- a. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference to Bankruptcy Judges of the District Court for the Southern District of New York, dated January 31, 2012 (Preska, C.J.).
- b. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(P).
- c. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1410(1) and (3).
- d. The Foreign Representative is the duly appointed "foreign representative" of the Debtors, as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(24).

³ The findings and conclusions set forth herein constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, or any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

- e. These chapter 15 cases were properly commenced pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 1504, 1509 and 1515.
- f. The Foreign Representative has satisfied the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 1515 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(a)(4) and 2002(q).
- g. The Debtors have satisfied the eligibility requirements of 11 U.S.C. §§ 109(a) and 1517(a).
- h. The Canadian Proceedings currently pending before the Canadian Court and provisions made thereunder for the protection, administration and distribution of the Debtors' assets, are "foreign proceedings," as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(23).
- i. The Canadian Proceedings are pending in the country where each Debtor's center of main interests is located, are "foreign main proceedings," as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 1502(4), and are entitled to recognition as "foreign main proceedings" pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1517(b)(1).
- j. This Court entered an Order on April 24, 2024 that shortened notice for the conduct of the Hearing on the relief sought in the Verified Petition and that specified the persons to whom notice was to be given. Notice was given in accordance with this Court's Order, and no objections to the recognition of the Canadian Proceedings has been filed.
- k. The Canadian Proceedings are entitled to recognition by this Court pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1517.
- l. On April 24, 2024, the Canadian Court entered the Initial CCAA Order, pursuant to which, among other things, Ted Baker Canada and Ted Baker Limited were authorized to incur the Interim Borrowings, which mature on May 8, 2024 and are secured by the Interim Lender's Charge on the Property (as defined in the Initial CCAA Order) of each of the Debtors.

- m. Later on April 24, 2024, this Court entered the Provisional Relief Order, which was amended in minor respects on April 26, 2024. The Provisional Relief Order stated, among other things, that to the extent the Court's approval was required the Debtors were authorized to obtain the Interim Borrowings subject to and secured by the Interim Lender's Charge, to apply the Interim Lender's Charge to the Debtors' assets located in the United States, and to confirm that the Interim Lender's existing liens and security interests shall apply with respect to the Interim Borrowings, in each case in accordance with the terms set forth in paragraphs 34 to 38 of the Initial CCAA Order. The Provisional Relief Order further provided that, "if and when recognition of the Canadian Proceedings is granted, and if and when the Initial CCAA Order is made enforceable in the United States, the [Interim] Lender shall be entitled to the protections of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code."
- n. On May 3, 2024, the Canadian Court entered the ARIO. The Canadian Court found that the approval of a modest proposed KERP (covering eight employees with a maximum cost of $250,000) was necessary and appropriate. Furthermore, the Canadian Court found that the Debtors required additional financing in order to continue with their efforts to maximize the values of their assets and thereby to maximize the recoveries for all constituents in the Canadian Proceedings.
- o. Accordingly, the ARIO, among other things, (i) approved the KERP, (ii) authorized and empowered Ted Baker Canada and Ted Baker Limited to obtain and borrow under a credit facility on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the DIP Term Sheet, provided that principal borrowings under such credit facility shall not, individually or in the aggregate, exceed USD $28,000,000 unless permitted by further Order of the Canadian Court, (iii) authorized and directed each of the Debtors to pay and perform all of its DIP Financing Obligations to the DIP Lender under and pursuant to the DIP Term Sheet and the Definitive Documents (such facility, the “DIP Facility”) as and when the same become due and are to be performed, (iv) as security for the DIP Financing Obligations (but, for the avoidance of doubt, no obligations incurred before the entry of the ARIO), the ARIO granted the DIP Lender the DIP Lender’s Charge on the Debtors’ Property, having the characteristics, attributes, and priority as set forth in the ARIO, including paragraphs 45-53 therein, and (v) as further provided in paragraph 39 of the ARIO, provides that the Interim Lender’s Charge shall be terminated, released and discharged upon indefeasible payment in full of the Interim Borrowing Obligations from proceeds of the First Advance (as defined in the DIP Term Sheet), without any other act or formality.

