immediately following the reopening after such fire; (vi) a store conducted, promoted and/or represented in whole or substantially as a discount operation or in part as a discount operation so as to give the impression that it is being conducted principally as a discount operation; (vii) a pawn shop; (viii) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (ix) an auction sale; and (x) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre.

(c) Tenant shall not conduct on the Premises any "distress sale", "bankruptcy sale", "going out of business sale", "liquidation sale" or "fire sale" except as expressly provided above nor any other type of sale designed to convey to the public that business operations are to be discontinued or that the store shall close, Tenant shall only sell merchandise in the regular course of trade as a retailer operating the Premises for the purpose for which the Premises are leased. Notwithstanding the foregoing, within the last six (6) months of the Term, the Tenant shall have the right to conduct clearance and other sales promotions in the Premises and the Tenant shall be permitted to erect, install and maintain within the Premises during such period any clearance and/or store closing signage (or other signage of a similar nature), provided that (i) any such signage on the exterior of the Premises or which faces any Common Areas and Facilities, shall be subject to the Tenant obtaining all required municipal approvals as well as the Landlord's prior written approval for the nature, size, type and location thereof; and (ii) all clearance and other sales otherwise comply with the requirements of sub-paragraph (b) above and this Lease and are undertaken in a reputable and prudent manner that does not interfere with the typical use and operation of the Shopping Centre or the occupants thereof. Landlord's approval of such signage shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed provided it complies with this provision.

(d) Intentionally deleted.

(e) Tenant shall not use the Common Areas and Facilities for any reason whatsoever without the prior written approval of Landlord. Tenant will not place or keep any merchandise or other thing beyond the permanent floor mounted storefront or closure of the Premises or in the Common Areas and Facilities.

(f) Intentionally deleted.

5.05 Intentionally deleted.

5.06 Display Windows Tenant will keep display windows (if any) neatly dressed. Display windows and lighted signs (if any) will be kept illuminated by Tenant on all business days until at least one half hour after the Shopping Centre closes for business.

5.07 Compliance with Laws The Premises will be used and occupied in a safe, careful and proper manner so as not to contravene any present or future governmental or quasi-governmental laws in force or regulations or orders including, without limitation, all Environmental Law. If, due solely to Tenant's use of the Premises, improvements are necessary to comply with any of the foregoing or with the requirements of insurance carriers, Tenant shall execute same and will pay the entire cost thereof. Unless otherwise directed by Landlord, Tenant will obtain and comply with the terms of all licences, certificates of approval, permits and other approvals necessary or appropriate under applicable laws (inclusive of Environmental Law) for the safe and lawful conduct of its business at or from the Premises.

5.08 Nuisance Tenant will not cause or maintain any nuisance or hazard in or about the Premises and will keep the Premises free of debris, trash, rodents, vermin and anything of a dangerous, noxious or offensive nature or which could create a fire hazard (through undue load on electrical circuits or otherwise) or undue vibration, heat or any unusual or objectionable noises or odours or anything which may disturb the enjoyment of the Shopping Centre and all the Common Areas and Facilities thereof by customers and other tenants of the Shopping Centre, nor will Tenant allow any noise, sound or music in the Premises to be heard in the Common Areas and Facilities or neighbouring premises.

5.09 Advertising, Trade Names and Restricted Marks

(a) In its advertising, Tenant will use the name of the Shopping Centre, such trade names, symbols and slogans as may be designated by Landlord but Tenant will not indulge in any advertising or sales promotion which is undignified or not in conformity with the highest standards of practice among stores dealing in similar merchandise or might harm or tend to harm the business reputation of Landlord or reflect unfavourably on the Shopping Centre, or might confuse or mislead or tend to confuse or mislead the public. Tenant will not sell, advertise, conduct or solicit business anywhere within the Shopping Centre other than in the Premises.

(b) The name for the Shopping Centre which Landlord may from time to time adopt and every name or mark adopted by Landlord in connection with the Shopping Centre will be used by Tenant only in association with sales made at or from and the business carried on in the Premises during the Term and Tenant's use thereof will be subject to such regulations as Landlord may from time to time impose. Tenant will not acquire any rights in any such restricted name or mark, and upon the termination of this Lease all its interest herein will be deemed to have been surrendered to Landlord and Tenant will thereafter cease and abandon all use thereof. If Landlord so requests, Tenant will execute registered user applications or agreements or both to protect Landlord's trade mark rights.

5.10 Intentionally deleted.

5.11 Loading and Delivery The delivery and shipping of merchandise, supplies, fixtures, and other materials or goods of whatsoever nature to or from the Premises and all loading, unloading, and handling of it will be done only at the times, in the areas, by the means, and through the elevators, entrances, malls, and corridors as are designated by Landlord. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will not use or permit any elevators, entrances, malls, corridors or other parts of the Common Areas and Facilities to be used as temporary storage area or areas by Tenant, any of Tenant's employees or suppliers or others when making deliveries to or shipments from the Premises or any permitted storage area of Tenant.

Landlord accepts no liability and is hereby relieved and released by Tenant in respect of the operation of the Delivery Facilities, or the adequacy of them, or of the acts or omissions of any Person or Persons engaged in the operation of them, or in the acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch of any goods for or on behalf of Tenant, or for any claim of Tenant by reason of damage, loss, theft, or acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch, failure of any acceptance, holding, handling or dispatch, or any error, negligence or delay.

Landlord may, from time to time, make and amend regulations for the orderly and efficient operation of the Delivery Facilities, and may require the payment of reasonable and equitable charges for delivery services and removal provided by Landlord.

For certainty, the premises include the loading dock and unloading areas, which exclusively serve the Premises.

ARTICLE 6.00 SERVICES, MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS BY LANDLORD

6.01 Operation of Shopping Centre Landlord shall operate the Shopping Centre and maintain the Common Areas and Facilities as would a prudent and diligent owner of a similar shopping centre, having regard to the Shopping Centre's size, age, nature, location and region where the Shopping Centre is situated, as well as the type of clientele the Shopping Centre services and the general image Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre, all as determined by the Landlord in its sole discretion.

6.02 Services Landlord will provide in the Shopping Centre except where Tenant shall do so pursuant to this Lease:

(a) domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water and necessary supplies in common washrooms sufficient for the normal use thereof; and

(b) heat, ventilation, air conditioning, lighting, electric power, domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water, steam, natural gas and chilled water, in the Common Areas and Facilities (where appropriate).

6.03 Maintenance, Repair and Replacement Subject to the provisions of Article 7.01(b), Landlord will operate, maintain, repair and replace the systems, facilities and equipment necessary for the proper operation of the Shopping Centre and for provision of Landlord's services under Article 6.02 except as such may be installed by or be the property of Tenant or others (excluding Landlord) or both and except for the heating, ventilating and air conditioning equipment, elevators, escalators and other systems, facilities, machinery and equipment installed within or for the Premises, and will expeditiously maintain and repair the foundations, structure and roof of the Shopping Centre (excluding the Premises), provided that:

(a) if all or part of such systems, facilities and equipment are destroyed, damaged or impaired, Landlord will have a reasonable time in which to complete the necessary repair or replacement, and during that time will be required only to maintain such services as are reasonably possible in the circumstances;

(b) Landlord may temporarily discontinue such services or any of them at such times as may be necessary due to causes (except lack of funds) beyond the reasonable control of Landlord;

(c) Landlord will use reasonable diligence in carrying out its obligations under this Article 6.03, but will not be liable under any circumstances for any consequential damage to any Person (including without limitation, Tenant) or any property for any failure to do so;

(d) no reduction or discontinuance of such services under clauses (a) or (b) of this Article 6.03 will constitute as an eviction of Tenant or (except as specifically provided in this Lease) release Tenant from any obligation of Tenant under this Lease; and

(e) nothing contained herein will derogate from the provisions of Articles 7.02. 7.03 10.01, 16.01, 16.02, 16.03, or 16.04 and in no event shall Landlord be required to make any repairs or replacements which are necessary as a result of Tenant's default, negligence or willful misconduct..

6.04 Alterations by Landlord Landlord may, at any time prior to or during the Term, subject to Article 6.06: (i) change the area, level, location, arrangement or use of any portion of the Shopping Centre; (ii) construct on the Site or on adjacent lands, other buildings, structures or improvements and make alterations, additions, subtractions or rearrangements; (iii) modify, alter, expand, reduce or eliminate any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities; (iv) close off all or any part of the Shopping Centre and/or temporarily suspend services for the purpose of maintenance, repair, alteration or construction; (v) place any installations within or on any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities including without limitation, kiosks, planters, benches, promotional displays or activities and any other installations; (vi) close all or part of the Shopping Centre to the public outside of regular business hours, Sundays and holidays included; (vii) restrict areas on the Site available for employee parking, and/or prohibit employees from parking anywhere on the Site; (viii) impose reasonable charges for parking, and impose restrictions on refunds or compensations by Tenant to Persons using the parking areas; (ix) modify tenant mix, both with respect to kinds of uses which may be made of premises, as well as to changes in the physical location of any one or more tenants; (x) do and perform such other acts in relation to the Shopping Centre for the more efficient and proper operation of the Shopping Centre as Landlord determines to be advisable; (xi) change the name of the Shopping Centre; (xii) do all work required to install new, and/or maintain, adapt, repair or replace existing utility lines, pipes, roof drainage pipes, conduits, wires, duct work, columns and other matters through any part of the Premises if necessary and do any other work in the Premises to preserve, support or reinforce any structural walls or foundations of the Premises or the Shopping Centre, and do such work as may be required for an expansion or an alteration of all or part of the Shopping Centre.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, it is understood and agreed that if the Shopping Centre, the Site and/or the Common Areas and Facilities are diminished or altered in any manner whatsoever as a result of the exercise by Landlord of its rights set out in this Article 6.04, Landlord is not subject to any liability nor is Tenant entitled to any compensation or diminution or abatement of Rent, nor is any alteration or diminution thereof deemed to constitute constructive or actual eviction, or a breach of any covenant for quiet enjoyment contained in this Lease. Landlord and Tenant further agree that the exercise by Landlord of its rights under this Article 6.04 will not relieve Tenant of Tenant's obligations under Article 5.03 of this Lease.

The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that the Landlord has not granted to the Tenant and neither the Tenant or the Premises has the benefit of any merchandising controls, exclusivity rights, use restrictions, no-build zones, minimum parking ratio requirements, or minimum stall number requirements, or any other restrictions, restrictive covenants or approval rights applicable to the Site; the Shopping Centre or any part(s) thereof or any other lands abutting thereto or in the vicinity thereof ("Additional Lands") which the Landlord or any of its affiliates may have an interest in, including without limitation and for certainty anything that would otherwise restrict, limit, delay or otherwise interfere with the Landlord's (or its affiliate's) ability to lease, use, convey, alter, develop and/or redevelop all or any part of the Shopping Centre, the Site or any such Additional Lands. The Tenant hereby confirms that any of the forgoing that the Tenant was entitled to or that were granted in or in connection with the Original Lease, its occupancy of the Premises or otherwise have been expressly waived by the Tenant, have terminated and have ceased to have any force or effect. The Tenant covenants and agrees: (a) not to oppose (and hereby irrevocably waives all rights to oppose) the exercise of the Landlord's rights under this Section 6.04 or otherwise pursuant to this Lease in this regard, including, in respect of any rezoning matters, variance applications, restrictive covenants, site plans, subdivisions, easements, transfers, dedications, permits or approvals and other similar requirements in connection therewith (hereinafter "Rezoning Matters"); and (b) agrees to cooperate with Landlord (at no cost or expense to the Tenant) to the extent reasonably required, including, without limitation, granting any partial discharges of its notice of lease and executing any consents, documents and instruments reasonably requested by the Landlord in furtherance of any Rezoning Matters.

6.05 Intentionally deleted.Access by Landlord Tenant will permit Landlord to enter the Premises outside of normal business hours, and during normal business hours where such will not unreasonably disturb or interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises and operation of its business, to examine, inspect and show the Premises to persons wishing to lease them, to provide services or make repairs, replacements, changes or alterations as set out in this Lease, and to take such steps as Landlord may deem necessary for the safety, improvement or preservation of the Premises or the Shopping Centre. Landlord will whenever possible, save in the event of emergency, consult with or give reasonable notice to Tenant prior to such entry, but no such entry will constitute an eviction or entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

6.07 Energy, Conservation and Security Policies Landlord will be deemed to have observed and performed the terms and conditions to be performed by Landlord under this Lease, including those relating to the provision of utilities and services, if in so doing it acts in accordance with a directive, policy or request of a governmental or quasi-governmental authority serving the public interest in the fields of energy, conservation or security.

6.08 Sustainable Operation of Shopping Centre Tenant acknowledges Landlord's intention, to operate its Shopping Centre in a manner so as to provide for:

(a) reduced energy and water consumption;

(b) the use of renewable energy and recycled water;

(c) the facilitation of alternate transportation for customers of the Shopping Centre;

(d) the use of non-toxic, low-impact cleaning and pest control and other products in the operation and maintenance of the Shopping Centre;

(e) a healthy indoor environment;

(f) installation and use of sustainable materials, furniture, equipment and improvements within the Shopping Centre; and

(g) the recycling and diversion of operational waste from landfill generated from the activities of tenants, licensees, and customers of the Shopping Centre, and Landlord intends to operate, manage and maintain the Shopping Centre so as to obtain and/or maintain any green building certifications, accreditations or ratings.

ARTICLE 7.00 DEMISED UTILITIES, SERVICES, MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS BY TENANT

7.01 Demised Utilities

(a) Subject to Article 7.01(b), during the Term, Tenant will provide in the Premises at its own expense heat, ventilation, air-conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam and other utilities and services. Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall promptly pay (but in any event no later than the due date) the cost of water consumption, electricity, gas, steam, telephone, and other utilities used or consumed in or from the Premises directly to the supplier of such services where separately metered or as Landlord may direct.

(b) If heat, ventilation, air conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam or any other utility or service is provided by Landlord, but is not metered or is supplied to the Premises through meters common to a group of tenants in the Shopping Centre, Landlord will pay the cost thereof and apportion such cost as may reasonably be determined by Landlord among the tenants utilizing the utility or service or supplied through such common meters, (provided that if Landlord will from time to time reasonably determine that the use of any such utility or service in the Premises is disproportionate to the use of other tenants, Landlord may adjust Tenant's share of the cost thereof from a date reasonably determined by Landlord to take equitable account of the disproportionate use) and Tenant will reimburse Landlord the amount of its share of such cost.

(c) Intentionally deleted.

(d) If a separate or a check meter exists, Tenant shall then pay for its consumption to Landlord as measured by the Premises check meter and in accordance with the rates of Landlord's supplier.

(e) If at any time, any utility serving the Premises, whose consumption rate was measured by separate or check meter, ceases to be measured by separate or check meter for any reason whatsoever, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a charge calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) above.

(f) Notwithstanding Article 7.00 of this Lease, at Landlord's option, Landlord may, at any time or times during the Term, purchase in bulk from the utility supplier the aggregate electrical energy requirements of the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof, in which event Landlord may arrange for the supply of electricity to the Premises for the general electrical purposes of Tenant. In such case, Tenant will pay to Landlord on a monthly basis, in advance, with annual adjustment at the end of each Fiscal Year, a charge for supplying electricity to the Premises as determined by Landlord on the basis of Tenant's consumption.

(g) Where the Premises are metered directly by a utility company or supplier for electricity, gas, water, or steam consumption, Tenant will provide Landlord, at Tenant's cost, with all consumption data for the Premises, in the manner, at such frequency and in the format as required by Landlord so as to comply with its obligations relating to governmental or quasi-governmental authority reporting regulations, to meet green building certifications or standards including, without limitation, LEED, BOMA BEST or ENERGY STAR or to improve the environmental performance of the Shopping Centre.

7.02 Demised Heating, Ventilation, and Air-Conditioning (HVAC) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense be responsible for maintaining, repairing and replacing of the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning equipment (the "Tenant HVAC System") installed for the Premises where such equipment is not part of a shared or central system.

7.03 Condition of Premises During the Term, Tenant will keep the Premises in a clean and tidy condition, and will provide at its own expense therein janitor services in accordance with this Lease and the rules and regulations of Landlord from time to time, removal of debris and garbage, and cleaning of all windows, doors, walls, ceiling, tiles, floors, grease traps and grease guard systems in the Premises and on the roof of the Shopping Centre where applicable and the exterior of the Premises, subject to Article 7.04(f).

Subject to the foregoing and except to the extent that Landlord is specifically responsible therefor under this Lease, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense maintain the Premises and all improvements therein in good order and condition, subject to reasonable wear and tear, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) intentionally deleted;

(b) making repairs and replacements as needed to glass, plate glass, store windows and storefronts, signs, mouldings, doors, hardware, partitions, walls, fixtures, lighting, finishes, plumbing, wiring, ductwork and piping (including that portion which is contiguous to the Premises), ceilings, floors and thresholds in the Premises;

(c) maintaining, repairing and replacing as needed all Tenant HVAC Systems, elevators, escalators, mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems, facilities and equipment in the Premises;

(d) making other repairs and replacements in the Premises as needed, except repairs and replacements to the Premises for which Landlord is specifically responsible under this Lease; and

(e) keeping the Premises in such condition as to comply with the requirements of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority and insurers having jurisdiction and the rules and regulations of Landlord.

Notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, the Tenant's repair obligations will include all those which are major as well as minor, or those which are customarily landlord's or tenant's, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Lease

7.04 Alterations by Tenant Tenant may from time to time at its own expense make changes, additions and improvements in the Premises to better adapt the same to its business, provided that any such change, addition or improvement will:

(a) comply with the requirements of Landlord's insurer and any Authority having jurisdiction;

(b) be made only with the prior written consent of Landlord;

(c) equal the then current standard for the Shopping Centre;

(d) be carried out only by persons selected by Tenant and approved in writing by Landlord, who will, if required by Landlord, deliver to Landlord before commencement of the work, performance and payment bonds as well as proof of worker's compensation and public liability and property damage insurance coverage as reasonably required by Landlord with Landlord, Owners and Management Company as additional insured parties in amounts, with companies and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, which will remain in effect during the entire period in which the work will be carried out;

(e) Tenant shall obtain all necessary construction and other permits before starting any work in the Premises;

(f) Tenant shall not make any repairs, openings, or additions to any part of the exterior of the Premises, or to the Common Areas and Facilities nor place anything of whatsoever nature in or upon any part of the Common Areas and Facilities, including without limitation the roof and without having obtained the prior written consent of Landlord. In addition it is expressly forbidden for Tenant, its employees, agents, representatives or any Person for whom Tenant is in law responsible to go upon the roof of the Shopping Centre for any reason whatsoever without Landlord's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the prior granting of such consent, Tenant shall be fully responsible for all ensuing costs and damages whether to remove materials or to effect repairs needed as a result of such acts;

(g) Tenant shall not make any change, alteration, addition, repair or improvement in or to the Premises which in any manner affects the structure, the roof, the perimeter walls, the bearing floors, structural slab or slab on grade, the storefront, the sprinkler system (whether it services the Premises exclusively or not), or any heating, ventilation or air-conditioning system or equipment or the electrical and plumbing services or systems (whether these serve the Premises exclusively or not), without in each case obtaining Landlord's prior written approval thereto. Tenant will accompany each request for Landlord's written approval by detailed plans and specifications for the intended work, and will ensure that the work is done according to the relevant provisions of this Lease.

Any increase in Taxes or insurance premiums for the Shopping Centre, or any part thereof, attributable to such change, addition or improvement will be borne by Tenant and Tenant will pay Landlord for the cost of such increase upon receipt of Landlord's invoices therefor.

7.05 Trade Fixtures and Personal Property Tenant may install in the Premises its usual trade fixtures and personal property in a proper manner, provided that no such installation will interfere with or damage the mechanical, plumbing, sprinkler or electrical systems or all or any part of the structure of the Shopping Centre. If Tenant is not then in default under this Lease, trade fixtures and personal property installed in but not affixed to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant may be removed from the Premises:

(a) from time to time in the ordinary course of Tenant's business or in the course of permitted reconstruction, renovation or alteration of the Premises by Tenant; and provided that Tenant in all cases promptly repairs at its own expense any damage to the Premises resulting from such installation and removal. In no case will trade fixtures or personal property include the ceiling or ceiling panels, electric light fixtures, doors, floor coverings, storefront, plumbing fixtures and fittings or any affixed cabinets, shelves, hardware or decorative items in or upon the Premises which upon installation become the property of Landlord, provided, however, that if any of the foregoing shall contain any Hazardous Substance such installation shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant will remove such items at its expense.

7.06 Liens Tenant will pay before delinquency all costs for work done or caused to be done by Tenant in the Premises which could result in any lien or encumbrance on Landlord's interest or Tenant's interest or both in the Site or the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, will keep the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre and every part thereof free and clear of any lien or encumbrance in respect of such work and will indemnify and hold harmless Landlord against any claim, loss, cost, demand and legal or other expense, whether in respect of any lien or otherwise, arising out of the supply of material, services or labour for such work. Tenant will immediately notify Landlord of any such lien, claim of lien or other action of which it has or reasonably should have knowledge and which affects the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, and will cause the same to be removed within fifteen (15) days of written notice from Landlord (or such additional time as Landlord may consent to in writing), failing which Landlord may take action as Landlord deems necessary to remove the same and the entire cost thereof will be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, including all legal fees, costs and disbursements on a substantial indemnity basis.

7.07 Intentionally deleted.

7.08 Signs Tenant shall not erect or place any sign, decal, decoration, lettering, design or advertisement of any nature whatsoever ("Sign") on the exterior walls of the Premises or on the walls of the mall or elsewhere in the Shopping Centre or in the display windows without first obtaining Landlord's written consent as to the specifications, design, location and method of installation. All Signs shall conform to all applicable rules and regulations and shall be of high quality. Furthermore, all Signs shall be suitably illuminated where applicable in the same manner as other signs in the Shopping Centre. Tenant shall not install or affix any Sign in the Premises or in the Shopping Centre which is visible from the exterior of the Shopping Centre. All Signs on Tenant's storefront which Landlord allows Tenant to install must be so installed prior to the opening by Tenant of its Premises to the public.

No Sign(s) advertising an auction sale, going out of business sale, closing out sale, bankruptcy sale or any other similar sale other than one in the normal course of Tenant's business, or any Sign indicating that Tenant is moving to another location, shall be permitted in the Shopping Centre.

For certainty, the Landlord confirms that the Tenant's exterior Signs that exist as of the Commencement Date are compliant with this Section.

ARTICLE 8.00 TENANT'S TAXES

8.01 Business Taxes and Other Taxes Payable by Tenant Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to the Authorities responsible for collection all business and water taxes, charges or rates, garbage removal taxes, charges, rates, taxes, levies, fees, duties, tariffs or assessments for consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature however imposed or assessed and/or for recycling and/or similar taxes, charges or rates imposed on or applicable to Tenant in connection with the activities, goods (including without limiting the generality thereof, Tenant's movables, equipment and tools) or services of which Tenant benefits, or for Tenant's use or occupation of the Premises, or for the nature of the enterprise that Tenant operates in the Premises, or any other matter determined by said authorities (hereinafter "Tenant's Taxes"). It is understood that Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to Landlord any Tenant's Taxes where Landlord shall be invoiced therefor or shall become liable for any such Tenant's Taxes pursuant to any new, amended or modified law, regulation, policy and/or practice of any competent Authority. Tenant shall also be liable for the payment of any Tenant's Taxes, Taxes and any other amount payable by Landlord, and any increases in one or all of the foregoing (even where such Tenant's Taxes, Taxes or other amount or increases thereof are substantially greater than the amount payable therefor by Tenant in previous years) as a direct or indirect result of the abolition, modification and/or replacement of any Tenant's Taxes by any competent Authority or due to any modification of any policy or practice thereof. Tenant will indemnify Landlord from and against all losses, costs of expenses occasioned by or arising from the foregoing.

ARTICLE 9.00 INSURANCE

9.01 Landlord's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease, Landlord will carry the insurance for which Landlord is obligated under the Original Lease and such insurance provisions are deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term, Landlord will maintain the Landlord's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

9.02 Tenant's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, will carry the insurance for which Tenant is obligated under the Original Lease and such provisions of the Original Lease are deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term and any period Tenant is in possession of the Premises, the Tenant will maintain the Tenant's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date in accordance with the insurance certificate most recently provided to the Landlord by the Tenant, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

Tenant agrees to deliver to Landlord, proof of above required insurance in force at such date, such proof to be in the form of certificates of insurance acceptable to Landlord. If the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained on the part of Tenant will immediately endanger or could reasonably lead to or result in future endangerment of the Premises or any other of the buildings or property in or on the Shopping Centre or result in the voiding, cancellation or threatened cancellation of any insurance policy affecting such buildings or property or part thereof Landlord may, either, at Landlord's sole discretion, terminate this Lease effective upon written notice to Tenant, or without terminating this Lease and after giving such notice, if any, as is reasonable in the circumstances, enter upon the Premises and take such action, including removing Tenant and any persons or property from the Shopping Centre, as is reasonable to remove or abate the cause of the danger or voiding or cancellation of the policy, and Landlord will not be liable for any damages of any kind howsoever caused arising out of such termination or such action, the whole without prejudice to Landlord's other rights and recourses.

ARTICLE 10.00 INJURY TO PERSON OR PROPERTY

10.01 Mutual Indemnity. Except to the extent released in Sections 10.02 and 10.03 below, each of the Landlord and the Tenant will defend, protect, indemnify and save harmless the other of and from all fines, suits, claims, demands and actions of any kind or nature to which the party being indemnified shall or may become liable or suffer by reason of any breach, violation or nonperformance by the party so indemnifying of any covenant, term or provision of this Lease or by reason of any damage, injury or death occasioned to or suffered by any person or persons including the Landlord or the Tenant, as the case may be, or any property, by reason of any wrongful act, neglect or default on the part of the party so indemnifying or any of its agents, employees, officers or contractors.

10.02 Release of Landlord. n respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Tenant, none of the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre or other persons for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage so required to be insured by the Tenant to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Tenant fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Tenant had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Tenant shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, the manager retained by the Landlord from time to time to operate the Shopping Centre and those for whom the Landlord is responsible in law. With respect to the Tenant's fixtures, furniture, inventory and stock-in-trade including merchandise or other contents of the Premises, the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre and others for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage.

10.03 Release of Tenant. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Landlord, none of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees or other persons for whom the Tenant is responsible at law shall be liable in respect of any loss, injury or damage required to be so insured to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Landlord fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Landlord had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Landlord shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees and those for whom the Tenant is responsible in law.

ARTICLE 11.00 TRANSFERS

11.01 Transfers Except to an Eligible Corporation (which for the purpose of this Article 11.00 is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual) which controls or is controlled by or under common control with Tenant, where to control means to own beneficially either directly or indirectly more than 50% of the voting shares of a corporation or other legal entity) and subject to provisions of Article 11.03, Tenant will not, and will not permit a subtenant to, assign this Lease in whole or in part or sublet all or part of the Premises, or transfer this Lease in any other manner and will not permit the occupation or use of all or part of the Premises by others (any of which events are hereinafter referred to as a "Transfer"), without the prior written consent of Landlord in each case, which consent, despite any statutory provision to the contrary, may be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Tenant may enter into a Transfer with an Eligible Corporation, with the prior written consent of Landlord which consent may not be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld. Tenant will not, and will not permit subtenant or any other Person or entity to mortgage or encumber all or any part pf the Tenant's rights resulting from this Lease or all or any part of the Premises. Under no circumstances will Tenant be entitled to effect a Transfer to any one prior to the Commencement Date, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease or at law. The consent by Landlord to a Transfer will not constitute a waiver of its consent to a subsequent Transfer. This prohibition against transferring includes a Transfer by operation of law. If a Transfer occurs without the consent of Landlord when required, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee, subtenant, mortgagee, encumbrancer, user or occupant as the case may be (hereinafter the "Transferee"), and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such Transfer, occupancy or collection will be deemed a waiver of the covenant not to Transfer without Landlord's consent, nor an acceptance by Landlord of the Transfer or the Transferee notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary. Despite a Transfer, Tenant remains fully liable under this Lease. A permitted Transfer of all or part of this Lease or the Premises will be documented by Landlord or its solicitors, and the amounts stipulated in Article 11.02(b)(iv) shall be paid by Tenant and deemed to be Rent. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord may immediately terminate this Lease if Tenant effects a Transfer without Landlord's prior written consent thereto, whether or not Tenant gives prior written notice thereof.

11.02 Conditions Any Transfer referred to in Article 11.01 or elsewhere in this Lease will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) that Tenant causes any Transferee to promptly execute an agreement in writing with Landlord agreeing to be bound by the terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease as if such Transferee had originally executed this Lease as Tenant (provided that such agreement will not in any way affect the rights of Landlord under this Lease); and

(b) all requests for Landlord's consent to effect a Transfer shall be in writing and be accompanied by each of the following: (i) the name, address and telephone number of each proposed Transferee and if it is a corporation, the names of the directors and the majority shareholders (or in the case of a change of control, those Persons who would subsequently acquire effective control); (ii) details of the proposed Transferee's prior business experience (including experience in the enterprise for which the Premises are to be operated pursuant to this Lease); (iii) bank and other credit references, required by Landlord to assess the business or financial strength and standing of the proposed assignee, subtenant or occupant; (iv) a non-reimbursable fee (paid by certified cheque or draft of a Canadian chartered bank) for all charges associated with Landlord's administration and documentation of the Transfer; (v) if the proposed Transferee is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual), its constating documents (including any articles of incorporation, amendment or amalgamation, any declarations of trust or partnership agreements and the like); (vi) details of the transaction of Transfer between Tenant and the proposed Transferee and all relevant documents with respect thereto; (vii) a signed copy of Landlord's standard form of letter of consent authorizing Landlord to make inquiries regarding the personal affairs of the proposed Transferee or any principal thereof, and (viii) all other information or documentation which Landlord may reasonably require.

11.03 Corporate Ownership If after the date of execution of this Lease, securities not listed for sale on a recognized securities exchange in Canada either of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant are transferred by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law or other disposition, or issued by subscription or allotment or cancelled or redeemed, so as to result in a change in the effective voting or other control of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant by the Person or Persons holding control on the date of execution of this Lease or on the date when Tenant becomes a corporation, if later, or if other steps are taken to accomplish a change of the effective control of Tenant, Tenant will promptly notify Landlord in writing of the change which will be considered to be a Transfer of this Lease to which Articles 11.01 and 11.02 apply; and whether or not Tenant notifies Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease within 60 days after Landlord learns of the change unless Landlord previously had consented to the change in writing. Tenant will make available to Landlord or its lawful representatives all corporate books and records of Tenant and of any Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant for inspection at all reasonable times, to ascertain to the extent possible whether there has been a change of control.

11.04 Insolvency of Transferee In the event Transferee becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy and this Lease is disclaimed or terminated, or Transferee disclaims this Lease pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation, or the terms of any insolvency-related Court order, then at Landlord's option to be exercised on written notice to the original Tenant named in this Lease or any Transferee (except the bankrupt or insolvent Transferee), such party will be deemed to have entered into a lease with Landlord for the remainder of the initial Term, on the terms and conditions of this Lease prevailing immediately prior to the date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation (including without limitation, future Rent escalations (if any)) effective upon the effective date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation.

11.05 Permitted Transfers. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but on prior written notice to Landlord:

(a) assign this Lease to, and may in any event permit the Premises to be used and occupied in whole or in part by, any affiliated corporation of Tenant (as such term "affiliated corporation" is defined by· the Canada Business Corporations Act); or

(b) assign this Lease to any corporation with which Tenant merges or consolidates that is an affiliated corporation of Tenant; or

(c) grant concessions or licenses to use and occupy any part or parts of the Premises provided that: (i) the Premises continues to be carried on, and retains the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated single department store operated in accordance with the requirements of this Lease, (ii) at least 80% (by number) of the concessions or licenses granted shall be to licensees or concessionaires which operate in a majority of the Tenant's other stores in the greater Vancouver area; and (iii) any such concessionaire, licensee or other occupant within the Premises is subject to the day-to-day operational control of the Tenant in matters related to general standards of the business carried on so as to enable the Tenant to ensure that such standards shall conform to the general standards of business of the Tenant itself.

ARTICLE 12.00 SURRENDER

12.01 Possession Upon the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease and in addition to the provisions of Article 12.02, Tenant will immediately quit and peaceably surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord:

(i) in a vacant, clean and broom-swept condition with all of Tenant's signage, inventory, trade fixtures, racking and personal property removed; and

but otherwise in an "as is, where is" condition and without any obligation to: (A) return the Premises or any component thereof to an improved or better state of condition or operation than existing as of the Commencement Date; or (B) to remove any leasehold improvements in the Premises installed pursuant to Article 7.04 hereof. For greater clarity, it is the intention of the parties that Tenant shall have no obligation to make cosmetic or "wear and tear" type repairs to the Premises upon surrender (such as repainting or repairing holes in walls, floors or ceilings caused by the typical installation and removal of racking, trade fixtures etc.).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Landlord's intention is to demolish and/or redevelop the Premises following the expiry of the Term and not to re-tenant same, the Landlord shall advise the Tenant thereof in which event sub-paragraph (ii) above shall not apply.

Upon surrender, all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises will cease. If Tenant has registered a caveat, caution, memorandum notice or other instrument relating to this lease against title to the Land, it will cause the same to be released and discharged no later than 15 days following the expiry or termination date, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a release or discharge of a notice of this will be paid by Tenant.

12.02 Trade Fixtures, Personal Property and Improvements

(a) Subject to Article 7.05, all alterations, additions and improvements made or to be made upon or to the Premises (save any movable trade fixtures used in Tenant's enterprise) which in any manner are attached in, to or under the floors, walls or ceilings, including, without limitation, walk-in vaults, large water features such as pools, water basins and fountains and landscaping features, any component of any heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, sprinkler, plumbing or electrical equipment or systems, presently or in the future installed within or servicing the Premises, all lighting installations and fixtures including, without limitation, all spot lights and tracks and all floor finishes of whatever nature placed upon the floor of the Premises, all storefronts, doors and/or partitions, shall become Landlord's property at the time they are installed, and will be surrendered to Landlord at the expiry of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease without any compensation or indemnity payable to Tenant whatsoever.

(b) If Tenant leaves any property on the Premises following the expiry of the Term or earlier termination thereof which it is entitled to remove, then unless Landlord expressly notifies Tenant to remove such property, the ownership of such property will, at Landlord's option, be deemed to have been abandoned to Landlord, free and clear of all Tenant Security, notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary and whether or not Landlord chooses to become the owner of such items, they may be used, removed or disposed of by or on behalf of Landlord, as Landlord determines, without compensation payable to Tenant and without incurring any liability to Tenant.

12.03 Merger The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant or the cancellation of this Lease by mutual agreement of Tenant and Landlord will not work a merger, and will, at Landlord's option, either terminate all or any subleases and subtenancies or operate as an assignment to Landlord of all or any subleases and subtenancies. Landlord's option hereunder will be exercised by notice to Tenant and all sublessees or subtenants in the Premises or any part thereof known to Landlord. If Landlord does not give notice within a reasonable period of time after such cancellation of this Lease, then all such subleases will be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such cancellation.

12.04 Payments After Termination No payment of money by Tenant to Landlord after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease or after the giving of any notice by Landlord to Tenant, will reinstate, continue or extend the Term or make ineffective any notice given to Tenant prior to the payment of such money. After the service of notice or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment granting Landlord possession of the Premises, Landlord may receive and collect any sums of Rent due under this Lease, and the payment thereof will not make ineffective any notice, or in any manner affect any pending suit or any judgment theretofore obtained.

13.01 Month-to-Month Tenancy with Landlord Consent If with Landlord's written consent, Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises on a month-to month tenancy only, at a monthly rental equal to the Rent payable by Tenant during the last month immediately preceding the expiration of the Term or such other rental as is stated in such written consent, and such month-to-month tenancy may be terminated by Landlord or Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by delivery of at least one (1) month's advance written notice of termination to the other.

13.02 Tenancy at Sufferance If without Landlord's written consent Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises upon a tenancy at sufferance only, at a monthly rental equal to two (2) times the Rent payable during the last month preceding the expiration or termination. Such tenancy at sufferance may be immediately terminated by Landlord at any time by notice of termination to Tenant, and by Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by at least 30 days' advance written notice of termination to Landlord.

13.03 General Any month-to-month tenancy or tenancy at sufferance hereunder will be subject to all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease except any right of renewal or extension and nothing contained in Article 13.00 will be construed to limit or impair any of Landlord's rights of re-entry or eviction or constitute a waiver thereof.

ARTICLE 14.00 RULES AND REGULATIONS

14.01 Purpose The Rules and Regulations in Exhibit D (the "Rules and Regulations") have been adopted by Landlord for the safety, benefit and convenience of all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre.

14.02 Observance Tenant will at all times comply with, and will cause its employees, servants, agents, licencees and invitees to comply with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect.

14.03 Modification Landlord may from time to time, for the purposes set out in Article 14.01, amend, delete from, or add to the Rules and Regulations, provided that any such modification:

(a) will not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any other provision of this Lease;

(b) will be reasonable and have general application to tenants in the Shopping Centre; and

(c) will be effective only upon delivery of a copy thereof to Tenant at the Premises.

14.04 Non-Compliance Landlord will use reasonable efforts to secure compliance by all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect, but will not be responsible to Tenant for failure of any person to comply with such Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 15.00 EXPROPRIATION

15.01 Expropriation Both Landlord and Tenant agree to cooperate with each other in respect of any expropriation of all or any part of the Premises or any other part of the Shopping Centre, so that each may receive from the Authority the maximum award to which each is respectively entitled by law. If any portion of the Shopping Centre other than the Premises is expropriated, then the proceeds accruing therefrom shall belong solely to Landlord, and Tenant shall abandon to Landlord any rights which Tenant may have by operation of law to such proceeds or award. Tenant will execute such documents as required to give effect to the foregoing.

If at any time during the Term, any material part of the Shopping Centre is expropriated or if access to the Premises is materially affected by such expropriation, then Landlord may terminate this Lease on written notice to Tenant, which termination will take effect on the earlier of the date of the expropriation or the taking of prior possession.

Whether the Lease is terminated or not, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord as a result of or arising from the expropriation of all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

If Landlord exercises its right of termination hereunder, this Lease will terminate on the date stated in the notice, provided, however, that no termination pursuant to notice hereunder may occur later than 60 days after the date (hereinafter "Date of Such Taking") on which the Authority takes possession of that part of the Shopping Centre so taken.

15.02 Surrender On any such date of termination under Article 15.01, Tenant will immediately surrender to Landlord the Premises and all interests therein under this Lease. Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and remove Tenant therefrom, and the Rent will abate on the date of termination, except that if the Date of Such Taking differs from the date of termination, Rent will abate on the former date.

15.03 Partial Taking of Premises If any portion of the Premises (but less than the whole thereof) is so taken, and no rights of termination herein conferred are timely exercised, the Term of this Lease will expire with respect to the portion so taken on the Date of Such Taking. In such event the Rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion so taken will abate on such date, and the Rent thereafter payable with respect to the remainder not so taken will be adjusted pro rata by Landlord in order to account for the resulting reduction of the Area of the Premises. After such adjustment, and on notice from Landlord stating the Rent then owing, Tenant will immediately pay Landlord such Rent.

ARTICLE 16.00 DAMAGE BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

16.01 Limited Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, can be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), Landlord will immediately at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, chattels or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired immediately by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.02 Major Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, cannot be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), then Landlord, or in the event that there is less than two (2) years remaining in the Term, Tenant, may elect to terminate this Lease as of the date of such casualty by written notice delivered to the other not more than 20 days after receipt of the Architect's opinion, failing which Landlord will forthwith at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, chattels or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on the behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired forthwith by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.03 Abatement If Landlord is required to repair damage to all or part of the Premises under Article 16.01 or 16.02, provided such damage is caused by a peril Landlord is required to insure against pursuant to Article 9.01, the Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease will be proportionately reduced to the extent that the Premises are thereby rendered untenantable by Tenant in its business, from the date of such casualty until five (5) days after completion by Landlord of the repairs to the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) or until Tenant again uses the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) in its business, whichever first occurs.

16.04 Major Damage or Destruction of Shopping Centre Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Lease and specifically, but without limitation, Article 16.01, if the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed (whether the Premises are affected or not), and (i) in the Architect's opinion, the damaged or destroyed portions cannot reasonably be repaired, restored or rebuilt within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the damage or destruction (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium); or (ii) the cost as estimated by the Architect, of repairing, restoring or rebuilding the damaged or destroyed portions would exceed the proceeds of insurance available to Landlord for such purpose; or (iii) the damage or destruction was caused by a peril for which Landlord was not insured and for which Landlord was not obliged to insure against; or (iv)intentionally deleted; ; or (v) less than two (2) years remains during the Term; or (vi) a Mortgagee will not consent to the use of insurance proceeds for repair or reconstruction; then in any of the above cases, Landlord may, at its option (to be exercised by written notice to Tenant within 30 days following any such occurrence) elect to terminate this Lease.

If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease, then the following provisions will apply:

(a) If the Premises become totally unfit for the use for which they were leased, the termination will take effect from the date of the damage or destruction and the Rent will cease to be payable and will be adjusted as of that date.

(b) If the Premises are partially damaged and Tenant has occupied any part of the Premises or any part of the Premises have been reasonably capable of being occupied from the date of the damage or destruction, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in the first paragraph of this Article 16.04 and the Rent will cease to be paid by Tenant as of the date of termination, however, Minimum Rent and Additional Rent will abate from the date of the damage and destruction until the date of termination to the extent the Premises cannot reasonably be used for their intended purposes.

(c) If the Premises were not damaged, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in Article 16.00 and the Rent will cease to be paid from such date of termination.

If the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed and Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, subject to the following, Landlord shall commence and proceed diligently to reconstruct or repair those portions of the Shopping Centre which have been so damaged or destroyed to the extent only of Landlord's responsibilities pursuant to the terms of the various leases for premises in the Shopping Centre and exclusive of any tenants' responsibilities. Furthermore, if the Premises are being repaired or reconstructed, the provisions of Article 16.01 will apply.

If Landlord does any reconstruction or repairing of the Shopping Centre, Landlord may do any one or more of the following: (i) use plans, specifications and working drawings which differ from those applicable to the Shopping Centre existing prior to the damage or destruction provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; (ii) change the configuration, design and/or size of the Shopping Centre or any of its component parts including, without limitation, the location and size of any mall, court, entrance, parking facility or any of other Common Areas and Facilities provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; and (iii) redesign the tenant mix, both with respect to the kinds of uses which will be included in the tenant mix, as well as the physical location of the types of uses being operated prior to the damage or destruction. Tenant agrees that none of the foregoing shall constitute a default of Landlord's obligation to provide peaceable enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall it constitute a change of form or destination of the Shopping Centre, nor shall the validity or enforceability of this Lease be affected in any manner by any of the foregoing.

ARTICLE 17.00 TRANSFERS AND MORTGAGES BY LANDLORD

17.01 Sales, Conveyance and Assignment Nothing in this Lease (which term for purpose of this Article 17.00 includes any extension, renewal or replacement of this Lease) will restrict the right of Landlord to sell, convey, assign, mortgage or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Shopping Centre, subject only to the rights of Tenant under this Lease.

17.02 Effect of Sale, Conveyance or Assignment A sale, conveyance or assignment of the Shopping Centre will operate to release Landlord from liability from and after the date thereof upon all the covenants, terms and conditions of this Lease, express or implied, except as such may relate to the period prior to such effective date, and Tenant will thereafter look solely to Landlord's successor in interest in and to this Lease. This Lease will not be affected by any such sale conveyance or assignment, and Tenant will attorn to Landlord's successor in interest thereunder.

17.03 Definition of Mortgage, Mortgagee and Mortgagee's Interest Each and every charge, mortgage, debenture or trust deed, now or hereafter registered against all or any part of the Shopping Centre is hereafter called a "Mortgage" which term includes all amounts advanced or to be advanced thereunder and all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. "Mortgagee" means a chargee or mortgagee named in a Mortgage, or the holder of a debenture or the trustee under a trust deed constituting a Mortgage, as the case may be; and "Mortgagee's Interest" means the estate or interest of the Mortgagee secured by a Mortgage.

17.04 Subordination of Mortgage to Lease If this Lease or the estate or interest of Tenant thereunder (the "Tenant's Leasehold Interest") is subordinate to a Mortgage or Mortgagee's Interest now or at any time hereafter, then on written request of the Mortgagee or of Landlord on Mortgagee's behalf, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, the Mortgage and the Mortgagee's Interest will be postponed and made subordinate to this Lease and the Tenant's Leasehold Interest as if such Mortgage had been executed, delivered, registered and fully advanced after the execution, delivery and registration of this Lease, by means of an instrument of postponement and subordination, which will be entered into between Tenant and the Mortgagee, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that it complies with the terms and conditions of the Lease. Such instrument will be in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, consistent with this Article 17.04 and Article 17.07 and will be effective between the Mortgagee and Tenant when executed by them, without necessity for registration against title to the Shopping Centre; but if desired by the Mortgagee or Tenant, either of them may register such agreement or notice thereof and for that purpose the Mortgagee and Tenant will enter into any further document required to effect registration.

17.05 Attornment If this Lease and Tenant's Leasehold Interest now or at any time hereafter is subordinate to a Mortgage and Mortgagee's Interest and the Mortgagee does not require a postponement and subordination instrument under Article 17.04, Tenant will on request of such Mortgagee or of Landlord on behalf of the Mortgagee, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, enter into an attornment agreement with such Mortgagee in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, whereby Tenant will agree that if default occurs under the Mortgage, and:

(a) the Mortgagee takes possession of the Premises, by obtaining and enforcing a court order to that effect or otherwise;

(b) the Mortgagee forecloses or otherwise acquires the interest of Landlord in the Premises, but does not foreclose the Tenant's Leasehold Interest; or

(c) the Mortgagee sells, conveys or assigns the Premises to another party (hereinafter a "Purchaser") pursuant to a power of sale or court order for sale which does not purport to sell the Premises free of the Tenant's Leasehold Interest,

Tenant will, on written demand of the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, attorn to and become the tenant of that person from and including the date the demand is received, for the balance of the term of this Lease (and with rights of renewal if any as provided in this Lease), at the rents and otherwise on the terms of this Lease, subject as hereinafter provided in Article 17.06, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that Tenant complies with, all the terms and conditions of the Lease.

17.06 Intentionally deleted.

17.07 Effect of Subordination or Attornment No subordination effected under Article 17.04 and no attornment effected under Article 17.05 will render the Mortgagee or Purchaser, as the case may be:

(a) liable for any act or omission of Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(b) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(c) bound by any prepayment by Tenant of more than one month's instalment of Rent, or by any previous modification of this Lease, unless such prepayment or modification has been approved in writing by the Mortgagee or Purchaser or any predecessor in interest except Landlord.

Upon attornment occurring under Article 17.05, the relationship of landlord and tenant thereby created between the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, as Landlord, and Tenant as tenant, will supersede this Lease, but if the Mortgage is subsequently redeemed or put in good standing or the Mortgagee goes out of possession, the Mortgagee will be relieved of its obligations to Tenant as if a sale, conveyance or assignment had occurred to which Article 17.02 applied.

Any attornment by Tenant to a Mortgagee or Purchaser will be without prejudice to the right (when applicable) of any other mortgagee or purchaser that has priority to the Mortgagee or Purchaser to demand that Tenant attorn to the other mortgagee or purchaser pursuant to the rights if any, of the other mortgagee or purchaser in that regard under Article 17.00. In case of such demand being lawfully made, and Tenant attorning to such other mortgagee or purchaser the attornment previously made to the Mortgagee or Purchaser will cease to be effective.

17.08 Tenant's Obligations May Be Assigned Tenant acknowledges that its covenants and obligations under Article 17.00 are intended in whole or in part to operate for the benefit of any and all Mortgagees and Purchasers and that in obtaining such covenants and obligations Landlord is acting not only for itself, but also as trustee or agent for all such persons. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord may assign the benefit of such covenants and obligations to any and all Mortgagees or Purchasers who request same, as security or otherwise, and Tenant agrees that any such Mortgagee or Purchaser will be entitled on receiving such assignment and giving due notice thereof to Tenant, to enforce such covenant or obligation against Tenant to the same extent as if it were a party to this Lease directly entitled to the benefit of such covenants and obligations.

17.09 Execution of Instruments Except as otherwise provided in Article 17.00, the subordination and attornment provisions herein will be self-operating and no further instrument will be required. Nevertheless Tenant, on request by and without cost to Landlord, any Mortgagee, Purchaser or successor in interest, will execute and deliver any and all instruments further evidencing such subordination and/or attornment when applicable.

17.10 Intentionally deleted.

17.11 Intentionally deleted.

17.12 Notice of Lease Tenant may register at its sole cost and expense (including, without limitation, payment of all registration fees, land transfer and similar taxes or charges, costs of plan preparation and registration and all legal fees and disbursements related to such registration) a notice, caveat or short form of this Lease (the "Registration Document") to give notice of Tenant's interest created by this Lease, provided and subject to the following:

(a) the Registration Document will be prepared by Tenant at its sole cost in a form acceptable to Landlord, and same will be approved in writing by Landlord prior to its registration;

(b) the Registration Document will only disclose the names of the parties to this Lease, the Premises, and the Commencement Date and the expiry date of the Term, and any right of renewal. The Registration Document will not disclose any information concerning the rent or rental rates to be paid, nor any other financial provisions of this Lease;

(c) the Registration Document will only indicate and be registered against title to that portion or those parcels of the Site or Shopping Centre as Landlord may designate in its sole discretion. Further, in the event any portion of the Land ceases to form part of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will, forthwith upon request from Landlord, cause its registration to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from the title to such portion all at its own expense;

(d) in the event that, in order to effect registration, the Registration Document must be executed by any party other than Landlord and Tenant, Landlord will request such consent or execution of that party, but the sole cost of obtaining same will be borne by Tenant and Landlord will not be liable to Tenant in the event that such consent or execution is not obtained;

(e) Tenant will provide Landlord with a copy of the Registration Document and registration particulars thereof, once registration has been effected; and

(f) Upon the expiry or early termination of this Lease, Tenant will, at its sole expense, cause the Registration Document to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from title to the Site and Shopping Centre and to provide proof of such action to Landlord, within 15 days of such expiry or early termination, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a surrender of this Lease or a discharge of caveat, caution or other document or instrument will be paid by Tenant.

17.13 Easements and Rights-of-Way Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord has granted or otherwise created and may in the future grant or otherwise create licence(s), easement(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s) over, through, upon or otherwise affecting portions of the Common Areas and Facilities. Tenant hereby consents to the granting or other creation of such licence(s), easement(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s).

17.14 Severance of Land In addition to and upon the same basis, mutatis mutandis, as set out in Article 6.04, Landlord will have the right from time to time to subdivide and to transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any portion or portions of the Land. Any such subdivision may be accomplished by any means Landlord may consider desirable and the description of the Land will be changed accordingly.

ARTICLE 18.00 NOTICES, ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, AUTHORITIES FOR ACTION

18.01 Notices Any notice from one party to the other under this Lease will be in writing and will be deemed duly given, if delivered personally, by an authorized representative of Tenant or Landlord or by courier, or bailiff to the party being given such notice or to a responsible employee of the party being given such notice, or if mailed in Canada by registered or certified mail addressed to Tenant at the address described in Article 1.01, or to Landlord at the address described in Article 1.01 of this Lease. Any notice will be deemed to have been given at the time of personal delivery, or if mailed, on the third (3rd) postal delivery date after the date of mailing thereof or the date of refusal thereof. Either party will have the right to designate by notice, in the manner above set forth, a different address to which notices are to be given. If it is reasonably anticipated that, due to mail service being disrupted, such notice, if mailed, will not be received by the third (3rd) postal delivery day following mailing, then such notice must be personally delivered as provided in this Article 18.01 or, in lieu of mailing, sent by the most reasonably expeditious means of delivery available to the address for mailing and will be deemed duly given upon such delivery. Notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary, notices shall not be sufficiently given if delivered or transmitted by facsimile or other electronic means.

18.02 Acknowledgments Within ten (10) business days after written request therefor by Landlord, Tenant shall deliver an Estoppel Certificate addressed to any Person (other than the Landlord) designated by Landlord, in the form annexed as Exhibit F or such other substantially similar form which Landlord may submit to Tenant.

18.03 Authorities for Action Landlord may act in any matter provided for herein by its property manager, Management Company or any other person who will from time to time be designated by Landlord by notice to Tenant. Tenant will designate in writing one or more persons to act on its behalf in any matter provided for herein and may from time to time change, by notice to Landlord, such designation. In the absence of any such designation, the person or persons executing this Lease for Tenant will be deemed to be authorized to act on behalf of Tenant in any matter provided for in this Lease.

ARTICLE 19.00 DEFAULT

19.01 Interest and Costs Tenant will pay to Landlord the Interest Rate upon all Rent required to be paid under this Lease from the due date for payment thereof until the same is fully paid and satisfied. Tenant will indemnify Landlord against all costs and charges (including legal fees) reasonably incurred in enforcing payment thereof, and in obtaining possession of the Premises after default of Tenant or upon expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, or in enforcing any covenant, proviso or agreement of Tenant contained in this Lease.

19.02 Right of Landlord to Perform Covenants All covenants and agreements to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be performed by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and without abatement of Rent. If Tenant fails to perform any act on its part to be performed under this Lease, and such failure continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord, Landlord may (but will not be obligated so to do) perform such act without waiving or releasing Tenant from any of its obligations relative thereto. All sums paid or costs incurred by Landlord in so performing such acts under this Article 19.02, together with interest thereon at the rate set out in Article 19.01 from the date each such payment was made or each such cost was incurred by Landlord, plus 20% of such costs for Landlord's administration and overhead, will be payable by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

19.03 Events of Default If and whenever:

(a) part or all of the Rent hereby reserved is not paid when due, whether lawfully demanded or not, and such default continues fifteen (15) days after notice by Landlord; or

(b) Tenant fails to observe, perform and keep each and every of the covenants, agreements, provisions, stipulations and conditions herein contained to be observed, performed and kept by Tenant (other than payment of Rent) and persists in such failure after thirty (30) days notice by Landlord specifying with reasonable particularity the nature of such failure and requiring that Tenant remedy, correct, desist or comply (or if any such breach would reasonably require more than thirty (30) days to rectify, unless Tenant commences rectification within the thirty (30) day notice period and thereafter promptly, effectively and continuously proceeds with the rectification of the breach to completion of rectification); or

(c) any goods, chattels or equipment of Tenant is taken or exigible in execution or in attachment or if a writ of execution is issued against Tenant; or

(d) Tenant becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy or becomes bankrupt or takes the benefit of any statute that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or becomes involved in voluntary or involuntary winding-up or dissolution or liquidation proceedings or if a receiver will be appointed for the business, property, affairs or revenues of Tenant; Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall provide Landlord with: (i) 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (i) hereof, to the extent Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action, (iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (iv) 5 business day prior written notice of the Tenant signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s); or

(e) any person other than Tenant or a Transferee permitted under this Lease has or exercises the right to manage or control the Premises, any part thereof or any business carried on in the Premises, other than subject to the actual, direct and full supervision and control of Tenant; or

(f) Tenant makes a bulk sale of its goods or moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its goods, chattels or equipment out of the Premises (other than in the normal course of its business) or Tenant ceases to conduct business from the Premises or the Premises are not open for business to the public on any three (3) consecutive days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises or on more than five (5) days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises in any twelve (12) month period; or

(g) a Transfer is effected or any Tenant Security is granted in any manner other than as permitted by this Lease; or

then and in any of such cases, at the option of Landlord, the full amount of the current month's and the next ensuing three (3) months instalments of Rent will immediately become due and payable together with all tenant allowance monies paid to Tenant or the value of other inducements given to Tenant (such as, but not limited to, rent-free periods) in accordance with the provisions of this Lease or any other agreement between Landlord and Tenant relating to the Premises (such allowances and inducements hereinafter referred to as "Tenant Inducements") and Landlord may immediately take legal proceedings for the same, together with any arrears then unpaid; and Landlord may without notice or any form of legal process forthwith re-enter upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and expel all Persons from the Premises and remove and sell or dispose of Tenant's goods, personal property and trade fixtures therefrom as Landlord sees fit, or store property such at the cost of Tenant, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding all without liability and loss or damage and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover arrears of Rent or damages for any antecedent default by Tenant of its obligations or agreements under this Lease or of any term or condition of this Lease, and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover from Tenant damages for loss of Rent suffered by reason of this Lease having been prematurely terminated. Any such sale may be effected in the discretion of Landlord by public auction or otherwise, and either in bulk or by individual item, or partly by one means and partly by another, all as Landlord in its entire discretion may decide. If any of Tenant's property is disposed of as provided in this Article 19.03, ten (10) days prior notice to Tenant of disposition will be deemed to be commercially reasonable.

19.04 Waiver of Exemption and Redemption Notwithstanding anything contained in any statute now or hereafter in force limiting or abrogating the right of distress, none of Tenant's goods, chattels or trade fixtures on the Premises at any time during the continuance of the Term will be exempt from levy by distress for Rent in arrears and upon any claim being made for such exemption by Tenant or on distress being made by Landlord this agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel against Tenant in any action brought to test the right to the levying upon any such goods as are named as exempted in any such statute, Tenant hereby waiving all and every benefit that could or might have accrued to Tenant under and by virtue of any such statute but for this Lease. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being evicted or dispossessed for any cause, or in the event of Landlord obtaining possession of the Premises, by reason of the violation by Tenant of any terms and conditions of this Lease or otherwise.

19.05 Surrender If and whenever Landlord is entitled to or does re-enter, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving notice thereof, and in such event Tenant will forthwith vacate and surrender the Premises.

19.06 Payments If Landlord re-enters or if this Lease is terminated, Tenant will pay to Landlord on demand:

(a) Rent up to the time of re-entry or termination, whichever will be the later, plus three (3) months' accelerated rent as herein provided; and

(b) all expenses incurred by Landlord in performing any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, re-entering or terminating and re-letting, collecting sums due or payable by Tenant, realizing upon assets seized (including brokerage, legal fees and disbursements), and the expense of keeping the Premises in good order, repairing the same and preparing them for re-letting; and

(c) as damages(subject to the Landlord's obligation to mitigate at law) for the loss of income of Landlord expected to be derived from the Premises, the amounts (if any) by which the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease exceeds the payments (if any) received by Landlord from other tenants in the Premises, payable on the first (1st) day of each month during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term had it not been terminated, or if elected by Landlord by notice to Tenant at or after re-entry or termination, a lump sum amount equal to the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease from the date of such election during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term, had it not been terminated, reduced by the rental value of the Premises for the same period, established by reference to the terms and conditions upon which Landlord re-lets them if such re-letting is accomplished within a reasonable period after termination, and otherwise established by reference to all market and other relevant circumstances; Rent and rental value being reduced to present worth at an assumed interest rate of ten percent (10%) on the basis of Landlord's estimates and assumptions of fact which will govern unless shown to be erroneous; and

(d) all Tenant Inducements given by Landlord to Tenant in respect of the Premises.

19.07 Remedies Cumulative No reference to nor exercise of any specific right or remedy by Landlord will prejudice or preclude Landlord from exercising or invoking any other remedy in respect thereof, whether allowed at law or expressly provided for in this Lease. No such remedy will be exclusive or dependent upon any other such remedy, but Landlord may from time to time exercise any one or more of such remedies independently or in combination.

19.08 Waiver In the event Tenant is in default in performing any of its obligations (including without limitation, the payment of any Rent), and Landlord shall have instituted proceedings to cancel, terminate or to confirm its cancellation or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall not have any right to prevent such cancellation or termination by remedying its default or defaults subsequent to the institution of such legal proceedings.

19.09 Intentionally deleted.

19.10 Additional Recourses If Tenant is in default to fulfill any of its obligations under this Lease and in particular its obligations pursuant to Articles 5.03, 5.10 and 18.02 of this Lease, then in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights or recourses of Landlord hereunder, Landlord may, at its option, obtain injunctive relief to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do, Tenant hereby expressly acknowledging and agreeing that this Article 19.10 constitutes a waiver against any defense to Landlord's application for injunctive relief made to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do.

19.11 Non-Waiver No condoning, excusing or over-looking by either party of any default by the other at any time in respect of any of its obligations shall operate as a waiver of Landlord's or Tenant's rights hereunder in respect of any such default or any subsequent default or so as to defeat or affect in any way the rights of Landlord or Tenant in respect of any such default or subsequent default. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by anything done or omitted to be done by Landlord or Tenant save only where such waiver is expressed in writing.

Without limiting the general application hereof, the acceptance of any sums of money, statements of account or reports that Tenant or Landlord must pay or provide pursuant to this Lease, shall not constitute a renunciation of the rights of Landlord or Tenant in virtue of theses presents.

19.12 Shopping Centre Assets Only the Shopping Centre assets and any property exclusively related thereto shall serve to satisfy the obligations of Landlord under this Lease or in virtue of any responsibility of Landlord resulting from its fault. Tenant recognizes and declares, without reserve, that any recourse by Tenant against Landlord based on, or in virtue of, this Lease or resulting from any fault of Landlord, shall be restricted and can only be executed against the Shopping Centre, to the exclusion of all other property belonging to Landlord.

19.13 Real Estate Investment Trust In the event that a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") should be at any time bound by the covenants of Landlord hereunder or incur any liability as Landlord hereunder, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease or at law, such covenants and liability hereunder and under all other agreements entered into pursuant hereto, if any, shall not be personally binding upon and resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse of satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the trustees of the REIT, unitholders of the REIT, annuitants under a plan of which the REIT or any unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the REIT or directors or officers of any of its nominees, although this provision shall not constitute a bar to any action against the REIT for specific performance of this Lease or performance of any obligation of the REIT arising from or in connection with its obligations, if any, under this Lease or other agreements entered into pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 20.00 Intentionally deleted.

ARTICLE 21.00 MISCELLANEOUS

21.01 Relationship of Parties Nothing contained in this Lease will create any relationship between parties to this Lease other than that of landlord and tenant, and it is acknowledged and agreed that Landlord does not in any way or for any purpose become a partner of Tenant in the conduct of its business, or a joint venturer or a member of a joint or common enterprise with Tenant.

21.02 Consent Not Unreasonably Withheld Except as otherwise specifically provided, whenever consent or approval of Landlord or Tenant is required under the terms of this Lease, such consent or approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant's sole remedy if Landlord unreasonably withholds or delays consent or approval will be an action for specific performance, and Landlord will not be liable for damages. If either party withholds any consent or approval, such party will on written request deliver to the other party a written statement giving the reasons therefor.

21.03 Applicable Law and Interpretation This Lease will be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located, and its provisions will be interpreted as a whole according to their common meaning and not strictly for or against Landlord or Tenant. The words "Landlord" and "Tenant" will include the plural as well as the singular. If this Lease is executed by more than one party as Tenant, Tenant's obligations under this Lease will be joint and several obligations of such executing parties. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions. The captions of the Articles are included for convenience only, and will have no effect upon the interpretation of this Lease.

Certain text in this Lease has been bolded and underlined and certain text has been deleted by way of a line through applicable text. Such bolding and underlining and lines through the applicable text have been used to identify changes to Landlord's standard form of lease for the Shopping Centre. All bolded and underlined text will be read as if not bolded and underlined and all text deleted by way of a line will be deemed not to exist.

21.04 Entire Agreement This Lease (together with any other agreement entered into by the Landlord, the Tenant and/or its or their affiliates in connection with this Lease) contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Lease and except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Lease, this Lease supersedes and revokes all previous negotiations, arrangements, letters of intent, offers to lease, lease proposals, brochures, agreements, representations, promises, warranties, understandings, and information conveyed, whether oral or in writing, between the parties hereto or their respective representatives or any other person purporting to represent Landlord or Tenant. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it has not relied upon any statement, representation, agreement or warranty except such as are expressly set out in this Lease.

21.05 Amendment or Modification Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, no amendment, modification, or supplement to this Lease will be valid or binding unless set out in writing and executed by the parties hereto in the same manner as the execution of this Lease.

21.06 Construed Covenants and Severability All of the provisions of this Lease are to be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words importing such covenants and agreements were used in each separate Article hereof. If any term, proviso, covenant or condition of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is to any extent held or rendered invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal it or its application will be considered separate and severable from this Lease to such extent and the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term, proviso, covenant or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is held invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal will not be affected thereby and will continue to be applicable and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

21.07 No Implied Surrender or Waiver No provisions of this Lease will be deemed to have been waived by Landlord unless such waiver is in writing signed by Landlord. Landlord's waiver of a breach of any term or condition of this Lease will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a breach, from having all the force and effect of any original breach. Landlord's receipt of Rent with knowledge of a breach by Tenant of any term or condition of this Lease will not be deemed a waiver of such breach. Landlord's failure to enforce against Tenant or any other tenant in the Shopping Centre any of the Rules and Regulations made under Article 14.00 will not be deemed a waiver of such Rules and Regulations. No act or thing done by Landlord, its agents or employees during the Term will be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept a surrender of the Premises will be valid, unless in writing signed by Landlord. The delivery of keys to any of Landlord's agents or employees will not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises. No payment by Tenant, or receipt by Landlord, of a lesser amount than the Rent due under this Lease will be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated Rent, nor will any endorsement or statement on any cheque or any letter accompanying any cheque, or payment as Rent, be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such cheque or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Rent or pursue any other remedy available to Landlord.

21.08 Additional Costs Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Rent, upon written request therefore, any and all costs, including without limitation, costs of additional security, cleaning and legal costs, incurred by Landlord as a result of picketing, demonstration or other activity within the Shopping Centre which is initiated by members of any organization, including, without limitation, a trade union, and which is directed at Tenant, its contractors, subcontractors, suppliers or employees or at Tenant's operations in the Shopping Centre.

21.09 Successors Bound Except as otherwise specifically provided, the covenants terms and conditions contained in this Lease will apply to and bind the heirs, successors, executors, administrators and permitted assigns of the parties hereto.

21.10 Brokerage Commission Any brokerage commissions with respect to the present transaction shall be borne exclusively by Tenant and Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any and all claims for payment of commission with respect thereto, unless Landlord has given a specific written mandate to any broker or agent for the present transaction.

21.11 Confidentiality Tenant agrees to keep the terms and conditions of this Lease confidential. Any information pertaining to this Lease cannot be communicated or revealed to a third party without the written consent of Landlord whose refusal will be deemed reasonable if the information that would be communicated or revealed is of a financial nature. Tenant's failure to respect this Article 21.11 is acknowledged by Tenant to constitute a major prejudice to Landlord and also a default according to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

21.12 No Offer by Landlord Landlord will not be deemed to have made an offer to Tenant by preparing this Lease. No agreement respecting the Premises will arise or exist between the parties hereto except through the due execution of this Lease by both Tenant and Landlord. Upon execution and delivery by Tenant to Landlord, this Lease will be irrevocable by Tenant and open for acceptance by Landlord until 5:00 P.M. on the 60th day thereafter, and if not accepted by Landlord by then, may be withdrawn by Tenant by notice to Landlord at any time prior to its later acceptance by Landlord.

21.13 Time of Essence Time shall be of the essence of this Lease in respect to all of the agreements and obligations of Tenant and/or Landlord contained herein.

21.14 Force Majeure If any party hereto is bona fide delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any term, obligation or act required hereunder by reason of Force Majeure, then performance of such term, obligation or act is excused for the period during which the cause of the Force Majeure persists. Once the cause of this Force Majeure has ceased, the party so delayed shall perform such terms, obligations or acts within the time period stipulated in the Lease, without regard for such period of time during which the cause of the Force Majeure persisted.

21.15 Non-Smoking Shopping Centre The Shopping Centre is a non-smoking facility. Tenant, its employees, invitees, customers, and anyone for whom Tenant is responsible at law are strictly prohibited from smoking in any interior or exterior areas of the Shopping Centre, except those exterior areas designated by Landlord as designated smoking areas (if any). Tenant agrees that it will comply with the foregoing restriction as well as any applicable legislation regulating smoking in shopping centres.

21.16 Counterpart Execution This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement, effective when all counterparts have been signed. The parties hereto agree that this Lease may be signed either by paper signature or by electronic signature and may be delivered electronically (in .pdf format) or otherwise, and the parties accept any such electronic signatures as original signatures of the parties.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Security Landlord may from time to time adopt appropriate systems and procedures for the security or safety of the Shopping Centre, any persons occupying, using or entering the same, or any equipment, finishings or contents thereof, and Tenant will comply with Landlord's reasonable requirements relative thereto.

2. Return of Keys At the end of the Term, Tenant will promptly return to Landlord all keys for the Shopping Centre and Premises which are in possession of Tenant.

3. Repair, Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements Tenant will carry out Tenant's repair, maintenance, alterations and improvements in the Premises only during times agreed to in advance by Landlord and in a manner which will not interfere with the rights of other tenants in the Shopping Centre.

4. Water Fixtures Tenant will not use water fixtures for any purpose for which they are not intended, nor will water be wasted by tampering with such fixtures. Any cost or damage resulting from such misuse by Tenant will be paid for by Tenant.

5. Personal Use of Premises The Premises will not be used or permitted to be used for residential, lodging or sleeping purposes or for the storage of personal effects or property not required for business purposes.

6. Heavy Articles and Overloading Services Tenant will not place in or move about the Premises, without Landlord's prior written consent, any safe or other heavy article which in Landlord's reasonable opinion may damage the Shopping Centre, and Landlord may designate the location of any heavy articles in the Premises. Tenant will not overload any utility or service in or serving the Premises or any part of the Shopping Centre.

7. Animals, Bicycles, Shopping Carts Tenant will not bring any animals or birds into the Shopping Centre, and will not permit bicycles or other vehicles inside or on the sidewalks outside the Shopping Centre except in areas designated from time to time by Landlord for such purposes. Tenant shall not permit shopping carts in the Common Areas and Facilities and shall be fully responsible for their removal and indemnify Landlord from any claim, loss, expense, damages or injuries caused by the shopping carts.

8. Deliveries Tenant will ensure that deliveries or shipments of supplies, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, wares and merchandise to or from the Premises are made only through such Delivery Facilities, entrances, elevators and corridors and at such times as may from time to time be designated by Landlord, and will promptly pay or cause to be paid to Landlord the cost of repairing any damage in the Shopping Centre caused by any person making such deliveries or shipments.

9. Solicitations Landlord reserves the right to restrict or prohibit canvassing, soliciting or peddling in the Shopping Centre.

10. Food, Beverages and Entertainment Only persons approved from time to time by Landlord may prepare, solicit orders for, sell, serve or distribute foods or beverages in the Shopping Centre, or use the elevators, corridors or Common Areas and Facilities for any such purposes. Except with Landlord's prior written consent and in accordance with arrangements approved in writing by Landlord, Tenant will not permit on the Premises the use of equipment for dispensing food or beverages or for the preparation, solicitation of orders for, sale, serving or distribution of food or beverages or for the selling or providing of any form of entertainment, including vending machines or other machines operated by coins or other devices.

11. Refuse Tenant will separate and place all refuse in proper receptacles provided by Tenant at its expense in the Premises or in receptacles in recycling stations (if any) provided for the Shopping Centre, and will keep sidewalks and driveways outside the Shopping Centre, and lobbies, corridors, stairwells, ducts and shafts of the Shopping Centre, free of all refuse.

12. Obstructions Tenant will not obstruct or place anything in or on the sidewalks or driveways outside the Shopping Centre or in the lobbies, corridors, stairwells or other Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre, or use such locations for any purpose except access to and exit from the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent. Landlord may remove at Tenant's expense any such obstruction or thing (unauthorized by Landlord) without notice or obligation to Tenant.

13. Dangerous, Immoral or Hazardous Activities Tenant will not make any use of the Premises which involves the danger of injury to any person, nor will same be used for any immoral purpose or to commit any act of waste or damage to any part of the Premises or to use any part of the Premises so as to constitute a hazard.

14. Proper Conduct Tenant will not conduct itself in any manner which is inconsistent with the character of the Shopping Centre as being of first quality or which will impair the comfort and convenience of other tenants in the Shopping Centre. Such prohibited conduct will include the playing of loud music and the placing of merchandise racks in the Common Areas and Facilities.

15. Parking Landlord, from time to time, may prohibit Tenant, Tenant's employees and Tenant's suppliers and others making deliveries to or receiving shipments from the Premises from parking anywhere within the Shopping Centre. If Landlord designates Tenant parking areas in the Shopping Centre, Tenant will park its vehicles and will cause its employees to park their vehicles only in such designated parking areas. Tenant will furnish Landlord, upon request, with the current licence numbers of all vehicles owned or used by Tenant or its employees and Tenant thereafter will notify Landlord of any changes in such numbers within five (5) days after the occurrence thereof. In the event of failure of Tenant or its employees to park their vehicles in such designated parking areas, Tenant will forthwith on demand pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the sum of $20.00 per day per each car so parked. Landlord reserves the right to impose reasonable charges upon any person (including the general public) for the use of any parking facilities which may from time to time form a part of the Shopping Centre.

16. Sustainability Tenant shall implement energy-efficient practices within the Premises, including closing all window shades, turning off any unnecessary lights and equipment after the close of business day.

Tenant will keep any exterior doors and windows to the Premises closed during the periods where there is a variation of three (3) degrees Celsius or more between indoor and outdoor temperatures.

Tenant will turn off interior mall signage and display window lighting half-an-hour after closing until half-an-hour before opening time the next day (the "After-Hours Period"), or as Landlord deems appropriate.

Tenant will limit After-Hours Period interior lighting to emergency lighting, when the Premises are not occupied.

Where Tenant has the ability to control its HVAC for the Premises, Tenant will adjust the HVAC temperature settings so as to limit the Premises' energy consumption during the After-Hours Period by setting back the temperature of the Premises by six (6) degrees Celsius from the daytime temperature setting.

Tenant will not use space heaters in or for the Premises, unless Tenant first obtains Landlord's written consent.

If Landlord leak tests for Tenant's plumbing fixtures reveal water leaks or other defects, Landlord will notify Tenant of such defects and Tenant will take all necessary actions to diligently remedy said effects.

Tenant will comply with Landlord's waste minimization and diversion rules and regulations, as established from time to time.

Tenant will make available an appropriate staff representative to attend Landlord's information and training sessions relating to Landlord's initiatives for improving the Shopping Centre's operational sustainability.

1.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.17 Intentionally deleted.

1.18 Definitions: In this Lease:

1.18.1 "Additional Rent" means all amounts (other than Minimum Rent) that Tenant is required to pay to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

1.18.2 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.3 "Area" means the area expressed in square feet of all floors of the Premises measured from the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows or those separating the Premises from any Common Areas and Facilities, and the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises. The Area includes all interior space whether or not occupied by projections, structures or columns, openings, shafts, structural or non-structural. If a store front, show window or other part of the Premises is recessed from or protrudes beyond the lease line shown on Exhibit A (whether such recess or protrusion is located at or above ground level), the area of such recess or protrusion will be included in the Area. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Area of the Premises as of the date hereof is the Area set out in Article 1.04 hereof.

1.18.4 "Architect" means the architect, engineer, land surveyor, designer or technician that Landlord names, as the case may be.

1.18.5 "Article" means an article of this Lease.

1.18.6 "Authority" or "Authorities" means the federal, provincial, and municipal governments, the courts, administrative and quasi-judicial boards and tribunals and any other organizations or entities with the lawful authority to regulate, or having a power or right conferred at law or by or under a statute over Landlord, Tenant, the Premises or the Shopping Centre, including the business carried on therein.

1.18.7 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.8 "Commencement Date" means the first day of the Term (effective as of 12:00am).

1.18.9 "Common Areas and Facilities" means all areas, services and facilities not installed or intended for the exclusive use or benefit of any individual tenant, including without limitation, all non-leasable areas, service and administrative areas (including, without limitation, administrative offices, janitorial rooms and storage rooms not reserved to any tenant exclusively), all parking areas, parking decks, roofs, roadways, sidewalks, landscaped areas, floor slabs, exterior walls and exterior and interior structural portions of any open or enclosed malls or other common means of access to leasable premises (excluding any structural mezzanines within any leasable premises), public lavatories, truck courts, common loading areas, driveways, music and public address systems, electrical, plumbing and drainage, fire protection, fire detection, heating, ventilation and/or air-conditioning systems or equipment servicing the Shopping Centre and/or more than one tenant, mall decorative or promotional installations, customer and service stairways, mall directories and directional signs, information booths, elevators, escalators and all other areas, services and facilities which Landlord provides or designates from time to time to be part of Common Areas and Facilities.

1.18.10 "Consumer Price Index" or "C.P.I." means the Consumer Price Index for all items in the Province of Ontario All Items Excluding Food as issued by Statistics Canada or its successor, provided that if such Consumer Price Index is not available from Statistics Canada or its successor, Landlord may utilize for the purposes of this Lease any reasonable measure of changes in consumer price levels.

1.18.11 "Delivery Facilities" means those portions of the Common Areas and Facilities which are, from time to time, designated by Landlord as facilities to be used in common by Landlord, tenants of the Shopping Centre, and others, for purposes of loading, unloading, delivery, dispatch and holding of merchandise, goods and materials entering or leaving the Shopping Centre, and those portions of the Shopping Centre giving vehicular access to the said facilities.

1.18.12 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.13 "Environmental Law" means the statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority or of the common law which affect the Premises or Tenant's business, and which impose any obligations relating to the protection, conservation or restoration of the natural environment or to any contaminant, pollutant, dangerous substance, potentially dangerous substance, noxious substance, toxic substance, hazardous waste, flammable, explosive or radioactive material or any other substances or materials that are declared or defined to be hazardous, toxic, contaminants or pollutants in or pursuant to any applicable federal, provincial or municipal statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority.

1.18.14 "Fiscal Year" means a twelve (12) month period (all or part of which falls within the Term) from time to time determined by Landlord with the concurrence of the appropriate taxation authorities, at the end of which Landlord's books are balanced for auditing and/or taxation purposes.

1.18.15 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.17 "Force Majeure" means, if during the Term either party to this Lease will be unable to perform any of the terms, obligations, or conditions contained in this Lease due to strikes, walkouts (except for strikes or walkouts directly involving employees of Tenant), civil commotion, warlike operations, governmental regulations or controls, acts of God, pandemics, inability to procure materials or services, otherwise beyond the reasonable control of such party. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, nothing in this Force Majeure provision will relieve Tenant from payment of Rent as required in this Lease and insolvency or lack of funds will not relieve any party to this Lease from fulfillment of any obligation arising from any part of this Lease.

1.18.18 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.19 "Goods and Services Tax" or "GST" means all goods and services tax, value-added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST, QST or any other similar tax) howsoever characterized, which any taxing Authority imposes on Landlord and/or requires Landlord to collect on behalf of said taxing Authority, on any amount received or receivable by Landlord from Tenant under the terms of this Lease.

1.18.20 "Gross Leasable Area" means the total of all floor areas (measured in the manner stipulated in the definition of "Area") of all premises in the Shopping Centre intended for leasing from time to time, whether said premises directly access an enclosed mall or court or not, but excluding basement areas, mezzanines, storage areas, elevator and escalator shafts, areas of the Common Areas and Facilities leased or occupied on a temporary basis, areas not used for retail purposes such as, by way of example only, areas leased or occupied for non-retail purposes or promotional purposes and areas occupied by the Shopping Centre manager and any support staff.

1.18.21 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.22 "Hazardous Substance" means, whether or not controlled or regulated by Environmental Law, any solid, liquid, gas, odour, heat, sound, vibration or combination of them resulting directly or indirectly from human activities that may, if released into the environment, have an adverse effect on the natural environment or on people, property or the normal conduct of business, including without limitation, harmful moulds or other harmful airborne substances, flammables, explosives, radioactive materials, urea formaldehyde foam, asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), pollutants, contaminants, hazardous wastes, toxic substances or related materials, petroleum or petroleum products and substances declared to be hazardous or toxic under any law, by-law, regulation or ordinance now or hereafter enacted.

1.18.23 "HVAC Cost" means all the costs, charges and expenses in any Fiscal Year for the operation, repair, replacement and maintenance of the systems for heating, ventilating, and air conditioning the Shopping Centre and/or premises including the Premises as established by Landlord, from time to time, on a fair and equitable basis which reflects load and hours of operation provided, however, where Tenant pays an HVAC Charge for the Premises, or where Tenant maintains, repairs and replaces HVAC for the Premises at its cost, HVAC costs shall exclude the Premises.

1.18.24 "Interest Rate" means the Prime Rate in force when an amount becomes due, plus three (3) percentage points.

1.18.25 "Land" means all of the lands described in Exhibit B.

1.18.26 "Landlord" means the party first herein above described and includes its successors and assigns, and in articles that contain a release or other exculpatory provisions or an indemnity in favour of Landlord, including the officers, directors, employees and agents and contractors of Landlord, as well as any Person under Landlord's exclusive control.

1.18.27 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.28 "Lease" means this Lease, and the Exhibits annexed to this Lease described in Article 1.18.55 and every properly executed instrument which by its term amends, modifies or supplements this Lease.

1.18.29 "Lease Year" means a period of twelve (12) calendar months except the first Lease Year of the Term which will begin on the Commencement Date and end on the last day of the calendar month in which the first (1st) anniversary of the day immediately preceding the Commencement Date occurs and succeeding Lease Years will comprise successive periods of twelve (12) calendar months (and the last Lease Year in the Term may contain less than twelve (12) calendar months), but if Landlord deems it expedient, it may by written notice to Tenant specify an annual date upon which any Lease Year will terminate, in which event the appropriate adjustments will be made between the parties.

1.18.30 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.31 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.32 "Management Company" means a company or other entity, if any, retained by Landlord from time to time to operate or manage the Shopping Centre.

1.18.33 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.34 "Minimum Rent" means the amount payable by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to Article 1.09 in respect of each year of the Term under Article 4.01.

1.18.35 "Mortgagee" shall have the meaning given to the term in Article 17.03.

1.18.36 "Operating Agreement(s)" means any agreement or agreements between Landlord and the owner(s) of lands neighbouring or contiguous to the Land, pursuant to which the developments and improvements on the Land and the developments and improvements on such neighbouring or contiguous lands are operated on a coordinated basis (if any).

1.18.37 "Operating Costs" means:

(a) all costs, expenses and charges which are attributable to the insuring, operation, repair, replacement, administration and maintenance of the Shopping Centre or incurred to reduce Operating Costs, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any tax, rate, charge, levy, duty, fee, tariff or assessment however imposed, assessed or charged in relation to the consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature for the Shopping Centre and/or the Premises or from any part of the foregoing, or levied or charged in lieu thereof, the costs to Landlord of purchasing in compliance with all applicable laws of any Authority tradable units of greenhouse producing gases including without limitation carbon dioxide, HVAC Cost, plus energy costs in relation thereto, depreciation or amortization allocable to the Fiscal Year on equipment and fixtures, energy conservation and security costs, cleaning, snow removal, landscaping, garbage collection and disposal, recycling, painting, decorations, parking lot repairs, maintenance, replacements and stripping, roof repairs, maintenance and replacements, utilities including water, gas, and electricity, security and security equipment and technology, energy efficiency, energy sub-metering and recycling technology and equipment, rental of equipment and hiring of services, remuneration of all or any on-site Shopping Centre staff and supervisory personnel, including but not limited to managers, supervisors and support staff, including wages, bonuses and benefits, employment related costs, including the foregoing costs of off-site personnel involved in the administration and management of Taxes and insurance for the Shopping Centre, general overhead expenses including office supplies and equipment, postage and courier costs, the fair market rentable value and any business taxes associated with any office space in the Shopping Centre used by Landlord or Management Company to operate and administer the Shopping Centre, interest calculated at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum in excess of the Prime Rate upon the undepreciated or unamortized portion of the cost and expense of items being depreciated or amortized from time to time and capital replacement of the systems for heating, ventilating and air conditioning the Shopping Centre, and repairs and replacement of the roofs and parking facilities of the Shopping Centre;

(b) all expenses after the date any space in the Shopping Centre was first occupied by any tenant and properly allocable to the Fiscal Year for any capital improvement or structural repair to the Shopping Centre, or required by any change in the laws, rules, regulations, or orders of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority having jurisdiction, or incurred to reduce Operating Costs, which expenses will be amortized in accordance with reputable shopping centre management and operation practices, and interest calculated at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum in excess of the Prime Rate upon the unamortized portion of the total costs of the foregoing;

(c) all costs, charges and expenses which are directly attributable to the operation, management, repair, replacement and maintenance of the Shopping Centre or incurred to reduce Operating Costs but which are not attributable solely to the operation, management, repair, replacement and maintenance of any leasable area of the Shopping Centre; and

(d) an administration fee equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total of the items set out in Article 1.18.37(a), (b) and (c) above.

1.18.38 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.38.1 "Original Lease" means that certain lease dated August 9, 1978 (as amended, supplemented, renewed and extended from time to time, including, without limitation, pursuant to a rent agreement dated August 9, 1978, amending agreements and letter agreements dated September 26, 1988, July 16, 2001, June 10, 2004, September 24, 2004, October 27, 2004, and September 6, 2006, and June 8, 2015, a settlement agreement dated June 8, 2015, and omnibus agreements dated November 17, 2015 and December 29, 2020 collectively, the "Original Lease"), entered into by Landlord and the Tenant (by them or which apply to them as successors to the original parties thereto) for the Premises which Original Lease has been surrendered immediately prior to the Commencement Date.

1.18.39 "Owners" means the owner or owners or co-owners from time to time (other than Landlord) of the freehold or leasehold title of the Shopping Centre.

1.18.40 "Person" where the context allows, includes any physical person, corporation, partnership or association, or any groups or combinations of same.

1.18.41 "Premises" means the premises described in Article 1.02, the approximate location of which is shown on Exhibit A. If the Premises are entirely self-enclosed, the boundaries shall extend to the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows, or those separating the Premises from Common Areas and Facilities, the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises, and from the top surface of the structural sub-floor to the underside of the roof or any structural floor slab situated immediately above the ceiling of the Premises. Premises shall exclude any Common Areas and Facilities located within them, and if the Premises are open to the ceiling of the Shopping Centre, the boundaries of the Premises will extend from the top surface of the structural sub-floor to the top of its permanent structures. The "Premises" include the structure slab for the lowest floor level and all fixed improvements located below the slab or on the roof which are for the exclusive use of the Tenant and which are comprised of any mechanical, electrical, plumbing and other services and any insulation, and all elevators and escalators therein (including connecting the Premises to the parking garage), and all elevator shafts, cabs and lobbies.

1.18.42 "Prime Rate" means the annual rate of interest announced from time to time by Royal Bank of Canada at its main branch in Toronto, Ontario, as a reference rate then in effect for determining interest rates on Canadian dollar commercial loans in Canada.

1.18.43 "Promotion Fund" means the fund for promotion of the Shopping Centre, if any, described in Article 4.11.

1.18.44 "Proportionate Share" means, a fraction, the numerator of which is the Area, and the denominator of which is the Gross Leasable Area. For certainty, the Tenant's Proportionate Share for the purposes of this Lease shall be determined in a manner consistent with the Tenant's Proportionate Share figure used by the parties under the Original Lease as at the Termination Date.

1.18.45 "Released Persons" means collectively and individually, Landlord, Owners, Mortgagee and any Management Company and partners of the Owners or Landlord. In articles that contain a release or other exculpatory provision or an indemnity in favour of any Released Persons, "Released Persons" includes the officers, directors, employees and agents of the Released Persons, and Landlord acting as agent for, or as trustee for, the benefit of the Released Persons so that each such release, indemnity and/or other exculpatory provision is fully enforceable by the Released Persons.

1.18.46 "Rent" means the Minimum Rent and the Additional Rent.

1.18.47 "Shopping Centre" means the Site and all buildings and Common Areas and Facilities on the Site as each of the foregoing exists from time to time, as may be varied from time to time by adding or subtracting or altering or reconfiguring or by such other means as Landlord considers necessary or advisable.

1.18.48 "Site" means the Land indicated on Exhibit B as may be varied from time to time by adding or subtracting land or by such other means as Landlord considers necessary or advisable (and even if parts of the Site may be separated from other parts of same by lanes, streets, highways or any other means of passage in or to which others may have rights).

1.18.49 "Taxes" means the aggregate of all taxes, rates, charges (including local improvement charges), levies, assessments, licence fees, excise and other charges, or any other taxes, rates or charges levied, charged or assessed in lieu thereof, imposed by any competent authority upon or in respect of the Shopping Centre, upon or in respect of all adjoining or neighbouring lands from time to time owned or made available to Landlord and used in connection with the Shopping Centre, or upon or in respect of both, and upon or in respect of all developments and improvements on the Shopping Centre and on such adjoining or neighbouring lands (including, without limitation, parking lot/transit support taxes, rates charges, levies and assessments), such taxes, rates, charges, levies and assessments being established by such competent authority based upon the Shopping Centre, in its various stages of development, assessed as a completed, fully occupied Shopping Centre. Subject to the foregoing, in determining Taxes, any corporate income, profits, excess profits, and business tax imposed upon the income of Landlord, and any other impost of a personal nature charged or levied against Landlord will be excluded, except to the extent that it is levied in lieu of Taxes. Landlord's reasonable expenditures for consultation, negotiation and contestation, to the extent that they are incurred in an attempt to minimize or reduce Taxes, shall be included in the definition of Taxes.

1.18.50 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.51 "Tenant" means the Person executing this Lease as Tenant. Where the context permits, Tenant will also include all servants, employees, agents and contractors of Tenant, as well as any Person under Tenant's exclusive control.

1.18.52 "Tenant Security" means any deed creating a charge or having the effect of encumbering, in any manner whatsoever, the rights that Tenant and/or any other Person (other than Landlord) have in any property (excluding this Lease and the Premises), whether movable or immovable, located in or forming part of the Premises, to secure in whole or in part any loan, indebtedness, authorized credit or any other obligation.

1.18.53 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.54 "Term" means the period of time set out in Article 1.05 and shall include all renewals and extensions thereof.

1.18.55 Exhibits

"Exhibit A" means the plan(s) attached hereto as Exhibit A.

"Exhibit B" means the legal description(s) attached hereto as Exhibit B.

"Exhibit C" INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

"Exhibit D" means the Rules and Regulations attached hereto as Exhibit D.

"Exhibit E" INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

"Exhibit F" means the sample Estoppel Certificate attached hereto as Exhibit F.

ARTICLE 2.00 GRANT OF LEASE

2.01 Grant Landlord hereby demises and leases the Premises to Tenant, and Tenant hereby leases and accepts the Premises from Landlord, to have and to hold during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.02 Quiet Enjoyment So long as Tenant performs its obligations under this Lease, Landlord will warrant and defend Tenant in the quiet enjoyment and possession of the Premises during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.03 Covenants of Landlord and Tenant Landlord covenants to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Landlord under this Lease. Tenant covenants to pay the Rent when due under this Lease, and to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Tenant under this Lease.

ARTICLE 3.00 TERM, POSSESSION AND TERMINATION OF ORIGINAL LEASE

3.01 Landlord's Option to Renew. Landlord has, exercisable at its sole and entire and unfettered discretion by giving at least 12 months' prior written notice to the Tenant, the right to renew this Lease for an additional period of five (5) years (the "Renewal Term") on the same terms and conditions as set out herein, save and except for the Minimum Rent, which shall be equal to the minimum/base rent that would have been payable under the Original Lease during this Renewal Term had the Original Lease not been terminated and continued during the period of this Renewal Term.

3.02 Intentionally deleted.

3.03 Acceptance of Premises and Tenant Acknowledgements The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that: (a) it originally occupied the Premises pursuant to the Original Lease, and as of the date hereof, it continues to be in possession of the Premises (which possession by the Tenant was in place prior to the date hereof pursuant to the Original Lease); (b) it has accepted the Premises in an entirely "as is where is" condition basis without any representation, warranty or obligation on the part of the Landlord to perform any work or construct any leasehold or other improvements in the Premises or the Shopping Centre in connection with the Tenant's intended use thereof; (c) the continued possession of all or any portion of the Premises by the Tenant is conclusive evidence as against the Tenant that the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition as of the date hereof, (d) it is solely responsible (at its sole cost and expense and without any reimbursement from or contribution by the Landlord) for all improvements, fixtures, chattels or other personal property currently existing or which in the future may exist or may be required in, on or around the Premises and needed, required or used by the Tenant for the operation of its business from the Premises, and (e) it does not have any right of first refusal, right of first opportunity, option to purchase or any other right to acquire any interest or real property right in all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

3.04 Limitation on Length of Term This Lease is entered into subject to the express condition that it is to be effective to create any interest in land only if the provisions of any statute are complied with relating to the severance of land or interests in land by conveyance or otherwise (as it may from time to time be amended). Landlord and Tenant agree, as a separate and distinct agreement, that if pursuant to any statute consent is requisite to the validity of this Lease, either party may apply for such consent and until unconditional consent has been obtained, the Term of this Lease or any renewal thereof will not extend beyond the period permitted without consent pursuant to any such statute, with no further right on the part of Tenant to extend the term, notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease.

3.05 Termination of Original Lease Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that the Original Lease is surrendered and terminated effective on 11:59pm on the date immediately preceding the Commencement Date (the "Termination Date"). The respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant with respect to the Premises and the Original Lease will be preserved and will survive the Termination Date, as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Termination Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to the Original Lease on or after the Termination Date. Any breach of the Original Lease which has not been cured will, after the Termination Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Original Lease. Tenant represents, warrants and covenants with Landlord that Tenant has the absolute right, full power and authority to agree to the termination of the Original Lease as provided herein.

3.05(A) Reinstatement of Original Lease.

Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that if at November 13, 2028 (the "Original Lease Reinstatement Date") no Event (as such term is hereinafter defined) has occurred or is continuing, and there is not then any default occurring of the Tenant's obligations under this Lease, failing which this provision shall not apply and be null and void (and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect without any obligation to enter into the Reinstated Original Lease), then the parties shall execute and deliver to one another the Reinstated Original Lease (as defined below) which shall provide and confirm that effective upon the Original Lease Reinstatement Date: (1) this Lease shall be resolved, cancelled, surrendered and rescinded; and (2) the termination of the Original Lease shall be deemed to have been revoked and, except as expressly modified pursuant to this provision, the Original Lease shall be reinstated in its entirety effective as of the Original Lease Reinstatement Date and shall again be in full force and effect as if the same had never been terminated. However, the respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant as to the Premises under this Lease will be preserved and will survive the termination of this Lease on the Original Lease Reinstatement Date as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to this Lease on or after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date (given the Reinstated Original Lease will thereafter govern this tenancy). Any breach of this Lease which has not been cured will, after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of this Lease.

"Event" means the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) Tenant (or any of its affiliates) defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under this Lease or any HBC IC Lease (as hereinafter defined); or

(2) Tenant (a) is insolvent, (b) has committed an act of bankruptcy, and/or (c) has become bankrupt.

"HBC IC Lease" means any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties:

(i) Galeries D'Anjou;

(ii) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(iii) Outlet Collection at Niagara on the Lake;

(iv) Southgate;

(v) Guildford;

(vi) Mapleview;

(vii) CrossIron Mills;

(viii) St. Foy;

(ix) Outlet collection Winnipeg; or

(x) Vaughan Mills.