- p. In addition to the DIP Lender’s Charge and Interim Lender’s Charge, the ARIO also provides for additional Charges with respect to the Debtors’ Property—the Administration Charge, Directors’ Charge, and KERP Charge, with all Charges having the respective characteristics, attributes, priorities, and limitations set forth in the ARIO, including specifically, paragraphs 48-53 therein. The Directors’ Charge and KERP Charge are subordinate to the Administration Charge, DIP Lender’s Charge, Interim Lender’s Charge, and the security granted by the Debtors with respect to the Existing Credit Facility (excluding the Interim Borrowings) (the “Existing Secured Lender Protections”).

- q. In the ARIO, the Canadian Court requested the aid and recognition of courts in the United States in enforcing and carrying out the relief granted in the ARIO.
- r. The relief granted herein is necessary to implement the ARIO as it relates to the Debtors and their assets that are within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, including the proceeds thereof (the “US Property”), and is a condition precedent to the Debtors’ ability to draw on the DIP Facility.
- s. On May 9, 2024, the Court entered an Order [Docket No. 44] (the “Initial Recognition Order”) which granted, on a final basis, all relief sought in the Verified Petition, except for the following relief, which the Court authorized and granted on an interim basis: the relief granted in the ARIO with respect to (i) the KERP and any non-financing components of the ARIO that involve the use of the US Property other than in the ordinary course of business under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (ii) the DIP Facility and repayment of Interim Borrowings Obligations pursuant to, and consistent with, the ARIO and the DIP Term Sheet (as defined in the ARIO), and the indemnity and releases contained therein (the foregoing (i) and (ii), collectively, the “Interim ARIO Relief”). In the Initial Recognition Order, the Court found, among other things, that immediate and irreparable harm would result if the Court were not to grant the Interim ARIO Relief on an interim basis.
- t. The Initial Recognition Order further provided that, on an interim basis, the Debtors were authorized to implement the KERP and obtain financing in accordance with and in the amounts set forth in the ARIO. In connection therewith, the Court recognized and gave force and effect to (a) the KERP Charge, as defined in the ARIO and as applied to the US Property, as security for amounts payable to the Key Employees in accordance with and pursuant to the KERP, subject to the priorities, terms and conditions of the ARIO; and (b) the Interim Lender's Charge and the DIP Lender's Charge, each as defined in the ARIO, which applies to all of the US Property, subject to the priorities, terms, and conditions of the ARIO, to secure current and future amounts outstanding under the Debtors' Interim Borrowing Obligations and the DIP Facility.

- u. As set forth the Initial Recognition Order, the Court scheduled May 17, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. (ET) (the "Final Hearing"), as the final hearing to consider granting the Interim ARIO Relief on a final basis, and established May 15, 2024, at 4:00 p.m. (ET) (the "Objection Deadline") as the deadline for filing any objections to granting the Interim ARIO Relief on a final basis. The Initial Recognition Order expressly provided that if no objections were filed on or before the Objection Deadline, the Court may enter an order granting the Interim ARIO Relief on a final basis without further notice or hearing.
- v. The Foreign Representative provided appropriate and sufficient notice of the Court's entry of the Initial Recognition Order and the scheduling of the Final Hearing to consider granting the Interim ARIO Relief on a final basis and the Objection Deadline thereto, which notice prominently stated that if no objections to granting the Interim ARIO Relief on a final basis were timely filed and served on or before the Objection Deadline, that the Court may grant, anytime after the Objection Deadline, the relief requested without a hearing or further notice. [See Docket Nos. 46, 47 and 48].

- w. As set forth in the Certificate of Counsel dated May 16, 2024 (the “COC”) filed by the Foreign Representative’s counsel, no objections or responses to granting the Interim ARIIO Relief provided in the Initial Recognition Order on a final basis have been filed or served on or before the Objection Deadline as required by the Initial Recognition Order, nor have any objections or responses been received by the Foreign Representative’s counsel as of the filing of the COC.
- x. The Foreign Representative has demonstrated, and its showings are verified by the findings of the Canadian Court, that (i) the Debtors are unable to obtain the requisite financing on an unsecured basis (even if such unsecured credit were to be a super-priority administrative expense), (ii) the Interim Borrowing Obligations and DIP Facility are necessary to preserve the Property of the Debtors, (iii) the terms of the Interim Borrowing Obligations and DIP Facility are fair, reasonable, and adequate, given the circumstances and in the Debtors’ reasonable business judgment, (iv) the Debtors are unable to obtain credit that does not have the priority set forth in the ARIIO, (v) the terms of the Interim Borrowing Obligations and the DIP Facility were entered into in good faith by the Debtors and the Interim Lender and DIP Lender, as applicable, (vi) and the Interim Lender would not have extended the Interim Borrowings and the DIP Lender will not extend the DIP Facility, in each case without the protections contained (1) in the Provisional Relief Order, and (2) in this Order, as applicable.