"Reinstated Original Lease" means the Original Lease but reinstated and amended only to provide that the Term of the reinstated Original Lease shall commence on the Original Lease Reinstatement Date and end upon the expiry of the remaining unexpired Term of this Lease as at the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, Tenant, subject to the following sentence shall have the unexpired rights, if any, to renew or extend the said Term as set out in the Original Lease on the terms and conditions set out therein (inclusive of the calculation of minimum rent). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the expiry of the Term (taking into consideration all options to extend in favour of the Tenant) of the Reinstated Original Lease shall not exceed the date on which the Original Lease would have expired (taking into consideration all options to extend in favour of the Tenant thereunder). For greater certainty, and as an illustrative example only to further clarify the parties' intent, if the expiry of the term of the Original Lease was December 31, 2030, taking into consideration all options to extend in favour of the Tenant, and the Reinstated Original Lease was executed by the parties, the Term of the Reinstated Original Lease, taking into consideration all options to renew or extend in favour of the Tenant, shall not exceed December 31, 2030. Landlord shall prepare the form of Reinstated Original Lease and the parties shall forthwith thereafter execute and deliver same to the other, each at its sole expense. In addition, Tenant shall execute such other documents contemplated in Section 3.05 hereof for the discharge of any registered documents relating to this Lease for which Section 3.05 shall equally apply in this context, mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 4.00 RENT

4.01 Minimum Rent Tenant will pay to Landlord a Minimum Rent for the Premises described in Article 1.09 of this Lease, payable in advance in equal and consecutive monthly instalments and without notice on the Commencement Date and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter during the Term.

4.02 Intentionally deleted.

4.03 Intentionally deleted.

4.04 Intentionally deleted.

4.05 Net Lease It is the stated purpose and intent of Landlord and Tenant that, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Lease will be fully net to Landlord. Tenant will pay to Landlord, at the times and in the manner provided in Articles 4.07 and 4.09, its Proportionate Share of Operating Costs and Taxes.

4.06 Calculation and Payment of Operating Costs

(a) Tenant will pay the amounts stipulated in Article 1.11 to Landlord in monthly instalments one-twelfth of such estimate simultaneously with Tenant's payments of Minimum Rent during such Fiscal Year.

(b) If the Term commences after the beginning of or terminates before the end of a Fiscal Year, the amount of Operating Costs payable by Tenant for such Fiscal Year will be adjusted proportionately.

4.07 Intentionally deleted.

4.08 Taxes Payable by Tenant The Tenant shall be responsible for the payment of all Taxes imposed from time to time during the Term in respect of the Premises, including in each case the value of any Common Areas and Facilities which is included by the assessing authorities in the value of the Premises and the business operated therefrom and all the improvements constructed thereon and all the fixtures and equipment constructed and used by Tenant and its assignees, sublicensees and concessionaires. For certainty, Tenant shall pay the Tenant's Taxes contribution to the Landlord as Additional Rent hereunder in an amount equal to the actual Taxes levied specifically against the Premises by the taxing Authority, provided that if the Premises are not taxed on a separate basis, then in an amount determined by the Landlord, acting reasonably and equitably, on the basis of the notes and working papers of the assessment Authority (or its successor) made readily available to the Landlord, and provided further that if such notes and working papers are not readily available to the Landlord or they do not contain sufficient information to determine the Taxes applicable specifically to the Premises, then Tenant shall pay its Proportionate Share of all Taxes payable in respect of the Shopping Centre. The parties acknowledge and agree that as of the Commencement Date, the notes and working papers of the assessment authority are readily available to the Landlord and contain sufficient information to determine the Taxes applicable specifically to the Premises.

Tenant shall reimburse Landlord that part of any increase in Taxes for the Shopping Centre, which is reasonably attributable to any change, addition or improvement or special equipment identified by an assessment Authority made on or in the Premises by Tenant. In such event, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the total amount of said Tax increase attributable to Tenant within 30 days of receipt of an invoice from Landlord, said amount to be deemed Additional Rent.

For greater certainty, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any and all goods and services tax, value added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST or any other similar tax) ("Value Added Taxes"), it being the intention of the parties that Landlord shall collect from Tenant all Value Added Taxes collectable by Landlord on the Rent and any other amounts payable by Tenant under this Lease. The amount of such Value Added Taxes so payable by Tenant shall be calculated by Landlord in accordance with the applicable legislation and shall be paid to Landlord at the same time as the amount to which such Value Added Taxes apply are payable to Landlord under the terms of this Lease. The amount payable by Tenant under this provision shall be deemed not to be additional rent, but Landlord shall have all of the same remedies for and rights of recovery of such amount as it has for recovery of Rent under this Lease.

The Landlord may appeal any official assessment or the amount of any Taxes or business taxes (including other taxes capable of constituting a lien) relating to the Shopping Centre including the improvements (including fixtures and equipment) thereon, and the Tenant may appeal any official assessment or any Taxes or business taxes relating to the Premises including the improvements thereon or, where the Tenant's obligations are directly or indirectly affected thereby, relating to any other portion of the Shopping Centre including the Common Area and Facilities. Neither the Landlord nor the Tenant shall institute any appeal without notice to the other and, where their interests do not conflict and in particular where the appeal is being made in order to achieve a re-assessment which is consistent with the basis contemplated by this Lease, each shall extend its co-operation and assistance to the other in respect to such appeal.

4.09 Changes in Taxes If the system of real estate taxation is altered or varied from that in force on the Commencement Date and any new tax shall be levied or imposed on all or part of the Shopping Centre and/or the revenues therefrom and/or on Landlord in substitution for or in addition to previously existing Taxes by any taxing Authority, whether or not the taxing Authority has previously charged any Taxes, then any such new tax or levy shall be included in Taxes, or if by law, regulation or otherwise all or any part of any Taxes, is made payable by Landlord or if the mode of collecting such tax, assessment, local improvement, licence fee, excise or other charge is so altered so as to make Landlord liable in whole or in part therefor instead of Tenant or if all or any part of Tenant's Taxes under Article 8.01 is imposed, levied, assessed or charged upon or on account of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will pay to Landlord, from time to time, within 30 days after demand, the amount payable by Landlord, from time to time, as a result of such change as determined by Landlord in the same manner as the Proportionate Share of Taxes is payable under the terms of this Lease and Tenant will indemnify and save Landlord harmless from any cost or expense in respect thereof. For greater certainty, to the extent that the new tax or levy is fully recoverable by Tenant as an input tax credit or refund, such Tax shall be fully payable by Tenant notwithstanding the proportionate sharing of other Taxes hereunder.

4.10 Intentionally deleted.

4.11 Promotion Fund / Merchant's Association Landlord may establish and maintain a common Promotion Fund for the Shopping Centre or continue to maintain any Promotion Fund in existence as of the Commencement Date of this Lease. Landlord will use the Promotion Fund for the promotion or benefit of the Shopping Centre in such a manner and as Landlord may, from time to time, decide and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord may utilize the Promotion Fund for payment of a full-time or part-time marketing director, the employment of other promotional staff and customer service, the purchase of advertising space and time, materials or equipment for decorating and promotional events and activities similar to those undertaken by other shopping centres. Any surplus in the Promotion Fund at the end of a Fiscal Year of the Promotion Fund will be carried forward for like purposes in the next year, without any reduction in the amount payable by Tenant pursuant to this Article 4.11. Landlord may, at its sole discretion, establish a Promotion Fund advisory committee comprised of representatives of the tenants of the Shopping Centre chosen by Landlord to advise Landlord on the application of the Promotion Fund contributions.

If there is a Promotion Fund for the Shopping Centre, Tenant will pay to Landlord in equal monthly instalments, the amount stipulated in Articles 1.12, towards the Promotion Fund, and may include the development of a mall video network, offering a program of information, entertainment and advertisements, and for the promotion of the Shopping Centre.

Landlord will have the right at its discretion to change the Fiscal Year of the Promotion Fund as it may deem appropriate, from time to time.

4.12 Intentionally deleted.

4.13 Landlord's Promotions Landlord may promote and advertise the Shopping Centre in a manner and to the extent that would a diligent and prudent owner of a similar shopping centre, taking into account the nature, size, age, character and location of the Shopping Centre as well as the general image that Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre from time to time. Tenant agrees that Landlord will never be obliged to spend more than the total amount paid to the Promotion Fund described in Article 1.12 by the tenants of the Shopping Centre in any Fiscal Year in order to fulfill its obligations hereunder. Landlord shall alone administer the Promotion Fund.

Landlord's promotional activities may include, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the production and distribution of written advertising or promotional materials and/or audio and/or audio visual promotions by the various media (radio and television) and/or internet and/or seasonal decorations and/or all other forms of promotion or publicity in relation to the Shopping Centre alone or on a joint basis with one or more other shopping centres or properties of which Landlord is owner or manager. Tenant agrees to give its complete support and cooperation to all of Landlord's promotional activities. Without limitation, Tenant will honour any discount coupons, gift certificates, gift cards, electronic gift cards or other incentives given to customers as part of any promotional activity.

Landlord may designate an agent to promote and/or advertise on its behalf, to enter into any agreements with third parties for promotion and/or advertising purposes, and may use all or any part of the Promotion Fund contributions to pay or remunerate its agent.

4.14 Intentionally deleted.

4.15 Intentionally deleted.

4.16 Tenant's Support t Tenant will support all promotional events, functions and activities sponsored or participated in by either the Promotion Fund, if any. In order to comply with this obligation, however, Tenant will not be required to make any additional financial contributions toward the promotion of the Shopping Centre other than those set out in Article 4.11.

4.17 Payment of Rent – General l During the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay Minimum Rent and Additional Rent to Landlord in the manner provided in this Lease or if not so provided, as reasonably required by Landlord. All amounts payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease will be deemed to be Rent and will be payable and recoverable as Rent in the manner herein provided, and Landlord will have all rights and recourses against Tenant for default in any such payment as in the case of arrears of Rent. Rent will be paid to Landlord, without deduction or set-off, in legal tender of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located. If and to the extent Landlord so requires, Rent will be paid to Landlord, at Tenant's expense, by electronic funds transfer system or similar system whereby Tenant will authorize its bank, trust company, credit union or other financial institution to credit Landlord's bank account each month in an amount equal to the monthly Rent payable pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, otherwise, Rent will be paid to Landlord at the address of Landlord as set forth in the beginning of this Lease, or to such other Person or at such other address as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing.

Where Tenant makes payments of Rent by an electronic funds transfer system, Tenant shall notify Landlord by e-mail of the date of said electronic payment.

4.18 Rent – Adjustment for Partial Months If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the Commencement Date will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the Commencement Date to the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs (both the Commencement Date and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365. If the Term ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the first (1st) day of the last calendar month of the Term will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the first (1st) day of such last calendar month to the last day of the Term (both the first (1st) and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365.

4.19 Charge Adjustment Wherever it is mentioned in this Lease that Landlord may increase any amount or charge, the following rules may apply if required by the Landlord: (a) each permitted increase of any such amount or charge shall come into force as of the date indicated in Landlord's notice and shall remain in effect until the subsequent increase comes into effect; (b) each permitted increase of any such amount or charge may, at Landlord's option, be charged retroactively; (c) each time any such amount or charge increases, the amount or charge shall be deemed to be replaced by the increased amount or increased charge; (d) any such amount or charge that may be payable during any Fiscal Year shall never be less than the amount or charge so payable during the immediately preceding Fiscal Year; (e) the fact that no annual increase was imposed for any preceding Fiscal Year or such other period, or the fact that an amount less than the full amount of any permitted increase was charged, shall not prevent Landlord, in any manner whatsoever, from imposing the full amount of any annual increase, or any part thereof, during any subsequent Fiscal Year; and (f) the annual increase that Landlord shall be permitted to charge shall be calculated by multiplying the amount or charge presently in force by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the C.P.I. for the month of December of the year prior to the commencement of the increase in question and the denominator of which shall be the C.P.I. for the month of December for the immediately preceding year. For clarity, the Operating Costs are increased commencing January of each year.

ARTICLE 5.00 USE OF PREMISES

5.01 Use and Business Name The Premises will be used and occupied only for the purposes described in Article 1.07; nothing in this Article 5.01 shall create or be deemed to create an exclusivity in favour of Tenant.

The business of Tenant in the Premises will be carried on under the name and style described in Article 1.08 and under no other name and style unless approved by Landlord in writing.

5.02 Hours of Business During the Term of this Lease, Tenant will conduct its business in the Premises on such days and during such hours as is required, from time to time, by Landlord unless prevented from so doing by any Authority, however, nothing herein shall require the Premises or portions thereof to be open during hours other than those which have been generally established by the Tenant for the operation of its similar stores in the greater Toronto area. Tenant shall abide by all rules and regulations now or subsequently in force to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms of this Lease and are applied to Tenant in a non-discriminatory manner.

In the event Tenant fails to conduct its business in accordance with this Article 5.02 then Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.02.

5.03 Continuous Operations Tenant acknowledges that it forms part of an over-all merchandising mix designed to enhance the character, quality, image and reputation of the Shopping Centre, and that its continuous operation of the Premises is essential to Landlord to maintain that character, quality, image, nature and reputation and to facilitate the leasing of vacant space and renewing leases of existing tenants. Tenant therefore, provided the Landlord is operating the Shopping Centre in accordance with this Lease in all material respects, covenants and agrees that throughout the Term it will continuously occupy and operate in the entire Premises, comply strictly with the provisions of Article 5.02 and not vacate or abandon the Premises at any time during the Term. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is executing this Lease in reliance thereupon and that the same is a material element inducing Landlord to execute this Lease. Tenant further agrees that if it vacates or abandons the Premises or it fails to so conduct its business therein, or uses or permits or suffers the use of the Premises for any purpose not specifically herein authorized and allowed, Tenant will be in breach of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and shall have caused Landlord a grave and serious prejudice, and then, without constituting a waiver of Tenant's obligations or limiting Landlord's remedies under this Lease and at law, all Rent reserved in this Lease will immediately become due and payable to Landlord unless guaranteed to the satisfaction of Landlord. Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.03.

5.04 Restrictions on Use & Occupancy

(a) Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not advertise, do, omit, permit or suffer to be done or exist upon the Premises anything which will be or result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

(b) Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any mail order or catalogue enterprise; (iii) any enterprise for the purpose of taking telephone orders; (iv) a store conducted principally or in part for the sale of second hand goods or apparel, war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (v) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire, and only for a period of 30 days immediately following the reopening after such fire; (vi) a store conducted, promoted and/or represented in whole or substantially as a discount operation or in part as a discount operation so as to give the impression that it is being conducted principally as a discount operation; (vii) a pawn shop; (viii) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (ix) an auction sale; and (x) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre.

(c) Tenant shall not conduct on the Premises any "distress sale", "bankruptcy sale", "going out of business sale", "liquidation sale" or "fire sale" except as expressly provided above nor any other type of sale designed to convey to the public that business operations are to be discontinued or that the store shall close, Tenant shall only sell merchandise in the regular course of trade as a retailer operating the Premises for the purpose for which the Premises are leased. Notwithstanding the foregoing, within the last six (6) months of the Term, the Tenant shall have the right to conduct clearance and other sales promotions in the Premises and the Tenant shall be permitted to erect, install and maintain within the Premises during such period any clearance and/or store closing signage (or other signage of a similar nature), provided that (i) any such signage on the exterior of the Premises or which faces any Common Areas and Facilities, shall be subject to the Tenant obtaining all required municipal approvals as well as the Landlord's prior written approval for the nature, size, type and location thereof; and (ii) all clearance and other sales otherwise comply with the requirements of sub-paragraph (b) above and this Lease and are undertaken in a reputable and prudent manner that does not interfere with the typical use and operation of the Shopping Centre or the occupants thereof. Landlord's approval of such signage shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed provided it complies with this provision.

(d) Intentionally deleted.

(e) Tenant shall not use the Common Areas and Facilities for any reason whatsoever without the prior written approval of Landlord. Tenant will not place or keep any merchandise or other thing beyond the permanent floor mounted storefront or closure of the Premises or in the Common Areas and Facilities.

(f) Intentionally deleted.

5.05 Intentionally deleted.

5.06 Display Windows Tenant will keep display windows (if any) neatly dressed. Display windows and lighted signs (if any) will be kept illuminated by Tenant on all business days until at least one half hour after the Shopping Centre closes for business.

5.07 Compliance with Laws The Premises will be used and occupied in a safe, careful and proper manner so as not to contravene any present or future governmental or quasi-governmental laws in force or regulations or orders including, without limitation, all Environmental Law. If, due solely to Tenant's use of the Premises, improvements are necessary to comply with any of the foregoing or with the requirements of insurance carriers, Tenant shall execute same and will pay the entire cost thereof. Unless otherwise directed by Landlord, Tenant will obtain and comply with the terms of all licences, certificates of approval, permits and other approvals necessary or appropriate under applicable laws (inclusive of Environmental Law) for the safe and lawful conduct of its business at or from the Premises.

5.08 Nuisance Tenant will not cause or maintain any nuisance or hazard in or about the Premises and will keep the Premises free of debris, trash, rodents, vermin and anything of a dangerous, noxious or offensive nature or which could create a fire hazard (through undue load on electrical circuits or otherwise) or undue vibration, heat or any unusual or objectionable noises or odours or anything which may disturb the enjoyment of the Shopping Centre and all the Common Areas and Facilities thereof by customers and other tenants of the Shopping Centre, nor will Tenant allow any noise, sound or music in the Premises to be heard in the Common Areas and Facilities or neighbouring premises.

5.09 Advertising, Trade Names and Restricted Marks

(a) In its advertising, Tenant will use the name of the Shopping Centre, such trade names, symbols and slogans as may be designated by Landlord but Tenant will not indulge in any advertising or sales promotion which is undignified or not in conformity with the highest standards of practice among stores dealing in similar merchandise or might harm or tend to harm the business reputation of Landlord or reflect unfavourably on the Shopping Centre, or might confuse or mislead or tend to confuse or mislead the public. Tenant will not sell, advertise, conduct or solicit business anywhere within the Shopping Centre other than in the Premises.

(b) The name for the Shopping Centre which Landlord may from time to time adopt and every name or mark adopted by Landlord in connection with the Shopping Centre will be used by Tenant only in association with sales made at or from and the business carried on in the Premises during the Term and Tenant's use thereof will be subject to such regulations as Landlord may from time to time impose. Tenant will not acquire any rights in any such restricted name or mark, and upon the termination of this Lease all its interest herein will be deemed to have been surrendered to Landlord and Tenant will thereafter cease and abandon all use thereof. If Landlord so requests, Tenant will execute registered user applications or agreements or both to protect Landlord's trade mark rights.

5.10 Intentionally deleted.

5.11 Loading and Delivery The delivery and shipping of merchandise, supplies, fixtures, and other materials or goods of whatsoever nature to or from the Premises and all loading, unloading, and handling of it will be done only at the times, in the areas, by the means, and through the elevators, entrances, malls, and corridors as are designated by Landlord. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will not use or permit any elevators, entrances, malls, corridors or other parts of the Common Areas and Facilities to be used as temporary storage area or areas by Tenant, any of Tenant's employees or suppliers or others when making deliveries to or shipments from the Premises or any permitted storage area of Tenant.

Landlord accepts no liability and is hereby relieved and released by Tenant in respect of the operation of the Delivery Facilities, or the adequacy of them, or of the acts or omissions of any Person or Persons engaged in the operation of them, or in the acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch of any goods for or on behalf of Tenant, or for any claim of Tenant by reason of damage, loss, theft, or acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch, failure of any acceptance, holding, handling or dispatch, or any error, negligence or delay.

Landlord may, from time to time, make and amend regulations for the orderly and efficient operation of the Delivery Facilities, and may require the payment of reasonable and equitable charges for delivery services and removal provided by Landlord.

For certainty, the premises include the loading dock and unloading areas, which exclusively serve the Premises.

ARTICLE 6.00 SERVICES, MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS BY LANDLORD

6.01 Operation of Shopping Centre Landlord shall operate the Shopping Centre and maintain the Common Areas and Facilities as would a prudent and diligent owner of a similar shopping centre, having regard to the Shopping Centre's size, age, nature, location and region where the Shopping Centre is situated, as well as the type of clientele the Shopping Centre services and the general image Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre, all as determined by the Landlord in its sole discretion.

6.02 Services Landlord will provide in the Shopping Centre except where Tenant shall do so pursuant to this Lease:

(a) domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water and necessary supplies in common washrooms sufficient for the normal use thereof; and

(b) heat, ventilation, air conditioning, lighting, electric power, domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water, steam, natural gas and chilled water, in the Common Areas and Facilities (where appropriate).

6.03 Maintenance, Repair and Replacement Subject to the provisions of Article 7.01(b), Landlord will operate, maintain, repair and replace the systems, facilities and equipment necessary for the proper operation of the Shopping Centre and for provision of Landlord's services under Article 6.02 except as such may be installed by or be the property of Tenant or others (excluding Landlord) or both and except for the heating, ventilating and air conditioning equipment, elevators, escalators and other systems, facilities, machinery and equipment installed within or for the Premises, and will expeditiously maintain and repair the foundations, structure and roof of the Shopping Centre (excluding the Premises), provided that:

(a) if all or part of such systems, facilities and equipment are destroyed, damaged or impaired, Landlord will have a reasonable time in which to complete the necessary repair or replacement, and during that time will be required only to maintain such services as are reasonably possible in the circumstances;

(b) Landlord may temporarily discontinue such services or any of them at such times as may be necessary due to causes (except lack of funds) beyond the reasonable control of Landlord;

(c) Landlord will use reasonable diligence in carrying out its obligations under this Article 6.03, but will not be liable under any circumstances for any consequential damage to any Person (including without limitation, Tenant) or any property for any failure to do so;

(d) no reduction or discontinuance of such services under clauses (a) or (b) of this Article 6.03 will constitute as an eviction of Tenant or (except as specifically provided in this Lease) release Tenant from any obligation of Tenant under this Lease; and

(e) nothing contained herein will derogate from the provisions of Articles 7.02. 7.03 10.01, 16.01, 16.02, 16.03, or 16.04 and in no event shall Landlord be required to make any repairs or replacements which are necessary as a result of Tenant's default, negligence or willful misconduct..

6.04 Alterations by Landlord Landlord may, at any time prior to or during the Term, subject to Article 6.06: (i) change the area, level, location, arrangement or use of any portion of the Shopping Centre; (ii) construct on the Site or on adjacent lands, other buildings, structures or improvements and make alterations, additions, subtractions or rearrangements; (iii) modify, alter, expand, reduce or eliminate any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities; (iv) close off all or any part of the Shopping Centre and/or temporarily suspend services for the purpose of maintenance, repair, alteration or construction; (v) place any installations within or on any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities including without limitation, kiosks, planters, benches, promotional displays or activities and any other installations; (vi) close all or part of the Shopping Centre to the public outside of regular business hours, Sundays and holidays included; (vii) restrict areas on the Site available for employee parking, and/or prohibit employees from parking anywhere on the Site; (viii) impose reasonable charges for parking, and impose restrictions on refunds or compensations by Tenant to Persons using the parking areas; (ix) modify tenant mix, both with respect to kinds of uses which may be made of premises, as well as to changes in the physical location of any one or more tenants; (x) do and perform such other acts in relation to the Shopping Centre for the more efficient and proper operation of the Shopping Centre as Landlord determines to be advisable; (xi) change the name of the Shopping Centre; (xii) do all work required to install new, and/or maintain, adapt, repair or replace existing utility lines, pipes, roof drainage pipes, conduits, wires, duct work, columns and other matters through any part of the Premises if necessary and do any other work in the Premises to preserve, support or reinforce any structural walls or foundations of the Premises or the Shopping Centre, and do such work as may be required for an expansion or an alteration of all or part of the Shopping Centre.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, it is understood and agreed that if the Shopping Centre, the Site and/or the Common Areas and Facilities are diminished or altered in any manner whatsoever as a result of the exercise by Landlord of its rights set out in this Article 6.04, Landlord is not subject to any liability nor is Tenant entitled to any compensation or diminution or abatement of Rent, nor is any alteration or diminution thereof deemed to constitute constructive or actual eviction, or a breach of any covenant for quiet enjoyment contained in this Lease. Landlord and Tenant further agree that the exercise by Landlord of its rights under this Article 6.04 will not relieve Tenant of Tenant's obligations under Article 5.03 of this Lease.

The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that the Landlord has not granted to the Tenant and neither the Tenant or the Premises has the benefit of any merchandising controls, exclusivity rights, use restrictions, no-build zones, minimum parking ratio requirements, or minimum stall number requirements, or any other restrictions, restrictive covenants or approval rights applicable to the Site; the Shopping Centre or any part(s) thereof or any other lands abutting thereto or in the vicinity thereof ("Additional Lands") which the Landlord or any of its affiliates may have an interest in, including without limitation and for certainty anything that would otherwise restrict, limit, delay or otherwise interfere with the Landlord's (or its affiliate's) ability to lease, use, convey, alter, develop and/or redevelop all or any part of the Shopping Centre, the Site or any such Additional Lands. The Tenant hereby confirms that any of the forgoing that the Tenant was entitled to or that were granted in or in connection with the Original Lease, its occupancy of the Premises or otherwise have been expressly waived by the Tenant, have terminated and have ceased to have any force or effect. The Tenant covenants and agrees: (a) not to oppose (and hereby irrevocably waives all rights to oppose) the exercise of the Landlord's rights under this Section 6.04 or otherwise pursuant to this Lease in this regard, including, in respect of any rezoning matters, variance applications, restrictive covenants, site plans, subdivisions, easements, transfers, dedications, permits or approvals and other similar requirements in connection therewith (hereinafter "Rezoning Matters"); and (b) agrees to cooperate with Landlord (at no cost or expense to the Tenant) to the extent reasonably required, including, without limitation, granting any partial discharges of its notice of lease and executing any consents, documents and instruments reasonably requested by the Landlord in furtherance of any Rezoning Matters.

6.05 Access by Landlord Tenant will permit Landlord to enter the Premises outside of normal business hours, and during normal business hours where such will not unreasonably disturb or interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises and operation of its business, to examine, inspect and show the Premises to persons wishing to lease them, to provide services or make repairs, replacements, changes or alterations as set out in this Lease, and to take such steps as Landlord may deem necessary for the safety, improvement or preservation of the Premises or the Shopping Centre. Landlord will whenever possible, save in the event of emergency, consult with or give reasonable notice to Tenant prior to such entry, but no such entry will constitute an eviction or entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

6.07 Energy, Conservation and Security Policies Landlord will be deemed to have observed and performed the terms and conditions to be performed by Landlord under this Lease, including those relating to the provision of utilities and services, if in so doing it acts in accordance with a directive, policy or request of a governmental or quasi-governmental authority serving the public interest in the fields of energy, conservation or security.

6.08 Sustainable Operation of Shopping Centre Tenant acknowledges Landlord's intention, to operate its Shopping Centre in a manner so as to provide for:

(a) reduced energy and water consumption;

(b) the use of renewable energy and recycled water;

(c) the facilitation of alternate transportation for customers of the Shopping Centre;

(d) the use of non-toxic, low-impact cleaning and pest control and other products in the operation and maintenance of the Shopping Centre;

(e) a healthy indoor environment;

(f) installation and use of sustainable materials, furniture, equipment and improvements within the Shopping Centre; and

(g) the recycling and diversion of operational waste from landfill generated from the activities of tenants, licensees, and customers of the Shopping Centre, and Landlord intends to operate, manage and maintain the Shopping Centre so as to obtain and/or maintain any green building certifications, accreditations or ratings.

ARTICLE 7.00 DEMISED UTILITIES, SERVICES, MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS BY TENANT

7.01 Demised Utilities

(a) Subject to Article 7.01(b), during the Term, Tenant will provide in the Premises at its own expense heat, ventilation, air-conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam and other utilities and services. Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall promptly pay (but in any event no later than the due date) the cost of water consumption, electricity, gas, steam, telephone, and other utilities used or consumed in or from the Premises directly to the supplier of such services where separately metered or as Landlord may direct.

(b) If heat, ventilation, air conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam or any other utility or service is provided by Landlord, but is not metered or is supplied to the Premises through meters common to a group of tenants in the Shopping Centre, Landlord will pay the cost thereof and apportion such cost as may reasonably be determined by Landlord among the tenants utilizing the utility or service or supplied through such common meters, (provided that if Landlord will from time to time reasonably determine that the use of any such utility or service in the Premises is disproportionate to the use of other tenants, Landlord may adjust Tenant's share of the cost thereof from a date reasonably determined by Landlord to take equitable account of the disproportionate use) and Tenant will reimburse Landlord the amount of its share of such cost.

(c) Intentionally deleted.

(d) If a separate or a check meter exists, Tenant shall then pay for its consumption to Landlord as measured by the Premises check meter and in accordance with the rates of Landlord's supplier.

(e) If at any time, any utility serving the Premises, whose consumption rate was measured by separate or check meter, ceases to be measured by separate or check meter for any reason whatsoever, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a charge calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) above.

(f) Notwithstanding Article 7.00 of this Lease, at Landlord's option, Landlord may, at any time or times during the Term, purchase in bulk from the utility supplier the aggregate electrical energy requirements of the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof, in which event Landlord may arrange for the supply of electricity to the Premises for the general electrical purposes of Tenant. In such case, Tenant will pay to Landlord on a monthly basis, in advance, with annual adjustment at the end of each Fiscal Year, a charge for supplying electricity to the Premises as determined by Landlord on the basis of Tenant's consumption.

(g) Where the Premises are metered directly by a utility company or supplier for electricity, gas, water, or steam consumption, Tenant will provide Landlord, at Tenant's cost, with all consumption data for the Premises, in the manner, at such frequency and in the format as required by Landlord so as to comply with its obligations relating to governmental or quasi-governmental authority reporting regulations, to meet green building certifications or standards including, without limitation, LEED, BOMA BEST or ENERGY STAR or to improve the environmental performance of the Shopping Centre.

7.02 Demised Heating, Ventilation, and Air-Conditioning (HVAC) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense be responsible for maintaining, repairing and replacing of the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning equipment (the "Tenant HVAC System") installed for the Premises where such equipment is not part of a shared or central system.

7.03 Condition of Premises During the Term, Tenant will keep the Premises in a clean and tidy condition, and will provide at its own expense therein janitor services in accordance with this Lease and the rules and regulations of Landlord from time to time, removal of debris and garbage, and cleaning of all windows, doors, walls, ceiling, tiles, floors, grease traps and grease guard systems in the Premises and on the roof of the Shopping Centre where applicable and the exterior of the Premises, subject to Article 7.04(f).

Subject to the foregoing and except to the extent that Landlord is specifically responsible therefor under this Lease, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense maintain the Premises and all improvements therein in good order and condition, subject to reasonable wear and tear, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) intentionally deleted;

(b) making repairs and replacements as needed to glass, plate glass, store windows and storefronts, signs, mouldings, doors, hardware, partitions, walls, fixtures, lighting, finishes, plumbing, wiring, ductwork and piping (including that portion which is contiguous to the Premises), ceilings, floors and thresholds in the Premises;

(c) maintaining, repairing and replacing as needed all Tenant HVAC Systems, elevators, escalators, mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems, facilities and equipment in the Premises;

(d) making other repairs and replacements in the Premises as needed, except repairs and replacements to the Premises for which Landlord is specifically responsible under this Lease; and

(e) keeping the Premises in such condition as to comply with the requirements of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority and insurers having jurisdiction and the rules and regulations of Landlord.

Notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, the Tenant's repair obligations will include all those which are major as well as minor, or those which are customarily landlord's or tenant's, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Lease

7.04 Alterations by Tenant Tenant may from time to time at its own expense make changes, additions and improvements in the Premises to better adapt the same to its business, provided that any such change, addition or improvement will:

(a) comply with the requirements of Landlord's insurer and any Authority having jurisdiction;

(b) be made only with the prior written consent of Landlord;

(c) equal the then current standard for the Shopping Centre;

(d) be carried out only by persons selected by Tenant and approved in writing by Landlord, who will, if required by Landlord, deliver to Landlord before commencement of the work, performance and payment bonds as well as proof of worker's compensation and public liability and property damage insurance coverage as reasonably required by Landlord with Landlord, Owners and Management Company as additional insured parties in amounts, with companies and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, which will remain in effect during the entire period in which the work will be carried out;

(e) Tenant shall obtain all necessary construction and other permits before starting any work in the Premises;

(f) Tenant shall not make any repairs, openings, or additions to any part of the exterior of the Premises, or to the Common Areas and Facilities nor place anything of whatsoever nature in or upon any part of the Common Areas and Facilities, including without limitation the roof and without having obtained the prior written consent of Landlord. In addition it is expressly forbidden for Tenant, its employees, agents, representatives or any Person for whom Tenant is in law responsible to go upon the roof of the Shopping Centre for any reason whatsoever without Landlord's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the prior granting of such consent, Tenant shall be fully responsible for all ensuing costs and damages whether to remove materials or to effect repairs needed as a result of such acts;

(g) Tenant shall not make any change, alteration, addition, repair or improvement in or to the Premises which in any manner affects the structure, the roof, the perimeter walls, the bearing floors, structural slab or slab on grade, the storefront, the sprinkler system (whether it services the Premises exclusively or not), or any heating, ventilation or air-conditioning system or equipment or the electrical and plumbing services or systems (whether these serve the Premises exclusively or not), without in each case obtaining Landlord's prior written approval thereto. Tenant will accompany each request for Landlord's written approval by detailed plans and specifications for the intended work, and will ensure that the work is done according to the relevant provisions of this Lease.

Any increase in Taxes or insurance premiums for the Shopping Centre, or any part thereof, attributable to such change, addition or improvement will be borne by Tenant and Tenant will pay Landlord for the cost of such increase upon receipt of Landlord's invoices therefor.

7.05 Trade Fixtures and Personal Property Tenant may install in the Premises its usual trade fixtures and personal property in a proper manner, provided that no such installation will interfere with or damage the mechanical, plumbing, sprinkler or electrical systems or all or any part of the structure of the Shopping Centre. If Tenant is not then in default under this Lease, trade fixtures and personal property installed in but not affixed to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant may be removed from the Premises:

(a) from time to time in the ordinary course of Tenant's business or in the course of permitted reconstruction, renovation or alteration of the Premises by Tenant; and provided that Tenant in all cases promptly repairs at its own expense any damage to the Premises resulting from such installation and removal. In no case will trade fixtures or personal property include the ceiling or ceiling panels, electric light fixtures, doors, floor coverings, storefront, plumbing fixtures and fittings or any affixed cabinets, shelves, hardware or decorative items in or upon the Premises which upon installation become the property of Landlord, provided, however, that if any of the foregoing shall contain any Hazardous Substance such installation shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant will remove such items at its expense.

(b) during a reasonable period prior to the expiration of the Term,

7.06 Liens Tenant will pay before delinquency all costs for work done or caused to be done by Tenant in the Premises which could result in any lien or encumbrance on Landlord's interest or Tenant's interest or both in the Site or the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, will keep the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre and every part thereof free and clear of any lien or encumbrance in respect of such work and will indemnify and hold harmless Landlord against any claim, loss, cost, demand and legal or other expense, whether in respect of any lien or otherwise, arising out of the supply of material, services or labour for such work. Tenant will immediately notify Landlord of any such lien, claim of lien or other action of which it has or reasonably should have knowledge and which affects the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, and will cause the same to be removed within fifteen (15) days of written notice from Landlord (or such additional time as Landlord may consent to in writing), failing which Landlord may take action as Landlord deems necessary to remove the same and the entire cost thereof will be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, including all legal fees, costs and disbursements on a substantial indemnity basis.

7.07 Intentionally deleted.

7.08 Signs Tenant shall not erect or place any sign, decal, decoration, lettering, design or advertisement of any nature whatsoever ("Sign") on the exterior walls of the Premises or on the walls of the mall or elsewhere in the Shopping Centre or in the display windows without first obtaining Landlord's written consent as to the specifications, design, location and method of installation. All Signs shall conform to all applicable rules and regulations and shall be of high quality. Furthermore, all Signs shall be suitably illuminated where applicable in the same manner as other signs in the Shopping Centre. Tenant shall not install or affix any Sign in the Premises or in the Shopping Centre which is visible from the exterior of the Shopping Centre. All Signs on Tenant's storefront which Landlord allows Tenant to install must be so installed prior to the opening by Tenant of its Premises to the public.

No Sign(s) advertising an auction sale, going out of business sale, closing out sale, bankruptcy sale or any other similar sale other than one in the normal course of Tenant's business, or any Sign indicating that Tenant is moving to another location, shall be permitted in the Shopping Centre.

For certainty, the Landlord confirms that the Tenant's exterior Signs that exist as of the Commencement Date are compliant with this Section.

ARTICLE 8.00 TENANT'S TAXES

8.01 Business Taxes and Other Taxes Payable by Tenant Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to the Authorities responsible for collection all business and water taxes, charges or rates, garbage removal taxes, charges, rates, taxes, levies, fees, duties, tariffs or assessments for consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature however imposed or assessed and/or for recycling and/or similar taxes, charges or rates imposed on or applicable to Tenant in connection with the activities, goods (including without limiting the generality thereof, Tenant's movables, equipment and tools) or services of which Tenant benefits, or for Tenant's use or occupation of the Premises, or for the nature of the enterprise that Tenant operates in the Premises, or any other matter determined by said authorities (hereinafter "Tenant's Taxes"). It is understood that Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to Landlord any Tenant's Taxes where Landlord shall be invoiced therefor or shall become liable for any such Tenant's Taxes pursuant to any new, amended or modified law, regulation, policy and/or practice of any competent Authority. Tenant shall also be liable for the payment of any Tenant's Taxes, Taxes and any other amount payable by Landlord, and any increases in one or all of the foregoing (even where such Tenant's Taxes, Taxes or other amount or increases thereof are substantially greater than the amount payable therefor by Tenant in previous years) as a direct or indirect result of the abolition, modification and/or replacement of any Tenant's Taxes by any competent Authority or due to any modification of any policy or practice thereof. Tenant will indemnify Landlord from and against all losses, costs of expenses occasioned by or arising from the foregoing.

ARTICLE 9.00 INSURANCE

9.01 Landlord's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease, Landlord will carry the insurance for which Landlord is obligated under the Original Lease and such insurance provisions are deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term, Landlord will maintain the Landlord's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

9.02 Tenant's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, will carry the insurance for which Tenant is obligated under the Original Lease and such provisions of the Original Lease are deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term and any period Tenant is in possession of the Premises, the Tenant will maintain the Tenant's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date in accordance with the insurance certificate most recently provided to the Landlord by the Tenant, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

Tenant agrees to deliver to Landlord, proof of above required insurance in force at such date, such proof to be in the form of certificates of insurance acceptable to Landlord. If the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained on the part of Tenant will immediately endanger or could reasonably lead to or result in future endangerment of the Premises or any other of the buildings or property in or on the Shopping Centre or result in the voiding, cancellation or threatened cancellation of any insurance policy affecting such buildings or property or part thereof Landlord may, either, at Landlord's sole discretion, terminate this Lease effective upon written notice to Tenant, or without terminating this Lease and after giving such notice, if any, as is reasonable in the circumstances, enter upon the Premises and take such action, including removing Tenant and any persons or property from the Shopping Centre, as is reasonable to remove or abate the cause of the danger or voiding or cancellation of the policy, and Landlord will not be liable for any damages of any kind howsoever caused arising out of such termination or such action, the whole without prejudice to Landlord's other rights and recourses.

ARTICLE 10.00 INJURY TO PERSON OR PROPERTY

10.01 Mutual Indemnity. Except to the extent released in Sections 10.02 and 10.03 below, each of the Landlord and the Tenant will defend, protect, indemnify and save harmless the other of and from all fines, suits, claims, demands and actions of any kind or nature to which the party being indemnified shall or may become liable or suffer by reason of any breach, violation or nonperformance by the party so indemnifying of any covenant, term or provision of this Lease or by reason of any damage, injury or death occasioned to or suffered by any person or persons including the Landlord or the Tenant, as the case may be, or any property, by reason of any wrongful act, neglect or default on the part of the party so indemnifying or any of its agents, employees, officers or contractors.

10.02 Release of Landlord. n respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Tenant, none of the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre or other persons for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage so required to be insured by the Tenant to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Tenant fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Tenant had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Tenant shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, the manager retained by the Landlord from time to time to operate the Shopping Centre and those for whom the Landlord is responsible in law. With respect to the Tenant's fixtures, furniture, inventory and stock-in-trade including merchandise or other contents of the Premises, the Landlord, the mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre and others for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage.

10.03 Release of Tenant. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Landlord, none of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees or other persons for whom the Tenant is responsible at law shall be liable in respect of any loss, injury or damage required to be so insured to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Landlord fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Landlord had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Landlord shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees and those for whom the Tenant is responsible in law.

ARTICLE 11.00 TRANSFERS

11.01 Transfers Except to an Eligible Corporation (which for the purpose of this Article 11.00 is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual) which controls or is controlled by or under common control with Tenant, where to control means to own beneficially either directly or indirectly more than 50% of the voting shares of a corporation or other legal entity) and subject to provisions of Article 11.03, Tenant will not, and will not permit a subtenant to, assign this Lease in whole or in part or sublet all or part of the Premises, or transfer this Lease in any other manner and will not permit the occupation or use of all or part of the Premises by others (any of which events are hereinafter referred to as a "Transfer"), without the prior written consent of Landlord in each case, which consent, despite any statutory provision to the contrary, may be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Tenant may enter into a Transfer with an Eligible Corporation, with the prior written consent of Landlord which consent may not be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld. Tenant will not, and will not permit subtenant or any other Person or entity to mortgage or encumber all or any part pf the Tenant's rights resulting from this Lease or all or any part of the Premises. Under no circumstances will Tenant be entitled to effect a Transfer to any one prior to the Commencement Date, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease or at law. The consent by Landlord to a Transfer will not constitute a waiver of its consent to a subsequent Transfer. This prohibition against transferring includes a Transfer by operation of law. If a Transfer occurs without the consent of Landlord when required, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee, subtenant, mortgagee, encumbrancer, user or occupant as the case may be (hereinafter the "Transferee"), and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such Transfer, occupancy or collection will be deemed a waiver of the covenant not to Transfer without Landlord's consent, nor an acceptance by Landlord of the Transfer or the Transferee notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary. Despite a Transfer, Tenant remains fully liable under this Lease. A permitted Transfer of all or part of this Lease or the Premises will be documented by Landlord or its solicitors, and the amounts stipulated in Article 11.02(b)(iv) shall be paid by Tenant and deemed to be Rent. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord may immediately terminate this Lease if Tenant effects a Transfer without Landlord's prior written consent thereto, whether or not Tenant gives prior written notice thereof.

11.02 Conditions Any Transfer referred to in Article 11.01 or elsewhere in this Lease will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) that Tenant causes any Transferee to promptly execute an agreement in writing with Landlord agreeing to be bound by the terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease as if such Transferee had originally executed this Lease as Tenant (provided that such agreement will not in any way affect the rights of Landlord under this Lease); and

(b) all requests for Landlord's consent to effect a Transfer shall be in writing and be accompanied by each of the following: (i) the name, address and telephone number of each proposed Transferee and if it is a corporation, the names of the directors and the majority shareholders (or in the case of a change of control, those Persons who would subsequently acquire effective control); (ii) details of the proposed Transferee's prior business experience (including experience in the enterprise for which the Premises are to be operated pursuant to this Lease); (iii) bank and other credit references, required by Landlord to assess the business or financial strength and standing of the proposed assignee, subtenant or occupant; (iv) a non-reimbursable fee (paid by certified cheque or draft of a Canadian chartered bank) for all charges associated with Landlord's administration and documentation of the Transfer; (v) if the proposed Transferee is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual), its constating documents (including any articles of incorporation, amendment or amalgamation, any declarations of trust or partnership agreements and the like); (vi) details of the transaction of Transfer between Tenant and the proposed Transferee and all relevant documents with respect thereto; (vii) a signed copy of Landlord's standard form of letter of consent authorizing Landlord to make inquiries regarding the personal affairs of the proposed Transferee or any principal thereof, and (viii) all other information or documentation which Landlord may reasonably require.

11.03 Corporate Ownership If after the date of execution of this Lease, securities not listed for sale on a recognized securities exchange in Canada either of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant are transferred by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law or other disposition, or issued by subscription or allotment or cancelled or redeemed, so as to result in a change in the effective voting or other control of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant by the Person or Persons holding control on the date of execution of this Lease or on the date when Tenant becomes a corporation, if later, or if other steps are taken to accomplish a change of the effective control of Tenant, Tenant will promptly notify Landlord in writing of the change which will be considered to be a Transfer of this Lease to which Articles 11.01 and 11.02 apply; and whether or not Tenant notifies Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease within 60 days after Landlord learns of the change unless Landlord previously had consented to the change in writing. Tenant will make available to Landlord or its lawful representatives all corporate books and records of Tenant and of any Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant for inspection at all reasonable times, to ascertain to the extent possible whether there has been a change of control.

11.04 Insolvency of Transferee In the event Transferee becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy and this Lease is disclaimed or terminated, or Transferee disclaims this Lease pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation, or the terms of any insolvency-related Court order, then at Landlord's option to be exercised on written notice to the original Tenant named in this Lease or any Transferee (except the bankrupt or insolvent Transferee), such party will be deemed to have entered into a lease with Landlord for the remainder of the initial Term, on the terms and conditions of this Lease prevailing immediately prior to the date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation (including without limitation, future Rent escalations (if any)) effective upon the effective date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation.

11.05 Permitted Transfers. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but on prior written notice to Landlord:

(a) assign this Lease to, and may in any event permit the Premises to be used and occupied in whole or in part by, any affiliated corporation of Tenant (as such term "affiliated corporation" is defined by· the Canada Business Corporations Act); or

(b) assign this Lease to any corporation with which Tenant merges or consolidates that is an affiliated corporation of Tenant; or

(c) grant concessions or licenses to use and occupy any part or parts of the Premises provided that: (i) the Premises continues to be carried on, and retains the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated single department store operated in accordance with the requirements of this Lease, (ii) at least 80% (by number) of the concessions or licenses granted shall be to licensees or concessionaires which operate in a majority of the Tenant's other stores in the greater Toronto area; and (iii) any such concessionaire, licensee or other occupant within the Premises is subject to the day-to-day operational control of the Tenant in matters related to general standards of the business carried on so as to enable the Tenant to ensure that such standards shall conform to the general standards of business of the Tenant itself.

ARTICLE 12.00 SURRENDER

12.01 Possession Upon the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease and in addition to the provisions of Article 12.02, Tenant will immediately quit and peaceably surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord:

(i) in a vacant, clean and broom-swept condition with all of Tenant's signage, inventory, trade fixtures, racking and personal property removed; and

(ii) without any material damage to the structural and building system elements of the Premises (inclusive, for certainty, of walls, ceilings, windows and storefronts) and with such building systems (inclusive of elevators and escalators) servicing the Premises in a working order, subject to reasonable wear and tear ;

but otherwise in an "as is, where is" condition and without any obligation to: (A) return the Premises or any component thereof to an improved or better state of condition or operation than existing as of the Commencement Date; or (B) to remove any leasehold improvements in the Premises installed pursuant to Article 7.04 hereof. For greater clarity, it is the intention of the parties that Tenant shall have no obligation to make cosmetic or "wear and tear" type repairs to the Premises upon surrender (such as repainting or repairing holes in walls, floors or ceilings caused by the typical installation and removal of racking, trade fixtures etc.).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Landlord's intention is to demolish and/or redevelop the Premises following the expiry of the Term and not to re-tenant same, the Landlord shall advise the Tenant thereof in which event sub-paragraph (ii) above shall not apply.

Upon surrender, all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises will cease. If Tenant has registered a caveat, caution, memorandum notice or other instrument relating to this lease against title to the Land, it will cause the same to be released and discharged no later than 15 days following the expiry or termination date, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a release or discharge of a notice of this will be paid by Tenant.

12.02 Trade Fixtures, Personal Property and Improvements

(a) Subject to Article 7.05, all alterations, additions and improvements made or to be made upon or to the Premises (save any movable trade fixtures used in Tenant's enterprise) which in any manner are attached in, to or under the floors, walls or ceilings, including, without limitation, walk-in vaults, large water features such as pools, water basins and fountains and landscaping features, any component of any heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, sprinkler, plumbing or electrical equipment or systems, presently or in the future installed within or servicing the Premises, all lighting installations and fixtures including, without limitation, all spot lights and tracks and all floor finishes of whatever nature placed upon the floor of the Premises, all storefronts, doors and/or partitions, shall become Landlord's property at the time they are installed, and will be surrendered to Landlord at the expiry of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease without any compensation or indemnity payable to Tenant whatsoever.

(b) If Tenant leaves any property on the Premises following the expiry of the Term or earlier termination thereof which it is entitled to remove, then unless Landlord expressly notifies Tenant to remove such property, the ownership of such property will, at Landlord's option, be deemed to have been abandoned to Landlord, free and clear of all Tenant Security, notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary and whether or not Landlord chooses to become the owner of such items, they may be used, removed or disposed of by or on behalf of Landlord, as Landlord determines, without compensation payable to Tenant and without incurring any liability to Tenant.

12.03 Merger The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant or the cancellation of this Lease by mutual agreement of Tenant and Landlord will not work a merger, and will, at Landlord's option, either terminate all or any subleases and subtenancies or operate as an assignment to Landlord of all or any subleases and subtenancies. Landlord's option hereunder will be exercised by notice to Tenant and all sublessees or subtenants in the Premises or any part thereof known to Landlord. If Landlord does not give notice within a reasonable period of time after such cancellation of this Lease, then all such subleases will be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such cancellation.

12.04 Payments After Termination No payment of money by Tenant to Landlord after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease or after the giving of any notice by Landlord to Tenant, will reinstate, continue or extend the Term or make ineffective any notice given to Tenant prior to the payment of such money. After the service of notice or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment granting Landlord possession of the Premises, Landlord may receive and collect any sums of Rent due under this Lease, and the payment thereof will not make ineffective any notice, or in any manner affect any pending suit or any judgment theretofore obtained.

ARTICLE 13.00 HOLDING OVER

13.01 Month-to-Month Tenancy with Landlord Consent If with Landlord's written consent, Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises on a month-to month tenancy only, at a monthly rental equal to the Rent payable by Tenant during the last month immediately preceding the expiration of the Term or such other rental as is stated in such written consent, and such month-to-month tenancy may be terminated by Landlord or Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by delivery of at least one (1) month's advance written notice of termination to the other.

13.02 Tenancy at Sufferance If without Landlord's written consent Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises upon a tenancy at sufferance only, at a monthly rental equal to two (2) times the Rent payable during the last month preceding the expiration or termination. Such tenancy at sufferance may be immediately terminated by Landlord at any time by notice of termination to Tenant, and by Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by at least 30 days' advance written notice of termination to Landlord.

13.03 General Any month-to-month tenancy or tenancy at sufferance hereunder will be subject to all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease except any right of renewal or extension and nothing contained in Article 13.00 will be construed to limit or impair any of Landlord's rights of re-entry or eviction or constitute a waiver thereof.

ARTICLE 14.00 RULES AND REGULATIONS

14.01 Purpose The Rules and Regulations in Exhibit D (the "Rules and Regulations") have been adopted by Landlord for the safety, benefit and convenience of all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre.

14.02 Observance Tenant will at all times comply with, and will cause its employees, servants, agents, licencees and invitees to comply with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect.

14.03 Modification Landlord may from time to time, for the purposes set out in Article 14.01, amend, delete from, or add to the Rules and Regulations, provided that any such modification:

(a) will not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any other provision of this Lease;

(b) will be reasonable and have general application to tenants in the Shopping Centre; and

(c) will be effective only upon delivery of a copy thereof to Tenant at the Premises.

14.04 Non-Compliance Landlord will use reasonable efforts to secure compliance by all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect, but will not be responsible to Tenant for failure of any person to comply with such Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 15.00 EXPROPRIATION

15.01 Expropriation Both Landlord and Tenant agree to cooperate with each other in respect of any expropriation of all or any part of the Premises or any other part of the Shopping Centre, so that each may receive from the Authority the maximum award to which each is respectively entitled by law. If any portion of the Shopping Centre other than the Premises is expropriated, then the proceeds accruing therefrom shall belong solely to Landlord, and Tenant shall abandon to Landlord any rights which Tenant may have by operation of law to such proceeds or award. Tenant will execute such documents as required to give effect to the foregoing.

If at any time during the Term, any material part of the Shopping Centre is expropriated or if access to the Premises is materially affected by such expropriation, then Landlord may terminate this Lease on written notice to Tenant, which termination will take effect on the earlier of the date of the expropriation or the taking of prior possession.

Whether the Lease is terminated or not, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord as a result of or arising from the expropriation of all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

If Landlord exercises its right of termination hereunder, this Lease will terminate on the date stated in the notice, provided, however, that no termination pursuant to notice hereunder may occur later than 60 days after the date (hereinafter "Date of Such Taking") on which the Authority takes possession of that part of the Shopping Centre so taken.

15.02 Surrender On any such date of termination under Article 15.01, Tenant will immediately surrender to Landlord the Premises and all interests therein under this Lease. Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and remove Tenant therefrom, and the Rent will abate on the date of termination, except that if the Date of Such Taking differs from the date of termination, Rent will abate on the former date.

15.03 Partial Taking of Premises If any portion of the Premises (but less than the whole thereof) is so taken, and no rights of termination herein conferred are timely exercised, the Term of this Lease will expire with respect to the portion so taken on the Date of Such Taking. In such event the Rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion so taken will abate on such date, and the Rent thereafter payable with respect to the remainder not so taken will be adjusted pro rata by Landlord in order to account for the resulting reduction of the Area of the Premises. After such adjustment, and on notice from Landlord stating the Rent then owing, Tenant will immediately pay Landlord such Rent.

ARTICLE 16.00 DAMAGE BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

16.01 Limited Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, can be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), Landlord will immediately at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, chattels or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired immediately by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.02 Major Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, cannot be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), then Landlord, or in the event that there is less than two (2) years remaining in the Term, Tenant, may elect to terminate this Lease as of the date of such casualty by written notice delivered to the other not more than 20 days after receipt of the Architect's opinion, failing which Landlord will forthwith at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, chattels or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on the behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired forthwith by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.03 Abatement If Landlord is required to repair damage to all or part of the Premises under Article 16.01 or 16.02, provided such damage is caused by a peril Landlord is required to insure against pursuant to Article 9.01, the Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease will be proportionately reduced to the extent that the Premises are thereby rendered untenantable by Tenant in its business, from the date of such casualty until five (5) days after completion by Landlord of the repairs to the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) or until Tenant again uses the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) in its business, whichever first occurs.

16.04 Major Damage or Destruction of Shopping Centre Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Lease and specifically, but without limitation, Article 16.01, if the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed (whether the Premises are affected or not), and (i) in the Architect's opinion, the damaged or destroyed portions cannot reasonably be repaired, restored or rebuilt within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the damage or destruction (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium); or (ii) the cost as estimated by the Architect, of repairing, restoring or rebuilding the damaged or destroyed portions would exceed the proceeds of insurance available to Landlord for such purpose; or (iii)

the damage or destruction was caused by a peril for which Landlord was not insured and for which Landlord was not obliged to insure against; or (iv)intentionally deleted; ; or (v) less than two (2) years remains during the Term; or (vi) a Mortgagee will not consent to the use of insurance proceeds for repair or reconstruction; then in any of the above cases, Landlord may, at its option (to be exercised by written notice to Tenant within 30 days following any such occurrence) elect to terminate this Lease.

If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease, then the following provisions will apply:

(a) If the Premises become totally unfit for the use for which they were leased, the termination will take effect from the date of the damage or destruction and the Rent will cease to be payable and will be adjusted as of that date.

(b) If the Premises are partially damaged and Tenant has occupied any part of the Premises or any part of the Premises have been reasonably capable of being occupied from the date of the damage or destruction, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in the first paragraph of this Article 16.04 and the Rent will cease to be paid by Tenant as of the date of termination, however, Minimum Rent and Additional Rent will abate from the date of the damage and destruction until the date of termination to the extent the Premises cannot reasonably be used for their intended purposes.

(c) If the Premises were not damaged, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in Article 16.00 and the Rent will cease to be paid from such date of termination.

If the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed and Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, subject to the following, Landlord shall commence and proceed diligently to reconstruct or repair those portions of the Shopping Centre which have been so damaged or destroyed to the extent only of Landlord's responsibilities pursuant to the terms of the various leases for premises in the Shopping Centre and exclusive of any tenants' responsibilities. Furthermore, if the Premises are being repaired or reconstructed, the provisions of Article 16.01 will apply.

If Landlord does any reconstruction or repairing of the Shopping Centre, Landlord may do any one or more of the following: (i) use plans, specifications and working drawings which differ from those applicable to the Shopping Centre existing prior to the damage or destruction provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; (ii) change the configuration, design and/or size of the Shopping Centre or any of its component parts including, without limitation, the location and size of any mall, court, entrance, parking facility or any of other Common Areas and Facilities provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; and (iii) redesign the tenant mix, both with respect to the kinds of uses which will be included in the tenant mix, as well as the physical location of the types of uses being operated prior to the damage or destruction. Tenant agrees that none of the foregoing shall constitute a default of Landlord's obligation to provide peaceable enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall it constitute a change of form or destination of the Shopping Centre, nor shall the validity or enforceability of this Lease be affected in any manner by any of the foregoing.

ARTICLE 17.00 TRANSFERS AND MORTGAGES BY LANDLORD

17.01 Sales, Conveyance and Assignment Nothing in this Lease (which term for purpose of this Article 17.00 includes any extension, renewal or replacement of this Lease) will restrict the right of Landlord to sell, convey, assign, mortgage or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Shopping Centre, subject only to the rights of Tenant under this Lease.

17.02 Effect of Sale, Conveyance or Assignment A sale, conveyance or assignment of the Shopping Centre will operate to release Landlord from liability from and after the date thereof upon all the covenants, terms and conditions of this Lease, express or implied, except as such may relate to the period prior to such effective date, and Tenant will thereafter look solely to Landlord's successor in interest in and to this Lease. This Lease will not be affected by any such sale conveyance or assignment, and Tenant will attorn to Landlord's successor in interest thereunder.

17.03 Definition of Mortgage, Mortgagee and Mortgagee's Interest Each and every charge, mortgage, debenture or trust deed, now or hereafter registered against all or any part of the Shopping Centre is hereafter called a "Mortgage" which term includes all amounts advanced or to be advanced thereunder and all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. "Mortgagee" means a chargee or mortgagee named in a Mortgage, or the holder of a debenture or the trustee under a trust deed constituting a Mortgage, as the case may be; and "Mortgagee's Interest" means the estate or interest of the Mortgagee secured by a Mortgage.

17.04 Subordination of Mortgage to Lease If this Lease or the estate or interest of Tenant thereunder (the "Tenant's Leasehold Interest") is subordinate to a Mortgage or Mortgagee's Interest now or at any time hereafter, then on written request of the Mortgagee or of Landlord on Mortgagee's behalf, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, the Mortgage and the Mortgagee's Interest will be postponed and made subordinate to this Lease and the Tenant's Leasehold Interest as if such Mortgage had been executed, delivered, registered and fully advanced after the execution, delivery and registration of this Lease, by means of an instrument of postponement and subordination, which will be entered into between Tenant and the Mortgagee, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that it complies with the terms and conditions of the Lease. Such instrument will be in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, consistent with this Article 17.04 and Article 17.07 and will be effective between the Mortgagee and Tenant when executed by them, without necessity for registration against title to the Shopping Centre; but if desired by the Mortgagee or Tenant, either of them may register such agreement or notice thereof and for that purpose the Mortgagee and Tenant will enter into any further document required to effect registration.

17.05 Attornment If this Lease and Tenant's Leasehold Interest now or at any time hereafter is subordinate to a Mortgage and Mortgagee's Interest and the Mortgagee does not require a postponement and subordination instrument under Article 17.04, Tenant will on request of such Mortgagee or of Landlord on behalf of the Mortgagee, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, enter into an attornment agreement with such Mortgagee in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, whereby Tenant will agree that if default occurs under the Mortgage, and:

(a) the Mortgagee takes possession of the Premises, by obtaining and enforcing a court order to that effect or otherwise;

(b) the Mortgagee forecloses or otherwise acquires the interest of Landlord in the Premises, but does not foreclose the Tenant's Leasehold Interest; or

(c) the Mortgagee sells, conveys or assigns the Premises to another party (hereinafter a "Purchaser") pursuant to a power of sale or court order for sale which does not purport to sell the Premises free of the Tenant's Leasehold Interest,

Tenant will, on written demand of the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, attorn to and become the tenant of that person from and including the date the demand is received, for the balance of the term of this Lease (and with rights of renewal if any as provided in this Lease), at the rents and otherwise on the terms of this Lease, subject as hereinafter provided in Article 17.06, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that Tenant complies with, all the terms and conditions of the Lease.

17.06 Intentionally deleted.

17.07 Effect of Subordination or Attornment No subordination effected under Article 17.04 and no attornment effected under Article 17.05 will render the Mortgagee or Purchaser, as the case may be:

(a) liable for any act or omission of Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(b) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(c) bound by any prepayment by Tenant of more than one month's instalment of Rent, or by any previous modification of this Lease, unless such prepayment or modification has been approved in writing by the Mortgagee or Purchaser or any predecessor in interest except Landlord.

Upon attornment occurring under Article 17.05, the relationship of landlord and tenant thereby created between the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, as Landlord, and Tenant as tenant, will supersede this Lease, but if the Mortgage is subsequently redeemed or put in good standing or the Mortgagee goes out of possession, the Mortgagee will be relieved of its obligations to Tenant as if a sale, conveyance or assignment had occurred to which Article 17.02 applied.

Any attornment by Tenant to a Mortgagee or Purchaser will be without prejudice to the right (when applicable) of any other mortgagee or purchaser that has priority to the Mortgagee or Purchaser to demand that Tenant attorn to the other mortgagee or purchaser pursuant to the rights if any, of the other mortgagee or purchaser in that regard under Article 17.00. In case of such demand being lawfully made, and Tenant attorning to such other mortgagee or purchaser the attornment previously made to the Mortgagee or Purchaser will cease to be effective.

17.08 Tenant's Obligations May Be Assigned Tenant acknowledges that its covenants and obligations under Article 17.00 are intended in whole or in part to operate for the benefit of any and all Mortgagees and Purchasers and that in obtaining such covenants and obligations Landlord is acting not only for itself, but also as trustee or agent for all such persons. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord may assign the benefit of such covenants and obligations to any and all Mortgagees or Purchasers who request same, as security or otherwise, and Tenant agrees that any such Mortgagee or Purchaser will be entitled on receiving such assignment and giving due notice thereof to Tenant, to enforce such covenant or obligation against Tenant to the same extent as if it were a party to this Lease directly entitled to the benefit of such covenants and obligations.

17.09 Execution of Instruments Except as otherwise provided in Article 17.00, the subordination and attornment provisions herein will be self-operating and no further instrument will be required. Nevertheless Tenant, on request by and without cost to Landlord, any Mortgagee, Purchaser or successor in interest, will execute and deliver any and all instruments further evidencing such subordination and/or attornment when applicable.

17.10 Intentionally deleted.

17.11 Intentionally deleted.

17.12 Notice of Lease Tenant may register at its sole cost and expense (including, without limitation, payment of all registration fees, land transfer and similar taxes or charges, costs of plan preparation and registration and all legal fees and disbursements related to such registration) a notice, caveat or short form of this Lease (the "Registration Document") to give notice of Tenant's interest created by this Lease, provided and subject to the following:

(a) the Registration Document will be prepared by Tenant at its sole cost in a form acceptable to Landlord, and same will be approved in writing by Landlord prior to its registration;

(b) the Registration Document will only disclose the names of the parties to this Lease, the Premises, and the Commencement Date and the expiry date of the Term, and any right of renewal. The Registration Document will not disclose any information concerning the rent or rental rates to be paid, nor any other financial provisions of this Lease;

(c) the Registration Document will only indicate and be registered against title to that portion or those parcels of the Site or Shopping Centre as Landlord may designate in its sole discretion. Further, in the event any portion of the Land ceases to form part of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will, forthwith upon request from Landlord, cause its registration to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from the title to such portion all at its own expense;

(d) in the event that, in order to effect registration, the Registration Document must be executed by any party other than Landlord and Tenant, Landlord will request such consent or execution of that party, but the sole cost of obtaining same will be borne by Tenant and Landlord will not be liable to Tenant in the event that such consent or execution is not obtained;

(e) Tenant will provide Landlord with a copy of the Registration Document and registration particulars thereof, once registration has been effected; and

(f) Upon the expiry or early termination of this Lease, Tenant will, at its sole expense, cause the Registration Document to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from title to the Site and Shopping Centre and to provide proof of such action to Landlord, within 15 days of such expiry or early termination, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a surrender of this Lease or a discharge of caveat, caution or other document or instrument will be paid by Tenant.

17.13 Easements and Rights-of-Way Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord has granted or otherwise created and may in the future grant or otherwise create licence(s), easement(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s) over, through, upon or otherwise affecting portions of the Common Areas and Facilities. Tenant hereby consents to the granting or other creation of such licence(s), easement(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s).

17.14 Severance of Land In addition to and upon the same basis, mutatis mutandis, as set out in Article 6.04, Landlord will have the right from time to time to subdivide and to transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any portion or portions of the Land. Any such subdivision may be accomplished by any means Landlord may consider desirable and the description of the Land will be changed accordingly.

ARTICLE 18.00 NOTICES, ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, AUTHORITIES FOR ACTION

18.01 Notices Any notice from one party to the other under this Lease will be in writing and will be deemed duly given, if delivered personally, by an authorized representative of Tenant or Landlord or by courier, or bailiff to the party being given such notice or to a responsible employee of the party being given such notice, or if mailed in Canada by registered or certified mail addressed to Tenant at the address described in Article 1.01, or to Landlord at the address described in Article 1.01 of this Lease. Any notice will be deemed to have been given at the time of personal delivery, or if mailed, on the third (3rd) postal delivery date after the date of mailing thereof or the date of refusal thereof. Either party will have the right to designate by notice, in the manner above set forth, a different address to which notices are to be given. If it is reasonably anticipated that, due to mail service being disrupted, such notice, if mailed, will not be received by the third (3rd) postal delivery day following mailing, then such notice must be personally delivered as provided in this Article 18.01 or, in lieu of mailing, sent by the most reasonably expeditious means of delivery available to the address for mailing and will be deemed duly given upon such delivery. Notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary, notices shall not be sufficiently given if delivered or transmitted by facsimile or other electronic means.

18.02 Acknowledgments Within ten (10) business days after written request therefor by Landlord, Tenant shall deliver an Estoppel Certificate addressed to any Person (other than the Landlord) designated by Landlord, in the form annexed as Exhibit F or such other substantially similar form which Landlord may submit to Tenant.

18.03 Authorities for Action Landlord may act in any matter provided for herein by its property manager, Management Company or any other person who will from time to time be designated by Landlord by notice to Tenant. Tenant will designate in writing one or more persons to act on its behalf in any matter provided for herein and may from time to time change, by notice to Landlord, such designation. In the absence of any such designation, the person or persons executing this Lease for Tenant will be deemed to be authorized to act on behalf of Tenant in any matter provided for in this Lease.

ARTICLE 19.00 DEFAULT

19.01 Interest and Costs Tenant will pay to Landlord the Interest Rate upon all Rent required to be paid under this Lease from the due date for payment thereof until the same is fully paid and satisfied. Tenant will indemnify Landlord against all costs and charges (including legal fees) reasonably incurred in enforcing payment thereof, and in obtaining possession of the Premises after default of Tenant or upon expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, or in enforcing any covenant, proviso or agreement of Tenant contained in this Lease.

19.02 Right of Landlord to Perform Covenants All covenants and agreements to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be performed by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and without abatement of Rent. If Tenant fails to perform any act on its part to be performed under this Lease, and such failure continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord, Landlord may (but will not be obligated so to do) perform such act without waiving or releasing Tenant from any of its obligations relative thereto. All sums paid or costs incurred by Landlord in so performing such acts under this Article 19.02, together with interest thereon at the rate set out in Article 19.01 from the date each such payment was made or each such cost was incurred by Landlord, plus 20% of such costs for Landlord's administration and overhead, will be payable by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

19.03 Events of Default If and whenever:

(a) part or all of the Rent hereby reserved is not paid when due, whether lawfully demanded or not, and such default continues fifteen (15) days after notice by Landlord; or

(b) Tenant fails to observe, perform and keep each and every of the covenants, agreements, provisions, stipulations and conditions herein contained to be observed, performed and kept by Tenant (other than payment of Rent) and persists in such failure after thirty (30) days notice by Landlord specifying with reasonable particularity the nature of such failure and

requiring that Tenant remedy, correct, desist or comply (or if any such breach would reasonably require more than thirty (30) days to rectify, unless Tenant commences rectification within the thirty (30) day notice period and thereafter promptly, effectively and continuously proceeds with the rectification of the breach to completion of rectification); or

(c) any goods, chattels or equipment of Tenant is taken or exigible in execution or in attachment or if a writ of execution is issued against Tenant; or

(d) Tenant becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy or becomes bankrupt or takes the benefit of any statute that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or becomes involved in voluntary or involuntary winding-up or dissolution or liquidation proceedings or if a receiver will be appointed for the business, property, affairs or revenues of Tenant; Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall provide Landlord with: (i) 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (i) hereof, to the extent Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action, (iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (iv) 5 business day prior written notice of the Tenant signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s); or

(e) any person other than Tenant or a Transferee permitted under this Lease has or exercises the right to manage or control the Premises, any part thereof or any business carried on in the Premises, other than subject to the actual, direct and full supervision and control of Tenant; or

(f) Tenant makes a bulk sale of its goods or moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its goods, chattels or equipment out of the Premises (other than in the normal course of its business) or Tenant ceases to conduct business from the Premises or the Premises are not open for business to the public on any three (3) consecutive days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises or on more than five (5) days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises in any twelve (12) month period; or

(g) a Transfer is effected or any Tenant Security is granted in any manner other than as permitted by this Lease;

then and in any of such cases, at the option of Landlord, the full amount of the current month's and the next ensuing three (3) months instalments of Rent will immediately become due and payable together with all tenant allowance monies paid to Tenant or the value of other inducements given to Tenant (such as, but not limited to, rent-free periods) in accordance with the provisions of this Lease or any other agreement between Landlord and Tenant relating to the Premises (such allowances and inducements hereinafter referred to as "Tenant Inducements") and Landlord may immediately take legal proceedings for the same, together with any arrears then unpaid; and Landlord may without notice or any form of legal process forthwith re-enter upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and expel all Persons from the Premises and remove and sell or dispose of Tenant's goods, personal property and trade fixtures therefrom as Landlord sees fit, or store property such at the cost of Tenant, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding all without liability and loss or damage and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover arrears of Rent or damages for any antecedent default by Tenant of its obligations or agreements under this Lease or of any term or condition of this Lease, and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover from Tenant damages for loss of Rent suffered by reason of this Lease having been prematurely terminated. Any such sale may be effected in the discretion of Landlord by public auction or otherwise, and either in bulk or by individual item, or partly by one means and partly by another, all as Landlord in its entire discretion may decide. If any of Tenant's property is disposed of as provided in this Article 19.03, ten (10) days prior notice to Tenant of disposition will be deemed to be commercially reasonable

19.04 Waiver of Exemption and Redemption Notwithstanding anything contained in any statute now or hereafter in force limiting or abrogating the right of distress, none of Tenant's goods, chattels or trade fixtures on the Premises at any time during the continuance of the Term will be exempt from levy by distress for Rent in arrears and upon any claim being made for such exemption by Tenant or on distress being made by Landlord this agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel against Tenant in any action brought to test the right to the levying upon any such goods as are named as exempted in any such statute, Tenant hereby waiving all and every benefit that could or might have accrued to Tenant under and by virtue of any such statute but for this Lease. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being evicted or dispossessed for any cause, or in the event of Landlord obtaining possession of the Premises, by reason of the violation by Tenant of any terms and conditions of this Lease or otherwise.

19.05 Surrender If and whenever Landlord is entitled to or does re-enter, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving notice thereof, and in such event Tenant will forthwith vacate and surrender the Premises.

19.06 Payments If Landlord re-enters or if this Lease is terminated, Tenant will pay to Landlord on demand:

(a) Rent up to the time of re-entry or termination, whichever will be the later, plus three (3) months' accelerated rent as herein provided; and

(b) all expenses incurred by Landlord in performing any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, re-entering or terminating and re-letting, collecting sums due or payable by Tenant, realizing upon assets seized (including brokerage, legal fees and disbursements), and the expense of keeping the Premises in good order, repairing the same and preparing them for re-letting; and

(c) as damages(subject to the Landlord's obligation to mitigate at law) for the loss of income of Landlord expected to be derived from the Premises, the amounts (if any) by which the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease exceeds the payments (if any) received by Landlord from other tenants in the Premises, payable on the first (1st) day of each month during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term had it not been terminated, or if elected by Landlord by notice to Tenant at or after re-entry or termination, a lump sum amount equal to the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease from the date of such election during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term, had it not been terminated, reduced by the rental value of the Premises for the same period, established by reference to the terms and conditions upon which Landlord re-lets them if such re-letting is accomplished within a reasonable period after termination, and otherwise established by reference to all market and other relevant circumstances; Rent and rental value being reduced to present worth at an assumed interest rate of ten percent (10%) on the basis of Landlord's estimates and assumptions of fact which will govern unless shown to be erroneous; and

(d) all Tenant Inducements given by Landlord to Tenant in respect of the Premises.

19.07 Remedies Cumulative No reference to nor exercise of any specific right or remedy by Landlord will prejudice or preclude Landlord from exercising or invoking any other remedy in respect thereof, whether allowed at law or expressly provided for in this Lease. No such remedy will be exclusive or dependent upon any other such remedy, but Landlord may from time to time exercise any one or more of such remedies independently or in combination.

19.08 Waiver In the event Tenant is in default in performing any of its obligations (including without limitation, the payment of any Rent), and Landlord shall have instituted proceedings to cancel, terminate or to confirm its cancellation or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall not have any right to prevent such cancellation or termination by remedying its default or defaults subsequent to the institution of such legal proceedings.

19.09 Intentionally deleted.

19.10 Additional Recourses If Tenant is in default to fulfill any of its obligations under this Lease and in particular its obligations pursuant to Articles 5.03, 5.10 and 18.02 of this Lease, then in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights or recourses of Landlord hereunder, Landlord may, at its option, obtain injunctive relief to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do, Tenant hereby expressly acknowledging and agreeing that this Article 19.10 constitutes a waiver against any defense to Landlord's application for injunctive relief made to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do.

19.11 Non-Waiver No condoning, excusing or over-looking by either party of any default by the other at any time in respect of any of its obligations shall operate as a waiver of Landlord's or Tenant's rights hereunder in respect of any such default or any subsequent default or so as to defeat or affect in any way the rights of Landlord or Tenant in respect of any such default or subsequent default. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by anything done or omitted to be done by Landlord or Tenant save only where such waiver is expressed in writing.

Without limiting the general application hereof, the acceptance of any sums of money, statements of account or reports that Tenant or Landlord must pay or provide pursuant to this Lease, shall not constitute a renunciation of the rights of Landlord or Tenant in virtue of theses presents.

19.12 Shopping Centre Assets Only the Shopping Centre assets and any property exclusively related thereto shall serve to satisfy the obligations of Landlord under this Lease or in virtue of any responsibility of Landlord resulting from its fault. Tenant recognizes and declares, without reserve, that any recourse by Tenant against Landlord based on, or in virtue of, this Lease or resulting from any fault of Landlord, shall be restricted and can only be executed against the Shopping Centre, to the exclusion of all other property belonging to Landlord.

19.13 Real Estate Investment Trust In the event that a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") should be at any time bound by the covenants of Landlord hereunder or incur any liability as Landlord hereunder, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease or at law, such covenants and liability hereunder and under all other agreements entered into pursuant hereto, if any, shall not be personally binding upon and resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse of satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the trustees of the REIT, unitholders of the REIT, annuitants under a plan of which the REIT or any unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the REIT or directors or officers of any of its nominees, although this provision shall not constitute a bar to any action against the REIT for specific performance of this Lease or performance of any obligation of the REIT arising from or in connection with its obligations, if any, under this Lease or other agreements entered into pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 20.00 Intentionally deleted.

ARTICLE 21.00 MISCELLANEOUS

21.01 Relationship of Parties Nothing contained in this Lease will create any relationship between parties to this Lease other than that of landlord and tenant, and it is acknowledged and agreed that Landlord does not in any way or for any purpose become a partner of Tenant in the conduct of its business, or a joint venturer or a member of a joint or common enterprise with Tenant.

21.02 Consent Not Unreasonably Withheld Except as otherwise specifically provided, whenever consent or approval of Landlord or Tenant is required under the terms of this Lease, such consent or approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant's sole remedy if Landlord unreasonably withholds or delays consent or approval will be an action for specific performance, and Landlord will not be liable for damages. If either party withholds any consent or approval, such party will on written request deliver to the other party a written statement giving the reasons therefor.

21.03 Applicable Law and Interpretation This Lease will be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located, and its provisions will be interpreted as a whole according to their common meaning and not strictly for or against Landlord or Tenant. The words "Landlord" and "Tenant" will include the plural as well as the singular. If this Lease is executed by more than one party as Tenant, Tenant's obligations under this Lease will be joint and several obligations of such executing parties. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions. The captions of the Articles are included for convenience only, and will have no effect upon the interpretation of this Lease.

Certain text in this Lease has been bolded and underlined and certain text has been deleted by way of a line through applicable text. Such bolding and underlining and lines through the applicable text have been used to identify changes to Landlord's standard form of lease for the Shopping Centre. All bolded and underlined text will be read as if not bolded and underlined and all text deleted by way of a line will be deemed not to exist.

21.04 Entire Agreement This Lease (together with any other agreement entered into by the Landlord, the Tenant and/or its or their affiliates in connection with this Lease) contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Lease and except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Lease, this Lease supersedes and revokes all previous negotiations, arrangements, letters of intent, offers to lease, lease proposals, brochures, agreements, representations, promises, warranties, understandings, and information conveyed, whether oral or in writing, between the parties hereto or their respective representatives or any other person purporting to represent Landlord or Tenant. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it has not relied upon any statement, representation, agreement or warranty except such as are expressly set out in this Lease.

21.05 Amendment or Modification Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, no amendment, modification, or supplement to this Lease will be valid or binding unless set out in writing and executed by the parties hereto in the same manner as the execution of this Lease.

21.06 Construed Covenants and Severability All of the provisions of this Lease are to be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words importing such covenants and agreements were used in each separate Article hereof. If any term, proviso, covenant or condition of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is to any extent held or rendered invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal it or its application will be considered separate and severable from this Lease to such extent and the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term, proviso, covenant or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is held invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal will not be affected thereby and will continue to be applicable and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

21.07 No Implied Surrender or Waiver No provisions of this Lease will be deemed to have been waived by Landlord unless such waiver is in writing signed by Landlord. Landlord's waiver of a breach of any term or condition of this Lease will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a breach, from having all the force and effect of any original breach. Landlord's receipt of Rent with knowledge of a breach by Tenant of any term or condition of this Lease will not be deemed a waiver of such breach. Landlord's failure to enforce against Tenant or any other tenant in the Shopping Centre any of the Rules and Regulations made under Article 14.00 will not be deemed a waiver of such Rules and Regulations. No act or thing done by Landlord, its agents or employees during the Term will be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept a surrender of the Premises will be valid, unless in writing signed by

Landlord. The delivery of keys to any of Landlord's agents or employees will not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises. No payment by Tenant, or receipt by Landlord, of a lesser amount than the Rent due under this Lease will be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated Rent, nor will any endorsement or statement on any cheque or any letter accompanying any cheque, or payment as Rent, be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such cheque or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Rent or pursue any other remedy available to Landlord.

21.08 Additional Costs Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Rent, upon written request therefore, any and all costs, including without limitation, costs of additional security, cleaning and legal costs, incurred by Landlord as a result of picketing, demonstration or other activity within the Shopping Centre which is initiated by members of any organization, including, without limitation, a trade union, and which is directed at Tenant, its contractors, subcontractors, suppliers or employees or at Tenant's operations in the Shopping Centre.

21.09 Successors Bound Except as otherwise specifically provided, the covenants terms and conditions contained in this Lease will apply to and bind the heirs, successors, executors, administrators and permitted assigns of the parties hereto.

21.10 Brokerage Commission Any brokerage commissions with respect to the present transaction shall be borne exclusively by Tenant and Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any and all claims for payment of commission with respect thereto, unless Landlord has given a specific written mandate to any broker or agent for the present transaction.

21.11 Confidentiality Tenant agrees to keep the terms and conditions of this Lease confidential. Any information pertaining to this Lease cannot be communicated or revealed to a third party without the written consent of Landlord whose refusal will be deemed reasonable if the information that would be communicated or revealed is of a financial nature. Tenant's failure to respect this Article 21.11 is acknowledged by Tenant to constitute a major prejudice to Landlord and also a default according to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

21.12 No Offer by Landlord Landlord will not be deemed to have made an offer to Tenant by preparing this Lease. No agreement respecting the Premises will arise or exist between the parties hereto except through the due execution of this Lease by both Tenant and Landlord. Upon execution and delivery by Tenant to Landlord, this Lease will be irrevocable by Tenant and open for acceptance by Landlord until 5:00 P.M. on the 60th day thereafter, and if not accepted by Landlord by then, may be withdrawn by Tenant by notice to Landlord at any time prior to its later acceptance by Landlord.

21.13 Time of Essence Time shall be of the essence of this Lease in respect to all of the agreements and obligations of Tenant and/or Landlord contained herein.

21.14 Force Majeure If any party hereto is bona fide delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any term, obligation or act required hereunder by reason of Force Majeure, then performance of such term, obligation or act is excused for the period during which the cause of the Force Majeure persists. Once the cause of this Force Majeure has ceased, the party so delayed shall perform such terms, obligations or acts within the time period stipulated in the Lease, without regard for such period of time during which the cause of the Force Majeure persisted.

21.15 Non-Smoking Shopping Centre The Shopping Centre is a non-smoking facility. Tenant, its employees, invitees, customers, and anyone for whom Tenant is responsible at law are strictly prohibited from smoking in any interior or exterior areas of the Shopping Centre, except those exterior areas designated by Landlord as designated smoking areas (if any). Tenant agrees that it will comply with the foregoing restriction as well as any applicable legislation regulating smoking in shopping centres.

21.16 Counterpart Execution This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement, effective when all counterparts have been signed. The parties hereto agree that this Lease may be signed either by paper signature or by electronic signature and may be delivered electronically (in .pdf format) or otherwise, and the parties accept any such electronic signatures as original signatures of the parties.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Security Landlord may from time to time adopt appropriate systems and procedures for the security or safety of the Shopping Centre, any persons occupying, using or entering the same, or any equipment, finishings or contents thereof, and Tenant will comply with Landlord's reasonable requirements relative thereto.

2. Return of Keys At the end of the Term, Tenant will promptly return to Landlord all keys for the Shopping Centre and Premises which are in possession of Tenant.

3. Repair, Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements Tenant will carry out Tenant's repair, maintenance, alterations and improvements in the Premises only during times agreed to in advance by Landlord and in a manner which will not interfere with the rights of other tenants in the Shopping Centre.

4. Water Fixtures Tenant will not use water fixtures for any purpose for which they are not intended, nor will water be wasted by tampering with such fixtures. Any cost or damage resulting from such misuse by Tenant will be paid for by Tenant.

5. Personal Use of Premises The Premises will not be used or permitted to be used for residential, lodging or sleeping purposes or for the storage of personal effects or property not required for business purposes.

6. Heavy Articles and Overloading Services Tenant will not place in or move about the Premises, without Landlord's prior written consent, any safe or other heavy article which in Landlord's reasonable opinion may damage the Shopping Centre, and Landlord may designate the location of any heavy articles in the Premises. Tenant will not overload any utility or service in or serving the Premises or any part of the Shopping Centre.

7. Animals, Bicycles, Shopping Carts Tenant will not bring any animals or birds into the Shopping Centre, and will not permit bicycles or other vehicles inside or on the sidewalks outside the Shopping Centre except in areas designated from time to time by Landlord for such purposes. Tenant shall not permit shopping carts in the Common Areas and Facilities and shall be fully responsible for their removal and indemnify Landlord from any claim, loss, expense, damages or injuries caused by the shopping carts.

8. Deliveries Tenant will ensure that deliveries or shipments of supplies, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, wares and merchandise to or from the Premises are made only through such Delivery Facilities, entrances, elevators and corridors and at such times as may from time to time be designated by Landlord, and will promptly pay or cause to be paid to Landlord the cost of repairing any damage in the Shopping Centre caused by any person making such deliveries or shipments.

9. Solicitations Landlord reserves the right to restrict or prohibit canvassing, soliciting or peddling in the Shopping Centre.

10. Food, Beverages and Entertainment Only persons approved from time to time by Landlord may prepare, solicit orders for, sell, serve or distribute foods or beverages in the Shopping Centre, or use the elevators, corridors or Common Areas and Facilities for any such purposes. Except with Landlord's prior written consent and in accordance with arrangements approved in writing by Landlord, Tenant will not permit on the Premises the use of equipment for dispensing food or beverages or for the preparation, solicitation of orders for, sale, serving or distribution of food or beverages or for the selling or providing of any form of entertainment, including vending machines or other machines operated by coins or other devices.

11. Refuse Tenant will separate and place all refuse in proper receptacles provided by Tenant at its expense in the Premises or in receptacles in recycling stations (if any) provided for the Shopping Centre, and will keep sidewalks and driveways outside the Shopping Centre, and lobbies, corridors, stairwells, ducts and shafts of the Shopping Centre, free of all refuse.

12. Obstructions Tenant will not obstruct or place anything in or on the sidewalks or driveways outside the Shopping Centre or in the lobbies, corridors, stairwells or other Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre, or use such locations for any purpose except access to and exit from the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent. Landlord may remove at Tenant's expense any such obstruction or thing (unauthorized by Landlord) without notice or obligation to Tenant.

13. Dangerous, Immoral or Hazardous Activities Tenant will not make any use of the Premises which involves the danger of injury to any person, nor will same be used for any immoral purpose or to commit any act of waste or damage to any part of the Premises or to use any part of the Premises so as to constitute a hazard.

14. Proper Conduct Tenant will not conduct itself in any manner which is inconsistent with the character of the Shopping Centre as being of first quality or which will impair the comfort and convenience of other tenants in the Shopping Centre. Such prohibited conduct will include the playing of loud music and the placing of merchandise racks in the Common Areas and Facilities.

15. Parking Landlord, from time to time, may prohibit Tenant, Tenant's employees and Tenant's suppliers and others making deliveries to or receiving shipments from the Premises from parking anywhere within the Shopping Centre. If Landlord designates Tenant parking areas in the Shopping Centre, Tenant will park its vehicles and will cause its employees to park their vehicles only in such designated parking areas. Tenant will furnish Landlord, upon request, with the current licence numbers of all vehicles owned or used by Tenant or its employees and Tenant thereafter will notify Landlord of any changes in such numbers within five (5) days after the occurrence thereof. In the event of failure of Tenant or its employees to park their vehicles in such designated parking areas, Tenant will forthwith on demand pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the sum of $20.00 per day per each car so parked. Landlord reserves the right to impose reasonable charges upon any person (including the general public) for the use of any parking facilities which may from time to time form a part of the Shopping Centre.

16. Sustainability Tenant shall implement energy-efficient practices within the Premises, including closing all window shades, turning off any unnecessary lights and equipment after the close of business day.

Tenant will keep any exterior doors and windows to the Premises closed during the periods where there is a variation of three (3) degrees Celsius or more between indoor and outdoor temperatures.

Tenant will turn off interior mall signage and display window lighting half-an-hour after closing until half-an-hour before opening time the next day (the "After-Hours Period"), or as Landlord deems appropriate.

Tenant will limit After-Hours Period interior lighting to emergency lighting, when the Premises are not occupied.

Where Tenant has the ability to control its HVAC for the Premises, Tenant will adjust the HVAC temperature settings so as to limit the Premises' energy consumption during the After-Hours Period by setting back the temperature of the Premises by six (6) degrees Celsius from the daytime temperature setting.

Tenant will not use space heaters in or for the Premises, unless Tenant first obtains Landlord's written consent.

If Landlord leak tests for Tenant's plumbing fixtures reveal water leaks or other defects, Landlord will notify Tenant of such defects and Tenant will take all necessary actions to diligently remedy said effects.

Tenant will comply with Landlord's waste minimization and diversion rules and regulations, as established from time to time.

Tenant will make available an appropriate staff representative to attend Landlord's information and training sessions relating to Landlord's initiatives for improving the Shopping Centre's operational sustainability.

1.03 Shopping Centre: CrossIron Mills, Calgary, Alberta

1.04 Area: [*SqFtArea] 30,009 square feet.

1.05 Term: A period of ten (10) years, beginning on the 3rd day of February, 2024, and expiring on the 2nd day of February, 2034, unless terminated earlier as provided in this Lease. The options in favor of Tenant in the Original Lease to renew or extend the term thereof shall equally apply in respect of this Term on the same terms as the renewal or extension options set out in the Original Lease, save and except that (a) in no event shall the final expiry date of this Term (as may be so renewed or extended) be later than what would have been the final expiry date of the term of the Original Lease after the exercise of all renewal or extension options had it not been terminated and replaced by this Lease; and (b) the Tenant shall continue to have the obligation to pay the Incremental Rent throughout this Term (as may be further renewed or extended including during any renewal or extension of the Term pursuant to the renewal/extension options incorporated in this Lease from the Original Lease), as set out in Section 1.09 of this Lease.

1.07 Permitted Use of Premises:

The Premises shall be used for the purposes of the operation of an off-price retail store selling better quality apparel, accessories, shoes, handbags, jewellery and other better quality merchandise as is typically sold from time to time in Tenant's similar off-price retail stores in Canada operating under the name "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th", "Off 5th - Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" (or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the other similar off-price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada) and in other similar off-price retail stores selling better quality merchandise currently operating in North America, such as, by way of example only and without limitation, those off-price retail stores operating under the names "Nordstrom Rack", "Holt Renfrew's HR2", and "Nieman Marcus Last Call". Tenant further covenants that, if and for so long as the Shopping Centre is being managed and operated by Landlord as a first-class shopping centre in accordance with the highest standards of the shopping centre industry, Tenant shall carry on its business in and from the Premises as an off-price retail store in a first class manner in keeping with the said standards of the shopping centre industry.

Tenant will carry on its business in the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not do or omit to do anything or permit or suffer anything to be done upon the Premises that will result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

Subject to the provisions of Article 11.00 of this Lease, Tenant may operate, or cause to be operated, the department or departments within the Premises, in whole or in part, by licensees, sub-tenants and/or concessionaires, provided that the Premises continue to be carried on, and retain the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated, and not a multiple tenant, off-price retail store. Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not do or omit to do anything or permit or suffer anything to be done upon the Premises that will result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

Notwithstanding any other provision herein, Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any call centre operation (iii) a store conducted principally for the sale of war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (iv) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire; (y) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (vi) an auction sale; (vii) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or the pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre; and (viii) any of the Restricted Uses (as hereinafter defined).

At the time of entering into the Original Lease, Landlord had granted certain restrictive covenants and/or exclusive rights of use to or in favor certain other tenants of the Shopping Centre, including those set out in any notices of leases or other instruments registered on title to the Lands on or prior to the date of the Original Lease and including those set out in Schedule C hereto (the "Restricted Uses"). For greater certainty, Tenant hereby acknowledges and agrees that, if and for so long as each of the Restricted Uses granted by Landlord to the respective persons (including their respective successors and assigns) remains unamended and in full legal force and effect, Tenant shall not use the Premises or permit the Premises to be used for the operation of any business or the sale of any merchandise or services that would cause Landlord to be in default of any such Restricted Uses.

If at any time during the Term less than the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises is occupied and open to the public for business for a period exceeding two (2) months for any reason other than Force Majeure (as that term is hereinafter defined), damage or destruction, permitted alterations, repair or rebuilding, and/or a permitted assignment or sublet to a third party, Landlord shall thereafter have the right to terminate this Lease while such cessation of operation continues by giving Tenant no less than thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof, provided that Tenant may nullify such notice of termination and this Lease shall not be terminated if Tenant reopens the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises to the public for business prior to the termination date specified in Landlord's notice and thereafter continues to keep the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises open for business for at least twelve (12) consecutive months (failing which Landlord's termination of the Lease shall be effective immediately upon Tenant ceasing to operate during the aforementioned 12-month period). In the event that Tenant nullifies Landlord's notice of termination as aforesaid, the provisions of this Article 1.07 shall continue to apply throughout the balance of the Term.

1.08 Tenant's Store Name: "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th", "Off 5th - Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" (or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the other similar off-price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada). Tenant shall not operate its business under any other name or trade name without having first obtained Landlord's prior written consent.

1.09 Gross Rent: Throughout the Term (inclusive of all renewals or extensions thereof), an annual aggregate amount equal to: (A) 3.5% of Gross Sales (as hereinafter defined) made from the Premises during each Percentage Rent Lease Year (as hereinafter defined), payable pursuant to Article 4.00; and (B) the Incremental Rent (the "Gross Rent"). The Landlord shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, at its entire discretion, upon written notice to the Tenant, to re-allocate the amount of the Incremental Rent allocated to this Lease and to any one or more of the Other Saks Leases and in this regard the Tenant shall have the obligation to enter into and execute all documents reasonably necessary as requested by the Landlord to implement such reallocation of Incremental Rent.

1.18 Definitions: In this Lease:

1.18.1 "Additional Rent" means all amounts (other than Gross Rent) that Tenant is required to pay to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

1.18.2 Intentionally deleted

1.18.3 "Area" means the area expressed in square feet of all floors of the Premises measured from the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows or those separating the Premises from any Common Areas and Facilities, and the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises. The Area includes all interior space whether or not occupied by projections, structures or columns, openings, shafts, structural or non-structural. If a store front, show window or other part of the Premises is recessed from or protrudes beyond the lease line shown on Exhibit A (whether such recess or protrusion is located at or above ground level), the area of such recess or protrusion will be included in the Area. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Area of the Premises is that set out in Article 1.04 hereof.

1.18.4 "Architect" means the architect, engineer, land surveyor, designer or technician that Landlord names, as the case may be.

1.18.5 "Article" means an article of this Lease.

1.18.6 "Authority" or "Authorities" means the federal, provincial, and municipal governments, the courts, administrative and quasi-judicial boards and tribunals and any other organizations or entities with the lawful authority to regulate, or having a power or right conferred at law or by or under a statute over Landlord, Tenant, the Premises or the Shopping Centre, including the business carried on therein.

1.18.7 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.8 "Commencement Date" means the first day of the Term (effective as of 12:00am).

1.18.9 "Common Areas and Facilities" means all areas, services and facilities not installed or intended for the exclusive use or benefit of any individual tenant, including without limitation, all non-leasable areas, service and administrative areas (including, without limitation, administrative offices, janitorial rooms and storage rooms not reserved to any tenant exclusively), all parking areas, parking decks, roofs, roadways, sidewalks, landscaped areas, floor slabs, exterior walls and exterior and interior structural portions of any open or enclosed malls or other common means of access to leasable premises (excluding any structural mezzanines within any leasable premises), public lavatories, truck courts, common loading areas, driveways, music and public address systems, electrical, plumbing and drainage, fire protection, fire detection, heating, ventilation and/or air-conditioning systems or equipment servicing the Shopping Centre and/or more than one tenant, mall decorative or promotional installations, customer and service stairways, mall directories and directional signs, information booths, elevators, escalators and all other areas, services and facilities which Landlord provides or designates from time to time to be part of Common Areas and Facilities.

1.18.10 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.11 "Delivery Facilities" means those portions of the Common Areas and Facilities which are, from time to time, designated by Landlord as facilities to be used in common by Landlord, tenants of the Shopping Centre, and others, for purposes of loading, unloading, delivery, dispatch and holding of merchandise, goods and materials entering or leaving the Shopping Centre, and those portions of the Shopping Centre giving vehicular access to the said facilities.

1.18.12 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.13 "Environmental Law" means the statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority or of the common law which affect the Premises or Tenant's business, and which impose any obligations relating to the protection, conservation or restoration of the natural environment or to any contaminant, pollutant, dangerous substance, potentially dangerous substance, noxious substance, toxic substance, hazardous waste, flammable, explosive or radioactive material or any other substances or materials that are declared or defined to be hazardous, toxic, contaminants or pollutants in or pursuant to any applicable federal, provincial or municipal statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority.

1.18.14 "Fiscal Year" means a twelve (12) month period (all or part of which falls within the Term) from time to time determined by Landlord with the concurrence of the appropriate taxation authorities, at the end of which Landlord's books are balanced for auditing and/or taxation purposes.

1.18.15 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.17 "Force Majeure" means, if during the Term either party to this Lease will be unable to perform any of the terms, obligations, or conditions contained in this Lease due to strikes, walkouts (except for strikes or walkouts directly involving employees of Tenant), civil commotion, warlike operations, governmental regulations or controls, acts of God, pandemics, inability to procure materials or services, otherwise beyond the reasonable control of such party. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, nothing in this Force Majeure provision will relieve Tenant from payment of Rent as required in this Lease and insolvency or lack of funds will not relieve any party to this Lease from fulfillment of any obligation arising from any part of this Lease.

1.18.18 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.19 "Goods and Services Tax" or "GST" means all goods and services tax, value-added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST or any other similar tax) howsoever characterized, which any taxing Authority imposes on Landlord and/or requires Landlord to collect on behalf of said taxing Authority, on any amount received or receivable by Landlord from Tenant under the terms of this Lease.

1.18.21 "Hazardous Substance" means, whether or not controlled or regulated by Environmental Law, any solid, liquid, gas, odour, heat, sound, vibration or combination of them resulting directly or indirectly from human activities that may, if released into the environment, have an adverse effect on the natural environment or on people, property or the normal conduct of business, including without limitation, harmful moulds or other harmful airborne substances, flammables, explosives, radioactive materials, urea formaldehyde foam, asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), pollutants, contaminants, hazardous wastes, toxic substances or related materials, petroleum or petroleum products and substances declared to be hazardous or toxic under any law, by-law, regulation or ordinance now or hereafter enacted.

1.18.22 "Incremental Rent" means the amount of $976,666.66 annually, as such amount may be adjusted by the Landlord from time to pursuant to Article 1.09 hereof.

1.18.23 "Interest Rate" means the Prime Rate (as defined below) in force when an amount becomes due, plus three (3) percentage points. "Prime Rate" means the annual rate of interest announced from time to time by Royal Bank of Canada at its main branch in Toronto, Ontario, as a reference rate then in effect for determining interest rates on Canadian dollar commercial loans in Canada.

1.18.24 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.25 "Land" means all of the lands described in Exhibit B.

1.18.26 "Landlord" means the party first herein above described and includes its successors and assigns, and in articles that contain a release or other exculpatory provisions or an indemnity in favour of Landlord, including the officers, directors, employees and agents and contractors of Landlord, as well as any Person under Landlord's exclusive control.

1.18.27 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.28 "Lease" means this Lease, and the Exhibits annexed to this Lease described in Article 1.18.54 and every properly executed instrument which by its term amends, modifies or supplements this Lease.

1.18.29 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.30 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.31 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.32 "Management Company" means a company or other entity, if any, retained by Landlord from time to time to operate or manage the Shopping Centre.

ARTICLE 2.00 LEASE

2.01 Lease Landlord hereby leases the Premises to Tenant for the Term, and Tenant hereby leases the Premises from Landlord for the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.02 Quiet Enjoyment So long as Tenant performs its obligations under this Lease, Landlord will warrant and defend Tenant in the quiet enjoyment and possession of the Premises during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.03 Covenants of Landlord and Tenant Landlord covenants to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Landlord under this Lease. Tenant covenants to pay the Rent when due under this Lease, and to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Tenant under this Lease.

ARTICLE 3.00 TERM, POSSESSION AND TERMINATION OF ORIGINAL LEASE

3.01 Intentionally deleted.

3.02 Intentionally deleted.

3.03 Acceptance of Premises and Tenant Acknowledgements The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that: (a) it originally occupied the Premises pursuant to the Original Lease, and as of the date hereof, it continues to be in possession of the Premises (which possession by the Tenant was in place prior to the date hereof pursuant to the Original Lease); (b) it has accepted the Premises in an entirely "as is where is" condition basis without any representation, warranty or obligation on the part of the Landlord to perform any work or construct any leasehold or other improvements in the Premises or the Shopping Centre in connection with the Tenant's intended use thereof; (c) the continued possession of all or any portion of the Premises by the Tenant is conclusive evidence as against the Tenant that the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition as of the date hereof, (d) it is solely responsible (at its sole cost and expense and without any reimbursement from or contribution by the Landlord) for all improvements, fixtures or other personal property currently existing or which in the future may exist or may be required in, on or around the Premises and needed, required or used by the Tenant for the operation of its business from the Premises, and (e) it does not have any right of first refusal, right of first opportunity, option to purchase or any other right to acquire any interest or real right in all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

3.04 Landlord's Option to Renew Landlord has, exercisable at its sole and entire and unfettered discretion by giving at least 12 months' prior written notice to the Tenant, the right to renew this Lease for an additional period of five (5) years on the same terms and conditions as set out herein (inclusive of the calculation and payment of Rent (inclusive, for certainty, of Incremental Rent)).

3.05 Termination of Original Lease Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that the Original Lease is surrendered and terminated effective on 11:59 pm on the date immediately preceding the Commencement Date (the "Termination Date"). The respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant with respect to the Premises and the Original Lease will be preserved and will survive the Termination Date, as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Termination Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to the Original Lease on or after the Termination Date. Any breach of the Original Lease which has not been cured will, after the Termination Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Original Lease. Tenant represents, warrants and covenants with Landlord that Tenant has the absolute right, full power and authority to agree to the surrender and termination of the Original Lease as provided herein.

ARTICLE 4.00 RENT

4.01 Gross Rent Tenant will pay to Landlord a Gross Rent for the Premises described in Article 1.09 of this Lease, payable monthly in arrears within twenty (20) days following the end of each calendar month during the Term. The Incremental Rent component of the Gross Rent will be payable in equal monthly installments at the same time that the balance of the Gross Rent is due pursuant to the preceding sentence. Along with the monthly payment of Gross Rent, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement, which need not be certified, of the Gross Sales derived from the Premises for the prior month, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied. Within sixty (60) says after the end of each Percentage Rent Lease Year and within sixty (60) days after the end of the calculating period with respect to the first full Percentage Rent Lease Year, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement certified by an officer of Tenant showing the Gross Sales derived from the Premises during such Percentage Rent Lease Year and the amounts, if any, of Rent required to be paid by Tenant or credited to Tenant for any overpayment or underpayment of Rent for the Percentage Rent Lease Year, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied.

For purposes of calculating Rent under this Lease, the term "Percentage Rent Lease Year" as used in this Lease refers to the period from February 1 to the following January 31 of each year during the term of this Lease, provided that, if the Commencement Date is not February 1, then the first Percentage Rent Lease Year shall be for a period of less than twelve (12) consecutive months, commencing on the Commencement Date and expiring on the following January 31, and further provided that any period of less than twelve (12) full calendar months occurring from and after February 1 at the expiry or earlier termination of the term shall be deemed to be a Percentage Rent Lease Year. The computation of Rent shall be made separately with regard to each Percentage Rent Lease Year or partial Percentage Rent Lease Year, as the case may be, it being understood and agreed that Gross Sales per any Percentage Rent Lease Year and Rent due thereon shall have no bearing on Gross Sales of any other Percentage Rent Lease Year.

Full true and accurate records from which Gross Sales in any Percentage Rent Lease Year may be readily and correctly determined will be kept by Tenant, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the requirement to retain all sources of primary sales records (that is, cash register tapes, pre-numbered sales tickets, daily sales reports, etc.) and otherwise in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles until at least the fifth (5th) anniversary of the end of such Percentage Rent Lease Year. Landlord or any person designated by Landlord will have access to such records at any and all times during business hours for the purpose of examining and reviewing all the accounting records and procedures adopted by Tenant for the purpose of recording and control of all transactions affecting the determination of Gross Sales. For the sake of greater clarification, the parties hereto acknowledge that, in the event Landlord determines that Tenant has failed to report Gross Sales in accordance with its obligations contained herein, such failure shall constitute a default under this Lease and Landlord shall have the right to exercise its remedies under this Lease. Landlord will not disclose any confidential information so obtained except to the extent that disclosure is reasonable in the conduct of Landlord's business which includes, without limitation, the sale or financing of all or any part of the Shopping Centre.

Landlord shall be entitled to characterize the Rent, and to allocate the payment thereof to costs, expenses, taxes etc. incurred by or for which Landlord is responsible, in each case as Landlord may determine in its sole discretion.

4.02 Gross Sales The term "Gross Sales" as used in this Lease means the actual sale price of goods, wares and merchandise sold in, upon or from any part of the Premises, including actual receipts from services rendered by Tenant as well as the total actual sales and services rendered by any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Premises, including, without limitation, such sales, income, receipts, revenues and services which Tenant, any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Premises (collectively, "Other Occupants") in the normal and customary course of business would credit or attribute to its business upon the Premises or any part or parts thereof, provided, however, that the term "Gross Sales" shall not be deemed to mean and there shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" amounts representing: (i) amounts credited by Tenant or Other Occupants for returned or defective merchandise; (ii) amount of discount on sales to bona fide employees of Tenant and bona fide employees of any affiliates of Tenant; (iii) allowances granted to customers for damaged or defective merchandise; (iv) trade and other discounts; (v) GST and all other sales, excise and similar taxes levied upon sales made at the Premises; (vi) workroom charges for alterations, repairs or installation of merchandise sold, or similar services rendered in connection with merchandise sold; (vii) charges for services rendered primarily to accommodate customers or employees; (viii) charges for making deliveries, shipments or transfers of merchandise in the regular course of business; (ix) carrying charges on time sales; (x) fees and charges paid by Tenant or Other Occupants to issuers of third-party credit cards; (xi) charges for inter-store transfers of merchandise; (xii) sales of merchandise in bulk to non -retail customers; and (xiii) the proceeds of sales of trade fixtures, operating equipment or other property used by Tenant or Other Occupants in the operation of its business and not acquired by it for the purpose of sale. All exclusions from Gross Sales permitted herein must be documented to the reasonable satisfaction of Landlord to allow for complete and detailed verification of the validity of such exclusions. Any instalment or credit (which, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes lay-away sales, sales from coupons or gift cards, electronic or otherwise and certificates, or any other sale made where deposits are received by Tenant) will be included and treated as a sale for the full price in the month in which such sale is made regardless of whether or when Tenant receives payment in full.

4.06 Intentionally deleted.

4.07 Intentionally deleted.

4.08 Intentionally deleted.

4.09 Taxes Payable by Landlord

Landlord shall pay before the date due any and all Taxes levied, assessed or otherwise imposed upon the Premises and/or the remainder of the Shopping Centre throughout the Term. Tenant shall have no obligation to contribute to the payment of such Taxes as such Taxes are intentionally provided for in the Gross Rent provided for herein.

4.18 Payment of Rent – General During the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay Rent to Landlord in the manner provided in this Lease or if not so provided, as reasonably required by Landlord. All amounts payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease will be deemed to be Rent and will be payable and recoverable as Rent in the manner herein provided, and Landlord will have all rights and recourses against Tenant for default in any such payment as in the case of arrears of Rent. Rent will be paid to Landlord, without deduction, set-off or compensation, in legal tender of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located. If and to the extent Landlord so requires, Rent will be paid to Landlord, at Tenant's expense, by electronic funds transfer system or similar system whereby Tenant will authorize its bank, trust company, credit union or other financial institution to credit Landlord's bank account each month in an amount equal to the monthly Rent payable pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, otherwise, Rent will be paid to Landlord at the address of Landlord as set forth in the beginning of this Lease, or to such other Person or at such other address as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing.

Where Tenant makes payments of Rent by an electronic funds transfer system, Tenant shall notify Landlord by e-mail of the date of said electronic payment.

4.19 Rent – Adjustment for Partial Months If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the Commencement Date will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the Commencement Date to the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs (both the Commencement Date and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365. If the Term ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the first (1st) day of the last calendar month of the Term will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the first (1st) day of such last calendar month to the last day of the Term (both the first (1st) and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365.

4.20 Intentionally deleted.

4.21 Intentionally deleted.

ARTICLE 5.00 USE OF PREMISES

5.01 Use and Business Name The Premises will be used and occupied only for the purposes described in Article 1.07; nothing in this Article 5.01 shall create or be deemed to create an exclusivity in favour of Tenant.

The business of Tenant in the Premises will be carried on under the name and style described in Article 1.08 and under no other name and style unless approved by Landlord in writing.

5.02 Hours of Business During the Term of this Lease, Tenant will conduct its business in the Premises on such days and during such hours as is required, from time to time, by Landlord unless prevented from so doing by any Authority, however, nothing herein shall require the Premises or portions thereof to be open during hours other than those which have been generally established by the Tenant for the operation of its similar stores in the Greater Calgary Area. Tenant shall abide by all rules and regulations now or subsequently in force to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms of this Lease and are applied to Tenant in a non-discriminatory manner.

In the event Tenant fails to conduct its business in accordance with this Article 5.02 then Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.02.

5.03 Continuous Operations Tenant acknowledges that it forms part of an over-all merchandising mix designed to enhance the character, quality, image and reputation of the Shopping Centre, and that its continuous operation of the Premises is essential to Landlord to maintain that character, quality, image, nature and reputation and to facilitate the leasing of vacant space and renewing leases of existing tenants. Tenant therefore, provided the Landlord is operating the Shopping Centre in accordance with this Lease in all material respects, covenants and agrees that throughout the Term it will continuously occupy and operate in the entire Premises, comply strictly with the provisions of Article 5.02 and not vacate or abandon the Premises at any time during the Term. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is executing this Lease in reliance thereupon and that the same is a material element inducing Landlord to execute this Lease. Tenant further agrees that if it vacates or abandons the Premises or it fails to so conduct its business therein, or uses or permits or suffers the use of the Premises for any purpose not specifically herein authorized and allowed, Tenant will be in breach of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and shall have caused Landlord a grave and serious prejudice and then, without constituting a waiver of Tenant's obligations or limiting Landlord's remedies under this Lease and at law, all Rent reserved in this Lease will immediately become due and payable to Landlord. Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.03.

5.04 Restrictions on Use & Occupancy

(a) Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not advertise, do, omit, permit or suffer to be done or exist upon the Premises anything which will be or result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

(b) Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any mail order or catalogue enterprise; (iii) any enterprise for the purpose of taking telephone orders; (iv) a store conducted principally or in part for the sale of second hand goods or apparel, war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (v) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire, and only for a period of 30 days immediately following the reopening after such fire; (vi) a store conducted, promoted and/or represented in whole or substantially as a discount operation or in part as a discount operation so as to give the impression that it is being conducted principally as a discount operation; (vii) a pawn shop; (viii) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (ix) an auction sale; and (x) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre.

(c) Tenant shall not conduct on the Premises any "distress sale", "bankruptcy sale", "going out of business sale", "liquidation sale" or "fire sale" except as expressly provided above nor any other type of sale designed to convey to the public that business operations are to be discontinued or that the store shall close, Tenant shall only sell merchandise in the regular course of trade as a retailer operating the Premises for the purpose for which the Premises are leased. Notwithstanding the foregoing, within the last six (6) months of the Term, the Tenant shall have the right to conduct clearance and other sales promotions in the Premises and the Tenant shall be permitted to erect, install and maintain within the Premises during such period any clearance and/or store closing signage (or other signage of a similar nature), provided that (i) any such signage on the exterior of the Premises or which faces any Common Areas and Facilities, shall be subject to the Tenant obtaining all required municipal approvals as well as the Landlord's prior written approval for the nature, size, type and location thereof; and (ii) all clearance and other sales otherwise comply with the requirements of sub-paragraph (b) above and this Lease and are undertaken in a reputable and prudent manner that does not interfere with the typical use and operation of the Shopping Centre or the occupants thereof. Landlord's approval of such signage shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed provided it complies with this provision.

(d) Intentionally deleted.

(e) Tenant shall not use the Common Areas and Facilities for any reason whatsoever without the prior written approval of Landlord. Tenant will not place or keep any merchandise or other thing beyond the permanent floor mounted storefront or closure of the Premises or in the Common Areas and Facilities.

(f) Intentionally deleted.

5.05 Intentionally deleted.

5.06 Display Windows Tenant will keep display windows (if any) neatly dressed. Display windows and lighted signs (if any) will be kept illuminated by Tenant on all business days until at least one half hour after the Shopping Centre closes for business.

5.07 Compliance with Laws The Premises will be used and occupied in a safe, careful and proper manner so as not to contravene any present or future governmental or quasi-governmental laws in force or regulations or orders including, without limitation, all Environmental Law. If, due solely to Tenant's use of the Premises, improvements are necessary to comply with any of the foregoing or with the requirements of insurance carriers, Tenant shall execute same and will pay the entire cost thereof. Unless otherwise directed by Landlord, Tenant will obtain and comply with the terms of all licences, certificates of approval, permits and other approvals necessary or appropriate under applicable laws (inclusive of Environmental Law) for the safe and lawful conduct of its business at or from the Premises.

5.08 Nuisance Tenant will not cause or maintain any nuisance or hazard in or about the Premises and will keep the Premises free of debris, trash, rodents, vermin and anything of a dangerous, noxious or offensive nature or which could create a fire hazard (through undue load on electrical circuits or otherwise) or undue vibration, heat or any unusual or objectionable noises or odours or anything which may disturb the enjoyment of the Shopping Centre and all the Common Areas and Facilities thereof by customers and other tenants of the Shopping Centre, nor will Tenant allow any noise, sound or music in the Premises to be heard in the Common Areas and Facilities or neighbouring premises.

5.09 Advertising, Trade Names and Restricted Marks

(a) In its advertising, Tenant will use the name of the Shopping Centre, such trade names, symbols and slogans as may be designated by Landlord but Tenant will not indulge in any advertising or sales promotion which is undignified or not in conformity with the highest standards of practice among stores dealing in similar merchandise or might harm or tend to harm the business reputation of Landlord or reflect unfavourably on the Shopping Centre, or might confuse or mislead or tend to confuse or mislead the public. Tenant will not sell, advertise, conduct or solicit business anywhere within the Shopping Centre other than in the Premises.

(b) The name for the Shopping Centre which Landlord may from time to time adopt and every name or mark adopted by Landlord in connection with the Shopping Centre will be used by Tenant only in association with sales made at or from and the business carried on in the Premises during the Term and Tenant's use thereof will be subject to such regulations as Landlord may from time to time impose. Tenant will not acquire any rights in any such restricted name or mark, and upon the termination of this Lease all its interest herein will be deemed to have been surrendered to Landlord and Tenant will thereafter cease and abandon all use thereof. If Landlord so requests, Tenant will execute registered user applications or agreements or both to protect Landlord's trade mark rights.

5.10 Intentionally deleted.

5.11 Loading and Delivery The delivery and shipping of merchandise, supplies, fixtures, and other materials or goods of whatsoever nature to or from the Premises and all loading, unloading, and handling of it will be done only at the times, in the areas, by the means, and through the elevators, entrances, malls, and corridors as are designated by Landlord. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will not use or permit any elevators, entrances, malls, corridors or other parts of the Common Areas and Facilities to be used as temporary storage area or areas by Tenant, any of Tenant's employees or suppliers or others when making deliveries to or shipments from the Premises or any permitted storage area of Tenant.

Landlord accepts no liability and is hereby relieved and released by Tenant in respect of the operation of the Delivery Facilities, or the adequacy of them, or of the acts or omissions of any Person or Persons engaged in the operation of them, or in the acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch of any goods for or on behalf of Tenant, or for any claim of Tenant by reason of damage, loss, theft, or acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch, failure of any acceptance, holding, handling or dispatch, or any error, negligence or delay.

Landlord may, from time to time, make and amend regulations for the orderly and efficient operation of the Delivery Facilities, and may require the payment of reasonable and equitable charges for delivery services and removal provided by Landlord.

For certainty, the Premises include the loading dock and unloading areas which serve such space as shown outlined in GREEN in the plan attached as Exhibit B to the Original Lease (a copy of which is attached as Exhibit A hereto).

ARTICLE 6.00 SERVICES, MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS BY LANDLORD

6.01 Operation of Shopping Centre Landlord shall operate the Shopping Centre and maintain the Common Areas and Facilities as would a prudent and diligent owner of a similar shopping centre, having regard to the Shopping Centre's size, age, nature, location and region where the Shopping Centre is situated, as well as the type of clientele the Shopping Centre services and the general image Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre, all as determined by the Landlord in its sole discretion.

6.02 Services Landlord will provide in the Shopping Centre except where Tenant shall do so pursuant to this Lease:

(a) domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water and necessary supplies in common washrooms sufficient for the normal use thereof; and

(b) heat, ventilation, air conditioning, lighting, electric power, domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water, steam, natural gas and chilled water, in the Common Areas and Facilities (where appropriate).

6.03 Maintenance, Repair and Replacement Subject to the provisions of Article 7.01(b) and Tenant's obligations under this Lease in respect of the Premises, Landlord will operate, maintain, repair and replace the systems, facilities and equipment necessary for the proper operation of the Shopping Centre and for provision of Landlord's services under Article 6.02 (except as such may be installed by or be the property of Tenant or others (excluding Landlord) or both and except for the heating, ventilating and air conditioning equipment, elevators, escalators and other systems, facilities, machinery and equipment installed within or for the Premises; and furthermore, will expeditiously maintain and repair the foundations, structure and roof of the Shopping Centre (inclusive of downspouts, gutters, canopies and exterior walls), provided that:

(a) if all or part of such systems, facilities and equipment are destroyed, damaged or impaired, Landlord will have a reasonable time in which to complete the necessary repair or replacement, and during that time will be required only to maintain such services as are reasonably possible in the circumstances;

(b) Landlord may temporarily discontinue such services or any of them at such times as may be necessary due to causes (except lack of funds) beyond the reasonable control of Landlord;

(c) Landlord will use reasonable diligence in carrying out its obligations under this Article 6.03, but will not be liable under any circumstances for any consequential damage to any Person (including without limitation, Tenant) or any property for any failure to do so;

(d) no reduction or discontinuance of such services under clauses (a) or (b) of this Article 6.03 will constitute as an eviction of Tenant or (except as specifically provided in this Lease) release Tenant from any obligation of Tenant under this Lease; and

(e) nothing contained herein will derogate from the provisions of Articles 7.02, 7.03, 10.01, 16.01, 16.02, 16.03, or 16.04 and in no event shall Landlord be required to make any repairs or replacements which are necessary as a result of Tenant's default, negligence or willful misconduct.

6.04 Alterations by Landlord Landlord may, at any time prior to or during the Term, subject to Article 6.06: (i) change the area, level, location, arrangement or use of any portion of the Shopping Centre; (ii) construct on the Site or on adjacent lands, other buildings, structures or improvements and make alterations, additions, subtractions or rearrangements; (iii) modify, alter, expand, reduce or eliminate any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities; (iv) close off all or any part of the Shopping Centre and/or temporarily suspend services for the purpose of maintenance, repair, alteration or construction; (v) place any installations within or on any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities including without limitation, kiosks, planters, benches, promotional displays or activities and any other installations; (vi) close all or part of the Shopping Centre to the public outside of regular business hours, Sundays and holidays included; (vii) restrict areas on the Site available for employee parking, and/or prohibit employees from parking anywhere on the Site; (viii) impose reasonable charges for parking, and impose restrictions on refunds or compensations by Tenant to Persons using the parking areas; (ix) modify tenant mix, both with respect to kinds of uses which may be made of premises, as well as to changes in the physical location of any one or more tenants; (x) do and perform such other acts in relation to the Shopping Centre for the more efficient and proper operation of the Shopping Centre as Landlord determines to be advisable; (xi) change the name of the Shopping Centre; (xii) do all work required to install new, and/or maintain, adapt, repair or replace existing utility lines, pipes, roof drainage pipes, conduits, wires, duct work, columns and other matters through any part of the Premises if necessary and do any other work in the Premises to preserve, support or reinforce any structural walls or foundations of the Premises or the Shopping Centre, and do such work as may be required for an expansion or an alteration of all or part of the Shopping Centre.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, it is understood and agreed that if the Shopping Centre, the Site and/or the Common Areas and Facilities are diminished or altered in any manner whatsoever as a result of the exercise by Landlord of its rights set out in this Article 6.04, Landlord is not subject to any liability nor is Tenant entitled to any compensation or diminution or abatement of Rent, nor is any alteration or diminution thereof deemed to constitute constructive or actual eviction, or a breach of any covenant for quiet enjoyment contained in this Lease. Landlord and Tenant further agree that the exercise by Landlord of its rights under this Article 6.04 will not relieve Tenant of Tenant's obligations under Article 5.03 of this Lease.

The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that the Landlord has not granted to the Tenant and neither the Tenant or the Premises has the benefit of any merchandising controls, exclusivity rights, use restrictions, no-build zones, minimum parking ratio requirements, or, minimum stall number requirements, or any other restrictions, restrictive covenants or approval rights applicable to the Site; the Shopping Centre or any part(s) thereof or any other lands abutting thereto or in the vicinity thereof ("Additional Lands") which the Landlord or any of its affiliates may have an interest in, including without limitation and for certainty anything that would otherwise restrict, limit, delay or otherwise interfere with the Landlord's (or its affiliate's) ability to lease, use, convey, alter, develop and/or redevelop all or any part of the Shopping Centre, the Site or any such Additional Lands. The Tenant hereby confirms that any of the forgoing that the Tenant was entitled to or that were granted in or in connection with the Original Lease, its occupancy of the Premises or otherwise have been expressly waived by the Tenant, have terminated and have ceased to have any force or effect. The Tenant covenants and agrees: (a) not to oppose (and hereby irrevocably waives all rights to oppose) the exercise of the Landlord's rights under this Section 6.04 or otherwise pursuant to this Lease in this regard, including, in respect of any rezoning matters, variance applications, restrictive covenants, site plans, subdivisions, easements, transfers, dedications, permits or approvals and other similar requirements in connection therewith (hereinafter "Rezoning Matters"); and (b) agrees to cooperate with Landlord (at no cost or expense to the Tenant) to the extent reasonably required, including, without limitation, granting any partial discharges of its notice of lease and executing any consents, documents and instruments reasonably requested by the Landlord in furtherance of any Rezoning Matters.

6.05 Intentionally deleted

6.06 Access by Landlord Tenant will permit Landlord to enter the Premises outside of normal business hours, and during normal business hours where such will not unreasonably disturb or interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises and operation of its business, to examine, inspect and show the Premises to persons wishing to lease them, to provide services or make repairs, replacements, changes or alterations as set out in this Lease, and to take such steps as Landlord may deem necessary for the safety, improvement or preservation of the Premises or the Shopping Centre. Landlord will whenever possible, save in the event of emergency, consult with or give reasonable notice to Tenant prior to such entry, but no such entry will constitute an eviction or entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

6.07 Energy, Conservation and Security Policies Landlord will be deemed to have observed and performed the terms and conditions to be performed by Landlord under this Lease, including those relating to the provision of utilities and services, if in so doing it acts in accordance with a directive, policy or request of a governmental or quasi-governmental authority serving the public interest in the fields of energy, conservation or security.

6.08 Sustainable Operation of Shopping Centre Tenant acknowledges Landlord's intention, to operate its Shopping Centre in a manner so as to provide for:

(a) reduced energy and water consumption;

(b) the use of renewable energy and recycled water;

(c) the facilitation of alternate transportation for customers of the Shopping Centre;

(d) the use of non-toxic, low-impact cleaning and pest control and other products in the operation and maintenance of the Shopping Centre;

(e) a healthy indoor environment;

(f) installation and use of sustainable materials, furniture, equipment and improvements within the Shopping Centre; and

(g) the recycling and diversion of operational waste from landfill generated from the activities of tenants, licensees, and customers of the Shopping Centre, and Landlord intends to operate, manage and maintain the Shopping Centre so as to obtain and/or maintain any green building certifications, accreditations or ratings.

ARTICLE 7.00 UTILITIES, SERVICES, MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS BY TENANT

7.01 Utilities

(a) Subject to Article 7.01(b), during the Term, Tenant will provide in the Premises at its own expense heat, ventilation, air-conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam and other utilities and services. Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall promptly pay (but in any event no later than the due date) the cost of water consumption, electricity, gas, steam, telephone, and other utilities used or consumed in or from the Premises directly to the supplier of such services where separately metered or as Landlord may direct.

(b) If heat, ventilation, air conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam or any other utility or service is provided by Landlord, but is not metered or is supplied to the Premises through meters common to a group of tenants in the Shopping Centre, Landlord will pay the cost thereof and apportion such cost as may reasonably be determined by Landlord among the tenants utilizing the utility or service or supplied through such common meters, (provided that if Landlord will from time to time reasonably determine that the use of any such utility or service in the Premises is disproportionate to the use of other tenants, Landlord may adjust Tenant's share of the cost thereof from a date reasonably determined by Landlord to take equitable account of the disproportionate use) and Tenant will reimburse Landlord the amount of its share of such cost.

(c) Intentionally deleted.

(d) If a separate or a check meter exists, Tenant shall then pay for its consumption to Landlord as measured by the Premises check meter and in accordance with the rates of Landlord's supplier.

(e) If at any time, any utility serving the Premises, whose consumption rate was measured by separate or check meter, ceases to be measured by separate or check meter for any reason whatsoever, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a charge calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) above.

(f) Notwithstanding Article 7.00 of this Lease, at Landlord's option, Landlord may, at any time or times during the Term, purchase in bulk from the utility supplier the aggregate electrical energy requirements of the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof, in which event Landlord may arrange for the supply of electricity to the Premises for the general electrical purposes of Tenant. In such case, Tenant will pay to Landlord on a monthly basis, in advance, with annual adjustment at the end of each Fiscal Year, a charge for supplying electricity to the Premises as determined by Landlord on the basis of Tenant's consumption.

(g) Where the Premises are metered directly by a utility company or supplier for electricity, gas, water, or steam consumption, Tenant will provide Landlord, at Tenant's cost, with all consumption data for the Premises, in the manner, at such frequency and in the format as required by Landlord so as to comply with its obligations relating to governmental or quasi-governmental authority reporting regulations, to meet green building certifications or standards including, without limitation, LEED, BOMA BEST or ENERGY STAR or to improve the environmental performance of the Shopping Centre.

(h) During any period when the Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, Landlord shall keep all Common Areas and Facilities lighted and opened to the public. Landlord agrees that it shall keep all Common Areas and Facilities lighted for security purposes seven (7) days each week during the hours of darkness such lighting is necessary for such purpose. Landlord shall pay for all costs of electricity for lighting the Common Areas and Facilities (i) during any period when the Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, but not later than 11:00 p.m., MST, (ii) during any other period, in addition to the period described in the immediately preceding clause (i), when both the Premises and at least fifty percent (50%) of the remainder of the floor area in the Shopping Centre are open for business and (iii) during the times and to the extent such lighting is required under the second sentence of this subsection (h).

(i) The cost of electricity for lighting the Common Areas and Facilities at times or to the extent such cost is not considered part of Landlord's costs in accordance with the preceding paragraph shall be paid as follows:

(i) If the Premises are open for business, then Tenant shall pay its proportionate share (based on the square footage of the Premises compared to the square footage of the premises of all occupants that are open for business) of the cost of electricity to light the Common Areas and Facilities; and

(ii) If the Premises are not open for business as permitted by this Lease, Landlord shall pay the cost of electricity to light the Common Areas and Facilities.

7.02 Heating, Ventilation, and Air-Conditioning (HVAC) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense be responsible for maintaining, repairing and replacing of the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning equipment (the "Tenant HVAC System") installed for the Premises where such equipment is not part of a shared or central system. The parties acknowledge that the Tenant HVAC System independently serves the Premises.

However and notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event one or more of the "HVAC" units (as defined in the Original Lease) serving the Premises requires replacement (or any major component of such unit(s) requires replacement), Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that the provisions of Section 7.1 of the Original Lease and defined terms used therein are incorporated into this Section 7.02 by reference and shall apply in respect of such replacement, inclusive of Tenant's obligation to pay as part of Rent the "HVAC Rent Adjustment".

7.03 Condition of Premises During the Term, Tenant will keep the Premises in a clean and tidy condition, and will provide at its own expense therein janitor services in accordance with this Lease and the rules and regulations of Landlord from time to time, removal of debris and garbage, and cleaning of all windows, doors, walls, ceiling, tiles, floors, grease traps and grease guard systems in the Premises and on the roof of the Shopping Centre where applicable and the exterior of the Premises, subject to Article 7.04(f).

Subject to the foregoing and except to the extent that Landlord is specifically responsible therefor under this Lease, Tenant will maintain the Premises and all improvements therein at its sole cost and expense in good order and condition, subject to reasonable wear and tear, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) intentionally deleted;

(b) making repairs and replacements as needed to glass, plate glass, store windows and storefronts, signs, mouldings, doors, hardware, partitions, walls, fixtures, lighting, finishes, plumbing, wiring, ductwork and piping (including that portion which is contiguous to the Premises), ceilings, floors and thresholds in the Premises;

(c) maintaining, repairing and replacing as needed all elevators, escalators, mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems, facilities and equipment in the Premises;

(d) making other repairs and replacements in the Premises as needed, except repairs and replacements to the Premises for which Landlord is specifically responsible under this Lease; and

(e) keeping the Premises in such condition as to comply with the requirements of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority and insurers having jurisdiction and the rules and regulations of Landlord.

Notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, the Tenant's repair obligations will include all those which are major as well as minor, or those which are customarily landlord's or tenant's, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Lease.

7.04 Alterations by Tenant Tenant may from time to time at its own expense make changes, additions and improvements in the Premises to better adapt the same to its business, provided that any such change, addition or improvement will:

(a) comply with the requirements of Landlord's insurer and any Authority having jurisdiction;

(b) be made only with the prior written consent of Landlord;

(c) equal the then current standard for the Shopping Centre;

(d) be carried out only by persons selected by Tenant and approved in writing by Landlord, who will, if required by Landlord, deliver to Landlord before commencement of the work, performance and payment bonds as well as proof of worker's compensation and public liability and property damage insurance coverage as reasonably required by Landlord with Landlord, Owners and Management Company as additional insured parties in amounts, with companies and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, which will remain in effect during the entire period in which the work will be carried out;

(e) Tenant shall obtain all necessary construction and other permits before starting any work in the Premises;

(f) Tenant shall not make any repairs, openings, or additions to any part of the exterior of the Premises, or to the Common Areas and Facilities nor place anything of whatsoever nature in or upon any part of the Common Areas and Facilities, including without limitation the roof and without having obtained the prior written consent of Landlord. In addition it is expressly forbidden for Tenant, its employees, agents, representatives or any Person for whom Tenant is in law responsible to go upon the roof of the Shopping Centre for any reason whatsoever without Landlord's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the prior granting of such consent, Tenant shall be fully responsible for all ensuing costs and damages whether to remove materials or to effect repairs needed as a result of such acts;

(g) Tenant shall not make any change, alteration, addition, repair or improvement in or to the Premises which in any manner affects the structure, the roof, the perimeter walls, the bearing floors, structural slab or slab on grade, the storefront, the sprinkler system (whether it services the Premises exclusively or not), or any heating, ventilation or air-conditioning system or equipment or the electrical and plumbing services or systems (whether these serve the Premises exclusively or not), without in each case obtaining Landlord's prior written approval thereto. Tenant will accompany each request for Landlord's written approval by detailed plans and specifications for the intended work, and will ensure that the work is done according to the relevant provisions of this Lease.

Any increase in Taxes or insurance premiums for the Shopping Centre, or any part thereof, attributable to such change, addition or improvement will be borne by Tenant and Tenant will pay Landlord for the cost of such increase upon receipt of Landlord's invoices therefor.

7.05 Trade Fixtures and Personal Property Tenant may install in the Premises its usual trade fixtures and personal property in a proper manner, provided that no such installation will interfere with or damage the mechanical, plumbing, sprinkler or electrical systems or all or any part of the structure of the Shopping Centre. If Tenant is not then in default under this Lease, trade fixtures and personal property installed in but not affixed to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant may be removed from the Premises:

(a) from time to time in the ordinary course of Tenant's business or in the course of permitted reconstruction, renovation or alteration of the Premises by Tenant; and provided that Tenant in all cases promptly repairs at its own expense any damage to the Premises resulting from such installation and removal. In no case will trade fixtures or personal property include the ceiling or ceiling panels, electric light fixtures, doors, floor coverings, storefront, plumbing fixtures and fittings or any affixed cabinets, shelves, hardware or decorative items in or upon the Premises which upon installation become the property of Landlord, provided, however, that if any of the foregoing shall contain any Hazardous Substance such installation shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant will remove such items at its expense.

(b) during a reasonable period prior to the expiration of the Term,

7.06 Liens Tenant will pay before delinquency all costs for work done or caused to be done by Tenant in the Premises which could result in any lien or encumbrance on Landlord's interest or Tenant's interest or both in the Site or the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, will keep the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre and every part thereof free and clear of any lien or encumbrance in respect of such work and will indemnify and hold harmless Landlord against any claim, loss, cost, demand and legal or other expense, whether in respect of any lien or otherwise, arising out of the supply of material, services or labour for such work. Tenant will immediately notify Landlord of any such lien, claim of lien or other action of which it has or reasonably should have knowledge and which affects the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, and will cause the same to be removed within fifteen (15) days of written notice from Landlord (or such additional time as Landlord may consent to in writing), failing which Landlord may take action as Landlord deems necessary to remove the same and the entire cost thereof will be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, including all legal fees, costs and disbursements on a substantial indemnity basis.

7.07 Intentionally deleted.

7.08 Signs Tenant shall not erect or place any sign, decal, decoration, lettering, design or advertisement of any nature whatsoever ("Sign") on the exterior walls of the Premises or on the walls of the mall or elsewhere in the Shopping Centre or in the display windows without first obtaining Landlord's written consent as to the specifications, design, location and method of installation. All Signs shall conform to all applicable rules and regulations and shall be of high quality. Furthermore, all Signs shall be suitably illuminated where applicable in the same manner as other signs in the Shopping Centre. Tenant shall not install or affix any Sign in the Premises or in the Shopping Centre which is visible from the exterior of the Shopping Centre. All Signs on Tenant's storefront which Landlord allows Tenant to install must be so installed prior to the opening by Tenant of its Premises to the public.

No Sign(s) advertising an auction sale, going out of business sale, closing out sale, bankruptcy sale or any other similar sale other than one in the normal course of Tenant's business, or any Sign indicating that Tenant is moving to another location, shall be permitted in the Shopping Centre.

For certainty, the Landlord confirms that the Tenant's exterior Signs that exist as of the Commencement Date are compliant with this Section. The Landlord also confirms that the Tenant's existing pylon signage, if any, is compliant with this Section and that the Tenant shall not be required to pay any rent or other charge of any kind whatsoever to Landlord for or in connection with such pylon signage.

ARTICLE 8.00 TENANT'S TAXES

8.01 Business Taxes and Other Taxes Payable by Tenant Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to the Authorities responsible for collection all business and water taxes, charges or rates, garbage removal taxes, charges, rates, taxes, levies, fees, duties, tariffs or assessments for consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature however imposed or assessed and/or for recycling and/or similar taxes, charges or rates imposed on or applicable to Tenant in connection with the activities, goods (including without limiting the generality thereof, Tenant's movables, equipment and tools) or services of which Tenant benefits, or for Tenant's use or occupation of the Premises, or for the nature of the enterprise that Tenant operates in the Premises, or any other matter determined by said authorities (hereinafter "Tenant's Taxes"). It is understood that Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to Landlord any Tenant's Taxes where Landlord shall be invoiced therefor or shall become liable for any such Tenant's Taxes pursuant to any new, amended or modified law, regulation, policy and/or practice of any competent Authority. Tenant shall also be liable for the payment of any Tenant's Taxes, Taxes and any other amount payable by Landlord, and any increases in one or all of the foregoing (even where such Tenant's Taxes, Taxes or other amount or increases thereof are substantially greater than the amount payable therefor by Tenant in previous years) as a direct or indirect result of the abolition, modification and/or replacement of any Tenant's Taxes by any competent Authority or due to any modification of any policy or practice thereof. Tenant will indemnify Landlord from and against all losses, costs of expenses occasioned by or arising from the foregoing.

ARTICLE 9.00 INSURANCE

9.01 Landlord's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease, Landlord, at no cost to Tenant, will carry the insurance for which Landlord is obligated under Article 11 of the Original Lease and Article 11 of the Original Lease is deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term, Landlord will maintain the Landlord's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

9.02 Tenant's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, will carry the insurance for which Tenant is obligated under Article 11 of the Original Lease and Article 11 of the Original Lease is deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term and any period Tenant is in possession of the Premises, the Tenant will maintain the Tenant's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date in accordance with the insurance certificate most recently provided to the Landlord by the Tenant, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

Tenant agrees to deliver to Landlord, proof of above required insurance in force at such date, such proof to be in the form of certificates of insurance acceptable to Landlord. If the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained on the part of Tenant will immediately endanger or could reasonably lead to or result in future endangerment of the Premises or any other of the buildings or property in or on the Shopping Centre or result in the voiding, cancellation or threatened cancellation of any insurance policy affecting such buildings or property or part thereof Landlord may, either, at Landlord's sole discretion, terminate this Lease effective upon written notice to Tenant, or without terminating this Lease and after giving such notice, if any, as is reasonable in the circumstances, enter upon the Premises and take such action, including removing Tenant and any persons or property from the Shopping Centre, as is reasonable to remove or abate the cause of the danger or voiding or cancellation of the policy, and Landlord will not be liable for any damages of any kind howsoever caused arising out of such termination or such action, the whole without prejudice to Landlord's other rights and recourses.

ARTICLE 10.00 INJURY TO PERSON OR PROPERTY

10.01 Mutual Indemnity. Except to the extent released in Sections 10.02 and 10.03 below, each of the Landlord and the Tenant will defend, protect, indemnify and save harmless the other of and from all fines, suits, claims, demands and actions of any kind or nature to which the party being indemnified shall or may become liable or suffer by reason of any breach, violation or nonperformance by the party so indemnifying of any covenant, term or provision of this Lease or by reason of any damage, injury or death occasioned to or suffered by any person or persons including the Landlord or the Tenant, as the case may be, or any property, by reason of any wrongful act, neglect or default on the part of the party so indemnifying or any of its agents, employees, officers or contractors.

10.02 Release of Landlord. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Tenant, none of the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre or other persons for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage so required to be insured by the Tenant to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Tenant fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Tenant had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Tenant shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, the manager retained by the Landlord from time to time to operate the Shopping Centre and those for whom the Landlord is responsible in law. With respect to the Tenant's fixtures, furniture, inventory and stock-in-trade including merchandise or other contents of the Premises, the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre and others for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage.

10.03 Release of Tenant. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Landlord, none of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees or other persons for whom the Tenant is responsible at law shall be liable in respect of any loss, injury or damage required to be so insured to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Landlord fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Landlord had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Landlord shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees and those for whom the Tenant is responsible in law.

ARTICLE 11.00 TRANSFERS

11.01 Transfers Except to an "Eligible Corporation" (which for the purpose of this Article 11.00 is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual) which controls or is controlled by or under common control with Tenant, where to control means to own beneficially either directly or indirectly more than 50% of the voting shares of a corporation or other legal entity) and subject to provisions of Article 11.03, Tenant will not, and will not permit a subtenant to, assign this Lease in whole or in part or sublet all or part of the Premises, or transfer this Lease in any other manner and will not permit the occupation or use of all or part of the Premises by others (any of which events are hereinafter referred to as a "Transfer"), without the prior written consent of Landlord in each case, which consent, despite any statutory provision to the contrary, may be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Tenant may enter into a Transfer with an Eligible Corporation, with the prior written consent of Landlord which consent may not be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld. Tenant will not, and will not permit subtenant or any other Person or entity to mortgage or encumber all or any part of the Tenant's rights resulting from this Lease or all or any part of the Premises. Under no circumstances will Tenant be entitled to effect a Transfer to any one prior to the Commencement Date, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease or at law. The consent by Landlord to a Transfer will not constitute a waiver of its consent to a subsequent Transfer. This prohibition against transferring includes a Transfer by operation of law. If a Transfer occurs without the consent of Landlord when required, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee, subtenant, mortgagee, encumbrancer, user or occupant as the case may be (hereinafter the "Transferee"), and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such Transfer, occupancy or collection will be deemed a waiver of the covenant not to Transfer without Landlord's consent, nor an acceptance by Landlord of the Transfer or the Transferee notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary. Despite a Transfer, Tenant remains fully liable under this Lease. A permitted Transfer of all or part of this Lease or the Premises will be documented by Landlord or its solicitors, and the amounts stipulated in Article 11.02(b)(iv) shall be paid by Tenant and deemed to be Rent. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord may immediately terminate this Lease if Tenant effects a Transfer without Landlord's prior written consent thereto, whether or not Tenant gives prior written notice thereof.

11.02 Conditions Any Transfer referred to in Article 11.01 or elsewhere in this Lease will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) that Tenant causes any Transferee to promptly execute an agreement in writing with Landlord agreeing to be bound by the terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease as if such Transferee had originally executed this Lease as Tenant (provided that such agreement will not in any way affect the rights of Landlord under this Lease); and

(b) all requests for Landlord's consent to effect a Transfer shall be in writing and be accompanied by each of the following: (i) the name, address and telephone number of each proposed Transferee and if it is a corporation, the names of the directors and the majority shareholders (or in the case of a change of control, those Persons who would subsequently acquire effective control); (ii) details of the proposed Transferee's prior business experience (including experience in the enterprise for which the Premises are to be operated pursuant to this Lease); (iii) bank and other credit references, required by Landlord to assess the business or financial strength and standing of the proposed assignee, subtenant or occupant; (iv) a non-reimbursable fee (paid by certified cheque or draft of a Canadian chartered bank) for all charges associated with Landlord's administration and documentation of the Transfer; (v) if the proposed Transferee is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual), its constating documents (including any articles of incorporation, amendment or amalgamation, any declarations of trust or partnership agreements and the like); (vi) details of the transaction of Transfer between Tenant and the proposed Transferee and all relevant documents with respect thereto; (vii) a signed copy of Landlord's standard form of letter of consent authorizing Landlord to make inquiries regarding the personal affairs of the proposed Transferee or any principal thereof, and (viii) all other information or documentation which Landlord may reasonably require.

11.03 Corporate Ownership If after the date of execution of this Lease, securities not listed for sale on a recognized securities exchange in Canada either of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant are transferred by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law or other disposition, or issued by subscription or allotment or cancelled or redeemed, so as to result in a change in the effective voting or other control of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant by the Person or Persons holding control on the date of execution of this Lease or on the date when Tenant becomes a corporation, if later, or if other steps are taken to accomplish a change of the effective control of Tenant, Tenant will promptly notify Landlord in writing of the change which will be considered to be a Transfer of this Lease to which Articles 11.01 and 11.02 apply; and whether or not Tenant notifies Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease within 60 days after Landlord learns of the change unless Landlord previously had consented to the change in writing. Tenant will make available to Landlord or its lawful representatives all corporate books and records of Tenant and of any Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant for inspection at all reasonable times, to ascertain to the extent possible whether there has been a change of control.

11.04 Insolvency of Transferee In the event Transferee becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy and this Lease is disclaimed or terminated, or Transferee disclaims this Lease pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation, or the terms of any insolvency-related Court order, then at Landlord's option to be exercised on written notice to the original Tenant named in this Lease or any Transferee (except the bankrupt or insolvent Transferee), such party will be deemed to have entered into a lease with Landlord for the remainder of the initial Term, on the terms and conditions of this Lease prevailing immediately prior to the date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation (including without limitation, future Rent escalations (if any)) effective upon the effective date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation.

11.05 Permitted Transfers. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but on prior written notice to Landlord:

(a) assign this Lease to, and may in any event permit the Premises to be used and occupied in whole or in part by, any affiliated corporation of Tenant (as such term "affiliated corporation" is defined by· the Canada Business Corporations Act); or

(b) assign this Lease to any corporation with which Tenant merges or consolidates that is an affiliated corporation of Tenant; or

(c) grant concessions or licenses to use and occupy any part or parts of the Premises provided that: (i) the Premises continues to be carried on, and retains the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated single department store operated in accordance with the requirements of this Lease, (ii) at least 80% (by number) of the concessions or licenses granted shall be to licensees or concessionaires which operate in a majority of the Tenant's other stores in the greater Calgary area; and (iii) any such concessionaire, licensee or other occupant within the Premises is subject to the day-to-day operational control of the Tenant in matters related to general standards of the business carried on so as to enable the Tenant to ensure that such standards shall conform to the general standards of business of the Tenant itself.

ARTICLE 12.00 SURRENDER

12.01 Possession Upon the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease and in addition to the provisions of Article 12.02, Tenant will immediately quit and peaceably surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord:

(i) in a vacant, clean and broom-swept condition with all of Tenant's signage, Signs, inventory, trade fixtures, racking and personal property removed; and (ii) without any material damage to the structural and building system elements of the Premises (inclusive, for certainty, of walls, ceilings, windows and storefronts) and with such building systems (inclusive of elevators and escalators) servicing the Premises in a working order, subject to reasonable wear and tear; but otherwise in an "as is, where is" condition and without any obligation to:

(A) return the Premises or any component thereof to an improved or better state of condition or operation than existing as of the Commencement Date; or

(B) to remove any leasehold improvements in the Premises installed pursuant to Article 7.04 hereof.

For greater clarity, it is the intention of the parties that Tenant shall have no obligation to make cosmetic or "wear and tear" type repairs to the Premises upon surrender (such as repainting or repairing holes in walls, floors or ceilings caused by the typical installation and removal of racking, trade fixtures etc.).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Landlord's intention is to demolish and/or redevelop the Premises following the expiry of the Term and not to re-tenant same, the Landlord shall advise the Tenant thereof in which event sub-paragraph (ii) above shall not apply.

Upon surrender, all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises will cease. If Tenant has registered a caveat, caution, memorandum, notice or other instrument relating to this lease against title to the Site, it will cause the same to be released and discharged no later than 15 days following the expiry or termination date, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a release or discharge or a notice of this will be paid by Tenant.

12.02 Trade Fixtures, Personal Property and Improvements

(a) Subject to Article 7.05, all alterations, additions and improvements made or to be made upon or to the Premises (save any movable trade fixtures used in Tenant's enterprise) which in any manner are attached in, to or under the floors, walls or ceilings, including, without limitation, walk-in vaults, large water features such as pools, water basins and fountains and landscaping features, any component of any heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, sprinkler, plumbing or electrical equipment or systems, presently or in the future installed within or servicing the Premises, all lighting installations and fixtures including, without limitation, all spot lights and tracks and all floor finishes of whatever nature placed upon the floor of the Premises, all storefronts, doors and/or partitions, shall become Landlord's property at the time they are installed, and will be surrendered to Landlord at the expiry of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease without any compensation or indemnity payable to Tenant whatsoever.

(b) If Tenant leaves any property on the Premises following the expiry of the Term or earlier termination thereof which it is entitled to remove, then unless Landlord expressly notifies Tenant to remove such property, the ownership of such property will, at Landlord's option, be deemed to have been abandoned to Landlord, free and clear of all Tenant Security, notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary and whether or not Landlord chooses to become the owner of such items, they may be used, removed or disposed of by or on behalf of Landlord, as Landlord determines, without compensation payable to Tenant and without incurring any liability to Tenant.

12.03 Merger The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant or the cancellation of this Lease by mutual agreement of Tenant and Landlord will not work a merger, and will, at Landlord's option, either terminate all or any subleases and subtenancies or operate as an assignment to Landlord of all or any subleases and subtenancies. Landlord's option hereunder will be exercised by notice to Tenant and all sublessees or subtenants in the Premises or any part thereof known to Landlord. If Landlord does not give notice within a reasonable period of time after such cancellation of this Lease, then all such subleases will be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such cancellation.

12.04 Payments After Termination No payment of money by Tenant to Landlord after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease or after the giving of any notice by Landlord to Tenant, will reinstate, continue or extend the Term or make ineffective any notice given to Tenant prior to the payment of such money. After the service of notice or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment granting Landlord possession of the Premises, Landlord may receive and collect any sums of Rent due under this Lease, and the payment thereof will not make ineffective any notice, or in any manner affect any pending suit or any judgment theretofore obtained.

ARTICLE 13.00 HOLDING OVER

13.01 Month-to-Month Tenancy with Landlord Consent If with Landlord's written consent, Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises on a month-to month tenancy only, at a monthly rental equal to the Rent payable by

Tenant during the last month immediately preceding the expiration of the Term or such other rental as is stated in such written consent, and such month-to-month tenancy may be terminated by Landlord or Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by delivery of at least one (1) month's advance written notice of termination to the other.

13.02 Month-to-Month Tenancy without Landlord Consent If without Landlord's written consent Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises upon a tenancy at sufferance only, at a monthly rental equal to two (2) times the Rent payable during the last month preceding the expiration or termination. Such tenancy at sufferance may be immediately terminated by Landlord at any time by notice of termination to Tenant, and by Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by at least 30 days' advance written notice of termination to Landlord.

13.03 General Any month-to-month tenancy or tenancy at sufferance hereunder will be subject to all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease except any right of renewal or extension and nothing contained in Article 13.00 will be construed to limit or impair any of Landlord's rights of re-entry or eviction or constitute a waiver thereof.

ARTICLE 14.00 RULES AND REGULATIONS

14.01 Purpose The Rules and Regulations in Exhibit D (the "Rules and Regulations") have been adopted by Landlord for the safety, benefit and convenience of all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre.

14.02 Observance Tenant will at all times comply with, and will cause its employees, servants, agents, licencees and invitees to comply with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect.

14.03 Modification Landlord may from time to time, for the purposes set out in Article 14.01, amend, delete from, or add to the Rules and Regulations, provided that any such modification:

(a) will not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any other provision of this Lease;

(b) will be reasonable and have general application to tenants in the Shopping Centre; and

(c) will be effective only upon delivery of a copy thereof to Tenant at the Premises.

14.04 Non-Compliance Landlord will use reasonable efforts to secure compliance by all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect, but will not be responsible to Tenant for failure of any person to comply with such Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 15.00 EXPROPRIATION

15.01 Expropriation Both Landlord and Tenant agree to cooperate with each other in respect of any expropriation of all or any part of the Premises or any other part of the Shopping Centre, so that each may receive from the Authority the maximum award to which each is respectively entitled by law. If any portion of the Shopping Centre other than the Premises is expropriated, then the proceeds accruing therefrom shall belong solely to Landlord, and Tenant shall abandon to Landlord any rights which Tenant may have by operation of law to such proceeds or award. Tenant will execute such documents as required to give effect to the foregoing.

If at any time during the Term, any material part of the Shopping Centre is expropriated or if access to the Premises is materially affected by such expropriation, then Landlord may terminate this Lease on written notice to Tenant, which termination will take effect on the earlier of the date of the expropriation or the taking of prior possession.

Whether the Lease is terminated or not, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord as a result of or arising from the expropriation of all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

If Landlord exercises its right of termination hereunder, this Lease will terminate on the date stated in the notice, provided, however, that no termination pursuant to notice hereunder may occur later than 60 days after the date (hereinafter "Date of Such Taking") on which the Authority takes possession of that part of the Shopping Centre so taken.

15.02 Surrender On any such date of termination under Article 15.01, Tenant will immediately surrender to Landlord the Premises and all interests therein under this Lease. Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and remove Tenant therefrom, and the Rent will abate on the date of termination, except that if the Date of Such Taking differs from the date of termination, Rent will abate on the former date.

15.03 Partial Taking of Premises If any portion of the Premises (but less than the whole thereof) is so taken, and no rights of termination herein conferred are timely exercised, the Term of this Lease will expire with respect to the portion so taken on the Date of Such Taking. In such event the Rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion so taken will abate on such date, and the Rent thereafter payable with respect to the remainder not so taken will be adjusted pro rata by Landlord in order to account for the resulting reduction of the Area of the Premises. After such adjustment, and on notice from Landlord stating the Rent then owing, Tenant will immediately pay Landlord such Rent.

ARTICLE 16.00 DAMAGE BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

16.01 Limited Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, can be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), Landlord will immediately at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, personal property or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired immediately by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.02 Major Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, cannot be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), then Landlord, or in the event that there is less than two (2) years remaining in the Term, Tenant, may elect to terminate this Lease as of the date of such casualty by written notice delivered to the other not more than 20 days after receipt of the Architect's opinion, failing which Landlord will forthwith at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, personal property or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on the behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired forthwith by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.03 Abatement If Landlord is required to repair damage to all or part of the Premises under Article 16.01 or 16.02, provided such damage is caused by a peril Landlord is required to insure against pursuant to Article 9.01, the Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease will be proportionately reduced to the extent that the Premises are thereby rendered untenantable by Tenant in its business, from the date of such casualty until five (5) days after completion by Landlord of the repairs to the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) or until Tenant again uses the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) in its business, whichever first occurs.

16.04 Major Damage or Destruction of Shopping Centre

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Lease and specifically, but without limitation, Article 16.01, if the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed (whether the Premises are affected or not), and (i) in the Architect's opinion, the damaged or destroyed portions cannot reasonably be repaired, restored or rebuilt within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the damage or destruction (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium); or (ii) the cost as estimated by the Architect, of repairing, restoring or rebuilding the damaged or destroyed portions would exceed the proceeds of insurance available to Landlord for such purpose; or (iii) the damage or destruction was caused by a peril for which Landlord was not insured and for which Landlord was not obliged to insure against; or (iv)intentionally deleted; ; or (v) less than two (2) years remains during the Term; or (vi) a Mortgagee will not consent to the use of insurance proceeds for repair or reconstruction; then in any of the above cases, Landlord may, at its option (to be exercised by written notice to Tenant within 30 days following any such occurrence) elect to terminate this Lease.

If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease, then the following provisions will apply:

(a) If the Premises become totally unfit for the use for which they were leased, the termination will take effect from the date of the damage or destruction and the Rent will cease to be payable and will be adjusted as of that date.

(b) If the Premises are partially damaged and Tenant has occupied any part of the Premises or any part of the Premises have been reasonably capable of being occupied from the date of the damage or destruction, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in the first paragraph of this Article 16.04 and the Rent will cease to be paid by Tenant as of the date of termination, however, Rent will abate from the date of the damage and destruction until the date of termination to the extent the Premises cannot reasonably be used for their intended purposes.

(c) If the Premises were not damaged, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in Article 16.00 and the Rent will cease to be paid from such date of termination.

If the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed and Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, subject to the following, Landlord shall commence and proceed diligently to reconstruct or repair those portions of the Shopping Centre which have been so damaged or destroyed to the extent only of Landlord's responsibilities pursuant to the terms of the various leases for premises in the Shopping Centre and exclusive of any tenants' responsibilities. Furthermore, if the Premises are being repaired or reconstructed, the provisions of Article 16.01 will apply.

If Landlord does any reconstruction or repairing of the Shopping Centre, Landlord may do any one or more of the following: (i) use plans, specifications and working drawings which differ from those applicable to the Shopping Centre existing prior to the damage or destruction provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; (ii) change the configuration, design and/or size of the Shopping Centre or any of its component parts including, without limitation, the location and size of any mall, court, entrance, parking facility or any of other Common Areas and Facilities provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; and (iii) redesign the tenant mix, both with respect to the kinds of uses which will be included in the tenant mix, as well as the physical location of the types of uses being operated prior to the damage or destruction. Tenant agrees that none of the foregoing shall constitute a default of Landlord's obligation to provide peaceable enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall it constitute a change of form or destination of the Shopping Centre, nor shall the validity or enforceability of this Lease be affected in any manner by any of the foregoing.

ARTICLE 17.00 TRANSFERS AND MORTGAGES BY LANDLORD

17.01 Sales, Conveyance and Assignment Nothing in this Lease (which term for purpose of this Article 17.00 includes any extension, renewal or replacement of this Lease) will restrict the right of Landlord to sell, convey, assign, mortgage or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Shopping Centre, subject only to the rights of Tenant under this Lease.

17.02 Effect of Sale, Conveyance or Assignment A sale, conveyance or assignment of the Shopping Centre will operate to release Landlord from liability from and after the date thereof upon all the covenants, terms and conditions of this Lease, express or implied, except as such may relate to the period prior to such effective date, and Tenant will thereafter look solely to Landlord's successor in interest in and to this Lease. This Lease will not be affected by any such sale conveyance or assignment, and Tenant will attorn to Landlord's successor in interest thereunder.

17.03 Definition of Mortgage, Mortgagee and Mortgagee's Interest. Each and every charge, mortgage, debenture or trust deed, now or hereafter registered against all or any part of the Shopping Centre is hereafter called a "Mortgage" which term includes all amounts advanced or to be advanced thereunder and all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. "Mortgagee" means a chargee or mortgagee named in a Mortgage, or the holder of a debenture or the trustee under a trust deed constituting a Mortgage, as the case may be; and "Mortgagee's Interest" means the estate or interest of the Mortgagee secured by a Mortgage.

17.04 Subordination of Mortgage to Lease. If this Lease or the estate or interest of Tenant thereunder (the "Tenant's Leasehold Interest") is subordinate to a Mortgage or Mortgagee's Interest now or at any time hereafter, then on written request of the Mortgagee or of Landlord on Mortgagee's behalf, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, the Mortgage and the Mortgagee's Interest will be postponed and made subordinate to this Lease and the Tenant's Leasehold Interest as if such Mortgage had been executed, delivered, registered and fully advanced after the execution, delivery and registration of this Lease, by means of an instrument of postponement and subordination, which will be entered into between Tenant and the Mortgagee, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that it complies with the terms and conditions of the Lease. Such instrument will be in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, consistent with this Article 17.04 and Article 17.07 and will be effective between the Mortgagee and Tenant when executed by them, without necessity for registration against title to the Shopping Centre; but if desired by the Mortgagee or Tenant, either of them may register such agreement or notice thereof and for that purpose the Mortgagee and Tenant will enter into any further document required to effect registration.

17.05 Attornment. If this Lease and Tenant's Leasehold Interest now or at any time hereafter is subordinate to a Mortgage and Mortgagee's Interest and the Mortgagee does not require a postponement and subordination instrument under Article 17.04, Tenant will on request of such Mortgagee or of Landlord on behalf of the Mortgagee, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, enter into an attornment agreement with such Mortgagee in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, whereby Tenant will agree that if default occurs under the Mortgage, and:

(a) the Mortgagee takes possession of the Premises, by obtaining and enforcing a court order to that effect or otherwise;

(b) the Mortgagee forecloses or otherwise acquires the interest of Landlord in the Premises, but does not foreclose the Tenant's Leasehold Interest; or

(c) the Mortgagee sells, conveys or assigns the Premises to another party (hereinafter a "Purchaser") pursuant to a power of sale or court order for sale which does not purport to sell the Premises free of the Tenant's Leasehold Interest,

Tenant will, on written demand of the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, attorn to and become the tenant of that person from and including the date the demand is received, for the balance of the term of this Lease (and with rights of renewal if any as provided in this Lease), at the rents and otherwise on the terms of this Lease, subject as hereinafter provided in Article 17.06, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that Tenant complies with, all the terms and conditions of the Lease.

17.06 Intentionally deleted.

17.07 Effect of Subordination or Attornment. No subordination effected under Article 17.04 and no attornment effected under Article 17.05 will render the Mortgagee or Purchaser, as the case may be:

(a) liable for any act or omission of Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(b) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(c) bound by any prepayment by Tenant of more than one month's instalment of Rent, or by any previous modification of this Lease, unless such prepayment or modification has been approved in writing by the Mortgagee or Purchaser or any predecessor in interest except Landlord.

Upon attornment occurring under Article 17.05, the relationship of landlord and tenant thereby created between the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, as Landlord, and Tenant as tenant, will supersede this Lease, but if the Mortgage is subsequently redeemed or put in good standing or the Mortgagee goes out of possession, the Mortgagee will be relieved of its obligations to Tenant as if a sale, conveyance or assignment had occurred to which Article 17.02 applied. Any attornment by Tenant to a Mortgagee or Purchaser will be without prejudice to the right (when applicable) of any other mortgagee or purchaser that has priority to the Mortgagee or Purchaser to demand that Tenant attorn to the other mortgagee or purchaser pursuant to the rights if any, of the other mortgagee or purchaser in that regard under Article 17.00. In case of such demand being lawfully made, and Tenant attorning to such other mortgagee or purchaser the attornment previously made to the Mortgagee or Purchaser will cease to be effective.

17.08 Tenant's Obligations May Be Assigned. Tenant acknowledges that its covenants and obligations under Article 17.00 are intended in whole or in part to operate for the benefit of any and all Mortgagees and Purchasers and that in obtaining such covenants and obligations Landlord is acting not only for itself, but also as trustee or agent for all such persons. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord may assign the benefit of such covenants and obligations to any and all Mortgagees or Purchasers who request same, as security or otherwise, and Tenant agrees that any such Mortgagee or Purchaser will be entitled on receiving such assignment and giving due notice thereof to Tenant, to enforce such covenant or obligation against Tenant to the same extent as if it were a party to this Lease directly entitled to the benefit of such covenants and obligations.

17.09 Execution of Instruments. Except as otherwise provided in Article 17.00, the subordination and attornment provisions herein will be self-operating and no further instrument will be required. Nevertheless Tenant, on request by and without cost to Landlord, any Mortgagee, Purchaser or successor in interest, will execute and deliver any and all instruments further evidencing such subordination and/or attornment when applicable.

17.10 Intentionally deleted.

17.11 Intentionally deleted.

17.12 Notice of Lease Tenant may register at its sole cost and expense (including, without limitation, payment of all registration fees, land transfer duties and similar taxes or charges, costs of plan preparation and registration and all legal fees and disbursements related to such registration) a notice of this Lease (the "Registration Document"), provided and subject to the following:

(a) the Registration Document will be prepared by Tenant at its sole cost in a form acceptable to Landlord, and same will be approved in writing by Landlord prior to its registration;

(b) the Registration Document will only disclose the names of the parties to this Lease, the Premises, and the Commencement Date and the expiry date of the Term, and any right of renewal. The Registration Document will not disclose any information concerning the rent or rental rates to be paid, nor any other financial provisions of this Lease;

(c) the Registration Document will be registered against that part of the Lands designated by the Landlord in its sole discretion. In the event any portion of the Land ceases to form part of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will, forthwith upon request from Landlord, cause its registration to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from the title to such portion all at its own expense;

(d) Tenant will provide Landlord with a copy of the Registration Document and registration particulars thereof, once registration has been effected; and

(e) Upon the expiry or early termination of this Lease, Tenant will, at its sole expense, cause the Registration Document to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from title to the Site and Shopping Centre and to provide proof of such action to Landlord, within 15 days of such expiry or early termination, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a discharge of any Registration Document will be paid by Tenant.

17.13 Easements and Rights-of-Way Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord has granted or otherwise created and may in the future grant or otherwise create licence(s), easements(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s) over, through, upon or otherwise affecting portions of the Common Areas and Facilities. Tenant hereby consents to the granting or other creation of such licence(s), easements(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s).

17.14 Severance of Land In addition to and upon the same basis, mutatis mutandis, as set out in Article 6.04, Landlord will have the right from time to time to subdivide and to transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any portion or portions of the Land. Any such subdivision may be accomplished by any means Landlord may consider desirable and the description of the Land will be changed accordingly.

ARTICLE 18.00 NOTICES, ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, AUTHORITIES FOR ACTION

18.01 Notices Any notice from one party to the other under this Lease will be in writing and will be deemed duly given, if delivered personally, by an authorized representative of Tenant or Landlord or by courier, or bailiff to the party being given such notice or to a responsible employee of the party being given such notice, or if mailed in Canada by registered or certified mail addressed to Tenant at the address described in Article 1.01, or to Landlord at the address described in Article 1.01 of this Lease. Any notice will be deemed to have been given at the time of personal delivery, or if mailed, on the third (3rd) postal delivery date after the date of mailing thereof or the date of refusal thereof. Either party will have the right to designate by notice, in the manner above set forth, a different address to which notices are to be given. If it is reasonably anticipated that, due to mail service being disrupted, such notice, if mailed, will not be received by the third (3rd) postal delivery day following mailing, then such notice must be personally delivered as provided in this Article 18.01 or, in lieu of mailing, sent by the most reasonably expeditious means of delivery available to the address for mailing and will be deemed duly given upon such delivery.

Notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary, notices shall not be sufficiently given if delivered or transmitted by facsimile or other electronic means.

18.02 Acknowledgments Within ten (10) days after written request therefor by Landlord, Tenant shall deliver an Estoppel Certificate addressed to any Person (other than the Landlord) designated by Landlord, in the form annexed as Exhibit F or such other substantially similar form which Landlord may submit to Tenant.

18.03 Authorities for Action Landlord may act in any matter provided for herein by its property manager, Management Company or any other person who will from time to time be designated by Landlord by notice to Tenant. Tenant will designate in writing one or more persons to act on its behalf in any matter provided for herein and may from time to time change, by notice to Landlord, such designation. In the absence of any such designation, the person or persons executing this Lease for Tenant will be deemed to be authorized to act on behalf of Tenant in any matter provided for in this Lease.

ARTICLE 19.00 DEFAULT

19.01 Interest and Costs Tenant will pay to Landlord the Interest Rate upon all Rent required to be paid under this Lease from the due date for payment thereof until the same is fully paid and satisfied. Tenant will indemnify Landlord against all costs and charges (including legal fees) reasonably incurred in enforcing payment thereof, and in obtaining possession of the Premises after default of Tenant or upon expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, or in enforcing any covenant, proviso or agreement of Tenant contained in this Lease.

19.02 Right of Landlord to Perform Covenants All covenants and agreements to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be performed by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and without abatement of Rent. If Tenant fails to perform any act on its part to be performed under this Lease, and such failure continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord, Landlord may (but will not be obligated so to do) perform such act without waiving or releasing Tenant from any of its obligations relative thereto. All sums paid or costs incurred by Landlord in so performing such acts under this Article 19.02, together with interest thereon at the rate set out in Article 19.01 from the date each such payment was made or each such cost was incurred by Landlord, plus 20% of such costs for Landlord's administration and overhead, will be payable by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

19.03 Events of Default If and whenever:

(a) Part or all of the Rent hereby reserved is not paid when due, whether lawfully demanded or not, and such default continues after five (5) business days' notice by Landlord, provided that if Tenant is no longer obligated to pay Incremental Rent, the aforesaid five (5) business day period shall be deemed extended to fifteen (days) after notice by Landlord; or

(b) Tenant fails to observe, perform and keep each and every of the covenants, agreements, provisions, stipulations and conditions herein contained to be observed, performed and kept by Tenant (other than payment of Rent) and persists in such failure after thirty (30) days' notice by Landlord specifying with reasonable particularity the nature of such failure and requiring that Tenant remedy, correct, desist or comply (or if any such breach would reasonably require more than thirty (30) days to rectify, unless Tenant commences rectification within the thirty (30) day notice period and thereafter promptly, effectively and continuously proceeds with the rectification of the breach to completion of rectification); or

(c) any goods, chattels or equipment of Tenant is taken or exigible in execution or in attachment or if a writ of execution is issued against Tenant; or

(d) Tenant becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy or becomes bankrupt or takes the benefit of any statute that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or becomes involved in voluntary or involuntary winding-up or dissolution or liquidation proceedings or if a receiver will be appointed for the business, property, affairs or revenues of Tenant; Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall provide Landlord with: (i) 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (i) hereof, to the extent Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action, (iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (iv) 5 business day prior written notice of the Tenant signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s); or

(e) any person other than Tenant or a Transferee permitted under this Lease has or exercises the right to manage or control the Premises, any part thereof or any business carried on in the Premises, other than subject to the actual, direct and full supervision and control of Tenant; or

(f) Tenant makes a bulk sale of its goods or moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its goods, chattels or equipment out of the Premises (other than in the normal course of its business) or Tenant ceases to conduct business from the Premises or the Premises are not open for business to the public on any three (3) consecutive days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises or on more than five (5) days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises in any twelve (12) month period; or

(g) a Transfer is effected or any Tenant Security is granted in any manner other than as permitted by this Lease; or

(h) a default of the monetary obligations of the tenant (which is not remedied within the cure period provided for in such new lease) occurs under any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties, where such default would constitute a "cross default" event as set out in such new lease or any other agreement entered into by and between Tenant and Landlord (and/or its or their affiliates):

(i) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(ii) Mapleview;

(iii) Southgate;

(iv) Guilford;

(v) Oshawa;

(vi) Galeries d'Anjou;

(vii) Outlet collection at Niagara-on-the-lake;

(viii) St. Foy in Québec City;

(ix) Outlet collection Winnipeg; or

(x) Vaughan Mills (such lease at Vaughan Mills, together with the aforesaid leases at Outlet collection at Niagara-on-the-lake, St. Foy and Outlet Collection Winnipeg being collectively, the "Other Saks Leases"), then and in any of such cases, at the option of Landlord, the full amount of the current month's and the next ensuing three (3) months instalments of Rent will immediately become due and payable together with all tenant allowance monies paid to Tenant or the value of other inducements given to Tenant (such as, but not limited to, rent-free periods) in accordance with the provisions of this Lease or any other agreement between Landlord and Tenant relating to the Premises (such allowances and inducements hereinafter referred to as "Tenant Inducements") and Landlord may immediately take legal proceedings for the same, together with any arrears then unpaid; and Landlord may without notice or any form of legal process forthwith re-enter upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and expel all Persons from the Premises and remove and sell or dispose of Tenant's goods, personal property and trade fixtures therefrom as Landlord sees fit, or store property such at the cost of Tenant, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding all without liability and loss or damage and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover arrears of Rent or damages for any antecedent default by Tenant of its obligations or agreements under this Lease or of any term or condition of this Lease, and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover from Tenant damages for loss of Rent suffered by reason of this Lease having been prematurely terminated. Any such sale may be effected in the discretion of Landlord by public auction or otherwise, and either in bulk or by individual item, or partly by one means and partly by another, all as Landlord in its entire discretion may decide. If any of Tenant's property is disposed of as provided in this Article 19.03, ten (10) days prior notice to Tenant of disposition will be deemed to be commercially reasonable.

19.04 Waiver of Exemption and Redemption. Notwithstanding anything contained in any statute now or hereafter in force limiting or abrogating the right of distress, none of Tenant's goods, chattels or trade fixtures on the Premises at any time during the continuance of the Term will be exempt from levy by distress for Rent in arrears and upon any claim being made for such exemption by Tenant or on distress being made by Landlord this agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel against Tenant in any action brought to test the right to the levying upon any such goods as are named as exempted in any such statute, Tenant hereby waiving all and every benefit that could or might have accrued to Tenant under and by virtue of any such statute but for this Lease. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being evicted or dispossessed for any cause, or in the event of Landlord obtaining possession of the Premises, by reason of the violation by Tenant of any terms and conditions of this Lease or otherwise.

19.05 Surrender If and whenever Landlord is entitled to or does re-enter, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving notice thereof, and in such event Tenant will forthwith vacate and surrender the Premises.

19.06 Payments If Landlord re-enters or if this Lease is terminated, Tenant will pay to Landlord on demand:

(a) Rent up to the time of re-entry or termination, whichever will be the later, plus three (3) months' accelerated rent as herein provided; and

(b) all expenses incurred by Landlord in performing any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, re-entering or terminating and re-letting, collecting sums due or payable by Tenant, realizing upon assets seized (including brokerage, legal fees and disbursements), and the expense of keeping the Premises in good order, repairing the same and preparing them for re-letting; and

(c) as damages (subject to the Landlord's obligation to mitigate at law) for the loss of income of Landlord expected to be derived from the Premises, the amounts (if any) by which the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease exceeds the payments (if any) received by Landlord from other tenants in the Premises, payable on the first (1st) day of each month during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term had it not been terminated, or if elected by Landlord by notice to Tenant at or after re-entry or termination, a lump sum amount equal to the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease from the date of such election during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term, had it not been terminated, reduced by the rental value of the Premises for the same period, established by reference to the terms and conditions upon which Landlord re-lets them if such re-letting is accomplished within a reasonable period after termination, and otherwise established by reference to all market and other relevant circumstances; Rent and rental value being reduced to present worth at an assumed interest rate of ten percent (10%) on the basis of Landlord's estimates and assumptions of fact which will govern unless shown to be erroneous; and

(d) all Tenant Inducements given by Landlord to Tenant in respect of the Premises.

19.07 Remedies Cumulative No reference to nor exercise of any specific right or remedy by Landlord will prejudice or preclude Landlord from exercising or invoking any other remedy in respect thereof, whether allowed at law or expressly provided for in this Lease. No such remedy will be exclusive or dependent upon any other such remedy, but Landlord may from time to time exercise any one or more of such remedies independently or in combination.

19.08 Waiver In the event Tenant is in default in performing any of its obligations (including without limitation, the payment of any Rent), and Landlord shall have instituted proceedings to cancel, terminate or to confirm its cancellation or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall not have any right to prevent such cancellation or termination by remedying its default or defaults subsequent to the institution of such legal proceedings.

19.09 Intentionally deleted.

19.10 Additional Recourses If Tenant is in default to fulfill any of its obligations under this Lease and in particular its obligations pursuant to Articles 5.03, 5.10 and 18.02 of this Lease, then in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights or recourses of Landlord hereunder, Landlord may, at its option, obtain injunctive relief to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do, Tenant hereby expressly acknowledging and agreeing that this Article 19.10 constitutes a waiver against any defense to Landlord's application for injunctive relief made to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do.

19.11 Non-Waiver No condoning, excusing or over-looking by either party of any default by the other at any time in respect of any of its obligations shall operate as a waiver of Landlord's or Tenant's rights hereunder in respect of any such default or any subsequent default or so as to defeat or affect in any way the rights of Landlord or Tenant in respect of any such default or subsequent default. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by anything done or omitted to be done by Landlord or Tenant save only where such waiver is expressed in writing. Without limiting the general application hereof, the acceptance of any sums of money, statements of account or reports that Tenant or Landlord must pay or provide pursuant to this Lease, shall not constitute a renunciation of the rights of Landlord or Tenant in virtue of theses presents.

19.12 Shopping Centre Assets Only the Shopping Centre assets and any property exclusively related thereto shall serve to satisfy the obligations of Landlord under this Lease or in virtue of any responsibility of Landlord resulting from its fault. Tenant recognizes and declares, without reserve, that any recourse by Tenant against Landlord based on, or in virtue of, this Lease or resulting from any fault of Landlord, shall be restricted and can only be executed against the Shopping Centre, to the exclusion of all other property belonging to Landlord.

19.13 Real Estate Investment Trust In the event that a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") should be at any time bound by the covenants of Landlord hereunder or incur any liability as Landlord hereunder, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease or at law, such covenants and liability hereunder and under all other agreements entered into pursuant hereto, if any, shall not be personally binding upon and resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse of satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the trustees of the REIT, unitholders of the REIT, annuitants under a plan of which the REIT or any unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the REIT or directors or officers of any of its nominees, although this provision shall not constitute a bar to any action against the REIT for specific performance of this Lease or performance of any obligation of the REIT arising from or in connection with its obligations, if any, under this Lease or other agreements entered into pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 20.00 ARTICLE 1.00 INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

ARTICLE 21.00 MISCELLANEOUS

21.01 Relationship of Parties Nothing contained in this Lease will create any relationship between parties to this Lease other than that of landlord and tenant, and it is acknowledged and agreed that Landlord does not in any way or for any purpose become a partner of Tenant in the conduct of its business, or a joint venturer or a member of a joint or common enterprise with Tenant.

21.02 Consent Not Unreasonably Withheld Except as otherwise specifically provided, whenever consent or approval of Landlord or Tenant is required under the terms of this Lease, such consent or approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant's sole remedy if Landlord unreasonably withholds or delays consent or approval will be an action for specific performance, and Landlord will not be liable for damages. If either party withholds any consent or approval, such party will on written request deliver to the other party a written statement giving the reasons therefor.

21.03 Applicable Law and Interpretation This Lease will be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located, and its provisions will be interpreted as a whole according to their common meaning and not strictly for or against Landlord or Tenant. The words "Landlord" and "Tenant" will include the plural as well as the singular If this Lease is executed by more than one party as Tenant, Tenant's obligations under this Lease will be joint and several obligations of such executing parties. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions. The captions of the Articles are included for convenience only, and will have no effect upon the interpretation of this Lease.

Certain text in this Lease has been bolded and underlined and certain text has been deleted by way of a line through applicable text. Such bolding and underlining and lines through the applicable text have been used to identify changes to Landlord's standard form of lease for the Shopping Centre. All bolded and underlined text will be read as if not bolded and underlined and all text deleted by way of a line will be deemed not to exist.

21.04 Entire Agreement This Lease (together with any other agreement entered into by the Landlord, the Tenant and/or its or their affiliates as a pre-condition to the execution of this Lease), contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Lease and except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Lease, this Lease supersedes and revokes all previous negotiations, arrangements, letters of intent, offers to lease, lease proposals, brochures, agreements, representations, promises, warranties, understandings, and information conveyed, whether oral or in writing, between the parties hereto or their respective representatives or any other person purporting to represent Landlord or Tenant. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it has not relied upon any statement, representation, agreement or warranty except such as are expressly set out in this Lease.

21.05 Amendment or Modification Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, no amendment, modification, or supplement to this Lease will be valid or binding unless set out in writing and executed by the parties hereto in the same manner as the execution of this Lease.

21.06 Construed Covenants and Severability All of the provisions of this Lease are to be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words importing such covenants and agreements were used in each separate Article hereof. If any term, proviso, covenant or condition of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is to any extent held or rendered invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal it or its application will be considered separate and severable from this Lease to such extent and the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term, proviso, covenant or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is held invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal will not be affected thereby and will continue to be applicable and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

21.07 No Implied Surrender or Waiver No provisions of this Lease will be deemed to have been waived by Landlord unless such waiver is in writing signed by Landlord. Landlord's waiver of a breach of any term or condition of this Lease will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a breach, from having all the force and effect of any original breach. Landlord's receipt of Rent with knowledge of a breach by Tenant of any term or condition of this Lease will not be deemed a waiver of such breach. Landlord's failure to enforce against Tenant or any other tenant in the Shopping Centre any of the Rules and Regulations made under Article 14.00 will not be deemed a waiver of such Rules and Regulations. No act or thing done by Landlord, its agents or employees during the Term will be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept a surrender of the Premises will be valid, unless in writing signed by Landlord. The delivery of keys to any of Landlord's agents or employees will not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises. No payment by Tenant, or receipt by Landlord, of a lesser amount than the Rent due under this Lease will be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated Rent, nor will any endorsement or statement on any cheque or any letter accompanying any cheque, or payment as Rent, be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such cheque or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Rent or pursue any other remedy available to Landlord.

21.08 Additional Costs Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Rent, upon written request therefore, any and all costs, including without limitation, costs of additional security, cleaning and legal costs, incurred by Landlord as a result of picketing, demonstration or other activity within the Shopping Centre which is initiated by members of any organization, including, without limitation, a trade union, and which is directed at Tenant, its contractors, subcontractors, suppliers or employees or at Tenant's operations in the Shopping Centre.

21.09 Successors Bound Except as otherwise specifically provided, the covenants terms and conditions contained in this Lease will apply to and bind the heirs, successors, executors, administrators and permitted assigns of the parties hereto.

21.10 Brokerage Commission Any brokerage commissions with respect to the present transaction shall be borne exclusively by Tenant and Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any and all claims for payment of commission with respect thereto, unless Landlord has given a specific written mandate to any broker or agent for the present transaction.

21.11 Confidentiality Tenant agrees to keep the terms and conditions of this Lease confidential. Any information pertaining to this Lease cannot be communicated or revealed to a third party without the written consent of Landlord whose refusal will be deemed reasonable if the information that would be communicated or revealed is of a financial nature. Tenant's failure to respect this Article 21.11 is acknowledged by Tenant to constitute a major prejudice to Landlord and also a default according to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

21.12 No Offer by Landlord Landlord will not be deemed to have made an offer to Tenant by preparing this Lease. No agreement respecting the Premises will arise or exist between the parties hereto except through the due execution of this Lease by both Tenant and Landlord. Upon execution and delivery by Tenant to Landlord, this Lease will be irrevocable by Tenant and open for acceptance by Landlord until 5:00 P.M. on the 60th day thereafter, and if not accepted by Landlord by then, may be withdrawn by Tenant by notice to Landlord at any time prior to its later acceptance by Landlord.

21.13 Time of Essence Time shall be of the essence of this Lease in respect to all of the agreements and obligations of Tenant and/or Landlord contained herein.

21.14 Force Majeure If any party hereto is bona fide delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any term, obligation or act required hereunder by reason of Force Majeure, then performance of such term, obligation or act is excused for the period during which the cause of the Force Majeure persists. Once the cause of this Force Majeure has ceased, the party so delayed shall perform such terms, obligations or acts within the time period stipulated in the Lease, without regard for such period of time during which the cause of the Force Majeure persisted.

21.15 Non-Smoking Shopping Centre The Shopping Centre is a non-smoking facility. Tenant, its employees, invitees, customers, and anyone for whom Tenant is responsible at law are strictly prohibited from smoking in any interior or exterior areas of the Shopping Centre, except those exterior areas designated by Landlord as designated smoking areas (if any). Tenant agrees that it will comply with the foregoing restriction as well as any applicable legislation regulating smoking in shopping centres.

21.16 Counterpart Execution This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement, effective when all counterparts have been signed. The parties hereto agree that this Lease may be signed either by paper signature or by electronic signature and may be delivered electronically (in .pdf format) or otherwise, and the parties accept any such electronic signatures as original signatures of the parties.

ARTICLE 22.00 TENANT ALLOWANCE

Landlord shall pay to Tenant a payment (the "Tenant Allowance") in an amount equal to CDN$10,000,000 plus applicable GST upon (a) mutual execution of this Lease; (b) satisfaction of all other pre-conditions to such payment as set out in any other agreement by and between Landlord and Tenant; and (c) issuance by Tenant of an invoice to Landlord containing all prescribed information required by Landlord to validly support its claims for input tax credits.

(c) Under the existing lease of those premises at the Shopping Centre that are shown outlined in ORANGE on the plan of the Shopping Centre attached hereto as Exhibit E and are currently being operated under the name "Toys R Us", Landlord has covenanted not to permit any other tenants of the Shopping Centre to use their respective premises for the purpose of carrying on as their principal business the sale of (a) toys and/or (b) children's educational toys and/or (c) babies' and infants' "hard goods" and baby gear (excluding babies' and infants' clothing), such as, by way of example and without limitation, car seats, booster seats, cradles, cribs, carriages, strollers, playpens, play-yards, high chairs, swings, exercisers, case goods, mattresses and gliders and babies' and infants' "soft goods" (excluding babies' and infants' clothing) such as by way of example and without limitation, bedding and room decor and/or babies' and infants' care products, such as, by way of example and without limitation, diapers, wipes, formula, HBA, breast feeding, bottle feeding, baths, monitors, diaper pails and safety products.

(d) Under the existing lease of those premises at the Shopping Centre that are shown outlined in BROWN on the plan of the Shopping Centre attached hereto as Exhibit E and are currently being operated under the name "Bed Bath & Beyond", Landlord has covenanted, inter alia, not to lease any premises in the Shopping Centre to any tenant for the operation of a store operating under the name "Home Outfitters" or under the name "Linens N Things";

(e) Under the existing lease of those premises at the Shopping Centre that are shown hatched in BLACK on the plan of the Shopping Centre attached hereto as Exhibit E and are currently being operated under the name "Indigo Books & Music", Landlord has covenanted not to allow any other tenant or other occupant of premises in the Shopping Centre to operate their respective premises for the principal use of selling books, magazines, educational materials and information and entertainment related products, such as, by way of example, those stores currently operating under the name "Archambault", "McNally", "Robinson", "Renaud Bray", "Page-Turner", "Barnes & Noble" and "Borders".

(f) Under the existing lease of those premises at the Shopping Centre that are shown cross-hatched in BLACK on the plan of the Shopping Centre attached hereto as Exhibit E and are currently being operated under the name "Pro Hockey Life", Landlord has covenanted not to permit any other tenants of the Shopping Centre to use their respective premises for the operation of a business having as its primary use the retail sale of hockey equipment, including but not limited to hockey sticks, hockey helmets, hockey pads, hockey skates and hockey jerseys (collectively, "Hockey Products") nor to permit any other tenant in the Shopping Centre to use more than 20% of its premises' selling area (where such premises rentable area does not exceed 10,000 square feet) or to use more than 10% of its premises' selling area (where such premises rentable area exceeds 10,000 square feet) for the sale of Hockey Products, provided further that the foregoing restrictive covenants shall not apply to any deals Landlord has conducted with Champs, Footlocker, Jersey City, Nike, Reebok and Adidas.

EXHIBIT D
RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Security Landlord may from time to time adopt appropriate systems and procedures for the security or safety of the Shopping Centre, any persons occupying, using or entering the same, or any equipment, finishings or contents thereof, and Tenant will comply with Landlord's reasonable requirements relative thereto.

2. Return of Keys At the end of the Term, Tenant will promptly return to Landlord all keys for the Shopping Centre and Premises which are in possession of Tenant.

3. Repair, Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements Tenant will carry out Tenant's repair, maintenance, alterations and improvements in the Premises only during times agreed to in advance by Landlord and in a manner which will not interfere with the rights of other tenants in the Shopping Centre.

4. Water Fixtures Tenant will not use water fixtures for any purpose for which they are not intended, nor will water be wasted by tampering with such fixtures. Any cost or damage resulting from such misuse by Tenant will be paid for by Tenant.

5. Personal Use of Premises The Premises will not be used or permitted to be used for residential, lodging or sleeping purposes or for the storage of personal effects or property not required for business purposes.

6. Heavy Articles and Overloading Services Tenant will not place in or move about the Premises, without Landlord's prior written consent, any safe or other heavy article which in Landlord's reasonable opinion may damage the Shopping Centre, and Landlord may designate the location of any heavy articles in the Premises. Tenant will not overload any utility or service in or serving the Premises or any part of the Shopping Centre.

7. Animals, Bicycles, Shopping Carts Tenant will not bring any animals or birds into the Shopping Centre, and will not permit bicycles or other vehicles inside or on the sidewalks outside the Shopping Centre except in areas designated from time to time by Landlord for such purposes. Tenant shall not permit shopping carts in the Common Areas and Facilities and shall be fully responsible for their removal and indemnify Landlord from any claim, loss, expense, damages or injuries caused by the shopping carts.

8. Deliveries Tenant will ensure that deliveries or shipments of supplies, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, wares and merchandise to or from the Premises are made only through such delivery facilities, entrances, elevators and corridors and at such times as may from time to time be designated by Landlord, and will promptly pay or cause to be paid to Landlord the cost of repairing any damage in the Shopping Centre caused by any person making such deliveries or shipments.

9. Solicitations Landlord reserves the right to restrict or prohibit canvassing, soliciting or peddling in the Shopping Centre.

10. Food, Beverages and Entertainment Only persons approved from time to time by Landlord may prepare, solicit orders for, sell, serve or distribute foods or beverages in the Shopping Centre, or use the elevators, corridors or Common Areas and Facilities for any such purposes. Except with Landlord's prior written consent and in accordance with arrangements approved in writing by Landlord, Tenant will not permit on the Premises the use of equipment for dispensing food or beverages or for the preparation, solicitation of orders for, sale, serving or distribution of food or beverages or for the selling or providing of any form of entertainment, including vending machines or other machines operated by coins or other devices.

11. Refuse Tenant will separate and place all refuse in proper receptacles provided by Tenant at its expense in the Premises or in receptacles in recycling stations (if any) provided for the Shopping Centre, and will keep sidewalks and driveways outside the Shopping Centre, and lobbies, corridors, stairwells, ducts and shafts of the Shopping Centre, free of all refuse.

12. Obstructions Tenant will not obstruct or place anything in or on the sidewalks or driveways outside the Shopping Centre or in the lobbies, corridors, stairwells or other Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre, or use such locations for any purpose except access to and exit from the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent. Landlord may remove at Tenant's expense any such obstruction or thing (unauthorized by Landlord) without notice or obligation to Tenant.

13. Dangerous, Immoral or Hazardous Activities Tenant will not make any use of the Premises which involves the danger of injury to any person, nor will same be used for any immoral purpose or to commit any act of waste or damage to any part of the Premises or to use any part of the Premises so as to constitute a hazard.

14. Proper Conduct Tenant will not conduct itself in any manner which is inconsistent with the character of the Shopping Centre as being of first quality or which will impair the comfort and convenience of other tenants in the Shopping Centre. Such prohibited conduct will include the playing of loud music and the placing of merchandise racks in the Common Areas and Facilities.

15. Parking Landlord, from time to time, may prohibit Tenant, Tenant's employees and Tenant's suppliers and others making deliveries to or receiving shipments from the Premises from parking anywhere within the Shopping Centre. If Landlord designates Tenant parking areas in the Shopping Centre, Tenant will park its vehicles and will cause its employees to park their vehicles only in such designated parking areas. Tenant will furnish Landlord, upon request, with the current licence numbers of all vehicles owned or used by Tenant or its employees and Tenant thereafter will notify Landlord of any changes in such numbers within five (5) days after the occurrence thereof. In the event of failure of Tenant or its employees to park their vehicles in such designated parking areas, Tenant will forthwith on demand pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the sum of $20.00 per day per each car so parked. Landlord reserves the right to impose reasonable charges upon any person (including the general public) for the use of any parking facilities which may from time to time form a part of the Shopping Centre.

16. Sustainability Tenant shall implement energy-efficient practices within the Premises, including closing all window shades, turning off any unnecessary lights and equipment after the close of business day.

    Tenant will keep any exterior doors and windows to the Premises closed during the periods where there is a variation of three (3) degrees Celsius or more between indoor and outdoor temperatures.

    Tenant will turn off interior mall signage and display window lighting half-an-hour after closing until half-an-hour before opening time the next day (the "After-Hours Period"), or as Landlord deems appropriate.

    Tenant will limit After-Hours Period interior lighting to emergency lighting, when the Premises are not occupied.

    Where Tenant has the ability to control its HVAC for the Premises, Tenant will adjust the HVAC temperature settings so as to limit the Premises' energy consumption during the After-Hours Period by setting back the temperature of the Premises by six (6) degrees Celsius from the daytime temperature setting.

    Tenant will not use space heaters in or for the Premises, unless Tenant first obtains Landlord's written consent.

    If Landlord leak tests for Tenant's plumbing fixtures reveal water leaks or other defects, Landlord will notify Tenant of such defects and Tenant will take all necessary actions to diligently remedy said effects.

    In addition to the requirements set out under Article 20.05 of the Lease, Tenant will comply with Landlord's waste minimization and diversion rules and regulations, as established from time to time.

    Tenant will make available an appropriate staff representative to attend Landlord's information and training sessions relating to Landlord's initiatives for improving the Shopping Centre's operational sustainability.

1.03 Shopping Centre: The Outlet Collection at Niagara-On-the-Lake, Ontario

1.04 Area: [*SqFtArea] 32,387 square feet

1.05 Term: A period of ten (10) years, beginning on the 3rd day of February, 2024, and expiring on the 2nd day of February, 2034, unless terminated earlier or renewed as provided in this Lease. The options in favor of Tenant in the Original Lease to renew or extend the term thereof shall equally apply in respect of this Term on the same terms as the renewal or extension options set out in the Original Lease, save and except that (a) in no event shall the final expiry date of this Term (as may be so renewed or extended) be later than what would have been the final expiry date of the term of the Original Lease after the exercise of all renewal or extension options had it not been terminated and replaced by this Lease; and (b) the Tenant shall continue to have the obligation to pay the Incremental Rent throughout this Term (as may be further renewed including during any renewal of the Term pursuant to the renewal or extension options incorporated in this Lease from the Original Lease), as set out in Section 1.09 of this Lease.