- y. CIBC, as secured lender under the Existing Credit Facility (as defined in the ARIO) (such facility, without accounting for any Interim Borrowings pursuant to the Interim CCAA Order, the “Pre-petition Facility” and CIBC, as secured lender under the Pre-Petition Facility, the “Existing Secured Lender”), is entitled to adequate protection of its interests in the collateral securing the indebtedness under the Pre-petition Facility (the “Prepetition Collateral”) from any diminution in value from the use, sale or lease of the Prepetition Collateral and the imposition of the automatic stay, including the use of their “cash collateral” (within the meaning of section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the “Cash Collateral”) and the enforcement of any of the Charges against any of the Prepetition Collateral. Accordingly, the Existing Secured Lender is entitled to, and the Debtors have agreed in their reasonable business judgment to provide, adequate protection as set forth in this Order, which terms and conditions are fair and reasonable and were negotiated in good faith and at arm’s-length.
- z. Each of the injunctions contained in this Order (i) is within the Court’s jurisdiction, (ii) is essential to the success of the Debtors’ restructuring in the Canadian Proceedings, (iii) confers material benefits on, and is in the best interests of, the Debtors and their creditors, and (iv) is important to the overall objectives of such restructuring.
- aa. The relief granted hereby is necessary and appropriate, in the interests of the public and international comity, consistent with the public policy of the United States, and warranted under 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 362, 363, 364, 365(e), 1507, 1509, 1517, 1520, 1521 and 1522, and will not cause hardship to creditors of the Debtors or other parties in interests that is not outweighed by the benefits of granting that relief.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Canadian Proceedings are granted recognition with respect to each of the Debtors as a foreign main proceeding pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 1517(a) and 1517(b)(1).

2. Ted Baker Canada is recognized as the “foreign representative” as defined in section 101(24) of the Bankruptcy Code in respect of the Canadian Proceedings.

3. The Debtors and the Foreign Representative are granted all relief set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 1520(a).

4. The relief granted in the ARIO is hereby recognized and given full force and effect on a final basis with respect to the Debtors and the US Property, including, without limitation, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to (a) the DIP Facility and repayment of the Interim Borrowings Obligations pursuant to, and consistent with, the ARIO and the DIP Term Sheet, and the indemnity and releases contained therein, (b) the KERP any non-financing components of the ARIO that involve the use of the US Property other than in the ordinary course of business under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (c) the authority to pay, withhold, or deduct any taxes, levies, duties or other charges owing to Governmental Authorities (as that term is defined in the DIP Term Sheet) in the United States consistent with the DIP Term Sheet and the ARIO.

5. The Debtors are authorized to implement the KERP and obtain financing in accordance with and in the amounts set forth in the ARIO. In connection therewith, the Court recognizes and shall enforce (a) the KERP Charge, as defined in the ARIO and as applied to the US Property, as security for amounts payable to the Key Employees in accordance with and pursuant to the KERP, subject to the priorities, terms and conditions of the ARIO; and (b) the Interim Lender’s Charge and the DIP Lender’s Charge, each as defined in the ARIO, which applies to all of the US Property, subject to the priorities, terms, and conditions of the ARIO, to secure current and future amounts outstanding under the Debtors' Interim Borrowing Obligations and the DIP Facility.

6. The claims of the DIP Lender under the DIP Facility to the extent of the DIP Lender's Charge and the claims of the Interim Lender with respect to the Interim Borrowing Obligations to the extent of the Interim Lender's Charge shall be secured by super-priority liens in all US Property (collectively, the "DIP Liens") and (to the extent that claims against the Debtors are adjudicated or paid within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States) shall be allowed super-priority administrative expense claims against the Debtors with priority over all other liens in the US Property or claims of any kind against the Debtors (to the extent that claims against the Debtors are adjudicated or paid within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States), now existing or hereafter arising, subject only to, and consistent with, the rank and priorities set forth in the ARIO, including specifically paragraph 48.