1.06 Intentionally deleted.

1.07 Permitted Use of Premises:

The Premises shall be used for the purposes of the operation of an off -price retail store selling better quality apparel, accessories, shoes, handbags, jewellery and other better quality merchandise as is typically sold from time to time in Tenant's similar off -price retail stores in Canada operating under the name "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th", "Off 5th - Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" (or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the other similar off -price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada) and in other similar off -price retail stores selling better quality merchandise currently operating in North America, such as, by way of example only and without limitation, those off -price retail stores operating under the names "Nordstrom Rack", "Holt Renfrew's HR2", and "Nieman Marcus Last Call". Tenant further covenants that, if and for so long as the Shopping Centre is being managed and operated by Landlord as a first-class shopping centre in accordance with the highest standards of the shopping centre industry, Tenant shall carry on its business in and from the Premises as an off-price retail store in a first class manner in keeping with the said standards of the shopping centre industry.

Notwithstanding any other provision herein, the Tenant shall not use the Premises for the purpose of selling hunting, fishing or camping products or services and/or the sale or display of boats, recreational vehicles, off-road vehicles or all-terrain vehicles if and for so long as the existing lease of those premises that are operated as of January 1, 2015 under the name "Bass Pro Shops Outpost" and are shown outlined in thick black on Exhibit E hereto (the "Bass Pro Shop Premises") continues to grant the tenant thereunder the exclusive right to sell or display the aforementioned items of merchandise (the "Bass Pro Restriction"). Tenant will carry on its business in the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not do or omit to do anything or permit or suffer anything to be done upon the Premises that will result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

Subject to the provisions of Article 11.00 of this Lease, Tenant may operate, or cause to be operated, the department or departments within the Premises, in whole or in part, by licensees, sub-tenants and/or concessionaires, provided that the Premises continue to be carried on, and retain the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated, and not a multiple tenant, off -price retail store. Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not do or omit to do anything or permit or suffer anything to be done upon the Premises that will result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

Notwithstanding any other provision herein, Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any call centre operation (iii) a store conducted principally for the sale of war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (iv) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire; (y) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (vi) an auction sale; (vii) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or the pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre; and (viii) any of the Restricted Uses (as hereinafter defined), inclusive of any uses that would be contrary to the Bass Pro Restriction.

At the time of entering into the Original Lease, Landlord had granted certain restrictive covenants and/or exclusive rights of use to or in favor certain other tenants of the Shopping Centre, including those set out in any notices of leases or other instruments registered on title to the Lands on or prior to the date of the Original Lease (the "Restricted Uses"). For greater certainty, Tenant hereby acknowledges and agrees that, if and for so long as each of the Restricted Uses granted by Landlord to the respective persons (including their respective successors and assigns) remains unamended and in full legal force and effect, Tenant shall not use the Premises or permit the Premises to be used for the operation of any business or the sale of any merchandise or services that would cause Landlord to be in default of any such Restricted Uses.

If at any time during the Term less than the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises is occupied and open to the public for business for a period exceeding two (2) months for any reason other than Force Majeure (as that term is hereinafter defined), damage or destruction, permitted alterations, repair or rebuilding, and/or a permitted assignment or sublet to a third party, Landlord shall thereafter have the right to terminate this Lease while such cessation of operation continues by giving Tenant no less than thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof, provided that Tenant may nullify such notice of termination and this Lease shall not be terminated if Tenant reopens the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises to the public for business prior to the termination date specified in Landlord's notice and thereafter continues to keep the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises open for business for at least twelve (12) consecutive months (failing which Landlord's termination of the Lease shall be effective immediately upon Tenant ceasing to operate during the aforementioned 12-month period). In the event that Tenant nullifies Landlord's notice of termination as aforesaid, the provisions of this 1.07 shall continue to apply throughout the balance of the Term.

1.08 Tenant's Store Name: "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th", "Off 5th - Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" (or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the other similar off -price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada). Tenant shall not operate its business under any other name or trade name without having first obtained Landlord's prior written consent.

1.09 Gross Rent: Throughout the Term (inclusive of all renewals or extensions thereof), an annual aggregate amount equal to: (A) 3.5% of Gross Sales (as hereinafter defined) made from the Premises during each Percentage Rent Lease Year (as hereinafter defined), payable pursuant to Article 4.00; and (B) the Incremental Rent (the "Gross Rent"). The Landlord shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, at its entire discretion, upon written notice to the Tenant, to re-allocate the amount of the Incremental Rent allocated to this Lease and to any one or more of the Other Saks Leases and in this regard the Tenant shall have the obligation to enter into and execute all documents reasonably necessary as requested by the Landlord to implement such reallocation of Incremental Rent.

1.15 Intentionally deleted.

1.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.17 Intentionally deleted.

1.18 Definitions: In this Lease:

1.18.1 "Additional Rent" means all amounts (other than Gross Rent) that Tenant is required to pay to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

1.18.2 Intentionally deleted

1.18.3 "Area" means the area expressed in square feet of all floors of the Premises measured from the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows or those separating the Premises from any Common Areas and Facilities, and the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises. The Area includes all interior space whether or not occupied by projections, structures or columns, openings, shafts, structural or non-structural. If a store front, show window or other part of the Premises is recessed from or protrudes beyond the lease line shown on Exhibit A (whether such recess or protrusion is located at or above ground level), the area of such recess or protrusion will be included in the Area. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Area of the Premises is that set out in Article 1.04 hereof.

1.18.4 "Architect" means the architect, engineer, land surveyor, designer or technician that Landlord names, as the case may be.

1.18.5 "Article" means an article of this Lease.

1.18.6 "Authority" or "Authorities" means the federal, provincial, and municipal governments, the courts, administrative and quasi-judicial boards and tribunals and any other organizations or entities with the lawful authority to regulate, or having a power or right conferred at law or by or under a statute over Landlord, Tenant, the Premises or the Shopping Centre, including the business carried on therein.

ARTICLE 2.00 LEASE

2.01 Lease Landlord hereby leases the Premises to Tenant for the Term, and Tenant hereby leases the Premises from Landlord for the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.02 Quiet Enjoyment So long as Tenant performs its obligations under this Lease, Landlord will warrant and defend Tenant in the quiet enjoyment and possession of the Premises during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.03 Covenants of Landlord and Tenant Landlord covenants to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Landlord under this Lease. Tenant covenants to pay the Rent when due under this Lease, and to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Tenant under this Lease.

ARTICLE 3.00 TERM, POSSESSION AND TERMINATION OF ORIGINAL LEASE

3.01 Intentionally deleted.

3.02 Intentionally deleted.

3.03 Acceptance of Premises and Tenant Acknowledgements The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that: (a) it originally occupied the Premises pursuant to the Original Lease, and as of the date hereof, it continues to be in possession of the Premises (which possession by the Tenant was in place prior to the date hereof pursuant to the Original Lease); (b) it has accepted the Premises in an entirely "as is where is" condition basis without any representation, warranty or obligation on the part of the Landlord to perform any work or construct any leasehold or other improvements in the Premises or the Shopping Centre in connection with the Tenant's intended use thereof; (c) the continued possession of all or any portion of the Premises by the Tenant is conclusive evidence as against the Tenant that the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition as of the date hereof, (d) it is solely responsible (at its sole cost and expense and without any reimbursement from or contribution by the Landlord) for all improvements, fixtures or other personal property currently existing or which in the future may exist or may be required in, on or around the Premises and needed, required or used by the Tenant for the operation of its business from the Premises, and (e) it does not have any right of first refusal, right of first opportunity, option to purchase or any other right to acquire any interest or real right in all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

3.04 Landlord's Option to Renew Landlord has, exercisable at its sole and entire and unfettered discretion by giving at least 12 months' prior written notice to the Tenant, the right to renew this Lease for an additional period of five (5) years on the same terms and conditions as set out herein (inclusive of the calculation and payment of Rent (inclusive, for certainty, of Incremental Rent)).

3.05 Termination of Original Lease
Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that the Original Lease is surrendered and terminated effective on 11:59 pm on the date immediately preceding the Commencement Date (the "Termination Date"). The respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant with respect to the Premises and the Original Lease will be preserved and will survive the Termination Date, as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Termination Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to the Original Lease on or after the Termination Date. Any breach of the Original Lease which has not been cured will, after the Termination Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Original Lease. Tenant represents, warrants and covenants with Landlord that Tenant has the absolute right, full power and authority to agree to the surrender and termination of the Original Lease as provided herein.

3.05(A) Reinstatement of Original Lease.

Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that if at November 13, 2028 (the "Original Lease Reinstatement Date") no Event (as such term is hereinafter defined) has occurred or is continuing, and there is not then any default occurring of the Tenant's obligations under this Lease, failing which this provision shall not apply, then the parties shall execute and deliver to one another the Reinstated Original Lease (as defined below) which shall provide and confirm that effective upon the Original Lease Reinstatement Date: (1) this Lease shall be resolved, cancelled, surrendered and rescinded; and (2) the termination of the Original Lease shall be deemed to have been revoked and, except as expressly modified pursuant to this provision, the Original Lease shall be reinstated in its entirety effective as of the Original Lease Reinstatement Date and shall again be in full force and effect as if the same had never been terminated. However, the respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant as to the Premises under this Lease will be preserved and will survive the termination of this Lease on the Original Lease Reinstatement Date as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to this Lease on or after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date (given the Reinstated Original Lease will thereafter govern this tenancy). Any breach of this Lease which has not been cured will, after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of this Lease.

"Event" means the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) Tenant (or any of its affiliates) defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under this Lease or any HBC IC Lease (as hereinafter defined); or

(2) Tenant (a) is insolvent, (b) has committed an act of bankruptcy, and/or (c) has become bankrupt.

"HBC IC Lease" means any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties:

(i) Galeries D'Anjou

(ii) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(iii) Mapleview;

(iv) Southgate;

(v) Guilford;

(vi) Oshawa;

(vii) CrossIron Mills

(viii) St. Foy;

(ix) Outlet collection Winnipeg; or

(x) Vaughan Mills.

"Reinstated Original Lease" means the Original Lease but reinstated and amended only to: incorporate Sections 1.05 and 1.09 hereof (and the corresponding definitions) such that (i) the Term thereof is the same as the Term in this Lease; (ii) the Tenant shall have the obligation to pay Incremental Rent during the remainder of the Term; (iii) any renewal or extension right shall include the obligation to pay Incremental Rent during each such renewal or extension period and (iv) to amend/delete all provisions of the Original Lease that are inconsistent with the aforesaid said Sections. Landlord shall prepare the form of Reinstated Original Lease and the parties shall forthwith thereafter execute and deliver same to the other, each at its sole expense. In addition, Tenant shall execute such other documents contemplated in Section 3.05 hereof for the discharge of any registered documents relating to this Lease which Section 3.05 shall equally apply in this context, mutatis mutandis.

3.06 Limitation on Length of Term. This Lease is entered into subject to the express condition that it is to be effective to create any interest in land only if the provisions of any statute are complied with relating to the severance of land or interests in land by conveyance or otherwise (as it may from time to time be amended). Landlord and Tenant agree, as a separate and distinct agreement, that if pursuant to any statute consent is requisite to the validity of this Lease, either party may apply for such consent and until unconditional consent has been obtained, the Term of this Lease or any renewal thereof will not extend beyond the period permitted without consent pursuant to any such statute, with no further right on the part of Tenant to extend the term, notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease.

ARTICLE 4.00 RENT

4.01 Gross Rent Tenant will pay to Landlord a Gross Rent for the Premises described in Article 1.09 of this Lease, payable monthly in arrears within twenty (20) days following the end of each calendar month during the Term. The Incremental Rent component of the Gross Rent will be payable in equal monthly installments at the same time that the balance of the Gross Rent is due pursuant to the preceding sentence. Along with the monthly payment of Gross Rent, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement, which need not be certified, of the Gross Sales derived from the Premises for the prior month, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied. Within sixty (60) says after the end of each Percentage Rent Lease Year and within sixty (60) days after the end of the calculating period with respect to the first full Percentage Rent Lease Year, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement certified by an officer of Tenant showing the Gross Sales derived from the Premises during such Percentage Rent Lease Year and the amounts, if any, of Rent required to be paid by Tenant or credited to Tenant for any overpayment or underpayment of Rent for the Percentage Rent Lease Year, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied.

For purposes of calculating Rent under this Lease, the term "Percentage Rent Lease Year" as used in this Lease refers to the period from February 1 to the following January 31 of each year during the term of this Lease, provided that, if the Commencement Date is not February 1, then the first Percentage Rent Lease Year shall be for a period of less than twelve (12) consecutive months, commencing on the Commencement Date and expiring on the following January 31, and further provided that any period of less than twelve (12) full calendar months occurring from and after February 1 at the expiry or earlier termination of the term shall be deemed to be a Percentage Rent Lease Year. The computation of Rent shall be made separately with regard to each Percentage Rent Lease Year or partial Percentage Rent Lease Year, as the case may be, it being understood and agreed that Gross Sales per any Percentage Rent Lease Year and Rent due thereon shall have no bearing on Gross Sales of any other Percentage Rent Lease Year.

Full true and accurate records from which Gross Sales in any Percentage Rent Lease Year may be readily and correctly determined will be kept by Tenant, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the requirement to retain all sources of primary sales records (that is, cash register tapes, pre-numbered sales tickets, daily sales reports, etc.) and otherwise in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles until at least the fifth (5th) anniversary of the end of such Percentage Rent Lease Year. Landlord or any person designated by Landlord will have access to such records at any and all times during business hours for the purpose of examining and reviewing all the accounting records and procedures adopted by Tenant for the purpose of recording and control of all transactions affecting the determination of Gross Sales. For the sake of greater clarification, the parties hereto acknowledge that, in the event Landlord determines that Tenant has failed to report Gross Sales in accordance with its obligations contained herein, such failure shall constitute a default under this Lease and Landlord shall have the right to exercise its remedies under this Lease. Landlord will not disclose any confidential information so obtained except to the extent that disclosure is reasonable in the conduct of Landlord's business which includes, without limitation, the sale or financing of all or any part of the Shopping Centre.

Landlord shall be entitled to characterize the Rent, and to allocate the payment thereof to costs, expenses, taxes etc. incurred by or for which Landlord is responsible, in each case as Landlord may determine in its sole discretion.

4.02 Gross Sales The term "Gross Sales" as used in this Lease means the actual sale price of goods, wares and merchandise sold in, upon or from any part of the Premises, including actual receipts from services rendered by Tenant as well as the total actual sales and services rendered by any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Premises, including, without limitation, such sales, income, receipts, revenues and services which Tenant, any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Premises (collectively, "Other Occupants") in the normal and customary course of business would credit or attribute to its business upon the Premises or any part or parts thereof, provided, however, that the term "Gross Sales" shall not be deemed to mean and there shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" amounts representing: (i) amounts credited by Tenant or Other Occupants for returned or defective merchandise; (ii) amount of discount on sales to bona fide employees of Tenant and bona fide employees of any affiliates of Tenant; (iii) allowances granted to customers for damaged or defective merchandise; (iv) trade and other discounts; (v) GST and all other sales, excise and similar taxes levied upon sales made at the Premises; (vi) workroom charges for alterations, repairs or installation of merchandise sold, or similar services rendered in connection with merchandise sold; (vii) charges for services rendered primarily to accommodate customers or employees; (viii) charges for making deliveries, shipments or transfers of merchandise in the regular course of business; (ix) carrying charges on time sales; (x) fees and charges paid by Tenant or Other Occupants to issuers of third-party credit cards; (xi) charges for inter-store transfers of merchandise; (xii) sales of merchandise in bulk to non -retail customers; and (xiii) the proceeds of sales of trade fixtures, operating equipment or other property used by Tenant or Other Occupants in the operation of its business and not acquired by it for the purpose of sale. All exclusions from Gross Sales permitted herein must be documented to the reasonable satisfaction of Landlord to allow for complete and detailed verification of the validity of such exclusions. Any instalment or credit (which, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes lay-away sales, sales from coupons or gift cards, electronic or otherwise and certificates, or any other sale made where deposits are received by Tenant) will be included and treated as a sale for the full price in the month in which such sale is made regardless of whether or when Tenant receives payment in full.

4.06 Intentionally deleted.

4.07 Intentionally deleted.

4.08 Intentionally deleted.

4.09 Taxes Payable by Landlord

Landlord shall pay before the date due any and all Taxes levied, assessed or otherwise imposed upon the Premises and/or the remainder of the Shopping Centre throughout the Term. Tenant shall have no obligation to contribute to the payment of such Taxes as such Taxes are intentionally provided for in the Gross Rent provided for herein.

4.18 Payment of Rent – General During the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay Rent to Landlord in the manner provided in this Lease or if not so provided, as reasonably required by Landlord. All amounts payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease will be deemed to be Rent and will be payable and recoverable as Rent in the manner herein provided, and Landlord will have all rights and recourses against Tenant for default in any such payment as in the case of arrears of Rent. Rent will be paid to Landlord, without deduction, set-off or compensation, in legal tender of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located. If and to the extent Landlord so requires, Rent will be paid to Landlord, at Tenant's expense, by electronic funds transfer system or similar system whereby Tenant will authorize its bank, trust company, credit union or other financial institution to credit Landlord's bank account each month in an amount equal to the monthly Rent payable pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, otherwise, Rent will be paid to Landlord at the address of Landlord as set forth in the beginning of this Lease, or to such other Person or at such other address as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing.

Where Tenant makes payments of Rent by an electronic funds transfer system, Tenant shall notify Landlord by e-mail of the date of said electronic payment.

4.19 Rent – Adjustment for Partial Months If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the Commencement Date will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the Commencement Date to the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs (both the Commencement Date and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365. If the Term ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the first (1st) day of the last calendar month of the Term will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the first (1st) day of such last calendar month to the last day of the Term (both the first (1st) and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365.

4.20 Intentionally deleted.

4.21 Intentionally deleted.

ARTICLE 5.00 USE OF PREMISES

5.01 Use and Business Name The Premises will be used and occupied only for the purposes described in Article 1.07; nothing in this Article 5.01 shall create or be deemed to create an exclusivity in favour of Tenant.

The business of Tenant in the Premises will be carried on under the name and style described in Article 1.08 and under no other name and style unless approved by Landlord in writing.

5.02 Hours of Business During the Term of this Lease, Tenant will conduct its business in the Premises on such days and during such hours as is required, from time to time, by Landlord unless prevented from so doing by any Authority, however, nothing herein shall require the Premises or portions thereof to be open during hours other than those which have been generally established by the Tenant for the operation of its similar stores in the Greater Toronto Area. Tenant shall abide by all rules and regulations now or subsequently in force to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms of this Lease and are applied to Tenant in a non-discriminatory manner.

In the event Tenant fails to conduct its business in accordance with this Article 5.02 then Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.02.

5.03 Continuous Operations Tenant acknowledges that it forms part of an over-all merchandising mix designed to enhance the character, quality, image and reputation of the Shopping Centre, and that its continuous operation of the Premises is essential to Landlord to maintain that character, quality, image, nature and reputation and to facilitate the leasing of vacant space and renewing leases of existing tenants. Tenant therefore, provided the Landlord is operating the Shopping Centre in accordance with this Lease in all material respects, covenants and agrees that throughout the Term it will continuously occupy and operate in the entire Premises, comply strictly with the provisions of Article 5.02 and not vacate or abandon the Premises at any time during the Term. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is executing this Lease in reliance thereupon and that the same is a material element inducing Landlord to execute this Lease. Tenant further agrees that if it vacates or abandons the Premises or it fails to so conduct its business therein, or uses or permits or suffers the use of the Premises for any purpose not specifically herein authorized and allowed, Tenant will be in breach of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and shall have caused Landlord a grave and serious prejudice and then, without constituting a waiver of Tenant's obligations or limiting Landlord's remedies under this Lease and at law, all Rent reserved in this Lease will immediately become due and payable to Landlord. Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.03.

5.04 Restrictions on Use & Occupancy

(a) Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not advertise, do, omit, permit or suffer to be done or exist upon the Premises anything which will be or result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

(b) Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any mail order or catalogue enterprise; (iii) any enterprise for the purpose of taking telephone orders; (iv) a store conducted principally or in part for the sale of second hand goods or apparel, war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (v) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire, and only for a period of 30 days immediately following the reopening after such fire; (vi) a store conducted, promoted and/or represented in whole or substantially as a discount operation or in part as a discount operation so as to give the impression that it is being conducted principally as a discount operation; (vii) a pawn shop; (viii) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (ix) an auction sale; and (x) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre.

(c) Tenant shall not conduct on the Premises any "distress sale", "bankruptcy sale", "going out of business sale", "liquidation sale" or "fire sale" except as expressly provided above nor any other type of sale designed to convey to the public that business operations are to be discontinued or that the store shall close, Tenant shall only sell merchandise in the regular course of trade as a retailer operating the Premises for the purpose for which the Premises are leased. Notwithstanding the foregoing, within the last six (6) months of the Term, the Tenant shall have the right to conduct clearance and other sales promotions in the Premises and the Tenant shall be permitted to erect, install and maintain within the Premises during such period any clearance and/or store closing signage (or other signage of a similar nature), provided that (i) any such signage on the exterior of the Premises or which faces any Common Areas and Facilities, shall be subject to the Tenant obtaining all required municipal approvals as well as the Landlord's prior written approval for the nature, size, type and location thereof; and (ii) all clearance and other sales otherwise comply with the requirements of sub-paragraph (b) above and this Lease and are undertaken in a reputable and prudent manner that does not interfere with the typical use and operation of the Shopping Centre or the occupants thereof. Landlord's approval of such signage shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed provided it complies with this provision.

(d) Intentionally deleted.

(e) Tenant shall not use the Common Areas and Facilities for any reason whatsoever without the prior written approval of Landlord. Tenant will not place or keep any merchandise or other thing beyond the permanent floor mounted storefront or closure of the Premises or in the Common Areas and Facilities.

(f) Intentionally deleted.

5.05 Intentionally deleted.

5.06 Display Windows Tenant will keep display windows (if any) neatly dressed. Display windows and lighted signs (if any) will be kept illuminated by Tenant on all business days until at least one half hour after the Shopping Centre closes for business.

5.07 Compliance with Laws The Premises will be used and occupied in a safe, careful and proper manner so as not to contravene any present or future governmental or quasi-governmental laws in force or regulations or orders including, without limitation, all Environmental Law. If, due solely to Tenant's use of the Premises, improvements are necessary to comply with any of the foregoing or with the requirements of insurance carriers, Tenant shall execute same and will pay the entire cost thereof. Unless otherwise directed by Landlord, Tenant will obtain and comply with the terms of all licences, certificates of approval, permits and other approvals necessary or appropriate under applicable laws (inclusive of Environmental Law) for the safe and lawful conduct of its business at or from the Premises.

5.08 Nuisance Tenant will not cause or maintain any nuisance or hazard in or about the Premises and will keep the Premises free of debris, trash, rodents, vermin and anything of a dangerous, noxious or offensive nature or which could create a fire hazard (through undue load on electrical circuits or otherwise) or undue vibration, heat or any unusual or objectionable noises or odours or anything which may disturb the enjoyment of the Shopping Centre and all the Common Areas and Facilities thereof by customers and other tenants of the Shopping Centre, nor will Tenant allow any noise, sound or music in the Premises to be heard in the Common Areas and Facilities or neighbouring premises.

5.09 Advertising, Trade Names and Restricted Marks

(a) In its advertising, Tenant will use the name of the Shopping Centre, such trade names, symbols and slogans as may be designated by Landlord but Tenant will not indulge in any advertising or sales promotion which is undignified or not in conformity with the highest standards of practice among stores dealing in similar merchandise or might harm or tend to harm the business reputation of Landlord or reflect unfavourably on the Shopping Centre, or might confuse or mislead or tend to confuse or mislead the public. Tenant will not sell, advertise, conduct or solicit business anywhere within the Shopping Centre other than in the Premises.

(b) The name for the Shopping Centre which Landlord may from time to time adopt and every name or mark adopted by Landlord in connection with the Shopping Centre will be used by Tenant only in association with sales made at or from and the business carried on in the Premises during the Term and Tenant's use thereof will be subject to such regulations as Landlord may from time to time impose. Tenant will not acquire any rights in any such restricted name or mark, and upon the termination of this Lease all its interest herein will be deemed to have been surrendered to Landlord and Tenant will thereafter cease and abandon all use thereof. If Landlord so requests, Tenant will execute registered user applications or agreements or both to protect Landlord's trade mark rights.

5.10 Intentionally deleted.

5.11 Loading and Delivery The delivery and shipping of merchandise, supplies, fixtures, and other materials or goods of whatsoever nature to or from the Premises and all loading, unloading, and handling of it will be done only at the times, in the areas, by the means, and through the elevators, entrances, malls, and corridors as are designated by Landlord. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will not use or permit any elevators, entrances, malls, corridors or other parts of the Common Areas and Facilities to be used as temporary storage area or areas by Tenant, any of Tenant's employees or suppliers or others when making deliveries to or shipments from the Premises or any permitted storage area of Tenant.

Landlord accepts no liability and is hereby relieved and released by Tenant in respect of the operation of the Delivery Facilities, or the adequacy of them, or of the acts or omissions of any Person or Persons engaged in the operation of them, or in the acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch of any goods for or on behalf of Tenant, or for any claim of Tenant by reason of damage, loss, theft, or acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch, failure of any acceptance, holding, handling or dispatch, or any error, negligence or delay.

Landlord may, from time to time, make and amend regulations for the orderly and efficient operation of the Delivery Facilities, and may require the payment of reasonable and equitable charges for delivery services and removal provided by Landlord.

For certainty, the Premises include the loading dock and unloading areas which serve such space as shown on Exhibit B to the Original Lease.

ARTICLE 6.00 SERVICES, MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS BY LANDLORD

6.01 Operation of Shopping Centre Landlord shall operate the Shopping Centre and maintain the Common Areas and Facilities as would a prudent and diligent owner of a similar shopping centre, having regard to the Shopping Centre's size, age, nature, location and region where the Shopping Centre is situated, as well as the type of clientele the Shopping Centre services and the general image Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre, all as determined by the Landlord in its sole discretion.

6.02 Services Landlord will provide in the Shopping Centre except where Tenant shall do so pursuant to this Lease:

(a) domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water and necessary supplies in common washrooms sufficient for the normal use thereof; and

(b) heat, ventilation, air conditioning, lighting, electric power, domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water, steam, natural gas and chilled water, in the Common Areas and Facilities (where appropriate).

6.03 Maintenance, Repair and Replacement Subject to the provisions of Article 7.01(b) and Tenant's obligations under this Lease in respect of the Premises, Landlord will operate, maintain, repair and replace the systems, facilities and equipment necessary for the proper operation of the Shopping Centre and for provision of Landlord's services under Article 6.02 (except as such may be installed by or be the property of Tenant or others (excluding Landlord) or both and except for the heating, ventilating and air conditioning equipment, elevators, escalators and other systems, facilities, machinery and equipment installed within or for the Premises; and furthermore, will expeditiously maintain and repair the foundations, structure and roof of the Shopping Centre (inclusive of downspouts, gutters, canopies and exterior walls), provided that:

(a) if all or part of such systems, facilities and equipment are destroyed, damaged or impaired, Landlord will have a reasonable time in which to complete the necessary repair or replacement, and during that time will be required only to maintain such services as are reasonably possible in the circumstances;

(b) Landlord may temporarily discontinue such services or any of them at such times as may be necessary due to causes (except lack of funds) beyond the reasonable control of Landlord;

(c) Landlord will use reasonable diligence in carrying out its obligations under this Article 6.03, but will not be liable under any circumstances for any consequential damage to any Person (including without limitation, Tenant) or any property for any failure to do so;

(d) no reduction or discontinuance of such services under clauses (a) or (b) of this Article 6.03 will constitute as an eviction of Tenant or (except as specifically provided in this Lease) release Tenant from any obligation of Tenant under this Lease; and

(e) nothing contained herein will derogate from the provisions of Articles 7.02, 7.03, 10.01, 16.01, 16.02, 16.03, or 16.04 and in no event shall Landlord be required to make any repairs or replacements which are necessary as a result of Tenant's default, negligence or willful misconduct.

6.04 Alterations by Landlord Landlord may, at any time prior to or during the Term, subject to Article 6.06: (i) change the area, level, location, arrangement or use of any portion of the Shopping Centre; (ii) construct on the Site or on adjacent lands, other buildings, structures or improvements and make alterations, additions, subtractions or rearrangements; (iii) modify, alter, expand, reduce or eliminate any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities; (iv) close off all or any part of the Shopping Centre and/or temporarily suspend services for the purpose of maintenance, repair, alteration or construction; (v) place any installations within or on any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities including without limitation, kiosks, planters, benches, promotional displays or activities and any other installations; (vi) close all or part of the Shopping Centre to the public outside of regular business hours, Sundays and holidays included; (vii) restrict areas on the Site available for employee parking, and/or prohibit employees from parking anywhere on the Site; (viii) impose reasonable charges for parking, and impose restrictions on refunds or compensations by Tenant to Persons using the parking areas; (ix) modify tenant mix, both with respect to kinds of uses which may be made of premises, as well as to changes in the physical location of any one or more tenants; (x) do and perform such other acts in relation to the Shopping Centre for the more efficient and proper operation of the Shopping Centre as Landlord determines to be advisable; (xi) change the name of the Shopping Centre; (xii) do all work required to install new, and/or maintain, adapt, repair or replace existing utility lines, pipes, roof drainage pipes, conduits, wires, duct work, columns and other matters through any part of the Premises if necessary and do any other work in the Premises to preserve, support or reinforce any structural walls or foundations of the Premises or the Shopping Centre, and do such work as may be required for an expansion or an alteration of all or part of the Shopping Centre.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, it is understood and agreed that if the Shopping Centre, the Site and/or the Common Areas and Facilities are diminished or altered in any manner whatsoever as a result of the exercise by Landlord of its rights set out in this Article 6.04, Landlord is not subject to any liability nor is Tenant entitled to any compensation or diminution or abatement of Rent, nor is any alteration or diminution thereof deemed to constitute constructive or actual eviction, or a breach of any covenant for quiet enjoyment contained in this Lease. Landlord and Tenant further agree that the exercise by Landlord of its rights under this Article 6.04 will not relieve Tenant of Tenant's obligations under Article 5.03 of this Lease.

The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that the Landlord has not granted to the Tenant and neither the Tenant or the Premises has the benefit of any merchandising controls, exclusivity rights, use restrictions, no-build zones, minimum parking ratio requirements, or, minimum stall number requirements, or any other restrictions, restrictive covenants or approval rights applicable to the Site; the Shopping Centre or any part(s) thereof or any other lands abutting thereto or in the vicinity thereof ("Additional Lands") which the Landlord or any of its affiliates may have an interest in, including without limitation and for certainty anything that would otherwise restrict, limit, delay or otherwise interfere with the Landlord's (or its affiliate's) ability to lease, use, convey, alter, develop and/or redevelop all or any part of the Shopping Centre, the Site or any such Additional Lands. The Tenant hereby confirms that any of the forgoing that the Tenant was entitled to or that were granted in or in connection with the Original Lease, its occupancy of the Premises or otherwise have been expressly waived by the Tenant, have terminated and have ceased to have any force or effect. The Tenant covenants and agrees: (a) not to oppose (and hereby irrevocably waives all rights to oppose) the exercise of the Landlord's rights under this Section 6.04 or otherwise pursuant to this Lease in this regard, including, in respect of any rezoning matters, variance applications, restrictive covenants, site plans, subdivisions, easements, transfers, dedications, permits or approvals and other similar requirements in connection therewith (hereinafter "Rezoning Matters"); and (b) agrees to cooperate with Landlord (at no cost or expense to the Tenant) to the extent reasonably required, including, without limitation, granting any partial discharges of its notice of lease and executing any consents, documents and instruments reasonably requested by the Landlord in furtherance of any Rezoning Matters.

6.06 Access by Landlord Tenant will permit Landlord to enter the Premises outside of normal business hours, and during normal business hours where such will not unreasonably disturb or interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises and operation of its business, to examine, inspect and show the Premises to persons wishing to lease them, to provide services or make repairs, replacements, changes or alterations as set out in this Lease, and to take such steps as Landlord may deem necessary for the safety, improvement or preservation of the Premises or the Shopping Centre. Landlord will whenever possible, save in the event of emergency, consult with or give reasonable notice to Tenant prior to such entry, but no such entry will constitute an eviction or entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

6.07 Energy, Conservation and Security Policies Landlord will be deemed to have observed and performed the terms and conditions to be performed by Landlord under this Lease, including those relating to the provision of utilities and services, if in so doing it acts in accordance with a directive, policy or request of a governmental or quasi-governmental authority serving the public interest in the fields of energy, conservation or security.

6.08 Sustainable Operation of Shopping Centre Tenant acknowledges Landlord's intention, to operate its Shopping Centre in a manner so as to provide for:

(a) reduced energy and water consumption;

(b) the use of renewable energy and recycled water;

(c) the facilitation of alternate transportation for customers of the Shopping Centre;

(d) the use of non-toxic, low-impact cleaning and pest control and other products in the operation and maintenance of the Shopping Centre;

(e) a healthy indoor environment;

(f) installation and use of sustainable materials, furniture, equipment and improvements within the Shopping Centre; and

(g) the recycling and diversion of operational waste from landfill generated from the activities of tenants, licensees, and customers of the Shopping Centre, and Landlord intends to operate, manage and maintain the Shopping Centre so as to obtain and/or maintain any green building certifications, accreditations or ratings.

ARTICLE 7.00 UTILITIES, SERVICES, MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS BY TENANT

7.01 Utilities

(a) Subject to Article 7.01(b), during the Term, Tenant will provide in the Premises at its own expense heat, ventilation, air-conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam and other utilities and services. Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall promptly pay (but in any event no later than the due date) the cost of water consumption, electricity, gas, steam, telephone, and other utilities used or consumed in or from the Premises directly to the supplier of such services where separately metered or as Landlord may direct.

(b) If heat, ventilation, air conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam or any other utility or service is provided by Landlord, but is not metered or is supplied to the Premises through meters common to a group of tenants in the Shopping Centre, Landlord will pay the cost thereof and apportion such cost as may reasonably be determined by Landlord among the tenants utilizing the utility or service or supplied through such common meters, (provided that if Landlord will from time to time reasonably determine that the use of any such utility or service in the Premises is disproportionate to the use of other tenants, Landlord may adjust Tenant's share of the cost thereof from a date reasonably determined by Landlord to take equitable account of the disproportionate use) and Tenant will reimburse Landlord the amount of its share of such cost.

(c) Intentionally deleted.

(d) If a separate or a check meter exists, Tenant shall then pay for its consumption to Landlord as measured by the Premises check meter and in accordance with the rates of Landlord's supplier.

(e) If at any time, any utility serving the Premises, whose consumption rate was measured by separate or check meter, ceases to be measured by separate or check meter for any reason whatsoever, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a charge calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) above.

(f) Notwithstanding Article 7.00 of this Lease, at Landlord's option, Landlord may, at any time or times during the Term, purchase in bulk from the utility supplier the aggregate electrical energy requirements of the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof, in which event Landlord may arrange for the supply of electricity to the Premises for the general electrical purposes of Tenant. In such case, Tenant will pay to Landlord on a monthly basis, in advance, with annual adjustment at the end of each Fiscal Year, a charge for supplying electricity to the Premises as determined by Landlord on the basis of Tenant's consumption.

(g) Where the Premises are metered directly by a utility company or supplier for electricity, gas, water, or steam consumption, Tenant will provide Landlord, at Tenant's cost, with all consumption data for the Premises, in the manner, at such frequency and in the format as required by Landlord so as to comply with its obligations relating to governmental or quasi-governmental authority reporting regulations, to meet green building certifications or standards including, without limitation, LEED, BOMA BEST or ENERGY STAR or to improve the environmental performance of the Shopping Centre.

(h) During any period when the Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, Landlord shall keep all Common Areas and Facilities lighted and opened to the public. Landlord agrees that it shall keep all Common Areas and Facilities lighted for security purposes seven (7) days each week during the hours of darkness such lighting is necessary for such purpose. Landlord shall pay for all costs of electricity for lighting the Common Areas and Facilities (i) during any period when the Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, but not later than 11:00 p.m., EST, (ii) during any other period, in addition to the period described in the immediately preceding clause (i), when both the Premises and at least fifty percent (50%) of the remainder of the floor area in the Shopping Centre are open for business and (iii) during the times and to the extent such lighting is required under the second sentence of this subsection (h).

(i) The cost of electricity for lighting the Common Area at times or to the extent such cost is not considered part of Landlord's costs in accordance with the preceding paragraph shall be paid as follows:

(i) If the Demised Premises are open for business, then Tenant shall pay its proportionate share (based on the square footage of the Premises compared to the square footage of the premises of all occupants that are open for business) of the cost of electricity to light the Common Areas and Facilities; and

(ii) If the Premises are not open for business as permitted by this Lease, Landlord shall pay the cost of electricity to light the Common Area.

7.02 Heating, Ventilation, and Air-Conditioning (HVAC) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense be responsible for maintaining, repairing and replacing of the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning equipment (the "Tenant HVAC System") installed for the Premises where such equipment is not part of a shared or central system. The parties acknowledge that the Tenant HVAC System independently serves the Premises.

However and notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event one or more of the HVAC units (as defined in the Original Lease) serving the Premises requires replacement (or any major component of such unit(s) requires replacement), Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that the provisions of Section 7.1 of the Original Lease and defined terms used therein are incorporated into this Section 7.02 by reference and shall apply in respect of such replacement, inclusive of Tenant's obligation to pay as part of Rent the "HVAC Rent Adjustment".

7.03 Condition of Premises During the Term, Tenant will keep the Premises in a clean and tidy condition, and will provide at its own expense therein janitor services in accordance with this Lease and the rules and regulations of Landlord from time to time, removal of debris and garbage, and cleaning of all windows, doors, walls, ceiling, tiles, floors, grease traps and grease guard systems in the Premises and on the roof of the Shopping Centre where applicable and the exterior of the Premises, subject to Article 7.04(f).

Subject to the foregoing and except to the extent that Landlord is specifically responsible therefor under this Lease, Tenant will maintain the Premises and all improvements therein at its sole cost and expense in good order and condition, subject to reasonable wear and tear, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) intentionally deleted;

(b) making repairs and replacements as needed to glass, plate glass, store windows and storefronts, signs, mouldings, doors, hardware, partitions, walls, fixtures, lighting, finishes, plumbing, wiring, ductwork and piping (including that portion which is contiguous to the Premises), ceilings, floors and thresholds in the Premises;

(c) maintaining, repairing and replacing as needed all elevators, escalators, mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems, facilities and equipment in the Premises;

(d) making other repairs and replacements in the Premises as needed, except repairs and replacements to the Premises for which Landlord is specifically responsible under this Lease; and

(e) keeping the Premises in such condition as to comply with the requirements of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority and insurers having jurisdiction and the rules and regulations of Landlord.

Notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, the Tenant's repair obligations will include all those which are major as well as minor , or those which are customarily landlord's or tenant's, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Lease

7.04 Alterations by Tenant Tenant may from time to time at its own expense make changes, additions and improvements in the Premises to better adapt the same to its business, provided that any such change, addition or improvement will:

(a) comply with the requirements of Landlord's insurer and any Authority having jurisdiction;

(b) be made only with the prior written consent of Landlord;

(c) equal the then current standard for the Shopping Centre;

(d) be carried out only by persons selected by Tenant and approved in writing by Landlord, who will, if required by Landlord, deliver to Landlord before commencement of the work, performance and payment bonds as well as proof of worker's compensation and public liability and property damage insurance coverage as reasonably required by Landlord with Landlord, Owners and Management Company as additional insured parties in amounts, with companies and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, which will remain in effect during the entire period in which the work will be carried out;

(e) Tenant shall obtain all necessary construction and other permits before starting any work in the Premises;

(f) Tenant shall not make any repairs, openings, or additions to any part of the exterior of the Premises, or to the Common Areas and Facilities nor place anything of whatsoever nature in or upon any part of the Common Areas and Facilities, including without limitation the roof and without having obtained the prior written consent of Landlord. In addition it is expressly forbidden for Tenant, its employees, agents, representatives or any Person for whom Tenant is in law responsible to go upon the roof of the Shopping Centre for any reason whatsoever without Landlord's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the prior granting of such consent, Tenant shall be fully responsible for all ensuing costs and damages whether to remove materials or to effect repairs needed as a result of such acts;

(g) Tenant shall not make any change, alteration, addition, repair or improvement in or to the Premises which in any manner affects the structure, the roof, the perimeter walls, the bearing floors, structural slab or slab on grade, the storefront, the sprinkler system (whether it services the Premises exclusively or not), or any heating, ventilation or air-conditioning system or equipment or the electrical and plumbing services or systems (whether these serve the Premises exclusively or not), without in each case obtaining Landlord's prior written approval thereto. Tenant will accompany each request for Landlord's written approval by detailed plans and specifications for the intended work, and will ensure that the work is done according to the relevant provisions of this Lease.

Any increase in Taxes or insurance premiums for the Shopping Centre, or any part thereof, attributable to such change, addition or improvement will be borne by Tenant and Tenant will pay Landlord for the cost of such increase upon receipt of Landlord's invoices therefor.

7.05 Trade Fixtures and Personal Property Tenant may install in the Premises its usual trade fixtures and personal property in a proper manner, provided that no such installation will interfere with or damage the mechanical, plumbing, sprinkler or electrical systems or all or any part of the structure of the Shopping Centre. If Tenant is not then in default under this Lease, trade fixtures and personal property installed in but not affixed to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant may be removed from the Premises:

(a) from time to time in the ordinary course of Tenant's business or in the course of permitted reconstruction, renovation or alteration of the Premises by Tenant; and provided that Tenant in all cases promptly repairs at its own expense any damage to the Premises resulting from such installation and removal. In no case will trade fixtures or personal property include the ceiling or ceiling panels, electric light fixtures, doors, floor coverings, storefront, plumbing fixtures and fittings or any affixed cabinets, shelves, hardware or decorative items in or upon the Premises which upon installation become the property of Landlord, provided, however, that if any of the foregoing shall contain any Hazardous Substance such installation shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant will remove such items at its expense.

(b) during a reasonable period prior to the expiration of the Term,

7.06 Liens Tenant will pay before delinquency all costs for work done or caused to be done by Tenant in the Premises which could result in any lien or encumbrance on Landlord's interest or Tenant's interest or both in the Site or the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, will keep the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre and every part thereof free and clear of any lien or encumbrance in respect of such work and will indemnify and hold harmless Landlord against any claim, loss, cost, demand and legal or other expense, whether in respect of any lien or otherwise, arising out of the supply of material, services or labour for such work. Tenant will immediately notify Landlord of any such lien, claim of lien or other action of which it has or reasonably should have knowledge and which affects the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, and will cause the same to be removed within fifteen (15) days of written notice from Landlord (or such additional time as Landlord may consent to in writing), failing which Landlord may take action as Landlord deems necessary to remove the same and the entire cost thereof will be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, including all legal fees, costs and disbursements on a substantial indemnity basis.

7.07 Intentionally deleted.

7.08 Signs Tenant shall not erect or place any sign, decal, decoration, lettering, design or advertisement of any nature whatsoever ("Sign") on the exterior walls of the Premises or on the walls of the mall or elsewhere in the Shopping Centre or in the display windows without first obtaining Landlord's written consent as to the specifications, design, location and method of installation. All Signs shall conform to all applicable rules and regulations and shall be of high quality. Furthermore, all Signs shall be suitably illuminated where applicable in the same manner as other signs in the Shopping Centre. Tenant shall not install or affix any Sign in the Premises or in the Shopping Centre which is visible from the exterior of the Shopping Centre. All Signs on Tenant's storefront which Landlord allows Tenant to install must be so installed prior to the opening by Tenant of its Premises to the public.

No Sign(s) advertising an auction sale, going out of business sale, closing out sale, bankruptcy sale or any other similar sale other than one in the normal course of Tenant's business, or any Sign indicating that Tenant is moving to another location, shall be permitted in the Shopping Centre.

For certainty, the Landlord confirms that the Tenant's exterior Signs that exist as of the Commencement Date are compliant with this Section. The Landlord also confirms that the Tenant's existing pylon signage, if any, is compliant with this Section and that the Tenant shall not be required to pay any rent or other charge of any kind whatsoever to Landlord for or in connection with such pylon signage.

ARTICLE 8.00 TENANT'S TAXES

8.01 Business Taxes and Other Taxes Payable by Tenant Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to the Authorities responsible for collection all business and water taxes, charges or rates, garbage removal taxes, charges, rates, taxes, levies, fees, duties, tariffs or assessments for consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature however imposed or assessed and/or for recycling and/or similar taxes, charges or rates imposed on or applicable to Tenant in connection with the activities, goods (including without limiting the generality thereof, Tenant's movables, equipment and tools) or services of which Tenant benefits, or for Tenant's use or occupation of the Premises, or for the nature of the enterprise that Tenant operates in the Premises, or any other matter determined by said authorities (hereinafter "Tenant's Taxes"). It is understood that Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to Landlord any Tenant's Taxes where Landlord shall be invoiced therefor or shall become liable for any such Tenant's Taxes pursuant to any new, amended or modified law, regulation, policy and/or practice of any competent Authority. Tenant shall also be liable for the payment of any Tenant's Taxes, Taxes and any other amount payable by Landlord, and any increases in one or all of the foregoing (even where such Tenant's Taxes, Taxes or other amount or increases thereof are substantially greater than the amount payable therefor by Tenant in previous years) as a direct or indirect result of the abolition, modification and/or replacement of any Tenant's Taxes by any competent Authority or due to any modification of any policy or practice thereof. Tenant will indemnify Landlord from and against all losses, costs of expenses occasioned by or arising from the foregoing.

ARTICLE 9.00 INSURANCE

9.01 Landlord's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease, Landlord, at no cost to Tenant, will carry the insurance for which Landlord is obligated under Article 11 of the Original Lease and Article 11 of the Original Lease is deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term, Landlord will maintain the Landlord's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

9.02 Tenant's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, will carry the insurance for which Tenant is obligated under Article 11 of the Original Lease and Article 11 of the Original Lease is deemed incorporated herein by reference.For certainty, during the Term and any period Tenant is in possession of the Premises, the Tenant will maintain the Tenant's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date in accordance with the insurance certificate most recently provided to the Landlord by the Tenant, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

Tenant agrees to deliver to Landlord, proof of above required insurance in force at such date, such proof to be in the form of certificates of insurance acceptable to Landlord. If the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained on the part of Tenant will immediately endanger or could reasonably lead to or result in future endangerment of the Premises or any other of the buildings or property in or on the Shopping Centre or result in the voiding, cancellation or threatened cancellation of any insurance policy affecting such buildings or property or part thereof Landlord may, either, at Landlord's sole discretion, terminate this Lease effective upon written notice to Tenant, or without terminating this Lease and after giving such notice, if any, as is reasonable in the circumstances, enter upon the Premises and take such action, including removing Tenant and any persons or property from the Shopping Centre, as is reasonable to remove or abate the cause of the danger or voiding or cancellation of the policy, and Landlord will not be liable for any damages of any kind howsoever caused arising out of such termination or such action, the whole without prejudice to Landlord's other rights and recourses.

ARTICLE 10.00 INJURY TO PERSON OR PROPERTY

10.01 Mutual Indemnity. Except to the extent released in Sections 10.02 and 10.03 below, each of the Landlord and the Tenant will defend, protect, indemnify and save harmless the other of and from all fines, suits, claims, demands and actions of any kind or nature to which the party being indemnified shall or may become liable or suffer by reason of any breach, violation or nonperformance by the party so indemnifying of any covenant, term or provision of this Lease or by reason of any damage, injury or death occasioned to or suffered by any person or persons including the Landlord or the Tenant, as the case may be, or any property, by reason of any wrongful act, neglect or default on the part of the party so indemnifying or any of its agents, employees, officers or contractors.

10.02 Release of Landlord. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Tenant, none of the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre or other persons for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage so required to be insured by the Tenant to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Tenant fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Tenant had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Tenant shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, the manager retained by the Landlord from time to time to operate the Shopping Centre and those for whom the Landlord is responsible in law. With respect to the Tenant's fixtures, furniture, inventory and stock-in-trade including merchandise or other contents of the Premises, the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre and others for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage.

10.03 Release of Tenant. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Landlord, none of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees or other persons for whom the Tenant is responsible at law shall be liable in respect of any loss, injury or damage required to be so insured to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Landlord fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Landlord had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Landlord shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees and those for whom the Tenant is responsible in law.

ARTICLE 11.00 TRANSFERS

11.01 Transfers Except to an Eligible Corporation (which for the purpose of this Article 11.00 is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual) which controls or is controlled by or under common control with Tenant, where to control means to own beneficially either directly or indirectly more than 50% of the voting shares of a corporation or other legal entity) and subject to provisions of Article 11.03, Tenant will not, and will not permit a subtenant to, assign this Lease in whole or in part or sublet all or part of the Premises, or transfer this Lease in any other manner and will not permit the occupation or use of all or part of the Premises by others (any of which events are hereinafter referred to as a "Transfer"), without the prior written consent of Landlord in each case, which consent, despite any statutory provision to the contrary, may be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Tenant may enter into a Transfer with an Eligible Corporation, with the prior written consent of Landlord which consent may not be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld. Tenant will not, and will not permit subtenant or any other Person or entity to mortgage or encumber all or any part of the Tenant's rights resulting from this Lease or all or any part of the Premises. Under no circumstances will Tenant be entitled to effect a Transfer to any one prior to the Commencement Date, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease or at law. The consent by Landlord to a Transfer will not constitute a waiver of its consent to a subsequent Transfer. This prohibition against transferring includes a Transfer by operation of law. If a Transfer occurs without the consent of Landlord when required, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee, subtenant, mortgagee, encumbrancer, user or occupant as the case may be (hereinafter the "Transferee"), and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such Transfer, occupancy or collection will be deemed a waiver of the covenant not to Transfer without Landlord's consent, nor an acceptance by Landlord of the Transfer or the Transferee notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary. Despite a Transfer, Tenant remains fully liable under this Lease. A permitted Transfer of all or part of this Lease or the Premises will be documented by Landlord or its solicitors, and the amounts stipulated in Article 11.02(b)(iv) shall be paid by Tenant and deemed to be Rent. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord may immediately terminate this Lease if Tenant effects a Transfer without Landlord's prior written consent thereto, whether or not Tenant gives prior written notice thereof.

11.02 Conditions Any Transfer referred to in Article 11.01 or elsewhere in this Lease will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) that Tenant causes any Transferee to promptly execute an agreement in writing with Landlord agreeing to be bound by the terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease as if such Transferee had originally executed this Lease as Tenant (provided that such agreement will not in any way affect the rights of Landlord under this Lease); and

(b) all requests for Landlord's consent to effect a Transfer shall be in writing and be accompanied by each of the following: (i) the name, address and telephone number of each proposed Transferee and if it is a corporation, the names of the directors and the majority shareholders (or in the case of a change of control, those Persons who would subsequently acquire effective control); (ii) details of the proposed Transferee's prior business experience (including experience in the enterprise for which the Premises are to be operated pursuant to this Lease); (iii) bank and other credit references, required by Landlord to assess the business or financial strength and standing of the proposed assignee, subtenant or occupant; (iv) a non-reimbursable fee (paid by certified cheque or draft of a Canadian chartered bank) for all charges associated with Landlord's administration and documentation of the Transfer; (v) if the proposed Transferee is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual), its constating documents (including any articles of incorporation, amendment or amalgamation, any declarations of trust or partnership agreements and the like); (vi) details of the transaction of Transfer between Tenant and the proposed Transferee and all relevant documents with respect thereto; (vii) a signed copy of Landlord's standard form of letter of consent authorizing Landlord to make inquiries regarding the personal affairs of the proposed Transferee or any principal thereof, and (viii) all other information or documentation which Landlord may reasonably require.

11.03 Corporate Ownership If after the date of execution of this Lease, securities not listed for sale on a recognized securities exchange in Canada either of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant are transferred by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law or other disposition, or issued by subscription or allotment or cancelled or redeemed, so as to result in a change in the effective voting or other control of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant by the Person or Persons holding control on the date of execution of this Lease or on the date when Tenant becomes a corporation, if later, or if other steps are taken to accomplish a change of the effective control of Tenant, Tenant will promptly notify Landlord in writing of the change which will be considered to be a Transfer of this Lease to which Articles 11.01 and 11.02 apply; and whether or not Tenant notifies Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease within 60 days after Landlord learns of the change unless Landlord previously had consented to the change in writing. Tenant will make available to Landlord or its lawful representatives all corporate books and records of Tenant and of any Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant for inspection at all reasonable times, to ascertain to the extent possible whether there has been a change of control.

11.04 Insolvency of Transferee In the event Transferee becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy and this Lease is disclaimed or terminated, or Transferee disclaims this Lease pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation, or the terms of any insolvency-related Court order, then at Landlord's option to be exercised on written notice to the original Tenant named in this Lease or any Transferee (except the bankrupt or insolvent Transferee), such party will be deemed to have entered into a lease with Landlord for the remainder of the initial Term, on the terms and conditions of this Lease prevailing immediately prior to the date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation (including without limitation, future Rent escalations (if any)) effective upon the effective date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation.

11.05 Permitted Transfers. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but on prior written notice to Landlord:

(a) assign this Lease to, and may in any event permit the Premises to be used and occupied in whole or in part by, any affiliated corporation of Tenant (as such term "affiliated corporation" is defined by· the Canada Business Corporations Act); or

(b) assign this Lease to any corporation with which Tenant merges or consolidates that is an affiliated corporation of Tenant; or

(c) grant concessions or licenses to use and occupy any part or parts of the Premises provided that: (i) the Premises continues to be carried on, and retains the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated single department store operated in accordance with the requirements of this Lease, (ii) at least 80% (by number) of the concessions or licenses granted shall be to licensees or concessionaires which operate in a majority of the Tenant's other stores in the greater Toronto area; and (iii) any such concessionaire, licensee or other occupant within the Premises is subject to the day-to-day operational control of the Tenant in matters related to general standards of the business carried on so as to enable the Tenant to ensure that such standards shall conform to the general standards of business of the Tenant itself.

ARTICLE 12.00 SURRENDER

12.01 Possession Upon the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease and in addition to the provisions of Article 12.02, Tenant will immediately quit and peaceably surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord: (i) in a vacant, clean and broom-swept condition with all of Tenant's signage, inventory, trade fixtures, racking and personal property removed; and (ii) without any material damage to the structural and building system elements of the Premises (inclusive, for certainty, of walls, ceilings, windows and storefronts) and with such building systems (inclusive of elevators and escalators) servicing the Premises in a working order, subject to reasonable wear and tear; but otherwise in an "as is, where is" condition and without any obligation to:

(A) return the Premises or any component thereof to an improved or better state of condition or operation than existing as of the Commencement Date; or

(B) to remove any leasehold improvements in the Premises installed pursuant to Article 7.04 hereof.

For greater clarity, it is the intention of the parties that Tenant shall have no obligation to make cosmetic or "wear and tear" type repairs to the Premises upon surrender (such as repainting or repairing holes in walls, floors or ceilings caused by the typical installation and removal of racking, trade fixtures etc.).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Landlord's intention is to demolish and/or redevelop the Premises following the expiry of the Term and not to re-tenant same, the Landlord shall advise the Tenant thereof in which event sub-paragraph (ii) above shall not apply.

Upon surrender, all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises will cease. If Tenant has registered a caveat, caution, memorandum notice or other instrument relating to this lease against title to the Land, it will cause the same to be released and discharged no later than 15 days following the expiry or termination date, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a release or discharge of a notice of this will be paid by Tenant.

12.02 Trade Fixtures, Personal Property and Improvements

(a) Subject to Article 7.05, all alterations, additions and improvements made or to be made upon or to the Premises (save any movable trade fixtures used in Tenant's enterprise) which in any manner are attached in, to or under the floors, walls or ceilings, including, without limitation, walk-in vaults, large water features such as pools, water basins and fountains and landscaping features, any component of any heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, sprinkler, plumbing or electrical equipment or systems, presently or in the future installed within or servicing the Premises, all lighting installations and fixtures including, without limitation, all spot lights and tracks and all floor finishes of whatever nature placed upon the floor of the Premises, all storefronts, doors and/or partitions, shall become Landlord's property at the time they are installed, and will be surrendered to Landlord at the expiry of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease without any compensation or indemnity payable to Tenant whatsoever.

(b) If Tenant leaves any property on the Premises following the expiry of the Term or earlier termination thereof which it is entitled to remove, then unless Landlord expressly notifies Tenant to remove such property, the ownership of such property will, at Landlord's option, be deemed to have been abandoned to Landlord, free and clear of all Tenant Security, notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary and whether or not Landlord chooses to become the owner of such items, they may be used, removed or disposed of by or on behalf of Landlord, as Landlord determines, without compensation payable to Tenant and without incurring any liability to Tenant.

12.03 Merger The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant or the cancellation of this Lease by mutual agreement of Tenant and Landlord will not work a merger, and will, at Landlord's option, either terminate all or any subleases and subtenancies or operate as an assignment to Landlord of all or any subleases and subtenancies. Landlord's option hereunder will be exercised by notice to Tenant and all sublessees or subtenants in the Premises or any part thereof known to Landlord. If Landlord does not give notice within a reasonable period of time after such cancellation of this Lease, then all such subleases will be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such cancellation.

12.04 Payments After Termination No payment of money by Tenant to Landlord after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease or after the giving of any notice by Landlord to Tenant, will reinstate, continue or extend the Term or make ineffective any notice given to Tenant prior to the payment of such money. After the service of notice or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment granting Landlord possession of the Premises, Landlord may receive and collect any sums of Rent due under this Lease, and the payment thereof will not make ineffective any notice, or in any manner affect any pending suit or any judgment theretofore obtained.

ARTICLE 13.00 HOLDING OVER

13.01 Month-to-Month Tenancy with Landlord Consent If with Landlord's written consent, Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises on a month-to month tenancy only, at a monthly rental equal to the Rent payable by Tenant during the last month immediately preceding the expiration of the Term or such other rental as is stated in such written consent, and such month-to-month tenancy may be terminated by Landlord or Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by delivery of at least one (1) month's advance written notice of termination to the other.

13.02 Month-to-Month Tenancy without Landlord Consent If without Landlord's written consent Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises upon a tenancy at sufferance only, at a monthly rental equal to two (2) times the Rent payable during the last month preceding the expiration or termination. Such tenancy at sufferance may be immediately terminated by Landlord at any time by notice of termination to Tenant, and by Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by at least 30 days' advance written notice of termination to Landlord.

13.03 General Any month-to-month tenancy or tenancy at sufferance hereunder will be subject to all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease except any right of renewal or extension and nothing contained in Article 13.00 will be construed to limit or impair any of Landlord's rights of re-entry or eviction or constitute a waiver thereof.

ARTICLE 14.00 RULES AND REGULATIONS

14.01 Purpose The Rules and Regulations in Exhibit D (the "Rules and Regulations") have been adopted by Landlord for the safety, benefit and convenience of all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre.

14.02 Observance Tenant will at all times comply with, and will cause its employees, servants, agents, licencees and invitees to comply with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect.

14.03 Modification Landlord may from time to time, for the purposes set out in Article 14.01, amend, delete from, or add to the Rules and Regulations, provided that any such modification:

(a) will not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any other provision of this Lease;

(b) will be reasonable and have general application to tenants in the Shopping Centre; and

(c) will be effective only upon delivery of a copy thereof to Tenant at the Premises.

14.04 Non-Compliance Landlord will use reasonable efforts to secure compliance by all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect, but will not be responsible to Tenant for failure of any person to comply with such Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 15.00 EXPROPRIATION

15.01 Expropriation Both Landlord and Tenant agree to cooperate with each other in respect of any expropriation of all or any part of the Premises or any other part of the Shopping Centre, so that each may receive from the Authority the maximum award to which each is respectively entitled by law. If any portion of the Shopping Centre other than the Premises is expropriated, then the proceeds accruing therefrom shall belong solely to Landlord, and Tenant shall abandon to Landlord any rights which Tenant may have by operation of law to such proceeds or award. Tenant will execute such documents as required to give effect to the foregoing.

If at any time during the Term, any material part of the Shopping Centre is expropriated or if access to the Premises is materially affected by such expropriation, then Landlord may terminate this Lease on written notice to Tenant, which termination will take effect on the earlier of the date of the expropriation or the taking of prior possession.

Whether the Lease is terminated or not, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord as a result of or arising from the expropriation of all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

If Landlord exercises its right of termination hereunder, this Lease will terminate on the date stated in the notice, provided, however, that no termination pursuant to notice hereunder may occur later than 60 days after the date (hereinafter "Date of Such Taking") on which the Authority takes possession of that part of the Shopping Centre so taken.

15.02 Surrender On any such date of termination under Article 15.01, Tenant will immediately surrender to Landlord the Premises and all interests therein under this Lease. Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and remove Tenant therefrom, and the Rent will abate on the date of termination, except that if the Date of Such Taking differs from the date of termination, Rent will abate on the former date.

15.03 Partial Taking of Premises If any portion of the Premises (but less than the whole thereof) is so taken, and no rights of termination herein conferred are timely exercised, the Term of this Lease will expire with respect to the portion so taken on the Date of Such Taking. In such event the Rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion so taken will abate on such date, and the Rent thereafter payable with respect to the remainder not so taken will be adjusted pro rata by Landlord in order to account for the resulting reduction of the Area of the Premises. After such adjustment, and on notice from Landlord stating the Rent then owing, Tenant will immediately pay Landlord such Rent.

ARTICLE 16.00 DAMAGE BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

16.01 Limited Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, can be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), Landlord will immediately at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, personal property or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired immediately by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.02 Major Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, cannot be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), then Landlord, or in the event that there is less than two (2) years remaining in the Term, Tenant, may elect to terminate this Lease as of the date of such casualty by written notice delivered to the other not more than 20 days after receipt of the Architect's opinion, failing which Landlord will forthwith at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, personal property or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on the behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired forthwith by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.03 Abatement If Landlord is required to repair damage to all or part of the Premises under Article 16.01 or 16.02, provided such damage is caused by a peril Landlord is required to insure against pursuant to Article 9.01, the Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease will be proportionately reduced to the extent that the Premises are thereby rendered untenantable by Tenant in its business, from the date of such casualty until five (5) days after completion by Landlord of the repairs to the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) or until Tenant again uses the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) in its business, whichever first occurs.

16.04 Major Damage or Destruction of Shopping Centre

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Lease and specifically, but without limitation, Article 16.01, if the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed (whether the Premises are affected or not), and (i) in the Architect's opinion, the damaged or destroyed portions cannot reasonably be repaired, restored or rebuilt within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the damage or destruction (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium); or (ii) the cost as estimated by the Architect, of repairing, restoring or rebuilding the damaged or destroyed portions would exceed the proceeds of insurance available to Landlord for such purpose; or (iii) the damage or destruction was caused by a peril for which Landlord was not insured and for which Landlord was not obliged to insure against; or (iv)intentionally deleted; ; or (v) less than two (2) years remains during the Term; or (vi) a Mortgagee will not consent to the use of insurance proceeds for repair or reconstruction; then in any of the above cases, Landlord may, at its option (to be exercised by written notice to Tenant within 30 days following any such occurrence) elect to terminate this Lease.

If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease, then the following provisions will apply:

(a) If the Premises become totally unfit for the use for which they were leased, the termination will take effect from the date of the damage or destruction and the Rent will cease to be payable and will be adjusted as of that date.

(b) If the Premises are partially damaged and Tenant has occupied any part of the Premises or any part of the Premises have been reasonably capable of being occupied from the date of the damage or destruction, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in the first paragraph of this Article 16.04 and the Rent will cease to be paid by Tenant as of the date of termination, however, Rent will abate from the date of the damage and destruction until the date of termination to the extent the Premises cannot reasonably be used for their intended purposes.

(c) If the Premises were not damaged, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in Article 16.00 and the Rent will cease to be paid from such date of termination.

If the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed and Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, subject to the following, Landlord shall commence and proceed diligently to reconstruct or repair those portions of the Shopping Centre which have been so damaged or destroyed to the extent only of Landlord's responsibilities pursuant to the terms of the various leases for premises in the Shopping Centre and exclusive of any tenants' responsibilities. Furthermore, if the Premises are being repaired or reconstructed, the provisions of Article 16.01 will apply.

If Landlord does any reconstruction or repairing of the Shopping Centre, Landlord may do any one or more of the following: (i) use plans, specifications and working drawings which differ from those applicable to the Shopping Centre existing prior to the damage or destruction provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; (ii) change the configuration, design and/or size of the Shopping Centre or any of its component parts including, without limitation, the location and size of any mall, court, entrance, parking facility or any of other Common Areas and Facilities provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; and (iii) redesign the tenant mix, both with respect to the kinds of uses which will be included in the tenant mix, as well as the physical location of the types of uses being operated prior to the damage or destruction. Tenant agrees that none of the foregoing shall constitute a default of Landlord's obligation to provide peaceable enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall it constitute a change of form or destination of the Shopping Centre, nor shall the validity or enforceability of this Lease be affected in any manner by any of the foregoing.

ARTICLE 17.00 TRANSFERS AND MORTGAGES BY LANDLORD

17.01 Sales, Conveyance and Assignment Nothing in this Lease (which term for purpose of this Article 17.00 includes any extension, renewal or replacement of this Lease) will restrict the right of Landlord to sell, convey, assign, mortgage or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Shopping Centre, subject only to the rights of Tenant under this Lease.

17.02 Effect of Sale, Conveyance or Assignment A sale, conveyance or assignment of the Shopping Centre will operate to release Landlord from liability from and after the date thereof upon all the covenants, terms and conditions of this Lease, express or implied, except as such may relate to the period prior to such effective date, and Tenant will thereafter look solely to Landlord's successor in interest in and to this Lease. This Lease will not be affected by any such sale conveyance or assignment, and Tenant will attorn to Landlord's successor in interest thereunder.

17.03 Definition of Mortgage, Mortgagee and Mortgagee's Interest. Each and every charge, mortgage, debenture or trust deed, now or hereafter registered against all or any part of the Shopping Centre is hereafter called a "Mortgage" which term includes all amounts advanced or to be advanced thereunder and all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. "Mortgagee" means a chargee or mortgagee named in a Mortgage, or the holder of a debenture or the trustee under a trust deed constituting a Mortgage, as the case may be; and "Mortgagee's Interest" means the estate or interest of the Mortgagee secured by a Mortgage.

17.04 Subordination of Mortgage to Lease. If this Lease or the estate or interest of Tenant thereunder (the "Tenant's Leasehold Interest") is subordinate to a Mortgage or Mortgagee's Interest now or at any time hereafter, then on written request of the Mortgagee or of Landlord on Mortgagee's behalf, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, the Mortgage and the Mortgagee's Interest will be postponed and made subordinate to this Lease and the Tenant's Leasehold Interest as if such Mortgage had been executed, delivered, registered and fully advanced after the execution, delivery and registration of this Lease, by means of an instrument of postponement and subordination, which will be entered into between Tenant and the Mortgagee, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that it complies with the terms and conditions of the Lease. Such instrument will be in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, consistent with this Article 17.04 and Article 17.07 and will be effective between the Mortgagee and Tenant when executed by them, without necessity for registration against title to the Shopping Centre; but if desired by the Mortgagee or Tenant, either of them may register such agreement or notice thereof and for that purpose the Mortgagee and Tenant will enter into any further document required to effect registration.

17.05 Attornment. If this Lease and Tenant's Leasehold Interest now or at any time hereafter is subordinate to a Mortgage and Mortgagee's Interest and the Mortgagee does not require a postponement and subordination instrument under Article 17.04, Tenant will on request of such Mortgagee or of Landlord on behalf of the Mortgagee, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, enter into an attornment agreement with such Mortgagee in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, whereby Tenant will agree that if default occurs under the Mortgage, and:

(a) the Mortgagee takes possession of the Premises, by obtaining and enforcing a court order to that effect or otherwise;

(b) the Mortgagee forecloses or otherwise acquires the interest of Landlord in the Premises, but does not foreclose the Tenant's Leasehold Interest; or

(c) the Mortgagee sells, conveys or assigns the Premises to another party (hereinafter a "Purchaser") pursuant to a power of sale or court order for sale which does not purport to sell the Premises free of the Tenant's Leasehold Interest,

Tenant will, on written demand of the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, attorn to and become the tenant of that person from and including the date the demand is received, for the balance of the term of this Lease (and with rights of renewal if any as provided in this Lease), at the rents and otherwise on the terms of this Lease, subject as hereinafter provided in Article 17.06, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that Tenant complies with, all the terms and conditions of the Lease.

17.06 Intentionally deleted.

17.07 Effect of Subordination or Attornment. No subordination effected under Article 17.04 and no attornment effected under Article 17.05 will render the Mortgagee or Purchaser, as the case may be:

(a) liable for any act or omission of Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(b) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(c) bound by any prepayment by Tenant of more than one month's instalment of Rent, or by any previous modification of this Lease, unless such prepayment or modification has been approved in writing by the Mortgagee or Purchaser or any predecessor in interest except Landlord.

Upon attornment occurring under Article 17.05, the relationship of landlord and tenant thereby created between the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, as Landlord, and Tenant as tenant, will supersede this Lease, but if the Mortgage is subsequently redeemed or put in good standing or the Mortgagee goes out of possession, the Mortgagee will be relieved of its obligations to Tenant as if a sale, conveyance or assignment had occurred to which Article 17.02 applied. Any attornment by Tenant to a Mortgagee or Purchaser will be without prejudice to the right (when applicable) of any other mortgagee or purchaser that has priority to the Mortgagee or Purchaser to demand that Tenant attorn to the other mortgagee or purchaser pursuant to the rights if any, of the other mortgagee or purchaser in that regard under Article 17.00. In case of such demand being lawfully made, and Tenant attorning to such other mortgagee or purchaser the attornment previously made to the Mortgagee or Purchaser will cease to be effective.

17.08 Tenant's Obligations May Be Assigned. Tenant acknowledges that its covenants and obligations under Article 17.00 are intended in whole or in part to operate for the benefit of any and all Mortgagees and Purchasers and that in obtaining such covenants and obligations Landlord is acting not only for itself, but also as trustee or agent for all such persons. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord may assign the benefit of such covenants and obligations to any and all Mortgagees or Purchasers who request same, as security or otherwise, and Tenant agrees that any such Mortgagee or Purchaser will be entitled on receiving such assignment and giving due notice thereof to Tenant, to enforce such covenant or obligation against Tenant to the same extent as if it were a party to this Lease directly entitled to the benefit of such covenants and obligations.

17.09 Execution of Instruments. Except as otherwise provided in Article 17.00, the subordination and attornment provisions herein will be self-operating and no further instrument will be required. Nevertheless Tenant, on request by and without cost to Landlord, any Mortgagee, Purchaser or successor in interest, will execute and deliver any and all instruments further evidencing such subordination and/or attornment when applicable.

17.10 Intentionally deleted.

17.11 Intentionally deleted.

17.12 Notice of Lease Tenant may register at its sole cost and expense (including, without limitation, payment of all registration fees, land transfer duties and similar taxes or charges, costs of plan preparation and registration and all legal fees and disbursements related to such registration) a notice of this Lease (the "Registration Document"), provided and subject to the following:

(a) the Registration Document will be prepared by Tenant at its sole cost in a form acceptable to Landlord, and same will be approved in writing by Landlord prior to its registration;

(b) the Registration Document will only disclose the names of the parties to this Lease, the Premises, and the Commencement Date and the expiry date of the Term, and any right of renewal. The Registration Document will not disclose any information concerning the rent or rental rates to be paid, nor any other financial provisions of this Lease;

(c) the Registration Document will be registered againstthat part of the Lands designated by the Landlord in its sole discretion. . In the event any portion of the Land ceases to form part of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will, forthwith upon request from Landlord, cause its registration to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from the title to such portion all at its own expense;

(d) Tenant will provide Landlord with a copy of the Registration Document and registration particulars thereof, once registration has been effected; and

(e) Upon the expiry or early termination of this Lease, Tenant will, at its sole expense, cause the Registration Document to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from title to the Site and Shopping Centre and to provide proof of such action to Landlord, within 15 days of such expiry or early termination, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a discharge of any Registration Document will be paid by Tenant.

17.13 Easements and Rights-of-Way Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord has granted or otherwise created and may in the future grant or otherwise create licence(s), easements(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s) over, through, upon or otherwise affecting portions of the Common Areas and Facilities. Tenant hereby consents to the granting or other creation of such licence(s), easements(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s).

17.14 Severance of Land In addition to and upon the same basis, mutatis mutandis, as set out in Article 6.04, Landlord will have the right from time to time to subdivide and to transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any portion or portions of the Land. Any such subdivision may be accomplished by any means Landlord may consider desirable and the description of the Land will be changed accordingly.

ARTICLE 18.00 NOTICES, ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, AUTHORITIES FOR ACTION

18.01 Notices Any notice from one party to the other under this Lease will be in writing and will be deemed duly given, if delivered personally, by an authorized representative of Tenant or Landlord or by courier, or bailiff to the party being given such notice or to a responsible employee of the party being given such notice, or if mailed in Canada by registered or certified mail addressed to Tenant at the address described in Article 1.01, or to Landlord at the address described in Article 1.01 of this Lease. Any notice will be deemed to have been given at the time of personal delivery, or if mailed, on the third (3rd) postal delivery date after the date of mailing thereof or the date of refusal thereof. Either party will have the right to designate by notice, in the manner above set forth, a different address to which notices are to be given. If it is reasonably anticipated that, due to mail service being disrupted, such notice, if mailed, will not be received by the third (3rd) postal delivery day following mailing, then such notice must be personally delivered as provided in this Article 18.01 or, in lieu of mailing, sent by the most reasonably expeditious means of delivery available to the address for mailing and will be deemed duly given upon such delivery. Notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary, notices shall not be sufficiently given if delivered or transmitted by facsimile or other electronic means.

18.02 Acknowledgments Within ten (10) days after written request therefor by Landlord, Tenant shall deliver an Estoppel Certificate addressed to any Person (other than the Landlord) designated by Landlord, in the form annexed as Exhibit F or such other substantially similar form which Landlord may submit to Tenant.

18.03 Authorities for Action Landlord may act in any matter provided for herein by its property manager, Management Company or any other person who will from time to time be designated by Landlord by notice to Tenant. Tenant will designate in writing one or more persons to act on its behalf in any matter provided for herein and may from time to time change, by notice to Landlord, such designation. In the absence of any such designation, the person or persons executing this Lease for Tenant will be deemed to be authorized to act on behalf of Tenant in any matter provided for in this Lease.

ARTICLE 19.00 DEFAULT

19.01 Interest and Costs Tenant will pay to Landlord the Interest Rate upon all Rent required to be paid under this Lease from the due date for payment thereof until the same is fully paid and satisfied. Tenant will indemnify Landlord against all costs and charges (including legal fees) reasonably incurred in enforcing payment thereof, and in obtaining possession of the Premises after default of Tenant or upon expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, or in enforcing any covenant, proviso or agreement of Tenant contained in this Lease.

19.02 Right of Landlord to Perform Covenants All covenants and agreements to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be performed by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and without abatement of Rent. If Tenant fails to perform any act on its part to be performed under this Lease, and such failure continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord, Landlord may (but will not be obligated so to do) perform such act without waiving or releasing Tenant from any of its obligations relative thereto. All sums paid or costs incurred by Landlord in so performing such acts under this Article 19.02, together with interest thereon at the rate set out in Article 19.01 from the date each such payment was made or each such cost was incurred by Landlord, plus 20% of such costs for Landlord's administration and overhead, will be payable by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

19.03 Events of Default If and whenever:

(a) Part or all of the Rent hereby reserved is not paid when due, whether lawfully demanded or not, and such default continues after five (5) business days' notice by Landlord, provided that if Tenant is no longer obligated to pay Incremental Rent, the aforesaid five (5) business day period shall be deemed extended to fifteen (days) after notice by Landlord; ; or

(b) Tenant fails to observe, perform and keep each and every of the covenants, agreements, provisions, stipulations and conditions herein contained to be observed, performed and kept by Tenant (other than payment of Rent) and persists in such failure after thirty (30) days' notice by Landlord specifying with reasonable particularity the nature of such failure and requiring that Tenant remedy, correct, desist or comply (or if any such breach would reasonably require more than thirty (30) days to rectify, unless Tenant commences rectification within the thirty (30) day notice period and thereafter promptly, effectively and continuously proceeds with the rectification of the breach to completion of rectification); or

(c) any goods, chattels or equipment of Tenant is taken or exigible in execution or in attachment or if a writ of execution is issued against Tenant; or

(d) Tenant becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy or becomes bankrupt or takes the benefit of any statute that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or becomes involved in voluntary or involuntary winding-up or dissolution or liquidation proceedings or if a receiver will be appointed for the business, property, affairs or revenues of Tenant; Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall provide Landlord with: (i) 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (i) hereof, to the extent Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action, (iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (iv) 5 business day prior written notice of the Tenant signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s); or

(e) any person other than Tenant or a Transferee permitted under this Lease has or exercises the right to manage or control the Premises, any part thereof or any business carried on in the Premises, other than subject to the actual, direct and full supervision and control of Tenant; or

(f) Tenant makes a bulk sale of its goods or moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its goods, chattels or equipment out of the Premises (other than in the normal course of its business) or Tenant ceases to conduct business from the Premises or the Premises are not open for business to the public on any three (3) consecutive days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises or on more than five (5) days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises in any twelve (12) month period; or

(g) a Transfer is effected or any Tenant Security is granted in any manner other than as permitted by this Lease; or

(h) a default of the monetary obligations of the tenant (which is not remedied within the cure period provided for in such new lease) occurs under any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties, where such default would constitute a "cross default" event as set out in such new lease or any other agreement entered into by and between Tenant and Landlord (and/or its or their affiliates):

(i) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(ii) Mapleview;

(iii) Southgate;

(iv) Guilford;

(v) Oshawa;

(vi) Galeries d'Anjou;

(vii) CrossIron Mills

(viii) St. Foy;

(ix) Outlet collection Winnipeg; or

(x) Vaughan Mills (such lease at Vaughan Mills, together with the aforesaid leases at CrossIron Mills, St. Foy and Outlet Collection Winnipeg being collectively, the "Other Saks Leases"),

then and in any of such cases, at the option of Landlord, the full amount of the current month's and the next ensuing three (3) months instalments of Rent will immediately become due and payable together with all tenant allowance monies paid to Tenant or the value of other inducements given to Tenant (such as, but not limited to, rent-free periods) in accordance with the provisions of this Lease or any other agreement between Landlord and Tenant relating to the Premises (such allowances and inducements hereinafter referred to as "Tenant Inducements") and Landlord may immediately take legal proceedings for the same, together with any arrears then unpaid; and Landlord may without notice or any form of legal process forthwith re-enter upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and expel all Persons from the Premises and remove and sell or dispose of Tenant's goods, personal property and trade fixtures therefrom as Landlord sees fit, or store property such at the cost of Tenant, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding all without liability and loss or damage and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover arrears of Rent or damages for any antecedent default by Tenant of its obligations or agreements under this Lease or of any term or condition of this Lease, and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover from Tenant damages for loss of Rent suffered by reason of this Lease having been prematurely terminated. Any such sale may be effected in the discretion of Landlord by public auction or otherwise, and either in bulk or by individual item, or partly by one means and partly by another, all as Landlord in its entire discretion may decide. If any of Tenant's property is disposed of as provided in this Article 19.03, ten (10) days prior notice to Tenant of disposition will be deemed to be commercially reasonable.

19.04 Waiver of Exemption and Redemption. Notwithstanding anything contained in any statute now or hereafter in force limiting or abrogating the right of distress, none of Tenant's goods, chattels or trade fixtures on the Premises at any time during the continuance of the Term will be exempt from levy by distress for Rent in arrears and upon any claim being made for such exemption by Tenant or on distress being made by Landlord this agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel against Tenant in any action brought to test the right to the levying upon any such goods as are named as exempted in any such statute, Tenant hereby waiving all and every benefit that could or might have accrued to Tenant under and by virtue of any such statute but for this Lease. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being evicted or dispossessed for any cause, or in the event of Landlord obtaining possession of the Premises, by reason of the violation by Tenant of any terms and conditions of this Lease or otherwise.

19.05 Surrender If and whenever Landlord is entitled to or does re-enter, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving notice thereof, and in such event Tenant will forthwith vacate and surrender the Premises.

19.06 Payments If Landlord re-enters or if this Lease is terminated, Tenant will pay to Landlord on demand:

(a) Rent up to the time of re-entry or termination, whichever will be the later, plus three (3) months' accelerated rent as herein provided; and

(b) all expenses incurred by Landlord in performing any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, re-entering or terminating and re-letting, collecting sums due or payable by Tenant, realizing upon assets seized (including brokerage, legal fees and disbursements), and the expense of keeping the Premises in good order, repairing the same and preparing them for re-letting; and

(c) as damages (subject to the Landlord's obligation to mitigate at law) for the loss of income of Landlord expected to be derived from the Premises, the amounts (if any) by which the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease exceeds the payments (if any) received by Landlord from other tenants in the Premises, payable on the first (1st) day of each month during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term had it not been terminated, or if elected by Landlord by notice to Tenant at or after re-entry or termination, a lump sum amount equal to the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease from the date of such election during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term, had it not been terminated, reduced by the rental value of the Premises for the same period, established by reference to the terms and conditions upon which Landlord re-lets them if such re-letting is accomplished within a reasonable period after termination, and otherwise established by reference to all market and other relevant circumstances; Rent and rental value being reduced to present worth at an assumed interest rate of ten percent (10%) on the basis of Landlord's estimates and assumptions of fact which will govern unless shown to be erroneous; and

(d) all Tenant Inducements given by Landlord to Tenant in respect of the Premises.

19.07 Remedies Cumulative No reference to nor exercise of any specific right or remedy by Landlord will prejudice or preclude Landlord from exercising or invoking any other remedy in respect thereof, whether allowed at law or expressly provided for in this Lease. No such remedy will be exclusive or dependent upon any other such remedy, but Landlord may from time to time exercise any one or more of such remedies independently or in combination.

19.08 Waiver In the event Tenant is in default in performing any of its obligations (including without limitation, the payment of any Rent), and Landlord shall have instituted proceedings to cancel, terminate or to confirm its cancellation or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall not have any right to prevent such cancellation or termination by remedying its default or defaults subsequent to the institution of such legal proceedings.

19.09 Intentionally deleted.

19.10 Additional Recourses If Tenant is in default to fulfill any of its obligations under this Lease and in particular its obligations pursuant to Articles 5.03, 5.10 and 18.02 of this Lease, then in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights or recourses of Landlord hereunder, Landlord may, at its option, obtain injunctive relief to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do, Tenant hereby expressly acknowledging and agreeing that this Article 19.10 constitutes a waiver against any defense to Landlord's application for injunctive relief made to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do.

19.11 Non-Waiver No condoning, excusing or over-looking by either party of any default by the other at any time in respect of any of its obligations shall operate as a waiver of Landlord's or Tenant's rights hereunder in respect of any such default or any subsequent default or so as to defeat or affect in any way the rights of Landlord or Tenant in respect of any such default or subsequent default. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by anything done or omitted to be done by Landlord or Tenant save only where such waiver is expressed in writing. Without limiting the general application hereof, the acceptance of any sums of money, statements of account or reports that Tenant or Landlord must pay or provide pursuant to this Lease, shall not constitute a renunciation of the rights of Landlord or Tenant in virtue of theses presents.

19.12 Shopping Centre Assets Only the Shopping Centre assets and any property exclusively related thereto shall serve to satisfy the obligations of Landlord under this Lease or in virtue of any responsibility of Landlord resulting from its fault. Tenant recognizes and declares, without reserve, that any recourse by Tenant against Landlord based on, or in virtue of, this Lease or resulting from any fault of Landlord, shall be restricted and can only be executed against the Shopping Centre, to the exclusion of all other property belonging to Landlord.

19.13 Real Estate Investment Trust In the event that a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") should be at any time bound by the covenants of Landlord hereunder or incur any liability as Landlord hereunder, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease or at law, such covenants and liability hereunder and under all other agreements entered into pursuant hereto, if any, shall not be personally binding upon and resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse of satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the trustees of the REIT, unitholders of the REIT, annuitants under a plan of which the REIT or any unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the REIT or directors or officers of any of its nominees, although this provision shall not constitute a bar to any action against the REIT for specific performance of this Lease or performance of any obligation of the REIT arising from or in connection with its obligations, if any, under this Lease or other agreements entered into pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 20.00 ARTICLE 1.00 INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

ARTICLE 21.00 MISCELLANEOUS

21.01 Relationship of Parties Nothing contained in this Lease will create any relationship between parties to this Lease other than that of landlord and tenant, and it is acknowledged and agreed that Landlord does not in any way or for any purpose become a partner of Tenant in the conduct of its business, or a joint venturer or a member of a joint or common enterprise with Tenant.

21.02 Consent Not Unreasonably Withheld Except as otherwise specifically provided, whenever consent or approval of Landlord or Tenant is required under the terms of this Lease, such consent or approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant's sole remedy if Landlord unreasonably withholds or delays consent or approval will be an action for specific performance, and Landlord will not be liable for damages. If either party withholds any consent or approval, such party will on written request deliver to the other party a written statement giving the reasons therefor.

21.03 Applicable Law and Interpretation This Lease will be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located, and its provisions will be interpreted as a whole according to their common meaning and not strictly for or against Landlord or Tenant. The words "Landlord" and "Tenant" will include the plural as well as the singular. If this Lease is executed by more than one party as Tenant, Tenant's obligations under this Lease will be joint and several obligations of such executing parties. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions. The captions of the Articles are included for convenience only, and will have no effect upon the interpretation of this Lease.

Certain text in this Lease has been bolded and underlined and certain text has been deleted by way of a line through applicable text. Such bolding and underlining and lines through the applicable text have been used to identify changes to Landlord's standard form of lease for the Shopping Centre. All bolded and underlined text will be read as if not bolded and underlined and all text deleted by way of a line will be deemed not to exist.

21.04 Entire Agreement This Lease (together with any other agreement entered into by the Landlord, the Tenant and/or its or their affiliates as a pre-condition to the execution of this Lease), contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Lease and except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Lease, this Lease supersedes and revokes all previous negotiations, arrangements, letters of intent, offers to lease, lease proposals, brochures, agreements, representations, promises, warranties, understandings, and information conveyed, whether oral or in writing, between the parties hereto or their respective representatives or any other person purporting to represent Landlord or Tenant. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it has not relied upon any statement, representation, agreement or warranty except such as are expressly set out in this Lease.

21.05 Amendment or Modification Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, no amendment, modification, or supplement to this Lease will be valid or binding unless set out in writing and executed by the parties hereto in the same manner as the execution of this Lease.

21.06 Construed Covenants and Severability All of the provisions of this Lease are to be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words importing such covenants and agreements were used in each separate Article hereof. If any term, proviso, covenant or condition of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is to any extent held or rendered invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal it or its application will be considered separate and severable from this Lease to such extent and the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term, proviso, covenant or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is held invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal will not be affected thereby and will continue to be applicable and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

21.07 No Implied Surrender or Waiver No provisions of this Lease will be deemed to have been waived by Landlord unless such waiver is in writing signed by Landlord. Landlord's waiver of a breach of any term or condition of this Lease will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a breach, from having all the force and effect of any original breach. Landlord's receipt of Rent with knowledge of a breach by Tenant of any term or condition of this Lease will not be deemed a waiver of such breach. Landlord's failure to enforce against Tenant or any other tenant in the Shopping Centre any of the Rules and Regulations made under Article 14.00 will not be deemed a waiver of such Rules and Regulations. No act or thing done by Landlord, its agents or employees during the Term will be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept a surrender of the Premises will be valid, unless in writing signed by

Landlord. The delivery of keys to any of Landlord's agents or employees will not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises. No payment by Tenant, or receipt by Landlord, of a lesser amount than the Rent due under this Lease will be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated Rent, nor will any endorsement or statement on any cheque or any letter accompanying any cheque, or payment as Rent, be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such cheque or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Rent or pursue any other remedy available to Landlord.

21.08 Additional Costs Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Rent, upon written request therefore, any and all costs, including without limitation, costs of additional security, cleaning and legal costs, incurred by Landlord as a result of picketing, demonstration or other activity within the Shopping Centre which is initiated by members of any organization, including, without limitation, a trade union, and which is directed at Tenant, its contractors, subcontractors, suppliers or employees or at Tenant's operations in the Shopping Centre.

21.09 Successors Bound Except as otherwise specifically provided, the covenants terms and conditions contained in this Lease will apply to and bind the heirs, successors, executors, administrators and permitted assigns of the parties hereto.

21.10 Brokerage Commission Any brokerage commissions with respect to the present transaction shall be borne exclusively by Tenant and Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any and all claims for payment of commission with respect thereto, unless Landlord has given a specific written mandate to any broker or agent for the present transaction.

21.11 Confidentiality Tenant agrees to keep the terms and conditions of this Lease confidential. Any information pertaining to this Lease cannot be communicated or revealed to a third party without the written consent of Landlord whose refusal will be deemed reasonable if the information that would be communicated or revealed is of a financial nature. Tenant's failure to respect this Article 21.11 is acknowledged by Tenant to constitute a major prejudice to Landlord and also a default according to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

21.12 No Offer by Landlord Landlord will not be deemed to have made an offer to Tenant by preparing this Lease. No agreement respecting the Premises will arise or exist between the parties hereto except through the due execution of this Lease by both Tenant and Landlord. Upon execution and delivery by Tenant to Landlord, this Lease will be irrevocable by Tenant and open for acceptance by Landlord until 5:00 P.M. on the 60th day thereafter, and if not accepted by Landlord by then, may be withdrawn by Tenant by notice to Landlord at any time prior to its later acceptance by Landlord.

21.13 Time of Essence Time shall be of the essence of this Lease in respect to all of the agreements and obligations of Tenant and/or Landlord contained herein.

21.14 Force Majeure If any party hereto is bona fide delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any term, obligation or act required hereunder by reason of Force Majeure, then performance of such term, obligation or act is excused for the period during which the cause of the Force Majeure persists. Once the cause of this Force Majeure has ceased, the party so delayed shall perform such terms, obligations or acts within the time period stipulated in the Lease, without regard for such period of time during which the cause of the Force Majeure persisted.

21.15 Non-Smoking Shopping Centre The Shopping Centre is a non-smoking facility. Tenant, its employees, invitees, customers, and anyone for whom Tenant is responsible at law are strictly prohibited from smoking in any interior or exterior areas of the Shopping Centre, except those exterior areas designated by Landlord as designated smoking areas (if any). Tenant agrees that it will comply with the foregoing restriction as well as any applicable legislation regulating smoking in shopping centres.

Counterpart Execution This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement, effective when all counterparts have been signed. The parties hereto agree that this Lease may be signed either by paper signature or by electronic signature and may be delivered electronically (in .pdf format) or otherwise, and the parties accept any such electronic signatures as original signatures of the parties.

ARTICLE 22.00 TENANT ALLOWANCE

Landlord shall pay to Tenant a payment (the "Tenant Allowance") in an amount equal to CDN$10,000,000 plus applicable GST upon (a) mutual execution of this Lease; (b) satisfaction of all other pre-conditions to such payment as set out in any other agreement by and between Landlord and Tenant; and (c) issuance by Tenant of an invoice to Landlord containing all prescribed information required by Landlord to validly support its claims for input tax credits.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have executed this indenture by their authorized officers in that behalf, or by Tenant's signature hereto if Tenant is not incorporated, as of the first date above written.

EXHIBIT C

EXHIBIT D
RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Security Landlord may from time to time adopt appropriate systems and procedures for the security or safety of the Shopping Centre, any persons occupying, using or entering the same, or any equipment, finishings or contents thereof, and Tenant will comply with Landlord's reasonable requirements relative thereto.

2. Return of Keys At the end of the Term, Tenant will promptly return to Landlord all keys for the Shopping Centre and Premises which are in possession of Tenant.

3. Repair, Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements Tenant will carry out Tenant's repair, maintenance, alterations and improvements in the Premises only during times agreed to in advance by Landlord and in a manner which will not interfere with the rights of other tenants in the Shopping Centre.

4. Water Fixtures Tenant will not use water fixtures for any purpose for which they are not intended, nor will water be wasted by tampering with such fixtures. Any cost or damage resulting from such misuse by Tenant will be paid for by Tenant.

5. Personal Use of Premises The Premises will not be used or permitted to be used for residential, lodging or sleeping purposes or for the storage of personal effects or property not required for business purposes.

6. Heavy Articles and Overloading Services Tenant will not place in or move about the Premises, without Landlord's prior written consent, any safe or other heavy article which in Landlord's reasonable opinion may damage the Shopping Centre, and Landlord may designate the location of any heavy articles in the Premises. Tenant will not overload any utility or service in or serving the Premises or any part of the Shopping Centre.

7. Animals, Bicycles, Shopping Carts Tenant will not bring any animals or birds into the Shopping Centre, and will not permit bicycles or other vehicles inside or on the sidewalks outside the Shopping Centre except in areas designated from time to time by Landlord for such purposes. Tenant shall not permit shopping carts in the Common Areas and Facilities and shall be fully responsible for their removal and indemnify Landlord from any claim, loss, expense, damages or injuries caused by the shopping carts.

8. Deliveries Tenant will ensure that deliveries or shipments of supplies, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, wares and merchandise to or from the Premises are made only through such delivery facilities, entrances, elevators and corridors and at such times as may from time to time be designated by Landlord, and will promptly pay or cause to be paid to Landlord the cost of repairing any damage in the Shopping Centre caused by any person making such deliveries or shipments.

9. Solicitations Landlord reserves the right to restrict or prohibit canvassing, soliciting or peddling in the Shopping Centre.

10. Food, Beverages and Entertainment Only persons approved from time to time by Landlord may prepare, solicit orders for, sell, serve or distribute foods or beverages in the Shopping Centre, or use the elevators, corridors or Common Areas and Facilities for any such purposes. Except with Landlord's prior written consent and in accordance with arrangements approved in writing by Landlord, Tenant will not permit on the Premises the use of equipment for dispensing food or beverages or for the preparation, solicitation of orders for, sale, serving or distribution of food or beverages or for the selling or providing of any form of entertainment, including vending machines or other machines operated by coins or other devices.

11. Refuse Tenant will separate and place all refuse in proper receptacles provided by Tenant at its expense in the Premises or in receptacles in recycling stations (if any) provided for the Shopping Centre, and will keep sidewalks and driveways outside the Shopping Centre, and lobbies, corridors, stairwells, ducts and shafts of the Shopping Centre, free of all refuse.

12. Obstructions Tenant will not obstruct or place anything in or on the sidewalks or driveways outside the Shopping Centre or in the lobbies, corridors, stairwells or other Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre, or use such locations for any purpose except access to and exit from the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent. Landlord may remove at Tenant's expense any such obstruction or thing (unauthorized by Landlord) without notice or obligation to Tenant.

13. Dangerous, Immoral or Hazardous Activities Tenant will not make any use of the Premises which involves the danger of injury to any person, nor will same be used for any immoral purpose or to commit any act of waste or damage to any part of the Premises or to use any part of the Premises so as to constitute a hazard.

14. Proper Conduct Tenant will not conduct itself in any manner which is inconsistent with the character of the Shopping Centre as being of first quality or which will impair the comfort and convenience of other tenants in the Shopping Centre. Such prohibited conduct will include the playing of loud music and the placing of merchandise racks in the Common Areas and Facilities.

15. Parking Landlord, from time to time, may prohibit Tenant, Tenant's employees and Tenant's suppliers and others making deliveries to or receiving shipments from the Premises from parking anywhere within the Shopping Centre. If Landlord designates Tenant parking areas in the Shopping Centre, Tenant will park its vehicles and will cause its employees to park their vehicles only in such designated parking areas. Tenant will furnish Landlord, upon request, with the current licence numbers of all vehicles owned or used by Tenant or its employees and Tenant thereafter will notify Landlord of any changes in such numbers within five (5) days after the occurrence thereof. In the event of failure of Tenant or its employees to park their vehicles in such designated parking areas, Tenant will forthwith on demand pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the sum of $20.00 per day per each car so parked. Landlord reserves the right to impose reasonable charges upon any person (including the general public) for the use of any parking facilities which may from time to time form a part of the Shopping Centre.

16. Sustainability Tenant shall implement energy-efficient practices within the Premises, including closing all window shades, turning off any unnecessary lights and equipment after the close of business day.

    Tenant will keep any exterior doors and windows to the Premises closed during the periods where there is a variation of three (3) degrees Celsius or more between indoor and outdoor temperatures.

    Tenant will turn off interior mall signage and display window lighting half-an-hour after closing until half-an-hour before opening time the next day (the "After-Hours Period"), or as Landlord deems appropriate.

    Tenant will limit After-Hours Period interior lighting to emergency lighting, when the Premises are not occupied.

    Where Tenant has the ability to control its HVAC for the Premises, Tenant will adjust the HVAC temperature settings so as to limit the Premises' energy consumption during the After-Hours Period by setting back the temperature of the Premises by six (6) degrees Celsius from the daytime temperature setting.

    Tenant will not use space heaters in or for the Premises, unless Tenant first obtains Landlord's written consent.

    If Landlord leak tests for Tenant's plumbing fixtures reveal water leaks or other defects, Landlord will notify Tenant of such defects and Tenant will take all necessary actions to diligently remedy said effects.

    In addition to the requirements set out under Article 20.05 of the Lease, Tenant will comply with Landlord's waste minimization and diversion rules and regulations, as established from time to time.

    Tenant will make available an appropriate staff representative to attend Landlord's information and training sessions relating to Landlord's initiatives for improving the Shopping Centre's operational sustainability.

1.03 Shopping Centre: Place Ste-Foy

1.04 Area: [*SqFtArea] 33,254 square feet.

1.05 Term: A period of ten (10) years, beginning on the 3rd day of February, 2024, and expiring on the 2nd day of February, 2034, unless terminated earlier or renewed as provided in this Lease. The options in favor of Tenant in the Original Lease to renew or extend the term thereof shall equally apply in respect of this Term on the same terms as the renewal or extension options set out in the Original Lease, save and except that (a) in no event shall the final expiry date of this Term (as may be so renewed or extended) be later than what would have been the final expiry date of the term of the Original Lease after the exercise of all renewal or extension options had it not been terminated and replaced by this Lease; and (b) the Tenant shall continue to have the obligation to pay the Incremental Rent throughout this Term (as may be further renewed including during any renewal of the Term pursuant to the renewal or extension options incorporated in this Lease from the Original Lease), as set out in Section 1.09 of this Lease.

1.06 Intentionally deleted.

1.07 Permitted Use of Premises: The Premises shall be used for the purposes of the operation of an off -price retail store selling better quality apparel, accessories, shoes, handbags, jewellery and other better quality merchandise as is typically sold from time to time in Tenant's similar off -price retail stores in Canada operating under the name "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th»", "Off 5th - Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" (or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the other similar off -price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada) and in other similar off -price retail stores selling better quality merchandise currently operating in North America, such as, by way of example only and without limitation, those off -price retail stores operating under the names "Nordstrom Rack", "Holt Renfrew's HR2", and "Nieman Marcus Last Call". Tenant further covenants that, if and for so long as the Shopping Centre is being managed and operated by Landlord as a first-class shopping centre in accordance with the highest standards of the shopping centre industry, Tenant shall carry on its business in and from the Premises as an off-price retail store in a first class manner in keeping with the said standards of the shopping centre industry.

Tenant will carry on its business in the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not do or omit to do anything or permit or suffer anything to be done upon the Premises that will result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

Subject to the provisions of Article 11.00 of this Lease, Tenant may operate, or cause to be operated, the department or departments within the Premises, in whole or in part, by licensees, sub-tenants and/or concessionaires, provided that the Premises continue to be carried on, and retain the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated, and not a multiple tenant, off -price retail store. Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not do or omit to do anything or permit or suffer anything to be done upon the Premises that will result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

Notwithstanding any stipulation in this Lease to the contrary, Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any call centre operation (iii) a store conducted principally for the sale of war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (iv) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire; (v) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (vi) an auction sale; and (vii) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre. Tenant further covenants that, if and for so long as the Shopping Centre is being managed and operated by Landlord as a first-class shopping centre in accordance with the highest standards of the shopping centre industry, Tenant shall carry on its business in and from the Premises as an off-price retail store or other permitted use hereunder in a first-class manner in keeping with the said standards of the shopping centre industry.

Landlord hereby warrants and represents to Tenant that, as of the date of the Original Lease, Landlord has granted the restrictive covenants and/or exclusive rights of use set out in Schedule C hereto to or in favor certain other tenants of the Shopping Centre or in favor of other third parties as referenced in said Schedule C (the "Restricted Uses"). For greater certainty, Tenant hereby acknowledges and agrees that, if and for so long as each of the Restricted Uses granted by Landlord to the respective persons (including their respective successors and assigns) remains unamended and in full legal force and effect, Tenant shall not use the Premises or permit the Premises to be used for the operation of any business or the sale of any merchandise or services that would cause Landlord to be in default of any such Restricted Uses.

If at any time during the Term less than the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises is occupied and open to the public for business for a period exceeding two (2) months for any reason other than Force Majeure (as that term is hereinafter defined), damage or destruction, permitted alterations, repair or rebuilding, and/or a permitted assignment or sublet to a third party, Landlord shall thereafter have the right to terminate this Lease while such cessation of operation continues by giving Tenant no less than thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof, provided that Tenant may nullify such notice of termination and this Lease shall not be terminated if Tenant reopens the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises to the public for business prior to the termination date specified in Landlord's notice and thereafter continues to keep the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises open for business for at least twelve (12) consecutive months (failing which Landlord's termination of the Lease shall be effective immediately upon Tenant ceasing to operate during the aforementioned 12-month period). In the event that Tenant nullifies Landlord's notice of termination as aforesaid, the provisions of this 1.07 shall continue to apply throughout the balance of the Term.

1.08 Tenant's Store Name: "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th», "Off 5th - Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" (or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the other similar off -price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada). Tenant shall not operate its business under any other name or trade name without having first obtained Landlord's prior written consent.

1.09 Gross Rent: Throughout the Term (inclusive of all renewals or extensions thereof), an annual aggregate amount equal to: (A) 3.5% of Gross Sales (as hereinafter defined) made from the Premises during each Percentage Rent Lease Year (as hereinafter defined), payable pursuant to Article 4.00; and (B) the Incremental Rent (the "Gross Rent"). The Landlord shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, at its entire discretion, upon written notice to the Tenant, to re-allocate the amount of the Incremental Rent allocated to this Lease and to any one or more of the Other Saks Leases and in this regard the Tenant shall have the obligation to enter into and execute all documents reasonably necessary as requested by the Landlord to implement such reallocation of Incremental Rent.

1.11 Intentionally deleted.

1.11.1 Intentionally deleted.

1.12 Intentionally deleted.

1.13 Intentionally deleted.

1.14 Utilities: Tenant shall pay utilities in accordance with the terms and conditions of Article 7.00.

1.15 Intentionally deleted.

1.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.17 Intentionally deleted.

1.18 Definitions: In this Lease:

1.18.1 "Additional Rent" means all amounts (other than Gross Rent) that Tenant is required to pay to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

1.18.2 Intentionally deleted

1.18.3 "Area" means the area expressed in square feet of all floors of the Premises measured from the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows or those separating the Premises from any Common Areas and Facilities, and the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises. The Area includes all interior space whether or not occupied by projections, structures or columns, openings, shafts, structural or non-structural. If a store front, show window or other part of the Premises is recessed from or protrudes beyond the lease line shown on Exhibit A (whether such recess or protrusion is located at or above ground level), the area of such recess or protrusion will be included in the Area. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Area of the Premises is that set out in Article 1.04 hereof.

1.18.4 "Architect" means the architect, engineer, land surveyor, designer or technician that Landlord names, as the case may be.

1.18.5 "Article" means an article of this Lease.

1.18.6 "Authority" or "Authorities" means the federal, provincial, and municipal governments, the courts, administrative and quasi-judicial boards and tribunals and any other organizations or entities with the lawful authority to regulate, or having a power or right conferred at law or by or under a statute over Landlord, Tenant, the Premises or the Shopping Centre, including the business carried on therein.

1.18.7 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.8 "Commencement Date" means the first day of the Term (effective as of 12:00am).

1.18.9 "Common Areas and Facilities" means all areas, services and facilities not installed or intended for the exclusive use or benefit of any individual tenant, including without limitation, all non-leasable areas, service and administrative areas (including, without limitation, administrative offices, janitorial rooms and storage rooms not reserved to any tenant exclusively), all parking areas, parking decks, roofs, roadways, sidewalks, landscaped areas, floor slabs, exterior walls and exterior and interior structural portions of any open or enclosed malls or other common means of access to leasable premises (excluding any structural mezzanines within any leasable premises), public lavatories, truck courts, common loading areas, driveways, music and public address systems, electrical, plumbing and drainage, fire protection, fire detection, heating, ventilation and/or air-conditioning systems or equipment servicing the Shopping Centre and/or more than one tenant, mall decorative or promotional installations, customer and service stairways, mall directories and directional signs, information booths, elevators, escalators and all other areas, services and facilities which Landlord provides or designates from time to time to be part of Common Areas and Facilities.

1.18.10 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.11 "Delivery Facilities" means those portions of the Common Areas and Facilities which are, from time to time, designated by Landlord as facilities to be used in common by Landlord, tenants of the Shopping Centre, and others, for purposes of loading, unloading, delivery, dispatch and holding of merchandise, goods and materials entering or leaving the Shopping Centre, and those portions of the Shopping Centre giving vehicular access to the said facilities.

1.18.12 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.13 "Environmental Law" means the statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority or of the common law which affect the Premises or Tenant's business, and which impose any obligations relating to the protection, conservation or restoration of the natural environment or to any contaminant, pollutant, dangerous substance, potentially dangerous substance, noxious substance, toxic substance, hazardous waste, flammable, explosive or radioactive material or any other substances or materials that are declared or defined to be hazardous, toxic, contaminants or pollutants in or pursuant to any applicable federal, provincial or municipal statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority.

1.18.14 "Fiscal Year" means a twelve (12) month period (all or part of which falls within the Term) from time to time determined by Landlord with the concurrence of the appropriate taxation authorities, at the end of which Landlord's books are balanced for auditing and/or taxation purposes.

1.18.15 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.17 "Force Majeure" means, if during the Term either party to this Lease will be unable to perform any of the terms, obligations, or conditions contained in this Lease due to strikes, walkouts (except for strikes or walkouts directly involving employees of Tenant), civil commotion, warlike operations, governmental regulations or controls, acts of God, pandemics, inability to procure materials or services, otherwise beyond the reasonable control of such party. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, nothing in this Force Majeure provision will relieve Tenant from payment of Rent as required in this Lease and insolvency or lack of funds will not relieve any party to this Lease from fulfillment of any obligation arising from any part of this Lease.

1.18.18 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.19 "Goods and Services Tax" or "GST" means all goods and services tax, value-added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST, Quebec Sales Tax or any other similar tax) howsoever characterized, which any taxing Authority imposes on Landlord and/or requires Landlord to collect on behalf of said taxing Authority, on any amount received or receivable by Landlord from Tenant under the terms of this Lease.

1.18.20 "Gross Rent" has the meaning given to it in Section 1.09 hereof.

ARTICLE 2.00 LEASE

2.01 Lease Landlord hereby leases the Premises to Tenant for the Term, and Tenant hereby leases the Premises from Landlord for the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.02 Quiet Enjoyment So long as Tenant performs its obligations under this Lease, Landlord will warrant and defend Tenant in the quiet enjoyment and possession of the Premises during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.03 Covenants of Landlord and Tenant Landlord covenants to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Landlord under this Lease. Tenant covenants to pay the Rent when due under this Lease, and to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Tenant under this Lease.

ARTICLE 3.00 TERM, POSSESSION AND TERMINATION OF ORIGINAL LEASE

3.01 Intentionally deleted.

3.02 Intentionally deleted.

3.03 Acceptance of Premises and Tenant Acknowledgements The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that: (a) it originally occupied the Premises pursuant to the Original Lease, and as of the date hereof, it continues to be in possession of the Premises (which possession by the Tenant was in place prior to the date hereof pursuant to the Original Lease); (b) it has accepted the Premises in an entirely "as is where is" condition basis without any representation, warranty or obligation on the part of the Landlord to perform any work or construct any leasehold or other improvements in the Premises or the Shopping Centre in connection with the Tenant's intended use thereof; (c) the continued possession of all or any portion of the Premises by the Tenant is conclusive evidence as against the Tenant that the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition as of the date hereof, (d) it is solely responsible (at its sole cost and expense and without any reimbursement from or contribution by the Landlord) for all improvements, fixtures or other movable property currently existing or which in the future may exist or may be required in, on or around the Premises and needed, required or used by the Tenant for the operation of its business from the Premises, and (e) it does not have any right of first refusal, right of first opportunity, option to purchase or any other right to acquire any interest or immovable real right in all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

3.04 Landlord's Option to Renew Landlord has, exercisable at its sole and entire and unfettered discretion by giving at least 12 months' prior written notice to the Tenant, the right to renew this Lease for an additional period of five (5) years on the same terms and conditions as set out herein (inclusive of the calculation and payment of Rent (inclusive, for certainty, of Incremental Rent)).

3.05 Resiliation of Original Lease Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that the Original Lease is resiliated effective on 11:59 pm on the date immediately preceding the Commencement Date (the "Termination Date"). The respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant with respect to the Premises and the Original Lease will be preserved and will survive the Termination Date, as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Termination Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to the Original Lease on or after the Termination Date. Any breach of the Original Lease which has not been cured will, after the Termination Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Original Lease. Tenant represents, warrants and covenants with Landlord that Tenant has the absolute right, full power and authority to agree to the resiliation of the Original Lease as provided herein.

3.05(A) Reinstatement of Original Lease.

Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that if at November 13, 2028 (the "Original Lease Reinstatement Date") no Event (as such term is hereinafter defined) has occurred or is continuing, and there is not then any default occurring of the Tenant's obligations under this Lease, failing which this provision shall not apply, then the parties shall execute and deliver to one another the Reinstated Original Lease (as defined below) which shall provide and confirm that effective upon the Original Lease Reinstatement Date: (1) this Lease shall be resolved, cancelled, surrendered and rescinded; and (2) the termination of the Original Lease shall be deemed to have been revoked and, except as expressly modified pursuant to this provision, the Original Lease shall be reinstated in its entirety effective as of the Original Lease Reinstatement Date and shall again be in full force and effect as if the same had never been terminated. However, the respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant as to the Premises under this Lease will be preserved and will survive the termination of this Lease on the Original Lease Reinstatement Date as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to this Lease on or after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date (given the Reinstated Original Lease will thereafter govern this tenancy). Any breach of this Lease which has not been cured will, after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of this Lease.

"Event" means the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) Tenant (or any of its affiliates) defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under this Lease or any HBC IC Lease (as hereinafter defined); or

(2) Tenant (a) is insolvent, (b) has committed an act of bankruptcy, and/or (c) has become bankrupt.

"HBC IC Lease" means any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties:

(i) Galeries D'Anjou

(ii) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(iii) Mapleview;

(iv) Southgate;

(v) Guilford;

(vi) Oshawa;

(vii) CrossIron Mills

(viii) Outlet collection at Niagara-on-the-lake;

(ix) Outlet collection Winnipeg; or

(x) Vaughan Mills.

"Reinstated Original Lease" means the Original Lease but reinstated and amended only to: incorporate Sections 1.05 and 1.09 hereof (and the corresponding definitions) such that (i) the Term thereof is the same as the Term in this Lease; (ii) the Tenant shall have the obligation to pay Incremental Rent during the remainder of the Term; (iii) any renewal or extension right shall include the obligation to pay Incremental Rent during each such renewal period and (iv) to amend/delete all provisions of the Original Lease that are inconsistent with the aforesaid said Sections. Landlord shall prepare the form of Reinstated Original Lease and the parties shall forthwith thereafter execute and deliver same to the other, each at its sole expense. In addition, Tenant shall execute such other documents contemplated in Section 3.05 hereof for the discharge of any registered documents relating to this Lease which Section 3.05 shall equally apply in this context, mutatis mutandis.

3.06 Limitation on Length of Term. This Lease is entered into subject to the express condition that it is to be effective to create any interest in land only if the provisions of any statute are complied with relating to the severance of land or interests in land by conveyance or otherwise (as it may from time to time be amended). Landlord and Tenant agree, as a separate and distinct agreement, that if pursuant to any statute consent is requisite to the validity of this Lease, either party may apply for such consent and until unconditional consent has been obtained, the Term of this Lease or any renewal thereof will not extend beyond the period permitted without consent pursuant to any such statute, with no further right on the part of Tenant to extend the term, notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease.

ARTICLE 4.00 RENT

4.01 Gross Rent Tenant will pay to Landlord a Gross Rent for the Premises described in Article 1.09 of this Lease, payable monthly in arrears within twenty (20) days following the end of each calendar month during the Term. The Incremental Rent component of the Gross Rent will be payable in equal monthly installments at the same time that the balance of the Gross Rent is due pursuant to the preceding sentence. Along with the monthly payment of Gross Rent, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement, which need not be certified, of the Gross Sales derived from the Premises for the prior month, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied. Within sixty (60) says after the end of each Percentage Rent Lease Year and within sixty (60) days after the end of the calculating period with respect to the first full Percentage Rent Lease Year, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement certified by an officer of Tenant showing the Gross Sales derived from the Premises during such Percentage Rent Lease Year and the amounts, if any, of Rent required to be paid by Tenant or credited to Tenant for any overpayment or underpayment of Rent for the Percentage Rent Lease Year, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied.

For purposes of calculating Rent under this Lease, the term «Percentage Rent Lease Year» as used in this Lease refers to the period from February 1 to the following January 31 of each year during the term of this Lease, provided that, if the Commencement Date is not February 1, then the first Percentage Rent Lease Year shall be for a period of less than twelve (12) consecutive months, commencing on the Rent Commencement Date and expiring on the following January 31, and further provided that any period of less than twelve (12) full calendar months occurring from and after February 1 at the expiry or earlier termination of the term shall be deemed to be a Percentage Rent Lease Year. The computation of Rent shall be made separately with regard to each Percentage Rent Lease Year or partial Percentage Rent Lease Year, as the case may be, it being understood and agreed that Gross Sales per any Percentage Rent Lease Year and Rent due thereon shall have no bearing on Gross Sales of any other Percentage Rent Lease Year.

Full true and accurate records from which Gross Sales in any Percentage Rent Lease Year may be readily and correctly determined will be kept by Tenant, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the requirement to retain all sources of primary sales records (that is, cash register tapes, pre-numbered sales tickets, daily sales reports, etc.) and otherwise in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles until at least the fifth (5th) anniversary of the end of such Percentage Rent Lease Year. Landlord or any person designated by Landlord will have access to such records at any and all times during business hours for the purpose of examining and reviewing all the accounting records and procedures adopted by Tenant for the purpose of recording and control of all transactions affecting the determination of Gross Sales. For the sake of greater clarification, the parties hereto acknowledge that, in the event Landlord determines that Tenant has failed to report Gross Sales in accordance with its obligations contained herein, such failure shall constitute a default under this Lease and Landlord shall have the right to exercise its remedies under this Lease. Landlord will not disclose any confidential information so obtained except to the extent that disclosure is reasonable in the conduct of Landlord's business which includes, without limitation, the sale or financing of all or any part of the Shopping Centre.

Landlord shall be entitled to characterize the Rent, and to allocate the payment thereof to costs, expenses, taxes etc. incurred by or for which Landlord is responsible, in each case as Landlord may determine in its sole discretion.

4.02 Gross Sales The term "Gross Sales" as used in this Lease means the actual sale price of goods, wares and merchandise sold in, upon or from any part of the Premises, including actual receipts from services rendered by Tenant as well as the total actual sales and services rendered by any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Premises, including, without limitation, such sales, income, receipts, revenues and services which Tenant, any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Premises (collectively, "Other Occupants") in the normal and customary course of business would credit or attribute to its business upon the Premises or any part or parts thereof, provided, however, that the term "Gross Sales" shall not be deemed to mean and there shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" amounts representing: (i) amounts credited by Tenant or Other Occupants for returned or defective merchandise; (ii) amount of discount on sales to bona fide employees of Tenant and bona fide employees of any affiliates of Tenant; (iii) allowances granted to customers for damaged or defective merchandise; (iv) trade and other discounts; (v) GST and all other sales, excise and similar taxes levied upon sales made at the Premises; (vi) workroom charges for alterations, repairs or installation of merchandise sold, or similar services rendered in connection with merchandise sold; (vii) charges for services rendered primarily to accommodate customers or employees; (viii) charges for making deliveries, shipments or transfers of merchandise in the regular course of business; (ix) carrying charges on time sales; (x) fees and charges paid by Tenant or Other Occupants to issuers of third-party credit cards; (xi) charges for inter-store transfers of merchandise; (xii) sales of merchandise in bulk to non -retail customers; and (xiii) the proceeds of sales of trade fixtures, operating equipment or other property used by Tenant or Other Occupants in the operation of its business and not acquired by it for the purpose of sale. All exclusions from Gross Sales permitted herein must be documented to the reasonable satisfaction of Landlord to allow for complete and detailed verification of the validity of such exclusions. Any instalment or credit (which, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes lay-away sales, sales from coupons or gift cards, electronic or otherwise and certificates, or any other sale made where deposits are received by Tenant) will be included and treated as a sale for the full price in the month in which such sale is made regardless of whether or when Tenant receives payment in full.

4.04 Intentionally deleted.

4.06 Intentionally deleted.

4.07 Intentionally deleted.

4.08 Intentionally deleted.

4.09 Taxes Payable by Landlord

Landlord shall pay before the date due any and all Taxes levied, assessed or otherwise imposed upon the Premises and/or the remainder of the Shopping Centre throughout the Term. Tenant shall have no obligation to contribute to the payment of such Taxes as such Taxes are intentionally provided for in the Gross Rent provided for herein.

4.18 Payment of Rent – General During the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay Rent to Landlord in the manner provided in this Lease or if not so provided, as reasonably required by Landlord. All amounts payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease will be deemed to be Rent and will be payable and recoverable as Rent in the manner herein provided, and Landlord will have all rights and recourses against Tenant for default in any such payment as in the case of arrears of Rent. Rent will be paid to Landlord, without deduction, set-off or compensation, in legal tender of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located. If and to the extent Landlord so requires, Rent will be paid to Landlord, at Tenant's expense, by electronic funds transfer system or similar system whereby Tenant will authorize its bank, trust company, credit union or other financial institution to credit Landlord's bank account each month in an amount equal to the monthly Rent payable pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, otherwise, Rent will be paid to Landlord at the address of Landlord as set forth in the beginning of this Lease, or to such other Person or at such other address as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing.

Where Tenant makes payments of Rent by an electronic funds transfer system, Tenant shall notify Landlord by e-mail of the date of said electronic payment.

4.19 Rent – Adjustment for Partial Months If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the Commencement Date will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the Commencement Date to the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs (both the Commencement Date and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365. If the Term ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the first (1st) day of the last calendar month of the Term will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the first (1st) day of such last calendar month to the last day of the Term (both the first (1st) and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365.

4.20 Intentionally deleted.

4.11 Intentionally deleted.

ARTICLE 5.00 USE OF PREMISES

5.01 Use and Business Name The Premises will be used and occupied only for the purposes described in Article 1.07; nothing in this Article 5.01 shall create or be deemed to create an exclusivity in favour of Tenant.

The business of Tenant in the Premises will be carried on under the name and style described in Article 1.08 and under no other name and style unless approved by Landlord in writing.

5.02 Hours of Business During the Term of this Lease, Tenant will conduct its business in the Premises on such days and during such hours as is required, from time to time, by Landlord unless prevented from so doing by any Authority, however, nothing herein shall require the Premises or portions thereof to be open during hours other than those which have been generally established by the Tenant for the operation of its similar stores in the Greater Québec City Area. Tenant shall abide by all rules and regulations now or subsequently in force to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms of this Lease and are applied to Tenant in a non-discriminatory manner.

In the event Tenant fails to conduct its business in accordance with this Article 5.02 then Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.02.

5.03 Continuous Operations Tenant acknowledges that it forms part of an over-all merchandising mix designed to enhance the character, quality, image and reputation of the Shopping Centre, and that its continuous operation of the Premises is essential to Landlord to maintain that character, quality, image, nature and reputation and to facilitate the leasing of vacant space and renewing leases of existing tenants. Tenant therefore, provided the Landlord is operating the Shopping Centre in accordance with this Lease in all material respects, covenants and agrees that throughout the Term it will continuously occupy and operate in the entire Premises, comply strictly with the provisions of Article 5.02 and not vacate or abandon the Premises at any time during the Term. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is executing this Lease in reliance thereupon and that the same is a material element inducing Landlord to execute this Lease. Tenant further agrees that if it vacates or abandons the Premises or it fails to so conduct its business therein, or uses or permits or suffers the use of the Premises for any purpose not specifically herein authorized and allowed, Tenant will be in breach of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and shall have caused Landlord a grave and serious prejudice and then, without constituting a waiver of Tenant's obligations or limiting Landlord's remedies under this Lease and at law, all Rent reserved in this Lease will immediately become due and payable to Landlord. Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.03.

5.04 Restrictions on Use & Occupancy

(a) Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not advertise, do, omit, permit or suffer to be done or exist upon the Premises anything which will be or result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

(b) Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any mail order or catalogue enterprise; (iii) any enterprise for the purpose of taking telephone orders; (iv) a store conducted principally or in part for the sale of second hand goods or apparel, war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (v) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire, and only for a period of 30 days immediately following the reopening after such fire; (vi) a store conducted, promoted and/or represented in whole or substantially as a discount operation or in part as a discount operation so as to give the impression that it is being conducted principally as a discount operation; (vii) a pawn shop; (viii) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (ix) an auction sale; and (x) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre.

(c) Tenant shall not conduct on the Premises any "distress sale", "bankruptcy sale", "going out of business sale", "liquidation sale" or "fire sale" except as expressly provided above nor any other type of sale designed to convey to the public that business operations are to be discontinued or that the store shall close, Tenant shall only sell merchandise in the regular course of trade as a retailer operating the Premises for the purpose for which the Premises are leased. Notwithstanding the foregoing, within the last six (6) months of the Term, the Tenant shall have the right to conduct clearance and other sales promotions in the Premises and the Tenant shall be permitted to erect, install and maintain within the Premises during such period any clearance and/or store closing signage (or other signage of a similar nature), provided that (i) any such signage on the exterior of the Premises or which faces any Common Areas and Facilities, shall be subject to the Tenant obtaining all required municipal approvals as well as the Landlord's prior written approval for the nature, size, type and location thereof; and (ii) all clearance and other sales otherwise comply with the requirements of sub-paragraph (b) above and this Lease and are undertaken in a reputable and prudent manner that does not interfere with the typical use and operation of the Shopping Centre or the occupants thereof. Landlord's approval of such signage shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed provided it complies with this provision.

(d) Intentionally deleted.

(e) Tenant shall not use the Common Areas and Facilities for any reason whatsoever without the prior written approval of Landlord. Tenant will not place or keep any merchandise or other thing beyond the permanent floor mounted storefront or closure of the Premises or in the Common Areas and Facilities.

(f) Intentionally deleted.

5.05 Intentionally deleted.

5.06 Display Windows Tenant will keep display windows (if any) neatly dressed. Display windows and lighted signs (if any) will be kept illuminated by Tenant on all business days until at least one half hour after the Shopping Centre closes for business.

5.07 Compliance with Laws The Premises will be used and occupied in a safe, careful and proper manner so as not to contravene any present or future governmental or quasi-governmental laws in force or regulations or orders including, without limitation, all Environmental Law. If, due solely to Tenant's use of the Premises, improvements are necessary to comply with any of the foregoing or with the requirements of insurance carriers, Tenant shall execute same and will pay the entire cost thereof. Unless otherwise directed by Landlord, Tenant will obtain and comply with the terms of all licences, certificates of approval, permits and other approvals necessary or appropriate under applicable laws (inclusive of Environmental Law) for the safe and lawful conduct of its business at or from the Premises.

5.08 Nuisance Tenant will not cause or maintain any nuisance or hazard in or about the Premises and will keep the Premises free of debris, trash, rodents, vermin and anything of a dangerous, noxious or offensive nature or which could create a fire hazard (through undue load on electrical circuits or otherwise) or undue vibration, heat or any unusual or objectionable noises or odours or anything which may disturb the enjoyment of the Shopping Centre and all the Common Areas and Facilities thereof by customers and other tenants of the Shopping Centre, nor will Tenant allow any noise, sound or music in the Premises to be heard in the Common Areas and Facilities or neighbouring premises.

5.09 Advertising, Trade Names and Restricted Marks

(a) In its advertising, Tenant will use the name of the Shopping Centre, such trade names, symbols and slogans as may be designated by Landlord but Tenant will not indulge in any advertising or sales promotion which is undignified or not in conformity with the highest standards of practice among stores dealing in similar merchandise or might harm or tend to harm the business reputation of Landlord or reflect unfavourably on the Shopping Centre, or might confuse or mislead or tend to confuse or mislead the public. Tenant will not sell, advertise, conduct or solicit business anywhere within the Shopping Centre other than in the Premises.

(b) The name for the Shopping Centre which Landlord may from time to time adopt and every name or mark adopted by Landlord in connection with the Shopping Centre will be used by Tenant only in association with sales made at or from and the business carried on in the Premises during the Term and Tenant's use thereof will be subject to such regulations as Landlord may from time to time impose. Tenant will not acquire any rights in any such restricted name or mark, and upon the termination of this Lease all its interest herein will be deemed to have been surrendered to Landlord and Tenant will thereafter cease and abandon all use thereof. If Landlord so requests, Tenant will execute registered user applications or agreements or both to protect Landlord's trade mark rights.

5.10 Intentionally deleted.

5.11 Loading and Delivery The delivery and shipping of merchandise, supplies, fixtures, and other materials or goods of whatsoever nature to or from the Premises and all loading, unloading, and handling of it will be done only at the times, in the areas, by the means, and through the elevators, entrances, malls, and corridors as are designated by Landlord. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will not use or permit any elevators, entrances, malls, corridors or other parts of the Common Areas and Facilities to be used as temporary storage area or areas by Tenant, any of Tenant's employees or suppliers or others when making deliveries to or shipments from the Premises or any permitted storage area of Tenant.

Landlord accepts no liability and is hereby relieved and released by Tenant in respect of the operation of the Delivery Facilities, or the adequacy of them, or of the acts or omissions of any Person or Persons engaged in the operation of them, or in the acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch of any goods for or on behalf of Tenant, or for any claim of Tenant by reason of damage, loss, theft, or acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch, failure of any acceptance, holding, handling or dispatch, or any error, negligence or delay.

Landlord may, from time to time, make and amend regulations for the orderly and efficient operation of the Delivery Facilities, and may require the payment of reasonable and equitable charges for delivery services and removal provided by Landlord.

For certainty, the Premises include the loading dock and unloading areas which serve such space as shown outlined in GREEN in the plan attached as Exhibit B-1 to the Original Lease (a copy of which is attached as part of Exhibit A hereto).

ARTICLE 6.00 SERVICES, MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS BY LANDLORD

6.01 Operation of Shopping Centre Landlord shall operate the Shopping Centre and maintain the Common Areas and Facilities as would a prudent and diligent owner of a similar shopping centre, having regard to the Shopping Centre's size, age, nature, location and region where the Shopping Centre is situated, as well as the type of clientele the Shopping Centre services and the general image Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre, all as determined by the Landlord in its sole discretion.

6.02 Services Landlord will provide in the Shopping Centre except where Tenant shall do so pursuant to this Lease:

(a) domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water and necessary supplies in common washrooms sufficient for the normal use thereof; and

(b) heat, ventilation, air conditioning, lighting, electric power, domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water, steam, natural gas and chilled water, in the Common Areas and Facilities (where appropriate).

6.03 Maintenance, Repair and Replacement Subject to the provisions of Article 7.01(b) and Tenant's obligations under this Lease in respect of the Premises, Landlord will operate, maintain, repair and replace the systems, facilities and equipment necessary for the proper operation of the Shopping Centre and for provision of Landlord's services under Article 6.02 (except as such may be installed by or be the property of Tenant or others (excluding Landlord) or both and except for the heating, ventilating and air conditioning equipment, elevators, escalators and other systems, facilities, machinery and equipment installed within or for the Premises; and furthermore, will expeditiously maintain and repair the foundations, structure and roof of the Shopping Centre (inclusive of downspouts, gutters, canopies and exterior walls), provided that:

(a) if all or part of such systems, facilities and equipment are destroyed, damaged or impaired, Landlord will have a reasonable time in which to complete the necessary repair or replacement, and during that time will be required only to maintain such services as are reasonably possible in the circumstances;

(b) Landlord may temporarily discontinue such services or any of them at such times as may be necessary due to causes (except lack of funds) beyond the reasonable control of Landlord;

(c) Landlord will use reasonable diligence in carrying out its obligations under this Article 6.03, but will not be liable under any circumstances for any consequential damage to any Person (including without limitation, Tenant) or any property for any failure to do so;

(d) no reduction or discontinuance of such services under clauses (a) or (b) of this Article 6.03 will constitute as an eviction of Tenant or (except as specifically provided in this Lease) release Tenant from any obligation of Tenant under this Lease; and

(e) nothing contained herein will derogate from the provisions of Articles 7.02, 7.03, 10.01, 16.01, 16.02, 16.03, or 16.04 and in no event shall Landlord be required to make any repairs or replacements which are necessary as a result of Tenant's default, negligence or willful misconduct.

6.04 Alterations by Landlord Landlord may, at any time prior to or during the Term, subject to Article 6.06: (i) change the area, level, location, arrangement or use of any portion of the Shopping Centre; (ii) construct on the Site or on adjacent lands, other buildings, structures or improvements and make alterations, additions, subtractions or rearrangements; (iii) modify, alter, expand, reduce or eliminate any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities; (iv) close off all or any part of the Shopping Centre and/or temporarily suspend services for the purpose of maintenance, repair, alteration or construction; (v) place any installations within or on any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities including without limitation, kiosks, planters, benches, promotional displays or activities and any other installations; (vi) close all or part of the Shopping Centre to the public outside of regular business hours, Sundays and holidays included; (vii) restrict areas on the Site available for employee parking, and/or prohibit employees from parking anywhere on the Site; (viii) impose reasonable charges for parking, and impose restrictions on refunds or compensations by Tenant to Persons using the parking areas; (ix) modify tenant mix, both with respect to kinds of uses which may be made of premises, as well as to changes in the physical location of any one or more tenants; (x) do and perform such other acts in relation to the Shopping Centre for the more efficient and proper operation of the Shopping Centre as Landlord determines to be advisable; (xi) change the name of the Shopping Centre; (xii) do all work required to install new, and/or maintain, adapt, repair or replace existing utility lines, pipes, roof drainage pipes, conduits, wires, duct work, columns and other matters through any part of the Premises if necessary and do any other work in the Premises to preserve, support or reinforce any structural walls or foundations of the Premises or the Shopping Centre, and do such work as may be required for an expansion or an alteration of all or part of the Shopping Centre.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, it is understood and agreed that if the Shopping Centre, the Site and/or the Common Areas and Facilities are diminished or altered in any manner whatsoever as a result of the exercise by Landlord of its rights set out in this Article 6.04, Landlord is not subject to any liability nor is Tenant entitled to any compensation or diminution or abatement of Rent, nor is any alteration or diminution thereof deemed to constitute constructive or actual eviction, or a breach of any covenant for quiet enjoyment contained in this Lease. Landlord and Tenant further agree that the exercise by Landlord of its rights under this Article 6.04 will not relieve Tenant of Tenant's obligations under Article 5.03 of this Lease.

The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that the Landlord has not granted to the Tenant and neither the Tenant or the Premises has the benefit of any merchandising controls, exclusivity rights, use restrictions, no-build zones, minimum parking ratio requirements, or, minimum stall number requirements, or any other restrictions, restrictive covenants or approval rights applicable to the Site; the Shopping Centre or any part(s) thereof or any other lands abutting thereto or in the vicinity thereof ("Additional Lands") which the Landlord or any of its affiliates may have an interest in, including without limitation and for certainty anything that would otherwise restrict, limit, delay or otherwise interfere with the Landlord's (or its affiliate's) ability to lease, use, convey, alter, develop and/or redevelop all or any part of the Shopping Centre, the Site or any such Additional Lands. The Tenant hereby confirms that any of the forgoing that the Tenant was entitled to or that were granted in or in connection with the Original Lease, its occupancy of the Premises or otherwise have been expressly waived by the Tenant, have terminated and have ceased to have any force or effect. The Tenant covenants and agrees: (a) not to oppose (and hereby irrevocably waives all rights to oppose) the exercise of the Landlord's rights under this Section 6.04 or otherwise pursuant to this Lease in this regard, including, in respect of any rezoning matters, variance applications, restrictive covenants, site plans, subdivisions, servitudes dedications, permits or approvals and other similar requirements in connection therewith (hereinafter "Rezoning Matters"); and (b) agrees to cooperate with Landlord (at no cost or expense to the Tenant) to the extent reasonably required, including, without limitation, granting any partial discharges of its notice of lease and executing any consents, documents and instruments reasonably requested by the Landlord in furtherance of any Rezoning Matters. The Tenant hereby irrevocably appoints the Landlord as mandatory of the Tenant to execute and deliver the foregoing instruments and/or other documents referred to above by or on behalf of the Tenant. The Landlord will promptly provide the Tenant with a copy of any such instrument or document executed as mandarary as aforesaid.

6.05 Intentionally deleted

6.06 Access by Landlord Tenant will permit Landlord to enter the Premises outside of normal business hours, and during normal business hours where such will not unreasonably disturb or interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises and operation of its business, to examine, inspect and show the Premises to persons wishing to lease them, to provide services or make repairs, replacements, changes or alterations as set out in this Lease, and to take such steps as Landlord may deem necessary for the safety, improvement or preservation of the Premises or the Shopping Centre. Landlord will whenever possible, save in the event of emergency, consult with or give reasonable notice to Tenant prior to such entry, but no such entry will constitute an eviction or entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

6.07 Energy, Conservation and Security Policies Landlord will be deemed to have observed and performed the terms and conditions to be performed by Landlord under this Lease, including those relating to the provision of utilities and services, if in so doing it acts in accordance with a directive, policy or request of a governmental or quasi-governmental authority serving the public interest in the fields of energy, conservation or security.

6.08 Sustainable Operation of Shopping Centre Tenant acknowledges Landlord's intention, to operate its Shopping Centre in a manner so as to provide for:

(a) reduced energy and water consumption;

(b) the use of renewable energy and recycled water;

(c) the facilitation of alternate transportation for customers of the Shopping Centre;

(d) the use of non-toxic, low-impact cleaning and pest control and other products in the operation and maintenance of the Shopping Centre;

(e) a healthy indoor environment;

(f) installation and use of sustainable materials, furniture, equipment and improvements within the Shopping Centre; and

(g) the recycling and diversion of operational waste from landfill generated from the activities of tenants, licensees, and customers of the Shopping Centre, and Landlord intends to operate, manage and maintain the Shopping Centre so as to obtain and/or maintain any green building certifications, accreditations or ratings.

ARTICLE 7.00 UTILITIES, SERVICES, MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS BY TENANT

7.01 Utilities

(a) Subject to Article 7.01(b), during the Term, Tenant will provide in the Premises at its own expense heat, ventilation, air-conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam and other utilities and services. Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall promptly pay (but in any event no later than the due date) the cost of water consumption, electricity, gas, steam, telephone, and other utilities used or consumed in or from the Premises directly to the supplier of such services where separately metered or as Landlord may direct.

(b) If heat, ventilation, air conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam or any other utility or service is provided by Landlord, but is not metered or is supplied to the Premises through meters common to a group of tenants in the Shopping Centre, Landlord will pay the cost thereof and apportion such cost as may reasonably be determined by Landlord among the tenants utilizing the utility or service or supplied through such common meters, (provided that if Landlord will from time to time reasonably determine that the use of any such utility or service in the Premises is disproportionate to the use of other tenants, Landlord may adjust Tenant's share of the cost thereof from a date reasonably determined by Landlord to take equitable account of the disproportionate use) and Tenant will reimburse Landlord the amount of its share of such cost.

(c) Intentionally deleted.

(d) If a separate or a check meter exists, Tenant shall then pay for its consumption to Landlord as measured by the Premises check meter and in accordance with the rates of Landlord's supplier.

(e) If at any time, any utility serving the Premises, whose consumption rate was measured by separate or check meter, ceases to be measured by separate or check meter for any reason whatsoever, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a charge calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) above.

(f) Notwithstanding Article 7.00 of this Lease, at Landlord's option, Landlord may, at any time or times during the Term, purchase in bulk from the utility supplier the aggregate electrical energy requirements of the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof, in which event Landlord may arrange for the supply of electricity to the Premises for the general electrical purposes of Tenant. In such case, Tenant will pay to Landlord on a monthly basis, in advance, with annual adjustment at the end of each Fiscal Year, a charge for supplying electricity to the Premises as determined by Landlord on the basis of Tenant's consumption.

(g) Where the Premises are metered directly by a utility company or supplier for electricity, gas, water, or steam consumption, Tenant will provide Landlord, at Tenant's cost, with all consumption data for the Premises, in the manner, at such frequency and in the format as required by Landlord so as to comply with its obligations relating to governmental or quasi-governmental authority reporting regulations, to meet green building certifications or standards including, without limitation, LEED, BOMA BEST or ENERGY STAR or to improve the environmental performance of the Shopping Centre.

(h) During any period when the Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, Landlord shall keep all Common Areas and Facilities lighted and opened to the public. Landlord agrees that it shall keep all Common Areas and Facilities lighted for security purposes seven (7) days each week during the hours of darkness such lighting is necessary for such purpose. Landlord shall pay for all costs of electricity for lighting the Common Areas and Facilities (i) during any period when the Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, but not later than 11:00 p.m., EST, (ii) during any other period, in addition to the period described in the immediately preceding clause (i), when both the Premises and at least fifty percent (50%) of the remainder of the floor area in the Shopping Centre are open for business and (iii) during the times and to the extent such lighting is required under the second sentence of this subsection (h).

(i) The cost of electricity for lighting the Common Area at times or to the extent such cost is not considered part of Landlord's costs in accordance with the preceding paragraph shall be paid as follows:

(i) If the Premises are open for business, then Tenant shall pay its proportionate share (based on the square footage of the Premises compared to the square footage of the premises of all occupants that are open for business) of the cost of electricity to light the Common Areas and Facilities; and

(ii) If the Premises are not open for business as permitted by this Lease, Landlord shall pay the cost of electricity to light the Common Areas and Facilities.

7.02 Heating, Ventilation, and Air-Conditioning (HVAC) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense be responsible for maintaining, repairing and replacing of the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning equipment (the "Tenant HVAC System") installed for the Premises where such equipment is not part of a shared or central system. The parties acknowledge that the Tenant HVAC System independently serves the Premises.

However and notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event one or more of the HVAC units (as defined in the Original Lease) serving the Premises requires replacement (or any major component of such unit(s) requires replacement), Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that the provisions of Section 7.1 of the Original Lease and defined terms used therein are incorporated into this Section 7.02 by reference and shall apply in respect of such replacement, inclusive of Tenant's obligation to pay as part of Rent the "HVAC Rent Adjustment".

7.03 Condition of Premises During the Term, Tenant will keep the Premises in a clean and tidy condition, and will provide at its own expense therein janitor services in accordance with this Lease and the rules and regulations of Landlord from time to time, removal of debris and garbage, and cleaning of all windows, doors, walls, ceiling, tiles, floors, grease traps and grease guard systems in the Premises and on the roof of the Shopping Centre where applicable and the exterior of the Premises, subject to Article 7.04(f).

Subject to the foregoing and except to the extent that Landlord is specifically responsible therefor under this Lease, Tenant will maintain the Premises and all improvements therein at its sole cost and expense in good order and condition, subject to reasonable wear and tear, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) intentionally deleted;

(b) making repairs and replacements as needed to glass, plate glass, store windows and storefronts, signs, mouldings, doors, hardware, partitions, walls, fixtures, lighting, finishes, plumbing, wiring, ductwork and piping (including that portion which is contiguous to the Premises), ceilings, floors and thresholds in the Premises;

(c) maintaining, repairing and replacing as needed all elevators, escalators, mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems, facilities and equipment in the Premises;

(d) making other repairs and replacements in the Premises as needed, except repairs and replacements to the Premises for which Landlord is specifically responsible under this Lease; and

(e) keeping the Premises in such condition as to comply with the requirements of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority and insurers having jurisdiction and the rules and regulations of Landlord.

Notwithstanding the Civil Code of Quebec or any other legislation to the contrary, the Tenant's repair obligations will include all those which are major as well as minor (including, but not limited to grosses réparations), or those which are customarily landlord's or tenant's, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Lease

7.04 Alterations by Tenant Tenant may from time to time at its own expense make changes, additions and improvements in the Premises to better adapt the same to its business, provided that any such change, addition or improvement will:

(a) comply with the requirements of Landlord's insurer and any Authority having jurisdiction;

(b) be made only with the prior written consent of Landlord;

(c) equal the then current standard for the Shopping Centre;

(d) be carried out only by persons selected by Tenant and approved in writing by Landlord, who will, if required by Landlord, deliver to Landlord before commencement of the work, performance and payment bonds as well as proof of worker's compensation and public liability and property damage insurance coverage as reasonably required by Landlord with Landlord, Owners and Management Company as additional insured parties in amounts, with companies and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, which will remain in effect during the entire period in which the work will be carried out;

(e) Tenant shall obtain all necessary construction and other permits before starting any work in the Premises;

(f) Tenant shall not make any repairs, openings, or additions to any part of the exterior of the Premises, or to the Common Areas and Facilities nor place anything of whatsoever nature in or upon any part of the Common Areas and Facilities, including without limitation the roof and without having obtained the prior written consent of Landlord. In addition it is expressly forbidden for Tenant, its employees, agents, representatives or any Person for whom Tenant is in law responsible to go upon the roof of the Shopping Centre for any reason whatsoever without Landlord's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the prior granting of such consent, Tenant shall be fully responsible for all ensuing costs and damages whether to remove materials or to effect repairs needed as a result of such acts;

(g) Tenant shall not make any change, alteration, addition, repair or improvement in or to the Premises which in any manner affects the structure, the roof, the perimeter walls, the bearing floors, structural slab or slab on grade, the storefront, the sprinkler system (whether it services the Premises exclusively or not), or any heating, ventilation or air-conditioning system or equipment or the electrical and plumbing services or systems (whether these serve the Premises exclusively or not), without in each case obtaining

Landlord's prior written approval thereto. Tenant will accompany each request for Landlord's written approval by detailed plans and specifications for the intended work, and will ensure that the work is done according to the relevant provisions of this Lease.

Any increase in Taxes or insurance premiums for the Shopping Centre, or any part thereof, attributable to such change, addition or improvement will be borne by Tenant and Tenant will pay Landlord for the cost of such increase upon receipt of Landlord's invoices therefor.

7.05 Trade Fixtures and Movable Property Tenant may install in the Premises its usual trade fixtures and movable property in a proper manner, provided that no such installation will interfere with or damage the mechanical, plumbing, sprinkler or electrical systems or all or any part of the structure of the Shopping Centre. If Tenant is not then in default under this Lease, trade fixtures and movable property installed in but not affixed to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant may be removed from the Premises:

(a) from time to time in the ordinary course of Tenant's business or in the course of permitted reconstruction, renovation or alteration of the Premises by Tenant; and provided that Tenant in all cases promptly repairs at its own expense any damage to the Premises resulting from such installation and removal. In no case will trade fixtures or movable property include the ceiling or ceiling panels, electric light fixtures, doors, floor coverings, storefront, plumbing fixtures and fittings or any affixed cabinets, shelves, hardware or decorative items in or upon the Premises which upon installation become the property of Landlord, provided, however, that if any of the foregoing shall contain any Hazardous Substance such installation shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant will remove such items at its expense.

(b) during a reasonable period prior to the expiration of the Term,

7.06 Liens Tenant will pay before delinquency all costs for work done or caused to be done by Tenant in the Premises which could result in any lien or encumbrance on Landlord's interest or Tenant's interest or both in the Site or the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, will keep the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre and every part thereof free and clear of any lien or encumbrance in respect of such work and will indemnify and hold harmless Landlord against any claim, loss, cost, demand and legal or other expense, whether in respect of any lien or otherwise, arising out of the supply of material, services or labour for such work. Tenant will immediately notify Landlord of any such lien, claim of lien or other action of which it has or reasonably should have knowledge and which affects the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, and will cause the same to be removed within fifteen (15) days of written notice from Landlord (or such additional time as Landlord may consent to in writing), failing which Landlord may take action as Landlord deems necessary to remove the same and the entire cost thereof will be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, including all legal fees, costs and disbursements on a substantial indemnity basis.

7.07 Intentionally deleted.

7.08 Signs Tenant shall not erect or place any sign, decal, decoration, lettering, design or advertisement of any nature whatsoever ("Sign") on the exterior walls of the Premises or on the walls of the mall or elsewhere in the Shopping Centre or in the display windows without first obtaining Landlord's written consent as to the specifications, design, location and method of installation. All Signs shall conform to all applicable rules and regulations and shall be of high quality. Furthermore, all Signs shall be suitably illuminated where applicable in the same manner as other signs in the Shopping Centre. Tenant shall not install or affix any Sign in the Premises or in the Shopping Centre which is visible from the exterior of the Shopping Centre. All Signs on Tenant's storefront which Landlord allows Tenant to install must be so installed prior to the opening by Tenant of its Premises to the public.

No Sign(s) advertising an auction sale, going out of business sale, closing out sale, bankruptcy sale or any other similar sale other than one in the normal course of Tenant's business, or any Sign indicating that Tenant is moving to another location, shall be permitted in the Shopping Centre.

For certainty, the Landlord confirms that the Tenant's exterior Signs that exist as of the Commencement Date are compliant with this Section. The Landlord also confirms that the existing pylon signage is compliant with this Section and that the Tenant shall not be required to pay any rent or other charge of any kind whatsoever to Landlord for or in connection with such pylon signage.

ARTICLE 8.00 TENANT'S TAXES

8.01 Business Taxes and Other Taxes Payable by Tenant Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to the Authorities responsible for collection all business and water taxes, charges or rates, garbage removal taxes, charges, rates, taxes, levies, fees, duties, tariffs or assessments for consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature however imposed or assessed and/or for recycling and/or similar taxes, charges or rates imposed on or applicable to Tenant in connection with the activities, goods (including without limiting the generality thereof, Tenant's movables, equipment and tools) or services of which Tenant benefits, or for Tenant's use or occupation of the Premises, or for the nature of the enterprise that Tenant operates in the Premises, or any other matter determined by said authorities (hereinafter "Tenant's Taxes"). It is understood that Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to Landlord any Tenant's Taxes where Landlord shall be invoiced therefor or shall become liable for any such Tenant's Taxes pursuant to any new, amended or modified law, regulation, policy and/or practice of any competent Authority. Tenant shall also be liable for the payment of any Tenant's Taxes, Taxes and any other amount payable by Landlord, and any increases in one or all of the foregoing (even where such Tenant's Taxes, Taxes or other amount or increases thereof are substantially greater than the amount payable therefor by Tenant in previous years) as a direct or indirect result of the abolition, modification and/or replacement of any Tenant's Taxes by any competent Authority or due to any modification of any policy or practice thereof. Tenant will indemnify Landlord from and against all losses, costs of expenses occasioned by or arising from the foregoing.

ARTICLE 9.00 INSURANCE

9.01 Landlord's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease, Landlord, at no cost to Tenant, will carry the insurance for which Landlord is obligated under Article 11 of the Original Lease and Article 11 of the Original Lease is deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term, Landlord will maintain the Landlord's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

9.02 Tenant's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, will carry the insurance for which Tenant is obligated under Article 11 of the Original Lease and Article 11 of the Original Lease is deemed incorporated herein by reference.For certainty, during the Term and any period Tenant is in possession of the Premises, the Tenant will maintain the Tenant's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date in accordance with the insurance certificate most recently provided to the Landlord by the Tenant, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

Tenant agrees to deliver to Landlord, proof of above required insurance in force at such date, such proof to be in the form of certificates of insurance acceptable to Landlord. If the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained on the part of Tenant will immediately endanger or could reasonably lead to or result in future endangerment of the Premises or any other of the buildings or property in or on the Shopping Centre or result in the voiding, cancellation or threatened cancellation of any insurance policy affecting such buildings or property or part thereof Landlord may, either, at Landlord's sole discretion, terminate this Lease effective upon written notice to Tenant, or without terminating this Lease and after giving such notice, if any, as is reasonable in the circumstances, enter upon the Premises and take such action, including removing Tenant and any persons or property from the Shopping Centre, as is reasonable to remove or abate the cause of the danger or voiding or cancellation of the policy, and Landlord will not be liable for any damages of any kind howsoever caused arising out of such termination or such action, the whole without prejudice to Landlord's other rights and recourses.

ARTICLE 10.00 INJURY TO PERSON OR PROPERTY

10.01 Mutual Indemnity. Except to the extent released in Sections 10.02 and 10.03 below, each of the Landlord and the Tenant will defend, protect, indemnify and save harmless the other of and from all fines, suits, claims, demands and actions of any kind or nature to which the party being indemnified shall or may become liable or suffer by reason of any breach, violation or nonperformance by the party so indemnifying of any covenant, term or provision of this Lease or by reason of any damage, injury or death occasioned to or suffered by any person or persons including the Landlord or the Tenant, as the case may be, or any property, by reason of any wrongful act, neglect or default on the part of the party so indemnifying or any of its agents, employees, officers or contractors.

10.02 Release of Landlord. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Tenant, none of the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre or other persons for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage so required to be insured by the Tenant to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Tenant fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Tenant had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Tenant shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, the manager retained by the Landlord from time to time to operate the Shopping Centre and those for whom the Landlord is responsible in law. With respect to the Tenant's fixtures, furniture, inventory and stock-in-trade including merchandise or other contents of the Premises, the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre and others for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage.

10.03 Release of Tenant. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Landlord, none of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees or other persons for whom the Tenant is responsible at law shall be liable in respect of any loss, injury or damage required to be so insured to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Landlord fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Landlord had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Landlord shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees and those for whom the Tenant is responsible in law.

ARTICLE 11.00 TRANSFERS

11.01 Transfers Except to an Eligible Corporation (which for the purpose of this Article 11.00 is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual) which controls or is controlled by or under common control with Tenant, where to control means to own beneficially either directly or indirectly more than 50% of the voting shares of a corporation or other legal entity) and subject to provisions of Article 11.03, Tenant will not, and will not permit a subtenant to, assign this Lease in whole or in part or sublet all or part of the Premises, or transfer this Lease in any other manner and will not permit the occupation or use of all or part of the Premises by others (any of which events are hereinafter referred to as a "Transfer"), without the prior written consent of Landlord in each case, which consent, despite any statutory provision to the contrary, may be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Tenant may enter into a Transfer with an Eligible Corporation, with the prior written consent of Landlord which consent may not be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld. Tenant will not, and will not permit subtenant or any other Person or entity to hypothecate or encumber the Tenant's rights resulting from this Lease. Under no circumstances will Tenant be entitled to effect a Transfer to any one prior to the Commencement Date, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease or at law. The consent by Landlord to a Transfer will not constitute a waiver of its consent to a subsequent Transfer. This prohibition against transferring includes a Transfer by operation of law. If a Transfer occurs without the consent of Landlord when required, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee, subtenant, user or occupant as the case may be (hereinafter the "Transferee"), and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such Transfer, occupancy or collection will be deemed a waiver of the covenant not to Transfer without Landlord's consent, nor an acceptance by Landlord of the Transfer or the Transferee notwithstanding any rule of law to the contrary. Despite a Transfer, Tenant remains fully liable under this Lease. A permitted Transfer of all or part of this Lease or the Premises will be documented by Landlord or its solicitors, and the amounts stipulated in Article 11.02(g)(iv) shall be paid by Tenant and deemed to be Rent. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord may immediately terminate this Lease if Tenant effects a Transfer without Landlord's prior written consent thereto, whether or not Tenant gives prior written notice thereof.

11.02 Conditions Any Transfer referred to in Article 11.01 or elsewhere in this Lease will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) that Tenant causes any Transferee to promptly execute an agreement in writing with Landlord agreeing to be bound by the terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease as if such Transferee had originally executed this Lease as Tenant (provided that such agreement will not in any way affect the rights of Landlord under this Lease); and

(b) all requests for Landlord's consent to effect a Transfer shall be in writing and be accompanied by each of the following: (i) the name, address and telephone number of each proposed Transferee and if it is a corporation, the names of the directors and the majority shareholders (or in the case of a change of control, those Persons who would subsequently acquire effective control); (ii) details of the proposed Transferee's prior business experience (including experience in the enterprise for which the Premises are to be operated pursuant to this Lease); (iii) bank and other credit references, required by Landlord to assess the business or financial strength and standing of the proposed assignee, subtenant or occupant; (iv) a non-reimbursable fee (paid by certified cheque or draft of a Canadian chartered bank) for all charges associated with Landlord's administration and documentation of the Transfer; (v) if the proposed Transferee is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual), its constating documents (including any articles of incorporation, amendment or amalgamation, any declarations of trust or partnership agreements and the like); (vi) details of the transaction of Transfer between Tenant and the proposed Transferee and all relevant documents with respect thereto; (vii) a signed copy of Landlord's standard form of letter of consent authorizing Landlord to make inquiries regarding the personal affairs of the proposed Transferee or any principal thereof, and (viii) all other information or documentation which Landlord may reasonably require.

11.03 Corporate Ownership If after the date of execution of this Lease, securities not listed for sale on a recognized securities exchange in Canada either of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant are transferred by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law or other disposition, or issued by subscription or allotment or cancelled or redeemed, so as to result in a change in the effective voting or other control of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant by the Person or Persons holding control on the date of execution of this Lease or on the date when Tenant becomes a corporation, if later, or if other steps are taken to accomplish a change of the effective control of Tenant, Tenant will promptly notify Landlord in writing of the change which will be considered to be a Transfer of this Lease to which Articles 11.01 and 11.02 apply; and whether or not Tenant notifies Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease within 60 days after Landlord learns of the change unless Landlord previously had consented to the change in writing. Tenant will make available to Landlord or its lawful representatives all corporate books and records of Tenant and of any Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant for inspection at all reasonable times, to ascertain to the extent possible whether there has been a change of control.

11.04 Insolvency of Transferee In the event Transferee becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy and this Lease is disclaimed or terminated, or Transferee disclaims this Lease pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation, or the terms of any insolvency-related Court order, then at Landlord's option to be exercised on written notice to the original Tenant named in this Lease or any Transferee (except the bankrupt or insolvent Transferee), such party will be deemed to have entered into a lease with Landlord for the remainder of the initial Term, on the terms and conditions of this Lease prevailing immediately prior to the date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation (including without limitation, future Rent escalations (if any)) effective upon the effective date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation.

11.05 Permitted Transfers. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but on prior written notice to Landlord:

(a) assign this Lease to, and may in any event permit the Premises to be used and occupied in whole or in part by, any affiliated corporation of Tenant (as such term "affiliated corporation" is defined by· the Canada Business Corporations Act); or

(b) assign this Lease to any corporation with which Tenant merges or consolidates that is an affiliated corporation of Tenant; or

(c) grant concessions or licenses to use and occupy any part or parts of the Premises provided that: (i) the Premises continues to be carried on, and retains the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated single department store operated in accordance with the requirements of this Lease, (ii) at least 80% (by number) of the concessions or licenses granted shall be to licensees or concessionaires which operate in a majority of the Tenant's other stores in the greater Québec City area; and (iii) any such concessionaire, licensee or other occupant within the Premises is subject to the day-to-day operational control of the Tenant in matters related to general standards of the business carried on so as to enable the Tenant to ensure that such standards shall conform to the general standards of business of the Tenant itself.

ARTICLE 12.00 SURRENDER

12.01 Possession Upon the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease and in addition to the provisions of Article 12.02, Tenant will immediately quit and peaceably surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord:

(i) in a vacant, clean and broom-swept condition with all of Tenant's signage, inventory, trade fixtures, racking and personal property removed; and

(ii) without any material damage to the structural and building system elements of the Premises (inclusive, for certainty, of walls, ceilings, windows and storefronts) and with such building systems (inclusive of elevators and escalators) servicing the Premises in a working order, subject to reasonable wear and tear;

but otherwise in an "as is, where is" condition and without any obligation to: (A) return the Premises or any component thereof to an improved or better state of condition or operation than existing as of the Commencement Date; or (B) to remove any leasehold improvements in the Premises installed pursuant to Article 7.04 hereof. For greater clarity, it is the intention of the parties that Tenant shall have no obligation to make cosmetic or "wear and tear" type repairs to the Premises upon surrender (such as repainting or repairing holes in walls, floors or ceilings caused by the typical installation and removal of racking, trade fixtures etc.).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Landlord's intention is to demolish and/or redevelop the Premises following the expiry of the Term and not to re-tenant same, the Landlord shall advise the Tenant thereof in which event sub-paragraph (ii) above shall not apply.

Upon surrender, all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises will cease. If Tenant has registered a notice of this lease against title to the Land, it will cause the same to be discharged no later than 15 days following the expiry or termination date, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its mandatary with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a discharge of a notice of this will be paid by Tenant.

12.02 Trade Fixtures, Movable Property and Improvements

(a) Subject to Article 7.05, all alterations, additions and improvements made or to be made upon or to the Premises (save any movable trade fixtures used in Tenant's enterprise) which in any manner are attached in, to or under the floors, walls or ceilings, including, without limitation, walk-in vaults, large water features such as pools, water basins and fountains and landscaping features, any component of any heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, sprinkler, plumbing or electrical equipment or systems, presently or in the future installed within or servicing the Premises, all lighting installations and fixtures including, without limitation, all spot lights and tracks and all floor finishes of whatever nature placed upon the floor of the Premises, all storefronts, doors and/or partitions, shall become Landlord's property at the time they are installed, and will be surrendered to Landlord at the expiry of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease without any compensation or indemnity payable to Tenant whatsoever.

(b) If Tenant leaves any property on the Premises following the expiry of the Term or earlier termination thereof which it is entitled to remove, then unless Landlord expressly notifies Tenant to remove such property, the ownership of such property will, at Landlord's option, be deemed to have been abandoned to Landlord, free and clear of all Tenant Security, notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary and whether or not Landlord chooses to become the owner of such items, they may be used, removed or disposed of by or on behalf of Landlord, as Landlord determines, without compensation payable to Tenant and without incurring any liability to Tenant.

12.03 Merger The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant or the cancellation of this Lease by mutual agreement of Tenant and Landlord will not work a merger, and will, at Landlord's option, either terminate all or any subleases and subtenancies or operate as an assignment to Landlord of all or any subleases and subtenancies. Landlord's option hereunder will be exercised by notice to Tenant and all sublessees or subtenants in the Premises or any part thereof known to Landlord. If Landlord does not give notice within a reasonable period of time after such cancellation of this Lease, then all such subleases will be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such cancellation.

12.04 Payments After Termination No payment of money by Tenant to Landlord after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease or after the giving of any notice by Landlord to Tenant, will reinstate, continue or extend the Term or make ineffective any notice given to Tenant prior to the payment of such money. After the service of notice or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment granting Landlord possession of the Premises, Landlord may receive and collect any sums of Rent due under this Lease, and the payment thereof will not make ineffective any notice, or in any manner affect any pending suit or any judgment theretofore obtained.

ARTICLE 13.00 HOLDING OVER

13.01 Month-to-Month Tenancy with Landlord Consent If with Landlord's written consent, Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, notwithstanding Article 1879 of the Civil Code of Quebec or any other legislation to the contrary, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises on a month-to month tenancy only, at a monthly rental equal to the Rent payable by Tenant during the last month immediately preceding the expiration of the Term or such other rental as is stated in such written consent, and such month-to-month tenancy may be terminated by Landlord or Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by delivery of at least one (1) month's advance written notice of termination to the other.

13.02 Month-to-Month Tenancy without Landlord Consent If without Landlord's written consent Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, notwithstanding Article 1879 of the Civil Code of Quebec or any other legislation to the contrary, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises on a month-to month tenancy only, at a monthly rental equal to two (2) times the Rent payable during the last month preceding the expiration or termination. Such tenancy may be immediately terminated by Landlord at any time by notice of termination to Tenant, and by Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by at least 30 days' advance written notice of termination to Landlord.

13.03 General Any month-to-month tenancy hereunder will be subject to all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease except any right of renewal or extension and nothing contained in Article 13.00 will be construed to limit or impair any of Landlord's rights of re-entry or eviction or constitute a waiver thereof.

ARTICLE 14.00 RULES AND REGULATIONS

14.01 Purpose The Rules and Regulations in Exhibit D (the "Rules and Regulations") have been adopted by Landlord for the safety, benefit and convenience of all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre.

14.02 Observance Tenant will at all times comply with, and will cause its employees, servants, agents, licencees and invitees to comply with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect.

14.03 Modification Landlord may from time to time, for the purposes set out in Article 14.01, amend, delete from, or add to the Rules and Regulations, provided that any such modification:

(a) will not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any other provision of this Lease;

(b) will be reasonable and have general application to tenants in the Shopping Centre; and

(c) will be effective only upon delivery of a copy thereof to Tenant at the Premises.

14.04 Non-Compliance Landlord will use reasonable efforts to secure compliance by all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect, but will not be responsible to Tenant for failure of any person to comply with such Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 15.00 EXPROPRIATION

15.01 Expropriation Both Landlord and Tenant agree to cooperate with each other in respect of any expropriation of all or any part of the Premises or any other part of the Shopping Centre, so that each may receive from the Authority the maximum award to which each is respectively entitled by law. If any portion of the Shopping Centre other than the Premises is expropriated, then the proceeds accruing therefrom shall belong solely to Landlord, and Tenant shall abandon to Landlord any rights which Tenant may have by operation of law to such proceeds or award. Tenant will execute such documents as required to give effect to the foregoing.

If at any time during the Term, any material part of the Shopping Centre is expropriated or if access to the Premises is materially affected by such expropriation, then Landlord may terminate this Lease on written notice to Tenant, which termination will take effect on the earlier of the date of the expropriation or the taking of prior possession.

Whether the Lease is terminated or not, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord as a result of or arising from the expropriation of all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

If Landlord exercises its right of termination hereunder, this Lease will terminate on the date stated in the notice, provided, however, that no termination pursuant to notice hereunder may occur later than 60 days after the date (hereinafter "Date of Such Taking") on which the Authority takes possession of that part of the Shopping Centre so taken.

15.02 Surrender On any such date of termination under Article 15.01, Tenant will immediately surrender to Landlord the Premises and all interests therein under this Lease. Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and remove Tenant therefrom, and the Rent will abate on the date of termination, except that if the Date of Such Taking differs from the date of termination, Rent will abate on the former date.

15.03 Partial Taking of Premises If any portion of the Premises (but less than the whole thereof) is so taken, and no rights of termination herein conferred are timely exercised, the Term of this Lease will expire with respect to the portion so taken on the Date of Such Taking. In such event the Rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion so taken will abate on such date, and the Rent thereafter payable with respect to the remainder not so taken will be adjusted pro rata by Landlord in order to account for the resulting reduction of the Area of the Premises. After such adjustment, and on notice from Landlord stating the Rent then owing, Tenant will immediately pay Landlord such Rent.

ARTICLE 16.00 DAMAGE BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

16.01 Limited Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, can be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), Landlord will immediately at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, movable property or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired immediately by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.02 Major Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, cannot be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), then Landlord, or in the event that there is less than two (2) years remaining in the Term, Tenant, may elect to terminate this Lease as of the date of such casualty by written notice delivered to the other not more than 20 days after receipt of the Architect's opinion, failing which Landlord will forthwith at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, movable property or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on the behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired forthwith by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.03 Abatement If Landlord is required to repair damage to all or part of the Premises under Article 16.01 or 16.02, provided such damage is caused by a peril Landlord is required to insure against pursuant to Article 9.01, the Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease will be proportionately reduced to the extent that the Premises are thereby rendered untenantable by Tenant in its business, from the date of such casualty until five (5) days after completion by Landlord of the repairs to the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) or until Tenant again uses the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) in its business, whichever first occurs.

16.04 Major Damage or Destruction of Shopping Centre Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Lease and specifically, but without limitation, Article 16.01, if the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed (whether the Premises are affected or not), and (i) in the Architect's opinion, the damaged or destroyed portions cannot reasonably be repaired, restored or rebuilt within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the damage or destruction (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium); or (ii) the cost as estimated by the Architect, of repairing, restoring or rebuilding the damaged or destroyed portions would exceed the proceeds of insurance available to Landlord for such purpose; or (iii) the damage or destruction was caused by a peril for which Landlord was not insured and for which Landlord was not obliged to insure against; or (iv)intentionally deleted; ; or (v) less than two (2) years remains during the Term; or (vi) a Mortgagee will not consent to the use of insurance proceeds for repair or reconstruction; then in any of the above cases, Landlord may, at its option (to be exercised by written notice to Tenant within 30 days following any such occurrence) elect to terminate this Lease.

If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease, then the following provisions will apply:

(a) If the Premises become totally unfit for the use for which they were leased, the termination will take effect from the date of the damage or destruction and the Rent will cease to be payable and will be adjusted as of that date.

(b) If the Premises are partially damaged and Tenant has occupied any part of the Premises or any part of the Premises have been reasonably capable of being occupied from the date of the damage or destruction, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in the first paragraph of this Article 16.04 and the Rent will cease to be paid by Tenant as of the date of termination, however, Rent will abate from the date of the damage and destruction until the date of termination to the extent the Premises cannot reasonably be used for their intended purposes.

(c) If the Premises were not damaged, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in Article 16.00 and the Rent will cease to be paid from such date of termination.

If the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed and Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, subject to the following, Landlord shall commence and proceed diligently to reconstruct or repair those portions of the Shopping Centre which have been so damaged or destroyed to the extent only of Landlord's responsibilities pursuant to the terms of the various leases for premises in the Shopping Centre and exclusive of any tenants' responsibilities. Furthermore, if the Premises are being repaired or reconstructed, the provisions of Article 16.01 will apply.

If Landlord does any reconstruction or repairing of the Shopping Centre, Landlord may do any one or more of the following: (i) use plans, specifications and working drawings which differ from those applicable to the Shopping Centre existing prior to the damage or destruction provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; (ii) change the configuration, design and/or size of the Shopping Centre or any of its component parts including, without limitation, the location and size of any mall, court, entrance, parking facility or any of other Common Areas and Facilities provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; and (iii) redesign the tenant mix, both with respect to the kinds of uses which will be included in the tenant mix, as well as the physical location of the types of uses being operated prior to the damage or destruction. Tenant agrees that none of the foregoing shall constitute a default of Landlord's obligation to provide peaceable enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall it constitute a change of form or destination of the Shopping Centre, nor shall the validity or enforceability of this Lease be affected in any manner by any of the foregoing.

ARTICLE 17.00 TRANSFERS AND HYPOTHECS BY LANDLORD

17.01 Sales, Conveyance and Assignment Nothing in this Lease (which term for purpose of this Article 17.00 includes any extension, renewal or replacement of this Lease) will restrict the right of Landlord to sell, convey, assign, hypothecate or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Shopping Centre, subject only to the rights of Tenant under this Lease.

17.02 Effect of Sale, Conveyance or Assignment A sale, conveyance or assignment of the Shopping Centre will operate to release Landlord from liability from and after the date thereof upon all the covenants, terms and conditions of this Lease, express or implied, except as such may relate to the period prior to such effective date, and Tenant will thereafter look solely to Landlord's successor in interest in and to this Lease. This Lease will not be affected by any such sale conveyance or assignment, and Tenant will attorn to Landlord's successor in interest thereunder.

17.12 Notice of Lease Tenant may register at its sole cost and expense (including, without limitation, payment of all registration fees, land transfer duties and similar taxes or charges, costs of plan preparation and registration and all legal fees and disbursements related to such registration) a notice of this Lease in accordance with article 2999.1 of the Civil Code of Quebec (the "Registration Document"), provided and subject to the following:

(a) the Registration Document will be prepared by Tenant at its sole cost in a form acceptable to Landlord, and same will be approved in writing by Landlord prior to its registration;

(b) the Registration Document will only disclose the names of the parties to this Lease, the Premises, and the Commencement Date and the expiry date of the Term, any right of renewal and any other information that is required by article 2999.1 of the Civil Code of Quebec. The Registration Document will not disclose any information concerning the rent or rental rates to be paid, nor any other financial provisions of this Lease;

(c) the Registration Document will be registered against lot number 6 358 100 of the Cadastre of Quebec, Registration Division of Québec. In the event any portion of such lot ceases to form part of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will, forthwith upon request from Landlord, cause its registration to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from the title to such portion all at its own expense;

(d) Tenant will provide Landlord with a copy of the Registration Document and registration particulars thereof, once registration has been effected; and

(f) Upon the expiry or early termination of this Lease, Tenant will, at its sole expense, cause the Registration Document to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from title to the Site and Shopping Centre and to provide proof of such action to Landlord, within 15 days of such expiry or early termination, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its mandatary with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a discharge of any Registration Document will be paid by Tenant.

Tenant hereby irrevocably appoints Landlord as mandatary of Tenant to execute and deliver the any discharges, directors, instruments and/or other documents by or behalf of Tenant to discharge any notice, document or instrument pertaining to the Original Lease from title to the Shopping Centre and any other lands. Landlord will provide Tenant with a copy of any such instrument or document executed as mandatary as aforesaid.

17.14 Servitudes and Rights-of-Way Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord has granted or otherwise created and may in the future grant or otherwise create licence(s), servitudes(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s) over, through, upon or otherwise affecting portions of the Common Areas and Facilities. Tenant hereby consents to the granting or other creation of such licence(s), servitudes(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s).

17.15 Severance of Land In addition to and upon the same basis, mutatis mutandis, as set out in Article 6.04, Landlord will have the right from time to time to effect cadastral operations, to subbdivide and to transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any portion or portions of the Land. Any such subdivision may be accomplished by any means Landlord may consider desirable and the description of the Land will be changed accordingly.

ARTICLE 18.00 NOTICES, ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, AUTHORITIES FOR ACTION

18.01 Notices Any notice from one party to the other under this Lease will be in writing and will be deemed duly given, if delivered personally, by an authorized representative of Tenant or Landlord or by courier, or bailiff to the party being given such notice or to a responsible employee of the party being given such notice, or if mailed in Canada by registered or certified mail addressed to Tenant at the address described in Article 1.01, or to Landlord at the address described in Article 1.01 of this Lease. Any notice will be deemed to have been given at the time of personal delivery, or if mailed, on the third (3rd) postal delivery date after the date of mailing thereof or the date of refusal thereof. Either party will have the right to designate by notice, in the manner above set forth, a different address to which notices are to be given. If it is reasonably anticipated that, due to mail service being disrupted, such notice, if mailed, will not be received by the third (3rd) postal delivery day following mailing, then such notice must be personally delivered as provided in this Article 18.01 or, in lieu of mailing, sent by the most reasonably expeditious means of delivery available to the address for mailing and will be deemed duly given upon such delivery. Notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary, notices shall not be sufficiently given if delivered or transmitted by facsimile or other electronic means.

18.02 Acknowledgments Within ten (10) days after written request therefor by Landlord, Tenant shall deliver an Estoppel Certificate addressed to any Person (other than the Landlord) designated by Landlord, in the form annexed as Exhibit F or such other substantially similar form which Landlord may submit to Tenant.

18.03 Authorities for Action Landlord may act in any matter provided for herein by its property manager, Management Company or any other person who will from time to time be designated by Landlord by notice to Tenant. Tenant will designate in writing one or more persons to act on its behalf in any matter provided for herein and may from time to time change, by notice to Landlord, such designation. In the absence of any such designation, the person or persons executing this Lease for Tenant will be deemed to be authorized to act on behalf of Tenant in any matter provided for in this Lease.

ARTICLE 19.00 DEFAULT

19.01 Interest and Costs Tenant will pay to Landlord the Interest Rate upon all Rent required to be paid under this Lease from the due date for payment thereof until the same is fully paid and satisfied. Tenant will indemnify Landlord against all costs and charges (including legal fees) reasonably incurred in enforcing payment thereof, and in obtaining possession of the Premises after default of Tenant or upon expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, or in enforcing any covenant, proviso or agreement of Tenant contained in this Lease.

19.02 Right of Landlord to Perform Covenants All covenants and agreements to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be performed by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and without abatement of Rent. If Tenant fails to perform any act on its part to be performed under this Lease, and such failure continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord, Landlord may (but will not be obligated so to do) perform such act without waiving or releasing Tenant from any of its obligations relative thereto. All sums paid or costs incurred by Landlord in so performing such acts under this Article 19.02, together with interest thereon at the rate set out in Article 19.01 from the date each such payment was made or each such cost was incurred by Landlord, plus 20% of such costs for Landlord's administration and overhead, will be payable by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

19.03 Events of Default If and whenever:

(a) Part or all of the Rent hereby reserved is not paid when due, whether lawfully demanded or not, and such default continues after five (5) business days' notice by Landlord, provided that if Tenant is no longer obligated to pay Incremental Rent, the aforesaid five (5) business day period shall be deemed extended to fifteen (days) after notice by Landlord; or

(b) Tenant fails to observe, perform and keep each and every of the covenants, agreements, provisions, stipulations and conditions herein contained to be observed, performed and kept by Tenant (other than payment of Rent) and persists in such failure after thirty (30) days' notice by Landlord specifying with reasonable particularity the nature of such failure and requiring that Tenant remedy, correct, desist or comply (or if any such breach would reasonably require more than thirty (30) days to rectify, unless Tenant commences rectification within the thirty (30) day notice period and thereafter promptly, effectively and continuously proceeds with the rectification of the breach to completion of rectification); or

(c) any goods, movable property or equipment of Tenant is taken or exigible in execution or in attachment or if a writ of execution is issued against Tenant; or

(d) Tenant becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy or becomes bankrupt or takes the benefit of any statute that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or becomes involved in voluntary or involuntary winding-up or dissolution or liquidation proceedings or if a receiver will be appointed for the business, property, affairs or revenues of Tenant; Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall provide Landlord with: (i) 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (i) hereof, to the extent Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action, (iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (iv) 5 business day prior written notice of the Tenant signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s); or

(e) any person other than Tenant or a Transferee permitted under this Lease has or exercises the right to manage or control the Premises, any part thereof or any business carried on in the Premises, other than subject to the actual, direct and full supervision and control of Tenant; or

(f) Tenant makes a bulk sale of its goods or moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its goods, movable property or equipment out of the Premises (other than in the normal course of its business) or Tenant ceases to conduct business from the Premises or the Premises are not open for business to the public on any three (3) consecutive days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises or on more than five (5) days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises in any twelve (12) month period; or

(g) a Transfer is effected or any Tenant Security is granted in any manner other than as permitted by this Lease; or

(h) a default of the monetary obligations of the tenant (which is not remedied within the cure period provided for in such new lease) occurs under any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties, where such default would constitute a "cross default" event as set out in such new lease or any other agreement entered into by and between Tenant and Landlord (and/or its or their affiliates):

(i) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(ii) Mapleview;

(iii) Southgate;

(iv) Guilford;

(v) Oshawa;

(vi) Galeries d'Anjou;

(vii) CrossIron Mills

(viii) Outlet collection at Niagara

(ix) Outlet collection Winnipeg; or

(x) Vaughan Mills (such lease at Vaughan Mills, together with the aforesaid leases at CrossIron Mills, Outlet collection at Niagara and Outlet collection Winnipeg being collectively, the "Other Saks Leases"),

then and in any of such cases, at the option of Landlord, the full amount of the current month's and the next ensuing three (3) months instalments of Rent will immediately become due and payable together with all tenant allowance monies paid to Tenant or the value of other inducements given to Tenant (such as, but not limited to, rent-free periods) in accordance with the provisions of this Lease or any other agreement between Landlord and Tenant relating to the Premises (such allowances and inducements hereinafter referred to as "Tenant Inducements") and Landlord may immediately take legal proceedings for the same, together with any arrears then unpaid; and Landlord may without notice or any form of legal process forthwith re-enter upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and expel all Persons from the Premises and remove and sell or dispose of Tenant's goods, movable property and trade fixtures therefrom as Landlord sees fit, or store property such at the cost of Tenant, any rule of law to the contrary notwithstanding all without liability and loss or damage and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover arrears of Rent or damages for any antecedent default by Tenant of its obligations or agreements under this Lease or of any term or condition of this Lease, and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover from Tenant damages for loss of Rent suffered by reason of this Lease having been prematurely terminated. Any such sale may be effected in the discretion of Landlord by public auction or otherwise, and either in bulk or by individual item, or partly by one means and partly by another, all as Landlord in its entire discretion may decide. If any of Tenant's property is disposed of as provided in this Article 19.03, ten (10) days prior notice to Tenant of disposition will be deemed to be commercially reasonable.

19.04 Intentionally deleted.

19.05 Surrender If and whenever Landlord is entitled to or does re-enter, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving notice thereof, and in such event Tenant will forthwith vacate and surrender the Premises.

19.06 Payments If Landlord re-enters or if this Lease is terminated, Tenant will pay to Landlord on demand:

(a) Rent up to the time of re-entry or termination, whichever will be the later, plus three (3) months' accelerated rent as herein provided; and

(b) all expenses incurred by Landlord in performing any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, re-entering or terminating and re-letting, collecting sums due or payable by Tenant, realizing upon assets seized (including brokerage, legal fees and disbursements), and the expense of keeping the Premises in good order, repairing the same and preparing them for re-letting; and

(c) as damages (subject to the Landlord's obligation to mitigate at law) for the loss of income of Landlord expected to be derived from the Premises, the amounts (if any) by which the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease exceeds the payments (if any) received by Landlord from other tenants in the Premises, payable on the first (1st) day of each month during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term had it not been terminated, or if elected by Landlord by notice to Tenant at or after re-entry or termination, a lump sum amount equal to the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease from the date of such election during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term, had it not been terminated, reduced by the rental value of the Premises for the same period, established by reference to the terms and conditions upon which Landlord re-lets them if such re-letting is accomplished within a reasonable period after termination, and otherwise established by reference to all market and other relevant circumstances; Rent and rental value being reduced to present worth at an assumed interest rate of ten percent (10%) on the basis of Landlord's estimates and assumptions of fact which will govern unless shown to be erroneous; and

(d) all Tenant Inducements given by Landlord to Tenant in respect of the Premises.

19.07 Remedies Cumulative No reference to nor exercise of any specific right or remedy by Landlord will prejudice or preclude Landlord from exercising or invoking any other remedy in respect thereof, whether allowed at law or expressly provided for in this Lease. No such remedy will be exclusive or dependent upon any other such remedy, but Landlord may from time to time exercise any one or more of such remedies independently or in combination.

19.08 Waiver In the event Tenant is in default in performing any of its obligations (including without limitation, the payment of any Rent), and Landlord shall have instituted proceedings to cancel, terminate or to confirm its cancellation or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall not have any right to prevent such cancellation or termination by remedying its default or defaults subsequent to the institution of such legal proceedings.

19.09 Intentionally deleted.

19.10 Additional Recourses If Tenant is in default to fulfill any of its obligations under this Lease and in particular its obligations pursuant to Articles 5.03, 5.10 and 18.02 of this Lease, then in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights or recourses of Landlord hereunder, Landlord may, at its option, obtain injunctive relief to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do, Tenant hereby expressly acknowledging and agreeing that this Article 19.10 constitutes a waiver against any defense to Landlord's application for injunctive relief made to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do.

19.11 Non-Waiver No condoning, excusing or over-looking by either party of any default by the other at any time in respect of any of its obligations shall operate as a waiver of Landlord's or Tenant's rights hereunder in respect of any such default or any subsequent default or so as to defeat or affect in any way the rights of Landlord or Tenant in respect of any such default or subsequent default. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by anything done or omitted to be done by Landlord or Tenant save only where such waiver is expressed in writing.

Without limiting the general application hereof, the acceptance of any sums of money, statements of account or reports that Tenant or Landlord must pay or provide pursuant to this Lease, shall not constitute a renunciation of the rights of Landlord or Tenant in virtue of theses presents.

19.12 Shopping Centre Assets Only the Shopping Centre assets and any property exclusively related thereto shall serve to satisfy the obligations of Landlord under this Lease or in virtue of any responsibility of Landlord resulting from its fault. Tenant recognizes and declares, without reserve, that any recourse by Tenant against Landlord based on, or in virtue of, this Lease or resulting from any fault of Landlord, shall be restricted and can only be executed against the Shopping Centre, to the exclusion of all other property belonging to Landlord.

19.13 Real Estate Investment Trust In the event that a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") should be at any time bound by the covenants of Landlord hereunder or incur any liability as Landlord hereunder, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease or at law, such covenants and liability hereunder and under all other agreements entered into pursuant hereto, if any, shall not be personally binding upon and resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse of satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the trustees of the REIT, unitholders of the REIT, annuitants under a plan of which the REIT or any unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the REIT or directors or officers of any of its nominees, although this provision shall not constitute a bar to any action against the REIT for specific performance of this Lease or performance of any obligation of the REIT arising from or in connection with its obligations, if any, under this Lease or other agreements entered into pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 20.00 Intentionally deleted.

ARTICLE 21.00 MISCELLANEOUS

21.01 Waiver by Tenant The Tenant hereby waives any right which it might have or enjoy at any time pursuant to Article 1854 (second paragraph), 1859, 1861, 1863 (second paragraph), 1867, 1868 (second paragraph) and 1881 of the Civil Code of Quebec or any replacement legislation.

21.01 Relationship of Parties Nothing contained in this Lease will create any relationship between parties to this Lease other than that of landlord and tenant, and it is acknowledged and agreed that

Landlord does not in any way or for any purpose become a partner of Tenant in the conduct of its business, or a joint venturer or a member of a joint or common enterprise with Tenant.

21.02 Consent Not Unreasonably Withheld Except as otherwise specifically provided, whenever consent or approval of Landlord or Tenant is required under the terms of this Lease, such consent or approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant's sole remedy if Landlord unreasonably withholds or delays consent or approval will be an action for specific performance, and Landlord will not be liable for damages. If either party withholds any consent or approval, such party will on written request deliver to the other party a written statement giving the reasons therefor.

21.03 Applicable Law and Interpretation This Lease will be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located, and its provisions will be interpreted as a whole according to their common meaning and not strictly for or against Landlord or Tenant. The words "Landlord" and "Tenant" will include the plural as well as the singular. If this Lease is executed by more than one party as Tenant, Tenant's obligations under this Lease will be solidary obligations of such executing parties. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions. The captions of the Articles are included for convenience only, and will have no effect upon the interpretation of this Lease.

Certain text in this Lease has been bolded and underlined and certain text has been deleted by way of a line through applicable text. Such bolding and underlining and lines through the applicable text have been used to identify changes to Landlord's standard form of lease for the Shopping Centre. All bolded and underlined text will be read as if not bolded and underlined and all text deleted by way of a line will be deemed not to exist.

21.04 Entire Agreement This Lease (together with any other agreement entered into by the Landlord, the Tenant and/or its or their affiliates as a pre-condition to the execution of this Lease) contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Lease and except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Lease, this Lease supersedes and revokes all previous negotiations, arrangements, letters of intent, offers to lease, lease proposals, brochures, agreements, representations, promises, warranties, understandings, and information conveyed, whether oral or in writing, between the parties hereto or their respective representatives or any other person purporting to represent Landlord or Tenant. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it has not relied upon any statement, representation, agreement or warranty except such as are expressly set out in this Lease.

21.05 Amendment or Modification Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, no amendment, modification, or supplement to this Lease will be valid or binding unless set out in writing and executed by the parties hereto in the same manner as the execution of this Lease.

21.06 Construed Covenants and Severability All of the provisions of this Lease are to be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words importing such covenants and agreements were used in each separate Article hereof. If any term, proviso, covenant or condition of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is to any extent held or rendered invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal it or its application will be considered separate and severable from this Lease to such extent and the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term, proviso, covenant or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is held invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal will not be affected thereby and will continue to be applicable and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

21.07 No Implied Surrender or Waiver No provisions of this Lease will be deemed to have been waived by Landlord unless such waiver is in writing signed by Landlord. Landlord's waiver of a breach of any term or condition of this Lease will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a breach, from having all the force and effect of any original breach. Landlord's receipt of Rent with knowledge of a breach by Tenant of any term or condition of this Lease will not be deemed a waiver of such breach. Landlord's failure to enforce against Tenant or any other tenant in the Shopping Centre any of the Rules and Regulations made under Article 14.00 will not be deemed a waiver of such Rules and Regulations. No act or thing done by Landlord, its agents or employees during the Term will be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept a surrender of the Premises will be valid, unless in writing signed by Landlord. The delivery of keys to any of Landlord's agents or employees will not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises. No payment by Tenant, or receipt by Landlord, of a lesser amount than the Rent due under this Lease will be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated Rent, nor will any endorsement or statement on any cheque or any letter accompanying any cheque, or payment as Rent, be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such cheque or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Rent or pursue any other remedy available to Landlord.

21.08 Additional Costs Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Rent, upon written request therefore, any and all costs, including without limitation, costs of additional security, cleaning and legal costs, incurred by Landlord as a result of picketing, demonstration or other activity within the Shopping Centre which is initiated by members of any organization, including, without limitation, a trade union, and which is directed at Tenant, its contractors, subcontractors, suppliers or employees or at Tenant's operations in the Shopping Centre.

21.09 Successors Bound Except as otherwise specifically provided, the covenants terms and conditions contained in this Lease will apply to and bind the heirs, successors, executors, administrators and permitted assigns of the parties hereto.

21.10 Brokerage Commission Any brokerage commissions with respect to the present transaction shall be borne exclusively by Tenant and Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any and all claims for payment of commission with respect thereto, unless Landlord has given a specific written mandate to any broker or agent for the present transaction.

21.11 Confidentiality Tenant agrees to keep the terms and conditions of this Lease confidential. Any information pertaining to this Lease cannot be communicated or revealed to a third party without the written consent of Landlord whose refusal will be deemed reasonable if the information that would be communicated or revealed is of a financial nature. Tenant's failure to respect this Article 21.11 is acknowledged by Tenant to constitute a major prejudice to Landlord and also a default according to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

21.12 No Offer by Landlord Landlord will not be deemed to have made an offer to Tenant by preparing this Lease. No agreement respecting the Premises will arise or exist between the parties hereto except through the due execution of this Lease by both Tenant and Landlord. Upon execution and delivery by Tenant to Landlord, this Lease will be irrevocable by Tenant and open for acceptance by Landlord until 5:00 P.M. on the 60th day thereafter, and if not accepted by Landlord by then, may be withdrawn by Tenant by notice to Landlord at any time prior to its later acceptance by Landlord.

21.13 Time of Essence Time shall be of the essence of this Lease in respect to all of the agreements and obligations of Tenant and/or Landlord contained herein.

21.14 Force Majeure If any party hereto is bona fide delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any term, obligation or act required hereunder by reason of Force Majeure, then performance of such term, obligation or act is excused for the period during which the cause of the Force Majeure persists. Once the cause of this Force Majeure has ceased, the party so delayed shall perform such terms, obligations or acts within the time period stipulated in the Lease, without regard for such period of time during which the cause of the Force Majeure persisted.

21.15 Non-Smoking Shopping Centre The Shopping Centre is a non-smoking facility. Tenant, its employees, invitees, customers, and anyone for whom Tenant is responsible at law are strictly prohibited from smoking in any interior or exterior areas of the Shopping Centre, except those exterior areas designated by Landlord as designated smoking areas (if any). Tenant agrees that it will comply with the foregoing restriction as well as any applicable legislation regulating smoking in shopping centres.

21.16 Counterpart Execution This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement, effective when all counterparts have been signed. The parties hereto agree that this Lease may be signed either by paper signature or by electronic signature and may be delivered electronically (in .pdf format) or otherwise, and the parties accept any such electronic signatures as original signatures of the parties.

ARTICLE 22.00 TENANT ALLOWANCE

Landlord shall pay to Tenant a payment (the "Tenant Allowance") in an amount equal to CDN$10,000,000 plus applicable GST and QST upon (a) mutual execution of this Lease; (b) satisfaction of all other pre-conditions to such payment as set out in any other agreement by and between Landlord and Tenant; and (c) issuance by Tenant of an invoice to Landlord containing all prescribed information required by Landlord to validly support its claims for input tax credits.

EXHIBIT C
RESTRICTED USES

ATMOSPHÈRE

« 20.4 Exclusivité

Sujet aux dispositions du paragraphe 20.2, et pourvu que le Locataire ne soit pas en défaut de ses obligations en vertu du Bail, le Locateur s'engage à ne louer aucun autre lieu dans le Centre Commercial à un locataire dont l'usage sera la vente d'équipements de sport de nature « hard goods » (comme par exemple et non limitativement, canots, tentes, skis, raquettes, équipement de hockey et vélos). Il est entendu que la présente exclusivité n'aura aucune application à (i) la vente de chaussures et de vêtements; (ii) un magasin de sport spécialisé dans le golf ~~dont la superficie sera de deux mille (2,000) pieds carrés ou moins~~ et (iii) la vente et la location d'équipement d'exercice et de musculation. Nonobstant ce qui précède, le Locateur aura le droit de permettre la vente de produits de sports de nature « hard goods » à titre d'usage secondaire pourvu que la superficie affectée à cet usage n'excède pas dix pour cent (10%) de la superficie locative des lieux d'un tel locataire.

Nonobstant ce qui précède, cette exclusivité ne s'applique pas à tous les locataires existants dans le Centre Commercial à la date de l'acceptation des présentes par le Locateur et à tous futurs magasins de rayons ayant une superficie de quarante mille (40,000) pieds carrés ou plus, non plus qu'à tout sous-locataire, cessionnaire ou ayants droits des locataires existants et/ou des magasins à rayons ci-haut mentionnés ».

ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

27.11 The Landlord agrees not to lease space in the Shopping Centre or any extensions thereto to any other bank, financial, loan or deposit gathering institute (save and except for this bank and one Finance Company, and one other Canadian Chartered Bank), for the term of the Lease and its options. This clause will also cover the installation of automatic cash dispensing units but specifically excepting any credit services provided by any department store and any other store in the Shopping Centre.

BIZOU L'ACCESSOIRIE

20.1 Droit de premier refus pour kiosque temporaire

Pourvu que le Locataire ne soit pas en défaut de son Bail, il est entendu par la présente que si en tout temps, durant le Terme le Locateur entreprend de louer certains lieux dans le Centre Commercial Place Ste-Foy pour fins d'exploitation d'un kiosque temporaire principalement pour la vente au détail d'accessoires d'hiver pour hommes, femmes et enfants (selon le concept « L'Accessoire sous zéro ») tel qu'exploité au Faubourg de l'Île à Pincourt et aux Galeries Rive Nord à Repentigny, lesquels superficie et emplacement à être déterminés par le Locateur, alors le Locataire aura, à chaque année, l'option de louer un kiosque temporaire pour l'usage mentionné au présent paragraphe 20.1 dans ledit Centre Commercial, sur réception d'un avis écrit du Locateur au Locataire, le tout pour un loyer mensuel de deux mille quatre cents dollars (2 400,00$) par mois et pour une période maximale de cinq (5) mois par année, laquelle période débutera au plus tôt le 15 septembre et au plus tard le 15 octobre de chaque année. Le Locataire aura un délai maximum de quinze (15) jours après réception de cet avis écrit du Locateur pour aviser le Locateur de son intention d'accepter ou de rejeter ladite offre, à défaut de quoi, la présente option de droit de premier refus sera nulle et sans effet pour toutes fins. Tous les termes et conditions du présent Bail s'appliqueront audit kiosque temporaire, sauf tels qu'amendés par ledit article 20.1.