7. Within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court, this Order shall be sufficient and conclusive notice and evidence of the grant, validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens without the necessity of executing any guarantee, security or other document or filing or recording this Order or any financing statement, mortgage, or other instrument or document which may otherwise be required under the law of any jurisdiction; provided that the Debtors are authorized to execute, and the Interim Lender, DIP Lender and Existing Secured Lender may, within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court, file or record, any financing statements, mortgages, other instruments or any other document to further evidence the liens authorized, granted, and perfected hereby and by the ARIO.

8. To the extent this Court's approval is required, the Debtors are hereby authorized and empowered to execute and deliver the Credit Documents, the DIP Term Sheet and the Definitive Documents, as applicable, and the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to pay and perform all of their indebtedness, interest, fees, liabilities, and obligations to the Interim Lender and DIP Lender due under and pursuant to the Interim Borrowing Obligations, DIP Facility, the DIP Term Sheet, the Credit Documents, and the Definitive Documents and ARIO including, but not limited to, the fees and expenses of the Interim Lender's and DIP Lender's Canadian and United States counsel, and other advisors, as and when the same become due and are to be performed, notwithstanding any other provision of this Order and without any further order of this Court.

9. The Existing Secured Lender is entitled to adequate protection of its interests in the Prepetition Collateral from any diminution in value resulting from the use, sale, or lease of the Prepetition Collateral including the use of Cash Collateral, or the imposition of the automatic stay. Accordingly, the Existing Secured Lender is (a) granted valid, binding, enforceable and perfected liens (the "Adequate Protection Liens") in all US Property and (to the extent that claims against the Debtors are adjudicated or paid within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States) shall be allowed super-priority administrative expense claims against the Debtors to secure the claims of the Existing Secured Lender under the Pre-petition Facility to the extent of the Existing Secured Lender Protections (the "Adequate Protection Claims") equal to any diminution in the value of their interests in the Prepetition Collateral subsequent to the date of the filing of the Petitions resulting from the use of the use, sale or lease of the Prepetition Collateral, consistent with, the rank and priorities set forth in the ARIO, including specifically paragraph 48 and (b) entitled to receive payment for, and the Debtors are authorized to pay, the reasonable and documented fees and expenses incurred by the Existing Secured Lender's Canadian and U.S. counsel and other advisors, whether incurred before or after the Petition Date. Nothing herein shall prejudice, impair, or otherwise affect the rights of the Existing Secured Lender to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of their adequate protection rights.

10. The terms of the Interim Borrowing Obligations and the DIP Facility have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's-length between the Debtors and the Interim Lender and DIP Lender, respectively. Any financial accommodations made to the Debtors by the Interim Lender or the DIP Lender in connection with and pursuant to the Interim Borrowing Obligations or DIP Facility (each pursuant to, and consistent with, the Initial CCAA Order and ARIO, as applicable) shall be deemed to have been made by the Interim Lender or the DIP Lender, as applicable, in good faith, as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, pursuant to sections 364(e), 1519(a)(3), 1521(a)(7), and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code hereby applies for the benefit of the Interim Lender and the DIP Lender, and the validity of the indebtedness, and the DIP Liens and the priority thereof pursuant to the ARIO, shall not be affected by any reversal or modification of this Order on appeal.

11. No action, inaction or acquiescence by the Interim Lender, the DIP Lender or Existing Secured Lender, including, without limitation, funding the Debtors' ongoing operations consistent with this Order and the ARIO, shall be deemed to be or shall be considered as evidence of any alleged consent by the Interim Lender, DIP Lender or Existing Secured Lender to a charge against US Property pursuant to sections 506(c), 552(b) or 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. To the extent consistent with the ARIO and the CCAA, with respect to the US Property, the Interim Lender, DIP Lender, and Existing Secured Lender shall not be subject in any way whatsoever to (i) the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any similar doctrine with respect to the collateral, (ii) subject to the Administration Charge, section 506(c), which the Debtors waive with respect to the Interim Lender, DIP Lender, and Existing Secured Lender and (iii) the “equities of the case” exception found within section 552(b).

12. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1520(a)(1), the automatic stay authorized by 11 U.S.C. § 362 shall apply with respect to the Debtors and the US Property; provided however:

(a) the foregoing relief shall not abridge or modify, and shall rather in all respects be subject to, the rights and protections of the Interim Lender, the DIP Lender and Existing Secured Lender as provided by this Order, the ARIO, and/or any other order of the Canadian Court in the Canadian Proceedings;

(b) the automatic stay shall be subject to all exceptions set forth in sections 362 and other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code; and

(c) the stay provided by this Order shall not be applicable to any act that is permitted, and that is not stayed, by Orders entered in the Canadian Proceeding.

13. The Foreign Representative is authorized to operate the business of the Debtors that is the subject of the Canadian Proceedings and is granted (and is authorized to exercise) the rights and powers of a trustee in a bankruptcy in the United States during these chapter 15 cases to the extent provided by 11 U.S.C. § 1520(a)(3). The right to transfer, encumber, or otherwise dispose of the Debtors’ assets in the United States hereby is restricted pursuant to the terms of the ARIO and any other order entered in the Canadian Proceedings.

14. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1521(a)(5), the administration, realization, and distribution of the US Property is entrusted to the Foreign Representative and the Foreign Representative is hereby established as the exclusive representative of the Debtors in the United States, subject to the priorities, terms, and conditions specified in the ARIO.

15. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 1521(a)(6) and 1521(a)(7), all prior relief granted to the Debtors or the Foreign Representative by this Court pursuant to section 1519(a) or 1521 of the Bankruptcy Code shall be extended and that certain Provisional Relief Order shall remain in full force and effect.

16. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1521(a)(7), 11 U.S.C. § 365(e) shall apply such that no provision in (or right or obligation under) an executory contract or unexpired lease may be terminated or modified solely because of a provision in such contract or lease that is conditioned on the insolvency of the Debtors, the filing of the Canadian Proceedings, or the filing of these Chapter 15 Cases.

17. The Foreign Representative, the Debtors and their respective agents are authorized to serve or provide any notices required under the Bankruptcy Rules or the local rules of this Court.

18. No action taken by the Foreign Representative, the Debtors, or their respective successors, agents, representatives, advisors, or counsel in preparing, disseminating, applying for, implementing, or otherwise acting in furtherance of or in connection with the Canadian Proceedings, this Order, these Chapter 15 Cases, or any adversary proceeding herein, or any further proceeding commenced hereunder, shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of the rights or benefits afforded such persons under 11 U.S.C. §§ 306 and 1510.

19. Subject to the ARIO and DIP Term Sheet, nothing in this Order shall be deemed to waive, release, extinguish or estop the Foreign Representative or the Debtors from asserting, or otherwise impair or diminish, any right, claim, cause of action, defense, offset or counterclaim in respect of any asset or interest with respect to, among other things, the License Agreements with ABG, any lease for real property, the warehousing of any property of Debtors or Prepetition Collateral, or otherwise.

20. Notwithstanding any provision in the Bankruptcy Rules to the contrary, including, but not limited to, Bankruptcy Rules 7062 and 1018, (i) this Order shall be effective immediately and enforceable upon its entry; (ii) the Foreign Representative is not subject to any stay in the implementation, enforcement or realization of the relief granted in this Order; and (iii) the Foreign Representative and the Debtors are authorized and empowered, and may in their discretion and without further delay, take any action and perform any act necessary to implement and effectuate the terms of this Order.

21. A copy of this Order shall be served (i) within three business days of entry of this Order, by electronic mail to the extent email addresses are available and otherwise by United States mail, overnight or first-class postage prepaid, upon the Notice Parties (as defined in the Order Scheduling Recognition Hearing and Specifying Form and Manner of Service of Notice [Docket No. 19]), the Office of the United States Trustee, and such other entities as the Court may direct and (ii) by posting on the Monitor's web site at www.alvarezmarsal.com/TBRetail. Such service shall constitute good and sufficient service and adequate notice for all purposes.

22. The Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to: (i) the enforcement, amendment or modification of this Order; (ii) any requests for additional relief or any adversary proceeding brought in or through these Chapter 15 Cases; and (iii) any request by an entity for relief from the provisions of this Order, for cause shown, as to any of the foregoing, and provided the same is properly commenced and within the jurisdiction of this Court.