20.2 Exclusivité sur kiosque temporaire

Durant la période de la location du kiosque temporaire du Locataire et pourvu que le Locataire ne soit pas en défaut du Bail, le Locateur ne louera pas d'espace à un autre kiosque temporaire dans le Centre Commercial pour la vente au détail principalement d'accessoires d'hiver pour hommes, femmes et enfants (selon le concept « L'Accessoire sous zéro » tel qu'exploité au Faubourg de l'Île et les Galeries Rive Nord).

La présente exclusivité, en faveur du Locataire, ne s'appliquera pas aux lieux déjà loués ni aux kiosques permanents dans le Centre Commercial. De plus, la présente exclusivité ne s'appliquera pas aux locataires existants du Centre Commercial, leurs ayants droits, leurs cessionnaires et/ou sous-locataires.

J. M. CLÉMENT

1.7 Utilisation permise des Lieux : les Lieux ne seront utilisés que principalement aux fins de la vente au détail de vêtements pour enfants et secondairement pour la vente au détail d'accessoires tels que chapeaux, gants, foulards ainsi que la vente de chaussures coordonnées pourvu que ledit usage secondaire n'excède pas 10% (en pieds carrés, pieds cubes, nombre et importance de l'étalage) de la Superficie des Lieux et troisièmement pour la vente au détail de meubles et accessoires pour enfants, et ne devront pas être utilisés à quelque autre fin que ce soit. Il est entendu entre les parties que le Locateur ne pourra augmenter le nombre de pieds carrés calculé au 5 septembre 1996 dans le Centre Commercial reliées à la spécialité de vêtements pour enfants (en usage principal seulement) sauf dans le cas d'un agrandissement du Centre Commercial et sauf pour tout locataire existant ou cessionnaire, sous-locataire de ce locataire existant. De plus, l'ancien local ne pourra pas être loué à un spécialiste du vêtement pour enfant.

MÉTRO

12. (1) L'une des conditions essentielles du présent bail est que, pendant toute la Durée du bail, le Bailleur n'utilisera pas ni ne permettra l'utilisation de toute partie du Centre commercial comme établissement des types décrits ci-dessous ou comme stationnement pour tout établissement de ce genre, et ce directement ou indirectement :

(a) tout établissement qui ne serait pas exploité comme faisant partie du Centre commercial en conformité avec le présent bail;

(b) tout magasin exploité principalement ou en partie pour la vente de marchandises d'occasion (sauf la revente de marchandises retournées), d'articles de surplus d'armée, d'articles récupérés par les assurances ou pour la vente après incendie ou encore la vente de marchandises endommagées par l'incendie, sauf si l'incendie a eu lieu dans le magasin en cause et uniquement les marchandises endommagées par cet incendie et ce, dans la période de trente (30) jours suivant immédiatement la date à laquelle le magasin a rouvert à la suite de cet incendie;

(c) tout commerce dans l'exploitation duquel le locataire utilise une publicité ou des techniques de vente frauduleuses ou mensongères;

(d) la vente aux enchères, sauf dans le cas d'œuvres d'art ou d'antiquités;

(e) toute boutique de prêteurs sur gage, salle de bingo, de quilles ou de banquet; ou

(f) tout autre commerce qui, en raison des marchandises vendues ou des méthodes de commercialisation susceptibles d'être utilisées, aurait tendance à dégrader le caractère du Centre commercial.

Les dispositions précédentes du présent paragraphe constituent des engagements restrictifs qui s'appliquent à l'ensemble du Centre commercial, à l'exclusion des Locaux loués, et qui ont été incluses pour le bénéfice des Locaux loués.

RESTRICTIONS PARTICULIÈRES

12. (2) L'une des conditions essentielles du présent bail est que, pendant toute la Durée du bail, le Bailleur s'abstienne d'utiliser ou de permettre l'utilisation de toute partie du Centre Commercial, à l'exclusion des Locaux loués, pour la vente ou la distribution d'aliments ou de produits alimentaires, ou comme stationnement pour tout établissement de ce genre; toutefois, le présent paragraphe 12(2) ne s'applique pas :

(a) à la vente à titre accessoire d'aliments ou de produits alimentaires dans le cadre de l'exploitation d'un commerce qui n'est pas spécifiquement interdit dans le présent paragraphe 12(2); pourvu que :

(i) la vente de ces aliments ou produits alimentaires fasse normalement partie de l'exploitation de ce type de commerce;

(ii) la portion de ces locaux affectée à l'entreposage, l'étalage et la vente de ces aliments ou produits alimentaires n'excède pas 2% des premiers 5 000 pieds carrés de superficie locative brute de ces locaux et 1% du reste de la superficie locative brute de ces locaux; et

(iii) aucune disposition du présent paragraphe 12(2)(a) ne soit interprétée comme permettant la vente d'articles d'épicerie, de fruits, légumes, produits laitiers, viandes, volailles, poissons ou produits de boulangerie ou de pâtisserie; ni

(b) à la vente d'aliments ou de produits alimentaires destinés à la consommation immédiate; ni

(c) à la vente d'aliments ou de produits alimentaires dans les locaux d'une pharmacie ou d'un Grand magasin, pourvu que, dans chaque cas, la portion de ces locaux affectée à l'entreposage, l'étalage et la vente d'aliments et de produits alimentaires n'excède pas 6% de la superficie locative brute de ces locaux; ni

(d) à la vente d'aliments ou de produits alimentaires dans des locaux (autres que les locaux visés par le paragraphe 12(2)(b)) ayant une superficie locative brute n'excédant pas au total 10% de la différence entre la superficie locative brute totale des Locaux loués, du Grand magasin, des bureaux et des locaux ayant une superficie locative brute supérieure à 30 000 pieds carrés; toutefois :

(i) aucun de ces locaux ne doit avoir une superficie locative brute supérieur à 1 600 pieds carrés; et toutefois, aucun établissement visé par ces exceptions ne peut être installé dans des locaux situés à l'intérieur d'un rayon de 25 pieds de l'Immeuble ou dans les locaux adjacents à ceux d'un autre établissement visé par ces exceptions.

Les dispositions précédentes du présent paragraphe constituent des engagements restrictifs qui s'appliquent à l'ensemble du Centre commercial, à l'exclusion des Locaux loués, et qui ont été incluses pour le bénéfice des Locaux loués.

RESTRICTION CONCERNANT LES PRODUITS PHARMACEUTIQUES

12. (3) L'une des conditions essentielles du présent bail, est que, si les Locaux loués ont une superficie locative brute supérieure à 45 000 pieds carrés, le Bailleur doit pendant toute la Durée du bail s'abstenir d'utiliser ou de permettre l'utilisation de toute partie du Centre commercial, à l'exclusion des Locaux loués, pour la vente ou la distribution de médicaments ou de produits pharmaceutiques, ou comme stationnement pour tout établissement de ce genre; toutefois, le présent paragraphe 12(3) ne s'applique pas :

(a) à la vente accessoire, dans le cadre de l'exploitation d'un commerce, de médicaments ou de produits pharmaceutiques ne requérant pas les services d'un pharmacien;

(b) à la vente de médicaments ou de produits pharmaceutiques dans un Grand magasin.

Les dispositions précédentes du présent paragraphe constituent des engagements restrictifs qui s'appliquent à l'ensemble du Centre commercial, à l'exclusion des Locaux loués, et qui ont été incluses pour le bénéfice des Locaux loués.

PHARMACIE BRUNET

20.3 Pourvu que le Locataire n'ait pas été et ne soit pas en défaut de ses obligations en vertu du présent Bail et que le Locataire n'ait pas cédé le Bail, ni sous-loué les Lieux à moins d'avoir obtenu l'acceptation préalable du Locateur ou que la cession ou la sous-location ait été effectuée suivant l'Article 13.1.1, le Locateur s'engage à ne louer aucun autre lieu dans le Centre Commercial à un locataire dont l'usage principal ou secondaire est la vente de médicaments sur ordonnances médicales.

Nonobstant ce qui précède, cette limitation de droit de location ne s'applique pas à tous les Locataires Majeurs existants, lesquels ont une superficie de 50 000 p.c. ou plus, dans le Centre Commercial à la date de l'acceptation des présentes par le Locateur soit : Les Ailes et Simons non plus qu'à tout sous-locataire ou cessionnaire de ces locataires majeurs.

Le Locataire déclare par la présente qu'il a spécifiquement exigé la limitation du droit de location ci-inclus, et qu'il consent à indemniser et garantir le Locateur à l'encontre de toute perte, sanction et/ou dommages subis par le Locateur qui découle de la stipulation et/ou application de cette limitation.

EXHIBIT D
RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Security Landlord may from time to time adopt appropriate systems and procedures for the security or safety of the Shopping Centre, any persons occupying, using or entering the same, or any equipment, finishings or contents thereof, and Tenant will comply with Landlord's reasonable requirements relative thereto.

2. Return of Keys At the end of the Term, Tenant will promptly return to Landlord all keys for the Shopping Centre and Premises which are in possession of Tenant.

3. Repair, Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements Tenant will carry out Tenant's repair, maintenance, alterations and improvements in the Premises only during times agreed to in advance by Landlord and in a manner which will not interfere with the rights of other tenants in the Shopping Centre.

4. Water Fixtures Tenant will not use water fixtures for any purpose for which they are not intended, nor will water be wasted by tampering with such fixtures. Any cost or damage resulting from such misuse by Tenant will be paid for by Tenant.

5. Personal Use of Premises The Premises will not be used or permitted to be used for residential, lodging or sleeping purposes or for the storage of personal effects or property not required for business purposes.

6. Heavy Articles and Overloading Services Tenant will not place in or move about the Premises, without Landlord's prior written consent, any safe or other heavy article which in Landlord's reasonable opinion may damage the Shopping Centre, and Landlord may designate the location of any heavy articles in the Premises. Tenant will not overload any utility or service in or serving the Premises or any part of the Shopping Centre.

7. Animals, Bicycles, Shopping Carts Tenant will not bring any animals or birds into the Shopping Centre, and will not permit bicycles or other vehicles inside or on the sidewalks outside the Shopping Centre except in areas designated from time to time by Landlord for such purposes. Tenant shall not permit shopping carts in the Common Areas and Facilities and shall be fully responsible for their removal and indemnify Landlord from any claim, loss, expense, damages or injuries caused by the shopping carts.

8. Deliveries Tenant will ensure that deliveries or shipments of supplies, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, wares and merchandise to or from the Premises are made only through such delivery facilities, entrances, elevators and corridors and at such times as may from time to time be designated by Landlord, and will promptly pay or cause to be paid to Landlord the cost of repairing any damage in the Shopping Centre caused by any person making such deliveries or shipments.

9. Solicitations Landlord reserves the right to restrict or prohibit canvassing, soliciting or peddling in the Shopping Centre.

10. Food, Beverages and Entertainment Only persons approved from time to time by Landlord may prepare, solicit orders for, sell, serve or distribute foods or beverages in the Shopping Centre, or use the elevators, corridors or Common Areas and Facilities for any such purposes. Except with Landlord's prior written consent and in accordance with arrangements approved in writing by Landlord, Tenant will not permit on the Premises the use of equipment for dispensing food or beverages or for the preparation, solicitation of orders for, sale, serving or distribution of food or beverages or for the selling or providing of any form of entertainment, including vending machines or other machines operated by coins or other devices.

11. Refuse Tenant will separate and place all refuse in proper receptacles provided by Tenant at its expense in the Premises or in receptacles in recycling stations (if any) provided for the Shopping Centre, and will keep sidewalks and driveways outside the Shopping Centre, and lobbies, corridors, stairwells, ducts and shafts of the Shopping Centre, free of all refuse.

12. Obstructions Tenant will not obstruct or place anything in or on the sidewalks or driveways outside the Shopping Centre or in the lobbies, corridors, stairwells or other Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre, or use such locations for any purpose except access to and exit from the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent. Landlord may remove at Tenant's expense any such obstruction or thing (unauthorized by Landlord) without notice or obligation to Tenant.

13. Dangerous, Immoral or Hazardous Activities Tenant will not make any use of the Premises which involves the danger of injury to any person, nor will same be used for any immoral purpose or to commit any act of waste or damage to any part of the Premises or to use any part of the Premises so as to constitute a hazard.

14. Proper Conduct Tenant will not conduct itself in any manner which is inconsistent with the character of the Shopping Centre as being of first quality or which will impair the comfort and convenience of other tenants in the Shopping Centre. Such prohibited conduct will include the playing of loud music and the placing of merchandise racks in the Common Areas and Facilities.

15. Parking Landlord, from time to time, may prohibit Tenant, Tenant's employees and Tenant's suppliers and others making deliveries to or receiving shipments from the Premises from parking anywhere within the Shopping Centre. If Landlord designates Tenant parking areas in the Shopping Centre, Tenant will park its vehicles and will cause its employees to park their vehicles only in such designated parking areas. Tenant will furnish Landlord, upon request, with the current licence numbers of all vehicles owned or used by Tenant or its employees and Tenant thereafter will notify Landlord of any changes in such numbers within five (5) days after the occurrence thereof. In the event of failure of Tenant or its employees to park their vehicles in such designated parking areas, Tenant will forthwith on demand pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the sum of $20.00 per day per each car so parked. Landlord reserves the right to impose reasonable charges upon any person (including the general public) for the use of any parking facilities which may from time to time form a part of the Shopping Centre.

16. Sustainability Tenant shall implement energy-efficient practices within the Premises, including closing all window shades, turning off any unnecessary lights and equipment after the close of business day.

Tenant will keep any exterior doors and windows to the Premises closed during the periods where there is a variation of three (3) degrees Celsius or more between indoor and outdoor temperatures.

Tenant will turn off interior mall signage and display window lighting half-an-hour after closing until half-an-hour before opening time the next day (the "After-Hours Period"), or as Landlord deems appropriate.

Tenant will limit After-Hours Period interior lighting to emergency lighting, when the Premises are not occupied.

Where Tenant has the ability to control its HVAC for the Premises, Tenant will adjust the HVAC temperature settings so as to limit the Premises' energy consumption during the After-Hours Period by setting back the temperature of the Premises by six (6) degrees Celsius from the daytime temperature setting.

Tenant will not use space heaters in or for the Premises, unless Tenant first obtains Landlord's written consent.

If Landlord leak tests for Tenant's plumbing fixtures reveal water leaks or other defects, Landlord will notify Tenant of such defects and Tenant will take all necessary actions to diligently remedy said effects.

In addition to the requirements set out under Article 20.05 of the Lease, Tenant will comply with Landlord's waste minimization and diversion rules and regulations, as established from time to time.

Tenant will make available an appropriate staff representative to attend Landlord's information and training sessions relating to Landlord's initiatives for improving the Shopping Centre's operational sustainability.

1.03 Shopping Centre: Vaughan Mills,Vaughan, Ontario

1.04 Area: [*SqFtArea] 34,992 square feet.

1.05 Term: A period of ten (10) years, beginning on the 3rd day of February, 2024, and expiring on the 2nd day of February, 2034, unless terminated earlier or renewed as provided in this Lease. The options in favor of Tenant in the Original Lease to renew or extend the term thereof shall equally apply in respect of this Term on the same terms as the renewal or extension options set out in the Original Lease, save and except that (a) in no event shall the final expiry date of this Term (as may be so renewed) be later than what would have been the final expiry date of the term of the Original Lease after the exercise of all renewal/extension options had it not been terminated and replaced by this Lease; and (b) the Tenant shall continue to have the obligation to pay the Incremental Rent throughout this Term (as may be further renewed/extended including during any renewal/extension of the Term pursuant to the renewal/extension options incorporated in this Lease from the Original Lease), as set out in Section 1.09 of this Lease.

1.06 Intentionally deleted.

1.07 Permitted Use of Premises:

The Premises shall be used for the purposes of the operation of an off-price retail store selling better quality apparel, accessories, shoes, handbags, jewellery and other better quality merchandise as is typically sold from time to time in Tenant's similar off-price retail stores in Canada operating under the name "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th", "Off 5th - Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" (or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the other similar off-price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada) and in other similar off-price retail stores selling better quality merchandise currently operating in North America, such as, by way of example only and without limitation, those off-price retail stores operating under the names "Nordstrom Rack", "Holt Renfrew's HR2", and "Nieman Marcus Last Call".Tenant further covenants that, if and for so long as the Shopping Centre is being managed and operated by Landlord as a first-class shopping centre in accordance with the highest standards of the shopping centre industry, Tenant shall carry on its business in and from the Premises as an off-price retail store in a first class manner in keeping with the said standards of the shopping centre industry.

Tenant will carry on its business in the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not do or omit to do anything or permit or suffer anything to be done upon the Premises that will result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

Subject to the provisions of Article 11.00 of this Lease, Tenant may operate, or cause to be operated, the department or departments within the Premises, in whole or in part, by licensees, sub-tenants and/or concessionaires, provided that the Premises continue to be carried on, and retain the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated, and not a multiple tenant, off-price retail store. Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not do or omit to do anything or permit or suffer anything to be done upon the Premises that will result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

Notwithstanding any other provision herein, Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any call centre operation (iii) a store conducted principally for the sale of war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (iv) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire; (y) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (vi) an auction sale; (vii) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or the pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre; and (viii) any of the Restricted Uses (as hereinafter defined).

At the time of entering into the Original Lease, Landlord had granted certain restrictive covenants and/or exclusive rights of use to or in favor certain other tenants of the Shopping Centre, including those set out in any notices of leases or other instruments registered on title to the Lands on or prior to the date of the Original Lease (the "Restricted Uses"). For greater certainty, Tenant hereby acknowledges and agrees that, if and for so long as each of the Restricted Uses granted by Landlord to the respective persons (including their respective successors and assigns) remains unamended and in full legal force and effect, Tenant shall not use the Premises or permit the Premises to be used for the operation of any business or the sale of any merchandise or services that would cause Landlord to be in default of any such Restricted Uses.

If at any time during the Term less than the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises is occupied and open to the public for business for a period exceeding two (2) months for any reason other than Force Majeure (as that term is hereinafter defined), damage or destruction, permitted alterations, repair or rebuilding, and/or a permitted assignment or sublet to a third party, Landlord shall thereafter have the right to terminate this Lease while such cessation of operation continues by giving Tenant no less than thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof, provided that Tenant may nullify such notice of termination and this Lease shall not be terminated if Tenant reopens the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises to the public for business prior to the termination date specified in Landlord's notice and thereafter continues to keep the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises open for business for at least twelve (12) consecutive months (failing which Landlord's termination of the Lease shall be effective immediately upon Tenant ceasing to operate during the aforementioned 12-month period). In the event that Tenant nullifies Landlord's notice of termination as aforesaid, the provisions of this Article 1.07 shall continue to apply throughout the balance of the Term.

1.08 Tenant's Store Name: "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th", "Off 5th - Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" (or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the other similar off-price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada). Tenant shall not operate its business under any other name or trade name without having first obtained Landlord's prior written consent.

1.09 Gross Rent: Throughout the Term (inclusive of all renewals or extensions thereof), an annual aggregate amount equal to: (A) 4.5% of the first Eighteen Million Dollars ($18,000,000) of Gross Sales (as hereinafter defined) made from the Premises during each Percentage Rent Lease Year (as hereinafter defined), payable pursuant to Article 4.00; (B) 3.5% of Gross Sales made from the Premises in excess of Eighteen Million Dollars ($18,000,000) during each Percentage Rent Lease Year (as hereinafter defined), payable pursuant to Article 4.00; and (C) the Incremental Rent (collectively, the "Gross Rent"). The Landlord shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, at its entire discretion, upon written notice to the Tenant, to re-allocate the amount of the Incremental Rent allocated to this Lease and to any one or more of the Other Saks Leases and in this regard the Tenant shall have the obligation to enter into and execute all documents reasonably necessary as requested by the Landlord to implement such reallocation of Incremental Rent.

1.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.17 Intentionally deleted.

1.18 Definitions: In this Lease:

1.18.1 "Additional Rent" means all amounts (other than Gross Rent) that Tenant is required to pay to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

1.18.2 Intentionally deleted

1.18.3 "Area" means the area expressed in square feet of all floors of the Premises measured from the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows or those separating the Premises from any Common Areas and Facilities, and the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises. The Area includes all interior space whether or not occupied by projections, structures or columns, openings, shafts, structural or non-structural. If a store front, show window or other part of the Premises is recessed from or protrudes beyond the lease line shown on Exhibit A (whether such recess or protrusion is located at or above ground level), the area of such recess or protrusion will be included in the Area. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Area of the Premises is that set out in Article 1.04 hereof.

1.18.4 "Architect" means the architect, engineer, land surveyor, designer or technician that Landlord names, as the case may be.

1.18.5 "Article" means an article of this Lease.

1.18.6 "Authority" or "Authorities" means the federal, provincial, and municipal governments, the courts, administrative and quasi-judicial boards and tribunals and any other organizations or entities with the lawful authority to regulate, or having a power or right conferred at law or by or under a statute over Landlord, Tenant, the Premises or the Shopping Centre, including the business carried on therein.

1.18.7 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.8 "Commencement Date" means the first day of the Term (effective as of 12:00am).

1.18.9 "Common Areas and Facilities" means all areas, services and facilities not installed or intended for the exclusive use or benefit of any individual tenant, including without limitation, all nonleasable areas, service and administrative areas (including, without limitation, administrative offices, janitorial rooms and storage rooms not reserved to any tenant exclusively), all parking areas, parking decks, roofs, roadways, sidewalks, landscaped areas, floor slabs, exterior walls and exterior and interior structural portions of any open or enclosed malls or other common means of access to leasable premises (excluding any structural mezzanines within any leasable premises), public lavatories, truck courts, common loading areas, driveways, music and public address systems, electrical, plumbing and drainage, fire protection, fire detection, heating, ventilation and/or air-conditioning systems or equipment servicing the Shopping Centre and/or more than one tenant, mall decorative or promotional installations, customer and service stairways, mall directories and directional signs, information booths, elevators, escalators and all other areas, services and facilities which Landlord provides or designates from time to time to be part of Common Areas and Facilities.

1.18.10 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.11 "Delivery Facilities" means those portions of the Common Areas and Facilities which are, from time to time, designated by Landlord as facilities to be used in common by Landlord, tenants of the Shopping Centre, and others, for purposes of loading, unloading, delivery, dispatch and holding of merchandise, goods and materials entering or leaving the Shopping Centre, and those portions of the Shopping Centre giving vehicular access to the said facilities.

1.18.12 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.13 "Environmental Law" means the statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority or of the common law which affect the Premises or Tenant's business, and which impose any obligations relating to the protection, conservation or restoration of the natural environment or to any contaminant, pollutant, dangerous substance, potentially dangerous substance, noxious substance, toxic substance, hazardous waste, flammable, explosive or radioactive material or any other substances or materials that are declared or defined to be hazardous, toxic, contaminants or pollutants in or pursuant to any applicable federal, provincial or municipal statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority.

1.18.14 "Fiscal Year" means a twelve (12) month period (all or part of which falls within the Term) from time to time determined by Landlord with the concurrence of the appropriate taxation authorities, at the end of which Landlord's books are balanced for auditing and/or taxation purposes.

1.18.15 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.17 "Force Majeure" means, if during the Term either party to this Lease will be unable to perform any of the terms, obligations, or conditions contained in this Lease due to strikes, walkouts (except for strikes or walkouts directly involving employees of Tenant), civil commotion, warlike operations, governmental regulations or controls, acts of God, pandemics, inability to procure materials or services, otherwise beyond the reasonable control of such party. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, nothing in this Force Majeure provision will relieve Tenant from payment of Rent as required in this Lease and insolvency or lack of funds will not relieve any party to this Lease from fulfillment of any obligation arising from any part of this Lease.

1.18.18 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.19 "Goods and Services Tax" or "GST" means all goods and services tax, value-added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST or any other similar tax) howsoever characterized, which any taxing Authority imposes on Landlord and/or requires Landlord to collect on behalf of said taxing Authority, on any amount received or receivable by Landlord from Tenant under the terms of this Lease.

1.18.20 "Gross Rent" has the meaning given to it in Section 1.09 hereof.

1.18.21 "Hazardous Substance" means, whether or not controlled or regulated by Environmental Law, any solid, liquid, gas, odour, heat, sound, vibration or combination of them resulting directly or indirectly from human activities that may, if released into the environment, have an adverse effect on the natural environment or on people, property or the normal conduct of business, including without limitation, harmful moulds or other harmful airborne substances, flammables, explosives, radioactive materials, urea formaldehyde foam, asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), pollutants, contaminants, hazardous wastes, toxic substances or related materials, petroleum or petroleum products and substances declared to be hazardous or toxic under any law, by-law, regulation or ordinance now or hereafter enacted.

"Exhibit F" means the sample Estoppel Certificate attached hereto as Exhibit F.

ARTICLE 2.00 LEASE

2.01 Lease Landlord hereby leases the Premises to Tenant for the Term, and Tenant hereby leases the Premises from Landlord for the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.02 Quiet Enjoyment So long as Tenant performs its obligations under this Lease, Landlord will warrant and defend Tenant in the quiet enjoyment and possession of the Premises during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.03 Covenants of Landlord and Tenant Landlord covenants to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Landlord under this Lease. Tenant covenants to pay the Rent when due under this Lease, and to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Tenant under this Lease.

ARTICLE 3.00 TERM, POSSESSION AND TERMINATION OF ORIGINAL LEASE

3.01 Intentionally deleted.

3.02 Intentionally deleted.

3.03 Acceptance of Premises and Tenant Acknowledgements The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that: (a) it originally occupied the Premises pursuant to the Original Lease, and as of the date hereof, it continues to be in possession of the Premises (which possession by the Tenant was in place prior to the date hereof pursuant to the Original Lease); (b) it has accepted the Premises in an entirely "as is where is" condition basis without any representation, warranty or obligation on the part of the Landlord to perform any work or construct any leasehold or other improvements in the Premises or the Shopping Centre in connection with the Tenant's intended use thereof; (c) the continued possession of all or any portion of the Premises by the Tenant is conclusive evidence as against the Tenant that the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition as of the date hereof, (d) it is solely responsible (at its sole cost and expense and without any reimbursement from or contribution by the Landlord) for all improvements, fixtures or other personal property currently existing or which in the future may exist or may be required in, on or around the Premises and needed, required or used by the Tenant for the operation of its business from the Premises, and (e) it does not have any right of first refusal, right of first opportunity, option to purchase or any other right to acquire any interest or real right in all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

3.04 Landlord's Option to Renew Landlord has, exercisable at its sole and entire and unfettered discretion by giving at least 12 months' prior written notice to the Tenant, the right to renew this Lease for an additional period of five (5) years on the same terms and conditions as set out herein (inclusive of the calculation and payment of Rent (inclusive, for certainty, of Incremental Rent)).

3.05 Termination of Original Lease Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that the Original Lease is surrendered and terminated effective on 11:59 pm on the date immediately preceding the Commencement Date (the "Termination Date"). The respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant with respect to the Premises and the Original Lease will be preserved and will survive the Termination Date, as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Termination Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to the Original Lease on or after the Termination Date. Any breach of the Original Lease which has not been cured will, after the Termination Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Original Lease. Tenant represents, warrants and covenants with Landlord that Tenant has the absolute right, full power and authority to agree to the surrender and termination of the Original Lease as provided herein.

3.05(A) Reinstatement of Original Lease.

Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that if at November 13, 2028 (the "Original Lease Reinstatement Date") no Event (as such term is hereinafter defined) has occurred or is continuing, and there is not then any default occurring of the Tenant's obligations under this Lease, failing which this provision shall not apply, then the parties shall execute and deliver to one another the Reinstated Original Lease (as defined below) which shall provide and confirm that effective upon the Original Lease Reinstatement Date: (1) this Lease shall be resolved, cancelled, surrendered and rescinded; and (2) the termination of the Original Lease shall be deemed to have been revoked and, except as expressly modified pursuant to this provision, the Original Lease shall be reinstated in its entirety effective as of the Original Lease Reinstatement Date and shall again be in full force and effect as if the same had never been terminated. However, the respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant as to the Premises under this Lease will be preserved and will survive the termination of this Lease on the Original Lease Reinstatement Date as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to this Lease on or after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date (given the Reinstated Original Lease will thereafter govern this tenancy). Any breach of this Lease which has not been cured will, after the Original Lease Reinstatement Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of this Lease.

"Event" means the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) Tenant (or any of its affiliates) defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under this Lease or any HBC IC Lease (as hereinafter defined); or

(2) Tenant (a) is insolvent, (b) has committed an act of bankruptcy, and/or (c) has become bankrupt.

"HBC IC Lease" means any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties:

(i) Galeries D'Anjou

(ii) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(iii) Mapleview;

(iv) Southgate;

(v) Guilford;

(vi) Oshawa;

(vii) CrossIron Mills

(viii) St. Foy;

(xi) Outlet Collection Winnipeg; or

(x) Outlet Collection Niagara.

"Reinstated Original Lease" means the Original Lease but reinstated and amended only to: incorporate Sections 1.05 and 1.09 hereof (and the corresponding definitions) such that (i) the Term thereof is the same as the Term in this Lease; (ii) the Tenant shall have the obligation to pay Incremental Rent during the remainder of the Term; (iii) any renewal or extension right shall include the obligation to pay Incremental Rent during each such renewal or extension period and (iv) to amend/delete all provisions of the Original Lease that are inconsistent with the aforesaid said Sections. Landlord shall prepare the form of Reinstated Original Lease and the parties shall forthwith thereafter execute and deliver same to the other, each at its sole expense. In addition, Tenant shall execute such other documents contemplated in Section 3.05 hereof for the discharge of any registered documents relating to this Lease which Section 3.05 shall equally apply in this context, mutatis mutandis.

3.06 Limitation on Length of Term. This Lease is entered into subject to the express condition that it is to be effective to create any interest in land only if the provisions of any statute are complied with relating to the severance of land or interests in land by conveyance or otherwise (as it may from time to time be amended). Landlord and Tenant agree, as a separate and distinct agreement, that if pursuant to any statute consent is requisite to the validity of this Lease, either party may apply for such consent and until unconditional consent has been obtained, the Term of this Lease or any renewal thereof will not extend beyond the period permitted without consent pursuant to any such statute, with no further right on the part of Tenant to extend the term, notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease.

ARTICLE 4.00 RENT

4.01 Gross Rent Tenant will pay to Landlord a Gross Rent for the Premises described in Article 1.09 of this Lease, payable monthly in arrears within twenty (20) days following the end of each calendar month during the Term. The Incremental Rent component of the Gross Rent will be payable in equal monthly installments at the same time that the balance of the Gross Rent is due pursuant to the preceding sentence. Along with the monthly payment of Gross Rent, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement, which need not be certified, of the Gross Sales derived from the Premises for the prior month, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied. Within sixty (60) says after the end of each Percentage Rent Lease Year and within sixty (60) days after the end of the calculating period with respect to the first full Percentage Rent Lease Year, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement certified by an officer of Tenant showing the Gross Sales derived from the Premises during such Percentage Rent Lease Year and the amounts, if any, of Rent required to be paid by Tenant or credited to Tenant for any overpayment or underpayment of Rent for the Percentage Rent Lease Year, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied.

For purposes of calculating Rent under this Lease, the term "Percentage Rent Lease Year" as used in this Lease refers to the period from February 1 to the following January 31 of each year during the term of this Lease, provided that, if the Commencement Date is not February 1, then the first Percentage Rent Lease Year shall be for a period of less than twelve (12) consecutive months, commencing on the Commencement Date and expiring on the following January 31, and further provided that any period of less than twelve (12) full calendar months occurring from and after February 1 at the expiry or earlier termination of the term shall be deemed to be a Percentage Rent Lease Year. The computation of Rent shall be made separately with regard to each Percentage Rent Lease Year or partial Percentage Rent Lease Year, as the case may be, it being understood and agreed that Gross Sales per any Percentage Rent Lease Year and Rent due thereon shall have no bearing on Gross Sales of any other Percentage Rent Lease Year.

Full true and accurate records from which Gross Sales in any Percentage Rent Lease Year may be readily and correctly determined will be kept by Tenant, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the requirement to retain all sources of primary sales records (that is, cash register tapes, pre-numbered sales tickets, daily sales reports, etc.) and otherwise in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles until at least the fifth (5th) anniversary of the end of such Percentage Rent Lease Year. Landlord or any person designated by Landlord will have access to such records at any and all times during business hours for the purpose of examining and reviewing all the accounting records and procedures adopted by Tenant for the purpose of recording and control of all transactions affecting the determination of Gross Sales. For the sake of greater clarification, the parties hereto acknowledge that, in the event Landlord determines that Tenant has failed to report Gross Sales in accordance with its obligations contained herein, such failure shall constitute a default under this Lease and Landlord shall have the right to exercise its remedies under this Lease. Landlord will not disclose any confidential information so obtained except to the extent that disclosure is reasonable in the conduct of Landlord's business which includes, without limitation, the sale or financing of all or any part of the Shopping Centre.

Landlord shall be entitled to characterize the Rent, and to allocate the payment thereof to costs, expenses, taxes etc. incurred by or for which Landlord is responsible, in each case as Landlord may determine in its sole discretion.

4.02 Gross Sales The term "Gross Sales" as used in this Lease means the actual sale price of goods, wares and merchandise sold in, upon or from any part of the Premises, including actual receipts from services rendered by Tenant as well as the total actual sales and services rendered by any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Premises, including, without limitation, such sales, income, receipts, revenues and services which Tenant, any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Premises (collectively, "Other Occupants") in the normal and customary course of business would credit or attribute to its business upon the Premises or any part or parts thereof, provided, however, that the term "Gross Sales" shall not be deemed to mean and there shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" amounts representing: (i) amounts credited by Tenant or Other Occupants for returned or defective merchandise; (ii) amount of discount on sales to bona fide employees of Tenant and bona fide employees of any affiliates of Tenant but only to the extent such discounts do not, in the aggregate, exceed two percent (2%) of the total Gross Sales in each Percentage Rent Lease Year and the full selling price of all such goods sold by Tenant to such employees is included and reported as Gross Sales; (iii) allowances granted to customers for damaged or defective merchandise; (iv) trade and other discounts; (v) GST and all other sales, excise and similar taxes levied upon sales made at the Premises; (vi) workroom charges for alterations, repairs or installation of merchandise sold, or similar services rendered in connection with merchandise sold; (vii) charges for services rendered primarily to accommodate customers or employees; (viii) charges for making deliveries, shipments or transfers of merchandise in the regular course of business; (ix) carrying charges on time sales; (x) fees and charges paid by Tenant or Other Occupants to issuers of third-party credit cards; (xi) charges for inter-store transfers of merchandise; (xii) sales of merchandise in bulk to non -retail customers; and (xiii) the proceeds of sales of trade fixtures, operating equipment or other property used by Tenant or Other Occupants in the operation of its business and not acquired by it for the purpose of sale. All exclusions from Gross Sales permitted herein must be documented to the reasonable satisfaction of Landlord to allow for complete and detailed verification of the validity of such exclusions. Any instalment or credit (which, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes lay-away sales, sales from coupons or gift cards, electronic or otherwise and certificates, or any other sale made where deposits are received by Tenant) will be included and treated as a sale for the full price in the month in which such sale is made regardless of whether or when Tenant receives payment in full. The provisions of Article 4.00B(e) of the Original Lease continue to apply and are incorporated herein by reference.

4.09 Taxes Payable by Landlord

Landlord shall pay before the date due any and all Taxes levied, assessed or otherwise imposed upon the Premises and/or the remainder of the Shopping Centre throughout the Term. Tenant shall have no obligation to contribute to the payment of such Taxes as such Taxes are intentionally provided for in the Gross Rent provided for herein.

4.18 Payment of Rent – General During the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay Rent to Landlord in the manner provided in this Lease or if not so provided, as reasonably required by Landlord. All amounts payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease will be deemed to be Rent and will be payable and recoverable as Rent in the manner herein provided, and Landlord will have all rights and recourses against Tenant for default in any such payment as in the case of arrears of Rent. Rent will be paid to Landlord, without deduction, set-off or compensation, in legal tender of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located. If and to the extent Landlord so requires, Rent will be paid to Landlord, at Tenant's expense, by electronic funds transfer system or similar system whereby Tenant will authorize its bank, trust company, credit union or other financial institution to credit Landlord's bank account each month in an amount equal to the monthly Rent payable pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, otherwise, Rent will be paid to Landlord at the address of Landlord as set forth in the beginning of this Lease, or to such other Person or at such other address as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing.

Where Tenant makes payments of Rent by an electronic funds transfer system, Tenant shall notify Landlord by e-mail of the date of said electronic payment.

4.19 Rent – Adjustment for Partial Months If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the Commencement Date will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the Commencement Date to the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs (both the Commencement Date and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365. If the Term ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the first (1st) day of the last calendar month of the Term will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the first (1st) day of such last calendar month to the last day of the Term (both the first (1st) and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365.

4.20 Intentionally deleted.

4.21 Intentionally deleted.

ARTICLE 5.00 USE OF PREMISES

5.01 Use and Business Name The Premises will be used and occupied only for the purposes described in Article 1.07; nothing in this Article 5.01 shall create or be deemed to create an exclusivity in favour of Tenant.

The business of Tenant in the Premises will be carried on under the name and style described in Article 1.08 and under no other name and style unless approved by Landlord in writing.

5.02 Hours of Business During the Term of this Lease, Tenant will conduct its business in the Premises on such days and during such hours as is required, from time to time, by Landlord unless prevented from so doing by any Authority, however, nothing herein shall require the Premises or portions thereof to be open during hours other than those which have been generally established by the Tenant for the operation of its similar stores in the Greater Toronto Area. Tenant shall abide by all rules and regulations now or subsequently in force to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms of this Lease and are applied to Tenant in a non-discriminatory manner.

In the event Tenant fails to conduct its business in accordance with this Article 5.02 then Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.02.

5.03 Continuous Operations Tenant acknowledges that it forms part of an over-all merchandising mix designed to enhance the character, quality, image and reputation of the Shopping Centre, and that its continuous operation of the Premises is essential to Landlord to maintain that character, quality, image, nature and reputation and to facilitate the leasing of vacant space and renewing leases of existing tenants. Tenant therefore, provided the Landlord is operating the Shopping Centre in accordance with this Lease in all material respects, covenants and agrees that throughout the Term it will continuously occupy and operate in the entire Premises, comply strictly with the provisions of Article 5.02 and not vacate or abandon the Premises at any time during the Term. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is executing this Lease in reliance thereupon and that the same is a material element inducing Landlord to execute this Lease. Tenant further agrees that if it vacates or abandons the Premises or it fails to so conduct its business therein, or uses or permits or suffers the use of the Premises for any purpose not specifically herein authorized and allowed, Tenant will be in breach of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and shall have caused Landlord a grave and serious prejudice and then, without constituting a waiver of Tenant's obligations or limiting Landlord's remedies under this Lease and at law, all Rent reserved in this Lease will immediately become due and payable to Landlord. Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.03.

5.04 Restrictions on Use & Occupancy

(a) Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not advertise, do, omit, permit or suffer to be done or exist upon the Premises anything which will be or result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

(b) Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any mail order or catalogue enterprise; (iii) any enterprise for the purpose of taking telephone orders; (iv) a store conducted principally or in part for the sale of second hand goods or apparel, war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (v) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire, and only for a period of 30 days immediately following the reopening after such fire; (vi) a store conducted, promoted and/or represented in whole or substantially as a discount operation or in part as a discount operation so as to give the impression that it is being conducted principally as a discount operation; (vii) a pawn shop; (viii) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (ix) an auction sale; and (x) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre.

(c) Tenant shall not conduct on the Premises any "distress sale", "bankruptcy sale", "going out of business sale", "liquidation sale" or "fire sale" except as expressly provided above nor any other type of sale designed to convey to the public that business operations are to be discontinued or that the store shall close, Tenant shall only sell merchandise in the regular course of trade as a retailer operating the Premises for the purpose for which the Premises are leased. Notwithstanding the foregoing, within the last six (6) months of the Term, the Tenant shall have the right to conduct clearance and other sales promotions in the Premises and the Tenant shall be permitted to erect, install and maintain within the Premises during such period any clearance and/or store closing signage (or other signage of a similar nature), provided that (i) any such signage on the exterior of the Premises or which faces any Common Areas and Facilities, shall be subject to the Tenant obtaining all required municipal approvals as well as the Landlord's prior written approval for the nature, size, type and location thereof; and (ii) all clearance and other sales otherwise comply with the requirements of sub-paragraph (b) above and this Lease and are undertaken in a reputable and prudent manner that does not interfere with the typical use and operation of the Shopping Centre or the occupants thereof. Landlord's approval of such signage shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed provided it complies with this provision.

(d) Intentionally deleted.

(e) Tenant shall not use the Common Areas and Facilities for any reason whatsoever without the prior written approval of Landlord. Tenant will not place or keep any merchandise or other thing beyond the permanent floor mounted storefront or closure of the Premises or in the Common Areas and Facilities.

(f) Intentionally deleted.

5.05 Intentionally deleted.

5.06 Display Windows Tenant will keep display windows (if any) neatly dressed. Display windows and lighted signs (if any) will be kept illuminated by Tenant on all business days until at least one half hour after the Shopping Centre closes for business.

5.07 Compliance with Laws The Premises will be used and occupied in a safe, careful and proper manner so as not to contravene any present or future governmental or quasi-governmental laws in force or regulations or orders including, without limitation, all Environmental Law. If, due solely to Tenant's use of the Premises, improvements are necessary to comply with any of the foregoing or with the requirements of insurance carriers, Tenant shall execute same and will pay the entire cost thereof. Unless otherwise directed by Landlord, Tenant will obtain and comply with the terms of all licences, certificates of approval, permits and other approvals necessary or appropriate under applicable laws (inclusive of Environmental Law) for the safe and lawful conduct of its business at or from the Premises.

5.08 Nuisance Tenant will not cause or maintain any nuisance or hazard in or about the Premises and will keep the Premises free of debris, trash, rodents, vermin and anything of a dangerous, noxious or offensive nature or which could create a fire hazard (through undue load on electrical circuits or otherwise) or undue vibration, heat or any unusual or objectionable noises or odours or anything which may disturb the enjoyment of the Shopping Centre and all the Common Areas and Facilities thereof by customers and other tenants of the Shopping Centre, nor will Tenant allow any noise, sound or music in the Premises to be heard in the Common Areas and Facilities or neighbouring premises.

5.09 Advertising, Trade Names and Restricted Marks

(a) In its advertising, Tenant will use the name of the Shopping Centre, such trade names, symbols and slogans as may be designated by Landlord but Tenant will not indulge in any advertising or sales promotion which is undignified or not in conformity with the highest standards of practice among stores dealing in similar merchandise or might harm or tend to harm the business reputation of Landlord or reflect unfavourably on the Shopping Centre, or might confuse or mislead or tend to confuse or mislead the public. Tenant will not sell, advertise, conduct or solicit business anywhere within the Shopping Centre other than in the Premises.

(b) The name for the Shopping Centre which Landlord may from time to time adopt and every name or mark adopted by Landlord in connection with the Shopping Centre will be used by Tenant only in association with sales made at or from and the business carried on in the Premises during the Term and Tenant's use thereof will be subject to such regulations as Landlord may from time to time impose. Tenant will not acquire any rights in any such restricted name or mark, and upon the termination of this Lease all its interest herein will be deemed to have been surrendered to Landlord and Tenant will thereafter cease and abandon all use thereof. If Landlord so requests, Tenant will execute registered user applications or agreements or both to protect Landlord's trade mark rights.

5.10 Intentionally deleted.

5.11 Loading and Delivery The delivery and shipping of merchandise, supplies, fixtures, and other materials or goods of whatsoever nature to or from the Premises and all loading, unloading, and handling of it will be done only at the times, in the areas, by the means, and through the elevators, entrances, malls, and corridors as are designated by Landlord. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will not use or permit any elevators, entrances, malls, corridors or other parts of the Common Areas and Facilities to be used as temporary storage area or areas by Tenant, any of Tenant's employees or suppliers or others when making deliveries to or shipments from the Premises or any permitted storage area of Tenant.

Landlord accepts no liability and is hereby relieved and released by Tenant in respect of the operation of the Delivery Facilities, or the adequacy of them, or of the acts or omissions of any Person or Persons engaged in the operation of them, or in the acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch of any goods for or on behalf of Tenant, or for any claim of Tenant by reason of damage, loss, theft, or acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch, failure of any acceptance, holding, handling or dispatch, or any error, negligence or delay.

Landlord may, from time to time, make and amend regulations for the orderly and efficient operation of the Delivery Facilities, and may require the payment of reasonable and equitable charges for delivery services and removal provided by Landlord.

For certainty, the Premises include its own exclusive receiving facilities, including (without limitation) a truck dock and the exclusive right to use the two (2) truck-length exterior standing, receiving and loading areas associated therewith.. For the purposes of this Lease, the said exterior standing, receiving and loading areas associated with the Tenant store's receiving facilities shall at all times be treated as part of the Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre and the Landlord shall be responsible for the maintenance and repair of the same throughout the Term.•

ARTICLE 6.00 SERVICES, MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS BY LANDLORD

6.01 Operation of Shopping Centre Landlord shall operate the Shopping Centre and maintain the Common Areas and Facilities as would a prudent and diligent owner of a similar shopping centre, having regard to the Shopping Centre's size, age, nature, location and region where the Shopping Centre is situated, as well as the type of clientele the Shopping Centre services and the general image Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre, all as determined by the Landlord in its sole discretion.

6.02 Services Landlord will provide in the Shopping Centre except where Tenant shall do so pursuant to this Lease:

(a) domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water and necessary supplies in common washrooms sufficient for the normal use thereof; and

(b) heat, ventilation, air conditioning, lighting, electric power, domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water, steam, natural gas and chilled water, in the Common Areas and Facilities (where appropriate).

6.03 Maintenance, Repair and Replacement Subject to the provisions of Article 7.01(b) and Tenant's obligations under this Lease in respect of the Premises, Landlord will operate, maintain, repair and replace the systems, facilities and equipment necessary for the proper operation of the Shopping Centre and for provision of Landlord's services under Article 6.02 (except as such may be installed by or be the property of Tenant or others (excluding Landlord) or both and except for the heating, ventilating and air conditioning equipment, elevators, escalators and other systems, facilities, machinery and equipment installed within or for the Premises; and furthermore, will expeditiously maintain and repair the foundations, structure and roof of the Shopping Centre (inclusive of downspouts, gutters, canopies and exterior walls), provided that:

(a) if all or part of such systems, facilities and equipment are destroyed, damaged or impaired, Landlord will have a reasonable time in which to complete the necessary repair or replacement, and during that time will be required only to maintain such services as are reasonably possible in the circumstances;

(b) Landlord may temporarily discontinue such services or any of them at such times as may be necessary due to causes (except lack of funds) beyond the reasonable control of Landlord;

(c) Landlord will use reasonable diligence in carrying out its obligations under this Article 6.03, but will not be liable under any circumstances for any consequential damage to any Person (including without limitation, Tenant) or any property for any failure to do so;

(d) no reduction or discontinuance of such services under clauses (a) or (b) of this Article 6.03 will constitute as an eviction of Tenant or (except as specifically provided in this Lease) release Tenant from any obligation of Tenant under this Lease; and

(e) nothing contained herein will derogate from the provisions of Articles7.02, 7.03, 10.01, 16.01, 16.02, 16.03 or16.04 and in no event shall Landlord be required to make any repairs or replacements which are necessary as a result of Tenant's default, negligence or willful misconduct.

6.04 Alterations by Landlord Landlord may, at any time prior to or during the Term, subject to Article 6.06: (i) change the area, level, location, arrangement or use of any portion of the Shopping Centre; (ii) construct on the Site or on adjacent lands, other buildings, structures or improvements and make alterations, additions, subtractions or rearrangements; (iii) modify, alter, expand, reduce or eliminate any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities; (iv) close off all or any part of the Shopping Centre and/or temporarily suspend services for the purpose of maintenance, repair, alteration or construction; (v) place any installations within or on any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities including without limitation, kiosks, planters, benches, promotional displays or activities and any other installations; (vi) close all or part of the Shopping Centre to the public outside of regular business hours, Sundays and holidays included; (vii) restrict areas on the Site available for employee parking, and/or prohibit employees from parking anywhere on the Site; (viii) impose reasonable charges for parking, and impose restrictions on refunds or compensations by Tenant to Persons using the parking areas; (ix) modify tenant mix, both with respect to kinds of uses which may be made of premises, as well as to changes in the physical location of any one or more tenants; (x) do and perform such other acts in relation to the Shopping Centre for the more efficient and proper operation of the Shopping Centre as Landlord determines to be advisable; (xi) change the name of the Shopping Centre; (xii) do all work required to install new, and/or maintain, adapt, repair or replace existing utility lines, pipes, roof drainage pipes, conduits, wires, duct work, columns and other matters through any part of the Premises if necessary and do any other work in the Premises to preserve, support or reinforce any structural walls or foundations of the Premises or the Shopping Centre, and do such work as may be required for an expansion or an alteration of all or part of the Shopping Centre.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, it is understood and agreed that if the Shopping Centre, the Site and/or the Common Areas and Facilities are diminished or altered in any manner whatsoever as a result of the exercise by Landlord of its rights set out in this Article 6.04, Landlord is not subject to any liability nor is Tenant entitled to any compensation or diminution or abatement of Rent, nor is any alteration or diminution thereof deemed to constitute constructive or actual eviction, or a breach of any covenant for quiet enjoyment contained in this Lease. Landlord and Tenant further agree that the exercise by Landlord of its rights under this Article 6.04will not relieve Tenant of Tenant's obligations under Article 5.03 of this Lease.

The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that the Landlord has not granted to the Tenant and neither the Tenant or the Premises has the benefit of any merchandising controls, exclusivity rights, use restrictions, no-build zones, minimum parking ratio requirements, or, minimum stall number requirements, or any other restrictions, restrictive covenants or approval rights applicable to the Site; the Shopping Centre or any part(s) thereof or any other lands abutting thereto or in the vicinity thereof ("Additional Lands") which the Landlord or any of its affiliates may have an interest in, including without limitation and for certainty anything that would otherwise restrict, limit, delay or otherwise interfere with the Landlord's (or its affiliate's) ability to lease, use, convey, alter, develop and/or redevelop all or any part of the Shopping Centre, the Site or any such Additional Lands. The Tenant hereby confirms that any of the forgoing that the Tenant was entitled to or that were granted in or in connection with the Original Lease, its occupancy of the Premises or otherwise have been expressly waived by the Tenant, have terminated and have ceased to have any force or effect. The Tenant covenants and agrees: (a) not to oppose (and hereby irrevocably waives all rights to oppose) the exercise of the Landlord's rights under this Section 6.04 or otherwise pursuant to this Lease in this regard, including, in respect of any rezoning matters, variance applications, restrictive covenants, site plans, subdivisions, easements, transfers, dedications, permits or approvals and other similar requirements in connection therewith (hereinafter "Rezoning Matters"); and (b) agrees to cooperate with Landlord (at no cost or expense to the Tenant) to the extent reasonably required, including, without limitation, granting any partial discharges of its notice of lease and executing any consents, documents and instruments reasonably requested by the Landlord in furtherance of any Rezoning Matters.

6.05 Intentionally deleted

6.06 Access by Landlord Tenant will permit Landlord to enter the Premises outside of normal business hours, and during normal business hours where such will not unreasonably disturb or interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises and operation of its business, to examine, inspect and show the Premises to persons wishing to lease them, to provide services or make repairs, replacements, changes or alterations as set out in this Lease, and to take such steps as Landlord may deem necessary for the safety, improvement or preservation of the Premises or the Shopping Centre. Landlord will whenever possible, save in the event of emergency, consult with or give reasonable notice to Tenant prior to such entry, but no such entry will constitute an eviction or entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

6.07 Energy, Conservation and Security Policies Landlord will be deemed to have observed and performed the terms and conditions to be performed by Landlord under this Lease, including those relating to the provision of utilities and services, if in so doing it acts in accordance with a directive, policy or request of a governmental or quasi-governmental authority serving the public interest in the fields of energy, conservation or security.

6.08 Sustainable Operation of Shopping Centre Tenant acknowledges Landlord's intention, to operate its Shopping Centre in a manner so as to provide for:

(a) reduced energy and water consumption;

(b) the use of renewable energy and recycled water;

(c) the facilitation of alternate transportation for customers of the Shopping Centre;

(d) the use of non-toxic, low-impact cleaning and pest control and other products in the operation and maintenance of the Shopping Centre;

(e) a healthy indoor environment;

(f) installation and use of sustainable materials, furniture, equipment and improvements within the Shopping Centre; and

(g) the recycling and diversion of operational waste from landfill generated from the activities of tenants, licensees, and customers of the Shopping Centre, and Landlord intends to operate, manage and maintain the Shopping Centre so as to obtain and/or maintain any green building certifications, accreditations or ratings.

ARTICLE 7.00 UTILITIES, SERVICES, MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS BY TENANT

7.01 Utilities

(a) Subject to Article 7.01(b), during the Term, Tenant will provide in the Premises at its own expense heat, ventilation, air-conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam and other utilities and services. Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall promptly pay (but in any event no later than the due date) the cost of water consumption, electricity, gas, steam, telephone, and other utilities used or consumed in or from the Premises directly to the supplier of such services where separately metered or as Landlord may direct.

(b) If heat, ventilation, air conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam or any other utility or service is provided by Landlord, but is not metered or is supplied to the Premises through meters common to a group of tenants in the Shopping Centre, Landlord will pay the cost thereof and apportion such cost as may reasonably be determined by Landlord among the tenants utilizing the utility or service or supplied through such common meters, (provided that if Landlord will from time to time reasonably determine that the use of any such utility or service in the Premises is disproportionate to the use of other tenants, Landlord may adjust Tenant's share of the cost thereof from a date reasonably determined by Landlord to take equitable account of the disproportionate use) and Tenant will reimburse Landlord the amount of its share of such cost.

(c) Intentionally deleted.

(d) If a separate or a check meter exists, Tenant shall then pay for its consumption to Landlord as measured by the Premises check meter and in accordance with the rates of Landlord's supplier.

(e) If at any time, any utility serving the Premises, whose consumption rate was measured by separate or check meter, ceases to be measured by separate or check meter for any reason whatsoever, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a charge calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) above.

(f) Notwithstanding Article 7.00 of this Lease, at Landlord's option, Landlord may, at any time or times during the Term, purchase in bulk from the utility supplier the aggregate electrical energy requirements of the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof, in which event Landlord may arrange for the supply of electricity to the Premises for the general electrical purposes of Tenant. In such case, Tenant will pay to Landlord on a monthly basis, in advance, with annual adjustment at the end of each Fiscal Year, a charge for supplying electricity to the Premises as determined by Landlord on the basis of Tenant's consumption.

(g) Where the Premises are metered directly by a utility company or supplier for electricity, gas, water, or steam consumption, Tenant will provide Landlord, at Tenant's cost, with all consumption data for the Premises, in the manner, at such frequency and in the format as required by Landlord so as to comply with its obligations relating to governmental or quasi-governmental authority reporting regulations, to meet green building certifications or standards including, without limitation, LEED, BOMA BEST or ENERGY STAR or to improve the environmental performance of the Shopping Centre.

(h) During any period when the Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, Landlord shall keep all Common Areas and Facilities lighted and opened to the public. Landlord agrees that it shall keep all Common Areas and Facilities lighted for security purposes seven (7) days each week during the hours of darkness such lighting is necessary for such purpose. Landlord shall pay for all costs of electricity for lighting the Common Areas and Facilities (i) during any period when the Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, but not later than 11:00 p.m., EST, (ii) during any other period provided when both the Premises and at least fifty percent (50%) of the remainder of the floor area in the Shopping Centre are open for business and (iii) during the times and to the extent such lighting is required under the second sentence of this subsection (h).

7.02 Heating, Ventilation, and Air-Conditioning (HVAC) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense be responsible for maintaining, repairing and replacing of the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning equipment (the "Tenant HVAC System") installed for the Premises. The parties acknowledge that the Tenant HVAC System independently serves the Premises.

7.03 Condition of Premises During the Term, Tenant will keep the Premises in a clean and tidy condition, and will provide at its own expense therein janitor services in accordance with this Lease and the rules and regulations of Landlord from time to time, removal of debris and garbage, and cleaning of all windows, doors, walls, ceiling, tiles, floors, grease traps and grease guard systems in the Premises and on the roof of the Shopping Centre where applicable and the exterior of the Premises, subject to Article 7.04(f).

Subject to the foregoing and except to the extent that Landlord is specifically responsible therefor under this Lease, Tenant will maintain the Premises and all improvements therein at its sole cost and expense in good order and condition, subject to reasonable wear and tear, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) intentionally deleted;

(b) making repairs and replacements as needed to glass, plate glass, store windows and storefronts, signs, mouldings, doors, hardware, partitions, walls, fixtures, lighting, finishes, plumbing, wiring, ductwork and piping (including that portion which is contiguous to the Premises), ceilings, floors and thresholds in the Premises;

(c) maintaining, repairing and replacing as needed the Tenant HVAC System, all elevators, escalators, mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems, facilities and equipment in the Premises;

(d) making other repairs and replacements in the Premises as needed, except repairs and replacements to the Premises for which Landlord is specifically responsible under this Lease; and

(e) keeping the Premises in such condition as to comply with the requirements of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority and insurers having jurisdiction and the rules and regulations of Landlord.

Notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, the Tenant's repair obligations will include all those which are major as well as minor , or those which are customarily landlord's or tenant's, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Lease

7.04 Alterations by Tenant Tenant may from time to time at its own expense make changes, additions and improvements in the Premises to better adapt the same to its business, provided that any such change, addition or improvement will:

(a) comply with the requirements of Landlord's insurer and any Authority having jurisdiction;

(b) be made only with the prior written consent of Landlord;

(c) equal the then current standard for the Shopping Centre;

(d) be carried out only by persons selected by Tenant and approved in writing by Landlord, who will, if required by Landlord, deliver to Landlord before commencement of the work, performance and payment bonds as well as proof of worker's compensation and public liability and property damage insurance coverage as reasonably required by Landlord with Landlord, Owners and Management Company as additional insured parties in amounts, with companies and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, which will remain in effect during the entire period in which the work will be carried out;

(e) Tenant shall obtain all necessary construction and other permits before starting any work in the Premises;

(f) Tenant shall not make any repairs, openings, or additions to any part of the exterior of the Premises, or to the Common Areas and Facilities nor place anything of whatsoever nature in or upon any part of the Common Areas and Facilities, including without limitation the roof and without having obtained the prior written consent of Landlord. In addition it is expressly forbidden for Tenant, its employees, agents, representatives or any Person for whom Tenant is in law responsible to go upon the roof of the Shopping Centre for any reason whatsoever without Landlord's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the prior granting of such consent, Tenant shall be fully responsible for all ensuing costs and damages whether to remove materials or to effect repairs needed as a result of such acts;

(g) Tenant shall not make any change, alteration, addition, repair or improvement in or to the Premises which in any manner affects the structure, the roof, the perimeter walls, the bearing floors, structural slab or slab on grade, the storefront, the sprinkler system (whether it services the Premises exclusively or not), or any heating, ventilation or air-conditioning system or equipment or the electrical and plumbing services or systems (whether these serve the Premises exclusively or not), without in each case obtaining Landlord's prior written approval thereto. Tenant will accompany each request for Landlord's written approval by detailed plans and specifications for the intended work, and will ensure that the work is done according to the relevant provisions of this Lease.

Any increase in Taxes or insurance premiums for the Shopping Centre, or any part thereof, attributable to such change, addition or improvement will be borne by Tenant and Tenant will pay Landlord for the cost of such increase upon receipt of Landlord's invoices therefor.

7.05 Trade Fixtures and Personal Property Tenant may install in the Premises its usual trade fixtures and personal property in a proper manner, provided that no such installation will interfere with or damage the mechanical, plumbing, sprinkler or electrical systems or all or any part of the structure of the Shopping Centre. If Tenant is not then in default under this Lease, trade fixtures and personal property installed in but not affixed to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant may be removed from the Premises:

(a) from time to time in the ordinary course of Tenant's business or in the course of permitted reconstruction, renovation or alteration of the Premises by Tenant; and provided that Tenant in all cases promptly repairs at its own expense any damage to the Premises resulting from such installation and removal. In no case will trade fixtures or personal property include the ceiling or ceiling panels, electric light fixtures, doors, floor coverings, storefront, plumbing fixtures and fittings or any affixed cabinets, shelves, hardware or decorative items in or upon the Premises which upon installation become the property of Landlord, provided, however, that if any of the foregoing shall contain any Hazardous Substance such installation shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant will remove such items at its expense.

(b) during a reasonable period prior to the expiration of the Term,

7.06 Liens Tenant will pay before delinquency all costs for work done or caused to be done by Tenant in the Premises which could result in any lien or encumbrance on Landlord's interest or Tenant's interest or both in the Site or the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, will keep the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre and every part thereof free and clear of any lien or encumbrance in respect of such work and will indemnify and hold harmless Landlord against any claim, loss, cost, demand and legal or other expense, whether in respect of any lien or otherwise, arising out of the supply of material, services or labour for such work. Tenant will immediately notify Landlord of any such lien, claim of lien or other action of which it has or reasonably should have knowledge and which affects the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, and will cause the same to be removed within fifteen (15) days of written notice from Landlord (or such additional time as Landlord may consent to in writing), failing which Landlord may take action as Landlord deems necessary to remove the same and the entire cost thereof will be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, including all legal fees, costs and disbursements on a substantial indemnity basis.

7.07 Intentionally deleted.

7.08 Signs Tenant shall not erect or place any sign, decal, decoration, lettering, design or advertisement of any nature whatsoever ("Sign") on the exterior walls of the Premises or on the walls of the mall or elsewhere in the Shopping Centre or in the display windows without first obtaining Landlord's written consent as to the specifications, design, location and method of installation. All Signs shall conform to all applicable rules and regulations and shall be of high quality. Furthermore, all Signs shall be suitably illuminated where applicable in the same manner as other signs in the Shopping Centre. Tenant shall not install or affix any Sign in the Premises or in the Shopping Centre which is visible from the exterior of the Shopping Centre. All Signs on Tenant's storefront which Landlord allows Tenant to install must be so installed prior to the opening by Tenant of its Premises to the public.

No Sign(s) advertising an auction sale, going out of business sale, closing out sale, bankruptcy sale or any other similar sale other than one in the normal course of Tenant's business, or any Sign indicating that Tenant is moving to another location, shall be permitted in the Shopping Centre.

For certainty, the Landlord confirms that the Tenant's exterior Signs that exist as of the Commencement Date are compliant with this Section. The Landlord also confirms that the Tenant's existing pylon signage, if any, is compliant with this Section and that the Tenant shall not be required to pay any rent or other charge of any kind whatsoever to Landlord for or in connection with such pylon signage.

ARTICLE 8.00 TENANT'S TAXES

8.01 Business Taxes and Other Taxes Payable by Tenant Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to the Authorities responsible for collection all business and water taxes, charges or rates, garbage removal taxes, charges, rates, taxes, levies, fees, duties, tariffs or assessments for consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature however imposed or assessed and/or for recycling and/or similar taxes, charges or rates imposed on or applicable to Tenant in connection with the activities, goods (including without limiting the generality thereof, Tenant's movables, equipment and tools) or services of which Tenant benefits, or for Tenant's use or occupation of the Premises, or for the nature of the enterprise that Tenant operates in the Premises, or any other matter determined by said authorities (hereinafter "Tenant's Taxes"). It is understood that Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to Landlord any Tenant's Taxes where Landlord shall be invoiced therefor or shall become liable for any such Tenant's Taxes pursuant to any new, amended or modified law, regulation, policy and/or practice of any competent Authority. Tenant shall also be liable for the payment of any Tenant's Taxes, Taxes and any other amount payable by Landlord, and any increases in one or all of the foregoing (even where such Tenant's Taxes, Taxes or other amount or increases thereof are substantially greater than the amount payable therefor by Tenant in previous years) as a direct or indirect result of the abolition, modification and/or replacement of any Tenant's Taxes by any competent Authority or due to any modification of any policy or practice thereof. Tenant will indemnify Landlord from and against all losses, costs of expenses occasioned by or arising from the foregoing.

ARTICLE 9.00 INSURANCE

9.01 Landlord's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease, Landlord, at no cost to Tenant, will carry the insurance for which Landlord is obligated under Article 11 of the Original Lease and Article 11 of the Original Lease is deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term, Landlord will maintain the Landlord's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

9.02 Tenant's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, will carry the insurance for which Tenant is obligated under Article 11 of the Original Lease and Article 11 of the Original Lease is deemed incorporated herein by reference.For certainty, during the Term and any period Tenant is in possession of the Premises, the Tenant will maintain the Tenant's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date in accordance with the insurance certificate most recently provided to the Landlord by the Tenant, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

Tenant agrees to deliver to Landlord, proof of above required insurance in force at such date, such proof to be in the form of certificates of insurance acceptable to Landlord. If the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained on the part of Tenant will immediately endanger or could reasonably lead to or result in future endangerment of the Premises or any other of the buildings or property in or on the Shopping Centre or result in the voiding, cancellation or threatened cancellation of any insurance policy affecting such buildings or property or part thereof Landlord may, either, at Landlord's sole discretion, terminate this Lease effective upon written notice to Tenant, or without terminating this Lease and after giving such notice, if any, as is reasonable in the circumstances, enter upon the Premises and take such action, including removing Tenant and any persons or property from the Shopping Centre, as is reasonable to remove or abate the cause of the danger or voiding or cancellation of the policy, and Landlord will not be liable for any damages of any kind howsoever caused arising out of such termination or such action, the whole without prejudice to Landlord's other rights and recourses.

ARTICLE 10.00 INJURY TO PERSON OR PROPERTY

10.01 Mutual Indemnity. Except to the extent released in Sections 10.02 and 10.03 below, each of the Landlord and the Tenant will defend, protect, indemnify and save harmless the other of and from all fines, suits, claims, demands and actions of any kind or nature to which the party being indemnified shall or may become liable or suffer by reason of any breach, violation or nonperformance by the party so indemnifying of any covenant, term or provision of this Lease or by reason of any damage, injury or death occasioned to or suffered by any person or persons including the Landlord or the Tenant, as the case may be, or any property, by reason of any wrongful act, neglect or default on the part of the party so indemnifying or any of its agents, employees, officers or contractors.

10.02 Release of Landlord. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Tenant, none of the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre or other persons for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage so required to be insured by the Tenant to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Tenant fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Tenant had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Tenant shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, the manager retained by the Landlord from time to time to operate the Shopping Centre and those for whom the Landlord is responsible in law. With respect to the Tenant's fixtures, furniture, inventory and stock-in-trade including merchandise or other contents of the Premises, the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre and others for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage.

10.03 Release of Tenant. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Landlord, none of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees or other persons for whom the Tenant is responsible at law shall be liable in respect of any loss, injury or damage required to be so insured to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Landlord fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Landlord had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Landlord shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees and those for whom the Tenant is responsible in law.

ARTICLE 11.00 TRANSFERS

11.01 Transfers Except to an Eligible Corporation (which for the purpose of this Article 11.00 is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual) which controls or is controlled by or under common control with Tenant, where to control means to own beneficially either directly or indirectly more than 50% of the voting shares of a corporation or other legal entity) and subject to provisions of Article 11.03, Tenant will not, and will not permit a subtenant to, assign this Lease in whole or in part or sublet all or part of the Premises, or transfer this Lease in any other manner and will not permit the occupation or use of all or part of the Premises by others (any of which events are hereinafter referred to as a "Transfer"), without the prior written consent of Landlord in each case, which consent, despite any statutory provision to the contrary, may be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Tenant may enter into a Transfer with an Eligible Corporation, with the prior written consent of Landlord which consent may not be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld. Tenant will not, and will not permit subtenant or any other Person or entity to mortgage or encumber all or any part of the Tenant's rights resulting from this Lease or all or any part of the Premises. Under no circumstances will Tenant be entitled to effect a Transfer to any one prior to the Commencement Date, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease or at law. The consent by Landlord to a Transfer will not constitute a waiver of its consent to a subsequent Transfer. This prohibition against transferring includes a Transfer by operation of law. If a Transfer occurs without the consent of Landlord when required, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee, subtenant, mortgagee, encumbrancer, user or occupant as the case may be (hereinafter the "Transferee"), and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such Transfer, occupancy or collection will be deemed a waiver of the covenant not to Transfer without Landlord's consent, nor an acceptance by Landlord of the Transfer or the Transferee notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary. Despite a Transfer, Tenant remains fully liable under this Lease. A permitted Transfer of all or part of this Lease or the Premises will be documented by Landlord or its solicitors, and the amounts stipulated in Article 11.02(b)(iv) shall be paid by Tenant and deemed to be Rent. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord may immediately terminate this Lease if Tenant effects a Transfer without Landlord's prior written consent thereto, whether or not Tenant gives prior written notice thereof.

11.02 Conditions Any Transfer referred to in Article 11.01 or elsewhere in this Lease will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) that Tenant causes any Transferee to promptly execute an agreement in writing with Landlord agreeing to be bound by the terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease as if such Transferee had originally executed this Lease as Tenant (provided that such agreement will not in any way affect the rights of Landlord under this Lease); and

(b) all requests for Landlord's consent to effect a Transfer shall be in writing and be accompanied by each of the following: (i) the name, address and telephone number of each proposed Transferee and if it is a corporation, the names of the directors and the majority shareholders (or in the case of a change of control, those Persons who would subsequently acquire effective control); (ii) details of the proposed Transferee's prior business experience (including experience in the enterprise for which the Premises are to be operated pursuant to this Lease); (iii) bank and other credit references, required by Landlord to assess the business or financial strength and standing of the proposed assignee, subtenant or occupant; (iv) a non-reimbursable fee (paid by certified cheque or draft of a Canadian chartered bank) for all charges associated with Landlord's administration and documentation of the Transfer; (v) if the proposed Transferee is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual), its constating documents (including any articles of incorporation, amendment or amalgamation, any declarations of trust or partnership agreements and the like); (vi) details of the transaction of Transfer between Tenant and the proposed Transferee and all relevant documents with respect thereto; (vii) a signed copy of Landlord's standard form of letter of consent authorizing Landlord to make inquiries regarding the personal affairs of the proposed Transferee or any principal thereof, and (viii) all other information or documentation which Landlord may reasonably require.

11.03 Corporate Ownership If after the date of execution of this Lease, securities not listed for sale on a recognized securities exchange in Canada either of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant are transferred by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law or other disposition, or issued by subscription or allotment or cancelled or redeemed, so as to result in a change in the effective voting or other control of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant by the Person or Persons holding control on the date of execution of this Lease or on the date when Tenant becomes a corporation, if later, or if other steps are taken to accomplish a change of the effective control of Tenant, Tenant will promptly notify Landlord in writing of the change which will be considered to be a Transfer of this Lease to which Articles 11.01 and 11.02 apply; and whether or not Tenant notifies Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease within 60 days after Landlord learns of the change unless Landlord previously had consented to the change in writing. Tenant will make available to Landlord or its lawful representatives all corporate books and records of Tenant and of any Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant for inspection at all reasonable times, to ascertain to the extent possible whether there has been a change of control.

11.04 Insolvency of Transferee In the event Transferee becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy and this Lease is disclaimed or terminated, or Transferee disclaims this Lease pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation, or the terms of any insolvency-related Court order, then at Landlord's option to be exercised on written notice to the original Tenant named in this Lease or any Transferee (except the bankrupt or insolvent Transferee), such party will be deemed to have entered into a lease with Landlord for the remainder of the initial Term, on the terms and conditions of this Lease prevailing immediately prior to the date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation (including without limitation, future Rent escalations (if any)) effective upon the effective date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation.

11.05 Permitted Transfers. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but on prior written notice to Landlord:

(a) assign this Lease to, and may in any event permit the Premises to be used and occupied in whole or in part by, any affiliated corporation of Tenant (as such term "affiliated corporation" is defined by· the Canada Business Corporations Act); or

(b) assign this Lease to any corporation with which Tenant merges or consolidates that is an affiliated corporation of Tenant; or

(c) grant concessions or licenses to use and occupy any part or parts of the Premises provided that: (i) the Premises continues to be carried on, and retains the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated single department store operated in accordance with the requirements of this Lease, (ii) at least 80% (by number) of the concessions or licenses granted shall be to licensees or concessionaires which operate in a majority of the Tenant's other stores in the greater Toronto area; and (iii) any such concessionaire, licensee or other occupant within the Premises is subject to the day-to-day operational control of the Tenant in matters related to general standards of the business carried on so as to enable the Tenant to ensure that such standards shall conform to the general standards of business of the Tenant itself.

ARTICLE 12.00 SURRENDER

12.01 Possession Upon the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease and in addition to the provisions of Article 12.02, Tenant will immediately quit and peaceably surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord: (i) in a vacant, clean and broom-swept condition with all of Tenant's signage, inventory, trade fixtures, racking and personal property removed; and (ii) without any material damage to the structural and building system elements of the Premises (inclusive, for certainty, of walls, ceilings, windows and storefronts) and with such building systems (inclusive of elevators and escalators) servicing the Premises in a working order, subject to reasonable wear and tear; but otherwise in an "as is, where is" condition and without any obligation to:

(A) return the Premises or any component thereof to an improved or better state of condition or operation than existing as of the Commencement Date; or

(B) to remove any leasehold improvements in the Premises installed pursuant to Article 7.04 hereof.

For greater clarity, it is the intention of the parties that Tenant shall have no obligation to make cosmetic or "wear and tear" type repairs to the Premises upon surrender (such as repainting or repairing holes in walls, floors or ceilings caused by the typical installation and removal of racking, trade fixtures etc.).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Landlord's intention is to demolish and/or redevelop the Premises following the expiry of the Term and not to re-tenant same, the Landlord shall advise the Tenant thereof in which event sub-paragraph (ii) above shall not apply.

Upon surrender, all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises will cease. If Tenant has registered a caveat, caution, memorandum notice or other instrument relating to this lease against title to the Land, it will cause the same to be released and discharged no later than 15 days following the expiry or termination date, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a release or discharge of a notice of this will be paid by Tenant.

12.02 Trade Fixtures, Personal Property and Improvements

(a) Subject to Article 7.05, all alterations, additions and improvements made or to be made upon or to the Premises (save any movable trade fixtures used in Tenant's enterprise) which in any manner are attached in, to or under the floors, walls or ceilings, including, without limitation, walk-in vaults, large water features such as pools, water basins and fountains and landscaping features, any component of any heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, sprinkler, plumbing or electrical equipment or systems, presently or in the future installed within or servicing the Premises, all lighting installations and fixtures including, without limitation, all spot lights and tracks and all floor finishes of whatever nature placed upon the floor of the Premises, all storefronts, doors and/or partitions, shall become Landlord's property at the time they are installed, and will be surrendered to Landlord at the expiry of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease without any compensation or indemnity payable to Tenant whatsoever.

(b) If Tenant leaves any property on the Premises following the expiry of the Term or earlier termination thereof which it is entitled to remove, then unless Landlord expressly notifies Tenant to remove such property, the ownership of such property will, at Landlord's option, be deemed to have been abandoned to Landlord, free and clear of all Tenant Security, notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary and whether or not Landlord chooses to become the owner of such items, they may be used, removed or disposed of by or on behalf of Landlord, as Landlord determines, without compensation payable to Tenant and without incurring any liability to Tenant.

12.03 Merger The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant or the cancellation of this Lease by mutual agreement of Tenant and Landlord will not work a merger, and will, at Landlord's option, either terminate all or any subleases and subtenancies or operate as an assignment to Landlord of all or any subleases and subtenancies. Landlord's option hereunder will be exercised by notice to Tenant and all sublessees or subtenants in the Premises or any part thereof known to Landlord. If Landlord does not give notice within a reasonable period of time after such cancellation of this Lease, then all such subleases will be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such cancellation.

12.04 Payments After Termination No payment of money by Tenant to Landlord after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease or after the giving of any notice by Landlord to Tenant, will reinstate, continue or extend the Term or make ineffective any notice given to Tenant prior to the payment of such money. After the service of notice or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment granting Landlord possession of the Premises, Landlord may receive and collect any sums of Rent due under this Lease, and the payment thereof will not make ineffective any notice, or in any manner affect any pending suit or any judgment theretofore obtained.

ARTICLE 13.00 HOLDING OVER

13.01 Month-to-Month Tenancy with Landlord Consent If with Landlord's written consent, Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises on a month-to month tenancy only, at a monthly rental equal to the Rent payable by Tenant during the last month immediately preceding the expiration of the Term or such other rental as is stated in such written consent, and such month-to-month tenancy may be terminated by Landlord or Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by delivery of at least one (1) month's advance written notice of termination to the other.

13.02 Month-to-Month Tenancy without Landlord Consent If without Landlord's written consent Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises upon a tenancy at sufferance only, at a monthly rental equal to two (2) times the Rent payable during the last month preceding the expiration or termination. Such tenancy at sufferance may be immediately terminated by Landlord at any time by notice of termination to Tenant, and by Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by at least 30 days' advance written notice of termination to Landlord.

13.03 General Any month-to-month tenancy or tenancy at sufferance hereunder will be subject to all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease except any right of renewal or extension and nothing contained in Article 13.00 will be construed to limit or impair any of Landlord's rights of re-entry or eviction or constitute a waiver thereof.

ARTICLE 14.00 RULES AND REGULATIONS

14.01 Purpose The Rules and Regulations in Exhibit D (the "Rules and Regulations") have been adopted by Landlord for the safety, benefit and convenience of all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre.

14.02 Observance Tenant will at all times comply with, and will cause its employees, servants, agents, licencees and invitees to comply with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect.

14.03 Modification Landlord may from time to time, for the purposes set out in Article 14.01, amend, delete from, or add to the Rules and Regulations, provided that any such modification:

(a) will not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any other provision of this Lease;

(b) will be reasonable and have general application to tenants in the Shopping Centre; and

(c) will be effective only upon delivery of a copy thereof to Tenant at the Premises.

14.04 Non-Compliance Landlord will use reasonable efforts to secure compliance by all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect, but will not be responsible to Tenant for failure of any person to comply with such Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 15.00 EXPROPRIATION

15.01 Expropriation Both Landlord and Tenant agree to cooperate with each other in respect of any expropriation of all or any part of the Premises or any other part of the Shopping Centre, so that each may receive from the Authority the maximum award to which each is respectively entitled by law. If any portion of the Shopping Centre other than the Premises is expropriated, then the proceeds accruing therefrom shall belong solely to Landlord, and Tenant shall abandon to Landlord any rights which Tenant may have by operation of law to such proceeds or award. Tenant will execute such documents as required to give effect to the foregoing.

If at any time during the Term, any material part of the Shopping Centre is expropriated or if access to the Premises is materially affected by such expropriation, then Landlord may terminate this Lease on written notice to Tenant, which termination will take effect on the earlier of the date of the expropriation or the taking of prior possession.

Whether the Lease is terminated or not, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord as a result of or arising from the expropriation of all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

If Landlord exercises its right of termination hereunder, this Lease will terminate on the date stated in the notice, provided, however, that no termination pursuant to notice hereunder may occur later than 60 days after the date (hereinafter "Date of Such Taking") on which the Authority takes possession of that part of the Shopping Centre so taken.

15.02 Surrender On any such date of termination under Article 15.01, Tenant will immediately surrender to Landlord the Premises and all interests therein under this Lease. Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and remove Tenant therefrom, and the Rent will abate on the date of termination, except that if the Date of Such Taking differs from the date of termination, Rent will abate on the former date.

15.03 Partial Taking of Premises If any portion of the Premises (but less than the whole thereof) is so taken, and no rights of termination herein conferred are timely exercised, the Term of this Lease will expire with respect to the portion so taken on the Date of Such Taking. In such event the Rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion so taken will abate on such date, and the Rent thereafter payable with respect to the remainder not so taken will be adjusted pro rata by Landlord in order to account for the resulting reduction of the Area of the Premises. After such adjustment, and on notice from Landlord stating the Rent then owing, Tenant will immediately pay Landlord such Rent.

ARTICLE 16.00 DAMAGE BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

16.01 Limited Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, can be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), Landlord will immediately at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, personal property or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired immediately by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.02 Major Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, cannot be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), then Landlord, or in the event that there is less than two (2) years remaining in the Term, Tenant, may elect to terminate this Lease as of the date of such casualty by written notice delivered to the other not more than 20 days after receipt of the Architect's opinion, failing which Landlord will forthwith at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, personal property or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on the behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired forthwith by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.03 Abatement If Landlord is required to repair damage to all or part of the Premises under Article 16.01 or16.02, provided such damage is caused by a peril Landlord is required to insure against pursuant to Article 9.01, the Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease will be proportionately reduced to the extent that the Premises are thereby rendered untenantable by Tenant in its business, from the date of such casualty until five (5) days after completion by Landlord of the repairs to the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) or until Tenant again uses the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) in its business, whichever first occurs.

16.04 Major Damage or Destruction of Shopping Centre

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Lease and specifically, but without limitation, Article 16.01, if the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed (whether the Premises are affected or not), and (i) in the Architect's opinion, the damaged or destroyed portions cannot reasonably be repaired, restored or rebuilt within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the damage or destruction (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium); or (ii) the cost as estimated by the Architect, of repairing, restoring or rebuilding the damaged or destroyed portions would exceed the proceeds of insurance available to Landlord for such purpose; or (iii) the damage or destruction was caused by a peril for which Landlord was not insured and for which Landlord was not obliged to insure against; or (iv)intentionally deleted; ; or (v) less than two (2) years remains during the Term; or (vi) a Mortgagee will not consent to the use of insurance proceeds for repair or reconstruction; then in any of the above cases, Landlord may, at its option (to be exercised by written notice to Tenant within 30 days following any such occurrence) elect to terminate this Lease.

If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease, then the following provisions will apply:

(a) If the Premises become totally unfit for the use for which they were leased, the termination will take effect from the date of the damage or destruction and the Rent will cease to be payable and will be adjusted as of that date.

(b) If the Premises are partially damaged and Tenant has occupied any part of the Premises or any part of the Premises have been reasonably capable of being occupied from the date of the damage or destruction, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in the first paragraph of this Article 16.04 and the Rent will cease to be paid by Tenant as of the date of termination, however, Rent will abate from the date of the damage and destruction until the date of termination to the extent the Premises cannot reasonably be used for their intended purposes.

(c) If the Premises were not damaged, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in Article 16.00 and the Rent will cease to be paid from such date of termination.

If the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed and Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, subject to the following, Landlord shall commence and proceed diligently to reconstruct or repair those portions of the Shopping Centre which have been so damaged or destroyed to the extent only of Landlord's responsibilities pursuant to the terms of the various leases for premises in the Shopping Centre and exclusive of any tenants' responsibilities. Furthermore, if the Premises are being repaired or reconstructed, the provisions of Article 16.01 will apply.

If Landlord does any reconstruction or repairing of the Shopping Centre, Landlord may do any one or more of the following: (i) use plans, specifications and working drawings which differ from those applicable to the Shopping Centre existing prior to the damage or destruction provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; (ii) change the configuration, design and/or size of the Shopping Centre or any of its component parts including, without limitation, the location and size of any mall, court, entrance, parking facility or any of other Common Areas and Facilities provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; and (iii) redesign the tenant mix, both with respect to the kinds of uses which will be included in the tenant mix, as well as the physical location of the types of uses being operated prior to the damage or destruction. Tenant agrees that none of the foregoing shall constitute a default of Landlord's obligation to provide peaceable enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall it constitute a change of form or destination of the Shopping Centre, nor shall the validity or enforceability of this Lease be affected in any manner by any of the foregoing.

ARTICLE 17.00 TRANSFERS AND MORTGAGES BY LANDLORD

17.01 Sales, Conveyance and Assignment Nothing in this Lease (which term for purpose of this Article 17.00 includes any extension, renewal or replacement of this Lease) will restrict the right of Landlord to sell, convey, assign, mortgage or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Shopping Centre, subject only to the rights of Tenant under this Lease.

17.02 Effect of Sale, Conveyance or Assignment A sale, conveyance or assignment of the Shopping Centre will operate to release Landlord from liability from and after the date thereof upon all the covenants, terms and conditions of this Lease, express or implied, except as such may relate to the period prior to such effective date, and Tenant will thereafter look solely to Landlord's successor in interest in and to this Lease. This Lease will not be affected by any such sale conveyance or assignment, and Tenant will attorn to Landlord's successor in interest thereunder.

17.03 Definition of Mortgage, Mortgagee and Mortgagee's Interest. Each and every charge, mortgage, debenture or trust deed, now or hereafter registered against all or any part of the Shopping Centre is hereafter called a "Mortgage" which term includes all amounts advanced or to be advanced thereunder and all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. "Mortgagee" means a chargee or mortgagee named in a Mortgage, or the holder of a debenture or the trustee under a trust deed constituting a Mortgage, as the case may be; and "Mortgagee's Interest" means the estate or interest of the Mortgagee secured by a Mortgage.

17.04 Subordination of Mortgage to Lease. If this Lease or the estate or interest of Tenant thereunder (the "Tenant's Leasehold Interest") is subordinate to a Mortgage or Mortgagee's Interest now or at any time hereafter, then on written request of the Mortgagee or of Landlord on Mortgagee's behalf, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, the Mortgage and the Mortgagee's Interest will be postponed and made subordinate to this Lease and the Tenant's Leasehold Interest as if such Mortgage had been executed, delivered, registered and fully advanced after the execution, delivery and registration of this Lease, by means of an instrument of postponement and subordination, which will be entered into between Tenant and the Mortgagee, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that it complies with the terms and conditions of the Lease. Such instrument will be in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, consistent with this Article 17.04 and Article 17.07 and will be effective between the Mortgagee and Tenant when executed by them, without necessity for registration against title to the Shopping Centre; but if desired by the Mortgagee or Tenant, either of them may register such agreement or notice thereof and for that purpose the Mortgagee and Tenant will enter into any further document required to effect registration.

17.05 Attornment. If this Lease and Tenant's Leasehold Interest now or at any time hereafter is subordinate to a Mortgage and Mortgagee's Interest and the Mortgagee does not require a postponement and subordination instrument under Article 17.04, Tenant will on request of such Mortgagee or of Landlord on behalf of the Mortgagee, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, enter into an attornment agreement with such Mortgagee in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, whereby Tenant will agree that if default occurs under the Mortgage, and:

(a) the Mortgagee takes possession of the Premises, by obtaining and enforcing a court order to that effect or otherwise;

(b) the Mortgagee forecloses or otherwise acquires the interest of Landlord in the Premises, but does not foreclose the Tenant's Leasehold Interest; or

(c) the Mortgagee sells, conveys or assigns the Premises to another party (hereinafter a "Purchaser") pursuant to a power of sale or court order for sale which does not purport to sell the Premises free of the Tenant's Leasehold Interest,

Tenant will, on written demand of the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, attorn to and become the tenant of that person from and including the date the demand is received, for the balance of the term of this Lease (and with rights of renewal if any as provided in this Lease), at the rents and otherwise on the terms of this Lease, subject as hereinafter provided in Article 17.06, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that Tenant complies with, all the terms and conditions of the Lease.

17.06 Intentionally deleted.

17.07 Effect of Subordination or Attornment. No subordination effected under Article 17.04 and no attornment effected under Article 17.05 will render the Mortgagee or Purchaser, as the case may be:

(a) liable for any act or omission of Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(b) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(c) bound by any prepayment by Tenant of more than one month's instalment of Rent, or by any previous modification of this Lease, unless such prepayment or modification has been approved in writing by the Mortgagee or Purchaser or any predecessor in interest except Landlord.

Upon attornment occurring under Article 17.05, the relationship of landlord and tenant thereby created between the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, as Landlord, and Tenant as tenant, will supersede this Lease, but if the Mortgage is subsequently redeemed or put in good standing or the Mortgagee goes out of possession, the Mortgagee will be relieved of its obligations to Tenant as if a sale, conveyance or assignment had occurred to which Article 17.02 applied. Any attornment by Tenant to a Mortgagee or Purchaser will be without prejudice to the right (when applicable) of any other mortgagee or purchaser that has priority to the Mortgagee or Purchaser to demand that Tenant attorn to the other mortgagee or purchaser pursuant to the rights if any, of the other mortgagee or purchaser in that regard under Article 17.00. In case of such demand being lawfully made, and Tenant attorning to such other mortgagee or purchaser the attornment previously made to the Mortgagee or Purchaser will cease to be effective.

17.08 Tenant's Obligations May Be Assigned. Tenant acknowledges that its covenants and obligations under Article 17.00 are intended in whole or in part to operate for the benefit of any and all Mortgagees and Purchasers and that in obtaining such covenants and obligations Landlord is acting not only for itself, but also as trustee or agent for all such persons. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord may assign the benefit of such covenants and obligations to any and all Mortgagees or Purchasers who request same, as security or otherwise, and Tenant agrees that any such Mortgagee or Purchaser will be entitled on receiving such assignment and giving due notice thereof to Tenant, to enforce such covenant or obligation against Tenant to the same extent as if it were a party to this Lease directly entitled to the benefit of such covenants and obligations.

17.09 Execution of Instruments. Except as otherwise provided in Article 17.00, the subordination and attornment provisions herein will be self-operating and no further instrument will be required. Nevertheless Tenant, on request by and without cost to Landlord, any Mortgagee, Purchaser or successor in interest, will execute and deliver any and all instruments further evidencing such subordination and/or attornment when applicable.

17.10 Intentionally deleted.

17.11 Intentionally deleted.

17.12 Notice of Lease Tenant may register at its sole cost and expense (including, without limitation, payment of all registration fees, land transfer duties and similar taxes or charges, costs of plan preparation and registration and all legal fees and disbursements related to such registration) a notice of this Lease (the "Registration Document"), provided and subject to the following:

(a) the Registration Document will be prepared by Tenant at its sole cost in a form acceptable to Landlord, and same will be approved in writing by Landlord prior to its registration;

(b) the Registration Document will only disclose the names of the parties to this Lease, the Premises, and the Commencement Date and the expiry date of the Term, and any right of renewal. The Registration Document will not disclose any information concerning the rent or rental rates to be paid, nor any other financial provisions of this Lease;

(c) the Registration Document will be registered against that part of the Lands designated by the Landlord in its sole discretion. In the event any portion of the Land ceases to form part of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will, forthwith upon request from Landlord, cause its registration to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from the title to such portion all at its own expense;

(d) Tenant will provide Landlord with a copy of the Registration Document and registration particulars thereof, once registration has been effected; and

(e) Upon the expiry or early termination of this Lease, Tenant will, at its sole expense, cause the Registration Document to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from title to the Site and Shopping Centre and to provide proof of such action to Landlord, within 15 days of such expiry or early termination, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a discharge of any Registration Document will be paid by Tenant.

17.13 Easements and Rights-of-Way Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord has granted or otherwise created and may in the future grant or otherwise create licence(s), easements(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s) over, through, upon or otherwise affecting portions of the Common Areas and Facilities. Tenant hereby consents to the granting or other creation of such licence(s), easements(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s).

17.14 Severance of Land In addition to and upon the same basis, mutatis mutandis, as set out in Article6.04, Landlord will have the right from time to time to subdivide and to transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any portion or portions of the Land. Any such subdivision may be accomplished by any means Landlord may consider desirable and the description of the Land will be changed accordingly.

ARTICLE 18.00 NOTICES, ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, AUTHORITIES FOR ACTION

18.01 Notices Any notice from one party to the other under this Lease will be in writing and will be deemed duly given, if delivered personally, by an authorized representative of Tenant or Landlord or by courier, or bailiff to the party being given such notice or to a responsible employee of the party being given such notice, or if mailed in Canada by registered or certified mail addressed to Tenant at the address described in Article 1.01, or to Landlord at the address described in Article 1.01 of this Lease. Any notice will be deemed to have been given at the time of personal delivery, or if mailed, on the third (3rd) postal delivery date after the date of mailing thereof or the date of refusal thereof. Either party will have the right to designate by notice, in the manner above set forth, a different address to which notices are to be given. If it is reasonably anticipated that, due to mail service being disrupted, such notice, if mailed, will not be received by the third (3rd) postal delivery day following mailing, then such notice must be personally delivered as provided in this Article 18.01 or, in lieu of mailing, sent by the most reasonably expeditious means of delivery available to the address for mailing and will be deemed duly given upon such delivery. Notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary, notices shall not be sufficiently given if delivered or transmitted by facsimile or other electronic means.

18.02 Acknowledgments Within ten (10) days after written request therefor by Landlord, Tenant shall deliver an Estoppel Certificate addressed to any Person (other than the Landlord) designated by Landlord, in the form annexed as Exhibit F or such other substantially similar form which Landlord may submit to Tenant.

18.03 Authorities for Action Landlord may act in any matter provided for herein by its property manager, Management Company or any other person who will from time to time be designated by Landlord by notice to Tenant. Tenant will designate in writing one or more persons to act on its behalf in any matter provided for herein and may from time to time change, by notice to Landlord, such designation. In the absence of any such designation, the person or persons executing this Lease for Tenant will be deemed to be authorized to act on behalf of Tenant in any matter provided for in this Lease.

ARTICLE 19.00 DEFAULT

19.01 Interest and Costs Tenant will pay to Landlord the Interest Rate upon all Rent required to be paid under this Lease from the due date for payment thereof until the same is fully paid and satisfied. Tenant will indemnify Landlord against all costs and charges (including legal fees) reasonably incurred in enforcing payment thereof, and in obtaining possession of the Premises after default of Tenant or upon expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, or in enforcing any covenant, proviso or agreement of Tenant contained in this Lease.

19.02 Right of Landlord to Perform Covenants All covenants and agreements to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be performed by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and without abatement of Rent. If Tenant fails to perform any act on its part to be performed under this Lease, and such failure continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord, Landlord may (but will not be obligated so to do) perform such act without waiving or releasing Tenant from any of its obligations relative thereto. All sums paid or costs incurred by Landlord in so performing such acts under this Article 19.02, together with interest thereon at the rate set out in Article 19.01 from the date each such payment was made or each such cost was incurred by Landlord, plus 20% of such costs for Landlord's administration and overhead, will be payable by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

19.03 Events of Default If and whenever:

(a) Part or all of the Rent hereby reserved is not paid when due, whether lawfully demanded or not, and such default continues after five (5) business days' notice by Landlord, provided that if Tenant is no longer obligated to pay Incremental Rent, the aforesaid five (5) business day period shall be deemed extended to fifteen (days) after notice by Landlord; or

(b) Tenant fails to observe, perform and keep each and every of the covenants, agreements, provisions, stipulations and conditions herein contained to be observed, performed and kept by Tenant (other than payment of Rent) and persists in such failure after thirty (30) days' notice by Landlord specifying with reasonable particularity the nature of such failure and requiring that Tenant remedy, correct, desist or comply (or if any such breach would reasonably require more than thirty (30) days to rectify, unless Tenant commences rectification within the thirty (30) day notice period and thereafter promptly, effectively and continuously proceeds with the rectification of the breach to completion of rectification); or

(c) any goods, chattels or equipment of Tenant is taken or exigible in execution or in attachment or if a writ of execution is issued against Tenant; or

(d) Tenant becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy or becomes bankrupt or takes the benefit of any statute that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or becomes involved in voluntary or involuntary winding-up or dissolution or liquidation proceedings or if a receiver will be appointed for the business, property, affairs or revenues of Tenant; Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall provide Landlord with: (i) 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (i) hereof, to the extent Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action, (iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (iv) 5 business day prior written notice of the Tenant signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s); or

(e) any person other than Tenant or a Transferee permitted under this Lease has or exercises the right to manage or control the Premises, any part thereof or any business carried on in the Premises, other than subject to the actual, direct and full supervision and control of Tenant; or

(f) Tenant makes a bulk sale of its goods or moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its goods, chattels or equipment out of the Premises (other than in the normal course of its business) or Tenant ceases to conduct business from the Premises or the Premises are not open for business to the public on any three (3) consecutive days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises or on more than five (5) days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises in any twelve (12) month period; or

(g) a Transfer is effected or any Tenant Security is granted in any manner other than as permitted by this Lease; or

(h) a default of the monetary obligations of the tenant (which is not remedied within the cure period provided for in such new lease) occurs under any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties, where such default would constitute a "cross default" event as set out in such new lease or any other agreement entered into by and between Tenant and Landlord (and/or its or their affiliates):

(i) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(ii) Mapleview;

(iii) Southgate;

(iv) Guilford;

(v) Oshawa;

(vi) Outlet Collection Niagara

(vii) Galeries d'Anjou;

(viii) CrossIron Mills

(ix) St. Foy; or

(x) Outlet Collection Winnipeg (such lease at Outlet Collection Winnipeg, together with the aforesaid leases at Outlet Collection Niagara, CrossIron Mills, and St. Foy being collectively, the "Other Saks Leases");

then and in any of such cases, at the option of Landlord, the full amount of the current month's and the next ensuing three (3) months instalments of Rent will immediately become due and payable together with all tenant allowance monies paid to Tenant or the value of other inducements given to Tenant (such as, but not limited to, rent-free periods) in accordance with the provisions of this Lease or any other agreement between Landlord and Tenant relating to the Premises (such allowances and inducements hereinafter referred to as "Tenant Inducements") and Landlord may immediately take legal proceedings for the same, together with any arrears then unpaid; and Landlord may without notice or any form of legal process forthwith re-enter upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and expel all Persons from the Premises and remove and sell or dispose of Tenant's goods, personal property and trade fixtures therefrom as Landlord sees fit, or store property such at the cost of Tenant, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding all without liability and loss or damage and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover arrears of Rent or damages for any antecedent default by Tenant of its obligations or agreements under this Lease or of any term or condition of this Lease, and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover from Tenant damages for loss of Rent suffered by reason of this Lease having been prematurely terminated. Any such sale may be effected in the discretion of Landlord by public auction or otherwise, and either in bulk or by individual item, or partly by one means and partly by another, all as Landlord in its entire discretion may decide. If any of Tenant's property is disposed of as provided in this Article 19.03, ten (10) days prior notice to Tenant of disposition will be deemed to be commercially reasonable.

19.04 Waiver of Exemption and Redemption. Notwithstanding anything contained in any statute now or hereafter in force limiting or abrogating the right of distress, none of Tenant's goods, chattels or trade fixtures on the Premises at any time during the continuance of the Term will be exempt from levy by distress for Rent in arrears and upon any claim being made for such exemption by Tenant or on distress being made by Landlord this agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel against Tenant in any action brought to test the right to the levying upon any such goods as are named as exempted in any such statute, Tenant hereby waiving all and every benefit that could or might have accrued to Tenant under and by virtue of any such statute but for this Lease. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being evicted or dispossessed for any cause, or in the event of Landlord obtaining possession of the Premises, by reason of the violation by Tenant of any terms and conditions of this Lease or otherwise.

19.05 Surrender If and whenever Landlord is entitled to or does re-enter, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving notice thereof, and in such event Tenant will forthwith vacate and surrender the Premises.

19.06 Payments If Landlord re-enters or if this Lease is terminated, Tenant will pay to Landlord on demand:

(a) Rent up to the time of re-entry or termination, whichever will be the later, plus three (3) months' accelerated rent as herein provided; and

(b) all expenses incurred by Landlord in performing any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, re-entering or terminating and re-letting, collecting sums due or payable by Tenant, realizing upon assets seized (including brokerage, legal fees and disbursements), and the expense of keeping the Premises in good order, repairing the same and preparing them for re-letting; and

(c) as damages (subject to the Landlord's obligation to mitigate at law) for the loss of income of Landlord expected to be derived from the Premises, the amounts (if any) by which the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease exceeds the payments (if any) received by Landlord from other tenants in the Premises, payable on the first (1st) day of each month during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term had it not been terminated, or if elected by Landlord by notice to Tenant at or after re-entry or termination, a lump sum amount equal to the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease from the date of such election during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term, had it not been terminated, reduced by the rental value of the Premises for the same period, established by reference to the terms and conditions upon which Landlord re-lets them if such re-letting is accomplished within a reasonable period after termination, and otherwise established by reference to all market and other relevant circumstances; Rent and rental value being reduced to present worth at an assumed interest rate of ten percent (10%) on the basis of Landlord's estimates and assumptions of fact which will govern unless shown to be erroneous; and

(d) all Tenant Inducements given by Landlord to Tenant in respect of the Premises.

19.07 Remedies Cumulative No reference to nor exercise of any specific right or remedy by Landlord will prejudice or preclude Landlord from exercising or invoking any other remedy in respect thereof, whether allowed at law or expressly provided for in this Lease. No such remedy will be exclusive or dependent upon any other such remedy, but Landlord may from time to time exercise any one or more of such remedies independently or in combination.

19.08 Waiver In the event Tenant is in default in performing any of its obligations (including without limitation, the payment of any Rent), and Landlord shall have instituted proceedings to cancel, terminate or to confirm its cancellation or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall not have any right to prevent such cancellation or termination by remedying its default or defaults subsequent to the institution of such legal proceedings.

19.09 Intentionally deleted.

19.10 Additional Recourses If Tenant is in default to fulfill any of its obligations under this Lease and in particular its obligations pursuant to Articles 5.03, 5.10 and 18.02 of this Lease, then in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights or recourses of Landlord hereunder, Landlord may, at its option, obtain injunctive relief to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do, Tenant hereby expressly acknowledging and agreeing that this Article 19.10 constitutes a waiver against any defense to Landlord's application for injunctive relief made to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do.

19.11 Non-Waiver No condoning, excusing or over-looking by either party of any default by the other at any time in respect of any of its obligations shall operate as a waiver of Landlord's or Tenant's rights hereunder in respect of any such default or any subsequent default or so as to defeat or affect in any way the rights of Landlord or Tenant in respect of any such default or subsequent default. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by anything done or omitted to be done by Landlord or Tenant save only where such waiver is expressed in writing. Without limiting the general application hereof, the acceptance of any sums of money, statements of account or reports that Tenant or Landlord must pay or provide pursuant to this Lease, shall not constitute a renunciation of the rights of Landlord or Tenant in virtue of theses presents.

19.12 Shopping Centre Assets Only the Shopping Centre assets and any property exclusively related thereto shall serve to satisfy the obligations of Landlord under this Lease or in virtue of any responsibility of Landlord resulting from its fault. Tenant recognizes and declares, without reserve, that any recourse by Tenant against Landlord based on, or in virtue of, this Lease or resulting from any fault of Landlord, shall be restricted and can only be executed against the Shopping Centre, to the exclusion of all other property belonging to Landlord.

19.13 Real Estate Investment Trust In the event that a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") should be at any time bound by the covenants of Landlord hereunder or incur any liability as Landlord hereunder, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease or at law, such covenants and liability hereunder and under all other agreements entered into pursuant hereto, if any, shall not be personally binding upon and resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse of satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the trustees of the REIT, unitholders of the REIT, annuitants under a plan of which the REIT or any unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the REIT or directors or officers of any of its nominees, although this provision shall not constitute a bar to any action against the REIT for specific performance of this Lease or performance of any obligation of the REIT arising from or in connection with its obligations, if any, under this Lease or other agreements entered into pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 20.00 INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

ARTICLE 21.00 MISCELLANEOUS

21.01 Relationship of Parties Nothing contained in this Lease will create any relationship between parties to this Lease other than that of landlord and tenant, and it is acknowledged and agreed that Landlord does not in any way or for any purpose become a partner of Tenant in the conduct of its business, or a joint venturer or a member of a joint or common enterprise with Tenant.

21.02 Consent Not Unreasonably Withheld Except as otherwise specifically provided, whenever consent or approval of Landlord or Tenant is required under the terms of this Lease, such consent or approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant's sole remedy if Landlord unreasonably withholds or delays consent or approval will be an action for specific performance, and Landlord will not be liable for damages. If either party withholds any consent or approval, such party will on written request deliver to the other party a written statement giving the reasons therefor.

21.03 Applicable Law and Interpretation This Lease will be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located, and its provisions will be interpreted as a whole according to their common meaning and not strictly for or against Landlord or Tenant. The words "Landlord" and "Tenant" will include the plural as well as the singular. If this Lease is executed by more than one party as Tenant, Tenant's obligations under this Lease will be joint and several obligations of such executing parties. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions. The captions of the Articles are included for convenience only, and will have no effect upon the interpretation of this Lease.

Certain text in this Lease has been bolded and underlined and certain text has been deleted by way of a line through applicable text. Such bolding and underlining and lines through the applicable text have been used to identify changes to Landlord's standard form of lease for the Shopping Centre. All bolded and underlined text will be read as if not bolded and underlined and all text deleted by way of a line will be deemed not to exist.

21.04 Entire Agreement This Lease (together with any other agreement entered into by the Landlord, the Tenant and/or its or their affiliates as a pre-condition to the execution of this Lease), contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Lease and except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Lease, this Lease supersedes and revokes all previous negotiations, arrangements, letters of intent, offers to lease, lease proposals, brochures, agreements, representations, promises, warranties, understandings, and information conveyed, whether oral or in writing, between the parties hereto or their respective representatives or any other person purporting to represent Landlord or Tenant. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it has not relied upon any statement, representation, agreement or warranty except such as are expressly set out in this Lease.

21.05 Amendment or Modification Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, no amendment, modification, or supplement to this Lease will be valid or binding unless set out in writing and executed by the parties hereto in the same manner as the execution of this Lease.

21.06 Construed Covenants and Severability All of the provisions of this Lease are to be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words importing such covenants and agreements were used in each separate Article hereof. If any term, proviso, covenant or condition of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is to any extent held or rendered invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal it or its application will be considered separate and severable from this Lease to such extent and the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term, proviso, covenant or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is held invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal will not be affected thereby and will continue to be applicable and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

21.07 No Implied Surrender or Waiver No provisions of this Lease will be deemed to have been waived by Landlord unless such waiver is in writing signed by Landlord. Landlord's waiver of a breach of any term or condition of this Lease will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a breach, from having all the force and effect of any original breach. Landlord's receipt of Rent with knowledge of a breach by Tenant of any term or condition of this Lease will not be deemed a waiver of such breach. Landlord's failure to enforce against Tenant or any other tenant in the Shopping Centre any of the Rules and Regulations made under Article 14.00 will not be deemed a waiver of such Rules and Regulations. No act or thing done by Landlord, its agents or employees during the Term will be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept a surrender of the Premises will be valid, unless in writing signed by

Landlord. The delivery of keys to any of Landlord's agents or employees will not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises. No payment by Tenant, or receipt by Landlord, of a lesser amount than the Rent due under this Lease will be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated Rent, nor will any endorsement or statement on any cheque or any letter accompanying any cheque, or payment as Rent, be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such cheque or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Rent or pursue any other remedy available to Landlord.

21.08 Additional Costs Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Rent, upon written request therefore, any and all costs, including without limitation, costs of additional security, cleaning and legal costs, incurred by Landlord as a result of picketing, demonstration or other activity within the Shopping Centre which is initiated by members of any organization, including, without limitation, a trade union, and which is directed at Tenant, its contractors, subcontractors, suppliers or employees or at Tenant's operations in the Shopping Centre.

21.09 Successors Bound Except as otherwise specifically provided, the covenants terms and conditions contained in this Lease will apply to and bind the heirs, successors, executors, administrators and permitted assigns of the parties hereto.

21.10 Brokerage Commission Any brokerage commissions with respect to the present transaction shall be borne exclusively by Tenant and Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any and all claims for payment of commission with respect thereto, unless Landlord has given a specific written mandate to any broker or agent for the present transaction.

21.11 Confidentiality Tenant agrees to keep the terms and conditions of this Lease confidential. Any information pertaining to this Lease cannot be communicated or revealed to a third party without the written consent of Landlord whose refusal will be deemed reasonable if the information that would be communicated or revealed is of a financial nature. Tenant's failure to respect this Article 21.11 is acknowledged by Tenant to constitute a major prejudice to Landlord and also a default according to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

21.12 No Offer by Landlord Landlord will not be deemed to have made an offer to Tenant by preparing this Lease. No agreement respecting the Premises will arise or exist between the parties hereto except through the due execution of this Lease by both Tenant and Landlord. Upon execution and delivery by Tenant to Landlord, this Lease will be irrevocable by Tenant and open for acceptance by Landlord until 5:00 P.M. on the 60th day thereafter, and if not accepted by Landlord by then, may be withdrawn by Tenant by notice to Landlord at any time prior to its later acceptance by Landlord.

21.13 Time of Essence Time shall be of the essence of this Lease in respect to all of the agreements and obligations of Tenant and/or Landlord contained herein.

21.14 Force Majeure If any party hereto is bona fide delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any term, obligation or act required hereunder by reason of Force Majeure, then performance of such term, obligation or act is excused for the period during which the cause of the Force Majeure persists. Once the cause of this Force Majeure has ceased, the party so delayed shall perform such terms, obligations or acts within the time period stipulated in the Lease, without regard for such period of time during which the cause of the Force Majeure persisted.

21.15 Non-Smoking Shopping Centre The Shopping Centre is a non-smoking facility. Tenant, its employees, invitees, customers, and anyone for whom Tenant is responsible at law are strictly prohibited from smoking in any interior or exterior areas of the Shopping Centre, except those exterior areas designated by Landlord as designated smoking areas (if any). Tenant agrees that it will comply with the foregoing restriction as well as any applicable legislation regulating smoking in shopping centres.

21.16 Counterpart Execution This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement, effective when all counterparts have been signed. The parties hereto agree that this Lease may be signed either by paper signature or by electronic signature and may be delivered electronically (in .pdf format) or otherwise, and the parties accept any such electronic signatures as original signatures of the parties.

EXHIBIT D
RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Security Landlord may from time to time adopt appropriate systems and procedures for the security or safety of the Shopping Centre, any persons occupying, using or entering the same, or any equipment, finishings or contents thereof, and Tenant will comply with Landlord's reasonable requirements relative thereto.

2. Return of Keys At the end of the Term, Tenant will promptly return to Landlord all keys for the Shopping Centre and Premises which are in possession of Tenant.

3. Repair, Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements Tenant will carry out Tenant's repair, maintenance, alterations and improvements in the Premises only during times agreed to in advance by Landlord and in a manner which will not interfere with the rights of other tenants in the Shopping Centre.

4. Water Fixtures Tenant will not use water fixtures for any purpose for which they are not intended, nor will water be wasted by tampering with such fixtures. Any cost or damage resulting from such misuse by Tenant will be paid for by Tenant.

5. Personal Use of Premises The Premises will not be used or permitted to be used for residential, lodging or sleeping purposes or for the storage of personal effects or property not required for business purposes.

6. Heavy Articles and Overloading Services Tenant will not place in or move about the Premises, without Landlord's prior written consent, any safe or other heavy article which in Landlord's reasonable opinion may damage the Shopping Centre, and Landlord may designate the location of any heavy articles in the Premises. Tenant will not overload any utility or service in or serving the Premises or any part of the Shopping Centre.

7. Animals, Bicycles, Shopping Carts Tenant will not bring any animals or birds into the Shopping Centre, and will not permit bicycles or other vehicles inside or on the sidewalks outside the Shopping Centre except in areas designated from time to time by Landlord for such purposes. Tenant shall not permit shopping carts in the Common Areas and Facilities and shall be fully responsible for their removal and indemnify Landlord from any claim, loss, expense, damages or injuries caused by the shopping carts.

8. Deliveries Tenant will ensure that deliveries or shipments of supplies, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, wares and merchandise to or from the Premises are made only through such delivery facilities, entrances, elevators and corridors and at such times as may from time to time be designated by Landlord, and will promptly pay or cause to be paid to Landlord the cost of repairing any damage in the Shopping Centre caused by any person making such deliveries or shipments.

9. Solicitations Landlord reserves the right to restrict or prohibit canvassing, soliciting or peddling in the Shopping Centre.

10. Food, Beverages and Entertainment Only persons approved from time to time by Landlord may prepare, solicit orders for, sell, serve or distribute foods or beverages in the Shopping Centre, or use the elevators, corridors or Common Areas and Facilities for any such purposes. Except with Landlord's prior written consent and in accordance with arrangements approved in writing by Landlord, Tenant will not permit on the Premises the use of equipment for dispensing food or beverages or for the preparation, solicitation of orders for, sale, serving or distribution of food or beverages or for the selling or providing of any form of entertainment, including vending machines or other machines operated by coins or other devices.

11. Refuse Tenant will separate and place all refuse in proper receptacles provided by Tenant at its expense in the Premises or in receptacles in recycling stations (if any) provided for the Shopping Centre, and will keep sidewalks and driveways outside the Shopping Centre, and lobbies, corridors, stairwells, ducts and shafts of the Shopping Centre, free of all refuse.

12. Obstructions Tenant will not obstruct or place anything in or on the sidewalks or driveways outside the Shopping Centre or in the lobbies, corridors, stairwells or other Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre, or use such locations for any purpose except access to and exit from the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent. Landlord may remove at Tenant's expense any such obstruction or thing (unauthorized by Landlord) without notice or obligation to Tenant.

13. Dangerous, Immoral or Hazardous Activities Tenant will not make any use of the Premises which involves the danger of injury to any person, nor will same be used for any immoral purpose or to commit any act of waste or damage to any part of the Premises or to use any part of the Premises so as to constitute a hazard.

14. Proper Conduct Tenant will not conduct itself in any manner which is inconsistent with the character of the Shopping Centre as being of first quality or which will impair the comfort and convenience of other tenants in the Shopping Centre. Such prohibited conduct will include the playing of loud music and the placing of merchandise racks in the Common Areas and Facilities.

15. Parking Landlord, from time to time, may prohibit Tenant, Tenant's employees and Tenant's suppliers and others making deliveries to or receiving shipments from the Premises from parking anywhere within the Shopping Centre. If Landlord designates Tenant parking areas in the Shopping Centre, Tenant will park its vehicles and will cause its employees to park their vehicles only in such designated parking areas. Tenant will furnish Landlord, upon request, with the current licence numbers of all vehicles owned or used by Tenant or its employees and Tenant thereafter will notify Landlord of any changes in such numbers within five (5) days after the occurrence thereof. In the event of failure of Tenant or its employees to park their vehicles in such designated parking areas, Tenant will forthwith on demand pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the sum of $20.00 per day per each car so parked. Landlord reserves the right to impose reasonable charges upon any person (including the general public) for the use of any parking facilities which may from time to time form a part of the Shopping Centre.

16. Sustainability Tenant shall implement energy-efficient practices within the Premises, including closing all window shades, turning off any unnecessary lights and equipment after the close of business day.

    Tenant will keep any exterior doors and windows to the Premises closed during the periods where there is a variation of three (3) degrees Celsius or more between indoor and outdoor temperatures.

    Tenant will turn off interior mall signage and display window lighting half-an-hour after closing until half-an-hour before opening time the next day (the "After-Hours Period"), or as Landlord deems appropriate.

    Tenant will limit After-Hours Period interior lighting to emergency lighting, when the Premises are not occupied.

    Where Tenant has the ability to control its HVAC for the Premises, Tenant will adjust the HVAC temperature settings so as to limit the Premises' energy consumption during the After-Hours Period by setting back the temperature of the Premises by six (6) degrees Celsius from the daytime temperature setting.

    Tenant will not use space heaters in or for the Premises, unless Tenant first obtains Landlord's written consent.

    If Landlord leak tests for Tenant's plumbing fixtures reveal water leaks or other defects, Landlord will notify Tenant of such defects and Tenant will take all necessary actions to diligently remedy said effects.

    In addition to the requirements set out under Article 20.05 of the Lease, Tenant will comply with Landlord's waste minimization and diversion rules and regulations, as established from time to time.

    Tenant will make available an appropriate staff representative to attend Landlord's information and training sessions relating to Landlord's initiatives for improving the Shopping Centre's operational sustainability.

1.03 Shopping Centre: The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg, Manitoba

1.04 Area: [*SqFtArea] 32,204 square feet.

1.05 Term: A period of ten (10) years, beginning on the 3rd day of February, 2024, and expiring on the 2nd day of February, 2034, unless terminated earlier or renewed as provided in this Lease. The options in favor of Tenant in the Original Lease to renew or extend the term thereof shall equally apply in respect of this Term on the same terms as the renewal or extension options set out in the Original Lease, save and except that (a) in no event shall the final expiry date of this Term (as may be so renewed or extended) be later than what would have been the final expiry date of the term of the Original Lease after the exercise of all renewal or extension options had it not been terminated and replaced by this Lease; and (b) the Tenant shall continue to have the obligation to pay the Incremental Rent throughout this Term (as may be further renewed or extended including during any renewal or extension of the Term pursuant to the renewal options incorporated in this Lease from the Original Lease), as set out in Section 1.09 of this Lease.

1.06 Intentionally deleted.

1.07 Permitted Use of Premises:

The Premises shall be used for the purposes of the operation of an off-price retail store selling better quality apparel, accessories, shoes, handbags, jewellery and other better quality merchandise as is typically sold from time to time in Tenant's similar off-price retail stores in Canada operating under the name "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th", "Off 5th - Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" (or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the other similar off-price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada) and in other similar off-price retail stores selling better quality merchandise currently operating in North America, such as, by way of example only and without limitation, those off-price retail stores operating under the names "Nordstrom Rack", "Holt Renfrew's HR2", and "Nieman Marcus Last Call". Tenant further covenants that, if and for so long as the Shopping Centre is being managed and operated by Landlord as a first-class shopping centre in accordance with the highest standards of the shopping centre industry, Tenant shall carry on its business in and from the Premises as an off-price retail store in a first class manner in keeping with the said standards of the shopping centre industry.

Tenant will carry on its business in the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not do or omit to do anything or permit or suffer anything to be done upon the Premises that will result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease. Tenant further covenants that, the interior décor and fixturing of the Premises will be generally consistent with the décor and fixturing of the off-price retail store operating under the trade name "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth" located in Costa Mesa-South Coast Plaza, California.

Subject to the provisions of Article 11.00 of this Lease, Tenant may operate, or cause to be operated, the department or departments within the Premises, in whole or in part, by licensees, sub-tenants and/or concessionaires, provided that the Premises continue to be carried on, and retain the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated, and not a multiple tenant, off-price retail store. Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not do or omit to do anything or permit or suffer anything to be done upon the Premises that will result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

Notwithstanding any other provision herein, Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any call centre operation (iii) a store conducted principally for the sale of war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (iv) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire; (y) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (vi) an auction sale; (vii) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or the pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre; and (viii) any of the Restricted Uses (as hereinafter defined).

At the time of entering into the Original Lease, Landlord had granted certain restrictive covenants and/or exclusive rights of use to or in favor certain other tenants of the Shopping Centre, including those set out in Exhibit C-1 of the Original Lease and those set out in any notices of leases or other instruments registered on title to the Lands on or prior to the date of the Original Lease (the "Restricted Uses"). For greater certainty, Tenant hereby acknowledges and agrees that, if and for so long as each of the Restricted Uses granted by Landlord to the respective persons (including their respective successors and assigns) remains unamended and in full legal force and effect, Tenant shall not use the Premises or permit the Premises to be used for the operation of any business or the sale of any merchandise or services that would cause Landlord to be in default of any such Restricted Uses.

If at any time during the Term less than the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises is occupied and open to the public for business for a period exceeding two (2) months for any reason other than Force Majeure (as that term is hereinafter defined), damage or destruction, permitted alterations, repair or rebuilding, and/or a permitted assignment or sublet to a third party, Landlord shall thereafter have the right to terminate this Lease while such cessation of operation continues by giving Tenant no less than thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof, provided that Tenant may nullify such notice of termination and this Lease shall not be terminated if Tenant reopens the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises to the public for business prior to the termination date specified in Landlord's notice and thereafter continues to keep the whole or substantially the whole of the Premises open for business for at least twelve (12) consecutive months (failing which Landlord's termination of the Lease shall be effective immediately upon Tenant ceasing to operate during the aforementioned 12-month period). In the event that Tenant nullifies Landlord's notice of termination as aforesaid, the provisions of this Article 1.07 shall continue to apply throughout the balance of the Term.

1.08 Tenant's Store Name: "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth", "Off 5th", "Saks 5th Avenue Off 5th", "Saks 5th", "Off 5th - Saks 5th Avenue Outlet", "Saks", "Saks Fifth Avenue" (or such other trade name being used from time to time to identify the majority of the other similar off-price retail stores operated by Tenant in Canada). Tenant shall not operate its business under any other name or trade name without having first obtained Landlord's prior written consent.

1.09 Gross Rent: Throughout the Term (inclusive of all renewals or extensions thereof), an annual aggregate amount equal to: (A) 3.5% of Gross Sales (as hereinafter defined) made from the Premises during each Percentage Rent Lease Year (as hereinafter defined), payable pursuant to Article 4.00; and (B) the Incremental Rent (the "Gross Rent"). The Landlord shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, at its entire discretion, upon written notice to the Tenant, to re-allocate the amount of the Incremental Rent allocated to this Lease and to any one or more of the Other Saks Leases and in this regard the Tenant shall have the obligation to enter into and execute all documents reasonably necessary as requested by the Landlord to implement such reallocation of Incremental Rent.

1.17 Intentionally deleted.

1.18 Definitions: In this Lease:

1.18.1 "Additional Rent" means all amounts (other than Gross Rent) that Tenant is required to pay to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

1.18.2 Intentionally deleted

1.18.3 "Area" means the area expressed in square feet of all floors of the Premises measured from the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows or those separating the Premises from any Common Areas and Facilities, and the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises. The Area includes all interior space whether or not occupied by projections, structures or columns, openings, shafts, structural or non-structural. If a store front, show window or other part of the Premises is recessed from or protrudes beyond the lease line shown on Exhibit A (whether such recess or protrusion is located at or above ground level), the area of such recess or protrusion will be included in the Area. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Area of the Premises is that set out in Article 1.04 hereof.

1.18.4 "Architect" means the architect, engineer, land surveyor, designer or technician that Landlord names, as the case may be.

1.18.5 "Article" means an article of this Lease.

1.18.6 "Authority" or "Authorities" means the federal, provincial, and municipal governments, the courts, administrative and quasi-judicial boards and tribunals and any other organizations or entities with the lawful authority to regulate, or having a power or right conferred at law or by or under a statute over Landlord, Tenant, the Premises or the Shopping Centre, including the business carried on therein.

1.18.7 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.8 "Commencement Date" means the first day of the Term (effective as of 12:00am).

1.18.9 "Common Areas and Facilities" means all areas, services and facilities not installed or intended for the exclusive use or benefit of any individual tenant, including without limitation, all non-leasable areas, service and administrative areas (including, without limitation, administrative offices, janitorial rooms and storage rooms not reserved to any tenant exclusively), all parking areas, parking decks, roofs, roadways, sidewalks, landscaped areas, floor slabs, exterior walls and exterior and interior structural portions of any open or enclosed malls or other common means of access to leasable premises (excluding any structural mezzanines within any leasable premises), public lavatories, truck courts, common loading areas, driveways, music and public address systems, electrical, plumbing and drainage, fire protection, fire detection, heating, ventilation and/or air-conditioning systems or equipment servicing the Shopping Centre and/or more than one tenant, mall decorative or promotional installations, customer and service stairways, mall directories and directional signs, information booths, elevators, escalators and all other areas, services and facilities which Landlord provides or designates from time to time to be part of Common Areas and Facilities.

1.18.10 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.11 "Delivery Facilities" means those portions of the Common Areas and Facilities which are, from time to time, designated by Landlord as facilities to be used in common by Landlord, tenants of the Shopping Centre, and others, for purposes of loading, unloading, delivery, dispatch and holding of merchandise, goods and materials entering or leaving the Shopping Centre, and those portions of the Shopping Centre giving vehicular access to the said facilities.

1.18.12 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.13 "Environmental Law" means the statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority or of the common law which affect the Premises or Tenant's business, and which impose any obligations relating to the protection, conservation or restoration of the natural environment or to any contaminant, pollutant, dangerous substance, potentially dangerous substance, noxious substance, toxic substance, hazardous waste, flammable, explosive or radioactive material or any other substances or materials that are declared or defined to be hazardous, toxic, contaminants or pollutants in or pursuant to any applicable federal, provincial or municipal statutes, regulations, policies, directives, orders, approvals and other legal requirements of an Authority.

1.18.14 "Fiscal Year" means a twelve (12) month period (all or part of which falls within the Term) from time to time determined by Landlord with the concurrence of the appropriate taxation authorities, at the end of which Landlord's books are balanced for auditing and/or taxation purposes.

1.18.15 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.16 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.17 "Force Majeure" means, if during the Term either party to this Lease will be unable to perform any of the terms, obligations, or conditions contained in this Lease due to strikes, walkouts (except for strikes or walkouts directly involving employees of Tenant), civil commotion, warlike operations, governmental regulations or controls, acts of God, pandemics, inability to procure materials or services, otherwise beyond the reasonable control of such party. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, nothing in this Force Majeure provision will relieve Tenant from payment of Rent as required in this Lease and insolvency or lack of funds will not relieve any party to this Lease from fulfillment of any obligation arising from any part of this Lease.

1.18.18 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.19 "Goods and Services Tax" or "GST" means all goods and services tax, value-added tax, or any other similar tax (such as by way of example GST, HST or any other similar tax) howsoever characterized, which any taxing Authority imposes on Landlord and/or requires Landlord to collect on behalf of said taxing Authority, on any amount received or receivable by Landlord from Tenant under the terms of this Lease.

1.18.20 "Gross Rent" has the meaning given to it in Section 1.09 hereof.

1.18.21 "Hazardous Substance" means, whether or not controlled or regulated by Environmental Law, any solid, liquid, gas, odour, heat, sound, vibration or combination of them resulting directly or indirectly from human activities that may, if released into the environment, have an adverse effect on the natural environment or on people, property or the normal conduct of business, including without limitation, harmful moulds or other harmful airborne substances, flammables, explosives, radioactive materials, urea formaldehyde foam, asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), pollutants, contaminants, hazardous wastes, toxic substances or related materials, petroleum or petroleum products and substances declared to be hazardous or toxic under any law, by-law, regulation or ordinance now or hereafter enacted.

1.18.22 "Incremental Rent" means the amount of $35,000.00 annually, as such amount may be adjusted by the Landlord from time to time pursuant to Article 1.09 hereof.

1.18.23 "Interest Rate" means the Prime Rate (as defined below) in force when an amount becomes due, plus three (3) percentage points. "Prime Rate" means the annual rate of interest announced from time to time by Royal Bank of Canada at its main branch in Toronto, Ontario, as a reference rate then in effect for determining interest rates on Canadian dollar commercial loans in Canada.

1.18.24 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.25 "Land" means all of the lands described in Exhibit B.

1.18.26 "Landlord" means the party first herein above described and includes its successors and assigns, and in articles that contain a release or other exculpatory provisions or an indemnity in favour of Landlord, including the officers, directors, employees and agents and contractors of Landlord, as well as any Person under Landlord's exclusive control.

1.18.27 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.28 "Lease" means this Lease, and the Exhibits annexed to this Lease described in Article 1.18.54 and every properly executed instrument which by its term amends, modifies or supplements this Lease.

1.18.29 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.30 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.31 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.32 "Management Company" means a company or other entity, if any, retained by Landlord from time to time to operate or manage the Shopping Centre.

1.18.33 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.34 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.35 "Mortgagee" has the meaning given to it in Article 17.

1.18.36 "Operating Agreement(s)" means any agreement or agreements between Landlord and the owner(s) of lands neighbouring or contiguous to the Land, pursuant to which the developments and improvements on the Land and the developments and improvements on such neighbouring or contiguous lands are operated on a coordinated basis (if any), including, the Reciprocal Operating Agreement dated October 15, 2014 between Landlord and Seasons Retail Corp., notice of which is registered on title to the Lands.

1.18.37 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.38 "Original Lease" means that certain lease for the Premises dated as of November 11, 2015 between the Landlord, as landlord, and the Tenant d/b/a Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth, as tenant, a caveat for which was registered at the applicable land registry office as Instrument Number 4867289/1and as otherwise amended and supplemented from time to time, which Original Lease was terminated and surrendered immediately prior to the Commencement Date.

1.18.39 "Other Saks Leases" has the meaning given to it in Article 19.03(h) hereof.

1.18.40 "Owners" means all of the prior owners of the Shopping Centre other than the Landlord.

1.18.41 "Person" where the context allows, includes any physical person, corporation, partnership or association, or any groups or combinations of same.

1.18.42 "Percentage Rent Lease Year" has the meaning given to it in Article 4.01.

1.18.43 "Premises" means the premises described in Article 1.02, the approximate location of which is shown on Exhibit A. If the Premises are entirely self-enclosed, the boundaries shall extend to the exterior face of all exterior walls, doors and windows, or those separating the Premises from Common Areas and Facilities, the centre line of all interior walls separating the Premises from adjoining leasable premises, and from the top surface of the structural sub-floor to the underside of the roof or any structural floor slab situated immediately above the ceiling of the Premises. Premises shall exclude any Common Areas and Facilities located within them, and if the Premises are open to the ceiling of the Shopping Centre, the boundaries of the Premises will extend from the top surface of the structural sub-floor to the top of its permanent structures. The "Premises" include the structure slab for the lowest floor level and all fixed improvements located below the slab or on the roof which are for the exclusive use of the Tenant and which are comprised of any mechanical, electrical, plumbing and other services and any insulation, and all elevators and escalators therein (including connecting the Premises to the parking garage), and all elevator shafts, cabs and lobbies.

1.18.44 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.45 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.46 "Released Persons" means collectively and individually, Landlord, Owners, Mortgagee and any Management Company and partners of the Owners or Landlord. In articles that contain a release or other exculpatory provision or an indemnity in favour of any Released Persons, "Released Persons" includes the officers, directors, employees and agents of the Released Persons, and Landlord acting as agent for, or as trustee for, the benefit of the Released Persons so that each such release, indemnity and/or other exculpatory provision is fully enforceable by the Released Persons.

1.18.47 "Rent" means the Gross Rent and the Additional Rent.

1.18.48 "Shopping Centre" means the Site and all buildings and Common Areas and Facilities on the Site as each of the foregoing exists from time to time, as may be varied from time to time by adding or subtracting or altering or reconfiguring or by such other means as Landlord considers necessary or advisable.

1.18.49 "Site" means the Land indicated on Exhibit B as may be varied from time to time by adding or subtracting land or by such other means as Landlord considers necessary or advisable (and even if parts of the Site may be separated from other parts of same by lanes, streets, highways or any other means of passage in or to which others may have rights).

1.18.50 "Taxes" means the aggregate of all taxes, rates, charges (including school and local improvement charges), levies, assessments, licence fees, excise and other charges, or any other taxes, rates or charges levied, charged or assessed in lieu thereof, imposed by any competent authority upon or in respect of the Shopping Centre, upon or in respect of all adjoining or neighbouring lands from time to time owned or made available to Landlord and used in connection with the Shopping Centre, or upon or in respect of both, and upon or in respect of all developments and improvements on the Shopping Centre and on such adjoining or neighbouring lands (including, without limitation, parking lot/transit support taxes, rates charges, levies and assessments), such taxes, rates, charges, levies and assessments being established by such competent authority based upon the Shopping Centre, in its various stages of development, assessed as a completed, fully occupied Shopping Centre. Subject to the foregoing, in determining Taxes, any corporate income, profits, excess profits, and business tax imposed upon the income of Landlord, and any other impost of a personal nature charged or levied against Landlord will be excluded, except to the extent that it is levied in lieu of Taxes. Landlord's reasonable expenditures for consultation, negotiation and contestation, to the extent that they are incurred in an attempt to minimize or reduce Taxes, shall be included in the definition of Taxes.

1.18.51 Intentionally deleted.

1.18.52 "Tenant" means the Person executing this Lease as Tenant. Where the context permits, Tenant will also include all servants, employees, agents and contractors of Tenant, as well as any Person under Tenant's exclusive control.

"Exhibit F" means the sample Estoppel Certificate attached hereto as Exhibit F.

ARTICLE 2.00 LEASE

2.01 Lease Landlord hereby leases the Premises to Tenant for the Term, and Tenant hereby leases the Premises from Landlord for the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.02 Quiet Enjoyment So long as Tenant performs its obligations under this Lease, Landlord will warrant and defend Tenant in the quiet enjoyment and possession of the Premises during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

2.03 Covenants of Landlord and Tenant Landlord covenants to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Landlord under this Lease. Tenant covenants to pay the Rent when due under this Lease, and to observe and perform all of the terms and conditions to be observed and performed by Tenant under this Lease.

ARTICLE 3.00 TERM, POSSESSION AND TERMINATION OF ORIGINAL LEASE

3.01 Intentionally deleted.

3.02 Intentionally deleted.

3.03 Acceptance of Premises and Tenant Acknowledgements The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that: (a) it originally occupied the Premises pursuant to the Original Lease, and as of the date hereof, it continues to be in possession of the Premises (which possession by the Tenant was in place prior to the date hereof pursuant to the Original Lease); (b) it has accepted the Premises in an entirely "as is where is" condition basis without any representation, warranty or obligation on the part of the Landlord to perform any work or construct any leasehold or other improvements in the Premises or the Shopping Centre in connection with the Tenant's intended use thereof; (c) the continued possession of all or any portion of the Premises by the Tenant is conclusive evidence as against the Tenant that the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition as of the date hereof, (d) it is solely responsible (at its sole cost and expense and without any reimbursement from or contribution by the Landlord) for all improvements, fixtures or other personal property currently existing or which in the future may exist or may be required in, on or around the Premises and needed, required or used by the Tenant for the operation of its business from the Premises, and (e) it does not have any right of first refusal, right of first opportunity, option to purchase or any other right to acquire any interest or real right in all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

3.04 Landlord's Option to Renew Landlord has, exercisable at its sole and entire and unfettered discretion by giving at least 12 months' prior written notice to the Tenant, the right to renew this Lease for an additional period of five (5) years on the same terms and conditions as set out herein (inclusive of the calculation and payment of Rent (inclusive, for certainty, of Incremental Rent)).

3.05 Termination of Original Lease Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that the Original Lease is surrendered and terminated effective on 11:59 pm on the date immediately preceding the Commencement Date (the "Termination Date"). The respective rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant with respect to the Premises and the Original Lease will be preserved and will survive the Termination Date, as to all matters arising or accruing prior to the Termination Date, but no such rights or obligations will arise or accrue to either of them with respect to the Original Lease on or after the Termination Date. Any breach of the Original Lease which has not been cured will, after the Termination Date, be enforceable in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Original Lease. Tenant represents, warrants and covenants with Landlord that Tenant has the absolute right, full power and authority to agree to the surrender and termination of the Original Lease as provided herein.

ARTICLE 4.00 RENT

4.01 Gross Rent Tenant will pay to Landlord a Gross Rent for the Premises described in Article 1.09 of this Lease, payable monthly in arrears within twenty (20) days following the end of each calendar month during the Term. The Incremental Rent component of the Gross Rent will be payable in equal monthly installments at the same time that the balance of the Gross Rent is due pursuant to the preceding sentence. Along with the monthly payment of Gross Rent, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement, which need not be certified, of the Gross Sales derived from the Premises for the prior month, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied. Within sixty (60) says after the end of each Percentage Rent Lease Year and within sixty (60) days after the end of the calculating period with respect to the first full Percentage Rent Lease Year, Tenant shall furnish Landlord a statement certified by an officer of Tenant showing the Gross Sales derived from the Premises during such Percentage Rent Lease Year and the amounts, if any, of Rent required to be paid by Tenant or credited to Tenant for any overpayment or underpayment of Rent for the Percentage Rent Lease Year, which statement shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied.

For purposes of calculating Rent under this Lease, the term "Percentage Rent Lease Year" as used in this Lease refers to the period from February 1 to the following January 31 of each year during the term of this Lease, provided that, if the Commencement Date is not February 1, then the first Percentage Rent Lease Year shall be for a period of less than twelve (12) consecutive months, commencing on the Commencement Date and expiring on the following January 31, and further provided that any period of less than twelve (12) full calendar months occurring from and after February 1 at the expiry or earlier termination of the term shall be deemed to be a Percentage Rent Lease Year. The computation of Rent shall be made separately with regard to each Percentage Rent Lease Year or partial Percentage Rent Lease Year, as the case may be, it being understood and agreed that Gross Sales per any Percentage Rent Lease Year and Rent due thereon shall have no bearing on Gross Sales of any other Percentage Rent Lease Year.

Full true and accurate records from which Gross Sales in any Percentage Rent Lease Year may be readily and correctly determined will be kept by Tenant, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the requirement to retain all sources of primary sales records (that is, cash register tapes, pre-numbered sales tickets, daily sales reports, etc.) and otherwise in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles until at least the fifth (5th) anniversary of the end of such Percentage Rent Lease Year. Landlord or any person designated by Landlord will have access to such records at any and all times during business hours for the purpose of examining and reviewing all the accounting records and procedures adopted by Tenant for the purpose of recording and control of all transactions affecting the determination of Gross Sales. For the sake of greater clarification, the parties hereto acknowledge that, in the event Landlord determines that Tenant has failed to report Gross Sales in accordance with its obligations contained herein, such failure shall constitute a default under this Lease and Landlord shall have the right to exercise its remedies under this Lease. Landlord will not disclose any confidential information so obtained except to the extent that disclosure is reasonable in the conduct of Landlord's business which includes, without limitation, the sale or financing of all or any part of the Shopping Centre.

Landlord shall be entitled to characterize the Rent, and to allocate the payment thereof to costs, expenses, taxes etc. incurred by or for which Landlord is responsible, in each case as Landlord may determine in its sole discretion.

4.02 Gross Sales The term "Gross Sales" as used in this Lease means the actual sale price of goods, wares and merchandise sold in, upon or from any part of the Premises, including actual receipts from services rendered by Tenant as well as the total actual sales and services rendered by any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Premises, including, without limitation, such sales, income, receipts, revenues and services which Tenant, any licensee, subtenant or concessionaire occupying any portion of the Premises (collectively, "Other Occupants") in the normal and customary course of business would credit or attribute to its business upon the Premises or any part or parts thereof, provided, however, that the term "Gross Sales" shall not be deemed to mean and there shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" amounts representing: (i) amounts credited by Tenant or Other Occupants for returned or defective merchandise; (ii) amount of discount on sales to bona fide employees of Tenant and bona fide employees of any affiliates of Tenant; (iii) allowances granted to customers for damaged or defective merchandise; (iv) trade and other discounts; (v) GST and all other sales, excise and similar taxes levied upon sales made at the Premises; (vi) workroom charges for alterations, repairs or installation of merchandise sold, or similar services rendered in connection with merchandise sold; (vii) charges for services rendered primarily to accommodate customers or employees; (viii) charges for making deliveries, shipments or transfers of merchandise in the regular course of business; (ix) carrying charges on time sales; (x) fees and charges paid by Tenant or Other Occupants to issuers of third-party credit cards; (xi) charges for inter-store transfers of merchandise; (xii) sales of merchandise in bulk to non -retail customers; and (xiii) the proceeds of sales of trade fixtures, operating equipment or other property used by Tenant or Other Occupants in the operation of its business and not acquired by it for the purpose of sale. All exclusions from Gross Sales permitted herein must be documented to the reasonable satisfaction of Landlord to allow for complete and detailed verification of the validity of such exclusions. Any instalment or credit (which, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes lay-away sales, sales from coupons or gift cards, electronic or otherwise and certificates, or any other sale made where deposits are received by Tenant) will be included and treated as a sale for the full price in the month in which such sale is made regardless of whether or when Tenant receives payment in full.

4.09 Taxes Payable by Landlord

Landlord shall pay before the date due any and all Taxes levied, assessed or otherwise imposed upon the Premises and/or the remainder of the Shopping Centre throughout the Term. Tenant shall have no obligation to contribute to the payment of such Taxes as such Taxes are intentionally provided for in the Gross Rent provided for herein.

4.18 Payment of Rent – General During the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay Rent to Landlord in the manner provided in this Lease or if not so provided, as reasonably required by Landlord. All amounts payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease will be deemed to be Rent and will be payable and recoverable as Rent in the manner herein provided, and Landlord will have all rights and recourses against Tenant for default in any such payment as in the case of arrears of Rent. Rent will be paid to Landlord, without deduction, set-off or compensation, in legal tender of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located. If and to the extent Landlord so requires, Rent will be paid to Landlord, at Tenant's expense, by electronic funds transfer system or similar system whereby Tenant will authorize its bank, trust company, credit union or other financial institution to credit Landlord's bank account each month in an amount equal to the monthly Rent payable pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, otherwise, Rent will be paid to Landlord at the address of Landlord as set forth in the beginning of this Lease, or to such other Person or at such other address as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing.

Where Tenant makes payments of Rent by an electronic funds transfer system, Tenant shall notify Landlord by e-mail of the date of said electronic payment.

4.19 Rent – Adjustment for Partial Months If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the Commencement Date will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the Commencement Date to the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs (both the Commencement Date and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365. If the Term ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the instalment of Rent payable on the first (1st) day of the last calendar month of the Term will be that proportion of the Rent which the number of days from the first (1st) day of such last calendar month to the last day of the Term (both the first (1st) and the last day being inclusive) bears to 365.

4.20 Intentionally deleted.

4.21 Intentionally deleted.

ARTICLE 5.00 USE OF PREMISES

5.01 Use and Business Name The Premises will be used and occupied only for the purposes described in Article 1.07; nothing in this Article 5.01 shall create or be deemed to create an exclusivity in favour of Tenant.

The business of Tenant in the Premises will be carried on under the name and style described in Article 1.08 and under no other name and style unless approved by Landlord in writing.

5.02 Hours of Business During the Term of this Lease, Tenant will conduct its business in the Premises on such days and during such hours as is required, from time to time, by Landlord unless prevented from so doing by any Authority, however, nothing herein shall require the Premises or portions thereof to be open during hours other than those which have been generally established by the Tenant for the operation of its similar stores in the Greater Winnipeg Area. Tenant shall abide by all rules and regulations now or subsequently in force to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms of this Lease and are applied to Tenant in a non-discriminatory manner.

In the event Tenant fails to conduct its business in accordance with this Article 5.02 then Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.02.

5.03 Continuous Operations Tenant acknowledges that it forms part of an over-all merchandising mix designed to enhance the character, quality, image and reputation of the Shopping Centre, and that its continuous operation of the Premises is essential to Landlord to maintain that character, quality, image, nature and reputation and to facilitate the leasing of vacant space and renewing leases of existing tenants. Tenant therefore, provided the Landlord is operating the Shopping Centre in accordance with this Lease in all material respects, covenants and agrees that throughout the Term it will continuously occupy and operate in the entire Premises, comply strictly with the provisions of Article 5.02 and not vacate or abandon the Premises at any time during the Term. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is executing this Lease in reliance thereupon and that the same is a material element inducing Landlord to execute this Lease. Tenant further agrees that if it vacates or abandons the Premises or it fails to so conduct its business therein, or uses or permits or suffers the use of the Premises for any purpose not specifically herein authorized and allowed, Tenant will be in breach of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and shall have caused Landlord a grave and serious prejudice and then, without constituting a waiver of Tenant's obligations or limiting Landlord's remedies under this Lease and at law, all Rent reserved in this Lease will immediately become due and payable to Landlord. Landlord will have the right, without prejudice to any other rights which it may have under this Lease or at law, to obtain an injunction requiring Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Article 5.03.

5.04 Restrictions on Use & Occupancy

(a) Tenant will carry on its business on the Premises in a reputable manner and in compliance with all the provisions of this Lease, and in particular Tenant will not advertise, do, omit, permit or suffer to be done or exist upon the Premises anything which will be or result in or bring about a breach of any provision of this Lease.

(b) Tenant shall not, at any time during the Term, conduct or carry on in the Premises any of the following activities or enterprises: (i) any manufacturing operation; (ii) any mail order or catalogue enterprise; (iii) any enterprise for the purpose of taking telephone orders; (iv) a store conducted principally or in part for the sale of second hand goods or apparel, war surplus articles, insurance salvage stock, or fire sale stock; (v) the sale of merchandise damaged by fire except in the event of a fire taking place on the Premises and then only for the sale of merchandise damaged by such fire, and only for a period of 30 days immediately following the reopening after such fire; (vi) a store conducted, promoted and/or represented in whole or substantially as a discount operation or in part as a discount operation so as to give the impression that it is being conducted principally as a discount operation; (vii) a pawn shop; (viii) any operation in any line or merchandise in which operation Tenant is making a practice of fraudulent or deceptive advertising or selling procedures including without limitation the sale of counterfeit brands; (ix) an auction sale; and (x) any other enterprise, activity or practice which because of the merchandise likely to be sold or the merchandising or pricing methods likely to be used would tend to lower the character of the Shopping Centre.

(c) Tenant shall not conduct on the Premises any "distress sale", "bankruptcy sale", "going out of business sale", "liquidation sale" or "fire sale" except as expressly provided above nor any other type of sale designed to convey to the public that business operations are to be discontinued or that the store shall close, Tenant shall only sell merchandise in the regular course of trade as a retailer operating the Premises for the purpose for which the Premises are leased. Notwithstanding the foregoing, within the last six (6) months of the Term, the Tenant shall have the right to conduct clearance and other sales promotions in the Premises and the Tenant shall be permitted to erect, install and maintain within the Premises during such period any clearance and/or store closing signage (or other signage of a similar nature), provided that (i) any such signage on the exterior of the Premises or which faces any Common Areas and Facilities, shall be subject to the Tenant obtaining all required municipal approvals as well as the Landlord's prior written approval for the nature, size, type and location thereof; and (ii) all clearance and other sales otherwise comply with the requirements of sub-paragraph (b) above and this Lease and are undertaken in a reputable and prudent manner that does not interfere with the typical use and operation of the Shopping Centre or the occupants thereof. Landlord's approval of such signage shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed provided it complies with this provision.

(d) Intentionally deleted.

(e) Tenant shall not use the Common Areas and Facilities for any reason whatsoever without the prior written approval of Landlord. Tenant will not place or keep any merchandise or other thing beyond the permanent floor mounted storefront or closure of the Premises or in the Common Areas and Facilities.

(f) Intentionally deleted.

5.05 Intentionally deleted.

5.06 Display Windows Tenant will keep display windows (if any) neatly dressed. Display windows and lighted signs (if any) will be kept illuminated by Tenant on all business days until at least one half hour after the Shopping Centre closes for business.

5.07 Compliance with Laws The Premises will be used and occupied in a safe, careful and proper manner so as not to contravene any present or future governmental or quasi-governmental laws in force or regulations or orders including, without limitation, all Environmental Law. If, due solely to Tenant's use of the Premises, improvements are necessary to comply with any of the foregoing or with the requirements of insurance carriers, Tenant shall execute same and will pay the entire cost thereof. Unless otherwise directed by Landlord, Tenant will obtain and comply with the terms of all licences, certificates of approval, permits and other approvals necessary or appropriate under applicable laws (inclusive of Environmental Law) for the safe and lawful conduct of its business at or from the Premises.

5.08 Nuisance Tenant will not cause or maintain any nuisance or hazard in or about the Premises and will keep the Premises free of debris, trash, rodents, vermin and anything of a dangerous, noxious or offensive nature or which could create a fire hazard (through undue load on electrical circuits or otherwise) or undue vibration, heat or any unusual or objectionable noises or odours or anything which may disturb the enjoyment of the Shopping Centre and all the Common Areas and Facilities thereof by customers and other tenants of the Shopping Centre, nor will Tenant allow any noise, sound or music in the Premises to be heard in the Common Areas and Facilities or neighbouring premises.

5.09 Advertising, Trade Names and Restricted Marks

(a) In its advertising, Tenant will use the name of the Shopping Centre, such trade names, symbols and slogans as may be designated by Landlord but Tenant will not indulge in any advertising or sales promotion which is undignified or not in conformity with the highest standards of practice among stores dealing in similar merchandise or might harm or tend to harm the business reputation of Landlord or reflect unfavourably on the Shopping Centre, or might confuse or mislead or tend to confuse or mislead the public. Tenant will not sell, advertise, conduct or solicit business anywhere within the Shopping Centre other than in the Premises.

(b) The name for the Shopping Centre which Landlord may from time to time adopt and every name or mark adopted by Landlord in connection with the Shopping Centre will be used by Tenant only in association with sales made at or from and the business carried on in the Premises during the Term and Tenant's use thereof will be subject to such regulations as Landlord may from time to time impose. Tenant will not acquire any rights in any such restricted name or mark, and upon the termination of this Lease all its interest herein will be deemed to have been surrendered to Landlord and Tenant will thereafter cease and abandon all use thereof. If Landlord so requests, Tenant will execute registered user applications or agreements or both to protect Landlord's trade mark rights.

5.10 Intentionally deleted.

5.11 Loading and Delivery The delivery and shipping of merchandise, supplies, fixtures, and other materials or goods of whatsoever nature to or from the Premises and all loading, unloading, and handling of it will be done only at the times, in the areas, by the means, and through the elevators, entrances, malls, and corridors as are designated by Landlord. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will not use or permit any elevators, entrances, malls, corridors or other parts of the Common Areas and Facilities to be used as temporary storage area or areas by Tenant, any of Tenant's employees or suppliers or others when making deliveries to or shipments from the Premises or any permitted storage area of Tenant.

Landlord accepts no liability and is hereby relieved and released by Tenant in respect of the operation of the Delivery Facilities, or the adequacy of them, or of the acts or omissions of any Person or Persons engaged in the operation of them, or in the acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch of any goods for or on behalf of Tenant, or for any claim of Tenant by reason of damage, loss, theft, or acceptance, holding, handling, delivery or dispatch, failure of any acceptance, holding, handling or dispatch, or any error, negligence or delay.

Landlord may, from time to time, make and amend regulations for the orderly and efficient operation of the Delivery Facilities, and may require the payment of reasonable and equitable charges for delivery services and removal provided by Landlord.

The Landlord hereby grants to the Tenant, for the duration of the Term, an exclusive licence to use the loading dock, unloading and compactor areas which serve such space as shown shaded in GREEN on Exhibit B to the Original Lease, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit A hereto (the "Licensed Area"). For certainty, the Tenant's obligations as to maintenance, repair and replacement of the Demised Premises as set out in this Lease shall equally apply in respect of the Licensed Area.

ARTICLE 6.00 SERVICES, MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS BY LANDLORD

6.01 Operation of Shopping Centre Landlord shall operate the Shopping Centre and maintain the Common Areas and Facilities as would a prudent and diligent owner of a similar shopping centre, having regard to the Shopping Centre's size, age, nature, location and region where the Shopping Centre is situated, as well as the type of clientele the Shopping Centre services and the general image Landlord is attempting to project for the Shopping Centre, all as determined by the Landlord in its sole discretion.

6.02 Services Landlord will provide in the Shopping Centre except where Tenant shall do so pursuant to this Lease:

(a) domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water and necessary supplies in common washrooms sufficient for the normal use thereof; and

(b) heat, ventilation, air conditioning, lighting, electric power, domestic hot (or tempered) and cold running water, steam, natural gas and chilled water, in the Common Areas and Facilities (where appropriate).

6.03 Maintenance, Repair and Replacement Subject to the provisions of Article 7.01(b) and Tenant's obligations under this Lease in respect of the Premises, Landlord will operate, maintain, repair and replace the systems, facilities and equipment necessary for the proper operation of the Shopping Centre and for provision of Landlord's services under Article 6.02 (except as such may be installed by or be the property of Tenant or others (excluding Landlord) or both and except for the heating, ventilating and air conditioning equipment, elevators, escalators and other systems, facilities, machinery and equipment installed within or for the Premises; and furthermore, will expeditiously maintain and repair the foundations, structure and roof of the Shopping Centre (inclusive of downspouts, gutters, canopies and exterior walls), provided that:

(a) if all or part of such systems, facilities and equipment are destroyed, damaged or impaired, Landlord will have a reasonable time in which to complete the necessary repair or replacement, and during that time will be required only to maintain such services as are reasonably possible in the circumstances;

(b) Landlord may temporarily discontinue such services or any of them at such times as may be necessary due to causes (except lack of funds) beyond the reasonable control of Landlord;

(c) Landlord will use reasonable diligence in carrying out its obligations under this Article 6.03, but will not be liable under any circumstances for any consequential damage to any Person (including without limitation, Tenant) or any property for any failure to do so;

(d) no reduction or discontinuance of such services under clauses (a) or (b) of this Article 6.03 will constitute as an eviction of Tenant or (except as specifically provided in this Lease) release Tenant from any obligation of Tenant under this Lease; and

(e) nothing contained herein will derogate from the provisions of Articles 7.02, 7.03, 10.01, 16.01, 16.02, 16.03, or 16.04 and in no event shall Landlord be required to make any repairs or replacements which are necessary as a result of Tenant's default, negligence or willful misconduct.

6.04 Alterations by Landlord Landlord may, at any time prior to or during the Term, subject to Article 6.06: (i) change the area, level, location, arrangement or use of any portion of the Shopping Centre; (ii) construct on the Site or on adjacent lands, other buildings, structures or improvements and make alterations, additions, subtractions or rearrangements; (iii) modify, alter, expand, reduce or eliminate any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities; (iv) close off all or any part of the Shopping Centre and/or temporarily suspend services for the purpose of maintenance, repair, alteration or construction; (v) place any installations within or on any interior or exterior Common Areas and Facilities including without limitation, kiosks, planters, benches, promotional displays or activities and any other installations; (vi) close all or part of the Shopping Centre to the public outside of regular business hours, Sundays and holidays included; (vii) restrict areas on the Site available for employee parking, and/or prohibit employees from parking anywhere on the Site; (viii) impose reasonable charges for parking, and impose restrictions on refunds or compensations by Tenant to Persons using the parking areas; (ix) modify tenant mix, both with respect to kinds of uses which may be made of premises, as well as to changes in the physical location of any one or more tenants; (x) do and perform such other acts in relation to the Shopping Centre for the more efficient and proper operation of the Shopping Centre as Landlord determines to be advisable; (xi) change the name of the Shopping Centre; (xii) do all work required to install new, and/or maintain, adapt, repair or replace existing utility lines, pipes, roof drainage pipes, conduits, wires, duct work, columns and other matters through any part of the Premises if necessary and do any other work in the Premises to preserve, support or reinforce any structural walls or foundations of the Premises or the Shopping Centre, and do such work as may be required for an expansion or an alteration of all or part of the Shopping Centre.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, it is understood and agreed that if the Shopping Centre, the Site and/or the Common Areas and Facilities are diminished or altered in any manner whatsoever as a result of the exercise by Landlord of its rights set out in this Article 6.04, Landlord is not subject to any liability nor is Tenant entitled to any compensation or diminution or abatement of Rent, nor is any alteration or diminution thereof deemed to constitute constructive or actual eviction, or a breach of any covenant for quiet enjoyment contained in this Lease. Landlord and Tenant further agree that the exercise by Landlord of its rights under this Article 6.04 will not relieve Tenant of Tenant's obligations under Article 5.03 of this Lease.

The Tenant acknowledges, agrees and confirms that the Landlord has not granted to the Tenant and neither the Tenant or the Premises has the benefit of any merchandising controls, exclusivity rights, use restrictions, no-build zones, minimum parking ratio requirements, or, minimum stall number requirements, or any other restrictions, restrictive covenants or approval rights applicable to the Site; the Shopping Centre or any part(s) thereof or any other lands abutting thereto or in the vicinity thereof ("Additional Lands") which the Landlord or any of its affiliates may have an interest in, including without limitation and for certainty anything that would otherwise restrict, limit, delay or otherwise interfere with the Landlord's (or its affiliate's) ability to lease, use, convey, alter, develop and/or redevelop all or any part of the Shopping Centre, the Site or any such Additional Lands. The Tenant hereby confirms that any of the forgoing that the Tenant was entitled to or that were granted in or in connection with the Original Lease, its occupancy of the Premises or otherwise have been expressly waived by the Tenant, have terminated and have ceased to have any force or effect. The Tenant covenants and agrees: (a) not to oppose (and hereby irrevocably waives all rights to oppose) the exercise of the Landlord's rights under this Section 6.04 or otherwise pursuant to this Lease in this regard, including, in respect of any rezoning matters, variance applications, restrictive covenants, site plans, subdivisions, easements, transfers, dedications, permits or approvals and other similar requirements in connection therewith (hereinafter "Rezoning Matters"); and (b) agrees to cooperate with Landlord (at no cost or expense to the Tenant) to the extent reasonably required, including, without limitation, granting any partial discharges of its notice of lease and executing any consents, documents and instruments reasonably requested by the Landlord in furtherance of any Rezoning Matters.

6.05 Intentionally deleted

6.06 Access by Landlord Tenant will permit Landlord to enter the Premises outside of normal business hours, and during normal business hours where such will not unreasonably disturb or interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises and operation of its business, to examine, inspect and show the Premises to persons wishing to lease them, to provide services or make repairs, replacements, changes or alterations as set out in this Lease, and to take such steps as Landlord may deem necessary for the safety, improvement or preservation of the Premises or the Shopping Centre. Landlord will whenever possible, save in the event of emergency, consult with or give reasonable notice to Tenant prior to such entry, but no such entry will constitute an eviction or entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

6.07 Energy, Conservation and Security Policies Landlord will be deemed to have observed and performed the terms and conditions to be performed by Landlord under this Lease, including those relating to the provision of utilities and services, if in so doing it acts in accordance with a directive, policy or request of a governmental or quasi-governmental authority serving the public interest in the fields of energy, conservation or security.

6.08 Sustainable Operation of Shopping Centre Tenant acknowledges Landlord's intention, to operate its Shopping Centre in a manner so as to provide for:

(a) reduced energy and water consumption;

(b) the use of renewable energy and recycled water;

(c) the facilitation of alternate transportation for customers of the Shopping Centre;

(d) the use of non-toxic, low-impact cleaning and pest control and other products in the operation and maintenance of the Shopping Centre;

(e) a healthy indoor environment;

(f) installation and use of sustainable materials, furniture, equipment and improvements within the Shopping Centre; and

(g) the recycling and diversion of operational waste from landfill generated from the activities of tenants, licensees, and customers of the Shopping Centre, and Landlord intends to operate, manage and maintain the Shopping Centre so as to obtain and/or maintain any green building certifications, accreditations or ratings.

ARTICLE 7.00 UTILITIES, SERVICES, MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS BY TENANT

7.01 Utilities

(a) Subject to Article 7.01(b), during the Term, Tenant will provide in the Premises at its own expense heat, ventilation, air-conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam and other utilities and services. Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall promptly pay (but in any event no later than the due date) the cost of water consumption, electricity, gas, steam, telephone, and other utilities used or consumed in or from the Premises directly to the supplier of such services where separately metered or as Landlord may direct.

(b) If heat, ventilation, air conditioning, water, gas, electricity, steam or any other utility or service is provided by Landlord, but is not metered or is supplied to the Premises through meters common to a group of tenants in the Shopping Centre, Landlord will pay the cost thereof and apportion such cost as may reasonably be determined by Landlord among the tenants utilizing the utility or service or supplied through such common meters, (provided that if Landlord will from time to time reasonably determine that the use of any such utility or service in the Premises is disproportionate to the use of other tenants, Landlord may adjust Tenant's share of the cost thereof from a date reasonably determined by Landlord to take equitable account of the disproportionate use) and Tenant will reimburse Landlord the amount of its share of such cost.

(c) Intentionally deleted.

(d) If a separate or a check meter exists, Tenant shall then pay for its consumption to Landlord as measured by the Premises check meter and in accordance with the rates of Landlord's supplier.

(e) If at any time, any utility serving the Premises, whose consumption rate was measured by separate or check meter, ceases to be measured by separate or check meter for any reason whatsoever, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a charge calculated in accordance with paragraph (b) above.

(f) Notwithstanding Article 7.00 of this Lease, at Landlord's option, Landlord may, at any time or times during the Term, purchase in bulk from the utility supplier the aggregate electrical energy requirements of the Shopping Centre or any portion thereof, in which event Landlord may arrange for the supply of electricity to the Premises for the general electrical purposes of Tenant. In such case, Tenant will pay to Landlord on a monthly basis, in advance, with annual adjustment at the end of each Fiscal Year, a charge for supplying electricity to the Premises as determined by Landlord on the basis of Tenant's consumption.

(g) Where the Premises are metered directly by a utility company or supplier for electricity, gas, water, or steam consumption, Tenant will provide Landlord, at Tenant's cost, with all consumption data for the Premises, in the manner, at such frequency and in the format as required by Landlord so as to comply with its obligations relating to governmental or quasi-governmental authority reporting regulations, to meet green building certifications or standards including, without limitation, LEED, BOMA BEST or ENERGY STAR or to improve the environmental performance of the Shopping Centre.

(h) During any period when the Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, Landlord shall keep all Common Areas and Facilities lighted and opened to the public. Landlord agrees that it shall keep all Common Areas and Facilities lighted for security purposes seven (7) days each week during the hours of darkness such lighting is necessary for such purpose. Landlord shall pay for all costs of electricity for lighting the Common Areas and Facilities (i) during any period when the Premises are open for business and for such longer reasonable period of time of at least one-half (1/2) hour before and after such business hours, but not later than 11:00 p.m., CST, (ii) during any other period, in addition to the period described in the immediately preceding clause (i), when both the Premises and at least fifty percent (50%) of the remainder of the floor area in the Shopping Centre are open for business and (iii) during the times and to the extent such lighting is required under the second sentence of this subsection (h).

(i) The cost of electricity for lighting the Common Areas and Facilities at times or to the extent such cost is not considered part of Landlord's costs in accordance with the preceding paragraph shall be paid as follows:

(i) If the Premises are open for business, then Tenant shall pay its proportionate share (based on the square footage of the Premises compared to the square footage of the premises of all occupants that are open for business) of the cost of electricity to light the Common Areas and Facilities; and

(ii) If the Premises are not for business in compliance with this Lease, Landlord shall pay the cost of electricity to light the Common Areas and Facilities.

7.02 Heating, Ventilation, and Air-Conditioning (HVAC) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant will at its sole cost and expense be responsible for maintaining, repairing and replacing of the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning equipment (the "Tenant HVAC System") installed for the Premises where such equipment is not part of a shared or central system. The parties acknowledge that the Tenant HVAC System independently serves the Premises.

However and notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event one or more of the "HVAC" units (as defined in the Original Lease) serving the Premises requires replacement (or any major component of such unit(s) requires replacement), Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that the provisions of Section 7.1 of the Original Lease and defined terms used therein are incorporated into this Section 7.02 by reference and shall apply in respect of such replacement, inclusive of Tenant's obligation to pay as part of Rent the "HVAC Rent Adjustment".

7.03 Condition of Premises During the Term, Tenant will keep the Premises in a clean and tidy condition, and will provide at its own expense therein janitor services in accordance with this Lease and the rules and regulations of Landlord from time to time, removal of debris and garbage, and cleaning of all windows, doors, walls, ceiling, tiles, floors, grease traps and grease guard systems in the Premises and on the roof of the Shopping Centre where applicable and the exterior of the Premises, subject to Article 7.04(f).

Subject to the foregoing and except to the extent that Landlord is specifically responsible therefor under this Lease, Tenant will maintain the Premises and all improvements therein at its sole cost and expense in good order and condition, subject to reasonable wear and tear, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) intentionally deleted;

(b) making repairs and replacements as needed to glass, plate glass, store windows and storefronts, signs, mouldings, doors, hardware, partitions, walls, fixtures, lighting, finishes, plumbing, wiring, ductwork and piping (including that portion which is contiguous to the Premises), ceilings, floors and thresholds in the Premises;

(c) maintaining, repairing and replacing as needed all elevators, escalators, mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems, facilities and equipment in the Premises;

(d) making other repairs and replacements in the Premises as needed, except repairs and replacements to the Premises for which Landlord is specifically responsible under this Lease; and

(e) keeping the Premises in such condition as to comply with the requirements of any governmental or quasi-governmental authority and insurers having jurisdiction and the rules and regulations of Landlord.

Notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, the Tenant's repair obligations will include all those which are major as well as minor, or those which are customarily landlord's or tenant's, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Lease.

7.04 Alterations by Tenant Tenant may from time to time at its own expense make changes, additions and improvements in the Premises to better adapt the same to its business, provided that any such change, addition or improvement will:

(a) comply with the requirements of Landlord's insurer and any Authority having jurisdiction;

(b) be made only with the prior written consent of Landlord;

(c) equal the then current standard for the Shopping Centre;

(d) be carried out only by persons selected by Tenant and approved in writing by Landlord, who will, if required by Landlord, deliver to Landlord before commencement of the work, performance and payment bonds as well as proof of worker's compensation and public liability and property damage insurance coverage as reasonably required by Landlord with Landlord, Owners and Management Company as additional insured parties in amounts, with companies and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, which will remain in effect during the entire period in which the work will be carried out;

(e) Tenant shall obtain all necessary construction and other permits before starting any work in the Premises;

(f) Tenant shall not make any repairs, openings, or additions to any part of the exterior of the Premises, or to the Common Areas and Facilities nor place anything of whatsoever nature in or upon any part of the Common Areas and Facilities, including without limitation the roof and without having obtained the prior written consent of Landlord. In addition it is expressly forbidden for Tenant, its employees, agents, representatives or any Person for whom Tenant is in law responsible to go upon the roof of the Shopping Centre for any reason whatsoever without Landlord's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the prior granting of such consent, Tenant shall be fully responsible for all ensuing costs and damages whether to remove materials or to effect repairs needed as a result of such acts;

(g) Tenant shall not make any change, alteration, addition, repair or improvement in or to the Premises which in any manner affects the structure, the roof, the perimeter walls, the bearing floors, structural slab or slab on grade, the storefront, the sprinkler system (whether it services the Premises exclusively or not), or any heating, ventilation or air-conditioning system or equipment or the electrical and plumbing services or systems (whether these serve the Premises exclusively or not), without in each case obtaining Landlord's prior written approval thereto. Tenant will accompany each request for Landlord's written approval by detailed plans and specifications for the intended work, and will ensure that the work is done according to the relevant provisions of this Lease.

Any increase in Taxes or insurance premiums for the Shopping Centre, or any part thereof, attributable to such change, addition or improvement will be borne by Tenant and Tenant will pay Landlord for the cost of such increase upon receipt of Landlord's invoices therefor.

7.05 Trade Fixtures and Personal Property Tenant may install in the Premises its usual trade fixtures and personal property in a proper manner, provided that no such installation will interfere with or damage the mechanical, plumbing, sprinkler or electrical systems or all or any part of the structure of the Shopping Centre. If Tenant is not then in default under this Lease, trade fixtures and personal property installed in but not affixed to the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant may be removed from the Premises:

(a) from time to time in the ordinary course of Tenant's business or in the course of permitted reconstruction, renovation or alteration of the Premises by Tenant; and provided that Tenant in all cases promptly repairs at its own expense any damage to the Premises resulting from such installation and removal. In no case will trade fixtures or personal property include the ceiling or ceiling panels, electric light fixtures, doors, floor coverings, storefront, plumbing fixtures and fittings or any affixed cabinets, shelves, hardware or decorative items in or upon the Premises which upon installation become the property of Landlord, provided, however, that if any of the foregoing shall contain any Hazardous Substance such installation shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant will remove such items at its expense.

(b) during a reasonable period prior to the expiration of the Term,

7.06 Liens Tenant will pay before delinquency all costs for work done or caused to be done by Tenant in the Premises which could result in any lien or encumbrance on Landlord's interest or Tenant's interest or both in the Site or the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, will keep the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre and every part thereof free and clear of any lien or encumbrance in respect of such work and will indemnify and hold harmless Landlord against any claim, loss, cost, demand and legal or other expense, whether in respect of any lien or otherwise, arising out of the supply of material, services or labour for such work. Tenant will immediately notify Landlord of any such lien, claim of lien or other action of which it has or reasonably should have knowledge and which affects the title to the Site and the Shopping Centre or any part thereof, and will cause the same to be removed within fifteen (15) days of written notice from Landlord (or such additional time as Landlord may consent to in writing), failing which Landlord may take action as Landlord deems necessary to remove the same and the entire cost thereof will be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, including all legal fees, costs and disbursements on a substantial indemnity basis.

7.07 Intentionally deleted.

7.08 Signs Tenant shall not erect or place any sign, decal, decoration, lettering, design or advertisement of any nature whatsoever ("Sign") on the exterior walls of the Premises or on the walls of the mall or elsewhere in the Shopping Centre or in the display windows without first obtaining Landlord's written consent as to the specifications, design, location and method of installation. All Signs shall conform to all applicable rules and regulations and shall be of high quality. Furthermore, all Signs shall be suitably illuminated where applicable in the same manner as other signs in the Shopping Centre. Tenant shall not install or affix any Sign in the Premises or in the Shopping Centre which is visible from the exterior of the Shopping Centre. All Signs on Tenant's storefront which Landlord allows Tenant to install must be so installed prior to the opening by Tenant of its Premises to the public.

No Sign(s) advertising an auction sale, going out of business sale, closing out sale, bankruptcy sale or any other similar sale other than one in the normal course of Tenant's business, or any Sign indicating that Tenant is moving to another location, shall be permitted in the Shopping Centre.

For certainty, the Landlord confirms that the Tenant's exterior Signs that exist as of the Commencement Date are compliant with this Section. The Landlord also confirms that the Tenant's existing pylon signage, if any, is compliant with this Section and that the Tenant shall not be required to pay any rent or other charge of any kind whatsoever to Landlord for or in connection with such pylon signage.

ARTICLE 8.00 TENANT'S TAXES

8.01 Business Taxes and Other Taxes Payable by Tenant Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to the Authorities responsible for collection all business and water taxes, charges or rates, garbage removal taxes, charges, rates, taxes, levies, fees, duties, tariffs or assessments for consumption and/or emissions of any fuel of whatsoever nature however imposed or assessed and/or for recycling and/or similar taxes, charges or rates imposed on or applicable to Tenant in connection with the activities, goods (including without limiting the generality thereof, Tenant's movables, equipment and tools) or services of which Tenant benefits, or for Tenant's use or occupation of the Premises, or for the nature of the enterprise that Tenant operates in the Premises, or any other matter determined by said authorities (hereinafter "Tenant's Taxes"). It is understood that Tenant shall pay promptly and directly to Landlord any Tenant's Taxes where Landlord shall be invoiced therefor or shall become liable for any such Tenant's Taxes pursuant to any new, amended or modified law, regulation, policy and/or practice of any competent Authority. Tenant shall also be liable for the payment of any Tenant's Taxes, Taxes and any other amount payable by Landlord, and any increases in one or all of the foregoing (even where such Tenant's Taxes, Taxes or other amount or increases thereof are substantially greater than the amount payable therefor by Tenant in previous years) as a direct or indirect result of the abolition, modification and/or replacement of any Tenant's Taxes by any competent Authority or due to any modification of any policy or practice thereof. Tenant will indemnify Landlord from and against all losses, costs of expenses occasioned by or arising from the foregoing.

ARTICLE 9.00 INSURANCE

9.01 Landlord's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease, Landlord, at no cost to Tenant, will carry the insurance for which Landlord is obligated under Article 11 of the Original Lease and Article 11 of the Original Lease is deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term, Landlord will maintain the Landlord's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

9.02 Tenant's Insurance Throughout the Term of this Lease Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, will carry the insurance for which Tenant is obligated under Article 11 of the Original Lease and Article 11 of the Original Lease is deemed incorporated herein by reference. For certainty, during the Term and any period Tenant is in possession of the Premises, the Tenant will maintain the Tenant's insurance coverage currently in place as of the Commencement Date in accordance with the insurance certificate most recently provided to the Landlord by the Tenant, which the Landlord and the Tenant acknowledge is satisfactory.

Tenant agrees to deliver to Landlord, proof of above required insurance in force at such date, such proof to be in the form of certificates of insurance acceptable to Landlord. If the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained on the part of Tenant will immediately endanger or could reasonably lead to or result in future endangerment of the Premises or any other of the buildings or property in or on the Shopping Centre or result in the voiding, cancellation or threatened cancellation of any insurance policy affecting such buildings or property or part thereof Landlord may, either, at Landlord's sole discretion, terminate this Lease effective upon written notice to Tenant, or without terminating this Lease and after giving such notice, if any, as is reasonable in the circumstances, enter upon the Premises and take such action, including removing Tenant and any persons or property from the Shopping Centre, as is reasonable to remove or abate the cause of the danger or voiding or cancellation of the policy, and Landlord will not be liable for any damages of any kind howsoever caused arising out of such termination or such action, the whole without prejudice to Landlord's other rights and recourses.

ARTICLE 10.00 INJURY TO PERSON OR PROPERTY

10.01 Mutual Indemnity. Except to the extent released in Sections 10.02 and 10.03 below, each of the Landlord and the Tenant will defend, protect, indemnify and save harmless the other of and from all fines, suits, claims, demands and actions of any kind or nature to which the party being indemnified shall or may become liable or suffer by reason of any breach, violation or nonperformance by the party so indemnifying of any covenant, term or provision of this Lease or by reason of any damage, injury or death occasioned to or suffered by any person or persons including the Landlord or the Tenant, as the case may be, or any property, by reason of any wrongful act, neglect or default on the part of the party so indemnifying or any of its agents, employees, officers or contractors.

10.02 Release of Landlord. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Tenant, none of the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre or other persons for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage so required to be insured by the Tenant to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Tenant fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Tenant had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Tenant shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, the manager retained by the Landlord from time to time to operate the Shopping Centre and those for whom the Landlord is responsible in law. With respect to the Tenant's fixtures, furniture, inventory and stock-in-trade including merchandise or other contents of the Premises, the Landlord, the Mortgagees of the Shopping Centre, any manager retained from time to time by the Landlord to operate the Shopping Centre and others for whom the Landlord is responsible in law shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any loss, injury or damage.

10.03 Release of Tenant. In respect of any insurance required by this Lease to be obtained by the Landlord, none of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees or other persons for whom the Tenant is responsible at law shall be liable in respect of any loss, injury or damage required to be so insured to the extent that insurance proceeds are recovered. For this purpose if the Landlord fails to utilize its reasonable efforts to recover or fails to comply with its obligations to insure under this Lease, recovered proceeds shall be deemed to include proceeds which would reasonably have been recoverable if the Landlord had so complied or so utilized its reasonable efforts to recover, as the case may be. In confirmation of the foregoing and in addition thereto, the Landlord shall obtain a waiver of subrogation from its insurers in favour of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, invitees and those for whom the Tenant is responsible in law.

ARTICLE 11.00 TRANSFERS

11.01 Transfers Except to an "Eligible Corporation" (which for the purpose of this Article 11.00 is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual) which controls or is controlled by or under common control with Tenant, where to control means to own beneficially either directly or indirectly more than 50% of the voting shares of a corporation or other legal entity) and subject to provisions of Article 11.03, Tenant will not, and will not permit a subtenant to, assign this Lease in whole or in part or sublet all or part of the Premises, or transfer this Lease in any other manner and will not permit the occupation or use of all or part of the Premises by others (any of which events are hereinafter referred to as a "Transfer"), without the prior written consent of Landlord in each case, which consent, despite any statutory provision to the contrary, may be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Tenant may enter into a Transfer with an Eligible Corporation, with the prior written consent of Landlord which consent may not be arbitrarily or unreasonably withheld. Tenant will not, and will not permit subtenant or any other Person or entity to mortgage or encumber all or any part of the Tenant's rights resulting from this Lease or all or any part of the Premises. Under no circumstances will Tenant be entitled to effect a Transfer to any one prior to the Commencement Date, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease or at law. The consent by Landlord to a Transfer will not constitute a waiver of its consent to a subsequent Transfer. This prohibition against transferring includes a Transfer by operation of law. If a Transfer occurs without the consent of Landlord when required, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee, subtenant, mortgagee, encumbrancer, user or occupant as the case may be (hereinafter the "Transferee"), and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such Transfer, occupancy or collection will be deemed a waiver of the covenant not to Transfer without Landlord's consent, nor an acceptance by Landlord of the Transfer or the Transferee notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary. Despite a Transfer, Tenant remains fully liable under this Lease. A permitted Transfer of all or part of this Lease or the Premises will be documented by Landlord or its solicitors, and the amounts stipulated in Article 11.02(b)(iv) shall be paid by Tenant and deemed to be Rent. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord may immediately terminate this Lease if Tenant effects a Transfer without Landlord's prior written consent thereto, whether or not Tenant gives prior written notice thereof.

11.02 Conditions Any Transfer referred to in Article 11.01 or elsewhere in this Lease will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) that Tenant causes any Transferee to promptly execute an agreement in writing with Landlord agreeing to be bound by the terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease as if such Transferee had originally executed this Lease as Tenant (provided that such agreement will not in any way affect the rights of Landlord under this Lease); and

(b) all requests for Landlord's consent to effect a Transfer shall be in writing and be accompanied by each of the following: (i) the name, address and telephone number of each proposed Transferee and if it is a corporation, the names of the directors and the majority shareholders (or in the case of a change of control, those Persons who would subsequently acquire effective control); (ii) details of the proposed Transferee's prior business experience (including experience in the enterprise for which the Premises are to be operated pursuant to this Lease); (iii) bank and other credit references, required by Landlord to assess the business or financial strength and standing of the proposed assignee, subtenant or occupant; (iv) a non-reimbursable fee (paid by certified cheque or draft of a Canadian chartered bank) for all charges associated with Landlord's administration and documentation of the Transfer; (v) if the proposed Transferee is a corporation or other legal entity (but not an individual), its constating documents (including any articles of incorporation, amendment or amalgamation, any declarations of trust or partnership agreements and the like); (vi) details of the transaction of Transfer between Tenant and the proposed Transferee and all relevant documents with respect thereto; (vii) a signed copy of Landlord's standard form of letter of consent authorizing Landlord to make inquiries regarding the personal affairs of the proposed Transferee or any principal thereof, and (viii) all other information or documentation which Landlord may reasonably require.

11.03 Corporate Ownership If after the date of execution of this Lease, securities not listed for sale on a recognized securities exchange in Canada either of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant are transferred by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law or other disposition, or issued by subscription or allotment or cancelled or redeemed, so as to result in a change in the effective voting or other control of Tenant or of an Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant by the Person or Persons holding control on the date of execution of this Lease or on the date when Tenant becomes a corporation, if later, or if other steps are taken to accomplish a change of the effective control of Tenant, Tenant will promptly notify Landlord in writing of the change which will be considered to be a Transfer of this Lease to which Articles 11.01 and 11.02 apply; and whether or not Tenant notifies Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease within 60 days after Landlord learns of the change unless Landlord previously had consented to the change in writing. Tenant will make available to Landlord or its lawful representatives all corporate books and records of Tenant and of any Eligible Corporation which controls Tenant for inspection at all reasonable times, to ascertain to the extent possible whether there has been a change of control.

11.04 Insolvency of Transferee In the event Transferee becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy and this Lease is disclaimed or terminated, or Transferee disclaims this Lease pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation, or the terms of any insolvency-related Court order, then at Landlord's option to be exercised on written notice to the original Tenant named in this Lease or any Transferee (except the bankrupt or insolvent Transferee), such party will be deemed to have entered into a lease with Landlord for the remainder of the initial Term, on the terms and conditions of this Lease prevailing immediately prior to the date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation (including without limitation, future Rent escalations (if any)) effective upon the effective date of such disclaimer, termination or repudiation.

11.05 Permitted Transfers. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but on prior written notice to Landlord:

(a) assign this Lease to, and may in any event permit the Premises to be used and occupied in whole or in part by, any affiliated corporation of Tenant (as such term "affiliated corporation" is defined by· the Canada Business Corporations Act); or

(b) assign this Lease to any corporation with which Tenant merges or consolidates that is an affiliated corporation of Tenant; or

(c) grant concessions or licenses to use and occupy any part or parts of the Premises provided that: (i) the Premises continues to be carried on, and retains the appearance to the public of being carried on, as an integrated single department store operated in accordance with the requirements of this Lease, (ii) at least 80% (by number) of the concessions or licenses granted shall be to licensees or concessionaires which operate in a majority of the Tenant's other stores in the greater Winnipeg area; and (iii) any such concessionaire, licensee or other occupant within the Premises is subject to the day-to-day operational control of the Tenant in matters related to general standards of the business carried on so as to enable the Tenant to ensure that such standards shall conform to the general standards of business of the Tenant itself.

ARTICLE 12.00 SURRENDER

12.01 Possession Upon the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease and in addition to the provisions of Article 12.02, Tenant will immediately quit and peaceably surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord:

(i) in a vacant, clean and broom-swept condition with all of Tenant's signage, Signs, inventory, trade fixtures, racking and personal property removed; and (ii) without any material damage to the structural and building system elements of the Premises (inclusive, for certainty, of walls, ceilings, windows and storefronts) and with such building systems (inclusive of elevators and escalators)

servicing the Premises in a working order, subject to reasonable wear and tear; but otherwise in an "as is, where is" condition and without any obligation to:

(A) return the Premises or any component thereof to an improved or better state of condition or operation than existing as of the Commencement Date; or

(B) to remove any leasehold improvements in the Premises installed pursuant to Article 7.04 hereof.

For greater clarity, it is the intention of the parties that Tenant shall have no obligation to make cosmetic or "wear and tear" type repairs to the Premises upon surrender (such as repainting or repairing holes in walls, floors or ceilings caused by the typical installation and removal of racking, trade fixtures etc.).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Landlord's intention is to demolish and/or redevelop the Premises following the expiry of the Term and not to re-tenant same, the Landlord shall advise the Tenant thereof in which event sub-paragraph (ii) above shall not apply.

Upon surrender, all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises will cease. If Tenant has registered a caveat, caution, memorandum, notice or other instrument relating to this lease against title to the Site, it will cause the same to be released and discharged no later than 15 days following the expiry or termination date, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a release or discharge or a notice of this will be paid by Tenant.

12.02 Trade Fixtures, Personal Property and Improvements

(a) Subject to Article 7.05, all alterations, additions and improvements made or to be made upon or to the Premises (save any movable trade fixtures used in Tenant's enterprise) which in any manner are attached in, to or under the floors, walls or ceilings, including, without limitation, walk-in vaults, large water features such as pools, water basins and fountains and landscaping features, any component of any heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, sprinkler, plumbing or electrical equipment or systems, presently or in the future installed within or servicing the Premises, all lighting installations and fixtures including, without limitation, all spot lights and tracks and all floor finishes of whatever nature placed upon the floor of the Premises, all storefronts, doors and/or partitions, shall become Landlord's property at the time they are installed, and will be surrendered to Landlord at the expiry of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease without any compensation or indemnity payable to Tenant whatsoever.

(b) If Tenant leaves any property on the Premises following the expiry of the Term or earlier termination thereof which it is entitled to remove, then unless Landlord expressly notifies Tenant to remove such property, the ownership of such property will, at Landlord's option, be deemed to have been abandoned to Landlord, free and clear of all Tenant Security, notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary and whether or not Landlord chooses to become the owner of such items, they may be used, removed or disposed of by or on behalf of Landlord, as Landlord determines, without compensation payable to Tenant and without incurring any liability to Tenant.

12.03 Merger The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant or the cancellation of this Lease by mutual agreement of Tenant and Landlord will not work a merger, and will, at Landlord's option, either terminate all or any subleases and subtenancies or operate as an assignment to Landlord of all or any subleases and subtenancies. Landlord's option hereunder will be exercised by notice to Tenant and all sublessees or subtenants in the Premises or any part thereof known to Landlord. If Landlord does not give notice within a reasonable period of time after such cancellation of this Lease, then all such subleases will be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such cancellation.

12.04 Payments After Termination No payment of money by Tenant to Landlord after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease or after the giving of any notice by Landlord to Tenant, will reinstate, continue or extend the Term or make ineffective any notice given to Tenant prior to the payment of such money. After the service of notice or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment granting Landlord possession of the Premises, Landlord may receive and collect any sums of Rent due under this Lease, and the payment thereof will not make ineffective any notice, or in any manner affect any pending suit or any judgment theretofore obtained.

ARTICLE 13.00 HOLDING OVER

13.01 Month-to-Month Tenancy with Landlord Consent If with Landlord's written consent, Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, notwithstanding any legislation to the contrary, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises on a month-to month tenancy only, at a monthly rental equal to the Rent payable by Tenant during the last month immediately preceding the expiration of the Term or such other rental as is stated in such written consent, and such month-to-month tenancy may be terminated by Landlord or Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by delivery of at least one (1) month's advance written notice of termination to the other.

13.02 Month-to-Month Tenancy without Landlord Consent If without Landlord's written consent Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Term or other termination of this Lease, Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Premises upon a tenancy at sufferance only, at a monthly rental equal to two (2) times the Rent payable during the last month preceding the expiration or termination. Such tenancy at sufferance may be immediately terminated by Landlord at any time by notice of termination to Tenant, and by Tenant on the last day of any calendar month by at least 30 days' advance written notice of termination to Landlord.

13.03 General Any month-to-month tenancy or tenancy at sufferance hereunder will be subject to all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease except any right of renewal or extension and nothing contained in Article 13.00 will be construed to limit or impair any of Landlord's rights of re-entry or eviction or constitute a waiver thereof.

ARTICLE 14.00 RULES AND REGULATIONS

14.01 Purpose The Rules and Regulations in Exhibit D (the "Rules and Regulations") have been adopted by Landlord for the safety, benefit and convenience of all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre.

14.02 Observance Tenant will at all times comply with, and will cause its employees, servants, agents, licencees and invitees to comply with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect.

14.03 Modification Landlord may from time to time, for the purposes set out in Article 14.01, amend, delete from, or add to the Rules and Regulations, provided that any such modification:

(a) will not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any other provision of this Lease;

(b) will be reasonable and have general application to tenants in the Shopping Centre; and

(c) will be effective only upon delivery of a copy thereof to Tenant at the Premises.

14.04 Non-Compliance Landlord will use reasonable efforts to secure compliance by all tenants and other persons in the Shopping Centre with the Rules and Regulations from time to time in effect, but will not be responsible to Tenant for failure of any person to comply with such Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 15.00 EXPROPRIATION

15.01 Expropriation Both Landlord and Tenant agree to cooperate with each other in respect of any expropriation of all or any part of the Premises or any other part of the Shopping Centre, so that each may receive from the Authority the maximum award to which each is respectively entitled by law. If any portion of the Shopping Centre other than the Premises is expropriated, then the proceeds accruing therefrom shall belong solely to Landlord, and Tenant shall abandon to Landlord any rights which Tenant may have by operation of law to such proceeds or award. Tenant will execute such documents as required to give effect to the foregoing.

If at any time during the Term, any material part of the Shopping Centre is expropriated or if access to the Premises is materially affected by such expropriation, then Landlord may terminate this Lease on written notice to Tenant, which termination will take effect on the earlier of the date of the expropriation or the taking of prior possession.

Whether the Lease is terminated or not, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord as a result of or arising from the expropriation of all or any part of the Shopping Centre or the Premises.

If Landlord exercises its right of termination hereunder, this Lease will terminate on the date stated in the notice, provided, however, that no termination pursuant to notice hereunder may occur later than 60 days after the date (hereinafter "Date of Such Taking") on which the Authority takes possession of that part of the Shopping Centre so taken.

15.02 Surrender On any such date of termination under Article 15.01, Tenant will immediately surrender to Landlord the Premises and all interests therein under this Lease. Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and remove Tenant therefrom, and the Rent will abate on the date of termination, except that if the Date of Such Taking differs from the date of termination, Rent will abate on the former date.

15.03 Partial Taking of Premises If any portion of the Premises (but less than the whole thereof) is so taken, and no rights of termination herein conferred are timely exercised, the Term of this Lease will expire with respect to the portion so taken on the Date of Such Taking. In such event the Rent payable hereunder with respect to such portion so taken will abate on such date, and the Rent thereafter payable with respect to the remainder not so taken will be adjusted pro rata by Landlord in order to account for the resulting reduction of the Area of the Premises. After such adjustment, and on notice from Landlord stating the Rent then owing, Tenant will immediately pay Landlord such Rent.

ARTICLE 16.00 DAMAGE BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

16.01 Limited Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, can be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), Landlord will immediately at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, personal property or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired immediately by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.02 Major Damage to Premises If all or part of the Premises are rendered untenantable by damage from fire or other casualty which, in the reasonable opinion of the Architect, cannot be substantially repaired under applicable laws and governmental regulations within 180 days from the date of such casualty (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium), then Landlord, or in the event that there is less than two (2) years remaining in the Term, Tenant, may elect to terminate this Lease as of the date of such casualty by written notice delivered to the other not more than 20 days after receipt of the Architect's opinion, failing which Landlord will forthwith at its own expense repair such damage other than damage to improvements, furniture, personal property or trade fixtures which do not belong to Landlord or which have been installed by or on the behalf of Tenant, which instead will be repaired forthwith by Tenant at Tenant's own expense.

16.03 Abatement If Landlord is required to repair damage to all or part of the Premises under Article 16.01 or 16.02, provided such damage is caused by a peril Landlord is required to insure against pursuant to Article 9.01, the Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease will be proportionately reduced to the extent that the Premises are thereby rendered untenantable by Tenant in its business, from the date of such casualty until five (5) days after completion by Landlord of the repairs to the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) or until Tenant again uses the Premises (or the part thereof rendered untenantable) in its business, whichever first occurs.

16.04 Major Damage or Destruction of Shopping Centre

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Lease and specifically, but without limitation, Article 16.01, if the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed (whether the Premises are affected or not), and (i) in the Architect's opinion, the damaged or destroyed portions cannot reasonably be repaired, restored or rebuilt within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the damage or destruction (employing normal construction methods without overtime or other premium); or (ii) the cost as estimated by the Architect, of repairing, restoring or rebuilding the damaged or destroyed portions would exceed the proceeds of insurance available to Landlord for such purpose; or (iii) the damage or destruction was caused by a peril for which Landlord was not insured and for which Landlord was not obliged to insure against; or (iv)intentionally deleted; ; or (v) less than two (2) years remains during the Term; or (vi) a Mortgagee will not consent to the use of insurance proceeds for repair or reconstruction; then in any of the above cases, Landlord may, at its option (to be exercised by written notice to Tenant within 30 days following any such occurrence) elect to terminate this Lease.

If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease, then the following provisions will apply:

(a) If the Premises become totally unfit for the use for which they were leased, the termination will take effect from the date of the damage or destruction and the Rent will cease to be payable and will be adjusted as of that date.

(b) If the Premises are partially damaged and Tenant has occupied any part of the Premises or any part of the Premises have been reasonably capable of being occupied from the date of the damage or destruction, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in the first paragraph of this Article 16.04 and the Rent will cease to be paid by Tenant as of the date of termination, however, Rent will abate from the date of the damage and destruction until the date of termination to the extent the Premises cannot reasonably be used for their intended purposes.

(c) If the Premises were not damaged, this Lease will terminate ten (10) days from Landlord's notice stipulated in Article 16.00 and the Rent will cease to be paid from such date of termination.

If the Shopping Centre is totally or partially damaged or destroyed and Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, subject to the following, Landlord shall commence and proceed diligently to reconstruct or repair those portions of the Shopping Centre which have been so damaged or destroyed to the extent only of Landlord's responsibilities pursuant to the terms of the various leases for premises in the Shopping Centre and exclusive of any tenants' responsibilities. Furthermore, if the Premises are being repaired or reconstructed, the provisions of Article 16.01 will apply.

If Landlord does any reconstruction or repairing of the Shopping Centre, Landlord may do any one or more of the following: (i) use plans, specifications and working drawings which differ from those applicable to the Shopping Centre existing prior to the damage or destruction provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; (ii) change the configuration, design and/or size of the Shopping Centre or any of its component parts including, without limitation, the location and size of any mall, court, entrance, parking facility or any of other Common Areas and Facilities provided that the enjoyment Tenant may obtain from the Premises is of a similar or superior quality to that which existed prior to the damage or destruction; and (iii) redesign the tenant mix, both with respect to the kinds of uses which will be included in the tenant mix, as well as the physical location of the types of uses being operated prior to the damage or destruction. Tenant agrees that none of the foregoing shall constitute a default of Landlord's obligation to provide peaceable enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall it constitute a change of form or destination of the Shopping Centre, nor shall the validity or enforceability of this Lease be affected in any manner by any of the foregoing.

ARTICLE 17.00 TRANSFERS AND MORTGAGES BY LANDLORD

17.01 Sales, Conveyance and Assignment Nothing in this Lease (which term for purpose of this Article 17.00 includes any extension, renewal or replacement of this Lease) will restrict the right of Landlord to sell, convey, assign, mortgage or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Shopping Centre, subject only to the rights of Tenant under this Lease.

17.02 Effect of Sale, Conveyance or Assignment A sale, conveyance or assignment of the Shopping Centre will operate to release Landlord from liability from and after the date thereof upon all the covenants, terms and conditions of this Lease, express or implied, except as such may relate to the period prior to such effective date, and Tenant will thereafter look solely to Landlord's successor in interest in and to this Lease. This Lease will not be affected by any such sale conveyance or assignment, and Tenant will attorn to Landlord's successor in interest thereunder.

17.03 Definition of Mortgage, Mortgagee and Mortgagee's Interest. Each and every charge, mortgage, debenture or trust deed, now or hereafter registered against all or any part of the Shopping Centre is hereafter called a "Mortgage" which term includes all amounts advanced or to be advanced thereunder and all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. "Mortgagee" means a chargee or mortgagee named in a Mortgage, or the holder of a debenture or the trustee under a trust deed constituting a Mortgage, as the case may be; and "Mortgagee's Interest" means the estate or interest of the Mortgagee secured by a Mortgage.

17.04 Subordination of Mortgage to Lease. If this Lease or the estate or interest of Tenant thereunder (the "Tenant's Leasehold Interest") is subordinate to a Mortgage or Mortgagee's Interest now or at any time hereafter, then on written request of the Mortgagee or of Landlord on Mortgagee's behalf, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, the Mortgage and the Mortgagee's Interest will be postponed and made subordinate to this Lease and the Tenant's Leasehold Interest as if such Mortgage had been executed, delivered, registered and fully advanced after the execution, delivery and registration of this Lease, by means of an instrument of postponement and subordination, which will be entered into between Tenant and the Mortgagee, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that it complies with the terms and conditions of the Lease. Such instrument will be in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, consistent with this Article 17.04 and Article 17.07 and will be effective between the Mortgagee and Tenant when executed by them, without necessity for registration against title to the Shopping Centre; but if desired by the Mortgagee or Tenant, either of them may register such agreement or notice thereof and for that purpose the Mortgagee and Tenant will enter into any further document required to effect registration.

17.05 Attornment. If this Lease and Tenant's Leasehold Interest now or at any time hereafter is subordinate to a Mortgage and Mortgagee's Interest and the Mortgagee does not require a postponement and subordination instrument under Article 17.04, Tenant will on request of such Mortgagee or of Landlord on behalf of the Mortgagee, made concurrently with execution of this Lease or at any time thereafter, enter into an attornment agreement with such Mortgagee in such form as the Mortgagee may reasonably require, whereby Tenant will agree that if default occurs under the Mortgage, and:

(a) the Mortgagee takes possession of the Premises, by obtaining and enforcing a court order to that effect or otherwise;

(b) the Mortgagee forecloses or otherwise acquires the interest of Landlord in the Premises, but does not foreclose the Tenant's Leasehold Interest; or

(c) the Mortgagee sells, conveys or assigns the Premises to another party (hereinafter a "Purchaser") pursuant to a power of sale or court order for sale which does not purport to sell the Premises free of the Tenant's Leasehold Interest,

Tenant will, on written demand of the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, attorn to and become the tenant of that person from and including the date the demand is received, for the balance of the term of this Lease (and with rights of renewal if any as provided in this Lease), at the rents and otherwise on the terms of this Lease, subject as hereinafter provided in Article 17.06, provided that Tenant shall have the right to peacefully and quietly hold and enjoy the Premises pursuant to and provided that Tenant complies with, all the terms and conditions of the Lease.

17.06 Intentionally deleted.

17.07 Effect of Subordination or Attornment. No subordination effected under Article 17.04 and no attornment effected under Article 17.05 will render the Mortgagee or Purchaser, as the case may be:

(a) liable for any act or omission of Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(b) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against Landlord or a predecessor in title of Landlord; or

(c) bound by any prepayment by Tenant of more than one month's instalment of Rent, or by any previous modification of this Lease, unless such prepayment or modification has been approved in writing by the Mortgagee or Purchaser or any predecessor in interest except Landlord.

Upon attornment occurring under Article 17.05, the relationship of landlord and tenant thereby created between the Mortgagee or Purchaser as the case may be, as Landlord, and Tenant as tenant, will supersede this Lease, but if the Mortgage is subsequently redeemed or put in good standing or the Mortgagee goes out of possession, the Mortgagee will be relieved of its obligations to Tenant as if a sale, conveyance or assignment had occurred to which Article 17.02 applied. Any attornment by Tenant to a Mortgagee or Purchaser will be without prejudice to the right (when applicable) of any other mortgagee or purchaser that has priority to the Mortgagee or Purchaser to demand that Tenant attorn to the other mortgagee or purchaser pursuant to the rights if any, of the other mortgagee or purchaser in that regard under Article 17.00. In case of such demand being lawfully made, and Tenant attorning to such other mortgagee or purchaser the attornment previously made to the Mortgagee or Purchaser will cease to be effective.

17.08 Tenant's Obligations May Be Assigned. Tenant acknowledges that its covenants and obligations under Article 17.00 are intended in whole or in part to operate for the benefit of any and all Mortgagees and Purchasers and that in obtaining such covenants and obligations Landlord is acting not only for itself, but also as trustee or agent for all such persons. Without limiting the foregoing, Landlord may assign the benefit of such covenants and obligations to any and all Mortgagees or Purchasers who request same, as security or otherwise, and Tenant agrees that any such Mortgagee or Purchaser will be entitled on receiving such assignment and giving due notice thereof to Tenant, to enforce such covenant or obligation against Tenant to the same extent as if it were a party to this Lease directly entitled to the benefit of such covenants and obligations.

17.09 Execution of Instruments. Except as otherwise provided in Article 17.00, the subordination and attornment provisions herein will be self-operating and no further instrument will be required.

Nevertheless Tenant, on request by and without cost to Landlord, any Mortgagee, Purchaser or successor in interest, will execute and deliver any and all instruments further evidencing such subordination and/or attornment when applicable.

17.10 Intentionally deleted.

17.11 Intentionally deleted.

17.12 Notice of Lease Tenant may register at its sole cost and expense (including, without limitation, payment of all registration fees, land transfer duties and similar taxes or charges, costs of plan preparation and registration and all legal fees and disbursements related to such registration) a notice of this Lease (the "Registration Document"), provided and subject to the following:

(a) the Registration Document will be prepared by Tenant at its sole cost in a form acceptable to Landlord, and same will be approved in writing by Landlord prior to its registration;

(b) the Registration Document will only disclose the names of the parties to this Lease, the Premises, and the Commencement Date and the expiry date of the Term, and any right of renewal. The Registration Document will not disclose any information concerning the rent or rental rates to be paid, nor any other financial provisions of this Lease;

(c) the Registration Document will be registered against that part of the Lands designated by the Landlord in its sole discretion. In the event any portion of the Land ceases to form part of the Shopping Centre, Tenant will, forthwith upon request from Landlord, cause its registration to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from the title to such portion all at its own expense;

(d) Tenant will provide Landlord with a copy of the Registration Document and registration particulars thereof, once registration has been effected; and

(e) Upon the expiry or early termination of this Lease, Tenant will, at its sole expense, cause the Registration Document to be discharged, vacated or otherwise removed from title to the Site and Shopping Centre and to provide proof of such action to Landlord, within 15 days of such expiry or early termination, failing which Landlord may following the expiry of a further 15 days after notice to Tenant, at its option, register a release or discharge immediately and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its agent with respect to executing such documents. The costs of preparing and/or registering a discharge of any Registration Document will be paid by Tenant.

17.13 Easements and Rights-of-Way Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord has granted or otherwise created and may in the future grant or otherwise create licence(s), easements(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s) over, through, upon or otherwise affecting portions of the Common Areas and Facilities. Tenant hereby consents to the granting or other creation of such licence(s), easements(s), statutory right(s) of way, Operating Agreements and restrictive covenant(s).

17.14 Severance of Land In addition to and upon the same basis, mutatis mutandis, as set out in Article 6.04, Landlord will have the right from time to time to subdivide and to transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any portion or portions of the Land. Any such subdivision may be accomplished by any means Landlord may consider desirable and the description of the Land will be changed accordingly.

ARTICLE 18.00 NOTICES, ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, AUTHORITIES FOR ACTION

18.01 Notices Any notice from one party to the other under this Lease will be in writing and will be deemed duly given, if delivered personally, by an authorized representative of Tenant or Landlord or by courier, or bailiff to the party being given such notice or to a responsible employee of the party being given such notice, or if mailed in Canada by registered or certified mail addressed to Tenant at the address described in Article 1.01, or to Landlord at the address described in Article 1.01 of this Lease. Any notice will be deemed to have been given at the time of personal delivery, or if mailed, on the third (3rd) postal delivery date after the date of mailing thereof or the date of refusal thereof. Either party will have the right to designate by notice, in the manner above set forth, a different address to which notices are to be given. If it is reasonably anticipated that, due to mail service being disrupted, such notice, if mailed, will not be received by the third (3rd) postal delivery day following mailing, then such notice must be personally delivered as provided in this Article 18.01 or, in lieu of mailing, sent by the most reasonably expeditious means of delivery available to the address for mailing and will be deemed duly given upon such delivery.

Notwithstanding any law or agreement to the contrary, notices shall not be sufficiently given if delivered or transmitted by facsimile or other electronic means.

18.02 Acknowledgments Within ten (10) days after written request therefor by Landlord, Tenant shall deliver an Estoppel Certificate addressed to any Person (other than the Landlord) designated by Landlord, in the form annexed as Exhibit F or such other substantially similar form which Landlord may submit to Tenant.

18.03 Authorities for Action Landlord may act in any matter provided for herein by its property manager, Management Company or any other person who will from time to time be designated by Landlord by notice to Tenant. Tenant will designate in writing one or more persons to act on its behalf in any matter provided for herein and may from time to time change, by notice to Landlord, such designation. In the absence of any such designation, the person or persons executing this Lease for Tenant will be deemed to be authorized to act on behalf of Tenant in any matter provided for in this Lease.

ARTICLE 19.00 DEFAULT

19.01 Interest and Costs Tenant will pay to Landlord the Interest Rate upon all Rent required to be paid under this Lease from the due date for payment thereof until the same is fully paid and satisfied. Tenant will indemnify Landlord against all costs and charges (including legal fees) reasonably incurred in enforcing payment thereof, and in obtaining possession of the Premises after default of Tenant or upon expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, or in enforcing any covenant, proviso or agreement of Tenant contained in this Lease.

19.02 Right of Landlord to Perform Covenants All covenants and agreements to be performed by Tenant under any of the terms of this Lease shall be performed by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and without abatement of Rent. If Tenant fails to perform any act on its part to be performed under this Lease, and such failure continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord, Landlord may (but will not be obligated so to do) perform such act without waiving or releasing Tenant from any of its obligations relative thereto. All sums paid or costs incurred by Landlord in so performing such acts under this Article 19.02, together with interest thereon at the rate set out in Article 19.01 from the date each such payment was made or each such cost was incurred by Landlord, plus 20% of such costs for Landlord's administration and overhead, will be payable by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

19.03 Events of Default If and whenever:

(a) Part or all of the Rent hereby reserved is not paid when due, whether lawfully demanded or not, and such default continues after five (5) business days' notice by Landlord, provided that if Tenant is no longer obligated to pay Incremental Rent, the aforesaid five (5) business day period shall be deemed extended to fifteen (days) after notice by Landlord; or

(b) Tenant fails to observe, perform and keep each and every of the covenants, agreements, provisions, stipulations and conditions herein contained to be observed, performed and kept by Tenant (other than payment of Rent) and persists in such failure after thirty (30) days' notice by Landlord specifying with reasonable particularity the nature of such failure and requiring that Tenant remedy, correct, desist or comply (or if any such breach would reasonably require more than thirty (30) days to rectify, unless Tenant commences rectification within the thirty (30) day notice period and thereafter promptly, effectively and continuously proceeds with the rectification of the breach to completion of rectification); or

(c) any goods, chattels or equipment of Tenant is taken or exigible in execution or in attachment or if a writ of execution is issued against Tenant; or

(d) Tenant becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy or becomes bankrupt or takes the benefit of any statute that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or becomes involved in voluntary or involuntary winding-up or dissolution or liquidation proceedings or if a receiver will be appointed for the business, property, affairs or revenues of Tenant; Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall provide Landlord with: (i) 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (i) hereof, to the extent Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action, (iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States, (iv) 5 business day prior

written notice of the Tenant signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s); or

(e) any person other than Tenant or a Transferee permitted under this Lease has or exercises the right to manage or control the Premises, any part thereof or any business carried on in the Premises, other than subject to the actual, direct and full supervision and control of Tenant; or

(f) Tenant makes a bulk sale of its goods or moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its goods, chattels or equipment out of the Premises (other than in the normal course of its business) or Tenant ceases to conduct business from the Premises or the Premises are not open for business to the public on any three (3) consecutive days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises or on more than five (5) days that Tenant is required to conduct its business in the Premises in any twelve (12) month period; or

(g) a Transfer is effected or any Tenant Security is granted in any manner other than as permitted by this Lease; or

(h) a default of the monetary obligations of the tenant (which is not remedied within the cure period provided for in such new lease) occurs under any lease of premises entered into by the Tenant or any of its affiliates (in its or their capacity as tenant), in respect of premises located in any of the following shopping centres that are within Ivanhoe Cambridge's owned or managed portfolio of properties, where such default would constitute a "cross default" event as set out in such new lease or any other agreement entered into by and between Tenant and Landlord (and/or its or their affiliates):

(i) Metropolis at Metrotown;

(ii) Mapleview;

(iii) Southgate;

(iv) Guilford;

(v) Oshawa;

(vi) Galeries d'Anjou;

(vii) Outlet collection at Niagara-on-the-lake;

(viii) St. Foy in Québec City;

(ix) CrossIron Mills; or

(x) Vaughan Mills (such lease at Vaughan Mills, together with the aforesaid leases at Outlet collection at Niagara-on-the-lake, St. Foy and CrossIron Mills being collectively, the "Other Saks Leases"), then and in any of such cases, at the option of Landlord, the full amount of the current month's and the next ensuing three (3) months instalments of Rent will immediately become due and payable together with all tenant allowance monies paid to Tenant or the value of other inducements given to Tenant (such as, but not limited to, rent-free periods) in accordance with the provisions of this Lease or any other agreement between Landlord and Tenant relating to the Premises (such allowances and inducements hereinafter referred to as "Tenant Inducements") and Landlord may immediately take legal proceedings for the same, together with any arrears then unpaid; and Landlord may without notice or any form of legal process forthwith re-enter upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and expel all Persons from the Premises and remove and sell or dispose of Tenant's goods, personal property and trade fixtures therefrom as Landlord sees fit, or store property such at the cost of Tenant, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding all without liability and loss or damage and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover arrears of Rent or damages for any antecedent default by Tenant of its obligations or agreements under this Lease or of any term or condition of this Lease, and wholly without prejudice to the rights of Landlord to recover from Tenant damages for loss of Rent suffered by reason of this Lease having been prematurely terminated. Any such sale may be effected in the discretion of Landlord by public auction or otherwise, and either in bulk or by individual item, or partly by one means and partly by another, all as Landlord in its entire discretion may decide. If any of Tenant's property is disposed of as provided in this Article 19.03, ten (10) days prior notice to Tenant of disposition will be deemed to be commercially reasonable.

19.04 Waiver of Exemption and Redemption. Notwithstanding anything contained in any statute now or hereafter in force limiting or abrogating the right of distress, none of Tenant's goods, chattels or trade fixtures on the Premises at any time during the continuance of the Term will be exempt from levy by distress for Rent in arrears and upon any claim being made for such exemption by Tenant or on distress being made by Landlord this agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel against Tenant in any action brought to test the right to the levying upon any such goods as are named as exempted in any such statute, Tenant hereby waiving all and every benefit that could or might have accrued to Tenant under and by virtue of any such statute but for this Lease. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being evicted or dispossessed for any cause, or in the event of Landlord obtaining possession of the Premises, by reason of the violation by Tenant of any terms and conditions of this Lease or otherwise.

19.05 Surrender If and whenever Landlord is entitled to or does re-enter, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving notice thereof, and in such event Tenant will forthwith vacate and surrender the Premises.

19.06 Payments If Landlord re-enters or if this Lease is terminated, Tenant will pay to Landlord on demand:

(a) Rent up to the time of re-entry or termination, whichever will be the later, plus three (3) months' accelerated rent as herein provided; and

(b) all expenses incurred by Landlord in performing any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, re-entering or terminating and re-letting, collecting sums due or payable by Tenant, realizing upon assets seized (including brokerage, legal fees and disbursements), and the expense of keeping the Premises in good order, repairing the same and preparing them for re-letting; and

(c) as damages (subject to the Landlord's obligation to mitigate at law) for the loss of income of Landlord expected to be derived from the Premises, the amounts (if any) by which the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease exceeds the payments (if any) received by Landlord from other tenants in the Premises, payable on the first (1st) day of each month during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term had it not been terminated, or if elected by Landlord by notice to Tenant at or after re-entry or termination, a lump sum amount equal to the Rent which would have been payable under this Lease from the date of such election during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the Term, had it not been terminated, reduced by the rental value of the Premises for the same period, established by reference to the terms and conditions upon which Landlord re-lets them if such re-letting is accomplished within a reasonable period after termination, and otherwise established by reference to all market and other relevant circumstances; Rent and rental value being reduced to present worth at an assumed interest rate of ten percent (10%) on the basis of Landlord's estimates and assumptions of fact which will govern unless shown to be erroneous; and

(d) all Tenant Inducements given by Landlord to Tenant in respect of the Premises.

19.07 Remedies Cumulative No reference to nor exercise of any specific right or remedy by Landlord will prejudice or preclude Landlord from exercising or invoking any other remedy in respect thereof, whether allowed at law or expressly provided for in this Lease. No such remedy will be exclusive or dependent upon any other such remedy, but Landlord may from time to time exercise any one or more of such remedies independently or in combination.

19.08 Waiver In the event Tenant is in default in performing any of its obligations (including without limitation, the payment of any Rent), and Landlord shall have instituted proceedings to cancel, terminate or to confirm its cancellation or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall not have any right to prevent such cancellation or termination by remedying its default or defaults subsequent to the institution of such legal proceedings.

19.09 Intentionally deleted.

19.10 Additional Recourses If Tenant is in default to fulfill any of its obligations under this Lease and in particular its obligations pursuant to Articles 5.03, 5.10 and 18.02 of this Lease, then in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights or recourses of Landlord hereunder, Landlord may, at its option, obtain injunctive relief to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do, Tenant hereby expressly acknowledging and agreeing that this Article 19.10 constitutes a waiver against any defense to Landlord's application for injunctive relief made to enforce the fulfillment of any obligation to do or not to do.

19.11 Non-Waiver No condoning, excusing or over-looking by either party of any default by the other at any time in respect of any of its obligations shall operate as a waiver of Landlord's or Tenant's rights hereunder in respect of any such default or any subsequent default or so as to defeat or affect in any way the rights of Landlord or Tenant in respect of any such default or subsequent default. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by anything done or omitted to be done by Landlord or Tenant save only where such waiver is expressed in writing. Without limiting the general application hereof, the acceptance of any sums of money, statements of account or reports that Tenant or Landlord must pay or provide pursuant to this Lease, shall not constitute a renunciation of the rights of Landlord or Tenant in virtue of theses presents.

19.12 Shopping Centre Assets Only the Shopping Centre assets and any property exclusively related thereto shall serve to satisfy the obligations of Landlord under this Lease or in virtue of any responsibility of Landlord resulting from its fault. Tenant recognizes and declares, without reserve, that any recourse by Tenant against Landlord based on, or in virtue of, this Lease or resulting from any fault of Landlord, shall be restricted and can only be executed against the Shopping Centre, to the exclusion of all other property belonging to Landlord.

19.13 Real Estate Investment Trust In the event that a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") should be at any time bound by the covenants of Landlord hereunder or incur any liability as Landlord hereunder, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease or at law, such covenants and liability hereunder and under all other agreements entered into pursuant hereto, if any, shall not be personally binding upon and resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse of satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the trustees of the REIT, unitholders of the REIT, annuitants under a plan of which the REIT or any unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the REIT or directors or officers of any of its nominees, although this provision shall not constitute a bar to any action against the REIT for specific performance of this Lease or performance of any obligation of the REIT arising from or in connection with its obligations, if any, under this Lease or other agreements entered into pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 20.00 ARTICLE 1.00 INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

ARTICLE 21.00 MISCELLANEOUS

21.01 Relationship of Parties Nothing contained in this Lease will create any relationship between parties to this Lease other than that of landlord and tenant, and it is acknowledged and agreed that Landlord does not in any way or for any purpose become a partner of Tenant in the conduct of its business, or a joint venturer or a member of a joint or common enterprise with Tenant.

21.02 Consent Not Unreasonably Withheld Except as otherwise specifically provided, whenever consent or approval of Landlord or Tenant is required under the terms of this Lease, such consent or approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant's sole remedy if Landlord unreasonably withholds or delays consent or approval will be an action for specific performance, and Landlord will not be liable for damages. If either party withholds any consent or approval, such party will on written request deliver to the other party a written statement giving the reasons therefor.

21.03 Applicable Law and Interpretation This Lease will be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Shopping Centre is located, and its provisions will be interpreted as a whole according to their common meaning and not strictly for or against Landlord or Tenant. The words "Landlord" and "Tenant" will include the plural as well as the singular If this Lease is executed by more than one party as Tenant, Tenant's obligations under this Lease will be joint and several obligations of such executing parties. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions. The captions of the Articles are included for convenience only, and will have no effect upon the interpretation of this Lease.

Certain text in this Lease has been bolded and underlined and certain text has been deleted by way of a line through applicable text. Such bolding and underlining and lines through the applicable text have been used to identify changes to Landlord's standard form of lease for the Shopping Centre. All bolded and underlined text will be read as if not bolded and underlined and all text deleted by way of a line will be deemed not to exist.

21.04 Entire Agreement This Lease (together with any other agreement entered into by the Landlord, the Tenant and/or its or their affiliates as a pre-condition to the execution of this Lease), contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Lease and except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Lease, this Lease supersedes and revokes all previous negotiations, arrangements, letters of intent, offers to lease, lease proposals, brochures, agreements, representations, promises, warranties, understandings, and information conveyed, whether oral or in writing, between the parties hereto or their respective representatives or any other person purporting to represent Landlord or Tenant. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it has not relied upon any statement, representation, agreement or warranty except such as are expressly set out in this Lease.

21.05 Amendment or Modification Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, no amendment, modification, or supplement to this Lease will be valid or binding unless set out in writing and executed by the parties hereto in the same manner as the execution of this Lease.

21.06 Construed Covenants and Severability All of the provisions of this Lease are to be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words importing such covenants and agreements were used in each separate Article hereof. If any term, proviso, covenant or condition of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is to any extent held or rendered invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal it or its application will be considered separate and severable from this Lease to such extent and the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term, proviso, covenant or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is held invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal will not be affected thereby and will continue to be applicable and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

21.07 No Implied Surrender or Waiver No provisions of this Lease will be deemed to have been waived by Landlord unless such waiver is in writing signed by Landlord. Landlord's waiver of a breach of any term or condition of this Lease will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a breach, from having all the force and effect of any original breach. Landlord's receipt of Rent with knowledge of a breach by Tenant of any term or condition of this Lease will not be deemed a waiver of such breach. Landlord's failure to enforce against Tenant or any other tenant in the Shopping Centre any of the Rules and Regulations made under Article 14.00 will not be deemed a waiver of such Rules and Regulations. No act or thing done by Landlord, its agents or employees during the Term will be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept a surrender of the Premises will be valid, unless in writing signed by Landlord. The delivery of keys to any of Landlord's agents or employees will not operate as a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises. No payment by Tenant, or receipt by Landlord, of a lesser amount than the Rent due under this Lease will be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated Rent, nor will any endorsement or statement on any cheque or any letter accompanying any cheque, or payment as Rent, be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such cheque or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Rent or pursue any other remedy available to Landlord.

21.08 Additional Costs Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Rent, upon written request therefore, any and all costs, including without limitation, costs of additional security, cleaning and legal costs, incurred by Landlord as a result of picketing, demonstration or other activity within the Shopping Centre which is initiated by members of any organization, including, without limitation, a trade union, and which is directed at Tenant, its contractors, subcontractors, suppliers or employees or at Tenant's operations in the Shopping Centre.

21.09 Successors Bound Except as otherwise specifically provided, the covenants terms and conditions contained in this Lease will apply to and bind the heirs, successors, executors, administrators and permitted assigns of the parties hereto.

21.10 Brokerage Commission Any brokerage commissions with respect to the present transaction shall be borne exclusively by Tenant and Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any and all claims for payment of commission with respect thereto, unless Landlord has given a specific written mandate to any broker or agent for the present transaction.

21.11 Confidentiality Tenant agrees to keep the terms and conditions of this Lease confidential. Any information pertaining to this Lease cannot be communicated or revealed to a third party without the written consent of Landlord whose refusal will be deemed reasonable if the information that would be communicated or revealed is of a financial nature. Tenant's failure to respect this Article 21.11 is acknowledged by Tenant to constitute a major prejudice to Landlord and also a default according to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

21.12 No Offer by Landlord Landlord will not be deemed to have made an offer to Tenant by preparing this Lease. No agreement respecting the Premises will arise or exist between the parties hereto except through the due execution of this Lease by both Tenant and Landlord. Upon execution and delivery by Tenant to Landlord, this Lease will be irrevocable by Tenant and open for acceptance by Landlord until 5:00 P.M. on the 60th day thereafter, and if not accepted by Landlord by then, may be withdrawn by Tenant by notice to Landlord at any time prior to its later acceptance by Landlord.

21.13 Time of Essence Time shall be of the essence of this Lease in respect to all of the agreements and obligations of Tenant and/or Landlord contained herein.

21.14 Force Majeure If any party hereto is bona fide delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any term, obligation or act required hereunder by reason of Force Majeure, then performance of such term, obligation or act is excused for the period during which the cause of the Force Majeure persists. Once the cause of this Force Majeure has ceased, the party so delayed shall perform such terms, obligations or acts within the time period stipulated in the Lease, without regard for such period of time during which the cause of the Force Majeure persisted.

21.15 Non-Smoking Shopping Centre The Shopping Centre is a non-smoking facility. Tenant, its employees, invitees, customers, and anyone for whom Tenant is responsible at law are strictly prohibited from smoking in any interior or exterior areas of the Shopping Centre, except those exterior areas designated by Landlord as designated smoking areas (if any). Tenant agrees that it will comply with the foregoing restriction as well as any applicable legislation regulating smoking in shopping centres.

21.16 Counterpart Execution This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement, effective when all counterparts have been signed. The parties hereto agree that this Lease may be signed either by paper signature or by electronic signature and may be delivered electronically (in .pdf format) or otherwise, and the parties accept any such electronic signatures as original signatures of the parties.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Security Landlord may from time to time adopt appropriate systems and procedures for the security or safety of the Shopping Centre, any persons occupying, using or entering the same, or any equipment, finishings or contents thereof, and Tenant will comply with Landlord's reasonable requirements relative thereto.

2. Return of Keys At the end of the Term, Tenant will promptly return to Landlord all keys for the Shopping Centre and Premises which are in possession of Tenant.

3. Repair, Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements Tenant will carry out Tenant's repair, maintenance, alterations and improvements in the Premises only during times agreed to in advance by Landlord and in a manner which will not interfere with the rights of other tenants in the Shopping Centre.

4. Water Fixtures Tenant will not use water fixtures for any purpose for which they are not intended, nor will water be wasted by tampering with such fixtures. Any cost or damage resulting from such misuse by Tenant will be paid for by Tenant.

5. Personal Use of Premises The Premises will not be used or permitted to be used for residential, lodging or sleeping purposes or for the storage of personal effects or property not required for business purposes.

6. Heavy Articles and Overloading Services Tenant will not place in or move about the Premises, without Landlord's prior written consent, any safe or other heavy article which in Landlord's reasonable opinion may damage the Shopping Centre, and Landlord may designate the location of any heavy articles in the Premises. Tenant will not overload any utility or service in or serving the Premises or any part of the Shopping Centre.

7. Animals, Bicycles, Shopping Carts Tenant will not bring any animals or birds into the Shopping Centre, and will not permit bicycles or other vehicles inside or on the sidewalks outside the Shopping Centre except in areas designated from time to time by Landlord for such purposes. Tenant shall not permit shopping carts in the Common Areas and Facilities and shall be fully responsible for their removal and indemnify Landlord from any claim, loss, expense, damages or injuries caused by the shopping carts.

8. Deliveries Tenant will ensure that deliveries or shipments of supplies, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, wares and merchandise to or from the Premises are made only through such delivery facilities, entrances, elevators and corridors and at such times as may from time to time be designated by Landlord, and will promptly pay or cause to be paid to Landlord the cost of repairing any damage in the Shopping Centre caused by any person making such deliveries or shipments.

9. Solicitations Landlord reserves the right to restrict or prohibit canvassing, soliciting or peddling in the Shopping Centre.

10. Food, Beverages and Entertainment Only persons approved from time to time by Landlord may prepare, solicit orders for, sell, serve or distribute foods or beverages in the Shopping Centre, or use the elevators, corridors or Common Areas and Facilities for any such purposes. Except with Landlord's prior written consent and in accordance with arrangements approved in writing by Landlord, Tenant will not permit on the Premises the use of equipment for dispensing food or beverages or for the preparation, solicitation of orders for, sale, serving or distribution of food or beverages or for the selling or providing of any form of entertainment, including vending machines or other machines operated by coins or other devices.

11. Refuse Tenant will separate and place all refuse in proper receptacles provided by Tenant at its expense in the Premises or in receptacles in recycling stations (if any) provided for the Shopping Centre, and will keep sidewalks and driveways outside the Shopping Centre, and lobbies, corridors, stairwells, ducts and shafts of the Shopping Centre, free of all refuse.

12. Obstructions Tenant will not obstruct or place anything in or on the sidewalks or driveways outside the Shopping Centre or in the lobbies, corridors, stairwells or other Common Areas and Facilities of the Shopping Centre, or use such locations for any purpose except access to and exit from the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent. Landlord may remove at Tenant's expense any such obstruction or thing (unauthorized by Landlord) without notice or obligation to Tenant.

13. Dangerous, Immoral or Hazardous Activities Tenant will not make any use of the Premises which involves the danger of injury to any person, nor will same be used for any immoral purpose or to commit any act of waste or damage to any part of the Premises or to use any part of the Premises so as to constitute a hazard.

14. Proper Conduct Tenant will not conduct itself in any manner which is inconsistent with the character of the Shopping Centre as being of first quality or which will impair the comfort and convenience of other tenants in the Shopping Centre. Such prohibited conduct will include the playing of loud music and the placing of merchandise racks in the Common Areas and Facilities.

15. Parking Landlord, from time to time, may prohibit Tenant, Tenant's employees and Tenant's suppliers and others making deliveries to or receiving shipments from the Premises from parking anywhere within the Shopping Centre. If Landlord designates Tenant parking areas in the Shopping Centre, Tenant will park its vehicles and will cause its employees to park their vehicles only in such designated parking areas. Tenant will furnish Landlord, upon request, with the current licence numbers of all vehicles owned or used by Tenant or its employees and Tenant thereafter will notify Landlord of any changes in such numbers within five (5) days after the occurrence thereof. In the event of failure of Tenant or its employees to park their vehicles in such designated parking areas, Tenant will forthwith on demand pay to Landlord, as additional rent, the sum of $20.00 per day per each car so parked. Landlord reserves the right to impose reasonable charges upon any person (including the general public) for the use of any parking facilities which may from time to time form a part of the Shopping Centre.

16. Sustainability Tenant shall implement energy-efficient practices within the Premises, including closing all window shades, turning off any unnecessary lights and equipment after the close of business day.

    Tenant will keep any exterior doors and windows to the Premises closed during the periods where there is a variation of three (3) degrees Celsius or more between indoor and outdoor temperatures.

    Tenant will turn off interior mall signage and display window lighting half-an-hour after closing until half-an-hour before opening time the next day (the "After-Hours Period"), or as Landlord deems appropriate.

    Tenant will limit After-Hours Period interior lighting to emergency lighting, when the Premises are not occupied.

    Where Tenant has the ability to control its HVAC for the Premises, Tenant will adjust the HVAC temperature settings so as to limit the Premises' energy consumption during the After-Hours Period by setting back the temperature of the Premises by six (6) degrees Celsius from the daytime temperature setting.

    Tenant will not use space heaters in or for the Premises, unless Tenant first obtains Landlord's written consent.

    If Landlord leak tests for Tenant's plumbing fixtures reveal water leaks or other defects, Landlord will notify Tenant of such defects and Tenant will take all necessary actions to diligently remedy said effects.

    In addition to the requirements set out under Article 20.05 of the Lease, Tenant will comply with Landlord's waste minimization and diversion rules and regulations, as established from time to time.

    Tenant will make available an appropriate staff representative to attend Landlord's information and training sessions relating to Landlord's initiatives for improving the Shopping Centre's operational sustainability.

Commissioner for Taking Affidavits (or as may be)

LETTER AGREEMENT

THIS LETTER AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of the 1st day of February 2024,

B E T W E E N:

CANAPEN (HALTON) LIMITED and IVANHOE CAMBRIDGE II INC.

(the "Landlord")

- and -

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY ULC;

(the "Tenant")

WHEREAS the Landlord and the Tenant were parties to that certain lease agreement dated November 18, 1988, relating to premises (the "Premises") used by the Tenant for the operation of a "Hudson's Bay Company" store located at the Property, as such lease may have been amended or supplemented from time to time (the "Previous Lease");

WHEREAS on the date hereof, the Landlord and the Tenant have entered into a new lease agreement with respect to the Premises (the "Updated Lease);

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged), the parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

Capitalized terms used in this shall have, for all purposes of this Agreement, the following meanings:

(i) "Agreement" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(ii) "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which Canadian banks are open for business;

(iii) "Controlled Affiliate" means, with respect to the Landlord, any Person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the Landlord, and the term "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of another Person without the consent or approval of any other Person;

(iv) "Landlord" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(v) "Person" means any other individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture or unincorporated organization;

(vi) "Premises" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(vii) "Previous Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(viii) "Property" means the real property located in the City of Burlington, province of Ontario, commonly know as the Mapleview Centre;

(ix) "Replacement Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in Section 3;

(x) "Restrictive Covenants" means the rights, conditions, covenants or restrictions relating to parking ratios or no-build zones, or any other provision contained in the Previous Lease purporting to restrict, or which had the effect of restricting the Landlord's capacity to renovate, expand, develop or re-develop the Property (including parceling), as well as any merchandising control rights in favor of the Tenant;

(xi) "Tenant" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto; and

(xii) "Updated Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto.

2. Standstill.

(a) Notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the Updated Lease, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(b), the Landlord covenants and agrees in favour of the Tenant not to take any action in relation to the Premises that would have been prohibited pursuant to the Restrictive Covenants contained in the Previous Lease.

(b) The Landlord's covenant pursuant to paragraph 2(a) shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(i) the Tenant defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under either one of the leases between the Tenant, as tenant, and the relevant landlord, as landlord relating to any one of the properties know as Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Southgate Centre, Guildford Town Centre, Oshawa Centre, Place Ste-Foy, CrossIron

Mills, The Outlet Collection at Niagara, Vaughan Mills and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg;

(ii) the Tenant becoming insolvent;

(iii) the Tenant committing any act of bankruptcy, including but not limited to as defined at Section 42(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act;

(iv) the Tenant becoming bankrupt;

(v) the termination of the Updated Lease pursuant to Section 3;

3. Termination of the Updated Lease.

Provided no event set out under paragraph 2(b) has occurred, the parties agree that on November 13, 2028 the Updated Lease shall automatically terminate and be replaced by a new lease (the "Replacement Lease"), the terms and conditions of which shall be the same as the Previous Lease including without limitation any Restrictive Covenant, but with the exception of the expiry of the term which shall not exceed the date on which the Previous Lease would have expired had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, provided the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what was provided in the Previous Lease, and the parties shall be bound by terms of the Replacement Lease. For greater certainty, and as an illustrative example only to further clarify the parties' intent, if the expiry of the term of the Previous Lease was December 31, 2030, and the Updated Lease was executed on February 3, 2024, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on December 31, 2030. In the event that the term of the Previous Lease would have expired prior to November 13, 2028 had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the parties agree that the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on the date on which the term of the Previous Lease would have expired had the Tenant exercised the option to extend available to it at the time of such expiry and the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what would have remained available to the Tenant at the time under the Previous Lease had it not been replaced by the Updated.

The Landlord and the Tenant covenant and agree to sign any document, deliver any instrument and to do all things necessary or useful in order to give effect to the provisions of this Section 3.

For clarity purposes, upon the occurrence of any event set out under paragraph 2(b) on or prior to November 13, 2028, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the Updated Lease shall remain in full force and effect under the terms and conditions set out therein, and the obligation to enter into the Replacement Lease shall become null and void.

4. Transfers.

This Agreement may in no event be transferred or assigned by any party to the Agreement without the other party's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be transferred by the Landlord to a Controlled Affiliate of the Landlord or its successors and assigns, or to a purchaser or acquirer of all or any portion of the Landlord's interest in the Property, provided the Tenant receives written notice of such transfer and the Landlord shall not be released of its obligations under this Agreement.

Representations and Warranties.

(i) The Tenant hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Landlord that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Tenant of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Tenant; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Tenant.

(ii) The Landlord hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Tenant that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Landlord of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Landlord; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Landlord.

5. Special Notices.

The Tenant will provide the Landlord with:

(i) a 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States;

(ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (a) hereof, to the extent the Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, the Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action;

(iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States; and

(iv) five (5) Business Day prior written notice of the Tenant's signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s).

6. Notice.

Any notice or other communication to be given to the Tenant under or in connection with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be given by personal delivery during regular business hours on any Business Day or by registered mail addressed or sent as set out below or to such other address as may from time to time be the subject of a Notice:

Either party may at any time and from time to time modify the address and/or fax number referred to above by providing written notice thereof to the other party.

7. Time.

Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

8. Further Assurances.

Each of the parties shall execute and deliver all such further documents, acts, deeds and do such other things as the other party may reasonably request to give full effect to this Agreement.

9. Severability.

Any provision of this Agreement, which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability and shall be severed from the balance of this Agreement, all without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability in any other jurisdiction.

10. Successors and Assigns.

This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and shall be binding upon the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. The Landlord shall require any successor by purchase of a direct interest in the Property to assume expressly and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent as if it were an original party to this Agreement.

11. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts and may be signed and delivered by electronic means. Each such counterpart is deemed to be an original and, taken together, constitutes a single agreement. The delivery by electronic means in PDF format (including any electronic signature complying with the Act to establish a legal framework for information technology (Québec), e.g., www.docusign.com) of this Agreement or any document delivered under this Agreement with all signed signature pages (in counterparts or otherwise) is sufficient to bind the parties to the terms and conditions they set forth.

12. Governing Law.

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario.

13. Language.

The parties hereto have requested that this Agreement shall be drafted in the English language only. Les parties à la présente convention ont demandé à ce qu'elle soit rédigée en langue anglaise seulement

LETTER AGREEMENT

THIS LETTER AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of the 1st day of February 2024,

B E T W E E N:

IVANHOE CAMBRIDGE II INC.;

("IC II")

- and -

OPB (SOUTHGATE) INC.;

(together with IC II, collectively the "Landlord")

- and -

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY ULC;

(the "Tenant")

WHEREAS the Landlord and the Tenant were parties to that certain lease agreement dated August 12, 1970 relating to premises (the "Premises") used by the Tenant for the operation of a "Hudson's Bay Company" store located at the Property, as such lease may have been amended or supplemented from time to time (the "Previous Lease"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Schedule "A";

WHEREAS on the date hereof, the Landlord and the Tenant have entered into a new lease agreement with respect to the Premises (the "Updated Lease");

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged), the parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

Capitalized terms used in this shall have, for all purposes of this Agreement, the following meanings:

(i) "Agreement" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(ii) "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which Canadian banks are open for business;

(iii) "Controlled Affiliate" means, with respect to the Landlord, any Person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the Landlord, and the term "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of another Person without the consent or approval of any other Person;

(iv) "Landlord" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(v) "Person" means any other individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture or unincorporated organization;

(vi) "Premises" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(vii) "Previous Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(viii) "Property" means the real property located in the City of Edmonton, province of Alberta, commonly know as "Southgate Centre";

(ix) "Replacement Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in Section 3;

(x) "Restrictive Covenants" means the rights, conditions, covenants or restrictions relating to parking ratios or no-build zones, or any other provision contained in the Previous Lease purporting to restrict, or which had the effect of restricting the Landlord's unfettered discretion, free of any controls or approvals of the Tenant, to renovate, expand, develop or re-develop the Property (including, without limitation, parceling, re-zoning, changes of use, and modifications to the site plan), as well as any merchandising control rights in favor of the Tenant;

(xi) "Tenant" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto; and

(xii) "Updated Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto.

2. Standstill.

(a) Notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the Updated Lease, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(b), the Landlord covenants and agrees in favour of the Tenant not to take any action in relation to the Premises that would have been prohibited pursuant to the Restrictive Covenants contained in the Previous Lease.

(b) The Landlord's covenant pursuant to paragraph 2(a) shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(i) the Tenant defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under either one of the leases between the Tenant, as tenant, and the relevant landlord, as landlord relating to any one of the properties know as Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Mapleview Shopping Centre, Guildford Town Centre, Oshawa Centre, Place Ste-Foy, CrossIron Mills, The Outlet Collection at Niagara, Vaughan Mills and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg;

(ii) the Tenant becoming insolvent;

(iii) the Tenant committing any act of bankruptcy, including but not limited to as defined at Section 42(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act;

(iv) the Tenant becoming bankrupt;

(v) the termination of the Updated Lease pursuant to Section 3;

3. Termination of the Updated Lease.

Provided no event set out under paragraph 2(b) has occurred, the parties agree that on November 13, 2028 the Updated Lease shall automatically terminate and be replaced by a new lease (the "Replacement Lease"), the terms and conditions of which shall be the same as the Previous Lease including without limitation any Restrictive Covenant, but with the exception of the expiry of the term which shall not exceed February 2, 2034, and the Replacement Lease shall provide for 5 consecutive options to extend in favour of the Tenant, each of the first 4 options for a further period of 10 years and the last option for a further period of 2 years, and the parties shall be bound by terms of the Replacement Lease.

The Landlord and the Tenant covenant and agree to sign any document, deliver any instrument and to do all things necessary or useful in order to give effect to the provisions of this Section 3.

For clarity purposes, upon the occurrence of any event set out under paragraph 2(b) on or prior to November 13, 2028, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the Updated Lease shall remain in full force and effect under the terms and conditions set out therein, and the obligation to enter into the Replacement Lease shall become null and void.

4. Transfers.

This Agreement may in no event be transferred or assigned by any party to the Agreement without the other party's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be transferred by the Landlord or its successors and assigns to a Controlled Affiliate of the Landlord or its successors and assigns, or to a purchaser or acquirer of all or any portion of the Landlord's interest in the Property, provided the Tenant receives written notice of such transfer and the Landlord shall not be released of its obligations under this Agreement.

5. Representations and Warranties.

(i) The Tenant hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Landlord that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Tenant of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Tenant; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Tenant.

(ii) The Landlord hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Tenant that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Landlord of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Landlord; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Landlord.

6. Special Notices.

The Tenant will provide the Landlord with:

(i) a 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States;

(ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (a) hereof, to the extent the Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, the Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action;

(iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States; and

(iv) five (5) Business Day prior written notice of the Tenant's signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s).

7. Notice.

LETTER AGREEMENT

THIS LETTER AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of the 1st day of February 2024,

B E T W E E N:

GUILDFORD TOWN CENTRE LIMITED PARTNERSHIP and LASALLE CANADA CORE REAL PROPERTY, L.P.

(the "Landlord")

- and -

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY ULC;

(the "Tenant")

WHEREAS the Landlord and the Tenant were parties to that certain lease agreement dated June 9, 1993, relating to premises (the "Premises") used by the Tenant for the operation of a "Hudson's Bay Company" store located at the Property, as such lease may have been amended or supplemented from time to time (the "Previous Lease");

WHEREAS on the date hereof, the Landlord and the Tenant have entered into a new lease agreement with respect to the Premises (the "Updated Lease);

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged), the parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

Capitalized terms used in this shall have, for all purposes of this Agreement, the following meanings:

(i) "Agreement" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(ii) "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which Canadian banks are open for business;

(iii) "Controlled Affiliate" means, with respect to the Landlord, any Person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the Landlord, and the term "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of another Person without the consent or approval of any other Person;

(iv) "Landlord" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(v) "Person" means any other individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture or unincorporated organization;

(vi) "Premises" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(vii) "Previous Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(viii) "Property" means the real property located in the City of Surrey, province of British Columbia, commonly know as Guildford Town Centre;

(ix) "Replacement Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in Section 3;

(x) "Restrictive Covenants" means the rights, conditions, covenants or restrictions relating to parking ratios or no-build zones, or any other provision contained in the Previous Lease purporting to restrict, or which had the effect of restricting the Landlord's capacity to renovate, expand, develop or re-develop the Property (including parceling), as well as any merchandising control rights in favor of the Tenant;

(xi) "Tenant" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto; and

(xii) "Updated Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto.

2. Standstill.

(a) Notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the Updated Lease, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(b), the Landlord covenants and agrees in favour of the Tenant not to take any action in relation to the Premises that would have been prohibited pursuant to the Restrictive Covenants contained in the Previous Lease.

(b) The Landlord's covenant pursuant to paragraph 2(a) shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(i) the Tenant defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under either one of the leases between the Tenant, as tenant, and the relevant landlord, as landlord relating to any one of the properties know as Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Mapleview Shopping Centre, Southgate Centre, Oshawa Centre, Place Ste-Foy, CrossIron

Mills, The Outlet Collection at Niagara, Vaughan Mills and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg;

(ii) the Tenant becoming insolvent;

(iii) the Tenant committing any act of bankruptcy, including but not limited to as defined at Section 42(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act;

(iv) the Tenant becoming bankrupt;

(v) the termination of the Updated Lease pursuant to Section 3;

3. Termination of the Updated Lease.

Provided no event set out under paragraph 2(b) has occurred, the parties agree that on November 13, 2028 the Updated Lease shall automatically terminate and be replaced by a new lease (the "Replacement Lease"), the terms and conditions of which shall be the same as the Previous Lease including without limitation any Restrictive Covenant, but with the exception of the expiry of the term which shall not exceed the date on which the Previous Lease would have expired had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, provided the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what was provided in the Previous Lease, and the parties shall be bound by terms of the Replacement Lease. For greater certainty, and as an illustrative example only to further clarify the parties' intent, if the expiry of the term of the Previous Lease was December 31, 2030, and the Updated Lease was executed on February 3, 2024, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on December 31, 2030. In the event that the term of the Previous Lease would have expired prior to November 13, 2028 had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the parties agree that the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on the date on which the term of the Previous Lease would have expired had the Tenant exercised the option to extend available to it at the time of such expiry and the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what would have remained available to the Tenant at the time under the Previous Lease had it not been replaced by the Updated.

The Landlord and the Tenant covenant and agree to sign any document, deliver any instrument and to do all things necessary or useful in order to give effect to the provisions of this Section 3.

For clarity purposes, upon the occurrence of any event set out under paragraph 2(b) on or prior to November 13, 2028, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the Updated Lease shall remain in full force and effect under the terms and conditions set out therein, and the obligation to enter into the Replacement Lease shall become null and void.

4. Transfers.

This Agreement may in no event be transferred or assigned by any party to the Agreement without the other party's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be transferred by the Landlord to a Controlled Affiliate of the Landlord or its successors and assigns, or to a purchaser or acquirer of all or any portion of the Landlord's interest in the Property, provided the Tenant receives written notice of such transfer and the Landlord shall not be released of its obligations under this Agreement.

5. Representations and Warranties.

(i) The Tenant hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Landlord that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Tenant of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Tenant; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Tenant.

(ii) The Landlord hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Tenant that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Landlord of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Landlord; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Landlord.

6. Special Notices.

The Tenant will provide the Landlord with:

(i) a 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States;

(ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (a) hereof, to the extent the Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, the Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action;

(iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States; and

(iv) five (5) Business Day prior written notice of the Tenant's signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s).

7. Notice.

Any notice or other communication to be given to the Tenant under or in connection with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be given by personal delivery during regular business hours on any Business Day or by registered mail addressed or sent as set out below or to such other address as may from time to time be the subject of a Notice:

THIS LETTER AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of the 1st day of February 2024,

B E T W E E N:

IVANHOE CAMBRIDGE II INC. and 7503067 CANADA INC.

(the "Landlord")

- and -

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY ULC;

(the "Tenant")

WHEREAS the Landlord and the Tenant were parties to that certain lease agreement dated August 9, 1978, relating to premises (the "Premises") used by the Tenant for the operation of a "Hudson's Bay Company" store located at the Property, as such lease may have been amended or supplemented from time to time (the "Previous Lease");

WHEREAS on the date hereof, the Landlord and the Tenant have entered into a new lease agreement with respect to the Premises (the "Updated Lease);

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged), the parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

Capitalized terms used in this shall have, for all purposes of this Agreement, the following meanings:

(i) "Agreement" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(ii) "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which Canadian banks are open for business;

(iii) "Controlled Affiliate" means, with respect to the Landlord, any Person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the Landlord, and the term "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of another Person without the consent or approval of any other Person;

(iv) "Landlord" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(v) "Person" means any other individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture or unincorporated organization;

(vi) "Premises" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(vii) "Previous Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(viii) "Property" means the real property located in the City of Oshawa, province of Ontario, commonly know as Oshawa Centre;

(ix) "Replacement Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in Section 3;

(x) "Restrictive Covenants" means the rights, conditions, covenants or restrictions relating to parking ratios or no-build zones, or any other provision contained in the Previous Lease purporting to restrict, or which had the effect of restricting the Landlord's capacity to renovate, expand, develop or re-develop the Property (including parceling), as well as any merchandising control rights in favor of the Tenant;

(xi) "Tenant" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto; and

(xii) "Updated Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto.

2. Standstill.

(a) Notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the Updated Lease, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(b), the Landlord covenants and agrees in favour of the Tenant not to take any action in relation to the Premises that would have been prohibited pursuant to the Restrictive Covenants contained in the Previous Lease.

(b) The Landlord's covenant pursuant to paragraph 2(a) shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(i) the Tenant defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under either one of the leases between the Tenant, as tenant, and the relevant landlord, as landlord relating to any one of the properties know as Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Mapleview Shopping Centre, Southgate Centre, Guildford Town Centre, Place Ste-Foy,

CrossIron Mills, The Outlet Collection at Niagara, Vaughan Mills and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg;

(ii) the Tenant becoming insolvent;

(iii) the Tenant committing any act of bankruptcy, including but not limited to as defined at Section 42(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act;

(iv) the Tenant becoming bankrupt;

(v) the termination of the Updated Lease pursuant to Section 3;

3. Termination of the Updated Lease.

Provided no event set out under paragraph 2(b) has occurred, the parties agree that on November 13, 2028 the Updated Lease shall automatically terminate and be replaced by a new lease (the "Replacement Lease"), the terms and conditions of which shall be the same as the Previous Lease including without limitation any Restrictive Covenant, but with the exception of the expiry of the term which shall not exceed the date on which the Previous Lease would have expired had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, provided the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what was provided in the Previous Lease, and the parties shall be bound by terms of the Replacement Lease. For greater certainty, and as an illustrative example only to further clarify the parties' intent, if the expiry of the term of the Previous Lease was December 31, 2030, and the Updated Lease was executed on February 3, 2024, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on December 31, 2030. In the event that the term of the Previous Lease would have expired prior to November 13, 2028 had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the parties agree that the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on the date on which the term of the Previous Lease would have expired had the Tenant exercised the option to extend available to it at the time of such expiry and the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what would have remained available to the Tenant at the time under the Previous Lease had it not been replaced by the Updated.

The Landlord and the Tenant covenant and agree to sign any document, deliver any instrument and to do all things necessary or useful in order to give effect to the provisions of this Section 3.

For clarity purposes, upon the occurrence of any event set out under paragraph 2(b) on or prior to November 13, 2028, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the Updated Lease shall remain in full force and effect under the terms and conditions set out therein, and the obligation to enter into the Replacement Lease shall become null and void.

4. Transfers.

This Agreement may in no event be transferred or assigned by any party to the Agreement without the other party's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be transferred by the Landlord to a Controlled Affiliate of the Landlord or its successors and assigns, or to a purchaser or acquirer of all or any portion of the Landlord's interest in the Property, provided the Tenant receives written notice of such transfer and the Landlord shall not be released of its obligations under this Agreement.

Representations and Warranties.

(i) The Tenant hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Landlord that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Tenant of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Tenant; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Tenant.

(ii) The Landlord hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Tenant that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and;

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Landlord.

5. Special Notices.

The Tenant will provide the Landlord with:

(i) a 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States;

(ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (a) hereof, to the extent the Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, the Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action;

(iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States; and

(iv) five (5) Business Day prior written notice of the Tenant's signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s).

6. Notice.

LETTER AGREEMENT

THIS LETTER AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of the 1st day of February 2024,

B E T W E E N:

CROSSIRON MILLS HOLDINGS INC.

(the "Landlord")

- and -

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY ULC;

(the "Tenant")

WHEREAS the Landlord and the Tenant were parties to that certain lease agreement dated July 22, 2015, relating to premises (the "Premises") used by the Tenant for the operation of a "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth" store located at the Property, as such lease may have been amended or supplemented from time to time (the "Previous Lease");

WHEREAS on the date hereof, the Landlord and the Tenant have entered into a new lease agreement with respect to the Premises (the "Updated Lease);

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged), the parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

Capitalized terms used in this shall have, for all purposes of this Agreement, the following meanings:

(i) "Agreement" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(ii) "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which Canadian banks are open for business;

(iii) "Controlled Affiliate" means, with respect to the Landlord, any Person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the Landlord, and the term "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of another Person without the consent or approval of any other Person;

(iv) "Landlord" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(v) "Person" means any other individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture or unincorporated organization;

(vi) "Premises" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(vii) "Previous Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(viii) "Property" means the real property located in the City of Calgary, province of Alberta, commonly know as CrossIron Mills;

(ix) "Replacement Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in Section 3;

(x) "Restrictive Covenants" means the rights, conditions, covenants or restrictions relating to parking ratios or no-build zones, or any other provision contained in the Previous Lease purporting to restrict, or which had the effect of restricting the Landlord's capacity to renovate, expand, develop or re-develop the Property (including parceling), as well as any merchandising control rights in favor of the Tenant;

(xi) "Tenant" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto; and

(xii) "Updated Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto.

2. Standstill.

(a) Notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the Updated Lease, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(b), the Landlord covenants and agrees in favour of the Tenant not to take any action in relation to the Premises that would have been prohibited pursuant to the Restrictive Covenants contained in the Previous Lease.

(b) The Landlord's covenant pursuant to paragraph 2(a) shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(i) the Tenant defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under either one of the leases between the Tenant, as tenant, and the relevant landlord, as landlord relating to any one of the properties know as Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Mapleview Shopping Centre, Southgate Centre, Guildford Town Centre, Oshawa Centre,

Place Ste-Foy, The Outlet Collection at Niagara, Vaughan Mills and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg;

(ii) the Tenant becoming insolvent;

(iii) the Tenant committing any act of bankruptcy, including but not limited to as defined at Section 42(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act;

(iv) the Tenant becoming bankrupt;

(v) the termination of the Updated Lease pursuant to Section 3;

3. Termination of the Updated Lease.

Provided no event set out under paragraph 2(b) has occurred, the parties agree that on November 13, 2028 the Updated Lease shall automatically terminate and be replaced by a new lease (the "Replacement Lease"), the terms and conditions of which shall be the same as the Previous Lease including without limitation any Restrictive Covenant, but with the exception of the expiry of the term which shall not exceed the date on which the Previous Lease would have expired had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, provided the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what was provided in the Previous Lease, and the parties shall be bound by terms of the Replacement Lease. For greater certainty, and as an illustrative example only to further clarify the parties' intent, if the expiry of the term of the Previous Lease was December 31, 2030, and the Updated Lease was executed on February 3, 2024, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on December 31, 2030. In the event that the term of the Previous Lease would have expired prior to November 13, 2028 had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the parties agree that the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on the date on which the term of the Previous Lease would have expired had the Tenant exercised the option to extend available to it at the time of such expiry and the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what would have remained available to the Tenant at the time under the Previous Lease had it not been replaced by the Updated.

The Landlord and the Tenant covenant and agree to sign any document, deliver any instrument and to do all things necessary or useful in order to give effect to the provisions of this Section 3.

For clarity purposes, upon the occurrence of any event set out under paragraph 2(b) on or prior to November 13, 2028, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the Updated Lease shall remain in full force and effect under the terms and conditions set out therein, and the obligation to enter into the Replacement Lease shall become null and void.

4. Transfers.

This Agreement may in no event be transferred or assigned by any party to the Agreement without the other party's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be transferred by the Landlord to a Controlled Affiliate of the Landlord or its successors and assigns, or to a purchaser or acquirer of all or any portion of the Landlord's interest in the Property, provided the Tenant receives written notice of such transfer and the Landlord shall not be released of its obligations under this Agreement.

Representations and Warranties.

(i) The Tenant hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Landlord that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Tenant of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Tenant; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Tenant.

(ii) The Landlord hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Tenant that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Landlord of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Landlord; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Landlord.

5. Special Notices.

The Tenant will provide the Landlord with:

(i) a 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States;

(ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (a) hereof, to the extent the Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, the Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action;

(iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States; and

(iv) five (5) Business Day prior written notice of the Tenant's signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s).

6. Notice.

LETTER AGREEMENT

THIS LETTER AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of the 1st day of February 2024,

B E T W E E N:

THE OUTLET COLLECTION (NIAGARA) LIMITED

(the "Landlord")

- and -

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY ULC;

(the "Tenant")

WHEREAS the Landlord and the Tenant were parties to that certain lease agreement dated November 11, 2015, relating to premises (the "Premises") used by the Tenant for the operation of a "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth" store located at the Property, as such lease may have been amended or supplemented from time to time (the "Previous Lease");

WHEREAS on the date hereof, the Landlord and the Tenant have entered into a new lease agreement with respect to the Premises (the "Updated Lease);

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged), the parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

Capitalized terms used in this shall have, for all purposes of this Agreement, the following meanings:

(i) "Agreement" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(ii) "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which Canadian banks are open for business;

(iii) "Controlled Affiliate" means, with respect to the Landlord, any Person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the Landlord, and the term "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of another Person without the consent or approval of any other Person;

(iv) "Landlord" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(v) "Person" means any other individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture or unincorporated organization;

(vi) "Premises" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(vii) "Previous Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(viii) "Property" means the real property located in the City of Niagara-On-The-Lake, province of Ontario, commonly know as the Outlet Collection at Niagara-On-The-Lake;

(ix) "Replacement Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in Section 3;

(x) "Restrictive Covenants" means the rights, conditions, covenants or restrictions relating to parking ratios or no-build zones, or any other provision contained in the Previous Lease purporting to restrict, or which had the effect of restricting the Landlord's capacity to renovate, expand, develop or re-develop the Property (including parceling), as well as any merchandising control rights in favor of the Tenant;

(xi) "Tenant" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto; and

(xii) "Updated Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto.

2. Standstill.

(a) Notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the Updated Lease, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(b), the Landlord covenants and agrees in favour of the Tenant not to take any action in relation to the Premises that would have been prohibited pursuant to the Restrictive Covenants contained in the Previous Lease.

(b) The Landlord's covenant pursuant to paragraph 2(a) shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(i) the Tenant defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under either one of the leases between the Tenant, as tenant, and the relevant landlord, as landlord relating to any one of the properties know as Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Mapleview Shopping Centre, Southgate Centre, Guildford Town Centre, Oshawa Centre,

Place Ste-Foy, CrossIron Mills, Vaughan Mills and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg;

(ii) the Tenant becoming insolvent;

(iii) the Tenant committing any act of bankruptcy, including but not limited to as defined at Section 42(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act;

(iv) the Tenant becoming bankrupt;

(v) the termination of the Updated Lease pursuant to Section 3;

3. Termination of the Updated Lease.

Provided no event set out under paragraph 2(b) has occurred, the parties agree that on November 13, 2028 the Updated Lease shall automatically terminate and be replaced by a new lease (the "Replacement Lease"), the terms and conditions of which shall be the same as the Previous Lease including without limitation any Restrictive Covenant, but with the exception of the expiry of the term which shall not exceed the date on which the Previous Lease would have expired had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, provided the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what was provided in the Previous Lease, and the parties shall be bound by terms of the Replacement Lease. For greater certainty, and as an illustrative example only to further clarify the parties' intent, if the expiry of the term of the Previous Lease was December 31, 2030, and the Updated Lease was executed on February 3, 2024, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on December 31, 2030. In the event that the term of the Previous Lease would have expired prior to November 13, 2028 had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the parties agree that the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on the date on which the term of the Previous Lease would have expired had the Tenant exercised the option to extend available to it at the time of such expiry and the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what would have remained available to the Tenant at the time under the Previous Lease had it not been replaced by the Updated.

The Landlord and the Tenant covenant and agree to sign any document, deliver any instrument and to do all things necessary or useful in order to give effect to the provisions of this Section 3.

For clarity purposes, upon the occurrence of any event set out under paragraph 2(b) on or prior to November 13, 2028, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the Updated Lease shall remain in full force and effect under the terms and conditions set out therein, and the obligation to enter into the Replacement Lease shall become null and void.

4. Transfers.

This Agreement may in no event be transferred or assigned by any party to the Agreement without the other party's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be transferred by the Landlord to a Controlled Affiliate of the Landlord or its successors and assigns, or to a purchaser or acquirer of all or any portion of the Landlord's interest in the Property, provided the Tenant receives written notice of such transfer and the Landlord shall not be released of its obligations under this Agreement.

5. Representations and Warranties.

(i) The Tenant hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Landlord that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Tenant of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Tenant; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Tenant.

(ii) The Landlord hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Tenant that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Landlord of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Landlord; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Landlord.

6. Special Notices.

The Tenant will provide the Landlord with:

(i) a 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States;

(ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (a) hereof, to the extent the Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, the Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action;

(iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States; and

THIS LETTER AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of the 1st day of February 2024,

B E T W E E N:

IVANHOÉ STE-FOY INC.

(the "Landlord")

- and -

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY ULC;

(the "Tenant")

WHEREAS the Landlord and the Tenant were parties to that certain lease agreement dated November 11, 2015, relating to premises (the "Premises") used by the Tenant for the operation of a "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth" store located at the Property, as such lease may have been amended or supplemented from time to time (the "Previous Lease");

WHEREAS on the date hereof, the Landlord and the Tenant have entered into a new lease agreement with respect to the Premises (the "Updated Lease);

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged), the parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

Capitalized terms used in this shall have, for all purposes of this Agreement, the following meanings:

(i) "Agreement" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(ii) "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which Canadian banks are open for business;

(iii) "Controlled Affiliate" means, with respect to the Landlord, any Person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the Landlord, and the term "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of another Person without the consent or approval of any other Person;

(iv) "Landlord" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(v) "Person" means any other individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture or unincorporated organization;

(vi) "Premises" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(vii) "Previous Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(viii) "Property" means the real property located in the City of Quebec, province of Quebec, commonly know as Place Ste-Foy;

(ix) "Replacement Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in Section 3;

(x) "Restrictive Covenants" means the rights, conditions, covenants or restrictions relating to parking ratios or no-build zones, or any other provision contained in the Previous Lease purporting to restrict, or which had the effect of restricting the Landlord's capacity to renovate, expand, develop or re-develop the Property (including parceling), as well as any merchandising control rights in favor of the Tenant;

(xi) "Tenant" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto; and

(xii) "Updated Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto.

2. Standstill.

(a) Notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the Updated Lease, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(b), the Landlord covenants and agrees in favour of the Tenant not to take any action in relation to the Premises that would have been prohibited pursuant to the Restrictive Covenants contained in the Previous Lease.

(b) The Landlord's covenant pursuant to paragraph 2(a) shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(i) the Tenant defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under either one of the leases between the Tenant, as tenant, and the relevant landlord, as landlord relating to any one of the properties know as Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Mapleview Shopping Centre, Southgate Centre, Guildford Town Centre, Oshawa Centre,

CrossIron Mills, The Outlet Collection at Niagara, Vaughan Mills and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg;

(ii) the Tenant becoming insolvent;

(iii) the Tenant committing any act of bankruptcy, including but not limited to as defined at Section 42(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act;

(iv) the Tenant becoming bankrupt;

(v) the termination of the Updated Lease pursuant to Section 3;

3. Termination of the Updated Lease.

Provided no event set out under paragraph 2(b) has occurred, the parties agree that on November 13, 2028 the Updated Lease shall automatically terminate and be replaced by a new lease (the "Replacement Lease"), the terms and conditions of which shall be the same as the Previous Lease including without limitation any Restrictive Covenant, but with the exception of the expiry of the term which shall not exceed the date on which the Previous Lease would have expired had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, provided the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what was provided in the Previous Lease, and the parties shall be bound by terms of the Replacement Lease. For greater certainty, and as an illustrative example only to further clarify the parties' intent, if the expiry of the term of the Previous Lease was December 31, 2030, and the Updated Lease was executed on February 3, 2024, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on December 31, 2030. In the event that the term of the Previous Lease would have expired prior to November 13, 2028 had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the parties agree that the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on the date on which the term of the Previous Lease would have expired had the Tenant exercised the option to extend available to it at the time of such expiry and the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what would have remained available to the Tenant at the time under the Previous Lease had it not been replaced by the Updated.

The Landlord and the Tenant covenant and agree to sign any document, deliver any instrument and to do all things necessary or useful in order to give effect to the provisions of this Section 3.

For clarity purposes, upon the occurrence of any event set out under paragraph 2(b) on or prior to November 13, 2028, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the Updated Lease shall remain in full force and effect under the terms and conditions set out therein, and the obligation to enter into the Replacement Lease shall become null and void.

4. Transfers.

This Agreement may in no event be transferred or assigned by any party to the Agreement without the other party's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be transferred by the Landlord to a Controlled Affiliate of the Landlord or its successors and assigns, or to a purchaser or acquirer of all or any portion of the Landlord's interest in the Property, provided the Tenant receives written notice of such transfer and the Landlord shall not be released of its obligations under this Agreement.

5. Representations and Warranties.

(i) The Tenant hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Landlord that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Tenant of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Tenant; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Tenant.

(ii) The Landlord hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Tenant that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Landlord of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Landlord; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Landlord.

6. Special Notices.

The Tenant will provide the Landlord with:

(i) a 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States;

(ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (a) hereof, to the extent the Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, the Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action;

(iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States; and

(iv) five (5) Business Day prior written notice of the Tenant's signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s).

7. Notice.

LETTER AGREEMENT

THIS LETTER AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of the 1st day of February 2024,

B E T W E E N:

IVANHOE CAMBRIDGE II INC. and TRE2 NON-US – BIGFOOT CORP.

(the "Landlord")

- and -

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY ULC;

(the "Tenant")

WHEREAS the Landlord and the Tenant were parties to that certain lease agreement dated February 23, 2009, relating to premises (the "Premises") used by the Tenant for the operation of a "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth" store located at the Property, as such lease may have been amended or supplemented from time to time (the "Previous Lease");

WHEREAS on the date hereof, the Landlord and the Tenant have entered into a new lease agreement with respect to the Premises (the "Updated Lease);

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged), the parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

Capitalized terms used in this shall have, for all purposes of this Agreement, the following meanings:

(i) "Agreement" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(ii) "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which Canadian banks are open for business;

(iii) "Controlled Affiliate" means, with respect to the Landlord, any Person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the Landlord, and the term "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of another Person without the consent or approval of any other Person;

(iv) "Landlord" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(v) "Person" means any other individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture or unincorporated organization;

(vi) "Premises" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(vii) "Previous Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(viii) "Property" means the real property located in the City of Vaughan, province of Ontario, commonly know as Vaughan Mills;

(ix) "Replacement Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in Section 3;

(x) "Restrictive Covenants" means the rights, conditions, covenants or restrictions relating to parking ratios or no-build zones, or any other provision contained in the Previous Lease purporting to restrict, or which had the effect of restricting the Landlord's capacity to renovate, expand, develop or re-develop the Property (including parceling), as well as any merchandising control rights in favor of the Tenant;

(xi) "Tenant" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto; and

(xii) "Updated Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto.

2. Standstill.

(a) Notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the Updated Lease, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(b), the Landlord covenants and agrees in favour of the Tenant not to take any action in relation to the Premises that would have been prohibited pursuant to the Restrictive Covenants contained in the Previous Lease.

(b) The Landlord's covenant pursuant to paragraph 2(a) shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(i) the Tenant defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under either one of the leases between the Tenant, as tenant, and the relevant landlord, as landlord relating to any one of the properties know as Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Mapleview Shopping Centre, Southgate Centre, Guildford Town Centre, Oshawa Centre,

Place Ste-Foy, CrossIron Mills, The Outlet Collection at Niagara and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg;

(ii) the Tenant becoming insolvent;

(iii) the Tenant committing any act of bankruptcy, including but not limited to as defined at Section 42(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act;

(iv) the Tenant becoming bankrupt;

(v) the termination of the Updated Lease pursuant to Section 3;

3. Termination of the Updated Lease.

Provided no event set out under paragraph 2(b) has occurred, the parties agree that on November 13, 2028 the Updated Lease shall automatically terminate and be replaced by a new lease (the "Replacement Lease"), the terms and conditions of which shall be the same as the Previous Lease including without limitation any Restrictive Covenant, but with the exception of the expiry of the term which shall not exceed the date on which the Previous Lease would have expired had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, provided the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what was provided in the Previous Lease, and the parties shall be bound by terms of the Replacement Lease. For greater certainty, and as an illustrative example only to further clarify the parties' intent, if the expiry of the term of the Previous Lease was December 31, 2030, and the Updated Lease was executed on February 3, 2024, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on December 31, 2030. In the event that the term of the Previous Lease would have expired prior to November 13, 2028 had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the parties agree that the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on the date on which the term of the Previous Lease would have expired had the Tenant exercised the option to extend available to it at the time of such expiry and the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what would have remained available to the Tenant at the time under the Previous Lease had it not been replaced by the Updated.

The Landlord and the Tenant covenant and agree to sign any document, deliver any instrument and to do all things necessary or useful in order to give effect to the provisions of this Section 3.

For clarity purposes, upon the occurrence of any event set out under paragraph 2(b) on or prior to November 13, 2028, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the Updated Lease shall remain in full force and effect under the terms and conditions set out therein, and the obligation to enter into the Replacement Lease shall become null and void.

4. Transfers.

This Agreement may in no event be transferred or assigned by any party to the Agreement without the other party's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be transferred by the Landlord to a Controlled Affiliate of the Landlord or its successors and assigns, or to a purchaser or acquirer of all or any portion of the Landlord's interest in the Property, provided the Tenant receives written notice of such transfer and the Landlord shall not be released of its obligations under this Agreement.

5. Representations and Warranties.

(i) The Tenant hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Landlord that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Tenant of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Tenant; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Tenant.

(ii) The Landlord hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Tenant that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Landlord of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Landlord; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Landlord.

6. Special Notices.

The Tenant will provide the Landlord with:

(i) a 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States;

(ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (a) hereof, to the extent the Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, the Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action;

(iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States; and

(iv) five (5) Business Day prior written notice of the Tenant's signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s).

7. Notice.

Any notice or other communication to be given to the Tenant under or in connection with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be given by personal delivery during regular business hours on any Business Day or by registered mail addressed or sent as set out below or to such other address as may from time to time be the subject of a Notice:

LETTER AGREEMENT

THIS LETTER AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of the 1st day of February 2024,

B E T W E E N:

THE OUTLET COLLECTION AT WINNIPEG LIMITED and SEASONS RETAIL CORP.

(the "Landlord")

- and -

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY ULC;

(the "Tenant")

WHEREAS the Landlord and the Tenant were parties to that certain lease agreement dated November 11, 2015, relating to premises (the "Premises") used by the Tenant for the operation of a "Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth" store located at the Property, as such lease may have been amended or supplemented from time to time (the "Previous Lease");

WHEREAS on the date hereof, the Landlord and the Tenant have entered into a new lease agreement with respect to the Premises (the "Updated Lease);

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged), the parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

Capitalized terms used in this shall have, for all purposes of this Agreement, the following meanings:

(i) "Agreement" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(ii) "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which Canadian banks are open for business;

(iii) "Controlled Affiliate" means, with respect to the Landlord, any Person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the Landlord, and the term "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of another Person without the consent or approval of any other Person;

(iv) "Landlord" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the preamble hereto;

(v) "Person" means any other individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture or unincorporated organization;

(vi) "Premises" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(vii) "Previous Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto;

(viii) "Property" means the real property located in the City of Winnipeg, province of Manitoba, commonly know as The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg;

(ix) "Replacement Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in Section 3;

(x) "Restrictive Covenants" means the rights, conditions, covenants or restrictions relating to parking ratios or no-build zones, or any other provision contained in the Previous Lease purporting to restrict, or which had the effect of restricting the Landlord's capacity to renovate, expand, develop or re-develop the Property (including parceling), as well as any merchandising control rights in favor of the Tenant;

(xi) "Tenant" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto; and

(xii) "Updated Lease" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals hereto.

2. Standstill.

(a) Notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the Updated Lease, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(b), the Landlord covenants and agrees in favour of the Tenant not to take any action in relation to the Premises that would have been prohibited pursuant to the Restrictive Covenants contained in the Previous Lease.

(b) The Landlord's covenant pursuant to paragraph 2(a) shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(i) the Tenant defaulting under any of its monetary obligations (beyond any applicable cure period) under either one of the leases between the Tenant, as tenant, and the relevant landlord, as landlord relating to any one of the properties know as Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Mapleview Shopping Centre, Southgate Centre, Guildford Town Centre, Oshawa Centre,

Place Ste-Foy, CrossIron Mills, The Outlet Collection at Niagara and Vaughan Mills;

(ii) the Tenant becoming insolvent;

(iii) the Tenant committing any act of bankruptcy, including but not limited to as defined at Section 42(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act;

(iv) the Tenant becoming bankrupt;

(v) the termination of the Updated Lease pursuant to Section 3;

3. Termination of the Updated Lease.

Provided no event set out under paragraph 2(b) has occurred, the parties agree that on November 13, 2028 the Updated Lease shall automatically terminate and be replaced by a new lease (the "Replacement Lease"), the terms and conditions of which shall be the same as the Previous Lease including without limitation any Restrictive Covenant, but with the exception of the expiry of the term which shall not exceed the date on which the Previous Lease would have expired had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, provided the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what was provided in the Previous Lease, and the parties shall be bound by terms of the Replacement Lease. For greater certainty, and as an illustrative example only to further clarify the parties' intent, if the expiry of the term of the Previous Lease was December 31, 2030, and the Updated Lease was executed on February 3, 2024, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on December 31, 2030. In the event that the term of the Previous Lease would have expired prior to November 13, 2028 had it not been replaced by the Updated Lease, upon termination of the Updated Lease on November 13, 2028 pursuant to this Section 3, the parties agree that the term of the Replacement Lease shall expire on the date on which the term of the Previous Lease would have expired had the Tenant exercised the option to extend available to it at the time of such expiry and the Replacement Lease shall provide for options to extend in favour of the Tenant consistent with what would have remained available to the Tenant at the time under the Previous Lease had it not been replaced by the Updated.

The Landlord and the Tenant covenant and agree to sign any document, deliver any instrument and to do all things necessary or useful in order to give effect to the provisions of this Section 3.

For clarity purposes, upon the occurrence of any event set out under paragraph 2(b) on or prior to November 13, 2028, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the Updated Lease shall remain in full force and effect under the terms and conditions set out therein, and the obligation to enter into the Replacement Lease shall become null and void.

4. Transfers.

This Agreement may in no event be transferred or assigned by any party to the Agreement without the other party's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be transferred by the Landlord to a Controlled Affiliate of the Landlord or its successors and assigns, or to a purchaser or acquirer of all or any portion of the Landlord's interest in the Property, provided the Tenant receives written notice of such transfer and the Landlord shall not be released of its obligations under this Agreement.

5. Representations and Warranties.

(i) The Tenant hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Landlord that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Tenant of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Tenant; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Tenant.

(ii) The Landlord hereby represents and warrants to and in favour of the Tenant that:

(i) it is validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder, to carry out its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by the Landlord of this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite actions on the part of the Landlord; and

(iv) this Agreement and the documents to be delivered hereunder have been duly executed and delivered by the Landlord.

6. Special Notices.

The Tenant will provide the Landlord with:

(i) a 30-day prior written notice of Tenant's intention to seek any form of relief pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States;

(ii) notwithstanding subparagraph (a) hereof, to the extent the Tenant should decide to seek such relief on a more immediate basis, the Tenant shall provide written notice within 24 hours of any resolution approving such action;

(iii) immediate (and no more than 24 hours) notice of any creditor or other party serving or proving notice of any proceeding against or in respect of the Tenant pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation in Canada and/or in the United States; and

(iv) five (5) Business Day prior written notice of the Tenant's signing of a forbearance agreement with one or more creditor(s).

7. Notice.

Any notice or other communication to be given to the Tenant under or in connection with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be given by personal delivery during regular business hours on any Business Day or by registered mail addressed or sent as set out below or to such other address as may from time to time be the subject of a Notice:

Dear Sir/Madam:

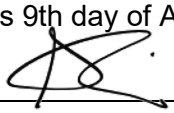
Re: Standstill Agreements dated February 1, 2024 (the "Standstill Agreements")

It has come to the attention of Ivanhoe Cambridge Inc. and its relevant affiliates and subsidiaries ("Landlord") that Hudson's Bay Company ULC (and/or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries) ("HBC") are failing to pay their contractual rent in various locations of HBC's portfolio, including, without limitation, premises at properties within Landlord's portfolio known as: Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Mapleview Shopping Centre, Guildford Town Centre, Place Ste-Foy, CrossIron Mills, The Outlet Collection at Niagara, Vaughan Mills, and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg. HBC has ceased to meet its liabilities generally as they come due and has committed an act of bankruptcy as defined in section 42(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act.

HBC entered into seven Standstill Agreements on February 1, 2024 (the "Standstill Agreements") with Landlord related to nine leases between HBC and the relevant landlord as landlord (the "Leases") for premises at properties known as: Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Mapleview Shopping Centre, Guildford Town Centre, Place Ste-Foy, CrossIron Mills, The Outlet Collection at Niagara, Vaughan Mills, and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg.

Pursuant to articles 2(b)(ii) of the Standstill Agreements, the Landlord's covenants in articles 2(a) of the Standstill Agreements have automatically terminated and are of no further force and effect.

The Landlord also takes this opportunity to remind HBC of its notification obligations under section 19.03 (d) of the Leases and section 6 of the Standstill Agreements.



This notice is without prejudice to any other rights of the Landlord under the Leases, the Standstill Agreements and/or at law.

Yours very truly,

James Bunting

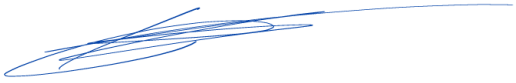
Dear Nick,

Re: Automatic Termination of Standstill Agreements

We are in receipt of your letter dated March 8, 2025, which is unfair in its characterization of Ivanhoe's actions and legally inaccurate.

It is inaccurate to state that Ivanhoe took action in breach of the "Initial Order" for several reasons.

First, it is incorrect to describe the March 7 Letter as "purport[ing] to terminate" the Standstill Agreements. Ivanhoe wrote on March 7 (the "March 7 Letter") to advise that certain covenants in the Standstill Agreements (as defined in the March 7 Letter) had automatically terminated. This automatic termination occurred prior to March 7 when HBC ceased meeting its contractual obligations. The letter was sent as a courtesy, not to effect a termination that had already occurred.



Second, we trust that your letter in no way intended to suggest that our clients intentionally breached a court order. To the extent that is HBC's position, the suggestion that a party can act in breach of a court order about which it has no knowledge and which purports to have retroactive effect is legally untenable. The fundamental principles of procedural fairness that underpin the judicial process in Canada retain their place in proceedings commenced under the CCAA, including the requirement of notice when substantive rights are affected.[1]

Finally, our clients disagree that the relevant covenants in the Standstill Agreements are valid and binding. They have been terminated and/or are of no force and effect. The termination occurred prior to the date of the issuance of the Initial Order and the Initial Order does not renew or restore these covenants.

The issue raised in your letter (that the covenants in the Standstill Agreements have not terminated) may need to be addressed with the Court in due course. There is, however, no immediate need to address the position set out in your letter as our clients do not intend to take any steps or actions at this time resulting from the automatic termination of the covenants in the Standstill Agreements. Without prejudice to our clients' position, we will provide reasonable notice before our clients intend to take any such steps. We otherwise reserve all rights to address these issues before the Court, and would be pleased to speak with you about a schedule for doing so.

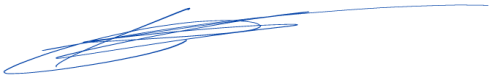
Dear Mr. Avis,

Re: Potential Marketing of Leases for which Ivanhoe is Landlord

We write further to our letters of March 7, 2025 and March 14, 2025, in our capacity as counsel for Ivanhoe Cambridge Inc. and its relevant affiliates and subsidiaries ("Ivanhoe"). Copies of both letters are enclosed.

As was detailed in our previous correspondence, HBC entered into seven Standstill Agreements on February 1, 2024 (the "Standstill Agreements") with Ivanhoe, related to nine leases between HBC as tenant and Ivanhoe as landlord (the "Leases") for premises at properties known as: Metropolis at Metrotown, Galeries d'Anjou, Mapleview Shopping Centre, Guildford Town Centre, Place Ste-Foy, CrossIron Mills, The Outlet Collection at Niagara, Vaughan Mills, and The Outlet Collection at Winnipeg. As also stated in our previous correspondence, the covenants contained in section 2(a) of the Standstill Agreements are no longer in effect.

We understand from materials filed by HBC in the ongoing CCAA proceeding, as well as statements made by counsel before Justice Osborne during that proceeding, that HBC intends to market all of its leases.



Without prejudice to any position Ivanhoe might take regarding HBC's ability to market, assign, or transfer any of the Leases, we write to ensure that any marketing efforts undertaken by HBC disclose clearly that our client has provided written notice that the covenants contained in section 2(a) of the Standstill Agreements are no longer in effect, and that section 3.05(A) of the Leases (for those that contain a section 3.05(A)) similarly no longer operates.

This letter is without prejudice to any other rights of Ivanhoe under the Leases, the Standstill Agreements and/or at law, whether against HBC or any potential purchaser or assignee.

We ask that a copy of this letter be placed in the files for each of the Leases and made accessible to persons who are granted access to the electronic data room to review the lease documents pursuant to the anticipated Lease Monetization Process and SISP Process.

We have copied the Monitor.

Yours very truly,

James Bunting

Jay Freedman
Oberfeld Snowcap Inc.
121 King Street West, Suite 1800
Toronto, ON M5H 3T9
Email: jay@oberfeldsnowcap.com

Dear Mr. Freedman,

Re: Marketing of Saks Leases for which Ivanhoe is Landlord

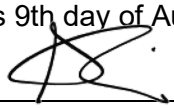
We write in our capacity as counsel to Ivanhoé Cambridge Inc. and its relevant affiliates and subsidiaries ("Ivanhoe") in the proceedings concerning HBC's application under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, RSC 1985, c C-36. We understand that Oberfeld Snowcap Inc. ("Oberfeld") has been appointed as Broker to HBC in respect of the court-ordered Lease Monetization Process.

We understand that Oberfeld is currently marketing nine leases through the Lease Monetization Process for which HBC is tenant and Ivanhoe is landlord (the "Leases"). HBC operates stores under the business name "Saks OFF 5th" or "Saks Fifth Avenue OFF 5th" pursuant to five of those Leases, described in exhibit C to the Lease Monetization Order dated March 21, 2025 as being located in the centres (i) Outlet Collection at Niagara, (ii) Vaughan Mills, (iii) Crossiron Mills; (iv) Outlet Collection Winnipeg; and (v) Place Ste-Foy (together, the "Saks Leases").

On November 14, 2023, HBC and Ivanhoe entered into an Option Agreement pursuant to which, inter alia, if Ivanhoe chose to exercise a certain option defined as the "Saks Option", the gross rent for all five Saks Leases would increase by an aggregate annual amount of $3,000,000. Under the terms of the Saks Option, the allocation of the $3,000,000 among the five Saks Leases is entirely at Ivanhoe's discretion (the "Allocation"), and Ivanhoe has the further entirely discretionary right, at any time, and from time to time, to change the Allocation. Ivanhoe exercised the Saks Option through a Notice of Exercise on January 31, 2024. The initial Allocation is set out therein.

Without prejudice to any position Ivanhoe might take regarding HBC's ability to market, assign, or transfer any of the Leases, including the Saks Leases, we write to ensure that this information is disclosed to any potential bidders. In that regard, we ask that copies of the relevant contractual agreements (including but not limited to the Option Agreement dated November 14, 2023 and the Notice of Exercise dated January 31, 2024), as well as a copy of this letter, be made accessible to persons who are granted access to the electronic data room to review the lease documents pursuant to the Lease Monetization Process and SISP Process.

This letter is without prejudice to any other rights of Ivanhoe under any agreements, including the Saks Leases, and/or at law, whether against HBC or any potential purchaser or assignee.



We have copied the Monitor.

Yours very truly,

James Bunting

Dear Mr. Taylor:

Re: HBC Motion for Approval of Central Walk APA – Document Request of Ivanhoe Cambridge Inc.

As you heard in court this morning and as expressed in our letter of last evening, the absence of notice from the Applicants or the Monitor to our client of the intention to seek the declaratory relief set out in section 1(c) of the Applicants' Notice of Motion before scheduling the return of the Central Walk motion is problematic. This issue is not intermingled with the others under a compressed schedule. It could have been managed proactively and collaboratively.

This letter raises two issues that require your immediate attention and response.

Nature of the Relief

The material filed raises several questions about the relief that is being sought, as do the representations made to the Court today by counsel for the Applicants. We note the following discrepancies and lack of clarity in the motion material:

- The Notice of Motion seeks an order: "declaring that certain portions of sections 3.05 and 3.05(A) of the IC Leases are in breach of section 34 of the CCAA and are therefore unenforceable…" [emphasis added];
- Footnote 2 of the Applicants' Notice of Motion refers to "modifications to the IC Leases";

- The July 29, 2025 Affidavit of Mr. Perugini states in footnote 3: “With respect to the IC Leases (as defined in the Central Walk APA), Central Walk proposes to assume the IC Leases without sections 3.05 and 3.05(A) to same”;
- The Business Plan of Ruby Liu Commercial Investment Corp., attached as Exhibit A to the July 29, 2025 Affidavit of Weihong (Ruby) Liu, repeatedly states: “Ivanhoe leases to be assumed on the original lease terms as per the APA.”

Could the Applicants and the Monitor please provide the exact relief and, in particular, the form of order that is being sought in respect of section 1(c) of the Notice of Motion. In light of the accelerated schedule, we ask this be provided forthwith and in any event within 24 hours.

Production of Documents

The declaratory relief raises several issues that now must be adjudicated under the accelerated schedule, not limited to the following: (i) when did the Applicants determine that they would seek protection under the CCAA (see section 5(a) of the Standstill Agreements); (ii) on what date did the Applicants fail to meet their obligations as they came due; (iii) at what exact time was the Application for protection under the CCAA filed; (iv) what was the Applicants’ understanding of the enforceability of sections 3.05 and 3.05(A) in the lead up to and on execution of the relevant Standstill Agreements and Leases; and (v) what did the Applicants (independently and through Oberfeld) represent to potential purchasers about the enforceability of sections 3.05 and 3.05(A) of the Leases.

In light of this and other issues that are now in play, please produce to us forthwith the following material:

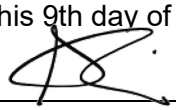
- All internal correspondence of the Applicants or between the Applicants and other parties, related to:
    - the negotiation and execution of the Option Agreement dated November 14, 2023, including as referred to at paragraph 50 of the July 29, 2025 Affidavit of Mr. Perugini;
    - the negotiation and execution of the “IC Leases” and the Standstill Agreements, including as referred to at paragraph 54 of the July 29, 2025 Affidavit of Mr. Perugini;

- the decision to seek protection under the CCAA;
- HBC failing to meet its obligations as they came due, including as referred to at paragraphs 18-19 of the March 7, 2025 Affidavit of Jennifer Bewley;
- The letters from Tyr LLP dated March 7, March 14, and March 20, 2025;
- Section 3.05 and section 3.05(A) of the Leases or to the Standstill Agreements;

- All correspondence between the Applicants and other parties, related to:
  - the negotiation and execution of the Option Agreement dated November 14, 2023, including as referred to at paragraph 50 of the July 29, 2025 Affidavit of Mr. Perugini;
  - the negotiation and execution of the "IC Leases" and the Standstill Agreements, including as referred to at paragraph 54 of the July 29, 2025 Affidavit of Mr. Perugini
  - the decision to seek protection under the CCAA
  - HBC failing to meet its obligations as they came due, including as referred to at paragraphs 18-19 of the March 7, 2025 Affidavit of Jennifer Bewley
  - The letters from Tyr LLP dated March 7, March 14, and March 20, 2025
  - Section 3.05 and section 3.05(A) of the Leases or to the Standstill Agreements
- Any document reflecting the exact time on which the Applicants' March 7, 2025 Application for protection under the CCAA was filed with the Court.
- All documents, including but not limited to internal correspondence among any of the Applicants or between any of the Applicants and other parties, related to our letters of March 7, March 14, and March 20, 2025;
- All documents, including but not limited to internal correspondence among any of the Applicants or between any of the Applicants and other parties, related to section 3.05 and section 3.05(A) of the Leases or to the Standstill Agreements;
- All correspondence among the Applicants, Oberfeld and the prospective Central Walk purchasers (or related entities including Ms. Liu) related to section 3.05 and section 3.05(A) of the Leases.

Please provide production on a rolling basis and in any event confirm that the Applicants will make production no later than August 6, 2025.

To the extent the Applicants fail to produce the requested records or refuse to do so, we reserve our right to ask for appropriate adverse inferences to be drawn from the Applicants' failure to comply with its production obligations under the compressed timetable forced upon our client as a result of the failure of the Applicants to fairly or promptly notify us of the declaratory relief sought in the Notice of Motion and provided for in the APA executed in late May 2025.



Yours very truly,

James Bunting

Attention: James Bunting

Dear Mr. Bunting:

Re: HBC Motion for Approval of Central Walk APA – Document Request

We write in response to your letter of July 31, 2025 (the "Document Request"). We have already responded to your request for clarification on the nature of the relief sought in respect of the IC Leases (the "IC Leases Relief") and directed you to the draft form of order that we served with our motion materials on July 29, 2025. This letter responds to the balance of your production requests in the Document Request.

We disagree as to the issues you say must now be adjudicated as a result of the Applicants seeking the IC Leases Relief. In particular, the circumstances of the negotiation and execution of the Option Agreement, the IC Leases and the Standstill Agreements and the Applicants' views on their enforceability are not relevant in light of the test well established by the Supreme Court of Canada in Chandos Construction Ltd. v Deloitte Restructuring Inc., 2020 SCC 25. Similarly, the circumstances surrounding the Applicants' decision to seek protection under the CCAA are not relevant to any issue surrounding the determination of the IC Leases Relief. To the extent it is helpful, we can advise that the Initial Order granted by the Court on March 7, 2025 was effective as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Standard/Daylight Time on that date.

In addition to not being relevant, the materials you requested would require significant effort to identify, collect, review for privilege, and produce. Given the limited (if any) relevance of these documents, complying with your request would impose an undue burden on the Applicants and materially increase costs to the estate — a result that is contrary to the objectives of the CCAA.

The Ontario Commercial List routinely limits discovery and production obligations in CCAA proceedings to what is clearly relevant, necessary, and proportionate to the motion or relief being considered. Your request exceeds that threshold and is unreasonable given the Court-ordered compressed timeline. In our view, the breadth and nature of your request suggest an effort to conduct a fishing expedition rather than a focused inquiry tied to the motion.

Accordingly, the Applicants will not be producing the requested documents at this time. Should you wish to propose a revised request that is narrowly tailored, clearly relevant, and proportional to the relief at issue, we remain willing to consider it.

Yours truly,

Stikeman Elliott LLP

Dear Ms. Konyukhova:

Re: HBC Motion for Approval of Central Walk APA – Document Request

I write in response to your letter of earlier today. Thank you for your response.

In our view, the position of the Applicants is unreasonable and inappropriate, both as a matter of law and process. While the declaratory relief sought by the Applicants is flawed in law and could be dismissed on that basis alone, this is an important and material issue for our client, as outlined in our communications beginning in March 2025. Our client is not required to limit its response and defense to the purely legal issue the Applicants believe is in play. Indeed, it is not for the Applicants to force an expedited schedule on the parties and then unilaterally decide what is and is not relevant based solely on the position the Applicants intend to advance. In this regard, to ensure there is no confusion or misunderstanding on the part of the Applicants, the requested documents are relevant to the following:

(i) The surrounding factual matrix and interpretation of the provisions in issue. These provisions must be interpreted before the Court can consider whether and to what extent s. 34 of the CCAA is applicable;

(ii) Whether the Applicants complied with their obligations in the lead up to the CCAA filing, which is relevant to and has consequences in respect of the requested declaration, including whether the Standstill Agreements were lawfully terminated prior to the initial filing.

(iii) Whether the circumstances of this case permit the invocation (or in this case weaponization) of s. 34 of the CCAA in a manner that is inconsistent with the knowledge and understanding of the Applicants and its fulcrum creditor.

Considering the expedited schedule and the Court's direction to proceed under this schedule, we invite the Applicants – taking guidance from the Monitor – to reconsider their position. At a minimum, and without prejudice to our position that our document request is proportional, fair and appropriate, please confirm that the Applicants will produce by the end of the day on Monday the following:

- Correspondence reflecting when the Applicants made the decision to file for CCAA protection;
- Any document reflecting the exact time at which the Applicants' March 7, 2025 Application for protection under the CCAA was filed with the Court, including any email to the Court filing the initial application electronically;
- Correspondence reflecting when HBC began failing to meet its obligations as they came due as discussed in paragraph 19 of the March 29, 2025 Affidavit of Jennifer Bewley, including when HBC began to "defer certain payments for many months" and when it became "unable to pay certain critical trade creditors in the ordinary course of business"
- Any notice of default delivered by Pathlight to the Applicants prior to March 7, 2025;
- In the period prior to December 23, 2024, any documentation reflecting disclosure to Pathlight of the Option Agreement dated November 14, 2023, the leases defined as the "IC Leases" in paragraph 54 of the July 29, 2025 Affidavit of Franco Perugini, or the letter agreements defined as the "Standstill Agreements" in the same paragraph;
- Correspondence among the Applicants, Oberfeld and the prospective Central Walk purchasers (or related entities including Ms. Liu) related to section 3.05 and section 3.05(A) of the Leases.

If the Applicants maintain their refusal to produce relevant documents, we will consider whether a motion for direction is practical in the circumstances and otherwise fully reserve our right to seek appropriate adverse inferences from the refusal and/or request that the hearing be adjourned, and the Applicants ordered to make proper production.

Yours very truly,

James Bunting
